Subject Index

A
American College Personnel Association, 61
American College Testing Organization, 64
American Council of Trustees and Alumni, 2
Amherst College, 18
Association of American Colleges, 28, 29, 31
Association of American Colleges and Universities, 1, 8, 34, 35, 37, 46, 47, 53, 54, 59, 65, 69

B
Bowdoin College, 18
Brown University, 19

C
Capstone courses and projects, 58
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 27–29, 70
Closing of the American Mind, The, 29
Cocurricular education, recommendations for, 72
Cocurricular educators, 61–63
College of Saint Benedict, 56
College: The Undergraduate Experience in America, 28
Collegiate Assessment of Academic Proficiency, 64
Collegiate Learning Assessment, 64
Columbia College, 25
Columbia University, 16, 40, 46
Colonial college era, 13–16; colleges designed for upper classes, 14; focused on imagining and founding New World, 14; liberal education in, 15–16
Common curriculum, 55–56
Common learning, 8–9
Communal well-being, 36–37; democratic outcomes, 36; global learning, 37
Competency-framed model, of general education, 44–46
Core curriculum, 9
Core-distributional model, of general education, 48–49
Core-distribution-competency model, of general education, 49
Core model, of general education, 40–42

D
DePaul University, 48–49
Distribution model, of general education, 42–44

E
Educational leaders, recommendations for, 71
Effective general education: central coherent thread, need for, 53; cocurricular educators, advancement of, 61–63; course design, 58–59; faculty development and, 60; faculty rewards and, 61; good practice in, characteristics of, 51–54; innovations for, 55–58; institution-specific general education, 52; integrative thinking and design, 53–54; intentionality for, 52–53; overview, 51; support and sustainability practices, 60–63
E-portfolio, 56–57
Ethics Common Seminar, 56

G
General education: concerns, 3–4; criticism, 3; effective, 51–67. See also Effective general education; evaluative interpretations, 2–3; expansion and conflict, 16–21; foundation of, 13–16; history of, 12–32; industrialization and mediation, 24; interconnection with higher education’s purpose, 1–4; meaning of, 6–9; overview, 1; rapid growth and new expectations, 24–27; recommendations for, 70–72; and societal changes during 1977–2005, 27–30; sustaining and renewing, 67; as term of endurance, 69–70
General Education in a Free Society, 36
George Mason University, 39
Global learning, 37
Great Books, 23

H
Hart Associates, 35
Harvard College 1643, 14
Harvard University Committee, 8, 10, 24–25, 36, 69
Higher Education for American Democracy: A Report, 25
Higher Learning Association, 3, 38
Higher Learning in America, The, 23
50 Hours, 29

I
Illiberal Education, 29
Industrialization, and general education, 24
Inherited functions, 33–39; communal well-being, 36–37; institutional purposes for general education, 37–39; student learning, 33–36
Innovations in general education, 55–58; Capstone courses and projects, 58; common curriculum, 55–56; common text programs, 55; e-portfolio, 56–57; learning communities, 57
Institutional assessment, 63–67; beyond classroom and curriculum, 65–66; challenges in, 64–65; expectations for, 64; goals, clarity of, 66; limitations of, 65
Institutional identity and mission, recommendations for, 71
Institutional purposes, for general education, 37–39; institutional mission and identity, 38–39; integration, 38
Integrity in the College Curriculum, 28
Involvement in Learning, 28

L
Learning communities, 57
Liberal arts, 7–8
Liberal education, 8; in colonial college era, 15–16; Yale Report and, 17–18
Lumina Foundation, 74

K
Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3, 39
Missions of the College Curriculum, 27
Models of general education, 39–50; competency-framed model, 44–46; core-distributional model, 48–49; core-distribution-competency model, 49; core model, 40–42; distribution model, 42–44; thematic strands, 47–48; theoretical models, 39–46; trends and variations on, 46–49
Morrill Act of 1862, The, 21

N
National Commission on Excellence in Education, 30
| National Institute on Education, 28 |
| National Leadership Council for Liberal Education and America’s Promise, 6, 34, 35, 37, 53–54, 69 |
| National Student Clearinghouse, 4, 41 |
| New England Association of Schools and Colleges, 3 |
| New England’s First Fruits, 14 |
| North Central Association, 3 |

P

President’s Commission on Higher Education, 8

Public policy, recommendations for, 70–71

R

S

Seattle Pacific University, 49

Servicemen’s Readjustment Act of 1944, 24

Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, 3

Stanford University, 44–45

Student learning, 33–36; employment preparation, 35–36; ethics and meaning, 34–35; holistic education, 35; intellectual proficiencies, 33–34

Substance of Two Reports, The, 18

T

Tennessee Board of Regents System, 44

Theoretical frameworks, recommendations for, 71–72

Theoretical models, of general education, 39–46; competency-framed model, 44–46; core model, 40–42; distribution model, 42–44

To Reclaim a Legacy, 29

U

University of Minnesota, 14

W

WAYS. See Ways of Thinking/Ways of Doing (WAYS)

Ways of Thinking/Ways of Doing (WAYS), 45

Western Association of Schools and Colleges, 3

Wright State University, 55

Y

Yale Report of 1828, 17–18

Yale University, 42–43

---

Realizing General Education 91