Amott, T., 298
Ancestors, appreciation for, 125
Anderson, G., 31
Andolsen, B. H., 113–114
Anger, 36
Ani, M., 123, 124, 320
Anti-Defamation League, 334
Anxiety, 127–128
Anzaldua, G., 66
Ap p e a l, t e c h n i q u e o f: t o a u t h e n -
ticity, 110–111; to extremes, 111; to progress, 110; to self, 110
Approval seeking, 154
Baker, P., 358
Baldwin, J., 121
Banfield, E. C., 107
Banking concept, of education,
50–51
Barcham, M., 88
Baumgartner, L., 102, 105–106,
365
Beauvoir, S. de, 358
Bias, 75
Bilingual education, 62
Bivens, D., 219, 220
Black Americans. See
African Americans
Black feminism, 355–364. See also Women’s rights
Black Ice (Cary), 314–315
Black studies, 344
Blood memory, 83
Bollis, T. S., 73
Booker T. Washington and the Adult Education Movement
(Denton), 180
Border intellectual, 212
Borunda, R., 28–29, 31, 32–42,
95
Bowser, B. P., 134
Boylan, W., 284, 290
The Breakfast Club (film), 315
Britain, 14, 202
Bronze Booklets, 180
Brookfield, S. D., 1, 4–5, 13–16,
47, 159, 180, 181, 319, 324,
343, 358, 364–371
Brown Berets, 62
Brown v. Board of Education lawsuit, 177
Burroughs, N., 113
Bush, G. W., 2, 335
Butler, J., 239
Caffarella, R., 355
Cannon, L. W., 359
Cantonese immigrant, 232
Capitalism, 251, 364
Capodilupo, C. M., 366
Caribbean people: culture of,
14–15; as U.S. immigrants,
201–205, 207–212
Carroll, G., 318
Carruthers, J. H., 344
Cary, L., 314–315
Center for Research on Women,
359
Centering, 323
Central America, 39
Central Intelligence Agency,
355
Cervero, R. M., 5, 74, 103,
105, 133, 136, 137–139,
140–141, 142, 157, 181,
188, 189, 195, 211, 246,
251, 296
Chan, C. S., 251
Change, difficulty of, 334–336
Chávez, C., 63
Chinese Americans, 170,
231–235, 237, 298
Christian, M., 318
Christianity, 182
Chu, S., 335
Cigarette smoking, 92
Citizenship school, 237,
238–241
Civil Rights Act (1964), 114
Civil rights movement: authors’
experiences with, 8, 62, 135–136; changes resulting from, 189–190, 206–207; critique of liberalism in, 178; effects of racism on, 113; Hispanics in, 62; immigrants and, 236–237; interest convergence and, 177–178; legislation evolving from, 114, 190; seeds of White supremacy and, 107

Clark, S., 113, 240
Clark, S. M., 57
Clark, S. P., 249

Classroom environment: dynamics in, 74; effects of racism on, 114; effects of stereotypes on, 250; feminist studies and, 72, 74, 79; for giving voice, 248; student participation and, 360; to support African-centered paradigm, 322; for transformational learning, 357–358

Clinton, H., 335
Cobb, A., 37
Coconut, 36
Collaborative inquiry, 253
Collective community: in African-centered paradigm, 323–324; of Mexico people, 37–38

College admissions, 11
Collins, P., 173, 252, 274
Colonization, 32–34, 39; Afro-Caribbean identity and, 201–205, 207–212; bipolar model of, 89; commonalities of, 88–89; effects of, 202; of Maori people, 87–88, 89
Color blindness: from critical race theory perspective, 176, 178, 179; and critiques of liberalism, 178; definition of, 192, 247; description of, 76; effects of, 113; racial language and, 278; in White racial consciousness development, 108, 109, 312
Columbus, C., 31, 32–34
Commercialism, 178
Commission on Professors of Adult Education (CPAE), xxvii–xxviii
Commitment, 311, 312, 313
Communalism, 320
Communism, 232
Communities of practice, 253–254
Community activism: activist scholarship and, 63; authors’ experiences with, 62, 63; citizenship schools and, 241–242; immigrants and, 237; versus professorship, 98
Community project, 233, 349
Community support, 225–226, 301
Community-based organization, 237
Compassion, 91, 129
Competency, 114
Complementarity, 319–321, 322
Concentration camp, 298, 299
Conceptual disobedience, 268
Confronting Racism and Sexism (Colin & Hayes), 350
Connections, discourse of, 110
Conscientization, 355, 357
Constitution, U.S., 177, 206
Constructivist pedagogy, 222–223
Contact stage, of White identity development, 107–108, 309
Control, of life, 31–32
Conversation, See Language: Racism, discourse about
Cook, D. A., 203, 205
Cooper, A. J., 173
Cooperrider, D. L., 236, 241
Copp, M., 358
Corcoran, M., 57
Cornish, L. T., 269, 307
Corporate social responsibility, 120
Counselor, school, 59
Counterstory: authors’ experience with, 14–15; definition of, 14; description of, 176
Crabtree, R. D., 73
Cranton, P., 249, 302
Credibility, 114, 217, 246
Crenshaw, K., 168, 174, 178, 190, 193, 274, 280
Crisis, 311, 312, 313
Critical Democrat, 112–113
Critical discourse analysis, 276–277
Critical humility: challenge of, 152; definition of, 147; questions to guide, 147–148, 150–152; rationale for, 155; reflection-in-action and, 148–155; scope of, 156
Critical incident questionnaire, 369–370
Critical legal scholars, 174–175
Critical professionalism, 212
Critical race theory (CRT): in adult education, 179–181, 212; versus Africentrism, 181; applications of, 190–191; central construct of, 174; components of, 168; versus critical white studies, 247; in curriculum, 212; definition of, 168; description of, 174, 175–178; father of, 175; foundation of, 247; immigrants and, 235–237; initial publications about, 175, 190–191; origins of, 174–175, 190; permanence of racism and, 169; primary tenets of, 168, 176; professional development in, 212; queer crit and, 189–195; SASHA model and, 223

Critical Race Theory: The Key Writings That Formed the Movement (Crenshaw et al.), 175

Critical reflection: adult educators’ engagement in, 5; in English education, 47–48, 50–51; importance of, 51; in making of this text, 1–2; public’s desire for, 3; in transformational learning, 249, 356; by White adult educators, 14, 115; for White identity development, 314, 315

Critical theory, 174

Critical thinking, 41

Critical white studies (CWS), 247, 253

Cross, B., 284, 287

CRT. See Critical race theory

cuádraz, G. H., 55, 56

Cultural Knapsack activity, 49–51

Culture: Americanization and, 33–36; of Caribbean people, 14–15; definition of, 288–289; denial of, by indigenous people, 85; diversity of, within racial groups, 220; English class activities about, 48–51; graduate students’ knowledge of, 40; of Maori people, 85, 89–90; in Peruvian society, 231, 232; racial socialization strategies regarding, 288–289, 290; survival of, 87–88; value of, in education, 38

Cunningham, P., xxviii, 113, 137–138

Curriculum: to address Asian American needs, 300–301; in African-centered paradigm, 322, 345–346; in Caribbean history, 209; in citizenship schools, 240; critical theory in, 212; politics of, 363; theory’s connection to, 84; in transformational learning, 357

CWS. See Critical white studies

Cynic, 112

Darder, A., 247

Darwin, C., 125

Data collection, 324, 369–370

Davidson, A. L., 36

Davis, A., 368

de los Santos, E., 57

DeCuir, A., 175

Dehumanization, 348

Dei, G. I. S., 86, 89, 286

Delgado, R., 119, 176, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 238, 274, 280

Democracy, 237–238

DeNavas-Walt, C., 246

Denial, 113, 121

Denton, V. L., 180

Deportation, 232–233

Descartes, R., 125

Deviant behavior, 193

Dialect, 277

Dichotomous thinking, 320

Differential racialization, 238

Dillard, C. B., 73

Diller, J. V., 310, 311

Discourse, racial. See Racism, discourse about

Discrimination, 203–206. See also Prejudice

Disdaining, 146, 147

Disintegration stage, of White identity development, 108, 309

Disorienting dilemma, 356

Distanced engagement with self, 111

Diversity: in African American scholarship, 367–368; of Asian Americans, 297; giving voice and, 354; in multicultural literature, 162; unity in, 320; in the workplace, 120–121, 126–129

Dixson, A., 174, 175, 176, 177, 179, 190, 191

Donnor, J., 178

Double consciousness: authors’ experiences with, 268; description of, 44–45

Douglass, F., 181

D-Q University, 37, 39

Dropout rate, 67

Du Gay, P., 90

Dualistic mind-set, 320, 321

Durie, M., 88

Dyer, R., 245, 247

E

Earth, element of, 37

Eastern spiritual tradition, 123

Ebonics, 277, 288, 289

Economic issues, 238

Edelman, M., 275

Education: Americanization and, 34, 36, 37–38; authors’ experiences with, 7–8, 9, 10, 11–13, 36, 38; banking concept of, 50–51; in Caribbean countries, 207–210; challenges of, 67–68; critical race theory in, 190; critique of liberalism in, 178; influence of perceptual patterns in, 205–206; limited opportunities for minorities in, 59; need for racial discourse in, 57; process of racism in, 208–209. See also Higher education

Educational equality, 195–196

Ego, 127

El Nasser, H., 203

Elise, S., 286, 290

Elitism, 208, 209

Emancipatory learning tool, 222

Empathy, 110

Empowerment: of faculty, 79; giving voice and, 354

Engaged pedagogy, 78–79

English class: critical approach to, 47–48; racial literacy in, 44–53

Enrich-me discourse, 110

Enthusiasm, for teaching, 96–97

Epistemology: definition of, 123; White conception of, 123–124, 366–367

Espinoza-Herold, M., 57

Essay, 47

Essentialist racism, 108

Eurocentrism, 320–322, 324–325

European-American Collaborative Challenging Whiteness, 102, 103–104, 145, 146, 147, 247, 365

Exotic looks, 90

Experience: to address internalized racism, 224–225;
connecting theory to, 141–142; giving voice and, 280–281, 295; learning from, 128–129; queer crit and, 193–194; realms of, 284, 290

F

Face, 111

Faces at the Bottom of the Well: The Permanence of Racism (Bell), 52, 175, 176

Facilitation of learning, 358

Faculty: authority of, 74, 75, 362; in citizenship schools, 240; competition among, 64, 65; complaints of racism by, 64–65; critical professionalism of, 212; critical reflection of, 5; embedded racist consciousness in, 13; filing of grievances by, 64–65; importance of racial discourse to, 113–115; internalized racism of, 218; needs of, 78; positionality self-assessment of, 189; in real conversation in real time strategy, 280; recruitment of, 137; reflection on homosexuality by, 187–188; responsibilities of, 40; role of, in critical English education, 48; undoing of miseducation by, 40–41

Faculty, African American: challenges of, 77; empowerment of, 79; feminist pedagogy and, 72–80; internalized racism of, 222; internalized racism strategies for, 220–227; number of, 51; people’s assumptions about, 44–46, 51; racist language regarding, 273–274; requirements of, 366; scholarly work of, 161–163; self-reflection of, 80; stress of, 318; students’ challenging of, 75; students’ perceptions of, 114; tenure of, 114; White faculty’s gratitude to, 160–161;

Faculty, White: authors’ experiences as, 135–142; challenges of, 139; conceptualization of Whiteness by, 107–113; credibility of, 246; critical reflection by, 14; disengagement of, 97; freedom of choice for, 141; gratitude of, 160–161; importance of racial discussions for, 113–115; inclusion of, in book about racism, 102; need of, to be correct, 163; perpetuation of White privilege by, 146–147; recognition of achievements of, 113; as representatives for African initiatives, 317–318; responsibilities of, to challenge racism, 141–142; 251–255; students’ perceptions of, 114; tenure of, 137; use of minority faculty’s scholarly work by, 161–163; White privilege and, 245–247

Failure, 164

False disclosure, 153–154

False humility, 154

Family: discourse, in White people’s conversations about race, 110; importance of, in academic achievement, 60, 61; as metaphor in adult education, 182–183; versus theory, 92; views of poverty by, 60

Fanon, F., 176

Farahmandpur, R., 212

Farmworker: authors’ experiences as, 58–59, 63; civil rights actions for, 63; in Peruvian culture, 232

Feagin, J. R., 205, 206, 207

Fear, 232–233

Feminism. See Black feminism; Women’s rights

Feminist pedagogy: African American faculty and, 72–80; definition of, 73; goals of, 73; guides for, 73–74; perspectives on, 73–74

Feminist scholarship: classroom instruction and, 72; definition of, 73; engaged pedagogy and, 79; ethnicity of students in, 72; importance of the home environment in, 80; otherness in, 66; perspectives on, 73–74; women of color and, 74–79

Fifth World, 39

Finding Forrester (film), 315

Fire, element of, 37

First Nation people, 88–89

Fixed reality, 33–34

Fix-it discourse, 110

Flowers, D., 268–269, 271, 278

Flowers, R., 89

Fone, B.R.S., 193

Fong, T., 298, 301

Ford, B., 269, 283

Foreclosure, 311–312

Frankenberg, R., 106, 107, 136, 138, 156–157

Freedom Road (Peterson), 180

Freedom Writers (film), 315

Freeman, A., 178
History: of adult education, 251; of Asian Americans, 298–299; Caribbean curriculum of, 209; in citizenship school, 239; importance of racism in, 3; as it affects adult education, 5; queer crit and, 193; religious schisms in, 182; value of unveiling personal, 16

Holder, A.M.B., 366

Holder, E., 335

Hollenshead, C., 321

Homeland security, 335

Homosexuality, 110, 169; authors’ experiences with, 195–196; critical race theory and, 189–191; lack of discourse about race and, 188; perception of, as mental illness, 192, 193; in racial discourse, 169; of students of color, 187–189. See also Queer crit

Honesty, 279

hooks, b., 71–72, 73, 74–75, 77, 78, 79, 85–86, 87, 161, 219, 274, 279, 368

Hope, 263–264

Hopi tribe, 39

Hord, F. L., 348

Horton, M., 113, 124

Humanist perspective, 173

Humiliation, 225

Humility, 129, 154

Hunt, R. G., 134

Hunter, C. D., 203, 204, 205

Hutchinson, D. L., 196

Hybrid identity, 89

Hypothesis testing, 125

Hyten, K., 106, 107, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113

Identity: of Afro-Caribbeans, 201–205, 207–212; authors’ struggle with, 85–87; colonization and, 87–88; critical humility and, 150, 151; cultural hybridity and, 89–90; factors influencing, 242; of immigrants, 232, 235–236, 239; influence of, on perception of discrimination, 205–206; of Maori people, 87–88, 89; of multiple perspectives, 233; one-dimensional, 196; ongoing process of, 136–137; rightness and, 127; situational nature of, 233–234; transgressions of, 89; of White people, 107–108, 248

Identity achievement, 313–314

Identity diffusion, 311

Identity foreclosure, 311–312

Identity formation, racial, 309–315

Identity status, 311

Imel, S., 50

Immersion/emersion stage, of White identity development, 108, 310

Immigrant, 138, 202; in Asian American history, 298; challenges of, 238; citizenship process of, 238–241; civil rights of, 236–237; community action and, 237; critical race theory and, 235–237; government policies regarding, 238; labels for, 241; positional identity of, 237; racial identity issues of, 232, 235–236, 239; retained sense of identity of, 239; social constructionism and, 235, 236. See also specific immigrant groups

Imperialism. See Colonization

Imus, S., 50

Inclusiveness: citizenship school and, 238; in higher education classrooms, 41–42; for Maori students, 91; precedent for, 41; in racial literacy development, 50–51

Indigeneity, 88

Indigenous people: connection of land to, 84, 88; denying of culture by, 85; importance of theory to, 84; who break tribal rules, 84. See also specific ethnic groups

Indigenous spirituality, 123

Inpowerment, 330

Institutional racism, 109

Instructional methods: to address racist language, 278–280, 287–289; in African-centered paradigm, 322; to develop racial literacy, 48–51; to examine paradigms, 287–289; for giving voice, 355; politics and, 363–364; in racial development process, 308, 314–315; for student participation, 360; for transformational learning, 252–253. See also specific methods

Insult, 275–276

Intellectualizer, 112

Intention, of racial acts, 225

Interest convergence, 177–178

Internalized racism. See Racism, internalized

Internment policy, 298, 299

Interracial relationship, 136, 140

Italian immigrant, 138

J

Jacobs, D., 240

Jamaican people, 204

James, C., 240

James, C.L.R., 209–210

Japanese Americans, 298, 299

Jarvis, P., 113

Jenkins, E., 240

Jensen, G., 113

Jim Crow laws, 114

Johns, T., 170, 217, 220, 225, 260

Johnson, B., 240

Johnson, L. B., 107

Jones, J. M., 202

Jones, W. R., 348

JUMP Street Odyssey activity, 49

Ka’ai, T., 88

Kambon, K. K., 319, 321

Karenga, M., 348

Karumanchery, L. L., 86, 89, 286

Karumanchery-Luik, N., 86, 89

Kasl, E., 253

Kassworm, C., 50

King Jr., M. L., 178, 255

Kitchen table dialogue, 333

Knapsack activity, 49–51

Kong, L., 170, 231, 233, 239, 242, 260

Ku Klux Klan, 106–107

Kuhn, T., 122

Kumashiro, K. K., 188, 194

L

Ladson-Billings, G., 168, 174, 175, 176, 177, 181, 187, 190–191, 192

LaDuke, W., 84

Lakota people, 39, 84

Land: indigenous people’s connection to, 84, 88; in Maori culture, 88, 90

Land of the Cranes (Salt Lake City), 39

Language: assumptions about, 295; in bilingual education, 62; deficiencies of, 277; giving voice through, 273; covert use of, 277–278; critical discourse analysis of, 276–277; effects of, on relationships, 273; instructional strategies to address, 278–280, 287–289; in Maori classrooms, 86; of parents, for academic achievement, 61; power and, 274, 276–277; purpose of, 276; references of "others" in, 272–273; silence and, 277–278; social construction of, 273
Lather, P. A., 79
Latin America, 231–235
Lau v. Nichols lawsuit, 62
Lavia, J., 212
Lavie, S., 89
Lawrence, B., 83, 85, 89–90, 190, 193, 274, 280
Leadership, 323
Learning: from experience, 128–129; teacher and student positionality and, 189; for transformation, 248–249
Learning anxiety, 127–128
Learning community, 279
Learning style, 355
Learning-within-relationship process, 253
Lee, C., 246
Lee, J. S., 348
Lee, M., 73, 74, 189, 269, 276, 278, 295, 297, 302
Lee, S., 222
Leets, L., 276
Legal scholarship, 176
Legal status, 239
Legislation: from the civil rights movement, 114, 190; effects of, on racism, 272; regarding bilingual education, 62; regarding women's rights, 114; related to immigration, 239
Leonardo, Z., 136
Lesbianism. See Homosexuality
Liberalism, 175, 176, 178
Libratory educational strategy, 319, 331, 362
Librarian, 83
Lifelong Learning Conference, 90
Lincoln, Y., 122
Lipari, L., 247, 252
Lipsky, S., 218, 219, 225, 226
Listening, 41, 279
Literacy exam, 240
Literary work, 47, 162, 314–315
Literature, scholarly, 113, 114; assumptions about African Americans', 367–368; for Black feminism instruction, 361–362; community involvement's link to, 63; in critical race theory, 175, 190–191; growth of, in African American topics, 296; importance of, to credibility, 217; lack of, in Asian American arenas, 296; to reflect Asian American experiences, 302; in transformational learning, 249, 252–253; White faculty's use of minority faculty's, 161–163
Liveright, A., 113
Locke, A., 5, 113, 249
Loewen, J., 31
Love, 92, 95, 129
Lucas, S. R., 134
Lynch, E. W., 61
M
Maher, F. A., 73, 79, 187, 189
Mainstream ideology, 192–193
Mainstream realm, of experience, 284
Malcolm X, 274
Manglitz, E., 103, 133, 135–137, 139–140, 157, 180
Maori people, 83; assimilation and, 87–88, 89; authors' experience as, 85–87, 89, 90; colonization of, 87–88, 89; cultural hybridity of, 89–90; denying of culture by, 85; history of, 88; importance of theory to, 84; land's connection to, 88, 90; language instruction of, 86; pedagogy of, 91; racial discourse involving, 85; smoking among, 92; stories of, 88, 92; transgressions of identity of, 89; tribal rules of, 84
Marcia, J. E., 308, 311, 312, 315
Mark-it discourse, 110
Martin, D., 240
Martin, L., 278
Martin, M. J., 188, 189
Martin, P., 298
Mass, J. H., 238
Massey, G., 318
Material possessions, 40
Mathematics, 307
Matsumoto, M., 190, 193, 274, 280
Matthei, J., 298
Matthies, R. K., 204
Mazama, A., 223, 224
McAdoo, H. P., 290
McDaniel, M., 89
McIntosh, P., 138, 363
McLaren, P., 206, 351
McWright, L., 290
Medicine wheel: description of, 37–38; in higher education instruction, 40
Meditation, 323
Mekoro, M., 299–300; effects of, 299–300; exploration of, 45
Mojab, S., 287
Moll, L., 67
Monaghan, C., 170–171, 245, 251, 253, 260
Monaghan, P., 174
Moorfield, J., 88
Moral guidance, 182
Moral imagination, 279
Moral support, 61
Moratorium, 312–313
Morrell, E., 47, 48
Mosley, S., 88
Motivation, 91
Moule, J., 310, 311
Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social, 63
Multicultural gender studies, 74, 76, 77
Multicultural movement, 178
Multimedia materials, 289, 315, 361–362
Multiple-group inquiry into whiteness, 253
Mundane extreme environmental stress, 318
Murray, C., 107
Music, 322
Muuss, R. E., 312, 313
Myth: about Ebonics, 289; definition of, 27; of Maori people, 88; versus reality, 27

N

Nadal, K. L., 366
Nahuatl language, 37
Name Story activity, 48–49
Narrative research, 176
National Association for Chicano Studies, 63
National Center for Education Statistics, 56
National Conference of the Association for Chicano Studies, 63
Native Americans: Americanization of, 33–38; locations of, 38–39; reclaiming truths of, 38–39
Nedd, D., 67
Needs assessment, 357
Neocolonial education, 207–212
New racism, 284–285
New Zealand, 88, 90
Ngatai, L., 30, 83, 91–92, 95
Niceness vs. conflict, discourse of, 111
Nicotine, 92
Nixon, R., 107
Nobles, W. W., 223, 285, 286
Noddings, N., 55
Non-Whiteness, 320
Nott, J., 106
Novel, literary, 47

O

Obama, B., 2, 52, 255, 261, 262, 335, 337
Obama, M., 337
Objectivity, 126
O’Brien, E., 140
Obsessive investment with self, 111
Omi, M., 236, 238, 242
Omolade, B., 73
Ong, A., 298
Ontology, 122–123
Ooka Pang, V., 53
Oppression: African Americans as perpetrators of, 169–170; citizenship schools and, 241; in classroom environment, 250; goal of queer crit and, 194; of homosexuals, 194; of immigrants, 236; internalized racism and, 219, 220; real conversation in real time and, 279; teaching strategies to address, 363; victims of, 194
Oruka, O., 348
Otherness: definition of, 358; description of, 66; in feminist scholarship, 66; in racist language, 272–273; transformational learning and, 358
Outlaw, L. 4, 47, 348
Ovando, C. J., 279
Over the Ivy Walls (Gandara), 60
Ownership, of learning, 51

P

Panetta, L., 335
Papastergiadis, N., 89
Paradigm: of Africana studies course, 284–286; definition of, 122; of SASHA model, 222–224; shifting of, 332; students’ examination of, 287–288. See also specific paradigms
Parham, T., 222
Participation, in class, 360
Participatory citizenship, 241
Paternalistic superiority, 126
Patronizing people, 154
Paxton, D., 103, 119, 128, 129, 163, 365
Payne, C. M., 237
Pedagogy: ancestral teachings in, 91; critical professionalism in, 212; definition of, 73; loss of enthusiasm for, 96–97; love as support for, 92, 93; of Maori people, 91; of SASHA process, 222–223; storytelling in, 92
Pedagogy of Indignation (Freire), 241
Peer influence, power of, 59–60
Peller, G., 168, 174
Perceptual pattern, 206, 212
Perez, E., 66
Perpetrator perspective, 180
Perry, M. L., 182
Personal narrative, 194
Peruvian Americans, 170, 231–235, 237
Peters, J. M., 113
Peters, M. F., 318
Peterson, E., xxvi–xxvii, 6, 179, 180, 191, 260, 261, 368
Phelan, P., 36
Philosophy, 347–348, 352
Pierce, C., 318
Pinar, W. F., 240
Platonic view, 320
Poetry, 47, 322
Political language, 275
Polyrhythmic realities, 180, 284, 353, 354
Positionality, socially constructed, 188–189; description of, 189; effects of, 196; of immigrants, 237; influence of, 189; queer crit and, 194; racial discourse and, 205; safe learning environments and, 195; strategies for examination of, 261–262
Possession, right of, 177
Postcolonialism, 201–212
Poverty: challenges of, 67; family’s view of, 60
Power: African Americans’ ascent to, 21; authors’ experiences as White faculty with, 135–142; to define reality, 348; faculty authority and, 362; feminist scholarship and, 66, 79; knowledge as, 194; language and, 274, 276–277; in new racism paradigm, 284–285; of race, 27–28; race card and, 286–287, 290; racism by minorities in, 211; as requirement for racist acts, 349–350; transformational learning and, 356–357; in White racial consciousness development, 109
Power evasion, 109
Preciph, T., 142, 206, 334
Prejudice: color blindness and, 192; as communicated in language, 273; as cost of Americanization, 36; discomfort with recognition of, 312–313; racial myths and, 43–44. See also Discrimination
President’s Initiative on Race, 138
Pride, racial, 331–332
Privilege. See White privilege
Problem solving, 370
Proctor, B., 246
Professional development, in critical race theory, 212
Promotion, 137, 317–318
Proselytizing: antidote to, 147; definition of, 146; unilateral acts of, 147, 152
Proverb, 98–99
Pseudo-independent stage, of White identity development, 108, 310
Pseudo-White stereotype, 299
Psychological attack, 219
Public Broadcasting Service, 362
Public self, 330–331
Pugh, S., 279
Purépecha tribe, 38
Puritan religion, 106
Purity, 89
Purpose, of action, 151
Q
Quantitative research, 125
Queer crit, 189–196. See also Homosexuality
Questioning strategy, 360–361
R
Race: controversial conception of, 236; definition of, 189; effects of, on African Americans, 272; geographies of, 246, 250; immigration policies and, 238; influence of, 189; perspectives of, in adult education, 75–76; power of, 27–28; versus racism, 99; West Indians’ perception of, 203–204; White people’s discussions of, 109–113
Race card, 286–287, 290, 291
Race cognizance: rethinking race and power phase, of White racial consciousness development, 109
Race cognizance: transforming silence into language and action, of White racial consciousness development, 109
Race cognizance: transforming silence into language and action, of White racial consciousness development, 109
Race development process, 309–315
Racial literacy: definition of, 46–47; development of, 46–48; practice in, 48–51; requirements for, 44; students’ initial response to, 45–46
Racial microaggression. See Microaggression
Racial pride, 331–332
Racial profiling, 235
Racial separatism, 334
Racial socialization, 288–290
Racialized perspective, 4–5
Racially coded language, 274, 275
Racism: acknowledging existence of, 332; African Americans as perpetrators of, 18–19, 169–170, 203, 211; Afro-Caribbean versus African American views of, 203; benefits of, to White people, 238; changes in, 225; continuing existence of, 335–336, 337–338; definition of, 2–3, 17, 21, 134–135, 334; embedded consciousness of, 15; as endemic to American society, 176; entrenchment of, in U.S. society, xxv–xxvi, 2, 134; evidence of, in current day, 107; general effects of, 113–115, 334; historical importance of, 3, 106–107; impending result of, 47, 134; inclusion of White authors in book about, 102; legacy of, 173–174; legislation’s effect on, 272; permanence of, 51–52, 168–169, 176, 260, 263; power as requirement for, 349–350; versus privilege, 334; process of, in education, 208–209; professoriate and, 51; versus race, 99; response to faculty complaints of, 64–65; responsibility for eradication of, 264; roots of, 182; seeds of, 106–107; as sin, 365; social class and, 52; students’ response to in-class conversations about, 45; unconscious nature of, 115; White people’s lack of knowledge of, 120
Racism, discourse about: in adult education, 3, 4; in Africana studies courses, 283–291; in Australian schools, 85; authors’ experience with, 16–22, 329–330, 336–342; beyond theory and academe, 264; considering ethnic diversity in, 210–211; faculty’s well-being and, 78–79; failure in, 164; ground rules for, 359–360; importance of, 4, 16, 67–68; including Asian Americans in, 268, 299; including homosexuality in, 169; instructional strategies to address language and, 278–280; internalized racism and, 226–227; intersection of homosexuality and race in, 188, 192; need for, 113–115; positionality and, 205; prediscourse questions for, 165, 353; preservation of White privilege and, 109–113; purpose of, 2; racist assumptions and, 17–20; relating to this text, 6–16; requirements for, 212; students’ aggression during, 163–164; students’ reluctance to speak about, 76, 252, 283; to transform White consciousness, 129–130; typical responses to, 167–168; using post-colonial theory, 210–212

Racism, internalized: authors’ experience with, 217–218; complexity of, 219–220; definition of, 218; effects of, 218–220; example of, 217; most harmful form of, 219–220; promoting racial discourse about, 226–227; SASHA model of, 220–226

Racist, definition of, 19–20

Raising Tennis Aces (film), 289, 290

Ramkissoon, M., 204

Ray, N., 29–30, 71, 95

Reading, 357

Real conversation in real time (RCRT), 278–280, 281

Real vs. the ideal, discourse of, 111

Reality: giving voice and, 353, 354; versus myth, 27; power to define, 348

Reason, P., 123, 125

Rebirth, 39–42

Reflection paper, 314, 315

Reflection-in-action, 148–155

Reflection-on-action, 148

Reilly, M., 88

Reintegration stage, of White identity development, 108, 310

Relationship building, 279

Religion, 106, 232

Research. See Literature, scholarly

Revolutionary pedagogy, 212

Richards, M., 107

Ricoeur, P., 56

Rocco, T., 179, 180

Rodriguez Pastor, H., 232

Role model, 323, 355

Role play, 149–150

Rose, P. I., 189–190

Roth, B., 114

Rousseau, C., 174, 176, 177, 179, 190, 191

Rutgers University, 276

Safety: in students’ classrooms, 79, 91; while discussing internalized racism, 226–227

Salazar, K., 335

Salerno, S., 138

Salt Lake City (Land of the Cranes), 39

Sandoval, C., 66

Sapp, D. A., 73

SASHA. See Self Affirming Soul Healing Africans

Schaefer, R., 41

Schein, E., 127

Schema development, 356

Scherrich, J. J., 135

Schiele, J. H., 319

Scholarly authority, discourse of, 111

Scholarship. See Literature, scholarly

Schön, D., 148

Schonemann, N., 279

Scientific method, 124–125

Scientific revolution, 125–126

Sealey-Ruiz, Y., 29, 43–53, 95, 357

Segregation: authors’ experience in, 6–7, 9, 10, 141; and Whiteness as property, 177

Self Affirming Soul Healing Africans (SASHA), 170, 220–227

Self-absorption, discourse of, 110

Self-assessment, 321–322

Self-empowerment, 47

Self-esteem, 219

Self-ethnic reflector, 180

Self-hatred, 219

Self-reflection, 151–152, 153–154

Sensitivity, lack of, 148–149

Serequeberhan, T., 348

Serna v. Portales, New Mexico lawsuit, 62

Shame, 219

Sharecropper, 202

Shared understanding, 264

Sheared, Y., 1, 2, 4, 6–9, 18, 19–21, 73, 113, 178, 180, 191, 223, 249, 252, 284, 296, 297, 301, 319, 324, 343, 350–355

Shinseki, E. K., 335

Shor, I., 51

Sikes, M. P., 206, 207

Silence, 111, 148–149, 152; giving voice and, 354; racist language and, 277–278; in real conversation in real time, 280

Simone, N., 322

Single parent family, 6–7

Sisels, P. A., 133, 191, 252, 301

Sisters in College (Johnson-Bailey), 11

Sister-network, 78

Skin Deep (video), 315

Sky, element of, 37

Slavery: effects of, 202, 260; internalized racism and, 219; moral collapse and,
182; U.S. founding documents and, 206; and Whiteness as property, 177
Sleeter, C., 135
Smith, E., 289
Smith, R., 359
Smoking, 92
Social change, 241–242
Social class: absence of racism and, 52; of Asian Americans, 297–298; in Peruvian society, 231; positionality and, 196; students’ eagerness to speak about, 76
Social consciousness: authors’ experiences of, 62–63; need for, 67–68; separation of activist scholarship and community involvement in, 63
Social constructionism: immigrants and, 235, 236; implications of, 235–236; language and, 273
Social justice: African-centered paradigm and, 319; lack of action for, 113–115; importance of racial discussions for, 248–249; in postcolonialism, 209–210; queer crit and, 193; students’ exploration of, 45; White identity development and, 108
Stewart, N., 290
Stewart, W., 232
Story: African Americans as tellers of, 248, 252; in classroom teaching, 92; of Hispanics, 55–56; to justify existence as “other,” 33; of Maori people, 88, 92; power of, 56; as source of survival, 98–99; of White students, 248
Stress, 318
Strong, J., 106
The Structure of Scientific Revolution (Kuhn), 122
Structured foreclosure, 312
Student behavior, 359–360
Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, 237
Student participation, 360
Students: eagerness of, to speak of gender and class, 76; internalized racism and, 225–226; perception of professors by, 114; positionality of, 189; prior knowledge and experiences of, 50–51; in women’s studies classes, 72, 74–75
Students, African American: in Africana studies classes, 284; of homosexual orientation, 187–189; paradigm examination of, 287–289
Students, Hispanic: of homosexual orientation, 187–189; paradigm examination of, 287–289
Students, Maori: classroom environment of, 91; making connections with, 92
Students, White: in Africana studies classes, 284; assumptions of, regarding White professors, 250–251; conceptualization of Whiteness by, 107–113; importance of racial discussions for, 113–115; importance of racial literacy for, 52–53; paradigm examination of, 287–289; preventing aggressions by, 164; protection of White privilege by, 109–110; racial identity formation of, 309–315; real conversations in real time and, 279; as recipients of African American story, 248, 252; reluctance of, to engage in racial discourse, 252; response of, to African American faculty, 74–75; scholarly works studied by, 252–253; stories of, 248
Subaltern, 207
Sue, D. W., 366
Sullivan, S., 109, 115
Sun, element of, 37
Supremacy, White. See White supremacy
Survey, 324
Swaminathan, R., 301
Sweat lodge, 39
Swedenburg, T., 89
Syllabus, 360
Systemic internalized racism, 219–220

T
Takaki, R. A., 295
Tarnas, R., 123, 124, 125
Taylor, W., 168, 174, 175, 177, 178, 181, 187, 190–191
Teaching team, 368–369
Tenure, 114, 137
Terrorism, 335
Tetreault, M.K.T., 73, 79, 187, 189
Theory: African-centered paradigm and, 324–325; authors’ connection to, 85–87; connecting lived experience to, 141–142; consequences of connecting to, 83–84; versus family, 92; importance of, to indigenous people, 84; language of, 280; of queer crit, 191. See also specific theories
Thomas, B., 240
Thomas, G. D., 321
Thomas, K., 168, 174
Thompson, A., 321
Thompson, C. E., 108
Tikly, L., 210, 211
Tilsen, N., 84
Tisdell, E. J., 188, 189
Tolliver, D., 269, 317, 319, 320–321
Toms, F., 284, 290
Torino, G. C., 366
Torres, B., 37
''Toward a Critical Race Theory of Education'' (Ladson-Billings & Tate), 190–191
Transformation, of consciousness, 129–130
Treacy, M. J., 251
Trial, 64
Tribulation, 64
Triple quandary, 284, 290
Tropefied, 112
Troubling Intersections of Race and Sexuality (Kumashiro), 188
True self, 330–331
Trust: in interpersonal relationships, 140; real conversation in real time, 279; in SASHA model, 220, 222, 224, 225
Truth: Americanization and, 34, 36; assumptions as, 155; of Chicana faculty, 56; educational instruction in, 32; reclaiming of, 32, 38–42; as shown in medicine wheel, 37–38; as source of salvation, 98; speaking of, 31; students’ negation of others’, 164
Tupac Resurrection (film), 289
Turtle Island, 38–39
Twinness, 319–321, 322–323
Tyson, C. A., 73
Ubuntu, 320
Unaware/unintentional racism, 225
Uniqueness, 354
Unity, 91, 320
Universal suffrage, 113–114
University of Chicago, 348
Urban renewal program, 107
Urban university, 246
Urrieta, L., Jr., 63
U.S. Cabinet, 335
U.S. Census Bureau, 297
U.S. Supreme Court, 335
Valdes, F., 193, 194, 196
Values: of African-centered paradigm, 349; of American society, 40; critical humility and, 150; inclusiveness and, 41; spiritual rebirth and, 39–40; of White culture, 121–126
Van Dijk, T. A., 273
Van Gunten, D. M., 188, 189
Van Horne, W., 345
Vargas, L., 57
Venter, E., 320
Vera, H., 57
Violence, 14, 192
Voces de la Mujer conference, 63
Voice, giving, 2, 280–281, 350–355
Voice vs. silence, discourse of, 111
Voting, 113–114, 237, 240
Vulnerability: of faculty, 171; in SASHA model, 222, 223–224
Walker, K. L., 73
Walker, M., 212
Walker-Moffat, W., 300
War, 298–299, 335
Warren, J., 106, 107, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113
Water, element of, 37
Waters, M. C., 203, 205
Watts-Jones, D., 218, 219
Webb, L. M., 73
Wellman, D. T., 134
Wellness, 78, 79
West, C., 161, 174, 368
Western consciousness, 123
What’s Race Got to Do With It? (video), 315
White epistemology, 123–124, 366–367
White guilt, 45, 76, 160; versus racial discourse, 129–130; in White identity development, 108; in White students’ discourse about race, 112; White students’ focus on, 110
White paradigm, 103; authors’ experience with, 126–130; description of, 122–126; implications of, 126; scope of, 119, 122
White people: benefits of racism to, 238; as “good” White people, 146–147, 153; views of racism by, 205
White privilege: authors’ experiences with, 111, 135–142, 245–247; behaviors that perpetuate, 146–147; benefits of, 138; critical humility and, 151; critical white studies and, 247; lack of race consciousness development and, 109; need for discussion of, 113–115; in new racism, 284–285; protection of, 109–110; race card and, 286–287; White faculty’s challenging of, 139; White students’ discourse about, 109–113
White racial consciousness: emotions connected to, 129; epistemology and, 123–125; ontology and, 122–123; stages of, 108–109; transformation of, 129–130; in Whites’ discussions of race, 109–113
White racism. See Racism
White supremacy: authors’ experiences with, 14–15; challenges of queer crit to, 192–193, 194; critical white studies and, 247; global dominance of, 364; Maori identity and, 90; pre-assessment of, 287–288; religion and, 106; seeds of, 106–107; strategies to challenge, 364–370
Whiteness, 106; authors’ experience with, 126–130; binary opposite of, 320; classroom strategies to investigate, 253; importance of discussing, 113–115; invisibility of, 136; as property, 177; Whites’ conceptualization of, 107–113
Whitney, D., 236, 241
Wholeness, 78
Whole-person learning, 253
Wiessner, C., 278
Williams, O., 289
Williams, P., 168
Williams, R., 289
Williams, S., 289
Williams, V., 289
Winant, H., 236, 238, 242
Wing, A. K., 168
Win-win situation, 163
Wise, T., 320
Witherell, C., 55
Womanist framework, 350–355
Women, value of, 38
Women’s rights, 113–114. See also Black feminism
Women’s studies: authors’ experiences in, 71–72; critical race theory in, 190; feminist pedagogy and, 73–80; goals of, 72
Woodson, C. G., 38, 322
Work ethic, 60, 336
Workplace diversity, 120–121, 126–129
World War II, 298–299
Worldview. See Paradigm
Writing, 357
Wu, F., 299
X
Xantol (Mexico) people, 37
Y
Yale University, 348
Yamato, G., 225
Yancy, G., 105, 367
“Yes, but...” discourse, 110–111
Yorks, L., 253
Yosso, T., 175
Young, R., 210
Yu, H. C., 36
Z
Zavella, P., 66