INDEX

A
Ability levels, 71–72, 110
Absence policies, 156–157
Academic rankings, 196
Accountability, 107
Administration: bureaucracy of, 29–31; dealing with bad types of, 170–171; following rules of, 26; observation of teaching by, 34; strengths of, 169–170; tasks of, 169; unions and, 36
Adult education: challenging trends in, 21–22; contested topics in, 15–18; entertaining nature of, xiii–xiv; history of, 14–16; standards for, 97–98
Adult learners, development of, 6–7
Agendas, 106–107, 185
Alarm zone: description of, 2; illustration of, 3f; trust building and, 103
Alienation, of students, 195–197
Anderson, L., 189n.1
Andrade, J., 18
Anger: in alarm zone, 2; of teachers, 153–154
Annoying students, 87
Arden, P., 66, 115, 156
Arnove, A., 157
Art of Teaching Adults (Renner), 98n.3
Assessments: administration of, 94–95; class participation and, 88–89; consistency in grading of, 85–86; data analysis of, 96; for first day of class, 58–59; principles of, 82–84; purpose of, 82, 84; rubrics for, 87–88; standards for, 97–98; teachers’ objectivity in, 86–87; from textbooks, 84; timing of, 89–88; types of, 81–82; validity of, 84–85; of writing, 74; writing of, 89–94
Attention, of students, 59–60
Authenticity, 83, 85
Autocrats, 144

B
Backwards planning, 43–45
Bad behavior: from advanced students, 156; proper time for, 156–157; teachers’ responsibilities and, 154–156; tips for dealing with, 111–114
Bad teachers, ix, 33, 164–165, 179–180
Bain, K., 39
Baumgartner, L. M., 12, 17, 18
Beginner’s mind, 20–21
Benchmark tests, 59
Berger, R., 52
Berry, J., 151, 180, 183, 207
Bias, of teachers, 9, 120
Blaming students, 164–165
Board work, 127–128
Boredom, 118–119, 129, 136
Breaks: during class, 116–117, 130; from school, 52
Brinkley, A., 130, 180
Brookfield, S., 15, 16, 149
Bullying, 195
Bureaucracy: understanding of, 29–31; of various schools, 31
Bush, G. W., 120
Business books, 182
Butcher paper, 128

C
Caffarella, R. S., 12, 17, 18
Carpentry, 67, 68f
Carson, R., 35
Cheating, 94–95
Chevron oil refinery, 17
Chicago Handbook for Teachers, 98n.1, 141n.1, 180
Citadel (de Saint-Exupéry), 23n.4
Citations, 65
Civil disobedience, 156–158, 198
Civil rights movement, xii
Classes: agenda for, 106–107; breaks during, 116–117, 130; control of, 150–151; ending activities for, 62, 77–78; lack of options for, 196; large size of, 121; nonverbal communication in, 109–110; participation grades in, 88–89; participation modes in, 113; planning for first day of, 55–59; reasons people take, 1–2; repetition of, 32–33; rituals in, 102–103; small size of, 122–123; standards for, 97–98; start time of, 101–102; of students with multiple abilities, 71–72; teachers as leaders of, 144–144; teachers' boredom during, 118–119; teachers' enjoyment of, 123–124; teachers' questions in, 107–109; teachers' reflection on, 115; typical learning curve in, 51–52
Classroom management: control of classroom in, 150–151; democracy in, 143–145; personal disclosures in, 148–149; spontaneity and, 151; teacher as leader in, 145–147; teacher as social worker in, 147–148; teacher's anger and, 153–154; teacher's frustrations and, 152; teachers' responsibility for, 154–156
Cold calling, 110–111
College (Delbanco), 180
College education, 187, 200
Collins, M., 16
Comfort zone: illustration of, 3f; lesson plans and, 60–61; people's tendency to stay in, 1–2; removing students from, 2–3; trust building and, 3
Commute times, 177
Compassion, teachers' struggles and, 4
Competence, of teachers, 3–4
Competitive environment, 195–196
Complaints, from students, 112–113
Concrete skills, 17
Conferences, 173–176
Confidence: of students, 104; of teachers, 155
Conscientization, 15
Consensus, 186
Continuous improvement, 182
Corporate interests, 191
Council of Independent Colleges, 193
Covey, S. R., 28, 145
Creativity, 66
Critical theory, 17, 18
Culminating activities, 52
Cumulative assessments, 85–86
Curie, M., xi–xii
Current events, 139
prevent, 104–105; of teachers’ favorite students, 87; of teachers’ plans, 115
Fair grading practices, 85–86
Favoritism, 86
Fears of students, 56, 104
Feedback: from students about teaching practice, 163–164; on students’ progress, 140–141; on students’ writing, 74
Finals, 85–86, 105
First day of class, 55–59
Flamm, M., 130, 180
Fonts, 64
For-profit schools, 168, 191, 205
Forcey Jr., C. B., 130, 180
Formative assessments: definition of, 81; timing of, 89–90; writing of, 90–91
Frankl, V., 28
Freedom: education as, xi–xiii; field of critical theory and, 17; skills instruction and, 16
Freire, P., 15
Freshmen students, 6
Friend, E., 14
Friendships, with students, 28–29, 148
Frustration: as indicator of discomfort, 2; teachers’ response to, 152
Funding, for education, 204–205

G
Games, 104
Glossary, 207–210
Gower, R., 52n.1
Grading students’ work: class participation and, 88–89; consistency in, 85–86; rubrics for, 87–88; teachers’ objectivity in, 86–87
Graduate education, 187, 200
Graeber, D., 158n.1
Grammar, 178
Greive, D., 98n.3, 141n.1
Group work, 121, 122, 135–139
Guiding questions, 40, 42

H
Handbook for Adjunct/Part-Time Faculty and Teachers of Adults (Greive), 98n.3, 141n.1
Handouts: development of, 64–65; examples of, 67, 68f; sharing of, 65–67; in teacher workshops, 175
Hands, raising, 110–111, 132, 133
Health care, 193, 194
Highlander Folk School, xii, 14
Homework: in-class review of, 75; as prompt for discussions, 132; purpose of, 74–75
Horton, M., 14, 42
Hotels, 174

I
Iler, J., 139
Illness, 75–77
Imagination, importance of, 5
Independent work, 117–118
Insecurities of teachers, 4
Inspiration, 66, 70
Instructional materials: examples of, 67, 68f; sharing of, 65–67; for substitute teachers, 77; teacher-developed, 63–65
Instructions: on handouts, 64; writing of, 109
Instructors. See Teachers
Intellectual traditions, 14–16
Interests of students, 196–197
Internet search: for lesson planning, 63–64
Interventions: nonverbal communication for, 109; for struggling students, 104–105
Index

Intrinsic motivation: cultivation of, 11–12; definition of, 12; importance of, 12
Introducing students, 56, 60–61
Isolation, of teachers, 183

J
Jackson, P., 71, 180
Jacoby, K., 150
Japan, 145
Jargon, 35
Jeet Kune Do, 187–188
Job satisfaction, 11, 177
Job skills: debates over teaching, 16; emphasis on teaching, 9; role plays for teaching, 9–10
Jobs: leaving, 171, 172, 187–188; living close to, 177; looking for, 167; unrealistic/idealistic types of, 172–173

K
Kahn, R., 44–45
Kahn-Russell, J., 19f
Kaizen, 182
The Karate Kid (movie), 119
Khan Academy, 205
KIPP charter school, 193, 194
Knots, tying, 69–70
Knowledge, teachers’ lack of, 149–150
Knowles, M., 12, 207
Kolb Learning Cycle, 19

L
Labor laws, 25
Laid-off teachers, 187–188
Lakey, G., 56, 103, 113, 117, 124n.1, 181
Large classes, 121
Law School Admissions Test (LSAT), 11
Lazerson, D., 169–170, 171
Leaders, teachers as, 144–144
Learning: adult development and, 6–7; closing activities and, 77–78; hard work of, 12–13; importance of student’s perspective in, 5; lifelong, 200–201; from mistakes, 20–21; openness to, 20–21; signs of true, 10; students in control of, 199–200; taking breaks and, 116; teachers’ focus on, 8; through experience versus rote memorization, 14; transfer of, 10–11; typical path of, 51–52
On Learning and Social Change (Rossman), 181
Lectures, 121, 129–131
Lee, B., 187–188
Legal issues, 25
Legible writing, 74, 128
Lemov, D., 52n.1, 106, 109, 120
Leonard, G. B., 52
Lesson plans: activity times in, 63; agendas for, 106–107; change of plans in, 67–68; components of, 63; discomfort zone and, 60–61; failed, 115; for first day of classes, 55–59; homework and, 74–75; including hooks for new learning in, 59–60, 69–70; including stories in, 69–70; incorporating formative assessments in, 91; integrating new ideas in, 70–71; lesson wrap-ups in, 77–78; motivating students and, 62–63; for multilevel classes, 71–72; putting questions in, 108; spontaneity and, 151; for substitute teachers, 75–77; teacher-developed materials in, 63–65; varying activities in, 62; vocabulary in, 133–134; whiteboards and, 128; writing activities in, 72–74.
See also Planning courses
Letters of recommendation, 167
Levine, A., 195, 197
Liberal education, 7
Lifelong learning, 200–201
Line of inquiry, 40
LinkedIn profiles, 167
Listening, 112
LSAT. See Law School Admissions Test
Luhbi, T., 193

M
Madagascar, 145, 158n.1
Man’s Search for Meaning (Frankl), 28
Markers, 127–128
Married life, 177
Mastery (Leonard), 52
Materials. See Instructional materials
Meetings: location of, 29; productivity in, 184–186
Memorization, 14
Mentor (Daloz), 6, 148
Mentoring, 183
Merriam, S. B., 12, 17, 18
Metaskills, 8
Minutes, taking, 185
Missaen, M., 161
Mission, of teachers, 27–28, 156
Mistakes, of students: modeling of, 135; overcorrection of, 139–140; teachers’ bias about, 120; trust building and, 104; understanding of, from student’s perspective, 5
Mistakes, of teachers, 20–21, 71
Modeling: to build trust, 104; of dealing with bad behavior, 112; definition of, 134; instructions for, 134–135; power of, 134; teachers for, 134, 146; of thinking, 135; of writing, 73
Mom! Louie’s Looking at Me Again!
(Anderson), 189n.1
Montgomery Bus Boycott, xii
Motivating students: to do hard work, 13; intrinsic versus extrinsic motivation for, 11–12; lesson plans for, 62–63
Multilevel classes, 71–72, 122
Multiple-choice questions, 92

N
Names, of students, 105–106
National Center for Education Statistics, 193
Negotiation skills, 9–10
Nelson, S., 78n.1
Networks, of teachers, 167, 175, 176, 183–184
Newspapers, 69
Nobel Prize, xii
Nonverbal communication, 109–110
North Korea, 145
Note taking, 128
Notes, for lectures, 130

O
Obedient citizens, society’s need for, 197, 199
Objectives: breaking content down to meet, 42–43; changing or modifying of, 42, 44; definition of, 40; discussions and, 132; entry assessments and, 58; examples of poorly written or bad, 41; focus on, 41–42; in outcome-based instruction, 43–45; planning, 40–41; for teachers to improve practice, 161–162; for writing activities, 73
Observation, of teaching: by administrators, 34; being open to, 34; benefits of, 34; to improve teaching, 178–179; observers’ tasks during, 35; teachers’ aversion to, 33–34
Open-ended questions, 72
Open enrollment classes, 58
Opening rituals, 102
Oppression, 15
Opting out, of activities, 113
Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 193–194
Ouellette, M. L., 130, 180
Outcome-based instruction, 43–45
Outlines, for lectures, 130
Overcorrection, 140

Pacing, of lessons, 63
Pair activities, 104, 136
Parables, 69
Parks, R., xii
Part-time teachers, 166, 183, 188
Participation, in class, 88–89, 113
Partner work, 104, 136
Passion, of teachers, 178
PDF format, 65–66
Pearson, 194
Perfection, 115
Perry, W., 6
Personal disclosures, 148–149
Peterson vs. Hewlett-Packard Co., 114
Phone numbers, 167
Physical needs, 196
PISA (test), 193–194
Planning courses: beginning questions for, 39–40; breaking down concepts in, 42–43; communication with students in, 45–46; educational technology in, 49–51; for first day of classes, 55–59; objectives in, 40–42; with the outcome in mind, 43–45; in praxis wheel, 19f; to prevent bad behavior, 112; standards for, 97–98; syllabus in, 46–48; textbooks and, 48–49. See also Lesson plans Policies: adhering to, 26, 156–157; knowledge of, 30–31
Politics, as focus of teaching, 17–18
Poor students: beginning teachers and, 27; education crisis of, 193–194
PowerPoint presentations, 128, 130
Practicality, 82, 85
Praxis, 19f
Prep classes, 105
Presentation style, of teachers: for board work, 127–128; for lectures, 129–131
Private schools, 168, 205
Process-based assignments, 73
Product-based assignments, 73, 74
Professional development: conferences for, 173–176; reading education books as, 180–182; taking opportunities for, 166
Professionalism: contributing to field as, 176–177; jargon and, 35; sharing of materials and, 66; terminology needed for, 207–210
Progress, of students: informing students of, 140–141; typical path of, 51–52
Proofreading, 65
Public schools, 168
Publishers, technology sales of, 50
Publishing work, 176–177

Q
Quality of life, 177
Questions: in cold calling, 110–111; crafting effective, 107–108; to prompt discussions, 132, 133; for scaffolding, 111; for teacher reflection, 163; teachers’ lack of answer to, 149–150; tips for asking, 108–109. See also specific types
Quiet students, 105
Index

R
Random groups, 137
Reclaiming the Ivory Tower: Organizing Adjuncts to Save Higher Education (Berry), 180, 183
Reflection: after discussions, 132; fair grading practices and, 86; importance of, 71; to improve teaching practice, 162–163; on mistakes, 20; in praxis wheel, 19f; writing for, 72–73
Reliability, 83, 85
Renner, P., 98n.3
Repetition, in teaching, 32–33
Report backs, 138–139
Respect: bad behavior and, 112–113; of great teachers, 22; hurt feelings of teachers, 154; teacher network and, 183
Revisions, to writing, 74
Risk taking, 2
Rituals, 102–103
Role models, 146
Role plays: examples of, 9; for multilevel classes, 72
Roles, in group work, 137
Rossman, M.
Rote memorization, 14
Rothschild, E., 130, 180
Rubrics: advantages of, 87, 88; example of, 88t; importance of, 87; reliability and, 85; writing of, 87–88
Rule breaking, 154, 156–158

S
Sabbaticals, 187–188
Saphier, J., 52n.1
Saving handouts, 65
Saxon, L., 103
Scaffolding, 111
Schneier, B., 49
School breaks, 52
Schools Matter, 194
Seating arrangements, 94
Senior students, 7
The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 28
Short answer questions, 92
Silverman, S., 195
The Skillful Teacher (Saphier and Gower), 52n.1
Skills instruction: debates over, 16; versus teaching the whole student, 9–10. See also specific skills
Small classes, 122–123
SMART goals, 41
Smoot, B., 170–171
Social workers, 147–148
Software. See Technology, educational
Solo work, 136
Spalding, D., xi
Spontaneity, 151
Standards, 97–98
Stanford, P., 72
Sting, 28
Stories: for multilevel classes, 71–72; teaching with, 69–70; writing of, 66–67
Strange, H., 124n.1
Student-centered learning, 168
Students: alienation of, 195–197; bad behavior of, 111–114; blaming of, 164–165; building confidence of, 104; calling on, 110–111; communicating expectations to, 45–46; contact info for, 47; in control of own learning, 199–200; empowerment of, 9–10; fears of, 56, 104; getting attention of, 59–60; “good” versus “bad,” 10–11; identifying limits of, 13; including class breaks for, 116–117; as individuals, 6; interests of, 196–197; interventions for struggling, 104–105; introduction of, 56, 60–61; knowing names of, 105–106; large number of, 121; multiple ability groups of, 71–72; small number of, 122–123; struggling, 104–105; tardiness of, 101–102; teachers as, 178–179; teacher’s enjoyment of, 123–124; teacher’s favorites of, 86–87; teacher’s friendships with, 28–29, 148; typical path of progress of, 51–52; understanding experience of, 5; unpleasant surprises for, 45–46; written communication between teachers and, 73. See also Adult learners
Student’s perspective, teachers’ understanding of, 4–6
Study groups, 105
Study skills, 8
Substitute teachers, 75–77
Summaries: of class learning, 78; of lectures, 130
Summative assessments: debates about, 82; definition of, 81; principles of, 82–83; validity and, 84–85; writing of, 91–94
Supplemental books/digital publications, 49
Surprises, for students, 45–46
Surveys: for first day of class, 58–59; to learn students’ names, 106
Syllabus: checklist for, 46–47; description of, 46; importance of, 46; including expectations of students in, 45; plural form of, 48; students’ contact information in, 47

T
Tardies, 101–102, 185
Task analysis, 42–43
Taxes, 167, 176
Taylor, J., 193
Teach Like a Champion (Lemov), 52n.1, 106, 109, 120, 124n.2
Teacher-developed materials, 63–69
Teachers: anger of, 153–154; appearance of, 55; bad types of, ix; bias of, 9, 120; boredom of, 118–119; characteristics of successful, 22–23; compassion of, 4; control of, 150–151; credentials of, 27; development of, 19–20; as entrepreneurs, 167–168; focus of, 8; as friends of students, 28–29, 148; frustration of, 152; graduate education of, 187; ignorance of theories by, 15–16; insecurities of, 4; isolation of, 183; jargon of, 35; lack of books for, x; lack of knowledge of, 149–150; as leaders of classroom, 144–144; mission of, 27–28, 156; mistakes of, 20–21; as models, 134; networks of, 167, 175, 176, 183–184; nonverbal communication of, 109–110; as oppressors, 15; passion of, 178; personal disclosures of, 148–149; poor first-year performance of, 27; as providers of freedom, xi–xiii; reflecting on class by, 115; reputation of, 26; responsibility of, 154–156; rest for, 117; as social workers, 147–148; as students, 178–179; substitutes as, 75–77; tasks for, during students’ work time, 117–118; who struggle with content, 3–4; written communication between students and, 73
Teachers, beginning: easy versus difficult courses for, 96–97; improving practice of, 161–162; learning curve of, 32; problems of, 26–27, 96–97
Teachers, role of: description of, 8; in humanizing education, 197–199; in learner-centered world, 201–204; in students’ discomfort, 2; in understanding student’s perspective, 4–6

Teacher’s manual, 49

Teaching: adding variety to, 33; assumptions of, 4–5; calling on students while, 110–111; challenges of improving, 165–166; challenging trends in, 21–22; feedback from students about, 163–164; going beyond the minimum in, 31–32; misunderstandings of, 8; nonverbal communication in, 109–110; observation of, 33–35; of politics and democracy, 17–18; in praxis wheel, 19f; professional development opportunities for, 166; repetition in, 32–33; of skills versus whole student, 9–10; with stories, 69–70; what you love, 178

Teaching contract, 25–26

Teaching materials. See Instructional materials

Technology, educational: evaluation of, 50–51; for lesson plans, 63–64; meaningful use of, 49–50; to supplement textbooks, 49

Testimonials, 167

Tests: administration of, 94–95; expectations of students regarding, 45–46; performance of United States on, 193; purpose of, 84; teaching to, 11; transfer of learning and, 11; writing of, 91–94

Texas, 194

Textbooks: assessments from, 84; concept breakdown in, 43; online forms of, 50; selection of, 48–49; strict following of, 48

Think alouds, 135

Thoreau, H. D., 69

Time management, 63

Tools for Teaching (Davis), 180

Training, versus education, 17

Transfer, of learning: challenges of, 12–13; definition of, 10; as goal of teaching, 10–11; test taking and, 11

True/False questions, 91

Trushkowsky, M., 124n.3

Trust building: comfort zone and, 3; importance of, 103; tips for, 103–104

Truth, in adult learner development, 6–7

Tutoring, 105

Typos, 65

Tyranny, 144

U

Unemployment, 187–188

Unions: active participation in, 36–37; description of, 36

University of Michigan Law School, 11

V

Vacations, 52

Validating students, 112

Validity, 83, 84–85

Venting, 113

Video recordings, of teaching, 34

Visuals, 129

Vocabulary, teachers’ use of, 133–134

Von Land, J., 158

W

Wait time, 132

Walking around classroom, 147

Washback, 83, 85

Websites, 167
Index

What Is Education? (Jackson), 180
What the Best College Teachers Do, 98n.1
Whiteboards, 127–128, 129
Whitman, W., 158, 158n.3
Whole-class work, 136
Williams, R., 145
Workshops, 174, 175
Writing: of assessments, 89–94; in entry assessments, 59; evaluation of, 74; giving feedback on, 74; importance of, 72–73; of instructional materials, 63–67; models of, 73; planning activities for, 73–74; for reflection, 72–73; of rubrics, 87–88; stating expectations of students in, 73

---

Z

Zinn, H., 157