Contents at a Glance

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 1

Part 1: Getting Started with Nonprofits ............................................................... 5
  CHAPTER 1: Getting to Know the World of Nonprofit Organizations ............. 7
  CHAPTER 2: Deciding to Start a Nonprofit ......................................................... 15
  CHAPTER 3: Creating Your Mission Statement ............................................. 35
  CHAPTER 4: Incorporating and Applying for Tax Exemption ....................... 43
  CHAPTER 5: Protecting Your Nonprofit Status .............................................. 63

Part 2: Managing a Nonprofit Organization .......................................................... 79
  CHAPTER 6: Building Your Board of Directors ............................................. 81
  CHAPTER 7: Planning: Why and How Nonprofits Make Plans ..................... 99
  CHAPTER 8: Evaluating Your Work: Are You Meeting Your Goals? ............ 123
  CHAPTER 9: Working with Volunteers ............................................................. 135
  CHAPTER 10: Working with Paid Staff ............................................................ 151
  CHAPTER 11: Showing the Money: Budgets and Financial Reports .......... 177
  CHAPTER 12: Marketing: Spreading the Word about Your Good Work .......... 205

Part 3: Fundraising Successfully .......................................................................... 231
  CHAPTER 13: Building a Fundraising Plan ...................................................... 233
  CHAPTER 14: Raising Funds from Individual Donors .................................... 249
  CHAPTER 15: Making the Most of Special Events ....................................... 275
  CHAPTER 16: Finding the Grant Givers ........................................................... 291
  CHAPTER 17: Writing a Grant Proposal .......................................................... 305
  CHAPTER 18: Capital Campaigns: Finding Lasting Resources .................... 323

Part 4: The Part of Tens ......................................................................................... 337
  CHAPTER 19: Ten Tips for Adapting in Hard Times ...................................... 339
  CHAPTER 20: Ten Tips for Raising Money ....................................................... 347
  CHAPTER 21: Ten Tips for Protecting Your Nonprofit ............................... 353

Part 5: Appendixes ............................................................................................... 361
  APPENDIX A: Glossary ..................................................................................... 363
  APPENDIX B: About the Online Content ..................................................... 367

Index .......................................................................................................................... 373
Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION
- About This Book .................................................. 1
- Foolish Assumptions .............................................. 2
- Icons Used in This Book ........................................ 3
- Beyond the Book ..................................................... 3
- Where to Go from Here ........................................... 4

PART 1: GETTING STARTED WITH NONPROFITS ............ 5

CHAPTER 1: Getting to Know the World of Nonprofit Organizations
- What Is a Nonprofit? ........................................... 8
- Comparing for-profits to nonprofits ....................... 8
- Introducing the one and only 501(c)(3) .................. 9
- Knowing Your Mission Before Entering the Nonprofit World ....................... 10
- Setting up a nonprofit ....................................... 11
- Making plans and being flexible .......................... 11
- Being Inspired and Inspiring Volunteers ............. 12
- Finding the Resources to Do the Job .................... 13
- Seeing where the contributions come from .......... 13
- Fundraising for fun and profit ............................. 14

CHAPTER 2: Deciding to Start a Nonprofit ................. 15
- Weighing the Pros and Cons of Starting a Nonprofit .... 16
- Doing Your Homework First .................................. 17
- Assessing the competition .................................. 17
- Finding people to help you ................................. 18
- Figuring out how you'll pay the bills .................... 19
- Taking a long, hard look in the mirror ................. 20
- Planning — and then planning some more .......... 20
- Understanding Nonprofit Ownership .................. 21
- Benefiting the public ....................................... 21
- Being accountable ......................................... 22
- Looking at the Many Varieties of Nonprofits .......... 23
- Identifying nonprofits by their numbers ............... 24
- Rules and regulations to add to your file .......... 25
- Comparing Nonprofits and For-Profits .............. 28
- How they're alike ....................................... 28
- How they differ ......................................... 28
Table of Contents

CHAPTER 5: Protecting Your Nonprofit Status

- Describing your activities .................................................. 57
- Reporting salaries and conflicts of interest .......................... 58
- Dealing with financial information ........................................ 59
- Collecting the other materials .............................................. 60
- Paying the fee ................................................................. 61
- Getting along until the exemption comes ................................ 61

- Disclosing What You Need to Disclose .................................. 64
  - What you do need to show ............................................ 64
  - What you don’t need to show ........................................ 65
- Avoiding Excessive Payments and Politicking ......................... 66
  - Determining reasonable pay and benefits .......................... 66
  - Using caution when getting involved in politics .................. 68
  - Why all the fuss? Understanding the increased scrutiny ....... 68

- Reporting to the IRS ....................................................... 69
  - Filing the 990-N ............................................................ 70
  - Taking it easy with the 990-EZ return .............................. 71
  - Tackling the long Form 990 ............................................ 76
  - Getting your 990 to the IRS ........................................... 78

- Reporting to Your State and Local Governments ...................... 78

PART 2: MANAGING A NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION ............... 79

CHAPTER 6: Building Your Board of Directors ....................... 81

- Understanding the Duties of a Nonprofit Board of Directors ....... 82
  - Primary role: Preserving public trust ............................... 82
  - Secondary role: Dealing with planning, hiring, and other board tasks ......................................................... 84
  - Sharing responsibilities among the board, staff, and volunteers ................................................................. 86
- Recruiting the Right People for Your Board ............................ 86
  - Keeping it fresh ............................................................. 87
  - Big boards or little boards ............................................. 89
- Choosing officers and committees ......................................... 90
  - Introducing new and prospective members to the board and the organization ............................................ 91
- Putting Staff Members on Your Board .................................. 93
- Using Your Board to Full Capacity ...................................... 93
  - Encouraging commitment from board members ................. 94
  - Holding effective board meetings ................................... 95
CHAPTER 7:  Planning: Why and How Nonprofits Make Plans ................................. 99
    Understanding the Importance of Planning ............................................. 100
    Making Your Organizational Plan .......................................................... 100
        Getting ready .................................................................................. 101
        Starting from your organization’s mission ......................................... 102
        Surveying the external situation ......................................................... 102
        Looking at the internal situation ....................................................... 103
        Hearing from all your stakeholders ................................................... 105
        Calling in the SWOT team ................................................................. 107
        Putting the plan in writing .................................................................. 109
        Adjusting your plan when necessary .................................................. 111
    Putting Plans into Action ................................................................. 111
        Defining and setting goals, strategies, objectives, and outcomes ....... 111
        Creating a work plan ....................................................................... 112
    Planning for Programs ........................................................................ 113
        Assessing needs ............................................................................. 114
        Going beyond the needs assessment ............................................... 115
        Working as a team ........................................................................ 117
    Facility Planning: Finding a Place to Do Your Work .......................... 118
        How much space and of what kind? .................................................. 118
        Location, location, location .............................................................. 118
        Owning, leasing, or taking a free ride ............................................... 119
        Making a move ................................................................................ 120
        Taking on a capital project ............................................................... 121

    Knowing the Importance of Evaluation ............................................. 124
    Working through the Evaluation Process ........................................... 125
        Selecting the right kind of evaluation ............................................ 125
        Planning for evaluation ................................................................. 126
        Crafting valuable questions ......................................................... 128
        Choosing evaluators: Inside or outside? ....................................... 130
    Conducting Your Evaluation ............................................................... 131
    Analyzing Results and Putting Them to Work ................................... 131
        Interpreting results ........................................................................ 132
        Using your evaluation to strengthen your work .............................. 132
        Telling the truth ............................................................................. 134

CHAPTER 9:  Working with Volunteers ............................................................. 135
    Knowing Why People Volunteer ....................................................... 136
    Designing a Volunteer Program ......................................................... 137
Table of Contents

- Considering a volunteer coordinator ........................................... 137
- Determining your need for volunteers ........................................... 138
- Writing volunteer job descriptions .............................................. 139
- Organizing volunteers ................................................................. 139
- Hunting for Volunteers ................................................................. 141
  - Using the tried-and-true methods .............................................. 141
  - Going online ............................................................................... 142
  - Looking for volunteers at other organizations ........................... 144
  - Finding volunteers with special skills ........................................ 144
- Hiring interns .................................................................................. 145
- Interviewing and Screening Volunteers .......................................... 145
- Managing Your Volunteers ............................................................. 147
  - Providing adequate training ...................................................... 147
  - Keeping good records ............................................................... 148
  - Insuring your volunteers ......................................................... 148
- Saying farewell to bad volunteers ................................................. 149
- Saying Thank You to Volunteers .................................................... 149

CHAPTER 10: Working with Paid Staff ........................................ 151

- Deciding That You Need Help ....................................................... 152
- Getting Your Nonprofit Ready for Paid Employees ....................... 153
  - Developing your personnel policies ........................................... 153
  - Setting up a payroll system ......................................................... 155
  - Providing benefits and perquisites ............................................ 155
- Preparing to Hire .......................................................................... 156
  - First things first: Writing a job description ................................. 156
  - Considering necessary qualifications ........................................ 157
  - Establishing salary levels .......................................................... 158
  - Announcing the position ........................................................... 159
- Making the Hire ............................................................................ 160
  - Looking at résumés ..................................................................... 160
  - Interviewing candidates ............................................................ 161
  - Digging deeper with references ............................................... 162
  - Making your decision ............................................................... 163
- Bringing a New Hire Onboard ....................................................... 164
  - Confirming employment terms in writing .................................. 164
  - Getting your new hire started on the job .................................... 164
  - Evaluating your new hire's progress ......................................... 165
- Managing Employees ..................................................................... 166
  - Understanding what a manager does ....................................... 167
  - Communicating with your staff ............................................... 167
  - Letting a staff member go ......................................................... 169
Using Independent Contractors .............................................170
Differentiating an independent contractor from an employee .............................................171
Seeing what an independent contractor can do for you .............................................172
Finding a consultant: Ask around .............................................173
Interviewing consultants .......................................................173
Signing the contract ............................................................174

CHAPTER 11: Showing the Money: Budgets and Financial Reports .............................................177
Making a Budget = Having a Plan .............................................178
Beginning with zero ...............................................................178
Defining a good budget ........................................................182
Budgeting based on your history .............................................182
Understanding and isolating general administrative and fundraising costs .............................................183
Accounting for in-kind contributions ..............................................183
Creating Budgets for Programs or Departments .............................................184
Working with Your Budget ........................................................187
Projecting Cash Flow ..............................................................189
Constructing your cash-flow projection ..............................................189
Deciding what to do if you don't have enough .............................................190
Borrowing to make ends meet ..................................................192
Putting money away to make a nonprofit strong .............................................193
Keeping Your Books Organized and Up to Date .............................................193
Understanding the different accounting systems .............................................194
Considering accounting software ................................................195
Reviewing the Numbers: Financial Statements and Audits .............................................195
Preparing financial statements ..................................................196
Seeing the value of an audit ......................................................196
Knowing whether you need an audit .............................................197
Reading Your Financial Statements .............................................199
Getting to know the parts of a standard financial statement .............................................199
Asking the right financial questions .............................................200
Managing Financial Systems ....................................................202

CHAPTER 12: Marketing: Spreading the Word about Your Good Work .............................................205
Taking Care of the Basics ........................................................206
Designing a logo and letterhead ...............................................206
Preparing an organization overview or brochure .............................................207
Creating a website .................................................................207
Producing annual reports and newsletters .............................................209
Taking care of customers — your most important marketing tool .............................................209
Discovering Who You Are: First Steps to Marketing ............... 211
  Recognizing your current market .......................................... 212
  Defining whom you want to reach and how .............................. 216
Using Mass Media to Reach Your Audience ............................... 219
  Planning for effective publicity ............................................. 219
  Developing a media list ...................................................... 220
  Understanding how the media works ....................................... 221
  Submitting materials to your media contacts ............................ 222
  Getting your event into “What’s Happening?” calendars .............. 223
  Putting together public service announcements .......................... 224
Using Social Media for Fun and Profit ....................................... 225
  Developing a social media policy .......................................... 225
  Planning your social media posts ......................................... 226
  Choosing your social media platforms ..................................... 227
  Protecting your online reputation ......................................... 229

PART 3: FUNDRAISING SUCCESSFULLY .............................. 231

CHAPTER 13: Building a Fundraising Plan ............... 233
  Recognizing Who Can Raise Funds ......................................... 234
  Naming Possible Funding Sources .......................................... 235
  Examining Your Potential .................................................... 236
  Drafting a Fundraising Plan .................................................. 238
    Setting a preliminary goal ................................................ 239
    Asking whom you know .................................................... 239
    Researching and refining your prospect list ........................... 240
    Estimating fundraising costs ............................................. 242
  Getting Down to Business: Moving to an Action Plan .................. 246
  Planting the Seeds for a New Organization ............................... 247
    Hitting up people you know .............................................. 247
    Branching out with special events ....................................... 248
    Approaching foundations .................................................. 248
    Considering government grants ......................................... 248

CHAPTER 14: Raising Funds from Individual Donors ............... 249
  Knowing Why People Give Helps in the Asking ......................... 250
  Stating Your Case .......................................................... 251
  Identifying Possible Donors ................................................ 254
    Drawing circles of connections .......................................... 254
    Getting a list of contacts from your board of directors ............ 256
  Growing a Major Gift ........................................................ 257
    Deciding who should do the asking ..................................... 257
    Preparing to make your request ......................................... 257
    Breaking the ice ............................................................ 258

Table of Contents  xi
Adopting the right attitude. ..................................................258
Timing the request: An inexact science .................................258
Determining what to ask for .................................................259
Minding your manners ..........................................................260
Raising Money by Mail .........................................................260
Taking the direct-mail route ..................................................260
Trying your hand at a letter-writing campaign .........................262
Raising Money the “E” Way (Easily and Electronically) .............263
Using email and related tools to build and maintain relationships .................................................................264
Building your email address lists ...........................................265
Using your website as a cultivation tool ................................266
Gathering money online .......................................................267
Soliciting text-message donations .........................................269
Telemarketing: Dialing for Dollars ...........................................270
Writing a script .................................................................271
Coaching your callers ..........................................................272
Collecting the pledges ..........................................................273

CHAPTER 15: Making the Most of Special Events .........................275
Thinking through the Whole Event ...........................................276
Using your budget to guide decisions ....................................276
Sticking to your budget ........................................................279
Soliciting in-kind gifts for your event .....................................281
Building your event committee ..............................................282
Setting a date and location ....................................................283
Setting Up Your Timeline .....................................................284
The first three months ..........................................................284
Months four and five ............................................................284
Four weeks before the event ..................................................285
The week before the event .....................................................285
Spreading the Word .............................................................287
Finding a news angle ...........................................................287
Getting a mention on radio or TV .........................................288

CHAPTER 16: Finding the Grant Givers .....................................291
Planning a Foundation Grant Proposal .................................291
Figuring out who’s looking for whom ....................................292
Knowing whom you’re dealing with: Different kinds of foundations ..........................................................293
Using the Foundation Center to assemble a broad list of prospects ...............................................................296
Digging deeper to narrow your prospects ...............................300
Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>CHAPTER 17: Writing a Grant Proposal</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Going for a Government Grant</td>
<td>301</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Federal grants</td>
<td>302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Nonfederal government grants</td>
<td>304</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Windup: Completing Pre-Proposal Tasks</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Asking for permission to ask</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Passing the screening questionnaire</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Pitch: Writing Your Proposal</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Starting out with the cover letter and executive summary</td>
<td>308</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Introducing your agency</td>
<td>309</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Shaping the problem</td>
<td>310</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Setting goals, objectives, and outcomes</td>
<td>310</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Presenting (ta-dah!) your project idea</td>
<td>311</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Explaining how results will be measured</td>
<td>312</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Talking about the budget</td>
<td>313</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Showing where the rest of the money comes from:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The sustainability section</td>
<td>315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Writing the P.S.: The appendix</td>
<td>316</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Throwing Special Pitches for Special Situations</td>
<td>317</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Trolling for corporate grants or sponsors</td>
<td>319</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Seeking general operating support</td>
<td>320</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Seed money: Proposing to form a new nonprofit</td>
<td>321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Homerun: Following Through after You Receive Funding</td>
<td>322</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>CHAPTER 18: Capital Campaigns: Finding Lasting Resources</td>
<td>323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Beginning the Funding Plan</td>
<td>324</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Preplanning your campaign</td>
<td>325</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Developing a rough budget</td>
<td>326</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Testing feasibility</td>
<td>327</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Analyzing the results of your study</td>
<td>329</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Developing a Case Statement</td>
<td>329</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Building the Pyramid of Gifts</td>
<td>330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Starting at the top</td>
<td>331</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Applying for grants as part of your capital campaign</td>
<td>332</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ending the quiet phase and moving into the public phase</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Realizing the Benefits and Risks of Capital Campaigns</td>
<td>334</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>PART 4: THE PART OF TENS</td>
<td>337</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>CHAPTER 19: Ten Tips for Adapting in Hard Times</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Recognize the Need for Change Before It's Too Late</td>
<td>340</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Communicate When Making Hard Decisions</td>
<td>340</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Step Back and Regroup</td>
<td>340</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Set a Manageable Fundraising Goal</td>
<td>341</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Collaborate with Others in Your Field .................................................. 341
Share a Back Office ........................................................................ 342
Place a Program within Another Agency ...................................... 342
Merge with Another Nonprofit ....................................................... 343
Close with Dignity If Necessary ....................................................... 343
Complete the Closing Paperwork .................................................. 344

CHAPTER 20: Ten Tips for Raising Money ............................................. 347
Ask ........................................................................................................ 347
Hit Up People You Know ................................................................. 348
Tell Your Story .................................................................................. 348
Show How You’re Improving Lives .............................................. 348
Make the Numbers Sparklingly Clear ........................................... 349
Research, Research, Research ....................................................... 349
Know Your Donors’ Point of View .................................................. 350
Build a Donor Pyramid .................................................................. 351
Make It Easy to Respond ................................................................. 351
Keep Good Records ......................................................................... 352

CHAPTER 21: Ten Tips for Protecting Your Nonprofit ................................. 353
Assessing Your Risks ...................................................................... 354
Planning for Emergencies .............................................................. 354
Filing Annual Federal Forms .......................................................... 355
Filing Annual State Forms .............................................................. 356
Paying Employment Taxes .............................................................. 356
Reporting Payments to Consultants ............................................. 357
Maintaining Transparency .............................................................. 357
Responding to Negative Press ......................................................... 358
Protecting Your Online Reputation .............................................. 358
Determining Insurance Needs ......................................................... 359

PART 5: APPENDIXES ................................................................. 361
APPENDIX A: Glossary ................................................................. 363
APPENDIX B: About the Online Content .......................................... 367
INDEX .............................................................................................. 373