Contents

List of Contributors vii

1 Starting out: a guide to using this book and its development Lyn Westcott 1

Part 1 General Principles of Using Problem-Based Learning 7

2 Exploring the foundations for problem-based learning Ruth Matheson and Bernhard Haas 9

3 Readiness for problem-based learning Juan Delport and Steven W. Whitcombe 25

4 Developing problem-based learning curricula Lyn Westcott, Alison Seymour and Sara Roberts 35

5 Becoming a problem-based learning facilitator Gwilym Wyn Roberts 51

6 Managing group dynamics and developing team working in problem-based learning Alison Seymour 67

7 Assessing problem-based learning curricula Sue Pengelly 79

Part 2 The Theoretical Interface with Problem-Based Learning 97

8 Reflection and the problem-based learning curriculum Gail Boniface 99

9 A reflexive model for problem-based learning Steven W. Whitcombe and Teena J. Clouston 115
Contents

10 Promoting creative thinking and innovative practice through the use of problem-based learning 125
   Jill Riley and Ruth Matheson

11 Problem-based learning and the development of capital 139
   Jill Riley and Steven W. Whitcombe

12 An evolving vision for learning in health-care education 147
   Andrew Machon and Gwilym Wyn Roberts

Part 3 The Learner in Problem-Based Learning 159

13 The student experience 161
   Liz Galle and Sandra Marshman

14 Becoming lifelong learners in health and social care 173
   Pam Stead, Gareth Morgan and Sally Scott-Roberts

15 Becoming a self-directed learner 185
   Susan Delport and Ruth Squire

Part 4 Final Thoughts 201

16 Interweaving the strands of thinking in problem-based learning 203
   Teena J. Clouston

Index 215