Index

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to Figures; those in bold to Tables.

ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), 330 administrative justice mechanisms see also welfare law
acquiescence and non-assertiveness, 251 adversarial-style mechanisms, 250 arbitrary government actions, 252 economic and social crisis, 249–50 ethnographic methods, 251 organizational and managerial structures, 252
adversarial legalism, 7, 29
Affordable Care Act, 287
Aid to Dependent Children program
(ADC), 244
Aid to Families with Dependent Children program, 245
American Civil Rights Movement (CRM), 371
The American Jury, 146
American Society of Criminology, 183, 188
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 323–4, 329–30
animal law
abolitionist approach, 309
animobilities, 317
biopolitics, 318–19
dismantling of cages, 308–9 hybrids, 315
judiciary and statutory discourses, 309–10 legal classification, 317–18
legal personhood and animality, 314–15 “polemics of animal rights,” 313 posthumanism see posthumanism as property, 316
animal rights movement, 309
The Animal That Therefore I Am, 310
anthropocentrism, 311
antidiscrimination law
comparative approach, 213 constitutional equal protection, 214 equality jurisprudence, 213 formal equality, 213 international models see The Canadian and South African antidiscrimination approach principles of equality, 212 race discrimination, 212 systemic inequality and subordination, 212–13
United States approach see United States Constitution
Asiatic Land Tenure and Indian Representation Act, 297
“A theory of the stability of punishment” (article), 229

Before the Law: Humans and Other Animals in a Biopolitical Frame, 311

Belonging in an Adopted World, 78–9
biopolitics, 311, 318–19
Birmingham Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies, 40

Blinded By Sight: Seeing Race Through the Eyes of the Blind, 347

Bretton Woods system, 401

Bridging Divides, 78

Brown vs. Board of Education, 6, 50, 215–16, 218, 325, 357, 382–3

Californian's Trust Act, 264

California Dream Act, 268

California’s Trust Act, 264

The Canadian and South African antidiscrimination approach American model, 223 discriminatory effects, 222 judicial scrutiny, 223

Challenging Diversity: Rethinking Equality and the Value of Difference, 360

Chinese Exclusion Act, 263

Civil Litigation Research Project (CLRP), 24

Civil Rights Act, 77, 135, 324, 357

classics in law and society cultural sociology, 18
decentering era (1980s–1990s), 19, 23–7
definition, 18
global era (1990s–2000s), 19, 27–9
social movement theory, 18

Clean Air Act, 177

Coase Theorem, 25

collaborative research networks (CRNs), 30

colonialism
   Indian Penal Code, 417–18
   Indian Supreme Court's decision, 417–18
   law as command, 419–23
   legal migrations, 426–30 resistance and plurality civilizing mission, 425–6 collaboration and resistance, 424

   colonial legal rule, 426 doctrines of liberalism, 425 European legality and authority, 424 imperial authorities, 424–5 “imperial citizenship,” 424 languages of law, 424
modern law, 423

scholarship on law and colonialism, 418–19 colonial liberalism
   charity, 411–12
   colonial legal modernization, 409–10 criterion of “general public utility,” 409 culture, 410
economy, 408
global and local distinction, 410–411 governing and autonomy, 410 hegemony, production of, 408 informal and formal economies, 411 lex mercatoria, or “law merchant,” 411 liberal pluralism, 410
market governance, 408
moral and material progress, 407–8
New Institutional Economics (NIE), 412 politics and production of economic agency, 408 public/private distinction, 409
rule of law, 407, 410
translation and mistranslation, processes, 412

2000s and beyond
   Asian financial crisis, 405
global/local distinctions, 407 “incorporation of the social,” 406–7 politics of globality, 407 rule-of-law imperative, 405–6 Washington Consensus “market fundamentalism,” 405 World Bank (comprehensive development framework), 406 vernacular capitalists, 409, 412–13
The Common Place of Law, 24

constitution of identity critical race theory see critical race theory law and society race scholarship, 340–343 legal identity, twenty-first century, 361–2 social contract theory, 352–4 socio-legal scholarship, 355–60
consumer rights law, 9
Convention of the Rights Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), 331–2 courts and judges
cited precedent, 122
impartial courts judicial legitimacy, 119–20 legitimacy and appearances, 120–121 one-time litigants, 119 judicial transnationalism, 127–8 legal accuracy, 122 motivated reasoning, 121–2 personal preferences, 123 public perceptions federal judges, 126
legal consciousness, 125 political conceptions, 126
Supreme Court, 126
rule of law, 129–31
significance contemporary court construction, 124 judicial architecture, 124 Lady Justice figure, 124, 125 physical structures and spaces, 123 town halls, 124
Cravath model, 111, 113
Crime and Custom in Savage Society, 76 “crime harm index,” 189 criminal justice system, 11, 96, 186, 234–5, 241
critical legal studies (CLS), 67–8, 285, 383–4, 392–3 critical race theory, xvi, 6, 30, 42, 48, 51, 319, 333 empirical methods/eCRT blind people and race, 347–8 race scholarship, 347, 348 synergies, 346–7
intersectionality, 345
legal studies, 344
minority participation, 344 social and legal construction, race, 345 socio-legal studies, 343 storytelling, 345
CRM see American Civil Rights Movement (CRM)
CRPD see Convention of the Rights Persons with Disabilities (CRPD)
cultural sociology, 18
cultural studies of law, 46–7 roots
Birmingham School ideas, 41 critical legal studies, 42–3 hegemony, theory of (Gramsci, Antonio), 41 ideology (Althusser, Louis), 41 intellectual traditions, 43 power, theories of, 41–2 and routes, distinction, 40 routes identity (route 2), 48–52 narration (route 1), 43–8 visuality (route 3), 52–3
The Cunning of Recognition, 359
“cyborg world,” 310–311
“Dating the state: The moral hazards of winning gay rights,” 51 “death-qualified” juries, 139
decentering era (1980s–1990s), 19, 25
Civil Litigation Research Project (CLRP), 24
Coase Theorem and socio-legal concepts, 25 collective-cultural turn, 26 extra-legal dispute settlement, 25 individual-level cultural turn, 25–6 legal consciousness, xvii, 24
legal pluralism, 24
1980–1981 LSR issue, 24, 26 quantitative/qualitative methods, xvii–xviii, 26 race and capital punishment, relationship, 26 responsive regulation, 26
social homogeneity, 24
war on crime, 23
decision-making procedures, 25–6, 29, 86–7, 90, 121–3, 126, 128–9, 152, 155, 201, 254, 436 deconstructionism, 42
disability
civil rights to human rights, 331–2
definition, 325–7
disability legal studies (DLS), 333 employment discrimination, 328–9 law and policy, 322–3 law, United States, 329–30 reasonable accommodations, 327–8 rights as civil rights, 323–4 socio-legal scholarship, 332–3
disability legal studies (DLS), 333 disciplinary knowledge formation (Kuhn, Thomas), xiv DLS see disability legal studies (DLS) drug court vs. traditional courts procedures, 92 Drug Enforcement Agency, 439

EAHCA see “Education of All Handicapped Children Act” (EAHCA) EBP movement see evidence-based policing (EBP) movement eclecticism, xiv
“Education of All Handicapped Children Act” (EAHCA), 324–5 elite law, 6, 106, 108
embedded liberalism or liberal legalism, 401–2 empirical legal studies (ELS), 71–2 employment discrimination law, 9 environmental protection
Clean Air Act, 177
European Union's Eco-Management and Audit Scheme (EMAS), 177–8 Performance Track, 178 pollution prevention planning laws, 178–9 Risk Management Planning (RMP) rule, 177 ethnographic law
Belonging in an Adopted World, 78–9
Bridging Divides, 78
The Cheyenne Way, “the trouble-case method,” 76–7
Civil Rights Act, 77
Crime and Custom in Savage Society, 76
definition, 77, 79
face-to-face communications, 78
“a legalistic approach,” 77–8 Pronouncing and Persevering, 78
ethnography
as account, 72, 75, 82
definition, 71
ethnographic authority, crisis of, 74 experimental, 74 legal criminality and deviance, 79–80
engaged ethnography, 80–2
legal advocacy, 82
as method, 72
methodological tool, 73
mixed methods, use of, 74 notion of “thick description” (Geertz), 73–4 research tool, 73
spatial and temporal tactics, 74–5
European Court of Human Rights, 15
European Court of Justice, 9, 15, 28
The European Union’s Eco-Management and Audit Scheme (EMAS), 177–8 evidence-based policing (EBP) movement deploying officers, 187 geographically trained researchers, 188 Independent Police Commission report, 189 instrumental knowledge, 187 public health inquiries, 189 public security, 189
randomized controlled trial (RCT), 188
social analysis, 187
speedy service, 187
exiled narratives, 44
family and family law
attachment theory, 203 child placement statutes, 203 dispute resolution, 205 divorce legislation, 204 globalization, 205–8
litigation, 202
marriage recognition, 201 mediation and arbitration, 205 polygamy, 202
public norms, 204
same-sex marriage debates, 202 traditional marriage/biological parenting, 202 food safety
catering establishments, 174
foodborne illness, 174
Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points system (HACCP), 173
small firms, 174–5
Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), 326
global era (1990s–2000s), 19, 28
academic affiliations, 27
adversarial legalism, 29
constitutive theory of law, xviii cultural turn, xviii–xix international human rights movement, xix–xx Law and Society Review, xxi Laws and Societies in Global Contexts, xxi legal institutions, 29
local cultures/local legal systems, xx–xxi multiple overlapping legalities, xix
rule of law, 28
socio-legal scholars, xviii socio-legal works, 27–8 state law, xix transtnational legality, xviii, 28–9
war on crime, 29
war on terror, 27
globalism international human rights law, 442 justice, law and society criminal organizations, 439 lex mercatoria, 441
state legal system, 440–441 violent pluralism, 440–441
lawyers, 435–6
legal pluralism literature, 442 national and international laws, 442–3 neocolonialism and legal pluralism, 438–9 norm creation
global norm reform, 436 global promotion and circulation, 436–7 human rights, 437–8 recognition of lex mercatoria, 437 “soft law,” 437
transnational legal process, study, 436 political community, 443
power, 434, 435
socioeconomic justice, 441–2 violence, 434–5
globalized claims, 16
governmental opportunism, 153
Great Ape Project, 311
Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points system (HACCP), 173–5 hegemony, theory of (Gramsci, Antonio), 41 hermeneutics, 42
The Hollow Hope, 26, 371, 385
human-nonhuman biopolitics, 311
human rights movement challenges, 389
definition, 295
discriminatory policies, 297 enforceable constitutional rights, 301
General Assembly jurisdiction, 299 Genocide Convention to the Torture Convention, 292 globalization of constitutionalism, 300 government and non-government entities, 291 human dignity, 292
international, 293, 299, 388 judiciary, role, 388–9
law and society lens, 294–5 Millennium Development Goals, 293 mobilization, 389
national liberation movements, 296 political and civil rights, 301 recognition and social emancipation, 293 scope and legal authority, 291 socioeconomic rights, 301 southern voices, 292
in United States, 391–2
Human Rights Watch, 114
I Am Charlotte Simmons, 47–8 identity see also cultural studies of law
Brown v. Board of Education, 50
“Dating the state: The moral hazards of winning gay rights,” 51–2 law of tribal recognition, 48
Mashpee Tribe’s land litigation (Clifford, James), 48–9 mutual reinforcement of race/property, 49
Plessy v. Ferguson, 50
“Whiteness as property” (Harris, Cheryl), 49–50
Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA), 263
Index

illegal alien consequences, 263 criminalization, undocumented immigrants, 263 detention and deportation, 264 “Entry Without Inspection,” 265 illegal aliens, 262
Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA), 263
Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agency, 264 and legal consciousness law mobilization, 267 mobilization and empowerment, disenfranchised communities, 269 socialization process, 268
Immigration and Nationality Act (Hart–Celler Act), 261
immigration law and society enforcement practices, 259, 270 illegality, 262–9
integration experiences, 271 international migration, 259 legal violence, 265–7
unauthorized migration, 270
US laws and inequalities, 260–262
Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 262
Independent Police Commission report, United Kingdom (Policing for a Better Britain), 189
Indian Penal Code, 428
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 325
Inter-American Court of Human Rights, 15 International Criminal Court, 15 international human rights movement see also human rights movement agreements, 389
enforcement mechanisms, 389 judicialization or legalization of economic policy, 390 social movements, 389–90
socioeconomic rights, 390–391
Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 389
International Institute for the Unification of Private Law, 411
International Monetary Fund, 401
International Union for Conservation of Nature’s (IUCN) Red List and the Endangered Species Act, 318
Interpretations of Legal History, 64
Journal of Empirical Legal Studies, 144
judicial transnationalism bans, foreign law, 128 foreign citation, 127, 128 politics, 128
juridical field, internationalization
legal pluralism, 15–16
post-World War II, legal documents, 15 public stories of law, 15
rule-of-law, 15
violations of international law, 14 war crimes or corruption, 14
jurisgenesis, 44
juror instructions, 142–3
note-taking, 141
official barriers affirmative registration, 136 African–American men, 136
women, 135
passive to active participants, 134, 141–4 peremptory challenges
academic literature, 138 Batson v. Kentucky, 137–8 discriminatory peremptories, 137 questions, 141–2
threat, internet and social media, 143–4 unofficial barriers death penalty “excludables;” 138–9 jury size, 139–40
peremptory challenges, 136–8 jury research
lay participation, 147
mock juries, 146
online surveys, 146
other countries’ jury systems, 147 recording, deliberations, 145–6 jury (cont’d)
trials
arbitration clauses, 145 civil and criminal cases, 144 debate number, 134–5 decision, peremptory challenges, 145 streamlining, jury process, 145

Justice as Translation, 45
Korean Industrial Safety and Health Act, 176

labor law, 6
language and culture of law, 44, 64, 66, 216–17
law and development movement
(embedded liberalism or liberal legalism), 401–2

Law and Nature (Delaney, David), 314
Law and Society Association (LSA), xiii, 19

Law and the Modern Mind, 3

Law and the Question of the Animal, 313 law as authority/field citation counts, 4–5 domination and pluralism, 4 fascism, 3

feminist and critical race scholarship, 5 law and society scholarship, 4 law, description, 4 semi-autonomous field, 3 uncertainty, 3
in United States, 4

law as command
colonial and imperial expansion, 420–421
colonial law, 420–421
colonial resettlement and violence, 419–20, 422
European law, introduction of, 421 law and colonialism scholars, 422–3
legal pluralism, 420
legal production of knowledge, 422
post-structuralism, 419–20
Western property, introduction of, 422

law as general/policy
criminal justice system, 11
rule of law, 10
stories, 10–11
women’s rights, 11

law as punitive/productive goal-setting and legalism, 12 rights-bearing citizens, 11–12 stories: lives and texts, 13–14 technologies, 12–13
violence, imprisoning and executing people, 11

“law first” perspective, xvii law-in-context era (1960s–1970s) Berkeley Center, 20

extra-legal attributes, 22
eyewitness testimony, 21 ideas (Marx, Karl), 22
law and development, 21
law first perspective, xvii
Law & Society Review (LSR), 20
legal decisions, 21–2
legal doctrines, property and contract law, 22 legal realism, xvi–xvii, 20 meaning and culture, 22 meaning and legitimacy, 22 non-contractual relations, concept of, 22
pre-trial process model, 22
Russell Sage Foundation’s (RSF) funding of research centers, 20 scholarship, xvii, 23
semi-autonomous social fields, 23 social context, 19–21
social homogeneity, 23
social inequality, 22
social structural variables, 22
The Law is a White Dog, 238, 314
law of primogeniture, 44
law of tribal recognition, 48
Law & Social Inquiry (LSI), 340
Law & Society Review (LSR), 340–342

lawyers and legal profession careers, inequality
gender, 107
race, 108
socio-demographic background, 108–9 Cravath model, scholarship, 115
globalization
and corporate law, 113–14
legal education abroad and outsourcing, 114–15 and public interest law, 114 practice of law
large firms, 110–112
private law, 112
public interest and pro bono, 113 solo and small practice, 109–10 satisfaction, 109
social structure, 105, 106 Lawyers on their Own, 110 legal comparativism, 127
legal ethnography
criminality and deviance, 79–80
engaged ethnography, 80–82
legal advocacy, 82
legal identity
colonial and postcolonial, 355–7 nation-state, 357–60
twenty-first century
denationalization, post-nationalism and transnationalism, 361 international human rights, 362 liberal approach, 361 lines of inquiry, 361
new geographies of citizenship, 361 postcolonial approach, 361 strategic essentialism, 362 legal imagery, studies of, 52
legal imperialism, 403
legal mobilization
civil and political rights, 387–8 context-specificity of legal tactics, 387
definition, 385, 386
indirect or radiating effects, 386, 392 litigation and legal tactics “cause lawyers”, social movement, 387 double agents, lawyers as, 387 multi-institutional approach, 387 sociolegal and social movement traditions, 386 legal nonexistence, 361
legal officials, 8–10
legal personhood and animality, 314–15
legal pluralism, 15–16, 24, 27, 205, 281, 288, 319, 401, 410, 420, 438–43 legal secularism see secularism, legal lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans (LGBT) activism, 200 lex mercatoria, recognition of, 437 liberal governance, 373
liberal legalism projects, 400
“license Raj,” 405
Literature, Culture, and Law at Duke University, 46
management-based regulation advantages, 171–2
environmental protection, 177–9
food safety, 173–5
forms, 172–3
informational benefits, 172 law and society research, 173 occupational safety and health, 175–7 “plan-do-check-act” model, 171, 172 theoretical advantages, 172 tort liability, 171
mankind, four states
Age of Agriculture, 61
Age of Commerce, 61
Age of Hunters, 61
Age of Shepherds, 61 Mashpee Tribe’s land litigation (Clifford), 48–9 mass incarceration civil and social impacts, 234 collateral consequences, 233 criminal justice policy decisions, 240 “culture of control,” 232 individual-level analysis, 231 legal injustices, 238
punishment and social control, 237
quantitative analysis, 231 restrictive civil laws, 233 social and economic policy, 240 methyl isocyanate release (1984, India), 175 migrations, legal colonial and imperial rule, 429–30 comparative and transnational literature, 428 heterogeneity and multiplicity of time, 429
Indian Penal Code, 428
legal cultures, 427
legal transplants, 427
scholarship, 426
Western, customary, and personal law, 426–7 mock jury studies, 146
modern welfare bureaucracy, 244 multispecies ethnography, 311–13 _Mythologies_, 42

narration see also cultural studies of law culture as law, 46–7
exiled narratives, 44
_I Am Charlotte Simmons_, 47–8
jurisgenesis, 44
_Justice as Translation_, 45
language and culture of law, 45 law and literature (West, Robin), 46–7
law of primogeniture, 44
_Literature, Culture, and Law at Duke University_, 46
Nomos and narrative, 43–4 narrative theory, 42
National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), 246
Naturalization Act, 217
neocolonialism and legal pluralism
legal pluralism, 438–9
power, 438
neoliberalism, 8–9
New Institutional Economics (NIE), 412
9/11, 29, 89, 276–7, 282, 284
non-contractual relations, concept of, 22 Norwegian drilling rig collapse, 175

occupational safety and health European Union (EU) directive, 175–6 hazard identification, 176–7 management-based standards, 175
Process Safety Management (PSM), 176
Responsible Safety Management (PSM), 176 Risk Assessment Care program, 176 risk-assessment methodologies, 175
Voluntary Protection Program (VPP), 176
Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), 176 officials, tracking elite judges, 9
legal advice, 9–10
neoliberalism, 8–9
sociology of lawyering, 8
trials, 9
_Orientalism_, 419
overlapping neighborhoods, model of, xiv, xv

para-ethnographers, 82
_Plessy v. Ferguson_, 50, 215–16
plural policing research, 190–192 “polemics of animal rights,” 313
police and policing global policing, 194
interpretive policing, 193
plural policing research, 190–192 security, 192–3
theory-building, 192
police-centered research culture and craft, police work, 185–6 evidence-based policing (EBP), 187–9 global police studies, 190 legitimacy and procedural justice, 186 political rights, 388
posthumanism anthropocentrism and speciesism, 311 cyborg world (Haraway), 310–311 domestic animals, 310
human-nonhuman biopolitics, 311
multispecies ethnographies, 311–13 socio-legal inquiries, 312 postmodernism, 41
post-structuralism, 419–20
power
definition, 434
globalization of law, 435 theories of, 41–2
pragmatism, 6, 65, 311
pre-trial process model, 22
principled eclecticism, xvi Prison Litigation Reform Act, 232 private organizations
management-based regulation
advantages, 171–2
“plan-do-check-act” model, 171, 172
regulatory challenges business organizations, 170 interaction, internal and external factors, 171
internal license, 170
management style, 170
organizational behavior, 170
Sarbanes–Oxley Act, 169
procedural justice
abstract construct, 86
cognitions vs. behaviors behaviors predicting behaviors, 92–3 behaviors predicting cognitions, 89–91 cognitions predicting behaviors, 91 cognitions predicting cognitions, 89 variables and research, operationalizations, 88, 88

cognitive account attitudes and behaviors, 94, 97–8 behavioral outcomes, 94, 98 cognitive-to-cognitive studies, 95
criminal justice system, 96 institutional support and legitimacy, 93–4
legal cynicism, 97
legitimacy relationship, 95, 95–6 moral mandates, 96–7
race and ethnicity, 96
random error, 94
social control and strain theory, 94, 98 specific behaviors, 98 concept of voice, 87, 88 decision making, 86
indirect effect, 91
jury selection, polite and respectful treatment, 88
non-legal conflict, 86 operational definition or operationalization, 86
outcomes, cognitive/behavioral, 87
Procedural Justice: A Psychological
  Analysis, 86
The Social Psychology of Procedural
  Justice, 87
Procedural Justice: A Psychological
  Analysis, 86
Process Safety Management (PSM), 176
The Professional Stranger: An Informal
  Introduction to Ethnography, 75
Pronouncing and Persevering, 78
punishment and social control Bureau of Justice Statistics, 228 criminal behavior, 229
empirical models, 231
mass incarceration see mass incarceration prison privatization, 231
quantitative analysis, 232

“rehabilitative ideal,” 232
War on Drugs, 230

Qualitative Inquiry and Research Design: Choosing Among Five Traditions, 72

race see also critical race theory; society race scholarship
  articles, 340–341
  as instrumentality, 343
  and racism, 343
  as taxonomy, 343
Racial Integrity Act, 218
randomized controlled trial (RCT), 188 rapprochement, regulatory theory decentering, state or law, 161–2 post-structuralist approaches, 158 process-oriented regulation, 161 science and technology studies (STS), 159 Science Policy Research Unit (SPRU), 159 sharing economy, 162–3 sociological citizens, 160 system dynamics, 160
RCT see randomized controlled trial (RCT)
Regulation and Governance (journal), 157 regulators and regulatory processes de-delegation, 154 developmental state literature, 153 economic efficiency, 150–151
governmental opportunism, 153 institutional self-regulation, 152 market-based approaches, 151 policy literature, 152
rapprochement see rapprochement, regulatory theory
regulatory governance, 150 rule-based regulation, 154 single-country and single-sector case studies, 153
social solidarity and human rights, 151 standard conceptions, 152 transnational regulation see transnational regulation
Turkey, 153–4
Rehabilitation Act, 324
Reintegrative Shaming Experiment (RISE), 92
Responsible Care program, 176
Index

rights scholarship discursive conventions authenticity, 376
  authorizing traditions, 375 claimants, 376
discursive foundations, 374 formal legal traditions, 375 improper law-use, 377
Tort Reform Movement (TRM), 377
institutional considerations American people, 379
cultural contract, 378
legal mobilization model classic studies of rights, 371 epistemological, 368–9 multiple rights traditions, 369 myth of rights, 368
national legal system, 369 rights claims, 369–70
social identity
  anti-liberal traits, 374 constitutive outsides and remainders, 374
  liberal governance, 373
  liberal personhood, 373 liberal self, 374 rights-bearing subject, 373–4
  self-governance, 372
Risk Management Planning (RMP)
  rule, 177
Roman law traditions, Europe, 59–60
  rule-of-law, 7, 28
  British colonial liberalism, 401
  colonial liberalism, 407–13
courts and judges, 129–31
and economic development see colonial liberalism imperative, 405–6
  juridical field, internationalization, 15
  liberal legalism projects, 400 neoliberal “Washington Consensus,” 400 politics of global mapping, 400 “the rise of Asia,” 400 social and economic organization, 400 state-vs.-market, 399, 401–5 2000s and beyond, 405–7
Russell Sage Foundation’s (RSF) funding of research centers, 20
Sarbanes–Oxley Act, 169
secularism, legal biblical criticism, 280 collaboration, close and compact, 277 conservative reaction, 274 discrimination law, 274 Establishment Clause, 279 humanist-theological tradition, 281 Jewish Political Tradition, 276 political theology, 282–3 religious institutionalism Christian approaches to legal theory, 283–4
  Free Exercise and Establishment
  Clauses, 285
  Smith v. Employment Commission decision, 286
secularization thesis, 275 sexuality, 279
war on terror, 276
self-governance, 372
skepticism, 7, 51
social contract theory
  agreement, 352
disillusionment with law, 353
  imagining, 353–4
  personal identity, 353
social-historical approaches 1600–1900
  American Revolution, 62
  Ancient Law, 63
  commercial society, needs, 61–2 defending slavery, 63–4 feudalism to commerce, 60–63 immemorial past, 60
  Lochner v. New York, 64–5
  mankind, four states, 61
  notion of society, 62
  Roman law traditions, Europe, 59–60 self-conscious transformation of government (Paine, Thomas), 62 social-historical sensibilities, 63 temporality of insensibility, 61–2 1900–2000
  critical legal studies (CLS) movement, 67–8 Holmesian revolution, 66
  law’s foundations, 65
Index

legal sociology, 67
Lochner v. New York, 65–6
Muller v. Oregon, 66 public utilities course (Frankfurter), 66–7 sciences of history and society, 58 socio-legal approach, 56
social identity, 89–90, 354, 372–4
social inequality, 22, 26, 77, 184, 218, 386
social movements
Brown vs. Board of Education, 382–3
definition, 383
domestication of human rights, 391–2 human movements, 388–9 ideological debate
civil rights, 384
critical legal studies (CLS), 383–4, 392–3 false consciousness, 384 institutional debate legal mobilization perspective, 385 social reform litigation, 385 utility of legal strategies, 385
international human rights movement, 389–91
social movement theory, 18, 386
The Social Psychology of Procedural Justice, 87 social rights or socioeconomic rights, 388 social solidarity, 151
social welfare legislation, 326 society
antidiscrimination law see antidiscrimination law on punishment see punishment and social control research on family
LGBT, 200
mythic families of law and policies, 199 non-state normative ordering, 199 policy-oriented research, 200 spousal property arrangements, 201 society race scholarship
articles, 340–341
as instrumentality, 343
Law & Social Inquiry (LSI), 340
Law & Society Review (LSR), 340–342
quantitative analysis, 341–2 racism, 343
as taxonomy, 343
socio-legal research, xv, 27–31, 208–9 socio-legal scholars, xiv, 29–30 colonial and postcolonial legal identities, 355–7 legal identity, nation-state, 357–60 sociological jurisprudence, 4, 6 soft imperialism, 356
“soft law,” 437
solo lawyers, 109–11, 113
speciesism, 311
The Spirit of the Law, 278
state-vs.-market, 1950s–1980s Bretton Woods system, establishment, 401 dependency and world-systems theory, 403–4 distinction, 399
impoverishment, process, 403
law and development movement, 401–2
legal imperialism, 403
“license Raj,” 405
modernization theory, 401 neoliberalism, rise of, 404 oil crisis, 1972, 403 productive economic actors, 402–3
rule of law, 405
scholarship, emergence of, 403
UN international development, launch, 402 Washington Consensus, 404–5
street art, 53
supranational courts, 6–7, 15
Supreme Courts, 6–7

Third World, 401
Tort, Custom, and Karma: Globalization and Legal Consciousness in Thailand, xix
Tort Reform Movement (TRM), 377
transnational regulation certification programs, 157 cross-border regulatory networks, 156 international treaties, 155 policy trade-off, 156 private regulatory schemes and state law, 157 state-centered legality, 155

Union for Conservation of Nature’s (IUCN) Red List and the Endangered Species Act, 318
United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, 411
Index

United Nations World Conference at Beijing, 406
United States Constitution
Adarand Constructors, Inc. v. Pena, 221 anti-miscegenation laws, 216 Bradwell v. Illinois, 217
Brown v. Board of Education, 218 class-based discrimination, 220–221 design and interpretation, 214 discriminatory effect, 219 Geduldig v. Aiello, 220 immigration laws, 215–16
Naturalization Act, 217
Plessy v. Ferguson, 216 pro-slavery provisions, 214 reconstruction, 215
sexual orientation and marital status, 215 Southern "Black Codes," 215 systemic discrimination and social inequality, 218
Voting Rights Act, 220
Washington v. Davis, 219
Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 389
US Clean Air Act, 177
US Food Safety and Modernization Act, 173–4 US immigration laws
employment-based/family-based visas, 261
Immigration and Nationality Act (Hart–Celler Act), 261
Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 262
legal nonexistence, 260
legal permanent residency (LPR) or citizenship, 260 militarization of southern border, 262

violence
civil and administrative law, 265 colonial resettlement, 419–20, 422
definition, 434
discretionary power, 266 economic stability, 266
globalization of law, 435
imprisoning and executing people, 11 internalization, social inequalities, 265 legal statuses and inequalities, 267 national borders and internal territories, 434 structural, 265
violent pluralism, 440–441
visuality see also cultural studies of law
"law-in-film," "film-as-law," and "film as evidence" (Silbey, Jessica), 52–3
legal imagery, studies of, 52
street art, 53
Voluntary Protection Program (VPP), 176
Voting Rights Act, 219–20, 357

Walled States, Waning Sovereignty, 360
war on crime, 23, 29
war on terror, 27, 30, 264, 276, 291, 293, 302, 442
welfare law
administrative justice mechanisms, 250–252 Aid to Dependent Children program (ADC), 244 claimants and government officials, 253–5 formal dispute mechanisms, 246
legal consciousness
"discourses of rights and justice," 248 economic hardship and instability, 250 political acquiescence and alienation, 249 rules and regulations, 247 structural dislocations, 249–50
modern welfare bureaucracy, 244
National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), 246 neoliberal policies, 245 poverty, 244
pre- and post-welfare reform, 245 rules, rights and administration, 246–7 social work model, 244
"welfare reform," 245
“Whiteness as property” (Harris, Cheryl), 49–50

Why People Obey the Law, 91, 94

“Witherspoon excludables,” 138–9

women

exclusion, from legal practice, 6, 139

as jurors, 135–6

lawyers, 107

local administrative states and well-being, 6

World Bank, 406

World Trade Organization, 16

Wretched of the Earth, 419

Zooland: The Institution of Captivity, 318