Index

acting persona 157–158
aims xix, 12, 21, 29, 35, 76, 79, 87, 88 alienation 65–66
altruism 58–59, 60, 68–70
Arendt, Hannah 136
arête 70
Aristotle xix, 12–19, 22, 47, 155 assessment activities 28–29 audit culture 76, 79, 88, 158, 160
authority
capabilities 140
ethical deliberation 95
solidarity in education 85
axial coding 99, 101
balance 11
behaviour management 126 beliefs 78–84
benchmarking 158
Bildung 65–66

camaraderie 88
Camus, Albert 81
capabilities 132–151
collateral learning 134
competency-based teacher training 132–133, 138
concepts and definitions 132–133
effective history of influences 135

informal learning environments 134–135 learning environments in a policy context 144–150 pedagogical relations 135–148
teachers’ relations to self 142–144, 146–148
teachers’ relations with colleagues, authorities, parents and community 141–142, 145–146
teachers’ relations with their students 138–141, 145–147
teachers’ relations with their teaching subjects 136–138, 145
venturesome learning environments 134–151
collateral learning 134
Common European Principles for Teacher Competences and Qualifications (European Commission) 3 Competencies xviii
competence-based teacher education 3–6
capabilities 132–133, 138
definitional problems 4
judgement 5–6, 17–21
limits of 3–6
ontological turn in higher education 113 practical implementation 4–5

strategic competence 82–83
well-being 152–153, 163
consequentialism 93
content 6
continuing professional development (CPD)
capabilities 144–145
ethical deliberation 101
well-being 158, 164–166
counselling 35, 126, 164–165
CPD see continuing professional development craft model of teacher education xxiii, 37 cramming 85
criticality
becoming a teacher 31
capabilities 141–142
ethical deliberation 104, 106
critical theory 137
curriculum
capabilities 148
competence-based teacher education 4–5, 20
educational purpose 8
education and philosophy 35
effective delivery of 27–30
ethical deliberation 92
hidden curriculum 8
judgement 12, 20
solidarity in education 76, 78, 80, 85–86
university and school partnership 43 de Certeau, Michel 82–84, 85–87 democracy 90, 103–104, 150–151 deontology 93
derprivation 61, 65–67
Dewey xiv, 47, 53, 58, 65, 74, 79, 85, 134, 138, 150, 163
dialogic event of teacher education 118–125, 127, 129–131
disciplinary issues 48
diversity 33, 34, 142
economic educational paradigm 76, 78–79 educational action 9–10 educational planning 35–36
educational purpose
judgement 9–11
qualification 7
relationships, content and purpose 6–7
socialisation 7–8
subjectification 8–9
teleology 7
three domains of 6–11
Educational Theory and Its Foundation Disciplines (Hirst) 46 educational virtuosity 19–21, 152–153
Education Reform Act (1988) 86
effective history of influences 135
effectiveness 152
emotional well-being 156–157, 160–161 empowerment 8
episteme 14, 15
epistemology
education and philosophy 35, 36
judgement 13–14
ontological turn in higher education 112–116, 119
university and school partnership 48
ethical deliberation 89–108
co-enquirer approach 107
concepts and definitions 89–92, 93–95
conclusions and recommendations 106–108 criticality and self-reflection 104, 106, 108 data presentation, analysis and discussion 101–105 facilitating ethical deliberation 95–97 government policy 89–91
Grounded Theory 98–101
group deliberation 94–95
meta-dialogue 105, 107–108 methodology and methods 98–101 need and demand for 106 oughts 93, 94
role play 103, 107–108
Socratic dialogue 96–97, 102–103, 106–107
teaching 80, 84–86, 90–93
virtue ethics 93
ethics
capabilities 134
education and philosophy 35, 36
ontological turn in higher education 117, 127–129
professional ethics 68–70, 80, 84–86
solidarity in education 80–81, 84
see also virtue ethics
Index

eudaimonia 15, 70
European Commission 3 evidence-informed policy 148–149
extistential practice
  ontological turn in higher education 117
  solidarity in education 79–80
  virtue ethics 57, 61, 64, 68
exttrinsic rewards 67–68

Finnish Lessons (Sahlberg) 150
flourishing
  solidarity in education 83–84
  virtue ethics 57, 60, 65, 69–70
  well-being 155–156
forms of educational action 9–10
forms of knowledge 34
free-floating attention 156
fusion of horizons 119, 122–123

gallows humour 84
General Teaching Council of England (GTCE) 89–90
Good Life of Teaching, The: An Ethics of Professional Practice (Higgins) 57 grammar 31, 32–33
Grounded Theory 98–101
group deliberation 94–95
Growing Minds: On Becoming a Teacher (Kohl) 58
GTCE see General Teaching Council of England

Hegel, G. W. F. 65–66
Heidegger, Martin 115–116, 121–122, 130
helping professions 57–59, 61, 67–68
hidden curriculum 8
higher education 111–131
  being and knowing 116, 125–131 change and supercomplexity 114–115, 127–128 classic works and the canon 124–125, 129
dialogic event of teacher education 118–125, 127, 129–131
epistemology 112–116, 119
ethics and moral purpose 117, 127–129
foundation disciplines of education 124–125
fusion of horizons 119, 122–123
implications for students and teacher educators 125–131
lesson debriefs 119–121
method 121–122
ontological turn 112–119, 123–125, 127–131 practice turn 116–117 prejudices and I–Thou 118–123
space 129–131
subject matter of education study 122–123
theory 111–113, 115–118, 131
topological metaphor 129–131
tradition 123–125, 129
transformative outlook on teaching 113
university and school partnership 111
Hirst, Paul 38
history of education 41, 45–48, 51–52, 124–125 hub schools 39
humanistic practice 57

Idea of a University, The (Newman) 38, 42–44
Improving the Quality of Teacher Education (European Union) 3–4 informal learning environments 134–135
inherent benefits 137–138
instrumental thinking 42–43, 51–52, 115–116 isintersubjectivity 68
intrinsic rewards 67–68
I–Thou paradigm 118–123

James, William 13
judgement 9–21
  balance and trade-offs 11
  competence-based teacher education 5–6, 17–21
  educational purpose 9–11
  educational virtuosity 19–21
  epistemological and ontological arguments 13–14
  ethical deliberation 91
  forms of educational action 9–10 kinds needed in teaching 12–17 means and ends of education 9–10
Index 187

need for in education 9–12 poiesis and praxis 14–17 practical knowledge and practical wisdom 15–19 practising judgement 20
pragmatism 11–12
psychology 13
solidarity in education 77
techne and phronesis 15–19 theoretical and practical life 14–15
university and school partnership 43, 48

Kant, Immanuel 44
knowledge 4–15, 25–26, 30, 32 as aim of education 7 content knowledge 39–40, 143 ethical knowledge 89 liberal knowledge 42–44
self-knowledge 160, 161–162, 164–6 teacher-knowledge 41–42, 111–112, 116, 136 practitioner knowledge xix

la perruque 82–87
law 90
league tables 76
learning activities 28–29
Learning Anew (TL21, 2008) 144, 146 learning objectives 77
lesson debriefs 119–121
lesson objectives 28–29
lesson plans 77
Levinas, Immanuel 81–82
liberty 90
love 136–138, 143

McNair Report (1944) 48
managerialism 158
mentoring 49, 154, 163–164
Merleau-Ponty, Maurice 120
meta-dialogue 105, 107–108
mimetic outlook on teaching 61 morality
ethical deliberation 90–93, 95, 100–101, 103, 106–107
ontological turn in higher education 117, 127–129
moral professionalism 69 mutual responsibility 82

National College for School Leadership and Children’s Services (NCL) 39
National Council for Curriculum and Assessment 148 National Curriculum 28, 76, 85 national frameworks 3–4
National Partnership Programme (NPP) 49
National Teaching Schools Prospectus 39, 40
Newman 38–42
NCL see National College for School Leadership and Children’s Services
Nietzsche, Friedrich 62
No Child Left Behind initiative 149
NPP see National Partnership Programme Nussbaum, Martha 132–133

occupational preparation 23–37 acquisition of skills 23, 24–26, 29–30
becoming a teacher 30–33
education and philosophy 34–37
education and skill 23, 26–27, 30–33
effective curriculum delivery 27–30 learning of procedures 23, 24–26, 29–30 learning to teach 27–30 procedures and skill 24–26
subject knowledge 30–33
ontology
dialogic event of teacher education 123–125, 127, 129–131
ethics and moral purpose 117, 127–129
implications for students and teacher educators 125–131
judgement 14
ontological turn in higher education 112–119, 123–125, 127–131
space 129–131
topological metaphor 129–131
tradition 123–125
open coding 99, 101
oughts 93, 94
Oxford University model of teacher education 49

Partnership xix see university and school partnership pedagogical content knowledge 143
pedagogical relations 135–148
  teachers’ relations to self 142–144, 146–148
  teachers’ relations with colleagues, authorities, parents and community 141–142, 145–146
  teachers’ relations with their students 138–141, 145–147
  teachers’ relations with their teaching subjects 136–138, 145

Pedagogy of the Oppressed (Freire) 81

pedagogical relations 135–148
  teachers’ relations to self 142–144, 146–148
  teachers’ relations with colleagues, authorities, parents and community 141–142, 145–146
  teachers’ relations with their students 138–141, 145–147
  teachers’ relations with their teaching subjects 136–138, 145

peer learning 21

performer self 142–144, 146–148

performance review 158, 160

la perruque 82–87

personalisation of learning 76–77

PGCE see Post-Graduate Certificate in Education

phenomenology 34

philosophy of education 41, 45–48, 51–52, 124–125

phronesis 12–21 37, 57–58

phronimos 18–19

Plato 96–97, 150

play and playfulness 84–86

Plowden Report (1967) 86

pluralista within learning environments 139, 151

poiesis 14–17

Post-Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) courses 126

postmodernism 34

practical knowledge 15–19

practical life 14–15

practical reason 35–37

practical wisdom xix, xxi, 12–21, 22, 27, 37, 57–58, 61, 70, 75

practice
  capabilities 139, 141–142, 151
  experience 112
  judgement 20
  ontological turn in higher education 116–117
  practice-based research 52
  procedures and skill 24–25

Practice of Everyday Life, The (de Certeau) 82–83

pragmatism 11–12

Praise of Theory (Gadamer) 113

praxis 14–16, 35–37

prejudices 118–123

procedure
  effective curriculum delivery 28–29
  learning of 23, 24–26, 28–29 skill and procedures 24–26 professional development see continuing professional development

professional ethics 68–70

professionalism 92–93

professional learning 42–44

professors 65

psychological well-being 156, 160–161

psychology 13

psychology of education 41, 45–48, 51–52, 124–125 purpose see educational purpose

qualification 7

Race to the Top initiative 149 realisation of pedagogical relations 140–141

reflection and self-reflection
  ethical deliberation 104, 106, 108
  ontological turn in higher education 129–130
  practice 47–48
  well-being 158–159, 162–164

relationships 6 relational aspect of teaching xix

research xix

Richard Peters 7

rights 90

risk 79–80

Robbins Report (1963) 43, 45

role play 103, 107–108

School Centred Initial Teacher Training (SCITT) 49

school discipline 48

school improvement xix

SCITT see School Centred Initial Teacher Training

self-cultivation 60–68
  altruism and self-interest 58–59, 60, 68–70 as a necessary condition of education 60, 64
  capabilities 142–144, 146–148
central argument for teacherly self-cultivation 60–61 deprivation and self-sacrifice 61, 65–67
education as self-formation 61–62
fostering self-cultivation in students 60, 62–63
helping professions 61, 67–68
intersubjectivity 68
intrinsic and extrinsic rewards 67–68
mimetic and transformative outlooks on teaching 61, 63–64
resisting truisms 62–63
working conditions in teaching 60, 64–65 self-disclosure 127, 128 self-interest 58–59, 60, 68–70
self-knowledge 160, 161–162
self-reflection see reflection and self-reflection self-sacrifice 61, 65–67 Sen, Amartya 132–133
servile knowledge 42
shop floor training 4, 20–21 skills acquisition of 23, 24–26, 29–30
  education and skill 26–27, 30–33
  effective curriculum delivery 29–30
  procedures and skill 24–26
social inequalities 8
socialisation 7–8
social mobility 33, 34
social standing 65
social well-being 156, 160–161 sociology of education 41, 45–48, 51–52, 124–125
Socratic dialogue 96–97, 102–103, 106–107, 150
solidarity in education 76–88
  audit culture 76, 79, 88
  compromised values and the double bind 79, 80–84
  concepts and definitions 76–77
  coping and resistance 80–88
  ethics 80–81, 84
  flourishing 83–84
  la perruque or wiggery 82–87
  mutual responsibility 82
  personalisation of learning 76–77
  play and playfulness 84–86
  risk 79–80
  solidarity as a teacher educator 80–84 solidarity with pupils 84–86 solid with and solid against 86–88
  strategic competence 82–83
  teacher beliefs and values 78–84 vocational education 78–79
  working conditions in teaching 77
Sophist, The (Plato) 97
space 129–131
standards xviii
Standards for the Award of Qualified Teacher Status (DfE 2012) 153–154
strategic competence 82–83
subjectification 8–9
subject knowledge 30–33
subject matter of education study 122–123
Talks to Teachers (James) 13
Teachers’ Standards (GTCE, 2010) 90
Teach First 49
Teaching and Learning for the 21st Century 144–148
Teaching Scotland’s Future (SG, 2011) 40, 50 teaching style 28
techné 15–19, 36–37, 77
teleology 7
theoretical life 14
theory xxii
effective curriculum delivery 29–30
future UK teacher education 39–41, 50–52
ontological turn in higher education 111–113, 115–118, 131
procedures and skill 25–26
trade-offs 11
tradition 123–125, 129
transformative outlook on teaching 61, 63–64, 113, 125
truisms 62–63
university and school partnership 38–53
  concepts and definitions 38
  disciplinary issues 48
  foundation disciplines of education 41, 45–48, 51–52
  idea of 48–52
  instrumental thinking 42–43, 51–52
Index

university and school partnership (cont’d)
liberal and servile knowledge 42
ontological turn in higher education 111
professional or vocational learning 42–44 reflection on practice 47–48 theory in future UK teacher education 39–41, 50–52 up-skilling 137
values 78–84, 90–91, 95

venturesome learning environments 134–151
collateral learning 134
concepts and definitions 134–136
effective history of influences 135
informal learning environments 134–135
pedagogical relations 135–148
policy context 144–151
teachers’ relations to self 142–144, 146–148
teachers’ relations with colleagues, authorities, parents and community 141–142, 145–146
teachers’ relations with their students 138–141, 145–147
teachers’ relations with their teaching subjects 136–138, 145

virtue ethics 57–75
altruism and self-interest 58–59, 60
central argument for self-cultivation 60–61
concepts and definitions 57–58
deprivation and self-sacrifice 61, 65–67
education as self-formation 61–62
ethical deliberation 93
flourishing 57, 60, 65, 69–70
fostering self-cultivation in students 60, 62–63
helping professions 57–59, 61, 67–68
intersubjectivity 68
intrinsic and extrinsic rewards 67–68
judgement 19–21
mimetic and transformative outlooks on teaching 61, 63–64
professional ethics 68–70
resisting truisms 62–63
self-cultivation 58, 59, 60–68
self-cultivation as a necessary condition of education 60, 64
working conditions in teaching 60, 64–65
see also educational virtuosity vocational education 42–44, 78–79

values xxi

Voices from School (TL21, 2005) 144

well-being 152–166
acting persona 157–158
challenges to teachers’ well-being 157–159
competence-based teacher education 152–153, 163
concepts and definitions 154–157
contingent problems 165–166 continuing professional development 158, 164–166 developing self-knowledge 160, 161–162
educational virtuosity 152–153
flourishing 155–156
mentoring 154, 163–164
Pleasant Life, Engaged Life and Meaningful Life 155–156 psychological, social and emotional well-being 156–157, 160–161
reflection and self-reflection 158–159, 162–164 UK and international policy 152–154
working conditions in teaching 154
White John 35, 155–6
White Paper for Schools (SCETT, 2011) 111, 116
wiggery 82–87
Whitehead, Alfred 38, 44–47, 53
Williams, Bernard 69 working conditions in teaching self-cultivation 60, 64–65
solidarity in education 77
well-being 154