Index

abstracts, 41–2
accountability, 249, 251, 254, 255 Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME), 3, 11–13 training in psychotherapy, 50
assessment of competencies, 58
clinical requirements, 55 Addiction Biology, 40 addition to online interaction, 114–18 administration, 296–7, 307–8 skills, 299–300
Agency for Health Care Policy and Research, 12 altruism, 249, 251, 253, 255
American College of Neuropsychopharmacology (ACNP)
research training, 22–3
American Journal of Psychiatry, 39
American Medical Association (AMA), 3
American Psychiatric Association (APA), 323 cultural formulation, 129–30
grants for research, 28
research training, 21–2
Amok (as in ‘running amok’), 127 anthropology of psychiatry, 123 anticipated directive, 268 Archives of General Psychiatry, 39 assertive community treatment (ACT), 68 Association for the Improvement of Mental health Programmes (AIMHP)
research training, 23
Association of German Young Psychiatrists, 322–3
ataque de nervios, 127
autonomy, 260, 261–2
Balint groups, 54–5
behaviour perspective of psychiatry, 85 beneficence, 261
bioethics, 263
Biological Psychiatry, 39
biophysiosocial self-care formulation, 207 blogs, 115
Bolam test, 167–8
British Journal of Psychiatry, The, 39, 40 instructions to authors, 42 statistical analysis, 43 burnout syndrome, 285–6
avoiding, 205–6
exercise, 206–9
prevention and recovery strategies, 292 dimensions, 288
Burroughs Wellcome Fund Career Awards for Medical Scientists
grants for research, 27
Call Room Workout, 206–9
Capable Practitioner Framework, 73 capacity of patients, 263
career choices, 197–8, 209
job satisfaction and preventing burnout, 205–6 exercise, 206–9
medicine, 198
personal assessment, 198–200

Edited by Andrea Fiorillo, Iris Tatjana Calliess and Henning Sass.
© 2012 John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. Published 2012 by John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. career choices (continued)
setting priorities in own life, 201–4 setting priorities in psychiatry, 200–1 work–life balance, 204–5
Career Development Institute (CDI)
research training, 23
chat online, 115
child and adolescent psychiatry (CAP) interface with paediatrics, 225–7 training in Europe, 2–3, 10–11
Chinese Classification of Mental Disorders (CCMD) system, 125–6 classification systems of mental illness, 124–5 CCMD, 125–6
DSM-IV, 125
ICD-10, 125
client/patient-facing processes, 188 coercive measures, 273, 275, 280 cognitive analytic therapy (CAT), 52
cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), 51 collaborations with other specialties, 211–12, 231
benefits, 212–14
activity related, 216–17
clinical setting, 214–16
specific psychiatric conditions, 218 examples,
child and adolescent psychiatry and paediatrics, 225–7 neurology and psychiatry, 228–31 improving, 221–4
medical overlap, 224 obstacles and indications, 222
medically unexplained physical symptoms (MUPS), avoidance of psychiatric investigation, 220–1
features, 219–20
fragility of biomedical model, 218–19
functional disorders, 220
need for effective clinical solutions, 221 community mental health service delivery, 66–7 complaints against practitioners, 162, 173–4 computers interaction with patients, 101
confidentiality, 171
confidentiality, 266–7
consent, 261–2
and competency, 170–1
exceptions to informed consent, 262
research, 265
consultation–liaison psychiatry (CLP), 213
activity related, 216–17
clinical setting, 214
Continuing Medical Education (CME), 315 crisis resolution teams (CRTs), 68 cross-cultural telepsychiatry, 113–14 cross-sector care, 182–3, 195
dehospitalization, 184–5
economic and financial management, 189–90 history of change, 183–4 information technology (IT) infrastructure, 192 innovation management and future outpatient care models, 193–4 managed care and integrated care provision, 185–6 management of integrated care programmes, 186–8 outlook for early career psychiatrists, 194–5 professional management, 190–2 service quality, customer processes and patient relationships, 188–9 voluntary inscription and data protection, 193 cultural aspect of mental illness, 122
anthropology of psychiatry, 123
as an element of training, 134 classification systems around the world, 124–5
CCMD, 125–6
DSM-IV, 125
ICD-10, 125
clinical practice, 128
corroborative information, 128 interpreters, 129
culturally specific syndromes, 126 amok, 127
ataque de nervios, 127
neurasthenia, 126–7
effect of culture on psychopathology, 128 formulation/explanatory models, 129–33 globalization, 123–4 migration, 124
treatment, 133
etnopsychopharmacology principles, 133–4 cynicism, 288
CYP2D6 enzyme variations, 133–4
data analysis, 29
data collection, 29
data protection, 193
databases and search tools, 41, 108–10, 112
dehospitalization, 184–5
demands of psychiatric care, 284 depression, vital, 90 depression in psychiatrists, 285, 288 developing countries, working in, 236–7, 242 economic influences, 237–8 need for psychiatrists, 238–42
public image of psychiatry, 237 web-based references of opportunities, 240 Diagnostic and Statistical Manual IV (DSM-IV), 89, 92, 125
Diagnostic and Statistical Manual 5 (DSM-5), 92, 117
dialectical behaviour therapy (DBT), 52 digital era psychiatry, 98–100, 119–20 digital treatments,
neurofeedback (NFBK), 107
transcranial stimulation techniques, 105–6 vagus nerve stimulation (VNS), 106–7 information technology, 107–8 communication technology, 111, 115–17
databases and search tools, 41, 108–10, 112
ethical considerations, 119
glossary of basic terms, 109
internet and mental health dangers, 114–18
resources for early career psychiatrists, 110, 113
telepsychiatry, 111–14, 118
users of digital tools in psychiatry, 100 clinical psychiatrists, 101 non-psychiatrists, 100–1 researchers and neuroscientists, 102–5 digital tests, 101
dimension perspective of psychiatry, 85 directives, anticipated, 268 disease perspective of psychiatry, 85 distance learning, 116
doctoral training, 30
duty, 250, 251, 255
Early Career Psychiatrists Committee (ECPC) of the EPA, 24, 314
aims, 314
congress programme, 315
Early Career Psychiatrists Council (ECPC) of the WPA, 312–13 activities, 313–14
aims, 313
EBSCO, 112
editing for publication, 44 efficacy, 288
errors (mistakes), 162–5 ethics, 259–60, 269–70
anticipated directives, 268 beneficence and non-maleficence, 261
bioethics, 263
boundary violations, 268–9
confidentiality, 266–7
consent, 261–2
exceptions to informed consent, 262
making therapeutic decisions, 262–3 ethical principles and therapeutic relationship, 260 forensic psychiatry, 267
involuntary hospital admissions, 278–9 protecting private information, 265–6
research, 264
ethics (continued)
   designing trials, 264–5
   informed consent, 265
   technology and psychiatry, 119 Ethics Committee (EC)
   study protocol submission, 28
ethnopsychopharmacology, 133–4
Europe
   training in psychiatry, 1–3
   future directions, 15
   state of the art, 4–11
   training programmes in individual countries, 8–9
European Association for Consultation–Liaison Psychiatry and Psychosomatics (EACLPP), 213
European College of Neuropsychopharmacology (ECNP)
   grants for research, 27
   research training, 22
European Federation of Psychiatric Trainees (EFPT), 3, 315
   aims, 316
   forums, 317
   organisation and activities, 316
   psychotherapy training, 61
   research in psychiatry, 19
   peer groups, 24
   training in psychiatry, 2
European Psychiatric Association (EPA), 94
   Early Career Psychiatrists Committee (ECPC), 24, 314–15
   grants for research, 28
   research training, 22
European Research Council (ERC)
   grants for research, 27
European Society for Child and Adolescent Psychiatrists (ESCAP), 3 excellence, 249, 252, 254 exercise as part of life, 206–9 exhaustion, 288
   expert witnesses, 174–5 forced medication, 275
forensic psychiatry, 267
formulation/explanatory models of cultural understanding, 129–33 four perspectives of psychiatry, 85 French psychiatric association (AFFEP), 322 funding for research, 26, 32
   grants, 27–8
 genomic era, 103–4
 global ethics, 263
 globalization and cultural psychiatry, 123–4 Google Scholar, 112
   grants for funding research, 27–8 honour, 250, 252, 253
house style of publications, 43–4 humanism, 246–7
imaging the brain, 102–4 information technology and psychiatry, 107–8 communication technology, 111, 115–17
   cross-sector care, 192
   databases and search tools, 41, 108–10, 112
   ethical considerations, 119
   glossary of basic terms, 109
   internet and mental health dangers, 114–18
   resources for early career psychiatrists, 110, 113
telepsychiatry, 111–14, 118
information, protecting, 265–6
informed consent, 261
   exceptions to, 262
   research, 265
Institute of Medicine, 163 integrated healthcare provision, 183, 185–6
   economic and financial management, 189–90
   programme management, 186–8 International Classification of Diseases 10 (ICD-10), 89, 125 international research training opportunities, 21–3 interpersonal psychotherapy (IPT), 51–2 interpreters in clinical practice, 129
Index 329

Introduction, Methods, Research and Discussion (IMRAD) standard publication style, 42
involuntary hospital admissions, 273–4, 280
clinical conditions and legal prerequisites, 276 ethical aspects, 278
improving patient health care, 279–80 maximum duration in selected countries, 274 professionals involved, community mental health team, 276 hospital mental health team, 276–7 judiciary, 277
police, 277
relationship with patient, 278 relationship with relatives, 278 therapeutic plan, 279
Irish College of Psychiatry, 322–3
Italian Psychiatric Society (SIP), 317
Jaspers, Karl, 82, 86–7, 88, 90 job satisfaction, 205–6 role of exercise, 206–9 journals in psychiatry, 39
see also publication; scientific literature, judgment, 249, 251, 252, 254
leaderhip, 296–7, 307–8 addressing needs, 305–6 compared with management, 297–8 competencies, 301–3
organizational values and morality, 298–9 psychiatrists as leaders, 300–1
skills, 299–300
targets for improvement, 304–5 team-working and team-building, 303–4 life priorities, 201–4
life stories perspective of psychiatry, 85 literature search tools, 41
litigation against practitioners, 162, 174–6 London Deanery, 300
long working hours, 284 magnetic resonance (MR), 102 malpractice, 162
management issues, 296–7, 307–8 compared with leadership, 297–8
competencies, 301–3
skills, 299–300
Manual of Operations, 26
Maudsley Forum research training, 23 medical error, 163
medically unexplained physical symptoms (MUPS)
avoidance of psychiatric investigation, 220–1
features, 219–20
fragility of biomedical model, 218–19
functional disorders, 220
need for effective clinical solutions, 221 medication, forced, 275 MEDLINE, 41, 109, 110, 112 membership of psychiatric associations, 311–12 European Federation Psychiatric Trainees (EFPT), 315–16
European Psychiatric Association (EPA),
Early Career Psychiatrists Committee (ECPC), 314–15
national associations, 316, 318–20
France, 322
Germany, 322–3
Ireland, 321–2
Italy, 317
UK, 321
USA, 323
World Psychiatric Association (WPA),
Early Career Psychiatrists Council (ECPC), 312–14
Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act (MHPAEA), 14 mental health problems in early career psychiatrists, 283–4, 293
burnout syndrome, 285–6
global perspective,
Europe, 287–9
USA, 289
high-risk group, 284–5
prevention and treatment, barriers to care seeking, 289–90 mental health problems in early career psychiatrists (continued)

prevention strategies, 290–1
treatment, 291–3
suicide, 286–7
mentors, 21, 31
aims and purposes, 307
migration and psychiatry, 124
misconduct, 172–3
Molecular Psychiatry, 39 morality in leadership roles, 298–9

National Clinical Assessment Service (NCAS), 162, 173
National Library of Medicine (NLM), 41, 109
negligence, 162, 166–72
networks, 23–4, 32
neurasthenia, 126–7
neurofeedback (NFBK), 107
Neuropsychopharmacology, 39
New England Journal of Medicine, 40 newsgroups, 115
non-maleficence, 261
Nuremberg Code, 264–5

objective psychiatry, 83–4 objective symptoms, 87
OLDMEDLINE, 112
outcomes movement, 12
Ovid, 112

papers for publication see publication paternalism, 260
peer networks, 23–4, 32
peer review before publication, 47 performance issues, 161–2, 178–9
boundary violations, 268–9
complaints against practitioners, 173–4 errors, 162–5
litigation against practitioners, 174–6
misconduct, 172–3
negligence, 166–72
preventing problems, 176–8 practical suggestions, 178 pharmaceutical industry collaborations in research, 32 PhD degrees, 30

phenomenological psychopathology, 82–3, 93–5 clinical examples, 88–90 direction of psychiatry, 90–1
future directions, 91–3
objective vs subjective psychiatry, 83–4 relevancy, 87–8 risk of neglect during training, 84–5 risk of neglect for psychiatry as a whole, 85–6 training, 86–7
Pittsburgh/Stanford Research Career Development Institute
research training, 23
podcasts, 116
postdoctoral training, 30–1 private information, protecting, 265–6 professional responsibility, 246, 256–7 applied to psychiatry, 247–8
challenges, 248–56
core responsibilities, 248, 249–50
humanism, 246–7
teaching in psychiatry, 256 threats to, 248
PsychINFO, 112
psychodynamic psychotherapy, 52–3 psychosomatic medicine (PM), 213
public image of psychiatry, 237
Public Psychiatry Fellowship (PPF) of New York State Psychiatric Institute, Columbia University, 75 publication, 36–7, 47–8
benefits, 37
encouraging, 47
planning a paper, 37–9
author selection, 39–40 ethical issues, 45
journal selection, 40–1
main text, 42
online submissions, 46–7 reference management, 41
revisions, 45–6
statistics, 43
strategies, 37–8
style of writing, 43–5
title and abstract, 41–2 types of article, 39
process, 38
rejection, dealing with, 47
PubMed database, 41, 109, 110 techniques, 111

Quality Interagency Coordination (QuIC) Task Force, 177–8 questionnaires
career choices, 199–200
life priorities, 202–3

reasonable person standard, 261 recruitment into psychiatry, 143–4 improving recruitment, 140–3 issues, 136–8
reasons for recruitment problems, 138–40 responsibility for recruitment, 143 repetitive transcranial magnetic stimulation (rTMS), 106
research groups, 20
research in psychiatry, 18–19, 33
beginning a career, international scientific initiatives, 21–3
mentors, 21, 31
peer networks, 23–4, 32
reading scientific literature, 20, 32
research groups, 20
research interests, 19
conducting research, 24–5 data analysis and interpretation, 29 funding, securing, 26, 27–8, 32
grants, 27–8
study concept development, 25 study implementation and data collection, 29 study plans and procedures development, 26–8 study protocol preparation, 25–6 study protocol submission to Ethics Committee (EC), 28 early career recommendations, 31
ethics, 264
designing trials, 264–5
informed consent, 265
working in research, 29–30
Stage 1 – doctoral training, 30
Stage 2 – postdoctoral training, 30–1
Stage 3 – independent researchers, 31 Stage 4 – established scientist, 31 research papers see publication Residency Review Committees (RRCs), 3 respect, 250, 251, 253
Royal College of Psychiatrists (RCP), 321 journal house style, 44 training curriculum, 58
RSS feeds, 116–17

schizophrenia
DSM-IV definition, 89
scientific literature psychiatric journals, 39 publication see publication, research in psychiatry, 20, 32 search tools, 41
Scopus, 112
secondary traumatization, 284 service quality, 188–9 social networks, 115–16
Standard Operating Procedures Document, 26
statistics
including in publications, 43 stress, 284
subjective psychiatry, 83–4, 90 subjective symptoms, 87 suicidal ideation, 284, 288
suicide, 286–7, 288
high-risk profile, 287
supportive psychotherapy, 51 systems therapy, 52
targets for improvement, 304–5
Tavistock Clinic, London, 55 team-building, 303–4
team-working, 303–4
telepsychiatry, 111–14
advantages, 118
training in community psychiatry, 64–5, 75–9
core skills, 68–9
definition, 65–6
early career obstacles, 76
training in community psychiatry
(continued)
planning community mental health service delivery, 66–7 practical working model, 75 programme characteristics, 69
competencies, 72
core elements, 70–1, 73–5, 77–8 knowledge and skills, 72 recovery-oriented training, 69–72 tasks and roles, 67
web resources, 79
training in psychiatry, 1
doctoral training, 30
Europe, 1–3
future direction, 15
state of the art, 4–11
training programmes in individual countries, 8–9
final years, 148–54
future directions, 14–16
postdoctoral training, 30–1
professional responsibility, 256
USA, 3–4
future directions, 15–16
state of the art, 11–14
training in psychotherapy, 50–1, 61–2
assessment of competencies, 57–8
challenges, 58–60
current perspectives, importance of training, 53 opinions on psychotherapy, 53–4
future directions, 60–1
methods of training, 54
Balint groups, 54–5
clinical cases, 55
formal teaching, 54
new developments, 56–7
personal therapy, 56
supervision, 55–6
psychotherapeutic models, 51
cognitive analytic therapy (CAT), 52
cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), 51
dialectical behaviour therapy (DBT), 52
interpersonal psychotherapy (IPT), 51–2
psychodynamic psychotherapy, 52–3
supportive psychotherapy, 51
systemic therapy, 52
transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS), 106 transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS), 105–6 transition from training to practice, 147–8, 159 final years of training, 148–54 initial period as a specialist, 154–8 international perspective, 150–3 recommendations for improvements, 158–9 Ulysses’ contract, 268
Union Européene des Médecins Spécialistes (UEMS) European Board of Psychiatry
psychotherapy training, 50
framework of competencies, 58
training in Europe, 2–3, 4–11
future directions, 15
requirements for psychiatry, 5–7
UEMS Framework for competences in psychiatry, 18–19
USA
National Library of Medicine (NLM), 41, 109
training in psychiatry, 3–4
future directions, 15–16
state of the art, 11–14
vagus nerve stimulation (VNS), 106–7 virtual communities, 115 virtual phones, 115
vital depression, 90
Wahnstimmung, 89–90
Wikis, 117
work–life balance, 204–5
World Medical Authority (WMA) ethical principles in research, 28
World Psychiatric Association (WPA)
Early Career Psychiatrists Council (ECPC), 312–14
research training, 21
World Psychiatry, 39
writing style for publications, 43–5