Contents

Acknowledgments xiii
About the website xv

1 Foundations for understanding women and crime 1
   Student learning outcomes 1
   Introduction 1
   Reasons for the focus on women and crime 2
   Case study: Chibok kidnappings 3
   Concepts of importance 3
   Special legal issues: Legal considerations for the burqa and niqab 5
   Gender in criminology and criminal justice 6
   Global perspectives: An example of feminism in Saudi Arabia 11
   Feminist criminology and feminist theory 12
   Conclusion 13
   Suggested readings 13
   Student engagement activities 13
   Discussion questions 14
   Key terms 14
   References 14

2 Women and the crimes that they commit 19
   Student learning outcomes 19
   Introduction 19
   Case study: Rosemary West 22
   Defining crime 22
   Special legal issues: Differences in the definitions of crime 23
   Measuring crime 24
   Global perspectives: Female offenders across the globe 31
   Explanations for crime 32
   Why do women commit crime? 34
   Conclusion 41
   Suggested readings 41
   Student engagement activities 41
   Discussion questions 42
   Key terms 42
   References 42

3 Women convicted of crime and their punishments 51
   Student learning outcomes 51
   Introduction 51
   Case study: Malala Yousafzai 52
Contents

Gender and sentencing  53
Women in institutional custody  54
Conditions specific to imprisoned women  61
Special legal issues: Medical care issues  63
Global perspectives: Incarcerated female offenders across the globe  65
Community corrections and reentry  68
Correctional programming for women  70
Conclusion  72
Suggested readings  72
Student engagement activities  72
Discussion questions  73
Key terms  73
References  74

4 Legal control over women’s bodies: Pregnancy and crime  82
Student learning outcomes  82
Introduction  82
Case study: Aleksa Lundberg  84
Involuntary sterilization and eugenics  85
Global perspectives: The sterilization of women across the globe  90
The criminalization of abortion  90
Special legal issues: One-child family policy in China and abortions  100
Criminalization of pregnant women  101
Shackling of pregnant inmates giving birth  105
Conclusion  108
Suggested readings  108
Student engagement activities  109
Discussion questions  109
Key terms  109
References  110

5 Sexual victimization  115
Student learning outcomes  115
Introduction  115
Case study: Sexual assault in India  116
Defining and prosecuting rape – then and now  118
Special legal issues: Legislative changes in India  119
The measurement of sexual victimization  120
Text box: National Violence Against Women definitions and survey questions  121
Prevalence of sexual victimization  122
Theories of rape  125
The social context of rape  128
Text box: Common rape myths from the Illinois Rape Myth Acceptance Scale  129
Types of sexual victimization  130
Global perspectives: Rape in wartime  136
The impact of rape on victims  136
Text box: “Remember My Name”: A poem written by a rape victim  137
6 Domestic violence 153
Student learning outcomes 153
Introduction 153
When did society start to consider domestic violence to be a crime? 156
How many people are affected by family violence? 157
Global perspectives: Domestic violence across the globe 160
Theory and domestic violence 161
Special legal issues: Battered women syndrome defense in other countries 163
What are the risk factors associated with domestic assault? 164
Case study: Case A. Homicide–parasuicide involving a man killing his spouse 165
Domestic violence and other domestic relationships 167
Intimate partner violence and victim responses 168
What has been done legally? 168
Necessary criminal justice policy responses and domestic violence 170
Necessary social service agencies and medical professional responses to domestic violence 171
What programs exist for offenders? 173
Conclusion 173
Suggested readings 174
Student engagement activities 174
Discussion questions 175
Key terms 175
References 175

7 Victimization enabled by technology: Cyberbullying and related crimes 181
Student learning outcomes 181
Introduction 181
Bullying behavior and victimization 182
Text box: Statistics: Bullying statistics 2010 183
Global perspectives: Cyberbullying in the United Kingdom 188
Case study: Cyberbullying suicide in Italy 190
Cyberbullying laws 190
Necessary criminal justice policy responses to cyberbullying 191
Text box: Cyberbullying: What we know, What can we do? 193
Necessary social and community responses to cyberbullying 194
Conclusion 194
Suggested readings 195
Student engagement activities 195
Discussion questions 195
Key terms 195
References 196

8 Women and law enforcement 199
Student learning outcomes 199
Introduction 199
Case study: Malalai Kakar 200
History of women in policing 200
Global perspectives: Entry into policing and roles 202
Text box: Female police in Latin America 203
Special legal issues: Legal pathways for female officers in South Africa 207
Women and their employment in law enforcement 207
Global perspectives: Shared experiences/distinct differences 213
Conclusion 215
Suggested readings 215
Student engagement activities 215
Discussion questions 216
Key terms 216
References 216

9 Women in the courts 222
Student learning outcomes 222
Introduction 222
Case study: Kate Baker 223
History of women as lawyers and jurists 224
Global perspectives: Entry into the legal profession for women across the globe 225
Text Box: Bradwell v. State of Illinois, 83 U.S. 130 (Wall., 1872) 227
Women and their employment in the legal profession 231
Special legal issues: Discrimination in Iran 235
Text box: Women in the federal judiciary: Still a long way to go 236
Global perspectives: Female judges in Syria 238
Necessary legal system policy responses 239
Conclusion 239
Suggested readings 240
Student engagement activities 240
Discussion questions 240
Key terms 240
References 241

10 Women working with post-conviction offenders 244
Student learning outcomes 244
Introduction 244
Case study: Claire Lewis 245
History of women working in jails and prisons 245
Global perspectives: Entry into corrections for women across the globe 248
Special legal issues: Prison law of China 250
Challenges to women in the field of corrections 251
Global perspectives: Women in corrections across the border 257
Effectiveness of women correctional workers  258
Conclusion  260
Suggested readings  260
Student engagement activities  261
Discussion questions  261
Key terms  261
References  262

11 Conclusion  266
Student learning outcomes  266
Introduction  266
Case study: The Australian rugby team and group sex session  269
Women, feminist criminology, and criminal justice  270
Global perspectives: Islamic feminism in the Middle East  271
Special legal issues: UN Bangkok Rules  272
Text box: International Women’s Day 2015 Theme: MAKE IT HAPPEN  272
Conclusion  276
Suggested readings  277
Student engagement activities  277
Discussion questions  277
Key term  277
Note  277
References  278

Glossary  281

Index  294