Contents

Glossary  ix
Acknowledgements  xiv

1 Race, Housing and Community
   Introduction  1
   An early note about race  2
   About this book  23

2 Housing Policy and Practice  27
   Introduction  27
   Policy context  28
   Housing and community cohesion: a critique  31
   Looking ahead: a new agenda?  36
   Declining interest in race and housing: from Macpherson to cohesion  39
   The turning of the wheel: ‘muscular liberalism’ and integration  45
   Conclusion: a housing journey through multiculturalism, cohesion and integration  49

3 Developing Cohesive Neighbourhoods in UK Cities: White Perspectives  51
   Introduction  51
   Race, culture and change  52
   Connecting communities: a focus on white working class communities?  54
   Whiteness: culture and pathology  56
   Community cohesion, institutions and white communities  63
   Housing, fairness and equity: case studies of three neighbourhoods in England  65
   Conclusion  78

4 The Emergence of the Black Led Housing Sector  79
   Introduction  79
   The rise of race and housing  80
Contents

Organisational or system failure? 83
Declining interest in race and housing: the problem with regulation and representation 91
A recovery of the black and minority ethnic housing sector? 96
Conclusion 98

5 Housing, Communities and ‘Recycled Racism’ 103

Introduction 103
The emergence of super-diversity in the UK 104
Recycled racism 112
Conclusion 127

6 New Frameworks for Race, Housing and Community 129

Introduction 129
Towards a new approach to race and housing 135
Looking ahead: a new agenda? 139
Policy implications 142
Conclusion 149

Appendix A – Public Service Futures: the future of identify and belonging (OPM) 151
Appendix B – LGA guidance on community cohesion 193
Appendix C – Three Definitions of Community Cohesion 265
References 269
Index 277