Index

Note: Italicised letters after page numbers refer to figures and tables.

abnormal co-contraction, 279 abnormal postures, 201–5. See also hand function; prone development; sitting; standing; supine devlopment; treatment procedures; walking absence of postural stability, 201
asymmetrical distribution of spasticity, 203–4 asymmetrical postural fixation (stabilisation), 201–3 biomechanics and spasticity, 204
counterpoising delay, 201–3 in dyskinesia/dystonia, 9f growth of legs, 203
primitive reflexes, 203
in spastic cerebral palsy, 6–7, 204
treatment procedures, 125–259
unsupported standing, 205
use of spasticity for compensation, 204
well-supported standing, 204
abnormal reflex activity, 10, 279–80 abnormal synergies, 279 abnormal tone, treatment of, 71–2. See also spasticity fluctuating tone, 72
hypotonicity, 72
spasticity, 71–2
active joint range, 103 activities of daily living, 12–13; 121, 125, 260f, 261f, 264–273, 320
    assessment of, 110, 121 acupuncture, 30
afferent stimuli, 40, 73–5 agnosias, 2
Alberta Infant Motor Scale (AIMS), 112 alcohol injections, 35
alternative treatments, 30–31
amphibian reflex, 119f ankle-foot orthoses, 224–6. See also lower limb orthoses
dynamic, 225
ground reaction, 225 hinged, 224–5
inserts, 226
night-splint, 226
solid, 224
antero-posterior shift, 134, 173f, 196, 208, 212–3, 215f
antigravity mechanism, 63
appraisal of research studies for therapy, 57–8
    intervention methods, 57–8
    questions asked, 57
    sample of children studied, 57 setting or environment, 58–9 arms
    balance responses, 64 counterpoising movements, 135
deformities, 189, 303
elbow gaiters, 319
propping, 147
reaching, 165
splint, 319f
aromatherapy, 30–31
Ashworth scale, 101
assessment for therapy, 95–124
daily activities, 121
equipment, 121–2
examination of deformity, 102–7 framework, 95
functional measures, 108–9
general points, 98
grading in assessments, 113 hands, abnormal grasps, 250–3 hands, basic patterns, 239–40 impairments and function, 97–8 influence of other disabilities, 98 measurements, 55, 58, 98–9 of impairments, 99–100 selective motor control, 102–3
spasticity, 101–2
behavioural progress, 23–4
behaviours, associated impairments, 3–4
assessment for therapy, 97
in feeding, 270–1
in child’s group, 308 in motor function learning, 77 in traumatic brain injury, 128 Berg Balance Scale, 110
biofeedback techniques, 82
biomechanics, 68–9
deformities and, 281–2
and spasticity, 204
blindisms, 129, 133–4
Bobath, Karl, 39
Bobath approach, 39–40
body functions, 12
body image development, 131
body structures, 12 bone density, 199, 205, 284, 296–7 boots, 319–20
bottom shufflers, 133, 139
botulinum toxin A injections, 290–6
aims of, 292
casting and, 294
clinical recommendations for, 291–2 daily management, 294–5 function of, 291 knee flexion deformity and, 299 outcome measures, 295–6 physiotherapy and, 294–5 research studies and reviews of, 293–4 specific times for, 293 upper limb studies of, 294
use of, 199, 284, 290
bow knees, 277
braces, 35. See also orthoses brain injury/damage, 1–3, 128 Brainwave, 37
bridging, 166
British Institute for Brain Injured Children (BIBIC), 37
Brunnstrom, Signe, 37
bunny hopping, 154
calipers, 35 see orthoses Canadian Occupational Performance Measure, 111 Capability Scotland, 317 cardinal points, 116t carrying the child, 273–4 case series, 56
case-control study, 56
casting, 259, 288–90
in athetoid cerebral palsy, 289 botulinum toxin A injections and, 294 cerebral palsy, 1 abnormal reflexes in, 10–11 aetiology of, 3
  associated impairments and disabilities, 2–3 classification based on motor function, 10 clinical picture and development, 3 motor delay in, 11–2 motor dysfunctions in, 1–2 postural mechanisms, 10 topographical classification of, 5 treatment and management, 4–5 in childhood, adolescence and adulthood, 5 in infancy, 4–5
  types of, 5–10
    ataxic, 9–10
    athetoid, 8–9
    spastic, 5–8
  cerebral palsy, ataxic, 9–10 associated impairments, 10 balance disturbances in, 9–10
  hypotonia in, 10
  nystagmus in, 10
  voluntary movements in, 10 cerebral palsy, athetoid, 8–9 associated impairments, 9
  athetoid dance, 9
  change of dyskinetic types in time, 9 gait, 8
  hypertonia in, 9
  hypotonia in, 9
  involuntary movements in, 8 paralysis of gaze movements in, 8 postural control in, 8–9
  voluntary movements in, 9
  cerebral palsy in older person, 86–94
  aims of therapy, 86
  collaborative learning approach, 86–7
    adolescent distancing from parents, 86–7
    confidentiality, 87
    sense of control, 86
    sensitive listening to individuals, 86
    cosmetic appearance, 93
    deformities, 90–91
  development of community mobility, 93
  health lifestyle, 92
  issues of concern in, 88–9
    discrimination, 89
    early and minor deterioration, 88–9
    fatigue, 88
    increased musculoskeletal deformities, 89 new environments, 89
    pain, 88
    services for older people, 89
    urinary problems, 89
  knowledge about condition, 93–4
  measures, 94
  motor abilities, 89–90
  motor developmental assumptions, 90
  role of physiotherapist and occupational therapist, 87
  self-care activities, 89–90
  self-care training, 93
  studies of function, 87–8
  therapeutic motor activities, 94 cerebral palsy, spastic, 5–8 abnormal postures in, 6–7
  associated impairments, 8
  changes in spasticity/postures in, 7
  hypertonia in, 6
  voluntary movements, 7–8
  cerebral palsy therapist, 38 Chailey Levels of Ability, 110 chairs, 177 specially adapted, 188–9 choking, 269
  clasp-knife hypertonus, 6
  clenched toes, 303
  co-contraction, abnormal, 279 cohort, 56
  collaborative learning approach, 15–33
    achievements of parents and child in, 19–20 alternative and complementary treatments, 30–31 contraindications, 31 emotional support in, 26–7 evaluation of progress, 23–4 behavioural progress, 23–4
      parent satisfaction, 24 expectations of parents and child in, 18–19 family cultures in, 17. See also culture features of, 17–18
    helping child to learn motor control, 25 integrated approach, 28, 32f observation of parent–child interaction in, 25–6 with other adults, 16–17
    parent–child interaction in, 24 with parents, 15–16
Index 343

parents’ health in, 27
records, 29–30
selection and use of methods, 21–3 physiotherapy within play activities, 22 special physiotherapy techniques, 22 siblings in, 29
task or functional analyses, 20
teamwork with parents, 27
therapist’s specialised assessment, 20 Collins, Eirene, 38
communication
assessment for therapy, 97
development of, 18–20, 264–6 in parent-child interaction, 24–5, 130, 260, 262–271, 262/66 compensatory stimuli, 130–31 complementary treatments, 30–31
conductive education, 41–2
all-day programme, 41
conductor, 41 controlling motion with concentration in, 74 group, 41
individual sessions, 41 learning principles, 41–2
movements, 41
rhythmic intention, 41 studies of, 53–4 confidence interval, 56
constraint-induced movement therapy, 240–41
contract, 29
control group, 58
control-group design, 58
counterpoising, 195–6, 201–3
lower limb orthoses, 232–3 counterpoising exercises, 150, 151/f, 155 counterpoising mechanisms, 64
cranial osteopathy, 30
crawlers, 318
crawling, 149, 154
creeping complex, 40 creeping patterns, 143–4
crossed extension, 118/f, 200
crouch gait, 217
cruising, 218 cryotherapy, 297. See also ice treatments culture, 3, 6, 13, 17, 69, 139 daily activities, and motor function, 12–3, 123–6, 130, 260–73, 320
deformities, 275–305
arm deformity, 303
assessment for therapy, 97–8
botulinum toxin A injections, 290–96
causes of, 276–80
abnormal co-contraction and abnormal synergies, 279 abnormal reflex activity, 279–80
asymmetry, 280
biomechanics, 281–2
growth factors, 280
hypertonicity, 276–7
immobility, 276
involuntary movement in one repeated pattern, 280 weakness, 278–9
clenched toes, 302
definition of, 275
equinus and equino-varus deformity, 300–301 everted toes, 303
and gait, 282–5
orthopaedic surgery, 282
spastic diplegia, 283–4
spastic hemiplegia, 282–3
spastic tetraplegia, 284–6
upper limbs, 282
hip extension deformity, 298–9
hip flexion-adduction-internal rotation, 295–8 and hip subluxation/dislocation, 296–8 knee flexion deformity, 298–9
knee hyperextension deformity, 299–300 mobile vs. dynamic, 275
overview of, 275
post-operative physiotherapy and care, 304–5 pre-operative physiotherapy, 304 surgery for, 298, 304
therapy and daily care, 285–8
activation of antagonists and agonists, 287 functional motor in daily functions, 286 gentle manual stretch, 286–7 holding corrected position, 287–8
ice treatments, 286
passive ranges of movement, 287 positioning to stretch muscles in equipment and orthoses, 285–6 prolonged stretch to spastic muscles, 286–7 rotation and diagonal movements, 288 vibration techniques, 288 of trunk and neck, 303–4 use of plasters, 288–90
valgus feet, 301
varus feet, 301–2
Denver Development Screening Test, 112 deprivation of stimulation, 11 developmental disabilities, 11–2 developmental levels, 312–17
  0–3 months, 312/
  3–6 months, 312/
  6–9 months, 313/
  9–12 months, 313/
  physical ability assessment guide, 314 prone, 314
  sitting, 314–15
  standing and walking, 315 supine, 314
  wheelchair use, 316
  developmental sequences, 70–71
  developmental training, 67–71
  assumptions, 68
  basic motor patterns in, 67
  biomechanics, 68–9
  developmental sequences, 70–71
  individual variations, 69–70
  motor function training in, 67
  ontogenetic developmental sequence, 67
  overview of, 67
  diplegia, 5, 283
  Disabled Living Foundation, 317 discrimination in society, 89 documents, 60
  Doman-Delacato system, 36, 53 dressing, development of, 272–3 drugs, 46, 290, 299. See also botulinum toxin-A injections dynamic ankle–foot orthoses (DAFO), 225 dynamical systems theory, 47–8, 50
dyskinesia, 175
dyskinetic cerebral palsy. See athetoid cerebral palsy dysphagia, 88–9
dyspraxias, 2
dystonia, 6, 175
dystonic cerebral palsy. See athetoid cerebral palsy early intervention, 4–5. See also baby eclectic practice, 61–75
  Edinburgh Visual Gait, 113 elbow
    extensor, 105/
    flexion, 303
    flexor, 105/
    functional observation of, 107
  elbow gaiters, 319
  electrical stimulation, 42–3 electromyography, 101
  elephant walk, 36
  emotions, in motor function learning, 77–8 environmental factors (home, school, community) 3, 5, 12–3, 49, 58, 67, 96, 128 equinox and equino-varus deformity, 300–301
  ice treatments, 300
  passive stretch and movement, 300–301
  plasters, 300
  positioning, 300
  splintage and orthoses, 300
  therapy and daily care, 300–301
  equipment, 317–21
  aids to activities of daily living, 320–21 bathing, 320
    dressing, 320
    feeding, 320
    prams, push chairs, and baby buggies, 320 sleeping bags, cots, baby toys, 320 toilet, 186f, 187f, 320 arm splint, 319/
  basic, 317–20
  boots, 319–20
  crawlers, 318
  elbow gaiters, 319
  inflatable balls, 318
  knee gaiters, 319
  leg gaiter, 319/
  lying, 318
  mirrors, 320
  mobility aids, 321
  organisations, 317
  postural management for day and night, 317–18.
  See also positioning
  prone-standing frame, 318
  ramps, 320
  seating, 318. See also chairs, specially adapted special aids in classroom, 321 stairs with banisters, 320
  for supported standing, 318 walking aids, 318
  wedges, 318
  wheelchairs, 321
  everted toes, 303
  evidence-based practice, 51–60
    appraisal of research studies for therapy, 57–8
    intervention methods, 57–8
    questions asked, 57
    sample of children studies, 57
    setting or environment, 57–8 clinical experience with, 55 measures of outcome, 55 professional experience, 55 research studies, 55
    conductive education, 53–4
    levels of evidence, 56 research and clinical studies, 51
    research studies, 52
reviews of research studies, 52–3 specific points in qualitative research, 59–60 specific points in quantitative research, 58
analysis of results, 58–9
evaluation tools, 58
research designs, 58
sources of bias and error, 58–9 specific procedures, 54 specific treatment systems, 53 systematic reviews, 55–6 theories, 51–2
treatment approaches, 51
extensor thrust, 117
factorial analysis, 35 falling, reactions to, 64 falling, saving from, 64 family. See also collaborative learning approach cultures, 17
family-centred care, 13, 16–17
and surgery, 295
father, 7f, 22f. See also parents
fatigue, 88
Fay, Temple, 36
feeding, 266–71
aids, 271, 320
behaviour, 270–71
choking, 269
gagging, 269
gastrostomy, 269
hypersensitivity of face and mouth, 269
mouth actions, 268
nasogastric tube, 269
parent-child relationships, 271
positioning for, 268
practical suggestion, 266–7
self-feeding training, 269–70
special problems, 271
unhurried feeding period, 267–8 weaning from liquids, 268–9
feet
abnormal postures, 189 equinus deformities, 189
orthoses, 209, 224–7
post-operative physiotherapy and care, 305
pre-operative physiotherapy, 304
valgus deformities, 189
weight taken on, 153
finger flexion, 103f fixation, 74
flat feet, 277
flexor withdrawal, 117t focus groups, 60
foot grasp, 116t foot plantarflexion, 105f functional analysis, 20 function and impairment, 12, 92, 97–8, 126, 295
functional electrical stimulation, 43–4 Functional Reach test, 109
functional work, 38
functions, assessment for therapy, 97–8
gagging, 269
gait, 282–5
abnormal, 8–10, 211–4, 282–6
analysis, 112–3, 114–5f observation of, 112–13
orthopaedic surgery, 282
in spastic cerebral palsy, 212–13
spastic diplegia, 283–4
spastic hemiplegia, 282–3
spastic tetraplegia, 284–6
toddler’s gait, 211–2
upper limbs, 282
waddling, 217
Galant’s trunk incurvation, 116t
gastrostomy, 269
dislike of prone, 98
gaze movements, paralysis of, 9 Gillette Functional Assessment Questionnaire, 109 goal-directed movements, 80 Goal Attainment Scale, 111 goniometers, 103
grasps, abnormal, 250–53
adducted thumbs and ulnar grasp, 251–2
anticipatory grasp, 252
associated grasping, 252–3
excessive finger flexion, 251
inability to use both hands simultaneously, 252
involuntary motion disrupting hand use, 253
treatment suggestions, 250–53
wrist flexion-extension with palmar or pincer grasp, 250
Griffiths Abilities of Babies, 112
Gross Motor Function Classification System (GMFCS), 10, 44–5, 100, 108–9
Gross Motor Function Measure (GMFM), 44, 100, 108
Gross Motor Performance Measure (GMPM), 109 group work, 306–11

behaviours in, 308
frequency, 308
length of sessions, 308
main observations, 307–8
number of children in, 308
Index

346

group work (Cont.)
in occupational therapy, 306
in physiotherapy, 306
playgroups, 306–7
programme, 310–11
selection of children, 308–9
age of child, 309
cognitive level, 309
motor problems, 308–9
personality and behaviour, 309
problems of children, 308–9
in speech therapy, 306
structured group, 307
venue, 308
growth factors, 280

half-kneeling, 152
Halliwick Association of Swimming Therapy, 317 hammock, 164/' hand function, 233–59
0–3-month normal developmental level, 241
3–5-month normal developmental level, 241–4
5–7-month normal developmental level, 245
7–9-month normal development level, 253–4
9–12-month normal developmental level, 255–9
abnormal hand grasps, 250–53
adducted thumbs and ulnar grasp, 251–2
anticipatory grasp, 252
associated grasping, 252–3
excessive finger flexion, 251
inability to use both hands simultaneously, 252
involuntary motion disrupting hand use, 253
treatment suggestions, 250–53
wrist flexion-extension with palmar or pincer grasp, 250 basic arm and hand patterns, 239–40
casting, 259
constraint-induced movement therapy, 240–41
control of release, 255–9 and eye-hand coordination, 242–3t hand grasps, 245 manipulation, 259
motor abilities, 236–7
opening of hands, 244–5
abnormal, 250/
overview of, 132–3
perception/conception, 259 reaching actions, 246–50
basic arm patterns, 246
bilateral arm patterns, 249–50
direction, 248
facilitation, 248–9
positions, 246–8
unilateral arm patterns, 249–50
vision and arm reach, 249
splints, 259. See also orthoses upper limbs and abnormal motor behaviour, 238–9 upper limbs and postural mechanisms, 237 hand grasps, abnormal, 250–53
adducted thumbs and ulnar grasp, 251–2
anticipatory grasp, 252
associated grasping, 252–3
excessive finger flexion, 251
inability to use both hands simultaneously, 252
involuntary motion disrupting hand use, 253
treatment suggestions, 250–53
wrist flexion-extension with palmar or pincer grasp, 250
hands
deformities, 303
development of hand function, 233–59 functional observation of, 107
grasps, 245
holding of posture on, 148
motor function in daily life, 262 opening of, 116t, 234t, 244–5
use of, 97
weight taken on, 153
head
abnormal postures, 189
counterpoising, 134–5
deformities, 189
excessive extension, 189
postural stabilisation of, 154–5 protective response, 64 righting, 169–70
Headway, 317
hemiplegia, 5, 282
herbalism, 30
hip
abductor, 104–5t
adductor, 104/
deformities, 189
dislocation/subluxation, 296–8
excessive extension, 189
extensor, 104/
flexor, 104/
functional observation of, 107
post-operative physiotherapy and care, 304–5
pre-operative physiotherapy, 304
rotation, 105/
hip extension deformity, 298–9
active movements, 299
Index

positioning, 298–9
therapy and daily care, 298–9
hip flexion-adduction-internal rotation, 296–8 active exercise to antagonists, 298 diagnosis of, 296
ice treatments, 297
orthopaedic surgery for, 298
positioning, 297
prevention of hip dislocation, 296–8
therapy and daily care, 296–8
homeopathy, 30
horse riding, 45
hydrotherapy, 45–6
hyperbaric oxygen therapy, 30–31 hyperextended knees, 130f, 153
hypersensitivity of face and mouth, 269
hypertonicity, 6, 9, 71–2, 276–7
aims of therapy for, 278
muscle imbalance, 277–8
types of, 6–8, 277
hypoeXTensibility, 35
hypotonia
in ataxic cerebral palsy, 10, 276
in athetoid cerebral palsy, 9
motor development and, 129
hypotonicy, 72, 129, 276–7 ice treatments, 286, 297, 300–1
immobility, 276
impairments, 12
assessment for therapy, 97–8
measurements of, 98
in-depth interviews, 60
infantile co-contraction, 63
inflatable balls, 318
inhibitory casts, 288–90. See also casting Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential (IAHP), 36 intellectual impairment, 11 interdisciplinary groups, 306–11
behaviours in, 308
frequency, 308
length of sessions, 308
main observations, 307–8
number of children in, 308
in occupational therapy, 306
in physiotherapy, 306
playgroups, 306–7
programme, 310–11
selection of children, 308–9
age of child, 309
cognitive level, 309
motor problems, 308–9
personality and behaviour, 309
problems of children, 308–9
in speech therapy, 306
structured group, 307
venue, 308
interdisciplinary model, 27–8
International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF), 12–13
aims of, 13
components of, 12
practical application, 12–13 therapy principles, 13
intersensory development, 263
intervention methods, 57–8
involuntary movements, 8, 189–90 in one repetitive pattern, 280 irradiation, 38 joints. See also bio-mechanics; deformities range of motion, 103
structure of, 103 kick, developmental stages of, 236f KIDS, 317
KinCom, 100
knee extensor, 105f
flexed, 189
flexor, 105f
gaiters, 319
holding of posture on, 148
knock, 277
post-operative physiotherapy and care, 304–5
pre-operative physiotherapy, 304
knee flexion deformity, 299
active movements, 299
ice treatments, 299
positioning, 299
splintage, 299
therapy and daily care, 299
knee hyperextension deformity, 299–300
active movements, 299–300
passive stretch and movement, 299
plasters, 299
positioning, 299
splintage, 299
therapy and daily care, 299–300
knock knees, 277
kyphosis, 189
Landau reflex, 117f
language development, 132
Lateral Reach Test, 109 lateral sway, absence of, 212 lead-pipe rigidity, 6 learning motor control/function, 25, 38, 41, 76–85, 126 leg adduction, 189
leg gaiter, 319f leg movements, counterpoising, 135 leg pattern, 150
leg straightening reflex, 63 legs, abnormal postures, 189 legs, length of, 103
life reaction, 119f Lifestyle Assessment Questionnaire – Cerebral Palsy, 111 limbs, use of, 97 load shift, 64
locomotion, assessment for therapy, 97
locomotive reactions, 65 lower limb orthoses, 209, 224–7. See also orthoses, lower limb; splints Lycra splinting, 44
lying equipment, 165, 166f, 297, 318, see night-splints; positioning malnutrition, 12, see gastrostomy Manual Ability Classification System (MACS), 110 mass movement synergies, 37
mat work, 38
measurement. See assessment for therapy Mencap (Royal Mencap Society), 317 mermaid crawl, 145
mirrors, 320
mobility in bed and transfers, 228–30. See also sitting; standing prone to standing, 228 sitting to standing, 228–30 stand and stoop to floor, 230–31 transfers, 230
Mobility Opportunities via Education (MOVE), 47, 73 Modified Ashworth scale, 101
Moro reflex, 117f mother. See parents motor control. See learning motor delay, 11–2
motor development, 129–34
body image development, 131
in cerebral palsy, 3–4 gross motor development, 133–4
hand function development, 132–3
hypotonia and, 129
language development, 132
mother–child relationships in, 130 motor function and child’s daily life, 130
postural mechanisms and, 129
proprrioceptive function, 132
total child development and motor training, 130–34
use of compensatory stimuli, 130–31
vestibular function, 132
visual development, 132
motor dysfunction, 1 motor function, 260–74. See also function and impairment development of communication, 264–6 development of dressing, 272–3 development of feeding, 266–71 aids, 271
behaviour, 270–71
choking, 269
gagging, 269
gastrostomy, 269
hypersensitivity of face and mouth, 269
mouth actions, 268
naso-gastric tube, 269
parent–child relationships, 271
positioning for feeding, 268 practical suggestion, 266–7
self-feeding training, 269–70
special problems, 271
unhurried feeding period, 267–8
weaning from liquids, 268–9 development of play, 273 and perception, 261–3 child’s relationship to objects and space, 263
intersensory development, 263
praxic training, 263
tactile and proprioceptive experience, 262–3 tactile recognition of child’s own body, 263 standing or kneeling upright, 261 techniques for carrying child, 273–4 use of hands, 261–2
vertical head control, 260–61 motor function learning, 76–85 avoiding goal confusion in, 80 child’s own goals and strategies in, 80–81 cues for learning, 81–2 manual assistance or resistance, 82 minimal support to child’s body, 82 neuromuscular handling, 82 setting scene, 82
sounds, visual display or vibration, 82 therapist’s hand, 82
visual feedback, 82
developmental of child’s attention in, 79 goal-directed movements in, 80 guidelines for therapists in, 76 learning methods in, 77–8 behaviours, 77
emotions, 77–8
learning principles, 76
options for therapists, 78 practice and experience, 84–5 promoting attention in, 79 prone position, 261–2 rewards, 84
task analysis in, 81 tasks for adults, 78 verbal guidance in, 83–4 motor growth curves, 108–9 motor patterns, basic, 67 motor training, 76–85, 125–9 age of child and techniques, 127–8 aims and methods, 125–6
applications of techniques, 128–9 in daily life activities, 126 developmental levels, 126–7 diagnosis and techniques, 128 general plan of developmental programme, 127 onset and techniques, 127–8 related procedures, 126
mouth actions, 268
MOVE Europe programme, 113–21
movement patterns, 37
training of, 73
movement superimposed on co-contraction, 64 muscle education and braces braces, 35
calipers, 35
modalities, 34–5
muscle education, 35–6 specific diagnostic classification of child, 34 muscles, strength of, 67–8, 103 musculoskeletal deformities, 72, 89, 275–305
naso-gastric tube, 269
National Association of Paediatric Occupational Therapists, 317
National Association of Swimming Clubs for the Handicapped, 317 National Association of Toy and Leisure Libraries, 317 neck deformities, 303–4 neck righting, 118f negative supporting, 118f neurodevelopmental treatment (NDT), 39–40, 53 neurofacilitation treatment, 74–5 neuromotor development, 38
neuromuscular electrical stimulation, 43–4 neuronal group selection theory, 48–9 neuroplasticity, 47–8
Neurosensory and Motor Developmental Assessment for Infants and Young Children, 112 night-splint ankle–foot orthoses, 226 non-motor impairments, 12 normal child development, 3–4 nystagmus, 10
Observational Gait Scale, 112–13 occupational therapy, 13, 42, 66, 87, 96, 114, 125, 259, 262, 272, 320 older person with cerebral palsy, 86–94
aims of therapy, 86
collaborative learning approach, 86–7
adolescent distancing from parents, 86–7
confidentiality, 87
sense of control, 86
sensitive listening to individuals, 86 service for community mobility, 93
deformities, 90–91
health lifestyle, 92
issues of concern in, 88–9
discrimination, 89
eye and hand deterioration, 88–9
fatigue, 88
increased musculoskeletal deformities, 89
new environments, 89
pain, 88
services for older people, 89
urinary problems, 89
knowledge about condition, 93–4
measures, 94
motor abilities, 89–90
motor developmental assumptions, 90
role of physiotherapist and occupational therapist, 87
self-care activities, 89–90
self-care training, 93
studies of function, 87–8
therapeutic motor activities, 94
ontogenetic developmental sequence, 40, 67
optical reflex, 119f orthoses, arm, 91, 303–4. See also hand function orthoses, lower limb, 209, 224–7 types of, 224–7. See also splints ankle–foot orthoses, 224–7 hip abduction with trunk brace (SWASH), 224, 227f
knee gaiters, 224
orthoses, trunk (body), 44, 183, 189, 304 Paediatric Evaluation of Disability Inventory (PEDI), 44
pain, 11, 88, 297
pain assessment, 46
parachute reactions, 64
parallel bars, 319
parent satisfaction, 24. See also qualitative research parent–child interaction, 24–6 parents and adolescents, 86–7 and aetiology, 3
in collaborative learning approach, 15–16 and diagnosis, 5 emotional support for, 26–7 and equipment, 121–2 and family, 13–7, 29, 295
health of, 27 participation in therapy, 14–5, 21, 295 relationship with child, 3, 24–6, 129–33, 140, 263–273 satisfaction, 24
social needs, 27
teamwork with, 27–8
participant observation, 60 participation (of child), 12 passive joint range, 103, 104f passive observation, 60
Passive Ranges of Motion (PROM), 102
Patient Perspective on Care and Rehabilitation Process (POCR), 16
Peabody Development Motor Scales and Activity Cards, 112
Pediatric Evaluation of Disability Inventory (PEDI), 111 pelvic girdle righting, 119f pelvis, postural stability of, 134, 155, 168–9 perception, and motor function, 261–3 child’s relationship to objects and space, 263
intersensory development, 263
praxic training, 263
tactile and proprioceptive experience, 262–3
tactile recognition of child’s own body, 263
perception problems, 8, 10, 66, 125–6, 129, 259, 262–3 perceptual–motion function, 66
personal factors, 12
Pető, Andras, 41–2
Pető approach, 74
Phelps, W.M., 36
physiotherapy
aims of, 13, 87
suggestions, 125
theories, 49
placing (reflex reaction), 116f plasters, 288–90. See also casting play, development of, 273 Play Matters, 317 playground. See environment study, 58
playgroups, 306–7
position, assessment for therapy, 97 positioning. See also equipment
in feeding, 268
for function in daily life, 260–262, 262f night-splint ankle-foot orthosis, 226 to treat deformity, 285–6, 301, 303, 317–8 positive statzreaktion, 63 positive supporting, 118f postural control, 7–10, 63–6, 97
postural fixation counterpoising, 119f postural management, 317–18. See also chairs; lying equipment; positioning; standing equipment
postural mechanisms, 7–8, 10–11, 63–5
antigravity mechanism, 63
counterpoising mechanisms, 64
definition of, 63
locomotive reactions, 65
motor development and, 129
postural stabilisation, 64
protective responses, 64
righting reactions, 64
rising reactions, 64
in synthesis of treatment systems, 63–5 tilt reactions, 64
visual postural reactions, 65
postural stabilisation, 64
prams, 320
praxic training, 263
precipitation reaction, 64 primary walking, 116f primitive (infantile) reflexes, 10–11, 203 progressive pattern movements, 36–7
prone position, acceptance of, 138 rising from, 135 tilt reactions in, 135, 136f prone development, 134–54
0–3-month normal developmental level, 136–44
abnormal postures, 143
common problems, 136–8
creeping patterns, 143–4
physiotherapy suggestions, 143–4
treatment suggestions and management, 138–43 4–6-month normal developmental levels, 145–8
common problems, 145
physiotherapy suggestions, 148
   treatment suggestions and management, 145–8
6–9-month normal developmental level, 149–50
   arm pattern, 150
   common problems, 149
   counterpoising exercises, 150
   crawling, 149
   leg pattern, 150
   physiotherapy suggestions, 149–50
   treatment suggestions and management, 149
9–12-month normal developmental level, 150–54
   bunny hopping, 154
   common problems, 150–52
   crawling, 154
   half-kneeling, 152
   rising from prone to standing, 152–3
   treatment suggestions and management, 152–4 developmental stages of child, 134–5 rolling and rising, 136
   prone-standing frame, 138, 318
   proprioceptive function, 132 proprioceptive neuromuscular facilitations (PNF), 37–8
      functional work, 38
      mat work, 38
      movement patterns, 37
      resistance to motion, 38 sensory stimuli, 37–8 special techniques, 38
      protective extension, 64 protective responses, 64
      pushchairs, 185, 320
quadriplegia, 5, 284–6 qualitative research, 55 documents, 60
   focus groups, 60
   in-depth interviews, 60
   participant observation, 60
   passive observation, 60
   postural mechanisms, 63–5
quality of life measures, 111 Quality of Upper Extremity Skills Test (QUEST), 110 quantitative research, 55
   analysis of results, 58–9
   evaluation tools, 58
   research designs, 58
   sources of bias and error, 58–9
ramps, 320
randomised controlled trial, 56 range of motion (ROM), 102–7 active, 103 assessment of, 103–6f
   functional observation of, 107
   passive, 103
   spasticity and, 101–2
reaching actions, 246–50
   basic arm patterns, 246
   bilateral arm patterns, 249–50
   direction, 248
   facilitation, 248–9
   positions, 246–8
   unilateral arm patterns, 249–50
   vision and arm reach, 132–3, 249
reactions, in assessments, 115–21
   records, 29–30
      in assessment for therapy, 123–4 reassessment of, 123–4 reflex creeping, 40–41
   reflex rolling, 41, 159–61
   reflex stepping, 280 reflex zones, 40
   reflexes, 116–20t
      abnormal infantile (primitive), 10–11 postural, 11
      sensory stimulation, 40
   reflexology, 30–31
   relaxation techniques, 38 repeated contractions, 38 resisted exercise, 35–6 rewards, 84
   rhythmic stabilisations, 38 Riding for the Disabled Association, 317
   righting reactions, 64
   ring sitting, 190
   rising from prone, 135, 136f rising labyrinthine head righting, 118t rising reactions, 41, 64, 155–6, 196
   rollers, 139 rolling and rising, treatment and management of, 161–2 Rood, Margaret, 40
   rooting, 116t
   Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists, 317 Royal National Institute of Blind People, 317 sacral sitting, 186
sailor’s walk, 36
saving from falling reactions, 120t, 135, 136f saving reactions, 170
   scoliosis, 91, 165f, 177, 181, 183, 188–9, 191f, 201, 303–4 Scope, 317
   seats, 178–84, 318
   developmental level and use of, 316
seats (Cont.)
- factors in selecting, 180
- floor seats, 184
- head and trunk support, 182–3
- hip support, 181
- holding pelvic alignment in, 180
- knee blocks, 181
- lateral pelvis support, 181
- pelvis, hips, and thighs, 180
- studies, 177–8
- thigh strap, 181
- thigh supports, 181
- tilting, 181
- toilet seats, 186–187
- wheelchair, 178–85
- selective dorsal rhizotomies, 46
- selective posterior rhizotomies, 46
- self-feeding training, 269–70
- sense, 317
- sensory integration, 42
- sensory stimulation, 37–8
  - for activation and inhibition, 40
  - in reflex creeping, 41
- shiatsu massage, 31
- shoulder, functional observation of, 107
- shoulder flexion-adduction-internal rotation, 303
- shoulder flexor, 105
- shoulder girdle, postural stability of, 134, 155, 167–8
- shoulder righting, 119
- siblings, 29
- side lying, 159
- single-case design, 58
- sitting, 167–95
  - 0–3-month normal developmental level, 185–7
    - common problems, 185–6
      - treatment suggestions and management, 187
  - 3–6-month normal developmental level, 187–90
    - abnormal performance, 187–8
      - treatment suggestions and management, 188–90
  - 6–9-month normal developmental level, 190–91
    - abnormal performance, 190
    - common problems, 190
      - treatment suggestions and management, 190–91
  - 9–12-month normal developmental level, 192–5
    - abnormal performance, 192
      - changing postures, 192–5
      - common problems, 192
        - treatment suggestions and management, 192–5
      - abnormal postures, 172
        - automatic, 117
        - counterpoising, 169
      - postural stability of head, 167
      - postural stability of head and trunk, 168–9
      - postural stability of pelvis, 168–9
      - postural stability of shoulder girdle, 167–8
      - righting reactions, 169–70
      - rising reactions, 169–70
      - saving reactions, 170
      - tilt reactions, 170
      - treatment and management of all levels, 173–5
        - absence of postural mechanisms, 173–4
        - chair and tables, 175
        - children with dyskinesia and dystonia, 175
        - evaluating chair for child, 177–8
        - overlengthened muscles, 174–5
        - potential seat elements, 178–84
      - spastic short muscles, 174
- Sitting Assessment for Children with Neuromotor Dysfunction (SACND), 109
- social needs, 27
- spastic cerebral palsy, 5–8
  - abnormal postures in, 6–7
  - associated impairments, 8
  - changes in spasticity/postures in, 7
  - hypertonus in, 6
  - voluntary movements, 7–8
- spastic diplegia, 283–4
- spastic hemiplegia, 282–3
- spastic muscles, strengthening of, 35
- spastic tetraplegia, 284–6
  - bone density problems in, 284–5
  - surgery for feet, 285
- spasticity, 101–2
  - asymmetrical distribution of, 203–4
  - and biomechanics, 204
  - clinical measurements of, 101–2
  - range of motion, 101–2
  - treatment of, 71–2
    - lengthening short spastic muscles, 72
    - minimising stiffness, 72
    - strengthening techniques, 72
  - use for compensation, 204
- specific points in quantitative research, 58
- speech therapy, aims of, 13
- speed of performance, 121
- splints, 44, 259, 284–5, 288, 299–301, 304–5. See also orthoses
  - night splints, 226, 286–7, 294–5, 297
  - night-time positioning, 286
- staggering reactions, 121
- stair climbing, 232
- stairs with banisters, 320
- standing, 195–210, 213–7, 224–32
  - 0–3-month normal developmental level, 200
    - 3–5-month normal developmental level, 200–201
    - 6–9-month normal developmental level, 201
9–12-month normal developmental level, 210, 213–24
   aims and methods, 213
   correction of abnormal postures, 216–17 functional assessment of strength, 216
   improvement of stability, 213–14 stand and sway or weigh shifts, 214 standing and counterpoising limb or trunk movements, 214–16 abnormal postures in standing, 201–5 absence of postural stability, 201
   asymmetrical distribution of spasticity, 203–4 asymmetrical postural fixation, 201–3 biomechanics and spasticity, 204
   counterpoising, 201–3
   growth of legs, 203
   primitive reflexes, 203
   unsupported standing, 205
   use of spasticity for compensation, 204
   well-supported standing, 204
antigravity support, 195
arm and head postures, 205
control of anterior posterior weight shift, 196
counterpoising, 195
lateral sway, 196
perturbations in, 196
postural stability of head and trunk, 195
postural stability of pelvic girdle, 195
rising reactions and actions, 196
stages in development, 197–8 still reactions, 196
treatment and management of all levels, 199–200
treatment suggestions and management, 205–10
   building child’s own stability, 209 consideration of severe delay of standing and walking, 209–10 correcting abnormal postures or deformities, 208–9 equal distribution of weight, 208 standing equipment, 205 training in vertical postures, 210 training methods, 206–8
standing equipment, 138, 201, 205–6, 207f, 254f, 296–7, 318 startle, 117
stepping sideways, 218 strength, 100–101
   categories, 101
   children under 4 years, 100
   clinical assessment of, 100–101
   measurement of, 100–101
structured group, 307
sucking, 116

supine, 105f
   supine development, 154–67
   0–3-month normal developmental level, 162–5
      common problems, 162
      physiotherapy suggestions, 162
      treatment suggestions and management, 162–5 4–6-month normal developmental level
      arm reach, 165
      bridging, 166
      common problems, 165
      physiotherapy suggestions, 165–7
      treatment suggestions and management, 165
   6–9-month normal developmental level, 167
      abnormal performance, 167 abnormal rolling patterns, 167
      common problems, 167
      treatment suggestions and management, 167
abnormal postures, 163f counterpoising limbs in air, 155 development of head righting, 156–9 physiotherapy suggestions for rolling and roll-and-rise, 159–61 arm patterns, 160–61
      head patterns, 161 leg patterns, 159–60
      reflex rolling, 159
      rolling to instructions, 161 side lying, 159
      supine lying, 161
   postural stabilisation of head, 154–5 postural stability of pelvis, 155
   postural stability of shoulder girdle, 154–67
   rising reactions and actions, 155–6 supine rise to sitting, 156–9 tilt reactions and saving reactions, 156
   treatment suggestions and management, 161–2
   supine lying, 161
   supporting reaction, 63 swallowing problems, 88–9 swimming, 45–6
   symmetrical tonic neck reflex (STNR), 117 synergies, abnormal, 279
   synergistic movement patterns, 37
   synthesis of treatment systems, 61–75 developmental training, 67–71
         assumptions, 68
         biomechanics, 68–9
         developmental sequences, 70–71
         individual variations, 69–70
         motor function training, 67
         eclectic practice, 61–2
   general principles of management, 66
   interaction between body parts, 75
synthesis of treatment systems (Cont.)
management of deformity in, 75
overview of, 62–3
perceptual-motion function, 66
specific principles of treatment, 66
training of movement patterns, 73
treatment of abnormal tone, 71–3 fluctuating tone, 72
  hypotonicity, 72
  spasticity, 71–2
  use of afferent stimuli, 73–5
  voluntary motion, 65–6
system-based task-oriented approach, 46–7 tables, 177
tailor sitting, 190
targeted training, 42–3 task analysis, 20, 81
teamwork with parents, 27–8
  integrated approach, 28
  interdisciplinary model, 27
  transdisciplinary model, 27
Test of Infant Motor Performance (TIMP), 112 tetraplegia, 5 therapeutic group work, 306–11
  behaviours in, 308
  frequency, 308
  length of sessions, 308
  main observations, 307–8
  number of children in, 308
  in occupational therapy, 306
  in physiotherapy, 306
  playgroups, 306–7
  programme, 310–11
  selection of children, 308–9
    age of child, 309
    cognitive level, 309
    motor problems, 308–9
    personality and behaviour, 309
    problems of children, 308–9
  in speech therapy, 306
  structured group, 307
  venue, 308
three-dimensional gait analysis (3DGA), 112 thumb deformities, 303 thumb flexion, 105f
  tibial torsion, 105f tilt reactions, 64, 119f, 156, 170, 196 lack of, 212
toddler’s gait
  absence of antero-posterior shift, 212 absence of lateral sway, 212 asymmetrical ability to counterpoise, 211–2 lack of tilt reactions, 212 patterns, 211
saving or protective reaction, 212
toe walking, 217
toilet seats, 186f–187f tone-reducing casts, 288–90. See also casting tonic reflexes, 11, 118f topographical classification, of cerebral palsy, 5 training, developmental, 67–71
  assumptions, 68
  basic motor patterns in, 67
  biomechanics, 68–9
  developmental sequences, 70–71
  individual variations, 69–70
  motor function training in, 67
  ontogenetic developmental sequence, 67
  overview of, 67
transdisciplinary model, 27–8
  transfers, 177, 192–3, 228–31, 316. See also mobility in bed and transfers
treadmill training, 44–5 treatment approaches, 34–50
  adjuncts to therapy, 47–8
    functional electrical stimulation, 43–4
    horse riding, 45
    hydrotherapy, 45–6
    Lycra splinting, 44
    neuromuscular electrical stimulation, 43–4
    swimming, 45–6
    targeted training, 42–3
    treadmill training, 44–5
  conductive education, 41–2
  contemporary theories, 47–50
    implications for therapy, 49–50
    limitations, 50
    neuronal group selection, 48–9
    neuroplasticity, 42–6
  mobility opportunities via education, 47
  muscle education and braces, 34–6
  neurodevelopmental treatment, 39–40
  neuromotor development, 38–9
  progressive pattern movements, 36–7
  proprioceptive neuromuscular facilitations, 37–8
  reflex creeping, 40–41
  sensory integration, 42
  sensory stimulation for activation and inhibition, 40
  synergistic movement patterns, 37
transdisciplinary model, 27–8
  transfers, 177, 192–3, 228–31, 316. See also mobility in bed and transfers
treadmill training, 44–5
treatment approaches, 34–50
  adjuncts to therapy, 47–8
    functional electrical stimulation, 43–4
    horse riding, 45
    hydrotherapy, 45–6
    Lycra splinting, 44
    neuromuscular electrical stimulation, 43–4
    swimming, 45–6
    targeted training, 42–3
    treadmill training, 44–5
  conductive education, 41–2
  contemporary theories, 47–50
    implications for therapy, 49–50
    limitations, 50
    neuronal group selection, 48–9
    neuroplasticity, 42–6
  mobility opportunities via education, 47
  muscle education and braces, 34–6
  neurodevelopmental treatment, 39–40
  neuromotor development, 38–9
  progressive pattern movements, 36–7
  proprioceptive neuromuscular facilitations, 37–8
  reflex creeping, 40–41
  sensory integration, 42
  sensory stimulation for activation and inhibition, 40
  synergistic movement patterns, 37
system-based task-oriented approach, 46–7
  treatment procedures, 125–259
    development of sitting, 167–95
    hand function development, 233–59
    lower limb orthoses, 224–33
    motor development, 129–34
motor training, 125–9
prone development, 134–54
supine development, 154–67
walking and standing development, 195–224 treatment systems, synthesis of, 61–75 developmental training, 67–71
assumptions, 68
biomechanics, 68–9
developmental sequences, 70–71
individual variations, 69–70
motor function training, 67
eclectic practice, 61–2
general principles of management, 66
interaction between body parts, 75
management of deformity in, 75
overview of, 62–3
perceptual-motion function, 66
specific principles of treatment, 66
training of movement patterns, 73
treatment of abnormal tone, 71–3
fluctuating tone, 72
hypotonicity, 72
spasticity, 71–2
use of afferent stimuli, 73–5
voluntary motion, 65–6
trunk
abnormal postures, 189
deformities, 303–4
excessive extension, 189
postural stability of, 134, 168–9, 195
righting reactions, 169–70
rising reactions, 169–70
ulnar deviation, 303 upright kneeling, 154
UPSuit, 44
urinary problems, 89
valgus feet, 301
verbal guidance, 83–4
vertical head control, 260–61
vestibular function, 132
vestibular righting, 118t visual, 65
visual development, 132
visual feedback, 82
visually impaired children, 129–34 gross motor development, 133–4
hand function development, 132–3
hypotonia and, 129
language development, 132
mother–child relationships in, 130
motor function and child's daily life, 130
postural mechanisms and, 129
proprioceptive function, 132
total child development and motor training, 130–34
use of compensatory stimuli, 130–31
vestibular function, 132
visual development, 132
Vojta, Vaclav, 40–41
voluntary motion, 65–6
in ataxic cerebral palsy, 10
in athetoid cerebral palsy, 9 and postural control, 66 in spastic cerebral palsy, 7 W sitting, 145
waddling gait, 217
walking, 195–227, 231–3. See also gait; standing
0–3-month normal developmental level, 200
3–5-month normal developmental level, 200–201
6–9-month normal developmental level, 201
9–12-month normal developmental level, 210, 213–24
aims and methods, 213
correction of waddling gait or running headlong, 217
crouch gait, 217
cruising or stepping sideways, 218
functional assessment of strength, 216
improvement of stability, 213–14
toe walking, 217
walk holding two hands or one hand, 218–24 abnormal gaits, 211–13
in spastic type, 212–13 typical toddler's gait, 211–2 arm and head postures, 205
control of anterior posterior weight shift, 196
counterpoising, 195
lateral sway, 196
levels (GMFCS) of, 108–9 older person, 87–91, 93 primary, 116t prognosis for walking, 87–8, 199 stages in development, 197–8t
treatment and management of all levels, 199–200
treatment suggestions and management, 205–10
consideration of severe delay of standing and walking, 209–10
walking aids, 318–9
abnormal postures of head, trunk and legs, 223 avoiding use with body ring and canvas sling, 222 children who run headlong and, 222 grasping hand support at side of child, 219 grasping hand support in front of child, 219–22 grasping someone's hand and, 222–3
walking aids (Cont.)
  inadequate hand use of, 222 parallel bars, 319
  reassessing use of, 223
  with trunk support, 318
  using, 218–19
  walking on hands and use of, 223 without trunk support, 318–19 Watford potty chair, 187f weakness, 100–101
  aims of therapy for, 278–9
  categories, 101
  children under 4 years, 100
  clinical assessment of, 100–101
  general, 278–9
  measurement of, 100–101
  specific, 278–9
weaning from liquids, 268–9
wedges, 318
Wee Functional Independence Measure (WeeFIM), 111 weight bearing, 141, 145–6 weight shifts, 64
wheelchair, 178–84
  developmental level and use of, 316
  factors in selecting, 180
  floor seats, 184
  head and trunk support, 182–3
  hip support, 181
  holding pelvic alignment in, 180
  knee blocks, 181
  lateral pelvis support, 181
  pelvis, hips, and thighs, 180
  studies, 177–8
  thigh strap, 181
  thigh supports, 181
  tilting, 181
  wheelchair, 178–85
windswept posture, 163, 165f wrist deviation, 105f
  flexion, 303
  flexion-extension, 105f functional observation of, 107