Contents

About the Author xi
Acknowledgments xiii
Preface xv
Abbreviations xvii

Introduction

Three Bases of Learning 4
About this Book 6

Part I  Theoretical Foundation

1  Operationalization of Mindfulness

Definition of MiCBT 11
Case Illustration with Generalized Anxiety Disorder 12
Western Understanding of Eastern Conceptualization 14
Changes in Western Clinical Psychology 18
Summary of Main Points 20

2  The Co-emergence Model of Reinforcement: A Rationale for Mindfulness Integration

Integrating Essential Components of Behavior Change 22
Role and Phenomenology of the Four Functional Components 23
Widening the Scope of Learning Theory 29
A Dynamic Systems Explanation of Intrusive Thoughts 31
Maintaining Mental Illness 35
Recreating Balance in the System 38
Summary of Main Points 39
Contents

Re-evaluating the Self-Concept 117
Summary of Main Points 118

8 Stage 3 of MiCBT: Interpersonal Mindfulness 119
Social Identity Theory 119
Stage 3 and the Theory of Social Identity 120
Using Stages 1 and 2 to Understand Others 121
Summary of Main Points 125

9 Stage 4 of MiCBT: Relapse Prevention with Grounded Empathy 127
Empathy as Part of the MiCBT Model 128
Consequences of Mindfulness 129
Empathy as a Function of “Egolessness” 134
Self-Esteem 136
Two Bases for Self-Acceptance 137
Training in Stage 4 138
Reappraising Relapse 140
Summary of Main Points 142

Part IV  The Benefits 143

10 MiCBT with DSM-V Axis 1 and Axis 2 Disorders 145
Developmental versus Situational Causes of Psychopathology 145
Early Cue Detection versus Experiential Avoidance 147
Case Example 1: Social Phobia 150
Case Example 2: PTSD 151
Case Example 3: PTSD and Dysthymic Disorder 152
Case Example 4: PTSD and Major Depressive Episode 153
Case Example 5: PTSD and Gambling Addiction 155
Case Example 6: Chronic Pain 156
Case Example 7: Chronic Pain, Chronic Depression, OCD and Panic Disorder with Agoraphobia 157
Case Example 8: General Anxiety Disorder, Connective Tissue Disorder and Osteoarthritis 159
Case Example 9: Chronic Depression, General Anxiety, Binge Eating and Diabetes 161
Case Example 10: Borderline Personality Disorder 164
The Issue of Personality 166
Summary of Main Points 167

11 Evaluation of Mindfulness Training 169
Measuring Efficacy of Mindfulness-based Treatments 171
Data Collection: A Non Diagnosis-Specific Analysis of MiCBT 174
Effects of MiCBT on Health Behavior of People with Type 2 Diabetes 178
Mindfulness and Western Therapies 180
Summary of Main Points 181

Part V Teaching and Training 183

12 Weekly Implementation Protocol 185
Expected Skills Acquired with the Program 185
Contact Hours for the 8- to 12-Week MiCBT Program 186
Structure of Facilitator Handouts 187
Summary of the 4-Stage Model 189
Concluding Comment 201
Follow-up Sessions 202
Outline for the MiCBT Follow-up Groups 202
Summary of Main Points 203

13 Professional Training 205
The Importance of Therapist Variables 205
Effects of Mindfulness on Therapy Outcomes 206
The Importance of Professional Training 206
Case Example 1: Needle Phobia 207
Case Example 2: Pain, Gambling Addiction and Anxiety 208
Case Example 3: Pain 210
Case Example 4: Distressing Situation 210
Case Example 5: ADHD 211
Recommendations for Clinicians 212
Summary of Main Points 212

14 Frequently Asked Questions 213
Common Questions about Mindfulness Meditation 213
Compatibility with Pharmacotherapy 224
Unexplained Experiences with the Practice 225
Adherence to Therapy 226
Trauma 227
Passion 228
Pain 230
MiCBT for Children 231
Conducting Groups 235
Contraindications 236
Summary of Main Points 238

References 241
Glossary 255
List of Appendices 261
Contents

Appendix A – Scripts 263
Appendix B – Assessment Tools 271
Appendix C – Client Forms 279
Index 295