Contents at a Glance

I. Learn the Skills Necessary to Become a Professional Educator

Section One: Begin Your Professional Growth ................................................................. 1
Section Two: Develop Professional Productivity Skills .................................................. 31
Section Three: Collaborate with Colleagues in Your School Community ................. 65

II. Establish a Productive Classroom Environment

Section Four: Become a Capable Classroom Leader .................................................... 81
Section Five: Start the School Year Productively ........................................................... 125
Section Six: Cultivate Positive Classroom Relationships ............................................ 161

III. Teach the Whole Child

Section Seven: Meet the Needs of All Students ......................................................... 201
Section Eight: Adapt Instruction through Differentiated Instruction ....................... 237

IV. Use Effective Instructional Practices

Section Nine: Design and Deliver Effective Instruction .............................................. 273
Section Ten: Measure Student Progress with Summative Assessments .................. 329
V. Create a Well-Managed Discipline Climate

Section Eleven: Policies, Procedures, and Rules: The Framework of Classroom Management ................................................................. 355
Section Twelve: Prevent or Minimize Discipline Problems ............................................................. 373
Section Thirteen: Handle Discipline Problems Effectively .......................................................... 395
Section Fourteen: How-to Quick Reference Guide
to Common Classroom Discipline Problems ................................................................. 451
Contents

About the Author .............................................................. xxii
Acknowledgments ............................................................. xxiv
About This Survival Guide ................................................. xxv

I. Learn the Skills Necessary to Become a Professional Educator

Section One: Begin Your Professional Growth ....................... 1
How to Handle Your New Responsibilities ................................................................. 2
Develop the Mindset of a Professional Educator ......................................................... 2
What’s Expected of Twenty-First-Century Teachers .................................................... 3
Professional Growth: Develop Your Skills and Add to Your Knowledge ......................... 4
Use Action Research to Inform Classroom Decisions .................................................... 4
Attend Conferences ...................................................................................................... 5
Participate in an Edcamp .............................................................................................. 6
Join Professional Organizations .................................................................................... 6
Read Professional Journals .......................................................................................... 7
Investigate the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards ......................... 7
Explore Educational Websites ..................................................................................... 7
Establish Your Own Plan ............................................................................................. 8
Take Learning Walks and Make Snapshot Observations ............................................. 10
Set and Achieve Professional Goals ............................................................................ 10
Teacher Worksheet 1.1: Suggested Competencies ..................................................... 12
Teacher Worksheet 1.2: Track Your Professional Goals ............................................. 13
Teacher Worksheet 1.3: Be Proactive about Your Professional Growth ......................... 14
Other Strategies for a Successful First Year ................................................................... 15
   Develop a Reflective Practice .................................................................................. 15
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Teacher Worksheet 1.4: A Template for Professional Self-Reflection</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learn from Role Models and Mentors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seek Feedback on Your Professional Performance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teacher Worksheet 1.5: Make the Most of Peer Observations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Use the Evaluation Process to Improve Your Teaching Skills</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Create a Professional Portfolio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maintain a Work-Life Balance for Long-Term Success</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Twenty-Five Strategies Specifically Geared for an Educator’s Tough Times at School</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Questions to Discuss with Colleagues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Topics to Discuss with a Mentor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Section Two: Develop Professional Productivity Skills | 31 |
| Arrange Your Work Space for Maximum Productivity | 31 |
| Your Desk Area | 31 |
| Supplies You Will Need | 33 |
| If You Spend Twenty-Five Dollars on Your Classroom Supplies | 35 |
| If You Spend Fifty Dollars on Your Classroom Supplies | 35 |
| The Dos and Don’ts of Your School Computer | 35 |
| Tips for Managing E-mail | 37 |
| Time Management for Teachers | 38 |
| How to Prioritize Your Professional Tasks | 38 |
| Teacher Worksheet 2.1: Prioritize Your Tasks | 40 |
| A Teacher’s To-Do List | 41 |
| Teacher Worksheet 2.2: A Teacher’s Daily To-Do List | 42 |
| Teacher Worksheet 2.3: Checklist of a Teacher’s Weekly Reminders | 44 |
| Quick Tips for Maximizing the Time You Have at School | 45 |
| How Teachers Sabotage Their Time Management Strategies | 46 |
| How to Minimize the Time You Spend Working at Home | 47 |
| Planning Period Productivity | 48 |
| Create Handouts and Other Instructional Resources Quickly | 49 |
| Online Bookmarking Sites | 49 |
| Paperwork: Ten Thousand Documents and Counting | 50 |
| Professional Documents You Need to Manage | 50 |
| What to Keep and What to Discard | 52 |
| Documents to Keep Until the Start of the Next School Year | 52 |
| Documents You Can Safely Discard at the End of Each Semester | 53 |
| Organizing Paper File Storage | 54 |
| Three-Ring Binders | 54 |
| Managing Digital File Storage | 55 |
| Resources for Storing Digital Documents | 56 |
| How to Organize and Manage Student Information | 56 |
| Develop a Consistent Paper Flow for Student Papers | 57 |
Teacher Worksheet 4.6: Plans for Ending Class Effectively .............................................................. 121
Productive Transitions .......................................................................................................................... 118
How to Use Any Time Left at the End of Class .................................................................................. 122
Teacher Worksheet 4.5: Plans for Starting Class Effectively .......................................................... 117
The First Ten Minutes of Class .............................................................................................................. 114
Teacher Worksheet 4.4: Student Sign-Out Sheet ............................................................................... 113
Sample 4.1: Hall Pass ............................................................................................................................ 112
Keeping Track of Students Who Leave the Classroom ....................................................................... 111
How to Handle Student Requests to Leave the Classroom ................................................................ 111
How to Handle Interruptions ................................................................................................................. 110
How to Handle Student Requests to Leave the Classroom ................................................................ 111
Keeping Track of Students Who Leave the Classroom ....................................................................... 111
Sample 4.1: Hall Pass ............................................................................................................................ 112
Teacher Worksheet 4.4: Student Sign-Out Sheet ............................................................................... 113
Use Time Wisely by Pacing Instruction Well ........................................................................................ 114
The First Ten Minutes of Class ............................................................................................................. 114
Teacher Worksheet 4.5: Plans for Starting Class Effectively .......................................................... 117
Productive Transitions .......................................................................................................................... 118
The Last Ten Minutes of Class ........................................................................................................... 119
Teacher Worksheet 4.6: Plans for Ending Class Effectively .............................................................. 121
How to Use Any Time Left at the End of Class .................................................................................... 122
Questions to Discuss with Colleagues ............................................................................................... 122
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor .......................................................................................................... 123
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ...................................................................................... 123

Section Five: Start the School Year Productively ............................................................................. 125
Get Ready for a Great School Year ...................................................................................................... 125
Classroom Safety Issues ....................................................................................................................... 127
Evaluate Your Classroom ....................................................................................................................... 128
Prepare Your Classroom for Students ................................................................................................. 129
Traffic Flow Considerations ................................................................................................................. 131
Seating Arrangements That Work at the Start of the Term ................................................................. 131
Three Common Student Desk Arrangements ................................................................................. 132
The Why and How of Seating Charts ................................................................. 133
Flexible Seating ............................................................................................... 133
Welcome Your Students to a New Year ............................................................. 135
How to Hold a Successful Open House ........................................................... 136
   Time Line for a Successful Open House ....................................................... 138
Parent or Guardian Worksheet 5.1: Please Tell Me about Your Child ............. 140
How to Manage the First Day ........................................................................... 141
Overcome Those First-Day Jitters .................................................................... 141
What to Do on the First Day: Your Priorities .................................................. 142
How to Get Everyone in the Right Seat on the First Day of Class .................... 144
Activities for the First Day ............................................................................. 145
Teacher Worksheet 5.1: Planning Template for the First Day ......................... 146
First-Day-of-School Welcome Packet ............................................................. 148
   What You Can Include in Student Packets .................................................... 148
   How to Establish Positive Relationships Right Away ................................. 149
   Connect with Your Students on the First Day ............................................. 149
Sample 5.1: Introductory Letter to Parents or Guardians .................................... 150
Help Students Connect with One Another on the First Day ............................ 151
How to Help Your Students Look Forward to the Rest of the Year .................. 152
Student Information Records ......................................................................... 152
Student Worksheet 5.1: Student Information Form ......................................... 154
Learn Your Students’ Names Quickly ............................................................. 156
How to Manage the First Week ....................................................................... 156
What You Can Expect during the First Week ................................................ 157
Have a Plan for Start-of-School Stress ............................................................ 158
Questions to Discuss with Colleagues ............................................................. 159
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor .................................................................... 160
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ............................................... 160

Section Six: Cultivate Positive Classroom Relationships .............................. 161
It’s Necessary to Work Well with Parents or Guardians ..................................... 161
Develop a Positive Reputation among Parents or Guardians ............................ 162
Prevent Miscommunication with a Transparent Classroom ............................ 162
Be Positive with Parents or Guardians ............................................................ 163
Sample 6.1: Positive Message to Parents or Guardians ...................................... 164
Assist Parents or Guardians Who Do Not Speak English ................................. 165
Make Telephone Calls with Confidence ....................................................... 165
Conduct Successful Conferences with Parents or Guardians .......................... 166
The Importance of Keeping Contact Records ............................................... 168
Teacher Worksheet 6.1: Home Contact Documentation Form ........................ 170
Why Some Parents or Guardians May Not Relate Well to You ......................... 171
Helicopter Parents or Guardians ..................................................................... 171
Unreasonable Requests .................................................................................. 172
CONTENTS

Angry and Uncooperative Parents or Guardians ................................................................. 173
Helping Students Learn to Work Well with You ................................................................. 174
Be Yourself: Use Your Unique Strengths ........................................................................... 174
Teacher Worksheet 6.2: Reflect on Your Relationship-Building Strengths ......................... 175
The Focus Should Be on Your Students ............................................................................ 176
Be Clear about Your Role in Classroom Relationships ..................................................... 176
The Limits of Your Responsibility to Your Students ........................................................... 177
Connect and Lead: Become a Warm Demander ................................................................. 178
The Warm Qualities of an Effective Teacher ....................................................................... 179
How to Be a Likeable Teacher ........................................................................................... 180
Verbal Immediacy ............................................................................................................... 183
A Long-Term Process: Get to Know Your Students ........................................................... 184
Create a Positive Group Identity .......................................................................................... 187
Create a Sense of Belonging to the Whole Group ............................................................... 189
Hold Class Meetings ........................................................................................................... 190
Help Students Learn to Relate Well to One Another .......................................................... 191
Remove Barriers to Peer Acceptance .................................................................................. 191
Teach Social Skills ............................................................................................................... 192
The Demander Qualities of an Effective Teacher ............................................................... 193
Call on Students Equitably .................................................................................................. 194
Hold the Entire Class Accountable for One Another ......................................................... 195
Student Worksheet 6.1: Class Log Page ............................................................................ 197
Questions to Discuss with Colleagues ................................................................................ 198
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ......................................................................................... 198
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ..................................................................... 198

III. Teach the Whole Child

Section Seven: Meet the Needs of All Students ................................................................. 201

The Whole Child Movement and Its Implications for Your Classroom ............................. 201
How to Include Social Emotional Learning in Daily Classroom Life ................................. 203
Establish a Risk-Free Environment .................................................................................... 204
Create a Culturally Responsive Classroom ........................................................................ 205
Resources That Can Help You Promote Cultural Sensitivity ............................................. 206
Integrate Mindfulness to Support Students ........................................................................ 207
Students Who Need Special Care ...................................................................................... 208
Students with Attention Disorders ..................................................................................... 208
At-Risk Students ................................................................................................................ 210
LGBTQ Students ................................................................................................................ 211
Students Who Are Not Native Speakers of English ............................................................ 212
Students Who Are Underachievers .................................................................................... 213
Students Living in Poverty .................................................................................................. 215
Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders ......................................................................... 216
CONTENTS

Gifted Students .................................................................................................................. 218
Children of Trauma .............................................................................................................. 219
Reluctant Learners ................................................................................................................. 219
Impulsive Students .................................................................................................................. 220
Students with Oppositional Defiant Disorder ................................................................. 221
Students Who Fall through the Cracks ................................................................................. 222
Students with 504 Plans ......................................................................................................... 223
Students with Special Needs .................................................................................................. 224
  Instructional Strategies for Students with Special Needs ................................................. 225
  Collaborating with Special Education Teachers ............................................................... 226
Strengthen the Skills That Can Make a Difference for Your Students ......................... 227
  Reading Skills ....................................................................................................................... 227
  Writing Skills ........................................................................................................................ 229
  Vocabulary Acquisition Skills ............................................................................................ 230
  Digital Media Skills ............................................................................................................. 231
  Listening Skills ..................................................................................................................... 232
  Distraction Management Skills .......................................................................................... 233
Questions to Discuss with Colleagues .............................................................................. 234
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ........................................................................................... 235
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ................................................................. 235

Section Eight: Adapt Instruction through Differentiated Instruction ............ 237

Differentiated Instruction Supports All Learners ............................................................. 237
Misconceptions about Differentiated Instruction ............................................................ 238
“How Can I Possibly Meet Everyone’s Needs?” .............................................................. 238
Create a Classroom Environment That Supports Differentiation ................................... 239
Use Growth Mindset Principles to Support Differentiation ............................................... 240
Key Strategies for Differentiation ....................................................................................... 240
  Strategy One: Individualized Instruction ........................................................................ 241
Teacher Worksheet 8.1: Student Learning Profile ............................................................. 244
  Strategy Two: Flexible Grouping ....................................................................................... 245
  Strategy Three: Transparent Learning for Students ......................................................... 245
  Strategy Four: Student Reflection ..................................................................................... 246
  Strategy Five: Respectful Tasks ....................................................................................... 247
  Strategy Six: Tiered Instruction ......................................................................................... 250
  Strategy Seven: Formative Assessment ............................................................................ 251
Teacher Worksheet 8.2: Tracking Formative Assessment Data ........................................ 253
  Strategy Eight: Effective Feedback .................................................................................. 258
  Strategy Nine: Planned Implementation of Feedback ...................................................... 258
  Strategy Ten: Student Choice ........................................................................................ 258
Sample 8.1: Choice Board for a Unit of Study on a Book .................................................. 259
  Strategy Eleven: Anchor Activities .................................................................................. 259
How to Plan for Differentiation .......................................................................................... 261
CONTENTS

- Teacher Worksheet 8.3: A Planning Checklist for Differentiation ......................................................... 262
- More Differentiated Instruction Planning .................................................................................................. 264
- Teacher Worksheet 8.4: Individualized Instruction Planning Template .................................................. 265
- Classroom Management Strategies for Differentiation ............................................................................. 267
- Response to Intervention .......................................................................................................................... 267
- Strategies Just for Managing Differentiation Stress .................................................................................. 268
- Resources to Help You Learn More about Differentiation ....................................................................... 269
- Questions to Discuss with Colleagues .................................................................................................... 270
- Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ................................................................................................................ 270
- Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking .......................................................................................... 270

IV. Use Effective Instructional Practices

Section Nine: Design and Deliver Effective Instruction ................................................................. 273

- How to Develop a Lesson Plan .................................................................................................................. 274
- Why Strategic Steps Are the Keys to Success ............................................................................................ 274
- Backward Design: Think Big, but Start Small ............................................................................................... 274
- Cover the Curriculum or Teach Your Students? ........................................................................................ 275
- How Prepared Should You Be? ................................................................................................................... 275
- Common Planning Problems .................................................................................................................... 276
- The Practicalities of Planning .................................................................................................................... 276
- Your State’s Standards ............................................................................................................................... 276
- The Common Core State Standards Initiative ........................................................................................... 277
  - How the Common Core Standards Affect You ......................................................................................... 278
  - How to Learn More about the Common Core State Standards Initiative ............................................... 279
- How to Begin Planning Instruction ........................................................................................................... 279
  - Create a Course Overview ....................................................................................................................... 280
- Teacher Worksheet 9.1: Format for a Course Overview ........................................................................... 281
- Teacher Worksheet 9.2: Predictable Dates to Consider When Creating a Course Overview .................. 282
  - Create Unit Plans .................................................................................................................................. 283
- Teacher Worksheet 9.3: Format for a Unit Plan ........................................................................................ 284
  - Create Daily Plans ................................................................................................................................... 285
- What to Include in Your Plans .................................................................................................................... 285
- Teacher Worksheet 9.4: Format for Daily Lesson Plans ......................................................................... 287
- Successful Learning for Nontraditional Schedules ...................................................................................... 288
- How to Adjust a Lesson ............................................................................................................................... 289
- Always Have a Backup Plan ....................................................................................................................... 289
- Direct Instruction or Student-Centered Activities? ..................................................................................... 291
- How to Use Scaffolding to Help Students Learn ......................................................................................... 291
- How to Review Material as Students Learn ............................................................................................... 292
- Critical Thinking Skills Are a Crucial Instructional Element ..................................................................... 294
- Maintain a Bank of Activity Ideas ............................................................................................................ 295
CONTENTS

- What to Do if Many of Your Students Fail a Test or Quiz .................................................................... 336
- How to Use Alternative Summative Assessments ..................................................................................... 336
- Rubrics: Formative and Summative Assessments ..................................................................................... 339
- Sample 10.1: Simple Rubric ............................................................................................................................ 340
- How to Manage Student Grades ................................................................................................................... 340
  - General Information to Consider about Grades ............................................................................... 341
- Keep Track of Grades ........................................................................................................................................ 342
- How to Personalize a Grade Report ................................................................................................................ 343
- How to Cope When Grades Are Challenged ........................................................................................ ...... 344
- How to Handle a Request to Change a Grade ..................................................................................... ...... 345
- Extra Credit Dilemmas and Solutions .........................................................................................................346
- The No-Zero Debate ................................................................. 346
- Transparency and Other Crucial Grading Considerations ....................................................................347
- How to Have Difficult Conversations with Students about Their Grades ........................................ 348
- Success with Standardized Tests ...................................................................................................................348
  - Yearlong Preparation ................................................................................................................................... 349
  - Test-Taking Skills ....................................................................................................................................... 349
  - Your Professional Responsibilities Regarding Testing...........................................................................350
- Questions to Discuss with Colleagues .........................................................................................................351
- Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ...................................................................................................................352
- Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking....................................................................................... ...352

V. Create a Well-Managed Discipline Climate

Section Eleven: Policies, Procedures, and Rules:

- The Framework of Classroom Management ......................................................................................... 355

- Develop Policies for Your Classroom ........................................................................................................... 355
- Teacher Worksheet 11.1: Planning Classroom Policies ........................................................................... 357
- Establish Procedures for Your Classroom .....................................................................................................359
- Teacher Worksheet 11.2: Planning Classroom Procedures ........................................................................360
- Teach and Enforce School Rules ................................................................................................................ 361
- Create Rules for Your Classroom .................................................................................................................. 361
- Consequences: Positive and Negative........................................................................................................... 363
- Teacher Worksheet 11.3: Planning Your Classroom Rules and Consequences .................................. 365
- Teaching Classroom Policies, Procedures, and Rules .............................................................................. 366
- Setting Limits ...................................................................................................................................................... 367
- How to Say No Courteously ........................................................................................................................... 367
- Empower Your Class with Student Ownership .......................................................................................... 368
- Moving Beyond Crowd Control to Promote Self-Discipline ................................................................... 369
- Resources for Further Exploration ...............................................................................................................370
- Questions to Discuss with Colleagues ...........................................................................................................370
- Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ...................................................................................................................371
- Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ....................................................................................... ...371
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section Twelve: Prevent or Minimize Discipline Problems</th>
<th>373</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Teacher Worksheet 12.1: How Proactive Are You Currently?</td>
<td>374</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It’s Up to You</td>
<td>375</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your Goal: Instruction without Interruption</td>
<td>375</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Establish Your Authority with the Calm Assumption of Cooperation</td>
<td>375</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be Aware of the Causes of Most Discipline Problems</td>
<td>376</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Easily Avoidable Mistakes Many Teachers Make</td>
<td>376</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Three Crucial Teacher Traits That Make a Difference</td>
<td>377</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be Positive: Nothing Creates Success Like Success</td>
<td>377</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be Consistent: Make Your Students Comfortable</td>
<td>379</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be Fair: Engender Student Cooperation</td>
<td>380</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If You Want to Receive Respect, Show Your Students That You Respect Them</td>
<td>381</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Withitness: An Attitude, a Skill, and a Necessity</td>
<td>382</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teacher Worksheet 12.2: Assess Your Current Level of Withitness</td>
<td>385</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How to Help the Whole Group Stay on Task While You Work with Small Groups</td>
<td>386</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Monitoring Student Work Habits</td>
<td>386</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be Proactive: Three Helpful Activities While Monitoring</td>
<td>388</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How Students Can Get Help Quickly</td>
<td>388</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How to Use the Twenty-First-Century “Teacher Look”</td>
<td>389</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How to Use Brain Breaks to Keep Students Focused</td>
<td>389</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intervene Appropriately to Minimize Misbehavior</td>
<td>391</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>An Invaluable Tool: The Power of Positive Peer Pressure</td>
<td>392</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Questions to Discuss with Colleagues</td>
<td>392</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Topics to Discuss with a Mentor</td>
<td>393</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking</td>
<td>393</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section Thirteen: Handle Discipline Problems Effectively</th>
<th>395</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Changing Approaches to Handling Classroom Discipline Problems</td>
<td>396</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Restorative Justice and Its Impact on Classrooms</td>
<td>396</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Big Picture: Be Positive and Not Punitive</td>
<td>398</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What Is Expected of You as a First-Year Teacher?</td>
<td>398</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Understand Your Legal Responsibilities</td>
<td>399</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Due Process Procedures</td>
<td>402</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How to Handle Discipline Problems if Your School Climate Is Not Positive</td>
<td>402</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Focus on These Priorities</td>
<td>404</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Helpful Attitudes for Your Discipline Anxieties</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Have Confidence in Yourself</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Show Your Students That You Care about Them</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plan Lessons That Are Challenging but Attainable</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conduct Yourself Professionally</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Accept Responsibility</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Add to Your Knowledge</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cultivate Grace under Pressure</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Great Advice: Don’t Take It Personally.................................................................407
You Could Be Creating Some of the Problems in Your Class ........................................408
Could What You Say Create Discipline Problems? .......................................................410
Are You Too Permissive? .................................................................................................410
Teacher Worksheet 13.1: Are You Too Permissive?..........................................................412
Patience Is Key: There Is No Fast Track to a Good Discipline Climate ...............................414
Think before You Act........................................................................................................414
How to Investigate When a Problem Happens ..............................................................415
Project a Calm and Confident Demeanor ........................................................................415
Be Clear about the Behaviors You Should Not Accept ....................................................416
Respond Instead of Just Reacting ....................................................................................417
Teacher Worksheet 13.2: Behavior and Intervention Guidelines for Prevalent Classroom Misbehaviors............................................................................419
Take a Problem-Solving Approach ..................................................................................421
Teacher Worksheet 13.3: Work through Classroom Problems ........................................423
Enforce Your Classroom Rules .......................................................................................424
Redirection without Enacting Consequences ..................................................................425
Redirection Involving Consequences ..............................................................................426
You Must Preserve Student Dignity When Redirecting ..................................................427
How to Obtain Discipline Assistance When You Need It ..............................................429
How to Talk with Parents or Guardians about Behavior Problems ................................429
How to Hold Successful Conferences with Students Who Have Misbehaved ...............430
Teacher Worksheet 13.4: Student Conference Documentation ........................................433
How to Refer a Student to an Administrator ...................................................................434
What to Do When Students Are Violent ........................................................................435
Warning Signs of Trouble You Should Not Ignore .........................................................437
Help Students Move Forward after a Discipline Problem ..............................................438
Maintaining Behavior Documentation All Year ..............................................................439
Teacher Worksheet 13.5: Behavior Incident Report ........................................................440
Teacher Worksheet 13.6: Behavior Observation Form for a Class ...............................441
Teacher Worksheet 13.7: Behavior Observation Form for an Individual Student ..........443
Teacher Worksheet 13.8: Behavior Intervention Documentation for an Individual Student ......................................................................................................445
Teacher Worksheet 13.9: Behavior Intervention Documentation for a Difficult Class ....446
Questions to Discuss with Colleagues ............................................................................449
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor ...................................................................................449
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ...............................................................450

Section Fourteen: How-to Quick Reference Guide
to Common Classroom Discipline Problems ................................................................451
Category One: Problems Associated with Individual Students .......................................453
How to React When Students Want to Sleep Instead of Work .......................................453
How to React When You Suspect Substance Abuse .......................................................454
CONTENTS

How to Help Students Who Are Chronically Disorganized ........................................................... 455
How to Deal with Students Who Are Tardy to Class ................................................................. 457
How to Help Students Who Are Truant ..................................................................................... 458
How to Help Students Who Are Abused or Neglected ............................................................. 460
How to Help Students with Chronic Misbehavior ..................................................................... 461
How to Help Students Who Lack Materials ............................................................................... 462
How to Cope with Students Who Tell Lies ................................................................................ 463
How to Manage Cell Phones in Class ....................................................................................... 464

Category Two: Problems Associated with the Enforcement of School Rules or Policies ......................................................................................................................... 465
How to Cope When There's a Classroom Theft ........................................................................ 465
How to Cope When Students Use Profanity ........................................................................... 466
How to Help Students Who Cheat ............................................................................................ 468
How to React When Students Engage in Sexting .................................................................. 471
How to React When Dress Code Violations Occur .................................................................. 472
How to Handle Hallway Problems ............................................................................................ 474
How to Deal with Students Who Engage in Horseplay ............................................................ 475
How to Deal with Students Who Are Bullies ......................................................................... 476
How to Manage Name-Calling .................................................................................................. 478

Category Three: Problems Associated with Misbehavior during Instruction .................. 479
How to Handle Work Refusal ................................................................................................... 479
How to Handle a Class That Is Slow to Settle to Work ........................................................... 480
How to Cope When Students Misbehave for a Substitute Teacher ......................................... 481
How to Handle Classes That Are Too Noisy .......................................................................... 482

Category Four: Problems Associated with Students’ Relationship with Their Teacher ..... 485
How to Deal with Defiant Students ......................................................................................... 485
How to Cope with a Difficult Class ........................................................................................ 487
How to Help Students Who Are Disrespectful ...................................................................... 488
How to Manage Classroom Power Struggles ....................................................................... 490

Questions to Discuss with Colleagues .................................................................................. 492
Topics to Discuss with a Mentor .............................................................................................. 493
Reflection Questions to Guide Your Thinking ........................................................................ 493

A Final Word ...................................................................................................................... 495

Index .................................................................................................................................. 497

How to Access Additional Content Accompanying The First-Year Teacher's Survival Guide, Fourth Edition ................................................................................................................................. 513

---

Please visit www.wiley.com/go/fyt4e for free online access to templates, checklists, video clips, and other useful content.