academics
need funding 322–3
promote abstract ideas only? 322 Accelerating Change (Strategic Forum 2002) 295–314
client leadership 303–5
as a continuation of Rethinking Construction 295–7 cross-cutting issues 311–14 culture change in people 308–11 Forum membership 296
since Rethinking Construction 297–302
A Commitment to People: Our Biggest Asset (M4I) 300 demonstration projects 298–300 key objectives remain 301 key performance indicators 298 selling the business case for change 301 strategic direction drivers
client leadership 302
integrated teams 302, 306–7 people issues 302
supply integration 305–6
targets 302–3
agency agreements with local authorities
by HA 81
agency labour, and self-employment 70 balance of payments deficit after World War II 3 Banwell committee/report (1964)
on contracts 12–15
contract procedures 14–15
Direct Labour Organisations (DLOs) 12–13 placing and management of contracts 12–13 progressive members of industry 13 teams 13–14
undermined by events 18–19
Barbican, problems at 19–20 barriers to progress 354 best practice networks 321–3
Be Valuable (2005) 337–8
Blair, Tony, as Prime Minister 128–30 commitment to modernisation 275 introduces New Labour 128–9 launches ‘Third Way’ 274–5 posts to Brown, Mandelson and Prescott 130 replaces wealth distribution by creation 129 sets up the ‘Construction Task Force’ (CTF) 130–131
see also New Labour
‘boom and bust’ cycle 10
Bovis and Construction Management (CM) 97–8
BRE Environmental Assessment Method (BREEAM) 85
Bresnen see partnering, Bresnen’s paradoxes
British Airports Authority (BAA) 41–2
British Gas privatisation 36
British Rail, privatisation 44
Broadgate scheme 39, 95–7 team approach benefits 96 use of Construction Management (CM) 96–7
Brown, Gordon, at the Treasury 277–8 Building Britain 2001 (CSSC) 99–105 about Building Britain 2001 99–100 changing client requirements 102–3 on economic dominance of South East 100–101 employment and training 101–2 on foreign contractor issues 100 on fragmentation 101
importance of 105
looks towards Japan 103
on private sector changes 100 recommendations for action 103–4
Building Research Establishment (BRE) 83
Building Research Station (BRS) 83–4
Building Schools for the Future (BSF) programme 282–3 cancellation by the Coalition 355 business process re-engineering (BPR) 195–206 about BPR and partnering 195–6
Construction Industry Board (1996) 198
critical management studies (CMS) 203 definition problems 199–201 enthusiastic endorsement 196–8
Hammer and Champy’s views on 199–202
Innovative Manufacturing Initiative (IMI) 197 lessons from other sectors 198–9 persuasive appeal of 203–6 playing on historical significance 205 playing on insecurity 204 playing on patriotism 204–5 playing on political resonance 206 with Rethinking Construction 197, 199–200 shoot the dissenters 201–3 see also information technology (IT) and process improvement; partnering

Callagan, James, as Prime Minister 22 and the IMF loan 22
Cameron, David, as Prime Minister 354–5
Campaign Against Building Industry Nationalisation (CABIN) 9
Canary Wharf development 38–9
Capability Assessment Toolkit (CAT) (HA) 82 centralisation under Thatcher 30 Change in Construction: an Account of the UK Construction Industry Reform Movement 172 charitable housing associations 42–3 claims surveyors 40
Managing Agent Contractor (MAC) contract 82
client leadership, and Accelerating Change 303–5, 325 private sector 304
public sector 304
Climate Change Act 354
closed systems thinking 165
Coalition government arrives 355
‘collaborative partnerships’ and the HA 82 collaborative working 353
Culture Assessment Framework (CAF) (HA) 82
culture change in people, and Accelerating Change 308–11 dislike of unfair contract conditions 112 emphasis on clients 112, 113 endorses Knowledge-based Engineering 110 endorses partnering 110–111 key recommendations 109–11
Construction Best Practice Programme (CBPP) 156–9
Construction Clients’ Forum (CCF) 114–16
members 115
and partnering 219
Construction Design and Management (CONDAM) regulations 342–3 construction, improving 9–15
Banwell committee (1962) on contracts 12–15
Direct Labour Organisations (DLOs) 9
Emmerson (1962) report on problems 9–12
Construction Industry Board (CIB 1996) 113–14, 198
member bodies 113
Construction Industry Training Board (CITB) 309
Construction Lean Improvement Programme (CLIP) 252–3
construction management (CM) 94–5 Bovis and CM 97–8
client focus aspect 95
Mace, rise of 97–8
schisms and distractions 97–9
Construction Skills Certification Scheme (CSCS) 308–9
‘Construction Task Force’ (CTF) about the task force 130
members 131
tasked with Rethinking Construction report 130–132 see also Rethinking Construction (Egan, 1998) consumerism 49
contract procedures, Banwell committee (1964) 14–15 contract trading 66
corporate social responsibility (CSR) 167
craft apprenticeships 11 creeping centralisation 42–3
critical management studies (CMS) 178–80, 203
cross-cutting issues, and Accelerating Change 311–14
corporate social responsibility (CSR) 312 high quality design 312–13 pre-planning commitment 312 research and development 313 sustainability 311–12
cult of the customer 49–50
Culture Assessment Framework (CAF) (HA) 82
culture change in people, and Accelerating Change 308–11 Index

clients responsibilities 310
Construction Industry Training Board (CITB) 309
Construction Skills Certification Scheme (CSCS) 308–9
‘false’ self employment issues 310–311
Major Contractors Groups (MCG) 309 Respect for People initiative KPIs 308 culture metaphors 169–70 and construction improvement 328 cultural change 170
enterprise culture 170
and excellence 169
cybernetic metaphor 167, 168
de-valuing of literal language 181–2
Direct Labour Organisations (DLOs) after World War II 9
Banwell committee (1964) on contracts 12–13
demise of under Thatcher 33–4 and the Emmerson (1962) report 9
Direct Service Organisations (DSOs) 33
Dutch auctions 66
eyearly contractor involvement (ECI) 253
Economic League 77–8, 286
Egan Report see Rethinking Construction (Egan, 1998)
Emmerson (1962) report on construction problems 9–12
‘boom and bust cycle’ 10
craft apprenticeships 11 ‘expert client’ concept 10
holiday pay 11
package deals 11
selective/open tendering 10–11
undermined by events 18–19
working conditions 11–12
enterprise culture 46–55
about enterprise culture 55–6 antecedents of enterprise 46–7 and consumerism 49
cult of the customer 49–50
culture metaphor 170
dissenting voices 53–5
enterprise capitalism 47 individual enterprise 48–9 and the prevailing management orthodoxy 50–53 and the regulatory burden 47 and the Thatcher years 27–8, 55–6 enterprise, dawn of beginnings 28–35 in formation 35–40
unleashed 40–46
excellence, defining 169 expert clients concept 10
in public sector 18
Falkland Islands save Thatcher 34–5
‘false’ self employment issues 310–311
Faster Building for Commerce (NEDO) 105–8, 122 on increase in specialists 106 on lean thinking 107
on subcontractors 106–7
flexibilization 60
flexible economy, and self-employment 76 flux and transformation metaphor 175–7 path dependency 175–6
and reality 176–7
fragmentation reduces industrial action 64
framework agreements 136
Generic Design and Construction Protocol (GDCPP) 209–13 capturing requirements notion 211 commonality with BPR 212
and IDEF-0 209–10
learning benefits 211
linking of collaboration and integration 213 greed, and the enterprise culture 54
groupthink 173–4
health and safety 340–346
Construction Design and Management (CONDAM) regulations 342–3 fatalities, long-term trend 340 legislation/voluntary regulation issues 342
One Death is Too Many (Donaghy 2009) 343–5 overtime effect uncertainty 341 statistical uncertainties 340–342 Heath, Edward, as Prime Minister 15–16 free market economics 16 miner’s strike problems 15–16
Highways Agency (HA) 80–83 adoption of ‘best value’ notion 82 agency agreements with local authorities 81 best value issues 82–3
Capability Assessment Toolkit (CAT) 82 commitment to ‘collaborative partnerships’ 82 Culture Assessment Framework (CAF) 82 establishment 80–81
legacy of acquisitions problems 81–2
Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment ) Regulations (TUPE) 81
holiday pay 11
hollowed out firms see leanness and agility Housing Corporations 42–3 housing shortage after World War II 3–7 corruption problems 4
high-rise tower blocks 4
Labour’s obsession with housing 3–4
Poulson scandal 5–6
prefabricated assembly 4
prefabrication discredited 6–7 quality issues 4
Ronan Point collapse 4–5

IDEF-0 209–10
illegal blacklisting 76–8
information technology (IT) and process improvement 206–13 enabling technologies 206–7 focus on processes 207–9
Generic Design and Construction Protocol (GDCPP) 209–13
see also business process re-engineering (BPR); partnering Innovative Manufacturing Initiative (IMI) 197 instrument of domination metaphor 177–80
critical management studies (CMS) 178–9 inequality in growth 179 Marx on domination 178
integrated teams, and Accelerating Change 302, 306–7
International Group for Lean Construction (IGLC) 253–4
International Monetary Fund (IMF), loan (1976) 22
Investing in Britain 2001 104
Japanese management methods 240–242
Japanese’s transplants and globalisation 242–3
Just-in-Time (JIT) 51–2
key performance indicators (KPIs) 51, 133 and psychic prison metaphor 175 and Respect for People initiative 308 Kinnie et al. three stages of lean construction 256–9 knowledge management 167–9

labour casualisation see self-employment labour mobility 40
labour-only subcontractors (LOSCs) 106–7
last planner (Ballard 2000) 254–5 Latham see Constructing the Team (Latham, 1994) leaning construction 238–69 about lean construction 238–9, 257–9 promotion issues 322
leanness and agility 59–88

about leanness and agility 59–60, 87–8 competitive pressures 66–7
Highways Agency (HA) 80–82
hollowed-out firm
effects of 67–9
leading to 60–69
intensifying labour casualisation 69–78 leading to antagonistic relations 65–6 in the market place 67–9 privatisation of research 83–5
Property Services Agency (PSA), demise of 78–80 rebranding as service companies 69 see also self-employment; subcontracting lean production in the automotive sector 250–251 lean production, organisation aspects 245–51 arenas of enactment 247–8 consultants and intermediaries 248–9 language as a power source 247–8 pluralistic perspective 246, 247
power issues 246
unitary perspectives 245–6

lean thinking
globalisation and Japanese transplants 242–3 guru-hype of lean thinking 239–40
Japanese management methods 240–242
Nissan transplants 242–3
The Machine that Changed the World (Womack et al. 1990) 239–40 lean thinking in construction 251–6 conclusions on lean construction 257–9 concurrent/competing models 263–7 model 1. Waste elimination 264 model 2. Partnering 264–5 model 3. Structuring the context 265–7 from leanness to anorexia 255–6 improvement techniques 251–3 as a catalyst for change 252
Construction Lean Improvement Programme (CLIP) 252–3
eyearly contractor involvement (ECI) 253
International Group for Lean Construction (IGLC) 253–4 Kinnie et al. three stages 256–9 stage 1. get organisations leaner 257 stage 2. leanness as an outcome 257–8 stage 3. retaining leanness 258
last planner (Ballard 2000) 254–5
Lean Construction Institute (LCI) 145–6, 253 perceptions of lean 259–63 ‘physics of production’ theories 254 and Rethinking Construction 144–6, 243–5 local authority spending, and Margaret Thatcher 30
Local Education Partnerships (LEPs) 283
London Dockland’s Development Corporation (LDDC) 38 low carbon built environment 353–4
Climate Change Act 354
‘lump’ labour pool 20–21
MacAlpine opposition to management contracting 93 machine metaphors 164–5, 327–8 and classical management theory 165
closed systems thinking 165
Major Contractors Groups (MCGs) 309
Major, John, as Prime Minister 44–5, 127–8 management contracting 93–4 MacAlpine opposition 93 management procurement methods 92–9 about management procurement 92–3 Broadgate lessons 95–7
construction management (CM) 94–5, 97–9
management contracting 93–4
Managing Agent Contractor (MAC) contract 82 metaphorical perspectives 164–80 and corporate social responsibility (CSR) 167
culture metaphor 169–70
flux and transformation 175–7 instrument of domination 177–80
machine metaphors 164–5
organic metaphor 166–7
organisations as brains 167–9 political metaphor 170–173 psychic prison 173–5
metaphors, practical implications 183–90 about metaphors 190–191 building credibility 185–6 client briefing approaches 186–90 extensive collaboration 187 flexibility in approach 189–90 linear process before design 186–7 mechanistic approaches 187 user engagement 187–8
using standards briefs 188 metaphorical lenses 183–4 self-fulfilling prophecy argument 184–5 metaphors as a process 180–183
de-valuing of literal language 181–2 knowledge creation to sense making 182–3 limitations of metaphors 180–181 Metronet, failure of 281
mining industry pit closures under Major 45 modernisation after World War II, stalled 8–9 Modernising Construction (NAO 2001) 287–95 about working in an expanding market 287–8 emphasising private-public partnerships 288–9 improving construction performance 289–90 mutuality of objectives 289 National Audit Office (NAO) analysis 290–292 performance management support 292–4 recommendations for action 294–5
construction industry 295
Department of the Environment, Transport and the Regions (DETR) 294 Office of Government Commerce (OGC) 294 monetarism 22–3
Morgan’s metaphors see metaphorical perspectives
Murdoch, Rupert and News International 38 Movement for Innovation (M4I) and psychic prison metaphor 174–5 and Rethinking Innovation 150–151 National Audit Office (NAO) see Modernising Construction (NAO 2001)
national building strike (1972) 20–21
National Health Service (NHS) 42, 45 nationalisation after World War II 7–9 and Labour policy 9
modernisation stalled 8–9
National Working Rule Agreement (NWRA) 74
nation building after World War II 2–9 balance of payments deficit 3 homes for heroes 3–4 nationalisation 7–9
operational research (OR) 8
see also housing shortage after world war II
Network Rail/Railtrack problems 285–6
Never Waste a Good Crisis (Wolstenholme, 2009) 346–52 as an update of Rethinking Construction 346–7 progress so far 350–352 re-writing history 348–50 survey discussion 351
‘New Deal’ Labour employment initiative 277
New Labour 275–86
about construction in the New Labour years 314–16 Brown at the Treasury 275–277 combines New Labour with social democracy 278–80 efficiency and risk in privatisations 280–281 from hope to cynicism 275–7 engagement in Afghanistan 276 invasion of Iraq 276
Kosovo and Sierra Leone adventures 276 success in Northern Island 276 World Trade Center attack 276
New Labour (cont’d)
health and education PFI finance 278
Network Rail/Railtrack problems 285–6
‘New Deal’ employment initiative 277 off-balance sheet finance 277–8 partnerships in delivery 282–5
Building Schools for the Future programme 282–3
Commission on Vulnerable Employment (TUC) 285
NHS Local Improvement Finance Trust (LIFT) 284
Partnerships for Health (PH) 284
Partnerships for Schools 283
Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations (TUPE) 282 prisons built with PFI 278
private finance initiative (PFI) 277–8
efficiency and risk issues 281 ‘Third Way’ 279–80
see also Blair, Tony, as Prime Minister; Modernising Construction (NAO 2001) network industry at Wapping dispute 37–8
NHS Local Improvement Finance Trust (LIFT) 284
Nissan management methods transplants 242–3 North/South divide and labour mobility 40 off-balance sheet finance 277–8
see also Private Finance Initiative (PFI)
Ofsted 45
One Death is Too Many (Donaghy 2009) 343–5 government response 345–6 open systems thinking 166
operational research (OR) 8
organic metaphor 166–7
and contingency theory 166
and open systems thinking 166 organisations as brains metaphor 167–9 cybernetic metaphor 167, 168
knowledge management 167–9
package deals 11
Pact with Industry 132, 154
partnering 213–32
about partnering and BPR 213–15, 232–3 adoption by supermarkets 218–25 do they live up to their rhetoric? 219–22 BPR differences 217–18
case studies
Rover Cars 225–7
Sainsbury’s 222–3
Whitbread 223–5
champions required 217
Construction Clients Forum (CCF) 219

Construction Industry Board 215
Construction Industry Institute (1989) 214
Partnering in the Team 215
Reading Construction Forum 214 Rethinking Construction 214–15 edorsed by Latham 110–11 faith and commitment required 216–17
Partnering in the Team 216–17
power issues 231
in Rethinking Construction 137 trust issues 230–231
see also business process re-engineering (BPR);
information technology (IT) and process improvement partnering, Bresnen’s paradoxes 227–30 benchmarks/processes/feedback 230 equity 228–9
integration 229–30
membership 228
seven pillars and deadly sins 230 strategy/wishful thinking 228
Partnerships for Health (PH) 284
Partnerships for Schools 283
Local Education Partnerships (LEPs) 283
path dependency 175–6
performance targets see Rethinking Construction (Egan 1998), targets for improvements;
targets
planned economy after World War II 1–25 about this period 1–2, 24–5 improving construction 9–15
nation building after world war II 2–9 planning for stability and predictability 15–19 trouble and strife 19–24 see also Banwell committee/report (1964) on contracts; Emmerson (1962) report on construction problems political metaphor 170–173
extended to industry 171 fragmentation as a barrier 171–2 status of professionals 172–3
Poll Tax 43–4
Poulson scandal 5–6
prefabrication discredited after World War II 6–7
Private Finance Initiative (PFI) 85–7 controversial aspects 86–7
efficiency and risk issues 281
promotion under John Major 85–6 use under Blair and Brown 86, 277–8 privatisation
British Airports Authority (BAA) 41–2
British Gas 36
British Rail 44
and creeping centralisation 42–3 efficiency and risk issues 280–281 expectations of efficiencies 35, 41
National Coal Board (NCB) 37 origins 30–31
as private sector monopolies 36 and regulatory bodies 41 process improvement, see also business process re-engineering (BPR); information technology (IT) and process improvement Progress Through Partnership Technology Foresight report 116–21, 123, 158 about the report 116–17 challenges identified 117–120 buildings/infrastructure 119 business processes 119
cost reduction 118
education and training 118–19 environmental/social 118 technological capability 118 engines of change 120 opportunities for wealth creation and quality of life 120–121 Property Services Agency (PSA), demise of 78–80
before privatisation 79 split to private firms 79–80 Wardale report (1983) 80 psychic prison metaphor 173–5
groupthink 173–4
and key performance indicators (KPIs) 175 and Movement for Innovation (M4I) 174–5 and strong corporate cultures 174 public-private partnerships (PPP) 282, 285, 288
see also Private Finance Initiative (PFI)

quality of life, and the enterprise culture 54 quality and value in building 335–8
Be Valuable (2005) 337–8
Burt on quality/value 335 and design optimisation 335–6
New Labour and value to society 337 Saxon’s critique 335
shared responsibility loses out 336 and social democracy 338 value for customers 337–8 value optimisation 336
see also value

Realising Our Potential White Paper 116 regulatory bodies 41
research, privatisation of 83–5
BRE Environmental Assessment Method (BREEAM) 85
Building Research Establishment (BRE) 83–5
Building Research Station (BRS) 83–4
funding for 84
Rethinking Construction (Egan, 1998) 122, 126–61 about Rethinking Construction 126–7, 131–2 five fundamentals for change 134–5 commitment to people 134–5 committed leadership 134 focus on customer 134
integrating process and team 134 quality driven agenda 134
framework agreements 136
interlocked elements
partnering the supply chain 137 product development 136–7 production of components 137–8 project implementation 137
key performance indicators (KPIs) 133 lean thinking/production endorsed 144–6 modern management endorsed 144–7 need for construction to improve 132–3 political setting 127–31
serial contracting 136
Rethinking Construction (Egan 1998) implementation 147–59 commitment to demonstration projects 147–9 Constructing Improvement 153, 155–6
Construction Best Practice Programme (CBPP) 156–9 business improvement themes 157
key objectives 157
Construction Clients Confederation (CCC) 152
Construction Clients Forum (CCF) 153–5
Pact with Industry 154
Construction Industry Board (CIB) 152
Government Construction Clients Panel (GCCP) 153
key performance indicators (KPIs) 150–151
knowledge centre 149
movement for change 148
Movement for Innovation (M4I) 149–52 Progress Through Partnership 158 public sector clients 149 Public-Private Partnerships 149 requirements from clients 147 shifting alliances 152–3 sustainability issues 158–9 Rethinking Construction (Egan 1998), targets for improvements 138–43 limitation of risk 143
list of 139
accidents 139, 140–141
Rethinking Construction (Egan 1998), targets for improvements (cont’d)
capital cost 139
construction time 139
defects 139
predictability 139
productivity 139
turnover and profits 139, 140
missing items
commitment to people 141
environment 142
fair wages 141–2
training 142
performance targets 133
reverse bidding 67
‘right to buy’ 31–2
Ronan Point collapse 4–5
Rover Cars partnering case study 225–7

Sainsbury’s partnering case study 222–3
Saxon’s value agenda 334
Scargill, Arthur 37
schools, and Ofsted 45
self-employment 69–78
agency labour 70
attractiveness to individuals 74–6 benefits for firms 72–3
as a characteristic of the enterprise culture 73
cost/benefit issues 72–3 definition difficulties 70–72 false self-employment 71 and the flexible economy 76 grey economy 71–2
illegal blacklisting 76–8
incentivisation of 69–70 loadsamoney 75–6
reduces industrial action threat 73 remuneration issues 74
taxation and national insurance 70 trends in 76
serial contracting 136
service companies by rebranding 69
‘Shrewsbury Two’ 21
Social Contract 16, 22
helps Thatcher 27–8
stakeholders, and the enterprise culture 53 Strategic Forum
on client leadership 325 propensity for target setting 324 see also Accelerating Change (Strategic Forum 2002) strikes
national building strike (1972) 20–21
unofficial action 64–5
wild-cat strikes 19–20, 65
subcontracting
flexibilization 60
fragmentation reduces industrial action 64 growth of 60–62
growth of specialist trade firms 61, 63 labour only and materials and labour 63–4 leading to antagonistic relations 65–6 rationale for 62–4
small firms reinvent as specialist contractors 64 supermarkets adopt partnering 218–19 and the Competition Commission 221–2 not ‘partnering’ with their suppliers 219–22 supply chain management 321 supply integration, and Accelerating Change 305–6
sustainability
and the enterprise culture 54–5 in Skills for Sustainable Communities 326 in Progress through Partnership 325–6
targets 323–7
performance targets 133
roll in Rethinking Construction 323 Strategic Forum’s propensity for 324 and voluntary regulation 326 see also Rethinking Construction (Egan 1998), targets for improvements teams, Banwell committee (1964) on contracts 13–14 Technology Foresight see Progress Through Partnership Technology Foresight report tendering, selective or open? 10–11 Thatcher, Margaret as Prime Minister 27–35 about Margaret Thatcher 27–8, 55 emboldened by third victory 40–41 and the Falkland Islands 34–5 limiting trade union power 30 and local authority spending 30 and the Poll Tax 43–4
and ‘right to buy’ 31–2 and The Group of Eight 29
The Group of Eight, and Margaret Thatcher 29
The Machine that Changed the World Womack et al. (1990) 239–40 timber-framed housing, wrongly discredited 7 Total Quality Management (TQM) 51–2 trade union power, and Thatcher 30, 31 training and employment 11–12
Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations (TUPE) 81, 282

value
after World War II 334
best value 329
Be Valuable report 332
Egan agenda for 333
of good design 328–31
improvement agenda for 333 and integrated solutions 333 meaning of 328
National Audit Office (NAO) concept 331 owning/using long-term costs 330 Saxon’s value agenda 334
value agenda 332–4
value management 329

value-for-money 328–9
see also quality and value in building Vulnerable Workers report 338–9

Wapping newspaper industry dispute 37–8
Wardale report (1983) on the PSA 80 Whitbread partnering case study 223–5
wild-cat strikes 19–20, 65
Wilson, Harold, as Prime Minister 16, 22
Social Contract 16, 22
winter of discontent 23–4, 279–80 Wood report (1975) 15–19 beginnings under Heath 15–17 follows Emmerson and Banwell 17 on public sector agency budgeting 18 on public sector procurement 17
undermined by events 18–19