Contents

Preface vii
About the Authors xi
Acknowledgements xiii
List of Abbreviations xv

1. Introduction: The Hardest Job in Policing? 1
   Shots Around the World 4
   Controversy 8
   Changes, Mistakes and Learning in Police Circles 9
   Contexts, Command, Frequencies and Victims 16
   Structure and Contents 20

Timeline on Police Weapons and Firearms 23

2. The Shooting of Jean Charles de Menezes and ‘Operation Kratos’ 31
   Stockwell, 22 July 36
   Briefing and Kratos 41

3. Old Myths and Changing Realities 53
   Discourses Within and About Policing 53
   Tooling Up? 55
   Driving out the Dixon Myth 58
   New Problems and ‘Exceptional’ Measures 64

4. Shootings, Policy Shifts and Competing Pressures 71
   Continuing Official Caution 75
   Hungerford 76
   Tragedy and Farce 78
   After Hungerford 80
   ‘Event Driven’ or ‘Gun Driven’ 81
   Shooting to Kill? 83
   Men, Guns and Ammo 89
   Replica Arguments and Replica Weapons 92
Contents

5. Police Politics and Morale
Hanging, Shooting and Opinion Polling  97
Click by Click?  100
The ‘Greatest British Defeat since Dunkirk’  104
New Frontiers and Supply Side Questions  107
The Most Important Decision for the Future of British
Policing – Since Last Year  109
War and Order: The New Continuum of Force  114
The Dunblane Primary School Massacre and its Aftermath  115

6. Policing in a ‘Gun Culture’? Policing of Guns and Policing with Guns  117
Unpacking the Notion of a ‘Gun Culture’  122
Guns and Gangs  124
Gang Studies and ‘Cultures of Violence’  126
Policing and Enforcement Action in ‘Gangland’  133
Gun Crime Hotspots and ‘Problem-oriented Policing’  136
Operation Ceasefire  138
Bringing It All Back Home: ‘Gunchester’  141
Policing of Guns, Policing with Guns  142

7. Intelligence Dilemmas, Armed Response Policy and Research  147
Gang Culture and the ‘Trident Model’  149
From Reactive to Proactive  150
Intelligence-led Dilemmas  152
Research on Recent Police Shootings  159

8. Critical Case Studies of Selected Police-involved Shooting Incidents  165
The Shooting of James Ashley in Hastings, 1998  166
The Shooting of Harry Stanley, 1999  171
The Shooting of Andrew Kernan, 2001  177
Caution at Highmoor Cross, 2004  181
Ambush at Chandler’s Ford, 2007  184

9. Concluding Themes: Losing by Appearing to Win?  193

Bibliography  205
Index  227