Contents

Preface v
Acknowledgments vi
Introduction 1

1. Engaging the Visual World .......................................................7
Touching and Moving Provide the Foundation 9
Nicholaides and Contour 13
   Contour Exercises 20
Contour and Composition 31
Nicholaides and Mass 41
   Mass Exercises 44
Gesture 51
   Gesture Exercises 53
Spaces and Voids 57
   Space Exercises 60

2. The Order of Appearance .......................................................73
Gibson and Textural Gradient 75
Gibson and Depth Cues 91
   Distance from Horizon Line 95
   Overlap and Motion Parallax 99
Shade and Shadow 103
Size Perspective 107
Atmospheric Perspective 111
Linear Perspective 115
Freehand Perspective Exercises 124

Drawing Slopes 131
   Perspective of Slopes Exercises 132
Movement and Perspective 135
Drawing Complexity 141
   Freehand Perspective Exercise 142

3. When Order is Made ............................................................. 145
When Order is Made  147
   Projecting Perspective Exercises  150
   Imposing Perspective Exercises  157
Light and Dark (and Color) 163
   Light and Dark Exercises  166
Contrast of Value 170
   Color Exercises  171
Contrast of Temperature  173
Complementary Contrast 175
What’s the Next Step? 179

Appendix A: Perspective: Office Method ........................... 187

Appendix B: Perspective: One-Point Magic Method .......... 199

Appendix C: Shadow Projection in Orthographic Views ...... 203

Appendix D: Shadow Projection in Perspective Views ....... 211

Bibliography ......................................................................... 221

Glossary .............................................................................. 225

Index .................................................................................. 229

About the CD-Rom ............................................................... 233