Abstinence versus moderation: alcohol and substance abuse, 164–167; gambling, 46–48
Acamprosate (Campral), 184
Active quitting stage of addiction, 14
Addiction: continuous need for monitoring behavior with, 191–192; identifying your specific triggers, 193; multiple expressions of, 190; substance abuse and, 156; understanding triggers of your, 192. See also Gambling addiction
Addiction syndrome, 12
Agoraphobia, 72
Alcohol abuse: delirium tremens (DTs) due to, 157; driving while drunk, 158–159; moderation versus abstinence, 164–167; progressive nature of, 155–157, 158. See also Substance abuse
Alcohol detoxification, 183–184
Alcohol withdrawal, 164, 183–184
Alcoholics Anonymous, 63
All or nothing, 92
Alprazolam (Xanax), 100
Ambivalence: description of, 196; as lapse and relapse trigger, 196–198; toward recovery, 197–198
Antianxiety medication, 100
Anxiety: benefits of normal, 69–70; connection between gambling and, 78–80; finding replacement activities for, 89–90; gambling connection to, 78–80; how gambling can relieve the stress of, 80; what happens during an exposure, 95; when it becomes disruptive, 70
Anxiety disorders: description of, 17; generalized anxiety disorder (GAD), 18, 74–75; obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), 17, 77–78; panic, 18, 70–72; phobias, 18–19, 74; post-traumatic stress disorder, 17–18, 75–76, 99–101; risk factors for, 12; social anxiety, 18, 72–74
Anxiety management: making no attempt to change, 80–82; professional help for, 99–101; self-help techniques for, 82–98
Assumptions: Nine Dot Problem, 25–26; understanding how they influence your behaviors, 28
Ativan, 100
Attempting changes on your own. See Self-help
Automatic negative thoughts (ANTs): Automatic Negative Thoughts (ANTS) Chart, 93; building self-efficacy by counteracting, 194–196; as coping strategy for substance abuse, 175; examples of, 92; during exposure event, 97; learning to identify your, 91; process of changing your, 91–92; rational responses to common, 195
Automatic thoughts: description of, 112; identifying and then challenging your, 113; during manic phase, 112–113; questions to ask for changing your,
Aversion therapy, 137
Avoidance: Avoidance Chart, 98; controlling anxiety by preventing, 97–98; description of, 97

B
Behaviors: gambling, 11–12, 46–48; identifying and rating your, 116–118. See also Making changes
Benzodiazepines, 100
Best course of action questions, 47–48
Bettors Anonymous, 124
Bipolar disorder, 19–20, 108
Breathing: calming breath exercise, 179–180; diaphragmatic, 88
Buprenorphine, 184

C
Calming breath exercise, 179–180
Campral, 184
Canadian cigarette warning labels, 137
Carbamazepine (Tegretol), 152
Catastrophizing, 92
Challenges/Skills/Responses Chart, 83
Charts: Automatic Negative Thoughts (ANTS), 93; Avoidance Chart, 98; Challenges/Skills/Responses Chart, 83; Coping Chart, 176–177, 178; Dealing with Lapse or Relapse, 202; Decision Chart, 171–173; Exposure Chart, 96; Financial Debt, 53; Managing Risky Relationships, 60–61; Managing Your Impulses, 142–143; Rating Mood or Emotion, 117; Replacement Activities, 90; Substitute Thoughts for Automatic Thoughts, 115–116; Tracking Your Thoughts and Moods Chart, 113, 114

D
Daily schedule: managing your mood through, 118–123; pleasurable activity scheduling, 122–123; sample of a basic one day, 120; selective scheduling, 121–122
Debt: Financial Debt Chart, 53; giving yourself rewards for reducing, 54; prioritizing and paying off your, 54
Debtors Anonymous, 124
Decision Chart, 171–173
Delirium tremens (DTs), 157
Depression: bipolar disorder and, 19–20; cyclothymic disorder phase of, 108; description and symptoms of, 105–106; dysthymia, 106; major depressive disorder (MDD) form of, 19, 105
Depressive episode: description of, 105; value of pleasurable activity scheduling during, 122–123
Diaphragmatic breathing, 88
Drug withdrawal management, 157
Dysthymia, 106
E
emotionalizing, 92
Exposure: automatic negative thoughts (ANTs) during an, 97; description of, 93; how to think before, during, and after, 97; practicing, 93–94; relaxation used with, 94; what happens to anxiety during an, 95
Exposure Chart, 96

F
Filtering, 92
Finance management: Financial Debt Chart, 53; giving yourself rewards for reducing debt, 54; identifying where you can reduce expenses, 56; need to improve your, 51–52; prioritizing and paying off your debts, 54; Setting a Monthly Budget, 55
Financial Debt Chart, 53
“Flights of ideas,” 107
Fortune-telling, 92

G
Gam-Anon, 63
Gamblers Anonymous, 63, 124
Gambling: description of, 43; four levels of, 44; pathological, 78; when it becomes a problem, 43–44
Gambling addiction: deciding to do something about your, 21–22; examining your struggle with, 15–16; pathological gambling, 78; progressive nature of, 157–159; the stages of, 13–14; what it means to have a, 11–13. See also Addiction
Gambling addiction stages: stage 1: initiation, 13; stage 2: precontemplation, 13; stage 3: contemplation, 14; stage 4: preparation, 14; stage 5: active quitting, 14; stage 6: maintenance (or relapse prevention), 14
Gambling behaviors: long history of, 11–12; moderation versus abstinence, 46–48. See also Making changes
Gambling problem: anxiety connection to, 78–80; assessing other problems you are experiencing, 16–21; assessing yourself for, 15–16; description of a, 45–46; impulse control connection to, 133; learning to recognize co-occurring disorders with, 1–2; mood connection to, 109–110; pathological gambling, 78; substance abuse connection to, 160–161. See also Problems
Generalized anxiety disorder (GAD), 18, 74–75
Goal setting: listing your priorities in terms of, 30; sparking motivation for change, 39; step-by-step process of, 34–38; summing up, 38–39; what you need to know about, 30–33
Goal setting tips: asking for help when you need it, 33; define your wiggle room, 33; divide your smaller objectives into specific tasks, 32; reevaluate periodically, 33; reward yourself, 32–33; set your large goals first, 31; take one step at a time, 31–32
Goals: managing your anxiety by building on past success with, 82–84; overcoming obstacles to, 37–38; primary, 34–35; SMART, 169, 170; stepping-stone, 36–37
“Good stress,” 199

H
Hair pulling (trichotillomania): description of, 20, 129–130; managing impulse for, 144–145
Help: asking when needed, 33; friends and family provided, 153–154; 12-step groups, 63, 124. See also Professional help; Self-help
“Human” triggers: learning to deal with, 60–61; Managing Risky Relationships Chart, 60–61; pre-planning by avoiding your, 57–59, 118–123

I
Identifying your triggers, 56–57
Impulse control disorders (ICDs): compulsive shopping, 130–131, 146–147; connection between your gambling and, 133; description of, 20, 129; intermittent explosive disorder (IED), 131–132, 148–149, 150–152; kleptomania (repeated stealing), 20, 130–131, 145–146; making changes to address issues with, 133–154; newly recognized impulse control issues,
Index

132; pyromania (fire starting), 20, 131; relationship between gambling problems and, 128; similarities to OCD and, 129; skin picking, 130, 148; trichotillomania (pulling hair) [TTM], 20, 129–130, 144–145. See also Urges

Inderal, 152

Initiation stage of addiction, 13

Intermittent explosive disorder (IED): description of, 131–132; using medications to control, 152; seeking professional help for, 150–152; strategies for managing, 148–149; tips for useful communication to manage, 150

J

Journal: best course of action questions, 47–48; Monthly Budgeting Sheet as part of your, 55; My Accomplishments, 39; My Primary Goals, 35; Stepping-Stone Goals, 36; Stumbling Block, 38; turning monologues justifying shopping into dialogues, 147; writing down SMART goals in, 169–171

K

Kleptomania (stealing): description of, 20, 130–131; managing impulse for, 145–146

L

Lack of confidence, 193–194
Lapse three coping strategies: delay acting on the trigger, 203; leave the situation, 203; think on your feet, 203
Lapse triggers: ambivalence, 196–198; coping with stress and challenging situations, 198–200, 201–203; identifying your, 193; lack of inner confidence, 193–194; self-pity, 194–196; taking recovery for granted, 200; testing the boundaries, 200; understanding, 192
Lapses: dealing with a, 201–203; description of, 189–190; imagining your scenario for, 201; understanding reasons for, 193–200. See also Relapses
Learning to relax, 84–86
Lorazepam (Ativan), 100

M

Magnification and minimization, 92
Maintenance (or relapse prevention) stage, 14

Major depressive disorder (MDD), 19, 105
Making changes: for addressing impulse control issues, 133–154; appreciating the challenges of, 1; best course of action questions on, 47–48; to change gambling behavior, 49–66; considering all the options for, 48–66; for facing substance abuse issues, 161–184; for facing your issues with mood, 110–125; to manage your anxiety, 80–101; moderation versus abstinence, 46–48; setting goals to help with, 29–39; two main ways to approach, 1. See also Behaviors; Gambling behaviors; Recovery

Making no attempt to change: to control gambling, 49–50; to face your issues with mood, 111; to face your substance abuse, 162–163; impulse control issues, 134–135; to manage your anxiety, 80–82. See also Professional help; Self-help

 Managing Risky Relationship Chart, 60–61
Managing Your Impulses Chart, 142–143

Mania: automatic thoughts during phase of, 112–113; bipolar disorder phase of, 20; connection between gambling and, 110; cyclothymic disorder phase of, 108; description of, 106–108; following depressive episode, 105; manic episode, 107–108

Manic episode, 107–108

Medication therapy: for alcohol withdrawal, 183–184; controlling gambling through, 66; for managing intermittent explosive disorder (IED), 152; managing mood issues using, 125; myths about antianxiety, 100. See also Professional help therapies

Medications: acamprosate (Campral), 184; Alprazolam (Xanax), 100; Ativan, 100; Benzodiazepines, 100; buprenorphine, 184; carbamazepine (Tegretol), 152; lorazepam (Ativan), 100; methadone, 184; naltrexone (Vivitrol), 66, 184; OxyContin, 159, 162; Paxil, 125; propranolol (Inderal), 152; Prozac, 125; SSRIs (selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors), 125; Tricyclic antidepressants, 100; Xanex, 100; Zoloft, 125

Meditation: learning to relax by using, 85; substance abuse, 180–181
Methadone, 184
Mind reading, 92
Mind-body practices, 85
Minimization and magnification, 92
Moderation versus abstinence: alcohol and substance abuse, 164–167; gambling, 46–48
Monthly Budgeting Sheet, 55
Mood: description of, 19; emotions reflected by, 117; facing your issues with, 110–112; gambling relationship to, 109–110; Rating Mood or Emotion Chart, 117
Mood management: making no attempt to change, 111; professional help for, 124–125; self-help techniques for, 111–123
Motivation: to change alcohol and substance abuse, 167–169; goal-setting for sparking, 29–39; priorities as, 30
Myths: about antianxiety medication, 100; about social anxiety disorder, 73
N
Naltrexone (Vivitrol), 66, 184
National Comorbidity Survey Replication, 12
National Epidemiologic Survey on Alcohol and Related Conditions (2006), 109
Nine Dot Problem: the correct solution to, 26; four typical attempts to solve the, 25; how your assumptions impact solving the, 26–27; illustration of the, 24; lessons learned from the, 26–28
9/11, 75–76, 99
O
Obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD): description of, 17, 77–78; similarities between ICD and, 129
One-to-one therapy, 64–65
Overcoming obstacles, 37–38
Overgeneralization, 92
OxyContin, 159, 162
P
Panic attacks, 18, 70–71
Panic disorder: description of, 18, 70–71; role of panic attacks in, 18, 70–71; symptoms of, 72
Panic disorder with agoraphobia, 72
Past accomplishments, 82–84
Pathological gambling, 78
Paxil, 125
Personalizing, 92
Phobias: exposure technique to reduce, 93–97; overview of, 18–19, 74; panic disorder with agoraphobia, 72
Pleasurable activities: identifying, 123; scheduling, 122–123
Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD): antianxiety medication for, 100; anxiety due to, 75–76; description of, 17–18; professional help for, 99–101; September 11, 2001 and, 75–76, 99
Pre-planning: controlling your environment, 57; by creating a daily schedule, 118–123; Managing Risky Relationships by, 57–61
Precontemplation stage of addiction, 13
Preparation stage of addiction, 14
Primary goals: broken down as stepping-stone goals, 36–37; definition of, 34; keeping journal entry on completing, 39; overcoming obstacles to, 37–38; setting your, 35
Priorities: description of, 30; listed in terms of setting recovery goals, 30
Problems: importance of perceiving as integrated whole, 27; Nine Dot Problem, 23–27. See also Co-occurring disorders; Gambling problem
Professional help: for addressing impulse control issues, 150–154; for controlling your gambling, 62–63; for facing your issues with mood, 124–125; for intermittent explosive disorder (IED), 150–152; for managing your anxiety, 99–101; for substance abuse problem, 181–184. See also Help; Making no attempt to change; Self-help
Professional help therapies: one-to-one, 64–65; residential treatment, 65–66, support groups, 63–64. See also Medication therapy
Progressive muscle relaxation, 86–88
Prozac, 125
Pyromania (fire starting), 20, 131

R
Rating Mood or Emotion Chart, 117
Recovery: continuous need for monitoring behavior during, 191–192; having ambivalent feelings toward, 197–198; lapses and relapses during, 189–203; taking it for granted, 200. See also Making changes
Reevaluating goals, 33
Relapse three coping strategies: delay acting on the trigger, 203; leave the situation, 203; think on your feet, 203
Relapse triggers: ambivalence, 196–198; coping with stress and challenging situations, 198–200, 201–203; identifying your, 193; lack of inner confidence, 193–194; self-pity, 194–196; taking recovery for granted, 200; testing the boundaries, 200; understanding your, 192
Relapses: dealing with a, 201–203; description of, 189–190; imagining your scenario for, 201; as normal during process of recovery, 190–191. See also Lapse
Relationships: pre-planning to manage risky, 57–61, 118–123; when drinking and gambling are central to, 163–164
Relaxation: diaphragmatic breathing, 88; exposure technique used with, 94; learning, 84–86; overcoming gambling urges through, 50; progressive muscle, 86–88. See also Stress
Relaxation techniques: calming breath exercise, 179–180; controlling urges with, 144; meditation, 85, 180–181; to overcome your gambling urges, 50
Replacement activities, 89–90
Replacement Activities Chart, 90
Reprogramming thoughts: automatic negative thoughts (ANTs), 91–93, 97; automatic thoughts, 112–116
Residential treatment, 65–66
Rewards: after finished each task, 32–33; importance of giving yourself, 38–39; for reducing your debts, 54; stepping-stone goal task completion and, 36–37

S
Schedules: pleasurable activity scheduling, 122–123; sample of basic one day, 119–120; selective scheduling, 121–122; sharing your daily life with tight, 118–119
Self-assessment: how you feel right now, 6; your anxiety-gambling connection, 78–80; your impulse control–gambling connection, 128; your mood-gambling connection, 109–110; your substance abuse–gambling connection, 160–161
Self-efficacy: counteracting ANTs to build, 194–196; description of, 194
Self-esteem: manic phase of inflated sense of, 20; paying off debts and improving, 54
Self-exclusion programs, 61
Self-help: addressing impulse control issues, 136–150; anxiety management, 82–98; controlling your gambling, 50–61; facing your alcohol/substance abuse with, 163–181; facing your issues with mood, 111–123. See also Help; Making no attempt to change; Professional help
Self-help techniques (anxiety management): building on past success, 82–84; diaphragmatic breathing, 88; exposure, 93–97; learning to relax, 84–86; preventing avoidance, 97–98; progressive muscle relaxation, 86–88; replacement activities for anxiety, 89–90; reprogramming automatic negative thoughts (ANTs), 91–93; tracking your progress, 88–89; visualization, 89
Self-help techniques (gambling behavior): enrolling in self-exclusion, 62; Financial Debt Chart, 53; identifying your triggers, 56–57; Managing Risky Relationships Chart, 60–61; managing your finances, 51–56; pre-planning, 57, 60–61; recognizing your urges, 50–51; Setting a Monthly Budget, 55
Self-help techniques (impulse control): considering the consequences, 140; controlling urges with relaxation, 144; managing compulsive shopping, 146–147; managing hair pulling, 144–145; managing intermittent explosive disorder, 148–149; managing kleptomania, 145–146; managing skin... picking, 148; Managing Your Impulses Chart, 142–143; self-monitoring, 140–141; self-talk, 138–139; tips for useful communication, 150; urge aversion, 136–138

Self-help techniques (mood management): creating a schedule, 118–123; identifying and rating behaviors, 116–118; pre-planning, 118–123; reprogramming automatic thoughts, 112–116

Self-help techniques (substance abuse): analysis and decision making, 171–174; calming breath exercise, 179–180; finding your inspiration for change, 167–169; learning to cope, 174; moderation versus abstinence, 164–167; physical and mental aspects of change, 178; reversing the direction of your thoughts, 175–178; writing down SMART goals, 169–171

Self-monitoring, 140–141

Self-pity, 194–196

Self-talk, 138–139

September 11, 2001, 75–76, 99

Setting a Monthly Budget, 55

“Should” statements, 92

Skin picking: description of, 130; managing impulse for, 148

Slipups. See Lapses; Relapses

SMART goals, 169, 170

Social anxiety disorder: myth about, 73; overview of, 18, 72–74

Specific disorders: overview of, 18–19, 74; panic disorder with agoraphobia, 72

Spending patterns: learning to control your, 56; monitoring to identity your, 52–55; Setting a Monthly Budget, 55

SSRIs (selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors), 125

Statistics Canada, 137

Stepping-stone goals: breaking down primary goals into, 36; listing tasks associated with, 36; rewarding yourself after completing, 36–37

Stress: calming breath exercise for, 179–180; coping strategies for, 198–200, 201–203; created by physical and mental aspects of change, 178; “good” types of, 199; how gambling relieves anxiety, 80; as trigger for lapse and relapse, 198–200. See also Relaxation

Substance abuse: addiction and, 156; description of, 20–21; gambling connection to, 160–161; making changes to face issues of, 161–184; misconceptions about, 155–156; moderation versus abstinence, 164–167; progressive nature of, 157–159; withdrawal and, 21, 157. See also Alcohol abuse

Substance dependence, 159–160

Substance intoxication, 157

Substance withdrawal: concerns over, 21; management of, 157

Substitute Thoughts for Automatic Thoughts Chart, 115–116

Support groups, 63–64

T

Tai chi, 85

Tasks: dividing small objectives into specific, 32; rewarding after completing stepping-stone, 36–37; rewarding yourself after completing, 32–33; stepping-stone goals, 36

Tegretol, 152

Terry’s journal. See Journal

Testing the boundaries, 200

Thoughts: automatic, 112–116; automatic negative thoughts (ANTs), 91–93, 97, 175, 194–196; “green-light” urges through, 141; managing substance abuse by reversing your, 175–178; self-talk for managing, 138–139

Tolerance: exposure to reduce anxiety by building up, 93–97; substance abuse, 21

Tracking your progress, 88–89

Tracking Your Thoughts and Moods Chart, 113, 114

Trichotillomania (pulling hair) [TTM]: description of, 20, 129–130; managing impulse for, 144–145

Tricyclic antidepressants, 100

Triggers: avoidable and unavoidable, 192; avoiding your “human,” 57–61; delay acting on the, 203; identifying your gambling, 56–57; identifying your specific addiction, 193; tuning in to your, 141; understanding your, 192. See also Urges

12-step groups, 63, 124
Index

U
University of Minnesota study, 66
Urge aversion: aversion therapy used for, 136–137; imagining an urge, 138; what to do during an urge, 137–138
Urges: definition of normal impulse or, 127–128; description of gambling, 50; learning to recognize your gambling, 50–51; relaxation for controlling, 144; relaxation techniques to overcome, 50. See also Impulse control disorders (ICDs); Triggers

V
Visualization, 89
Vivitrol (naltrexone), 66, 184

W
“Wiggle room” allowance, 33
Withdrawal: alcohol, 164, 183–184; concerns over substance abuse, 21, 183; managing drug, 157
World Trade Center attacks (2001), 75–76, 99

X
Xanax, 100

Y
Yoga, 85

Z
Zoloft, 125