Contents

About the Editors ix
List of Contributors xi
Preface xv
Acknowledgments xvii

PART I: SETTING THE SCENE

1. Assessment of Personal Constructs: Features and Functions of Constructivist Techniques 3
   Heather Gaines Hardison and Robert A. Neimeyer

2. Qualitative Methods in Personal Construct Research: A Set of Possible Criteria 53
   Linda L. Viney and Sue Nagy

PART II: QUALITATIVE APPROACHES: EXPLORING PROCESS

3. The Use of Laddering: Techniques, Applications and Problems 71
   Beverly M. Walker and Nadia Crittenden

4. The ABC Model Revisited 89
   Finn Tschudi and David Winter

   Nadia Crittenden and Chantel Ashkar

   Lindsay G. Oades and Linda L. Viney
PART III: QUANTITATIVE APPROACHES: EXPLORING PROCESS

7 An Introduction to Grid-based Methods
   Peter Caputi 149

8 Analyzing Grids: New and Traditional Approaches
   Peter Caputi, Richard Bell and Desley Hennessy 159

9 Computer-aided Constructivism
   Brian R. Gaines and Mildred L.G. Shaw 183

10 Using Constructivist-oriented Content Analysis Scales
    Linda L. Viney and Peter Caputi 223

PART IV: METHODS IN COUNSELING AND CLINICAL SETTINGS

11 Narrative Assessment in Psychotherapy:
    A Constructivist Approach 247
    Luis Botella and María Gámiz

12 Using Contrasting Drawings or Pictures as an Assessment Tool within a Personal Construct Framework 269
    Heather Foster and Linda L. Viney

13 Personal Construct Psychotherapy Techniques with Adolescents:
    An Integrated Model 287
    Miriam Stein, Elaine Atkinson, and Anne Fraser

Index 319