Ashton, P. T., 145
Assumptions, 22, 47, 50, 56, 57, 59, 63, 111, 174, 232, 242
Attachment profiles, 171–172
Attachment theory: described, 170; and reliability of teachers, 177–178; resources for information on, 285–286; and rethinking student misbehavior, 168–169, 170–173; and understanding teacher aggression, 179–180, 181–182
Attendance, student, 158, 165, 208
Attitudes: and actions, constructive, unconditionally adopting, 230–231; changing, of school personnel, importance of, 214; defined, 56; and espoused versus enacted values, 204; and values, influence of, 53–54, 56–61
Authentic trust, 64–65
Authenticity, 25, 27–28, 128, 131, 176, 195, 284
Autonomy, 89, 113, 125, 143, 260
Avoidance, 3, 4, 26, 77–78, 80, 85, 147, 148, 256, 262
Awareness, 10, 37, 258, 266

B
Baier, A. C., xvii, 9, 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 35, 51
Balance/balancing, 6, 7, 66, 115, 222–223, 230, 262, 266
Bandura, A., 145, 146, 205
Bankole, R., 159, 275
Barber, B., 10, 85
Barney, J. B., 65
Baron, R. A., 147
Barr, M., 146, 159
Barr, S. H., 259
Barth, R., 5
Battistich, V., 286
Behaviorism, 168
Benevolence: among colleagues, 129–131, 134, 135; and diversity, 213; drop in, betrayal and, 73, 74, 78; as a facet of trust, 20, 21–25, 38, 39, 84; and family-school trust, 190–194; and fostering trust, 51; revenge and, 103; sporadic, 33; and student trust, 166–167, 175–176; and teachers’ trust in students, 154–155; visioning and, 254–255. See also specific aspects of benevolence
Bennett, R., 81
Berebitsky, D., 60, 158
Berg, J., 50
Berliner, D. C., 10
Berman, S. L., 65
Best-practice guidelines, use of, 117
Betrayal: anatomy of, 74; categories of, 73–75; defining, 72–79; distinguishing disappointment/failure from, importance of, 35, 222; emotional responses to, 61; energy invested in responding to, effect of, 22–23; in families of origin, 182; forgiving yet not forgetting, 227–228, 229; key points about, 95–96; lasting effect of, 75–76, 131–132; likelihood of, 72, 73; overview of, 71–72; by peacekeeping principal, 58, 74, 75, 77–78, 79–85; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 94–95; progression of, 73, 74; questions for reflection and discussion on, 96; responding to, 97, 98–99, 100; resulting in a debilitating culture of distrust, 85–93; of the rules of fair play, 235; tactics viewed as, 4, 28, 58, 105, 106, 107. See also Restoring trust
Bets, S. M., 145
Biases, 59–60
Biddle, B. J., 10
Bies, R. J., 40, 66, 72, 73, 98, 99, 100, 101
Bigley, G. A., 20
Blake, M., 41
Blake, W., 71
Blaming others: and accountability, 27–28; avoiding, 131, 284; as betrayal, 75, 90, 108; and family-school trust, 195, 198, 265; and restoring trust, 225; and student trust, 176, 180; and teachers’ trust in students, 155–156, 160, 161
Blehar, M. C., 171
Blind trust, 55–56, 174, 235
Bliss, J. R., 128
Blunt response, 148
Borko, H., 252
Borsy, B., 111, 117
Boundaries: clear, establishing, 231–233; of trust, context in, 65
Bowlby, J., 180
Brewer, M. B., 29, 60, 136
Brief, A. P., 259
Brodt, S. E., 43, 254
Broken promises, 26, 27, 74, 81, 87, 195
Broken trust, repairing. See Restoring trust
Bromilow, P., 22, 25
Brown, S., 230, 234, 235
Brown v. Board of Education, 11
Bryk, A. S., 22, 28, 35, 41, 157, 159, 203, 204, 217
Buddy programs, 33, 141–142, 144
Building council meetings, 2, 3, 83–84, 115
Bunker, B. B., 40, 64, 224, 228
Burdette, M. P., 76, 227
Bureaucratic organizations, 42, 65, 110–111, 112
Burt, R., 20, 24, 52, 64, 71, 239, 240
Bushe, G. R., 286
Butler, J. K., 25, 29, 33
Buy-in, game played in attempt to get, 31
Camerer, C., 20, 64
Candor, encouraging, 30
Cantrell, R. S., 25, 29, 33
Capacity, trust bounded by, 65
Caring, 6, 7, 18, 19, 33, 41, 71, 93, 157, 176–177, 181, 216, 256, 264.
Center for Nonviolent Communication, 287
Center for School Transformation, 243, 286
Certification, 51
Change: capacity for, building and sustaining, strategies for, 264; conflict and, 77; disruptive nature of, 247–248; impatient for, 4, 11, 12, 49, 254; in organizational culture, 63; pressure for, 12, 49; resistance to, 4, 6, 12; revenge as a motivator for constructive, 101; in society’s expectations of schools, 9–10
Character, 25, 36, 194. See also Reputation
Chen, J., 145
Cheraskin, L., 48
Chervany, N. L., 50
Childhood, early, expectations from, 54. See also Attachment theory
Chrispeels, J., 286
Christenson, S. L., 207, 208, 211
Citizenship: corroded, 90–94; decline in, 87; greater, effects of, 261–262
Civic order, damage to, 73–75, 107–108, 110, 131, 134
Classroom economy, 172–173
Classroom orientation, high-trust, creating a, 174–178. See also Student trust
Climate. See School climate
Clique, K., 111, 113
Coach U, Inc., 232
Coaching, 143, 240, 246, 258–263
Coalitions, shifting, 72
Coercive rules, 111, 112, 116, 117, 164
Collaboration, 78, 80, 87, 89, 118, 124, 198, 203–206, 209–210, 251–252, 260, 264; fluid, 140–144; obstacles to, 143–144
Collective efficacy, 145–146, 159, 160, 205, 212
Collective resources, investment of, in schools, 17, 21
Collegial atmosphere, 128
Collins, J., 256, 261, 262
Commitment: to agreement, conflict resolution and, 238; building, 23–24; classroom orientation toward, 174; conflict and, 77, 78, 79; decline in, 87, 116; and family-school trust, 191, 192, 194–195, 200, 203, 215; future, keeping a, 26; garnering, requisite for, 91; high level of, 34, 37, 123; importance of, 19; period of, initial trust established during, 48; in productive schools, 265; struggle to maintain, 92–93; trust judgments more heavily based on, 41; undermining, of hard-working teachers, 83; of violators in making amends, judgment of, 228
Communication: abbreviated forms of, 52; of confidence in teachers’ ability, 146; constrained, 87–89, 114, 252; constructive, to facilitate restoring trust, 231; deterioration in quality of, 87; direct, 258; effective, for conflict resolution, 236, 237; in establishing boundaries, 232; facilitating, 18; and family-school trust, 191, 196, 197–198, 204, 205, 208–209, 213, 215; free-flowing, 30, 88, 114; modeling, 256; nonviolent, resources for information on, 287; open, 28–29, 30, 38, 87, 88, 177, 196, 199; of promises, 230, 233–234, 238; quality and quantity of, importance of, 208; regular, 125; and student trust, 166; suspicion of, 86
Community of practice, initiation into, 161–164
Community, sense of, 130, 139, 142, 165, 170, 173. See also Professional learning communities
Community trust: importance of fostering, 12–13; need for, 253; nostalgic period of, 8; significance of, 17; and vulnerability, 21. See also Family-school trust
Community-building tradition, 7, 229
Compensatory trust, 136
Competition: and coaching, 258–259, 260; decision-making model highlighting, 89; developing sense of, interfering with, 83, 104; as a facet of trust, 20, 21, 35–38, 39; and faculty trust, 123, 135, 136–140; and family-school trust, 192, 201–202, 216; and fostering trust, 51; lack of, 5, 84; leadership, essential ability for, 264; and modeling, 257; and openness in control, 51; questioning, unfairly, 104, 106; and reliability, 33, 35, 139; reliance on, 17; and restoring trust, 222; revenge and, 103; and student trust, 178; and teachers’ trust in students, 157; trust judgments more heavily based on, 41. See also specific aspects of competence
Competing interests, balancing, difficulty of, 222–223
Competition, 126, 229, 235
Competitive economy, 9
Compliance, 19, 31, 111, 112, 113, 115, 163–164
Compromise, 78, 238
Concealing response, 148
“Conceptualization and Measurement of Faculty Trust in Schools, The” (Hoy & Tschannen-Moran), 282
Conciliatory initiative, 234
Confidentiality, 29–30, 74, 84, 109, 134–135
Conflict: continua of responses to, 147–148; defined, 146–147; dimensions of, 77; escalation of, 3, 97, 100, 147, 235; internal and external, experiencing, 72; over goals, 72; restoring trust in the midst of, 230; silos and, 61; staff meetings embroiled in, addressing, 125; students drawing teachers into interpersonal, 171; typical responses to, 77–78; unresolved, 4, 26, 139; using the golden rule in times of, 235; view of, and school climate, 63. See also specific responses to conflict
Conflict resolution skills: having, 36, 242; improving, benefits from, 149; lacking in, 5–6; response demonstrating, 78–79; and strategies, constructive, using, 236–238, 263; supporting, 7, 264. See also Collaboration; Problem solving
Confrontation, 98–99, 147
Confusion, 62, 71, 99, 100
Consistency, 12, 22, 23, 33, 34–35, 54, 107, 167, 177, 191
Consortium on Chicago School Research, 206
Context: social, effect of, 238–239; trust bounded by, 65
Control: balancing the degree of, 262; bureaucratic organizations and, 42; classroom orientation toward, 174; in conflict, 147; culture of, 110–117; mechanisms of, stepping up, distrust leading to, 86; openness in, 28, 31; retaining, by withholding information, 29; of students, attempts at, 163–164, 179, 182. See also Power and authority
Controversy, constructive, 146–149
Conversation: context for, justifications creating a, 231; in professional learning communities, 124; requisite, to begin transformation from distrust to trust, 221–222; strengths-based, 57; vital role of, in changing organizational culture, 63; whole-school, about trust, 243–247. See also Dialogue
Conway, K., 210
Cook, K. S., 116
Cooperation: encouraging, among colleagues, 124, 130; family, with teachers, 203; mutual, building a strategy for, 234; teachers earning, 166, 174
Cooperative learning, requirement for, 252

Cooperrider, D., 286
Coping behaviors, 179, 180
Cordial hypocrisy, 63
Cosner, S., 264
Cost reductions, 18
Courage, 6, 80, 81, 88, 147, 256, 267
Credibility, 27, 81, 161–162, 234
Creed, W.E.D., 50, 64
Criticisms, voicing of, encouraging, 30
Criticizing publicly, effect of, 75
Cultural and racial diversity. See Diversity
Cultural expectations, exploration of, 61
Cultural outsiders, 57, 58, 59
Cultural structures, learning similar norms through, 57–58
Culture. See Organizational culture
Cummings, L. L., 22, 25, 50
Cunnington, B., 86
Curiosity, 124, 284
Cynicism, 61, 62, 90, 169

D
Daly, A., 52, 114, 239, 286
Dasgupta, P., 26
Decision making: climate of openness in, 199; collaborative, importance of, 251–252; concentrated, 110; confined, 89–90; data-based, 259; high level of involvement in, 128, 205, 206; problems with, 2, 3, 5, 85. See also Shared decision making
Defiance, 166, 167
Defining trust: differentiation in, 39–40; difficulty of, 19; elements in, 19–38, 39; and hierarchy, 40–42; key points about, 44; overview of, 17, 18–19; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 43–44; and questions for reflection and discussion, 45; statement for, 19–20. See also specific aspects of trust
Degoej, P., 90
Delegating, 3, 31–32, 80, 83, 261
Deluga, R. J., 91
Dembo, M. H., 145
Dependability, 34, 136, 166
Despair, 62, 63
Detachment, 147
Determination. See Persistence
Deutsch, M., 20, 147
Dialogue, 57, 118, 124, 177, 189. See also Conversation
Dickhaut, J., 50
Differentiated trust, 39–40
DiGuilio, L., 286
DiPaola, M. F., 159, 212
Dirks, K. T., 76, 174
Disappointment, distinction between betrayal and, 222
Discernment, teaching, 162
Discipline: by parents, 202; school-wide culture of, 262; of students, 3, 83, 142, 154, 157, 158, 160, 163, 166, 167, 170, 193, 198; of teachers, 111, 125, 127, 262
Disclosure, 29
Discretion, 32, 42, 110, 111–112, 113, 117
Disengagement, 153
Disorganized attachment orientation, 172
Disposition to trust, influence of, 53, 54–56
Dissatisfaction, 73, 74
Dissent, allowing for, 57
Distraction, 88, 252
Distrust: basic, of human nature, 169; debilitating culture of, 85–93, 101; and diversity, 213; general pattern of, 8–9; in high-poverty communities, 178; implicit, self-fulfilling prophecy from, 65; initial, preference for provisional trust over, 50; and micromanagement, 112; revelations of, in survey results, guidelines for responding to, 283; spiral of, 22–23, 52, 86–87, 98, 110, 116, 135, 149, 202, 235, 239, 253; stabilizing at a point of, 49; straightforward, 62; thresholds for trust and, 39–40; transformation from, conversation required for beginning, 221–222; violation leading to, 71. See also Suspicion
Diverse student needs, meeting, coaching for, 259
Diversity: attitudes concerning, 54; and family-school trust, 211–214, 216; greater, effects of, 60-61, 253; maximizing, for paired interviews, 243–244; situations of, issues arising from, 18, 58–59, 75, 137; and student trust, 160
Dutton, J. E., 114

E
Economic competitiveness, 9
Economically disadvantaged students, 191
Educational treatment plans, participation in, 200
Efficiency, facilitating, 18
Egle, R. J., 31
Elangovan, A. R., 19, 72, 76
Elmore, R. F., 124, 200
E-mail, gossip and, 52
Emotional competence, 178
Emotional scaffolding, 181
Emotions and moods: influence of, 54, 61–63, 147; negative, revealing underlying needs provoking, 237
Empathy, 64, 161, 176, 177, 202, 230, 237
Employment contract, meaning behind an, 66
Engagement: family-school, 187, 203–214; teacher-student, 161
English proverb, 123
Epstein, J. L., 204, 205, 210
Equity, aspirations for, 10–12, 253
Escalation, 3, 97, 100, 147, 235
Ethical standards: betrayal and, 76–77; in coaching, 258; organizational norms that emphasize, 72; for surveys, 271; in withholding trust, 18
Evaluations, 79–80, 259, 260
Excuses, making, 225
Expectations: changing, stress of, coping with, 252; coaching and teachers conforming to, 261; cultural, exploration of, 61; differential, 41, 137; and differentiated trust, 39–40; from early childhood, 54; and family-school trust, 207; homework, conveying, 196; preexisting, 48; principal setting, 23; for principals, 38; and reliability, 33, 64; for school performance, 6, 11; self-fulfilling prophecy of, 65; societal, 9–10, 11; student trust and setting, 13, 167, 175; supportive of productive engagement, 262; for teachers, job descriptions and, 91; and teachers’ trust in students, 157; violation of, 71, 72, 73, 74, 92, 97
External conflict, 72
External reinforcement, 168
Extrinsic rewards, 163–164

F
Facilitative strategies, use of, 117–119
Faculty members, removal of, 2, 104–105, 106
Faculty performance: evaluation of, 79–80, 259, 260; expectations for, 6, 11; poor, 81, 82, 87
Faculty trust: bases for, 41; benefits of, 123; and building a professional learning community, 125–128; importance of fostering, 13; key points about, 151; need for, 252; nostalgic period for, 8; overview of, 123–124; in parents, 203–206, 207, 265; payoffs of, 140–149; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 150–151; in productive schools, 264–265; questions for reflection and discussion on, 152; in relation to colleagues, facets of, 128–140; research on, diversity and, 60; in students, 154–160, 161, 241, 265; surveying, 271, 280–283. See also Family-school trust; School trust; Student trust
Faculty Trust in Clients Scale: described, 280; reliability and validity of, 282–283; scoring directions, 280–282; survey instrument, 287
Failed leadership, cases representing.
   See Overzealous reformer principal; Peacekeeper principal
Failure, distinguishing between betrayal and, 35, 222
Fairness, 3, 18, 22, 36, 75, 104, 107, 177, 191, 259, 265
Faith, 54–55, 64
Family advocates, 216
Family needs, consideration of, 215
Family-school trust: facets of, 189–202; and family engagement, 203–214; fostering, 214–216; key points about, 219; need for, 252–253; overview of, 187–189; and parents’ trust in schools, 206–214; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 217–218; questions for reflection and discussion on, 219–220; and restoring trust, 241–242; and teachers’ trust in parents, 203–206, 207, 265. See also Parent trust
Farmer, A. D., 206, 209, 215
Fear, 4, 18, 23, 24, 88, 103, 114, 147, 148, 182, 256, 261
Feedback, timely, providing, 29, 200
Feelings, revealing, 237, 241
Ferric, D. I., 174
Fetter, R., 91
Feuding, cycle of, 98, 99
Fight or flight responses, 77–78
Fisher, R., 230, 234, 235
“Flavor of the month” syndrome, 26
Flexibility, 114, 117, 118–119, 166, 171, 181, 201, 204, 215, 262
Flores, F., 18, 20, 35, 36, 47, 55, 56, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 100, 101, 112, 113, 222, 226, 227, 228
Follow-through, lack of, 80, 81, 84–85
Forgiveness: asking for, 227–228; quote involving, 71; refusing to extend, effect of, 228–229; of students, 155; willingness to extend, 34, 99, 239–240; without forgetting, 75, 227–228, 229
Forsyth, P. B., 38, 157, 158, 164, 188, 207, 212, 272, 275, 276
Fostering trust: ability for, as an essential competency of leadership, 264; benefits of, 18; difficulty of, 19; and factors influencing developing trust, 53–63; importance of, 12–14; initial period of trust and, 47, 48–53; key points about, 69–70; overview of, 47; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 66–69; and questions for reflection and discussion, 70; that is authentic at optimal levels, 64–66
Fox, A., 65, 111, 252
Freiberg, H. J., 285
Freudian concepts, 168, 182
Fulk, J., 259
Fullan, M., 77, 78, 82, 124, 200, 255, 261, 262
G
Gallwey, W. T., 68, 257
Gamage, D. T., 90
Gentle response, 147
George, J. M., 24, 50, 56, 62, 64, 93, 133
Gibson, S., 145
Global economy, 9
Goal setting, 258
Goddard, R. D., 60, 146, 157, 158, 159, 188, 211, 212
Golden rule, 235
Goldring, E. B., 18, 124
Goldsmith, J., 111, 113
Goodlad, J. I., 11
Gordon, K. A., 145
Gossip, 30, 52, 107, 134, 138, 239
Govier, T., 85, 86, 116, 239, 252
Graduates, expectations of, 9
Greenberg, J., 44, 226
Greene, M. L., 145
Greer, J. T., 31, 89, 132
Gregory, A., 166
Ground rules, setting, 236
Group biases, 59–60
Groupthink, 60
Guilf, 228
Gulati, R., 50
H
Ha, Y. W., 59
Handford, V., 28, 35, 36, 37
Hanna, B. A., 29, 60, 136
Hannum, J., 159
Hansen, M. H., 65
Hardin, R., 54
Harris, G. G., 74
Hart, A. W., 252
Hart, S., 287
Hattie, J., 166
Helm, B., 55
Hemingway, E., 187
Henderson, A. T., 204, 206, 207, 210, 214, 215, 217
Henderson, J. E., 27
Index

III

Identification with school, 164–165
Identity, sense of, damage to, 73, 75, 99, 107–108
Imagine phase, 245
Immigrant students, 158
Impatience, 4, 5, 11, 12, 49, 145, 254
Income/economic disparities, 9, 10, 11. See also Socioeconomic status (SES)
Individualistic orientation, addressing, 126–128
Influence, openness in, 28, 30, 31
Inform stage, 232
Information: credible sources of, teachers as, 161–162; expanding access to, result of, 10; openness in sharing, 28, 29, 30, 196, 198, 264; withholding, 29
Initial trust, 47, 48–53, 87
Initiate phase, 243
Innovate phase, 245
Innovation, 18
Input, accepting. See Shared decision making
Inquiry, adopting, 230, 259, 261
Inquiry phase, 243–245
Insecure anxious/ambivalent attachment orientation, 171
Insecure avoidant attachment orientation, 172
Insecurity, feelings of, 85. See also Attachment theory
Insist stage, 232
Institutional supports, 50–51
Instructional skills, basing trust judgments on, 201
Insults, 75, 98, 101, 221
Integrity: demonstrating, among colleagues, 131; drop in, betrayal and, 73, 74, 84, 105–106, 107; and family-school trust, 194; and honesty, 25–26, 26–27; in productive schools, 265; reputation of, 38; and student trust, 176; trust judgments more heavily based on, 41
Intellectual response, 147
Interdependence, 19, 20–21, 33, 39, 40, 47, 56, 64, 85, 136–137, 139, 188, 227, 234
Interests, competing, balancing, difficulty of, 222–223
Internal conflict, 72
Internal politics, 72
International Association of Coaching, 258
International Coach Federation, 258
Intrinsic motivation, 163, 164, 170
Isolating misbehaving students, 169–170, 173, 194
ISQ Briefings, 181

J
Janis, I. L., 60
Jerdee, T. H., 60
Jeynes, W., 210
Job descriptions, limitations of, 91
Johnson, B. L., 166
Johnson, J. F., 166
INDEX

Johnson-George, C. E., 54
Jones, G. R., 24, 50, 56, 62, 64, 93, 133
Jones, T. M., 65
Jones, W., 76, 227
Justification, 73, 231

K
Kaba, M., 206, 207
Karakus, M., 160, 204, 205
Karsten, S., 55, 124
Kauffman, T. R., 166
Keep-the-peace principal. See Peacekeeper principal
Kelly, R., 243, 286
Kensler, L., 153
Kim, T., 147
Kipnis, D., 58
Kirby, M., 159, 212
Klassen, R. M., 145
Klayman, J., 59
Knez, M., 52, 71, 239, 240
Knowledge, power of, 10, 133
Konovsky, M. A., 44, 226
Korsgaard, M. A., 29, 43, 254
Kranz, J., 90
Kratzer, C. C., 132
Kruse, S., 18, 124, 252
Kupersmith, W. J., 151

L
Lamb, S. M., 285
Lareau, A., 159, 205, 211, 212
Lawrence-Lightfoot, S., 196
Learning communities, professional. See Professional learning communities
Learning environment, 13, 37, 125, 153, 160, 166, 178, 200, 252
Leaving stage, 233
Lee, S.-J., 166
Lee, V. E., 159
Leithwood, K., 28, 35, 36, 37
Leniency: allowing for, 118; problematic, 80; strategic, 119
Leniency bias, 59–60
Leonard, P. E., 140
Letting go, 241
Leu, L., 287
Lewicki, R. J., 40, 64, 66, 224, 228
Lewis, C., 213
Lewis, J. D., 129
Limerick, D., 86
Lindskold, S., 81
Linse, C. T., 213
Listening, important of, 7, 24, 119, 156, 166, 176, 224, 237, 258, 259
Loewen, P. S., 145
Loose response, 147
Louis, K. S., 18, 32, 124
Low-task, high-relationship principal. See Peacekeeper principal

M
MacDonald, G., 251
MacKenzie, S. B., 91
MacNeil, A. J., 41
Malen, B., 90
Managing, 258, 261–263
Manipulation, 27, 28, 29, 103–104, 105, 107, 108
Mapp, K., 204, 206, 207, 210, 214, 215, 217
Marks, H. M., 32, 124
Martin, R., 5
McAllister, D. J., 25, 40, 66
McCabe, K., 50
McCarthy, S. J., 124, 200
McGuigan, L., 159
McKnight, D. H., 50, 51, 53, 55
McNelly, T. A., 204
Media, 8, 9, 10, 53, 253
Mediation, 148, 263
Messick, D. M., 59
Micromanagement, 112–113
Miles, R. E., 50, 64
Miller, G. J., 111, 112, 113
Millhollen, B., 286
Minimizing difference, 147
Miskel, C. G., 119
Mission statements, 178–179
Mistrust. See Distrust
Mitchell, R., 153, 159, 164, 165, 207, 275
Modeling, 6, 13, 36, 124, 176, 178, 181, 229, 256–257
Mohr, B. J., 243, 286
Moods. See Emotions and moods
Moolenaar, N. M., 18, 55, 65, 124
Moore, D., 158, 159, 164, 165, 275
Moorman, R. H., 91
Morale, 2, 87, 93, 128
Motivation: to avoid conflict, 80; behind betrayal, 73; of others, attempting to understand, 230–231; to seek revenge, 76, 98, 100; and self-efficacy, 145; for shared decision making, 89; strengthening, 35; of students, 163–164, 165–166, 170, 172; of teachers, coaching and, 259, 260–261; undermining, of hard-working teachers, 82–83
Index

Moye, M. J., 31
Mutual cooperation, building a strategy for, 234
Mutual understanding, 63, 64, 237

N
Naiveté, 55
National Policy Forum for Family, School, and Community Engagement, 187, 209
Needs, underlying, sharing, 237, 241
Negotiation, 78, 79, 235, 236
Noddings, N., 175, 176, 177
No-Fault Zone, The, 287
Nonverbal cues, 232
Norms: adopting similar, assumption of, breach of, 73; failure to enforce, 139; and likelihood of betrayal, 72; modeling, 256–257; in professional learning communities, 124; shared set of, in the classroom, creating, 174–175; as a support for trust, 50, 51, 264; supportive of productive engagement, 262
Nostalgic view, 8

O
Ogawa, R. T., 90
Openness: among colleagues, 132–135; and avoiding conflict, 80; betrayal and, 73, 74, 87, 88; as a facet of trust, 20, 21, 28–33, 38, 39; and family-school trust, 196–199, 204, 216; and fostering trust, 51; good judgment in, 29–30; in presenting survey results, 284; and restoring trust, 236; revenge and, 103, 108–109; and student trust, 166, 170, 176–177; and teachers’ trust in students, 156; trust judgments more heavily based on, 41; visioning and, 255; work environment of, 72. See also specific aspects of openness
Opportunism, 65–66
Optimal trust, 65–66
O’Reilly, C. O., 88
Organ, D. W., 91
Organizational chart, traditional, flipping the, 42, 120
Organizational culture, 3, 6, 37, 50, 62, 63, 72, 123, 124, 262; of control, 110–117; debilitating, 85–93, 101; influence of, understanding, 260–261. See also Norms
Organizational orientations, competing, 42
Orientation: individual and collective, 62; organizational, competing, 42
Outreach, 203
Outsiders, cultural, 57, 58, 59
Overzealous reformer principal (“Gloria”): and authenticity, 28; and betrayal, 4, 74, 75, 77, 92, 105–106, 108, 235; and integrity, 26, 109; and managing, 262; meaning well as, 1–2, 3, 4, 5, 109, 254; and openness, 29, 255; and pressure for change, 12, 49; and questioning school values, 57; reputation of, 52; revenge and, 102–110, 115–117; and visioning, 254–255; vulnerability and, 41–42
Owens, M. A., 166
Ozcelik, H., 76

P
Paired interviews, use of, 243–244, 246
Panic, 62
Paradoxes, 18, 90
Parent Teacher Association (PTA), 7, 101, 229
Parent trust: defining trust and, 22, 36; importance of fostering, 13; need for, 253; nostalgic period of, 8; risk and vulnerability in, 21, 188; school level and, 207; in schools, 206–214; and students’ identification with school, 165; surveying, 271, 276–280. See also Family-school trust
Parent Trust in School Scale: described, 276; reliability and validity of, 277, 280; scoring directions, 276–277; survey instrument, 278–279
Parenting skills, basing trust judgments on, 201–202
Parent-teacher conferences, 196, 197, 204, 210
“Parking lot” concept, 257–258
Partnerships: family-school, building meaningful, importance of, 209–210, 214, 215; parent-teacher, 197, 203, 204. See also Collaboration
Patience, 5, 12, 125, 257
Payne, C. M., 206, 207
Peacekeeper principal (“Fred”), 144; and betrayal, 58, 74, 75, 77–78, 79–85; and competence, 37; and credibility, 81, 234; and integrity, 26–27; and managing, 262; meaning well as, 2–3, 4, 5–6, 84, 256; and modeling, 256; and optimal trust, 65–66; and pressure for change, 12
Pearce, J. L., 20
Peer observation: protocol for, example of a, 150; resistance to, 143; welcoming, 265
Peña, D. C., 213
Pennycuff, L. L., 210, 217, 277
Perez, L., 63, 77, 149, 166
Perfectionism, 112–113
Performance. See Faculty performance; School performance; Student achievement
Perseverance, student, 174
Persistence, 145, 256, 267
Personal and professional trust, drawing distinctions between, 137–139
Personal information, sharing, 133–134
Personal presence, 258
Peterson, C., 78, 147
Peterson, J., 78, 147
Peterson, P. L., 124, 200
Pianta, R. C., 175, 285
Planning, 5, 215, 258
Planning time, 7, 145
Podsakoff, P. M., 91
Pounder, D. G., 89
Poverty, effect of, 159–160, 178, 212
Power and authority: abuse of, 74, 109; constraint against abuse of, 101; delegating, 32–33; derived from a community of practice, 162; and differentiated trust, 40; knowledge as a source of, 133; limited, 2; maintaining, by withholding information, 29, 108; positional, having, yet lacking personal power, 109–110; in productive schools, 42; vigorously asserting, 5, 103, 115. See also Control; Hierarchy
Power struggles, 2, 102, 103, 112, 116
Predictability, issue of, 33
Principals, types of. See Overzealous reformer principal; Peacekeeper principal; Trustworthy principal
Principles, alternate set of, switch to, 73, 74
Problem solving, 6–7, 25, 36, 37, 38, 42, 78, 197, 205–206, 237–238, 260
Professional and personal trust, drawing distinctions between, 137–139
Professional development: coaching and, 260, 261; lack of, 5–6
Professional ethics, 258
Professional knowledge, questioning, 10
Professional learning communities: barriers to building, overcoming, 140–149; benefit of conflict resolution skills for, 149; building, the trustworthy principal and, 125–128, 259; development of, 137; need for building, 252; overview of, 124
Professional organizations, 42
Professionalism: assault on, imposition of rules as, 116; greater, perceived, 123, 124; overlooking lack of, as a reward, 109; spirit of, promoting, 32, 42; threatened sense of, 111–112
Progress, managing, 258
Project-based learning, requirement for, 252
Promises: breaking, 26, 27, 74, 81, 87, 195; communicating, 230, 233–234, 238; and disposition to trust, 54; keeping/fulfilling, 26, 54, 131, 234, 238
Protecting children, 17, 21
Pruit, D. G., 147
Pugh, S. D., 44, 226
Punishment, 19, 81, 109, 111, 163, 164, 168, 169, 172–173, 174, 179, 180, 194, 201
Putney, S., 210
Putnam, R. D., 22, 53
Putnam, R. T., 252
Q
Questioning: powerful, engaging in, 258; of professional knowledge, 10; unfair, of competence, 104, 106
R
Rachman, S., 75
Racial prejudice, 60
Racial tension, 58, 59, 75. See also Diversity
Rallis, S. F., 18, 124
Rebounded trust, 64
Reciprocal trust, 124, 153–154, 156, 164, 206
Recognition, 175, 215
Reflection: questions for, and discussion, 14–15, 45, 70, 96, 121, 152, 184–185, 219–220, 249–250, 269; taking time for, 69, 257
Reform efforts: conflict and, 77; goal of, 253. See also Overzealous reformer principal
Reina, D., 30
Reina, M., 30
Relationships: in attachment theory, 170–171, 172, 173; authentic, 128; balancing tasks and, 6, 7, 78, 266; cohesive and cooperative, fostering, 18; damage to, 75; early stages of, 51; evidence of betrayal tied to level of trust in, 76; hierarchical, responsibility in, 40–41; “locked in,” 52; managing the complexity of, categorizing as a way of, 58–59; maturation of, 64; mending, making the decision for, as a two-way process, 224; multifaceted nature of, 40; newly forming, initial trust in, 48; ongoing, 53; within organizations, 56; problems with balancing tasks and, 4, 77–78; social context of, 52; social networks and, 24, 52, 53; and students’ perspectives, 166
Reliability: among colleagues, 135–136; and competence, 33, 35, 139; as a facet of trust, 20, 21, 33–35, 38, 39; and family-school trust, 199–201; and fostering trust, 51, 64; lack of, 5, 84–85; and openness in control, 31; in productive schools, 265; and restoring trust, 222; revenge and, 103; and student trust, 166, 177–178; and teachers’ trust in students, 154–155, 157; trust judgments more heavily based on, 41. See also specific aspects of reliability

Reporting arrangements, 19

Reputation, 24, 26, 28, 36, 38, 51–53, 64, 98, 99

Request stage, 232

Research tools, 272–282

Resentment, 2, 62, 63, 65, 91, 100–101, 107, 111, 113, 116, 143, 202, 239, 252

Resignation, 62, 63

Resilience, 171, 173

Resistance, 2, 4, 6, 12, 91, 103, 111, 143

Resources: collective, investment of, in schools, 17, 21, 253; hoarding, 114, 127; sharing, 132, 264

Respect: and benevolence, 22; and competence, 38, 139–140; and diversity, 213; expectation of, violation of, 92; and family-school trust, 190, 191, 192, 201, 208, 215; and fostering trust, 60; and openness, 31, 72; in productive schools, 265; and restoring trust, 224, 236; and teachers’ trust in students, 154–155, 157

Responsibility: accepting, in restoring trust, 225–226; for equity, 10; and family-school trust, 207; in hierarchical relationships, 40–41; job descriptions and, 91; to one another, sense of, 135–136; perpetrator’s level of, desire for revenge influenced by, 97–98; problems of, 5–6, 74, 78, 90, 103; for protecting the core work of schools, 37–38; for setting a tone of trust, 13–14, 254; shared, 6, 195, 203, 208; students accepting, 156, 174, 197

Restoring trust: creating a context for repairing and, 238–242; effective family engagement beginning with, 209; facilitation of, factors in, 229–238; initiating, 224; key points about, 248–249; overview of, 221–222; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 247–248; questions for reflection and discussion on, 249–250; repair process for, 222–229; whole-school conversations for, 243–247

Results oriented, 36

Retaliation, 88, 100, 229, 234, 236, 255. See also Revenge

Return on investment, 267

Revenge: complexity of, 100–102; and a culture of control, 110–117; desire for, 72, 97–98; dynamics of, 97–102, 236; and facilitative rules, 117–119; key points about, 120–121; motivation to seek, 76, 98, 100; overview of, 97; and the overzealous reformer, 102–110, 115–117; path of, 99; as a positive force, 101–102; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 119–120; questions for reflection and discussion on, 121

Revenge fantasies, 98, 99

Rewards and punishments, 109, 111, 163–164, 172–173, 174

Rigidity, 114–115, 117, 147, 261

Riley, P., 179, 180, 181–182, 183

Ripski, M. B., 166

Risk management, 189

Ritchie, S., 153, 170, 171, 173, 174, 175, 178, 179

Roberts, K. H., 88

Robinson, S. L., 76, 87

Robinson, U., 164

Role modeling. See Modeling

Role stereotype, playing a, being “real” versus, 27, 28

Ropes course, 7

Rosen, B., 60

Rosenberg, M., 231, 237, 287

Ross, J. A., 145

Roth, N. L., 50, 57

Rotter, J. B., 25, 54, 55, 161

Rousseau, D., 20, 21, 64

Rubin, J. Z., 147

Rules: coercive, 111, 112, 116, 117, 164; competently preserving, in the classroom, 178; facilitative, 117–119; of fair play, betrayal of, 235; inconsistently applying, in the classroom, 177; need for fewer, 261–262; proliferation of, 115–117, 252; reframing, 119–120

Ryan, R. M., 203

S

Sabo, D., 128

Sabotage, 2, 89, 101, 112, 116

Safeguards, balancing extending trust with creating, 115

Safety, feeling a sense of, 165, 170, 177, 179, 181, 201, 210. See also Attachment theory

Salloum, S. J., 60, 146, 158

San Antonio, D. M., 90

Sandelands, L. E., 114

Sapienza, H. J., 29

Savas, A. C., 160, 204, 205

Schein, E. H., 151, 261

Schlenker, B. R., 55

Schneider, B., 22, 28, 35, 41, 157, 203, 204, 217
School climate, 63, 82, 128, 158, 165
School culture. See Organizational culture
School leaders, types of. See Overzealous reformer principal; Peacekeeper principal; Trustworthy principal
School performance: expectations for, 6, 11; poor, consequences of, 21
School trust: damaged, 8, 11; earning, need for, 8; failing in, but meaning well, 1–6; importance of fostering, 12–14; key points about, 14; measures of, 271–284; nostalgic period for, 8; and questions for reflection and discussion, 14–15; succeeding in, by doing well, 6–7; views on, and issues facing schools, 8–12. See also Family-school trust
Schools: complexity in the work of, 112; core work of, protecting, 37–38; education in, as a transformational process, 21, 188–189; nostalgic view of, 8; previous function of, 11; productive, basis for, 264–266; resources invested in, 17; students’ identification with, 164–165; successful, result of, 11–12. See also specific aspects of schools and trust within schools
Seashore, K., 252
Secure attachment orientation, 171
Security, feeling a sense of, 170, 177, 179, 181. See also Attachment theory
Self-control, of students, 154, 155
Self-deception, 55, 63
Self-efficacy, 110, 145, 205
Self-esteem, of students, 169–170
Self-fulfilling prophecy, 51–52, 65, 202
Self-perpetuating distrust, 86, 98, 239, 253
Self-protection, resorting to, 13, 28, 55, 62, 86, 87–88, 149, 153, 174, 225, 252
Shaping children, 17, 21
Shapiro, D. L., 19, 48, 72, 76
Shapiro, S. P., 50, 115
Shared decision making: accountability in, 32, 80–81, 85, 90; deterioration in quality of, 87; and family-school trust, 216; genuine form of, versus contrived form, 89, 90, 115–116; mechanism for, issues involving, 2, 3, 83–84; openness in, 31, 32–33, 80; in professional learning communities, 124; successful, requirements for, 6; supporting, 264
Shared responsibility, 6, 195, 203, 208
Shared values, assumption of, 56
Sharing, spirit of, 132–133, 264.
Shaw, R. B., 39
Sheppard, R. H., 48
Short, P. M., 31, 89, 132
Silos, 61
Simons, T. L., 26, 27
Sitkin, S. B., 20, 50, 57, 64, 111, 115
Sleegers, P.J.C., 18, 55, 65, 124
Smith, J. B., 159
Smith, M., 210
Smith, P. A., 128, 159
Smylie, M. A., 252
Social context, effect of, 238–239
Social networks/media, 24, 52, 53
Socialization, 169, 170, 211
Societal expectations, 9–10, 11
Societal investment in schools, 17, 21
Socioeconomic status (SES), 60, 158, 159, 165, 211
Solomon, R. C., 18, 20, 35, 36, 47, 55, 56, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 100, 101, 112, 113, 222, 226, 227, 228
Special education services, levels of, 207–208
Special needs children, 191, 259
Spillover effect, 82
Spuck, D. W., 41
Staff, teaching. See Faculty entries
Standard setting, 11, 12, 36
Standardized procedures, use of, issue with, 111, 112, 114, 117
Standardized trust scores: basis for, 271–272; calculating, formulas for, 274–275, 277, 280–282
Starr, R., 1
Status quo, 11, 12
Stavros, J. M., 286
Staw, B. M., 114
Stealing ideas/taking credit, 74, 75, 84
Stickel, D., 111, 115
Stiller, J. D., 203
Stimson, H. L., 153
STOP tool, 68–69, 257
Storytelling, use of, 243, 244
Strategic leniency, 119
Streight, D., 285
Stress, 3, 173, 179, 200, 201, 252
Strike, K. A., 161, 162, 163
Student achievement: above-average, 6; expectations for, 6, 11; and family-school trust, 203, 206–207, 210–211, 212; and performance measures, 208; poor, persistence of, 2, 3, 57, 87, 103; and teacher self-efficacy, 145; and trust in the classroom, 153, 157–160, 163, 164, 165, 166
Student behavior, continuum of, 166
Student misbehavior: and family-school trust, 192, 194, 195, 198, 202; rethinking, 168–173; and teacher aggression, 181
Student teachers, 35, 144
Student trust: and aggressive teacher behavior, 179–182; defining trust and, 22, 35; earning, 167–179; importance of fostering, 13; key points about, 184; need for, 252; new development in research on, 164; overview of, 153–154; and practical advice for trustworthy leadership, 183; questions for reflection and discussion on, 184–185; in relation to teachers, 160–167; and school mission statements, 178–179; surveying, 271, 272–276; and teachers’ trust in students, 154–160, 161, 241, 265. See also Family-school trust
Student Trust in Teachers Scale: described, 272, 274; reliability and validity of, 275–276; scoring directions, 274–275; survey instrument, 273
Student voices/perspectives, 164–166
Stuhlman, M. W., 175
Successful leaders, case representing. See Trustworthy principal
Successful leadership, requirements for. See Trustworthy leadership
Superintendents, 29, 31, 36, 49, 75, 101–102, 113, 246
Surveys: guidelines for presenting results of, 283–284; samples of, elements in, 272–273; use of, and standardized scoring, 271–272
Swap, W. C., 54
Sweetland, S. R., 42, 111, 112, 118, 128, 159

T
Tarter, C. J., 31, 90, 128, 159, 212, 252
Tasks: balancing relationships and, 6, 7, 78, 266; problems with balancing relationships and, 4, 77–78
Teacher evaluations, 79–80, 107
Teaching staff. See Faculty entries
Teaching style, differences in, 126, 137
Teaching techniques/ideas, trying new, 128, 132, 133
Team teaching, 137
Team-building experience, 7
Teamwork, 141, 142–143
Tedeschi, J. T., 55
Templeton, S. M., 285
Testing benevolence, students’ engagement in, 166–167
Thomas, K., 77
Threats: credible, communicating, 233–234; failing to follow through with, 81, 234; tit-for-tat strategy of, issue with, 235
Time constraints, 204
Tjosvold, D., 146
Top-down approach, 103
Tosey, P., 286
Tough, P., 285
Training: lack of, 5–6, 79; providing, in conflict resolution skills, 263
Transfer requests, 56, 92, 110, 233
Transformational leadership, 91
Transitory student populations, 203, 253
Tripp, T. M., 72, 73, 98, 99, 100, 101
Trost-Bloom, A., 286
Trust, definition of, statement providing, 19–20. See also Defining trust
Trustworthy leadership: challenging task facing, 253; and the five functions of instructional leaders, 254–264; key ingredients for, summarized, 38, 39; key points about, 268; need for, 251–253; practical advice for, 43–44, 66–69, 94–95, 119–120, 150–151, 183, 217–218, 247–248, 266–267; questions for reflection and discussion on, 269; results of, 264–266
Trustworthy principal (“Brenda”), 149; and authentic trust, 65; and benevolence, 23–24, 24–25; and communication, 30, 88; and competence, 36–37, 38; doing well as, 6–7; and family-school trust, 189, 193, 197; and modeling, 257; and openness, 29, 30, 32–33; and organizational citizenship and commitment, 93–94; and pressure for change, 12; and professional learning communities, 125–128; and reliability, 34; reputation of, 52; and restoring trust, 223–224, 225–226, 229, 239–240; and results achieved, 13, 264–265
Truth-telling, 26, 131
Tschannen-Moran, B., 218, 237, 258–259, 260, 286
Tyler, T. R., 86, 90
Tyson, D. F., 211
Tze, V.M.C., 145

U
Uline, C., 63, 77, 149, 166
Uncertainty, 56
Unconsciously blaming students, 180
Understanding, mutual, 63, 64, 237
Union involvement, 2, 104, 105, 223

V
Values: attitudes and, influence of, 53–54, 56–61; defined, 56; and integrity, 26
Van Houtte, M., 38, 60, 158, 160, 207
Van Maele, D., 38, 60, 158, 160, 207, 212
Violated trust. See Betrayal
Visioning, 254–255
Vulnerability: and aspirations for equity, 10; and betrayal, 4, 84–85, 97; in the classroom, 153, 177, 179; and defining trust, 19, 20–21, 22, 28, 32, 38, 39, 40, 41–42; and family-school trust, 207, 209; and fostering trust, 47, 48, 64; from lack of task leadership, 256; and parent trust, 188–189; and parent-teacher conferences, 196; in presenting survey results, 284; and restoring trust, 227; in sharing personal information with colleagues, 133, 134

W
Wahlstrom, K. L., 124
Wall, S., 171
Waters, E., 171
Watkins, J. M., 243, 286
Webb, R. B., 145
Weigert, A., 129
Werner, J. M., 43, 254
Westat and Policy Studies Associates, 210
Whining, 171
Whitener, E. M., 43, 254
Whitney, D., 286
Wicks, A. C., 65, 66
Willoughby, G., 286
Wilmot, W. W., 147
Wisdom, 12, 66
Withdrawal, 2, 6, 28, 98, 99, 113, 173, 210
Withholding information, 29, 88, 108
Withholding trust, ethical standards in, 18
Woolfolk Hoy, A., 145, 159. See also Hoy, A. W.
Words and actions: discontinuity between, effect of, 26, 27, 256; and integrity, 26, 107, 176, 194; reflecting on, importance of, 257. See also Communication
Work environment, 72, 87. See also Organizational culture; School climate
“Work-to-rule,” 223
Wrightsman, L. S., 55

Y
Youth culture, 13

Z
Zand, D. E., 22, 28
Zijlstra, B.J.H., 55, 124
Zucker, L. G., 50, 57, 64, 115