Index

Page references followed by \textit{fig} indicate an illustrated figure.

\textbf{A} Absence of trust, 164
Acceptance (A), 47
Accountability, 125–126\textit{fig}, 165
Action plans, 39
Action priority matrix, 19–21
Action programs, 21–22, 23
Active listening, 112–113, 167–168
Activity logs, 17–18
After-action reviews, 64–65
Agile coaches, 66
Agile project management, 65–67
Agreeableness, 5
Airport worker DILO analysis, 59\textit{fig}
Alexander, Graham, 151
Allies for change, 208–209
Anchoring bias, 92
Anger management, 32–33
Appreciative inquiry
\quad 5-D approach to, 77–78
\quad 4-D approach to, 77
Apprising, 199
Aspirational objectives, 58
Authenticity, 3–4
Authority
\quad cultural dimension of power distance and, 139
\quad formally define a team’s, 156–157
\quad leading change with “stealth innovation” and informal, 210–211
Awareness (A), 46

\textbf{B}
Baby boomers (born 1946–1964), 115–116, 117
Bad behavior, 168–170
BATNA (best alternative to a negotiated agreement), 223–224
Bay of Pigs fiasco, 154
Beating procrastination, 25–27
Behavior
\quad the big five personality model, 4–5, 118
\quad dealing with bad, 168–170
\quad Hofstede’s cultural dimensions of, 138–141
\quad lead by example and role modeling good, 110–112, 120
\quad managing career derailment, 49–51
\quad SBI feedback model component of, 151
Ben-Shahar, Tal, 44
Biases, 91–94
The big five personality model, 4–5, 118
Blame-free meetings, 77, 159–160
Blockbuster, 81
Body language, 119, 121, 175–176
Boldness, 50
Brache, Alan, 73
Bradford, David, 208 Brainstorming
   for ideas, 104–106
   for negotiation options, 168
Brigham Young University, 194
Buckingham, Marcus, 51
Buffett, Warren, 28
Build your self-confidence, 8–10
Business process re-engineering, 76

C
Cameron, Kim, 173
Career derailment behavior,
   49–51
Career management self-actualizing your, 40–41
   techniques and tools for, 41–51 CATWOE (customers–actors– transformation process–world view–owner and environmental constraints), 70
Cause and effect analysis, 71–73, 74
Causes. See Problem causes
Cautiousness, 50 Change
   change project power/interest grid on, 202–204
   importance of coping with, 28–29
   The change curve, 206–208 Change management importance of effective, 201
   techniques and tools for, 29–39, 202–211
Coalitions, 200, 205
Cognitive restructuring, 11–13
Cohen, Allan, 208
Collaboration, 200, 221
Collectivism/individualism, 139
Colorfulness, 51
Commitment lack, 164–165
Communication
   body language and nonverbal, 119, 121, 175–176
   e-mail, 136–137
   Hofstede’s cultural dimensions applied to, 138–141
   mindful listening for effective, 112–113, 167–168
   perspective-taking for good, 132
   seven Cs of, 133–134 speak well in public, 134–136 “stealth innovation,” 211
   tactful, 175–176
Competencies
   Dunning-Kruger effect on overestimating, 129 Heron’s six categories of intervention to build, 129–130 organizational core, 186–188
   Competency-based interviewing, 146–147
   Competitive position, 184–186
   Confirmation bias, 91–94 Conflict cultural differences that can cause, 127, 138–141 establish team charter to prevent possible, 155–157
   fear of, 164
Conflict resolution dealing with bad behavior at work, 168–170
   Fisher and Ury’s principled negotiations for, 167–168 related to office politics, 170–172
Conscientiousness, 4
Consultation, 199
Coordination, 195
“The core competence of the corporation” (Prahalad and Hamel), 187
Core values, 180–182
   “Crafting experiments,” 42
Creativity
   importance of fostering, 95–96
   techniques and tools for innovative, 96–106
Index

Cross-cultural communication, 138–141
Cultural differences Hofstede’s cultural dimensions on, 138–141 related to giving praise, 127
Customer experience mapping, 215–217
Customer personas, 213–214
Customers manager responsibility to work with, 212 techniques and tools for working with, 212–224

D
Daniels, Phil, 194 Decision making ethical, 88
  importance of making smart, 81–82 tools and techniques for smart, 82–94 understanding customer’s organizational, 217–219 Decision matrix analysis, 84–86
Delegation, 123–124
Deming, W. Edwards, 56, 60
Design thinking, 96–98
Developing Management Skills
  (Whetten and Cameron), 173
Differentiation, 184–186
Difficult management situations learning to deal with, 166 techniques and tools for handling, 167–176
“Digital natives,” 116
Diligence, 51
DILO (day in the life of), 58–60, 64
Direction (D), 47
Dissatisfaction factors, 114–115
Distraction management, 24–25
Doblin’s 10 types of innovation, 102–104
Drucker, Peter, 57
Dunning-Kruger effect, 129
Dutifulness, 51
Dweck, Carol, 13–14

E
Effective time scheduling, 22–24
“Elevator pitch,” 198
E-mail communication, 136–137
Emotional intelligence (EQ), 117–119 Emotions
  be tactful by managing your, 176 experienced by customers, 215–217
  The GREAT DREAM Model key of, 47
  managing people’s reactions to change, 206–208 managing your anger, 32–33
  SKS technique and need to manage your, 195
Empathy, 118–119
Employees
  generational differences of, 115–117 hiring and developing, 142–153 managing their emotional reactions to change, 206–208
  motivating, 109–121
See also Performance; Team members; Work
Empowering
  Kotter’s eight-step change model on, 205 your team members, 156–157
Ethical decision making, 88
Ethnographic research, 98–99
Exchange tactics
  the influence model on, 209 win-win negotiation and, 223
  Yukl and Tracey’s influence model on, 199
Excitability, 50
Index

Exercising (E), 46

External stakeholders identified for team success, 156 working effectively with, 212–224
  See also Stakeholders

Extraversion, 4

Fear of conflict, 164
Fear of failure or success, 35–37

Feedback
  generational differences related to, 116
  praising as part of, 116, 126–131
  SBI feedback model for, 149–151
  SKS technique for asking for, 194–195

Femininity/masculinity, 139

Fill-ins tasks, 19, 20

Fine, Alan, 151

Fisher and Ury’s principled negotiations, 167–168
Fisher, Roger, 167

5-D approach (appreciative inquiry), 77–78

Five Rs of performance improvement, 173–174

Fixed Mindset, 13, 14

Flow, 24–25

Focus manage distractions to improve flow and, 24–25 on the negatives, 126

4-D approach (appreciative inquiry), 77

Four Ps (progress, procedures, people, points for action), 158

Free association, 104–106

Fundamental attribution error, 93–94

Garfinkle, Joel, 192

Generational differences, 115–117

Generation X (born 1965–1979), 116

Getting to Yes (Fisher and Ury), 167

Gibbs, Graham, 37

Gibbs’s reflective cycle, 37–39

Giving (G), 46

Goals
  aspirational objectives or stretch (“moon shots”), 58
  OGSMs (objectives, goals, strategies, and measures), 56–57, 144, 165 strategy defined as action to achieve your, 57 win-win negotiation role of, 222

Goal setting beating procrastination by, 26
  the GROW model step of, 151–153
  personal goal setting, 7–8
  SMART mnemonic for, 8, 193

Goldsmith, Marshall, 51

Goleman, Daniel, 117–118

Google
  mission of, 181
  team study by, 154

The GREAT DREAM Model, 46–48

Grove, Andy, 57

The GROW model, 151–153

Growth Mindset, 13–15

Hamel, Gary, 187

Happiness
  The GREAT DREAM Model on finding, 46–48
  10 Keys to Happier Living (King) on, 46
  Harvard Business Review, 184
Heron’s six categories of intervention, 129–130
Herzberg, Frederick, 114
Herzberg’s motivation-hygiene theory, 113–115
Hiam, Alexander, 220
Hierarchy of needs, 40, 115
High impact/high probability risk, 90fig, 91
High impact/low probability risk, 90fig, 91
High-quality connections, 137–138
Hiring
Human Resources (HR) involvement in, 145–146 manager responsibilities for, 142 tools and techniques to aid in, 142–153
Hofstede, Geert, 139
Hofstede’s cultural dimensions, 138–141
Hogan Management Derailment, 49–51
Honest rapport, 195–197
Human Resources (HR), 145–146
I
Ibarra, Herminia, 42
Ibarra’s identify transition process, 41–43fig Ideas
design thinking for new, 96–98 free association and brainstorming, 104–106 leading change by proving value of your, 210 scenario planning to making sense of, 100fig–102
IDEO, 97
IKEA, 181, 188
Imaginativeness, 51
Imposter syndrome, 9
Inattention to results, 165
Individualism/collectivism, 139
Indulgence/restraint, 140 Influence
effective persuasion and, 208–209
PVI model component of, 192–193
Yukl and Tracey’s 11 influence tactics for, 199–200
Influence mapping, 217–219
The influence model, 208–209
Ingham, Harry, 160
Ingratiation, 200
Innovation
Doblin’s ten types of, 103–104
importance of fostering, 95–96
techniques and tools for, 96–106
Inspirational appeal, 199
Intel, 57
Intellectual stimulation, 120
Interviewing job candidates, 146–147
The inverted-U model, 33–35

J
Job Crafting, 44–45
Job descriptions, 143–146
The Johari window, 160–162
Journaling for self-development, 10–11

K
Kim, W. Chan, 184
King, Vanessa, 46
Kipling, Rudyard, 28
Knowing yourself authenticity component of, 3–4
techniques and tools for, 4–15
Kotter’s eight-step change model, 205–206

L
Lead by example, 110–112, 120
Leadership
authentic, 3–4
transformational, 119–120
Learning to deal with difficult situations, 166–176
Gibbs’s reflective cycle of, 37–39
Learning by Doing (Gibbs), 37
Legitimation, 200
Leisureliness, 50
Lencioni’s five dysfunctions of a team, 164–165
Lewicki and Hiam’s negotiation matrix, 219–222
Lewicki, Roy, 220
Listening, 112–113, 167–168
Long-term/short-term orientation, 140
Low impact/high probability risk, 90
Low impact/low probability risk, 90
Luft, Joseph, 160

M
Major projects tasks, 20
Maladaptive perfectionism, 39
Manage group dynamics, 78–80
Management by objectives, 57
Managers
authenticity quality of good, 3–4 dealing with difficult situations, 166–176 going the best from team members, 122–131 hiring and developing good people, 142–153 making sure work is done responsibility of, 55–56 team building by, 154–165 understand and motivate other people, 109–121
See also People development;
Work day-to-day management
Masculinity/femininity, 139
Maslow’s hierarchy of needs, 40, 115

Mastering Business Negotiation
(Lewicki and Hiam), 220
“Mastery experiences,” 128
Mauborgne, Renée, 184
McKinsey seven Ss model, 63
Meaning (M), 47
Meetings
blame-free, 77, 159–160
one-on-one, 112, 113
Messages
seven Cs principles for effective, 133–134 speak well in public to deliver your, 134–136 writing effective e-mail, 136–137
Mindful listening, 112–113, 167–168
Mischievousness, 51
Mission
organizational, 56, 180–182, 186–188
translating into OGSM, 56–57, 144, 165
your team, 156
Mission. See Organizational mission;
Team mission
Mission statements, 180–182
MIT team study, 154
“Moon shots,” 58
Motivating
challenges related to, 109–110
design motivation-centered job descriptions, 143–146 team-specific motivation for, 162–163
techniques and tools for, 110–121
See also People development
Motivation-hygiene theory, 113–115
The MPS Process, 44
Mutual attentiveness, 195

N
Negotiation
BATNA (best alternative to a negotiated agreement), 223–224
Fisher and Ury’s principled, 167–168
Lewicki and Hiam’s negotiation matrix for, 219–222 win-win, 222–224
Netflix, 81
Net present value (NPV) analysis, 82–83
Networking skills, 197–198
Neuroticism, 5
The No Asshole Rule (Sutton), 166
Nonverbal communication, 119, 121, 175–176

O
Objectives
description and two types of, 58
OGSMs (objectives, goals, strategies, and measures), 56–57, 144, 265
OKRs (objectives and key results), 57–58, 144, 165
SOAR (situation, objective, actions, and results), 147 team charter to establish, 156 your networking, 197, 198
Office politics, 170–172
One-on-one meetings, 112, 113
The One Page Business Strategy (Van Eck and van Zanten), 56–57 Openness
big five personality trait of, 4
the Johari window to build team, 160–162
Operational objectives, 58 Opportunities
ORAPAPA (opportunities, risks, reactions, and ethics), 86–88
organizational SWOT analysis, 188–190
personal SWOT analysis of your, 6–7, 44, 118
Organizational mission core competencies of your, 186–188
as “spiritual and moral call to action,” 56
translating into OGSM, 56–57, 144, 165
understand your, 180–182
See also Team mission Organizations
core values of your, 180–182
differentiation and value curves of your, 184–186 make change happen in your, 201–211
PESTLIED analysis of your, 101, 182–184
SWOT analysis of your, 188–190 understanding the nature of your, 191–192
Overconfidence bias, 93

P
PDSA cycle, 60–62, 64, 68
People development
the GROW model on, 151–153 manager role in, 142–153
motivating people by facilitating, 120 SBI feedback model to help with, 149–151 skills matrices to assess individual needs for, 148–149
See also Managers; Motivating Performance
handling poor, 173–174
how a poor personality fit impacts, 4
The inverted-U model to optimize pressure for, 33–35
See also Employees; Work
Performance improvement cognitive restructuring for, 11–13
customer experience mapping for, 215–217
Performance improvement
(continued)
  five Rs of, 173–174
  PDSA cycle for continuous,
  60–62, 64, 68
Performance reviews, 6, 64–65
Personal appeals, 200
Personal goal setting, 7–8
Personality build self-confidence by understanding your, 9 five dimensions of, 4–5
Personal resiliency, 29–31
Personal SWOT analysis, 6–7, 44, 118 Perspective-taking the PVI model for shaping others,’ 192–193
  as start to effective communication, 132
Persuasion, 208–209
PESTLIED analysis, 101, 182–184
PMBOK project management, 65, 67
Pomodoro technique, 27
Poor performance, 173–174
Positivity, 195
Power distance, 139
Prahalad, C. K., 187
Praise. See Recognition/praise Pressure differentiating between stress and, 35
  as influencer tactic, 200
  the inverted-U model to manage, 33–35
PRINCE2 project management, 65, 67
Principled negotiations, 167–168
Prioritizing action priority matrix for, 19–21 action programs for tracking and, 21–22, 23
  activity logs to eliminate low-yield tasks, 17–18
  risk impact/probability chart for, 90fig–91
Problem causes blame-free analysis meetings on, 77, 159–160
  cause and effect analysis to identify, 71–73, 74fig
  root cause analysis to identify, 69–70
  swim lane diagrams to identify,
  73, 75fig–77
Problems
  identifying causes of, 69–77 separate people from, 167 Problem solving
  design thinking for, 96–98
  by scrum masters, 66 techniques and tools for effective, 68–80
Procrastination, 25–27
Product development
  design thinking for, 96–98
  Doblin’s 10 types of innovative, 102–104
  ethnographic research for, 98–99 scenario planning process for,
  100fig–102
Product owners, 66
Project management
  agile project management, 65–67
  PMBOK, 65, 67
  PRINCE2, 65, 67
  scrum, 66
See also Work day-to-day
  management
Psychological bias, 91–94
Public speaking strategies, 134–136
PVI (perception, visibility, and influence) model, 192–193
Q
Quick wins tasks, 20fig
Index

R

RACI matrix, 125–126/fig
Rational persuasion, 199
Recognition/praise cultural differences related to, 127
  generational differences related to, 116
  of team members, 126–127
Recruitment, 146–147
Relating (R), 46 Relationships
  build honest rapport as part of your, 195–197 create “high-quality connections” and, 137–138 developing customer, 215/fig–217 networking skills to expand your, 197–198
  win-win negotiation role of, 222–223
Reservedness, 50 Resiliency developing personal, 29–31
  The GREAT DREAM Model key of, 47
Resource allocation delegating and providing, 124 how the mission determines, 180 leading change by providing sufficient, 210–211 team charter to define, 155–157 Resources
  considering your organization’s, 187 design thinking to consider, 97 exchange of, 199, 209 to manage risk, 91
  providing your people with needed, 58, 59, 70, 173 for “stealth innovation,” 210–211
  SWOT analysis to assess your, 6–7, 44, 118, 188–190 time as scarce, 16
Respect, 137
Restraint/indulgence, 140
Results
  inattention to, 165
  OKRs (objectives and key results), 57–58, 144, 165
Retrospectives (post-completion project reviews), 64–65 Risk
  analysis and management of, 88–89
  ORAPAPA (opportunities, risks, reactions, and ethics), 86–88
  risk impact/probability chart to prioritize, 90/fig–91 two parts to a, 88
  uncertainty avoidance to, 140 Role modeling to lead by example, 110–112, 120
  of team members, 128
Root cause analysis, 69–70
Rummler, Geary, 73

S

Satisfaction factors, 114/fig
SBI feedback model, 149–151
Scenario planning, 100/fig–102
Scheduling effectively, 22–24
Scrum masters, 66
Scrum project management, 66
Self-actualizing career, 40–41
Self-awareness, 118
Self-confidence building your team members,’ 128–129 know yourself by building your, 8–10
Self-efficacy, 8
Self-esteem, 8, 116
Self-identity, 40–43/fig
Self-knowledge, 160–162
Self-motivation, 118
Self-regulation, 118
Seven Cs of communication, 133–134
Short-term/long-term orientation, 140

Situational awareness importance of developing, 179–180
  techniques and tools for, 180–190

Situation-behavior-impact (SBI) feedback model, 149–151

Skepticism, 50

Skills
  networking, 197–198
  social, 119

Skills matrices, 148fig–149

SKS technique, 194–195

SMART goal setting, 8, 193

SOAR (situation, objective, actions, and results), 147

Social skills, 119

Stakeholders
  dealing with office politics and, 170–172 organizational mission role of, 181 power/interest grids on and management of, 202–204fig

See also External stakeholders

“Stealth innovation,” 210–211

The STOP Method for anger management, 32–33

Strategies
  definition and function of, 57 team building, 154–165

Strengths
  organizational SWOT analysis, 188–190
  personal SWOT analysis of your, 6–7, 44, 118
  StrengthsFinder, 6, 7
  VIA assessments, 6, 7

Stress management coping with change and stress using, 28–29
  The inverted-U model for, 33–35 stress diaries for, 31–32

Stress vs. pressure, 35

Stretch goals, 58

Success
  identifying external stakeholders needed for, 156 overcome fears of, 35–37

Sutton, Bob, 166

Swim lane diagrams, 73, 75fig–77

SWOT analysis
  organizational, 188–190
  personal, 6–7, 44, 118

T

Tactful communication, 175–176

Tasks
  action priority matrix to prioritize, 19–21 action programs for tracking/prioritizing, 21–22, 23 activity logs to eliminate low-yield, 17–18
  delegating, 123–124
  Pomodoro technique for working on unpleasant, 27
  RACI matrix for accountability of, 125–126fig

See also Work

Tata Group, 180

Tata, Ratan, 56, 180

Tata Sons, 56

Taylor, Fredrick, 56

Team charter, 155–157

Team members build trust in your, 159–160 composition and roles of, 156 establish authority and empowerment of, 156–157
  the Johari window to build openness among, 160–162 manager responsibility to get best out of, 122–123
Index

provide them with clear information, 157–159

techniques and tools for getting best out of, 123–131

Seeing also Employees

Team mission, 156

Teams

Lencioni’s five dysfunctions of a, 164–165 manager responsibility for building great, 154 protecting them from office politics, 170–172 techniques and tools for building, 154–165

Team-specific motivation, 162–163

10 Keys to Happier Living (King), 46

Ten Types of Innovation: The Discipline of Building Breakthroughs (Doblin), 103–104

Thankless tasks, 19–20

Threats

organizational SWOT analysis, 188–190
personal SWOT analysis of your, 6–7, 44, 118

Time management

the importance of, 16
techniques and tools for, 16–27

Time Warner buying America Online blunder, 154

To-do lists, 21

“Tough love” interventions, 129–130

Toyota, 56

Tracey, J. Bruce, 199, 209

Trades. See Exchange tactics

Training team members, 128

Transformational leadership, 119–120

Trust

building in your team, 159–160
creating good relationships by building, 138 team dysfunction of absence of, 164

Trying out (T), 46–47

U

Uncertainty avoidance, 140

Unpleasant tasks, 27

UPS, 184

Ury, William, 167

Users

design thinking to understand, 96–98
ethnographic research on, 98–99

User story, 66

V

Value curves, 184–186

Values (core), 180–182

“Values innovation: The strategic logic of high growth” (Kim and Mauborgne), 184

Van Eck, Marc, 56

van Zanten, Ellen, 56

VIA assessments, 6

Visibility (PVI model), 192–193

Vision

for change, 205
inspire your people with a compelling, 120

W

Weaknesses

organizational SWOT analysis, 188–190
personal SWOT analysis of your, 6–7, 44, 118

The Wheel of Life, 48–49

Whetton, David, 173

Whitmore, Sir John, 151

Win-win negotiations, 222–224

Work

dealing with bad behavior at, 168–170
Work (continued)

manager responsibility for day-to-day, 55–56

team charter establishing operations and, 157

techniques and tools for getting it done, 56–67

See also Employees; Performance;
Tasks

Work day-to-day management

DILO (day in the life of), 58–60, 64

gap analysis to identify needed action, 62–63

OGSMs (objectives, goals, strategies, and measures) for,
56–57, 144, 165

OKRs (objectives and key results), 57–58, 144, 165

one-page rule, 56–57

PDSA cycle for continuous improvement, 60–62, 64, 68

Retrospectives (post-completion project reviews), 64–65

See also Managers; Project
management

Work-life balance, 116–117, 139

Y

Yuke, Gary, 199, 209

Yukl and Tracey’s 11 influence tactics, 199–200