Contents

Figures and Tables vi
Series Editors’ Preface vii
Acknowledgements viii
Abbreviations x

1 Introduction: Re-envisioning the Homeless City 1
2 From Neoliberalization to Postsecularism 22
3 Tactics and Performativities in the Homeless City 61
4 ‘He’s Not Homeless, He Shouldn’t Have Any Food’: Outdoor Relief in a Postsecular Age 92
5 ‘It’s Like You Can Almost Be Normal Again’: Refuge and Resource in Britain’s Day Centres 117
6 ‘It’s Been a Tough Night, Huh?’ Hopelessness (and Hope) in Britain’s Homeless Hostels 147
7 Big City Blues: Uneven Geographies of Provision in the Homeless City 181
8 On the Margins of the Homeless City: Caring for Homeless People in Rural Areas 211
9 Conclusions 241

References 255
Index 274