Index

Note: page numbers in italics refer to figures and tables.

abductive reasoning 97
abstracts
congresses 224–8
research articles 220
literature reviews 64
access to organisations 248, 249
accidental (haphazard/common) sampling 138–9 acknowledgements section
research articles 221
research reports 215
acronyms 55
action, autonomy of 112
aetiology, research questions 41
aims 3, 4
alpha(α) level 146, 190–1
AND 55, 58
anecdotes, in hierarchy of evidence 61 animal research, ethical issues 243–4 anomalies 186
anonymity 13
ANOVA (analysis of variance) 194
anthropology 87
appendices, research reports 216
appropriateness of data 141
arithmetic mean 183–4
assumption-free tests 193
see also non-parametric tests audit see clinical audit autonomy, respect for 111–12
averages 182
arithmetic mean 183–4
median 184–5
mode 185
axial coding 201
axiological assumption
qualitative research 24
quantitative research 29
background questions 40–1
beneficence 112–14, 239
bias 66
avoidance by blinding 82
in convenience sampling 139
observer bias 157
and sample representativeness 133 bibliographies, literature reviews 69
BLINDING 82
body, lived experience 101 Boolean operators 55, 58
bracketing, phenomenology 101–2 Caldicott Principles 13 care providers, responsibilities xix case studies 134
case-control studies 28
in hierarchy of evidence 61
causal relationships 28, 30
causal research questions 49
derangement 249
change management 248–50, 251–2
Lewin’s model (1951) 251
problem-solving 250–1
checklists
focus group moderators 170–1 interviewer conduct 166–7
in structured observation 157 chi-square tests 195
chief (principal) investigator xvii children
drawings 174–5, 206–8
vulnerability 120, 239
clinical audit
comparison to research 6, 7, 9–10, 236
data identification 13
definition 6–7
difference from research and service evaluation 12
drug dependency and HIV ‘drop-in’ centre use 20
example 11
clinical audit cycle/spiral 7–8 clinical effectiveness
  checking for evidence-based practice 16
  definition 14–15
  examples of studies 15, 17–18
  five parts 15
  implementing and auditing change 17 steps for improvement 15
closed questions 158
cluster sampling 136–7, 151
Cochrane Database of Systemic Reviews (CDSR) 59 codes of ethics 110–11
coding data 199–201, 204
corruption 112, 241
cohort studies 28
  in hierarchy of evidence 61
colleagues
  constructive criticism 219
communication xv, 163
closed questions 158
cross-examination see triangulation cross-sectional surveys, in hierarchy of evidence 61 cultural behaviour, ethnography 87–95
curiosity xiii–xiv
data
  adequacy and appropriateness 141
  definition 25
  statistical 180
data analysis 3, 5, 178
  ethnographic research 91–2
  literature reviews 68–9
  in phenomenology 102
  qualitative research 26–7, 197–8
  coding 199–201
  constant comparative method 199
  content analysis 201–2
  grounded theory 202–3
  images 206–8
  phenomenological data 198–9
  text analysis, example 203–6
  quantitative research 31, 189–90
  levels of significance 191
  see also statistical tests; statistics
data collection 3, 5, 152–4, 175–6
  ethnographic research 91
  grounded theory 98
  literature reviews 67
  phenomenology 102
  qualitative research 25–6, 150, 163–4
  diaries 173–4
  drawings 174–5
  focus groups 169–72
  interviews 164–9
  observation 172–3
  quantitative research 30, 84–5, 154–5
  interviews 157
  observation 156–7
  physiological measurement 162–3
  questionnaires 157–9
  scales 159–62
data identification, clinical audit 13
Data Protection Act 1998 13
data saturation 141
data types
  qualitative research 26
  quantitative research 28, 30
databases 43, 56
  evidence-based medicine 59
Databases of Abstracts of Reviews of Effectiveness (DARE) 59
deductive reasoning 96
definitions, operational 51–2 dependent variables 44, 45, 46–7, 156, 190 describing, phenomenology 102
descriptive research 48, 83, 107
  quantitative 155
descriptive statistics 181
design see research design detachment, quantitative research 29

see also literature reviews deviant case sampling 134 diagnosis, research questions 41
diaries 173–4
discovery-oriented research 25
discrete variables 162
discussion section
research articles 221
literature reviews 69
research reports 216
dissemination of results 3, 5, 211–12
see also conferences; publication of research;
research reports
doggedness xiii–xiv
double-blind peer-review 218 double-blinding 82
draft outlines, research articles 219
drawings 174–5
analysis 206–8
drivers of research xxii
effect size 145–6
eligibility criteria 147–8
literature searches 58–9
embryo research, ethical issues 241–3 emergent design 25
emic 23
empathy 23
empiricism 155
employing organisations xx epistemological assumption
qualitative research 23
quantitative research 29
essences, phenomenology 102 ethical approval 4, 12
requirement for 236–7
ethical dilemmas
use of animals 243–4
use of embryos 241–3
use of human subjects 238
use of vulnerable subjects 239–41 ethical principles 111
beneficence 112–14
confidentiality 116
fidelity 115
justice 114–15
non-maleficence 114
respect for autonomy 111–12
veracity 115–16
ethics 108–9
codes of 110–11
ethnographic research 94
and literature reviews 67–8 transgressions 109–10
ethics committees xx, 116–17, 119 decisions 125
required information 117–19, 126
ethnographic research 87–90, 95
advantages 92–3
data analysis 91–2
data collection 91
disadvantages 93–5
key stages 90–1
samples 91
etic 29
euthanasia 114
evaluation research 84
evidence
hierarchy of 59–62
sources of 15
evidence-based practice (EBP) 13–14
checking for 16
literature searches 59
exclusion criteria 147
literature searches 59
executive summary, research reports 215 experimental research 81–2, 155 expert opinion, in hierarchy of evidence 60, 61 exploratory research 48
extraneous variables 45–6, 47 fair treatment 114–15
fidelity 115
field notes 90
fixed design research 48–9 flexible research design 24–5, 49, 86, 164
grounded theory 97–8
focus groups 169–70
facilitation 170–2
focus of study 75–6, 78–9 hypotheses/research questions 76–8 foetus, as a human being 243 forced choice Likert scales 162
foreground questions 41–2
funders xviii–xix
funding
availability 244–5
origins and provenance 245–6
vested interests 246–7
gatekeepers 91, 94
government publications 43, 56
grounded theory 95–6
advantages and disadvantages 99
basic elements 98
concepts 96–7
data analysis 202–3
data collection 98
key analytic assumptions 97–8 purpose 96
research questions 98–9
theoretical sampling 137–8
haphazard (accidental/convenience) sampling 138–9 harm, research questions 41
Hawthorne effect 93, 94, 173
Health Technology Assessment (HTA) 59
Healthcare Commission, definition of audit 7 height and weight comparisons, research paradigm 35 Helsinki Declaration 110
heterogeneous samples 97
Index

hierarchy of evidence 59–60, 62
  example 61
hierarchy of evidence triangle 60–1 holistic research 87, 92, 105
homogeneous samples 97
honorary contracts 128
hour glass analogy of research 39 house style, peer-reviewed journals 218 human life, commencement of 242–3 human relationships, lived experience 101 hypotheses 44, 76–7
  null hypothesis 77
hypothesis formulation 2, 4
hypothesis testing 181 alpha level (p level) 146, 190–1 identification of participants 116 impartiality, quantitative research 29 implementation of findings 247–8, 253
  change management 248–52
IMRaD structure, research articles 219
in vitro measurements 163
in vivo measurements 163 incidents, critical 89–90
inclusion criteria 147–8
  literature searches 58–9
independent groups 192
independent samples t-test 194 independent variables 44, 45, 46–7, 156, 190 index systems 203
inductive analysis 26, 96–7
inferential (inductive) statistics 144, 181–2 information sheets, example 121–3
information sources 42–3
informed consent 112, 115–16, 118, 241 decision-making capacity 240 voluntary nature 241
inhibitions, in ethnographic research 93, 94
Instructions for Authors, peer-reviewed journals 218 Integrated Research Application System (IRAS) 117–18
interrater reliability 153 interval scales 161
interviewer conduct checklist 166–7 interviewer effect, ethnographic research 93
interviews
  emotional aspects 153
  in ethnographic research 90–1
  in qualitative research 22
    advantages and disadvantages 165–6
      scenarios 168–9
    semi-structured 164–5
    structured 164
    unstructured 165
  in quantitative research 157
  semi-structured 48
introduction
research articles 220
  literature reviews 64–5
research reports 215
intuiting, phenomenology 102
investigators xvii
  responsibilities xvii–xviii
Jewish Chronic Disease Hospital Study (1963) 109 journals, peer-reviewed 218
  as source of information 43, 56
judgmental (purposive) sampling 138
justice 114–15, 239
key informants 91
keywords
  literature searches 55, 57
  research articles 220
Kruskal–Wallis test 195
‘leading’ questions 158
Lewin, model of change (1951) 251
Likert scales 161–2, 168–9 limitations of studies 196
literature reviews 62–3, 70
  abstracts 64
  assessment of 65
  conclusions and limitations 69
  data analysis 68–9
  data collection 67
  discussion sections 69
  ethical considerations 67–8
  introduction sections 64–5 methodology sections 65–6
  pilot studies 68
  populations and samples 66
  problem statements 65
  references and bibliography 69
  report structures 63–4
  for research articles 219
scenario 70–2
literature searches 54, 56, 57–8
  exclusion criteria 59
  flow diagram 55
  inclusion criteria 58–9
literature sources 56–7 lived experiences, phenomenology 100–1, 103–4 liver cancer cells, Jewish Chronic Disease Hospital Study (1963) 109 Mann–Whitney U-test 195–6
MANOVA (multivariate analysis of variance) 194
marginality, management of 88 mean 183–4
  statistical symbol 182
  t-test 194
measurement 155
median 184–5
memorandum writing 203
meta-analyses, in hierarchy of evidence 60, 61 methodological assumption
  qualitative research 24
  quantitative research 29
methodology section of reports 65–6 methods section, research articles 220–1 mind mapping 217
mixed-methods research (triangulation) 31–2, 176
example 34–5
MMR vaccination 113
mode 185
moderators, focus groups 170–2 monitoring of research 112 multi-site research, gaining ethical approval 118–19
multistage (cluster) sampling 136–7

narrative research 104
National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE), definition of audit 6 Nazi medical experiments 109 neonatal care, study of clinical effectiveness 17–18
network (snowball/nominated) sampling 139
nominal scales 160
nominated (snowball/network) sampling 139 non-experimental research 77–8
non-maleficence 114, 239
non-parametric tests 193, 195–6
non-probability sampling 133–4, 137–9
NOT 55, 58
null hypothesis 77
numerical data, collection 84–5, 155
Nuremberg Code (1949) 110 Nursing Process, as model for change 251

objectives 3, 4, 50–1
objectivity 29, 81, 155
observation
  in qualitative research 172–3
  in quantitative research 156–7
observer bias 157
one-sample t-test 194
ontological assumption
  qualitative research 23
  quantitative research 29
open coding 200, 204
open-ended design 25
open-ended questions 158
operational definitions 51–2 OR 55, 58
ordinal scales 160–1
organs, removal from deceased patients 110, 111
overviews 61
  see also meta-analyses; systematic reviews p-value 146, 190–1
paired samples t-test 194
palliative medicine, ethical dilemmas 113, 114, 239–41 paradigms 28, 74, 79–80 parameters 180–1 parametric tests 192–3, 194
participant observation, ethnographic
research 90
participants xx–xxi
  communication of research findings 212 passion for research xiv Pearson correlation test 194 peer-reviewed journals 218
  as source of information 43, 56
pharmaceutical companies funding of research 246
  as source of information 43
phenomena 27
phenomenology 99–100, 103–4
  advantages and disadvantages 103
data analysis 198–9
data collection 102
lived experiences 100–1
methodologies 101–2
samples 102
philosophical assumptions
  qualitative research 23–4
  quantitative research 29
philosophy, definition 21
physiological measurements 162–3 PICO (Patient or Problem, Intervention, Comparative intervention and Outcome) framework 41–2
pilot studies 85
  literature reviews 68
planned change model 250 planning 3
politicisation of research 247
pooling 61
  see also meta-analyses
populations 80, 131, 180
  literature reviews 66
power analysis 143, 145
  effect size 146
power of statistical tests 144
prediction 30
presentation of findings 3, 6
  ethnographic research 93
  qualitative research 27
presentations 232
  preparation 228–31
principal (chief) investigator xvii privacy issues, ethnographic research 94
probability sampling 133, 134, 135–7
probability theory 182
probes 167
problem-solving 250–1
problem statements 65
problems as focus of study 75 prognosis, research questions 41 publication of research 216–17
  choice of journal 217–18
constructive criticism 219
draft outlines 219
expectations and advantages 222
literature reviews 219
reasons for rejection of papers 223 structure of articles 219–22 purposive (judgmental) sampling 138 qualitative data 86
qualitative research 86, 104–5
abstracts 226
characteristics 24
data analysis 5, 26–7, 178, 197–8, 208
coding 199–201
constant comparative method 199
content analysis 201–2
grounded theory 202–3
images 206–8
phenomenological data 198–9
text analysis, example 203–6
data collection 25–6, 104, 150, 154, 163–4
diaries 173–4
drawings 174–5
focus groups 169–72
individual interviews 164–9
observation 172–3
definition 22
descriptive 48
design 24–5
example 22, 34–5
methodologies 86–7
ethnography 87–95
grounded theory 95–9
phenomenology 99–104
philosophical assumptions 23–4
sample size 28, 141–2, 151
quality of life, research paradigm 34–5
quantitative research 28, 31, 80–1
abstracts 225–6
causal research questions 49
correlational 83
data analysis 5, 31, 178, 179, 189–90
levels of significance 191
see also statistical tests; statistics
data collection 30, 84–5, 154–5
interviews 157
observation 156–7
physiological measurement 162–3
questionnaires 157–9
scales 159–62
descriptive 48, 83
design 29–30
evaluation research 84
example 35
experimental 81–2
philosophical assumptions 29
pilot studies 85
quasi-experimental 82
randomisation 82
relational 48–9
sample size 142–3
general rules 146–7
power analysis 143, 145–6
surveys 83–4
quantitative synthesis 61
see also meta-analyses
quasi-experimental research 82
questionnaires 30, 157–9
questions see research questions quota sampling 134
random sampling 30, 133, 135–7, 150–1
randomisation 82
randomised controlled trials 28
ethical considerations 129
in hierarchy of evidence 60, 61
range of data 186
ranking 160
ratio scales 161
reduction, phenomenological 101–2
references
research articles 222
literature reviews 69
research reports 216
reflective processes 89
reflexivity 89–90
refreezing, Lewin’s model of change 251 related groups 192
relational research 48–9
relationality concept (lived human relations) 101, 104
replicability 155
report structures 63–4
representativeness of samples 132–3, 143
research
comparison to clinical audit 6, 7, 9–10 definition xii–xiii, 2, 236 difference from clinical audit and service evaluation 12
drug dependency and HIV ‘drop-in’ centre use 19
eexample 11
hour glass analogy 39
importance to healthcare xxi–xxiii, 237
research articles
choice of journal 217–18
constructive criticism 219
draft outlines 219
literature reviews 219
reasons for rejection 223
structure 219–22
research design 3, 4, 74
qualitative research 24–5
quantitative research 29–30
research and development approval 127–8 research ethics committees see ethics committees research findings section, research reports 215 research governance 127–8
research governance committee xix–xx research process 2–3, 4–6 research proposals xxiv, 3, 4
research questions 2, 4, 65, 76, 77–8, 159
background questions 40–1
causal 49
clarification 49–52
descriptive 48
development 38, 39–40, 53
finding answers, resources 42–3
foreground questions 41–2
grounded theory 98–9
important features 37–8
relational 48–9
see also hypotheses
research reports
comparison with research proposals 212–14
structure 215–16
researcher-as-instrument 25–6, 87
in ethnographic research 88–9
researchers qualities xiv–xvi
responsibilities xvii–xviii
resistance to change 252 resources 38
information sources 42–3
response rates 132
responsible care professionals xix results section, research articles 221 rhetorical assumption
qualitative research 24
quantitative research 29
rich information 141, 142
data collection strategies 25
risk minimisation 114
Royal College of Nursing (RCN), help with funding 245 safety issues, ethnographic research 94 sample bias 133, 139
sample size 28, 140
qualitative research 141–2, 151
quantitative research 30, 142–3
general rules 146–7
power analysis 143, 145–6
samples 80, 131–2, 180
eligibility criteria 147–8
in ethnographic research 91
in grounded theory 97–8
literature reviews 66
non-probability sampling 133–4, 137–9
in phenomenology 102
probability sampling 133, 134, 135–7
in qualitative research 150–1
randomisation 82
reasons for use 132
representativeness 132–3
sampling frames 135
sampling intervals 137
sampling plans 5
saturation point, grounded theory 97
scales 159–60
interval 161
Likert 161–2, 168–9
nominal 160
ordinal 160–1
ratio 161
scope, qualitative research 142
selective coding 201
self-determination, participants’ right to 111–12 semi-structured interviews 48, 164–5 service evaluation
definition 10–11
difference from research and clinical audit 12
drug dependency and HIV ‘drop-in’ centre use 20
example 11
service redesign, research questions 41 settings
qualitative research 24
quantitative research 29–30, 156
significance, statistical 145, 191 simple random sampling 135–6, 151 Site Specific Assessment 119, 125 slides for presentations 229–30 smoking cessation, beneficence 113–14 snowball (network/nominated) sampling 139 social justice 241
socially-constructed research 26
space, lived experience (spatiality concept) 100–1, 103
Spearman rank correlation test 196
’spin’ 247
sponsors xviii
SPSS (Statistical Package for Social Sciences) 196
standard deviation 187–9
statistical symbol 182
standards, clinical audit 7–8 statistical significance 145, 191 statistical tests 191–2 non-parametric 193, 195–6 parametric 192–3, 194
software 196
statistics 178, 179–80, 197
averages 182
arithmetic mean 183–4
median 184–5
mode 185
descriptive 181
inductive/inferential 181
probability theory 182
range 186
significance levels 191
standard deviation 187–9
symbols 182
stopping point, grounded theory 97 stratified random sampling 136 structured interviews 157, 164 structured observation 156–7 sum, statistical symbol 182 summary, research reports 216 survey research 83–4
synonyms 55, 57
syphilis, Tuskegee study 109
systematic reviews, in hierarchy of evidence 60, 61
systematic sampling 137 $t$-tests 144, 194
teaching, role in implementation of change 251 temporality concept (lived time) 101, 104 terminology 3
Index

262

textual analysis
  example 203–6
  see also qualitative research: data analysis

theoretical frameworks 5
theoretical sampling 97–8, 137–8
theoretical saturation, grounded theory 97 ‘thick description’ 141, 142
data collection strategies 25
thought, autonomy of 112 time perception (lived time) 101 time requirement, ethnographic research 93 time-frames 38
time-lines 62
tissues, removal from deceased patients 110, 111 tobacco industry, funding of research 246 treatment, research questions 41 triangulation (mixed-methods research) 31–2, 176
  example 34–5
Tuskegee syphilis study 109

UK Census 28, 84
unfreezing, Lewin’s model of change 251 unstructured interviews 165

vaccination, and beneficence 113 validity, ethnographic research 92 variables 44–6, 155–6, 190 discrete and continuous 162 variance, statistical symbol 182
veracity 115–16
verification, in qualitative research 27
vested interests 246–7
  politicisation of research 247
volunteer sampling 139
vulnerability 120–1, 126–7
vulnerable groups
  ethical dilemmas 239–41
  embryos 241–3
  respect for autonomy 112

web program xxvi–xxx Wilcoxon signed-rank test 195 will, autonomy of 112
withdrawal from studies, participants’ right 112, 115

Working for Patients (Secretary of State for Health 1989: 39) 6