Contents

List of Contributors vii

1 Beyond ‘doctor and patient’: developments in the study of healthcare interactions 1
Alison Pilnick, Jon Hindmarsh and Virginia Teas Gill

2 Dialling for donations: practices and actions in the telephone solicitation of human tissues 17
T. Elizabeth Weathersbee and Douglas W. Maynard

3 Managing medical advice seeking in calls to Child Health Line 31
Carly W. Butler, Susan Danby, Michael Emmison and Karen Thorpe

4 Practitioners’ accounts for treatment actions and recommendations in physiotherapy: when do they occur, how are they structured, what do they do? 48
Ruth Parry

5 ‘I’ve put weight on cos I’ve bin inactive, cos I’ve ’ad me knee done’: moral work in the obesity clinic 66
Helena Webb

6 Progressivity and participation: children’s management of parental assistance in paediatric chronic pain encounters 83
Ignasi Clemente

7 Embedding instruction in practice: contingency and collaboration during surgical training 99
Marcus Sanchez Svensson, Christian Heath and Paul Luff

8 Creating history: documents and patient participation in nurse-patient interviews 117
Aled Jones

9 Listening to what is said – transcribing what is heard: the impact of speech recognition technology (SRT) on the practice of medical transcription (MT) 133
Gary C. David, Angela Cora Garcia, Anne Warfield Rawls and Donald Chand

Index 148