Index

agenda-setting theories, 24 austerity measures, 1, 2
Australia, 3, 4
benefit targeting, 49, 54
demand management, 41
economic developments since 1970, 42–5 exceptionalism, 45–6
fiscal discipline, 49
guaranteed minimum income (GMI) proposal, 49
Harmer Pension Review, 53–4
Henry Review, 52, 53
income management, 42
Indigenous disadvantage, 42, 51
Labour Party (ALP), 41, 48, 50, 54–5
Liberal and National Parties (LNP), 48 monetarism, 49
Nation Building plan, 52 oil shock (1973–74), 48–9
one-off social security payments, 45, 52 policy and decision-making framework, 45–7 Poverty Commission, 49
recessions of 1980s and 1990s, 49–51 response to financial crisis, 51–4 stimulus packages, 52
Superannuation Guarantee Charge (SGC), 50–51
unemployment, 42–4
wage earning welfare, 54, 55
Austria, 4
impact of the financial crisis, 147, 149
short-time work, 138, 141–3, 147, 152, 154–5, 156, 157 unemployment insurance, 147, 148
banking sector bail-outs, 9, 13, 14, 15
USA, 69
benefit targeting, 49, 54 budget deficit, 1, 7, 18 capitalism, varieties of (VoC), 25, 138, 139, 140 compensation hypothesis, 9 competition, 123–4, 170–71 contributory pension schemes, 120–22 convergence theory, 26
coordinated market economies, 139 critical junctures, 24 deficit financing, 41
demand management, 9
Australia, 41
demographic changes, 2
Denmark, 8
exports, 13, 14
spending cuts, 17
unemployment, 12–13
deservingness heuristic, 10 disability insurance: Netherlands, 103–106 earnings-related pension systems, 120–22 economic security index (ESI), 63, 64 efficiency, 123
efficiency hypothesis, 9
employability, 108–11
Europact, 2
European exchange rate mechanism (ERM), 163
European Monetary Union (EMU), 27, 96, 118, 121
Eurozone debt crisis, 94
exports, 13–14
financial crisis impact of, 7–8
reactive policy strategies see reactive policy strategies responses to, 8–10, 14–17, 18, 101
fiscal discipline, 49
fiscal drag, 47
GDP growth rates, 27, 28
Germany, 2, 4, 8
exports, 13, 14
impact of the financial crisis, 147, 149
Keynesian interventions, 15
labour market related policies, 16, 23, 29–30
Index

Germany (cont’d)
reactive policy strategies, 27, 29–30, 33, 34, 35, 36
short-time work, 138, 141–3, 145–6, 152, 153, 156, 157
spending cuts, 17
unemployment, 12, 13, 28, 30
unemployment insurance, 145–6

health care policy, 161
England, 162, 164–8, 173–5
Italy, 119, 122–4, 128, 162, 168–73, 174–5
Netherlands, 111–12
NHS system type, 164
USA, 60, 62, 63

IMF intervention: Ireland, 91, 92, 94, 95 institutional change, 102, 105–106, 108
Ireland, 3
baby boom, 83
banking crisis, 91–2
Catholic Church, 80, 81
tax system, 88, 89
changes to social security programmes 1980–87, 87 debt servicing, 85, 89 economic globalization, 80, 81, 91, 94, 96 EU/IMF intervention, 91, 92, 94, 95 fiscal retrenchment, 79, 88, 89–90, 92–5, 96 growth of social security programmes during the 1970s, 84 key indicators: 1980–88, 86; 2008–10, 91
Keynesian interventions, 82, 96
migration patterns, 83 political instability, 88, 96 property boom and bust, 91 social expenditure as percentage of GDP, 81, 82 social partnership model, 81, 95 social policy development, 80–82 social security retrenchment 2008–2011, 93
spending cuts, 92
tax system, 88, 89
Thatcherism, 88, 90

Italy, 3–4, 117–18
Berlusconi era, 126–31, 172–3 decentralization, 122–3, 128, 129, 169, 171–2
European Monetary Union (EMU), 118, 121, 132 health care reforms, 122–4, 169–73, 174–5
impact of the financial crisis, 147, 149, 163–4 labour market reform, 127

Long Term Care (LTC) Fund, 129 managed competition, 123–4, 170–71
National Health Service, 119, 128, 162, 168–9 pension reform from earnings-related to contributory system, 120–22 policy stalemate in the 1980s, 119–20 regional deficits, 128, 170, 171
response to financial crisis, 133
retirement age, 130
short-time work, 138, 141–5, 150–52, 155–7
social assistance and social services, 120, 124–6, 129 social pacts, 128, 132, 172
spending cuts, 129, 130
unemployment protection, 130–31, 143–5 welfare reforms in the 1990s, 120, 131–2

Keynesian interventions, 9, 14, 31
Germany, 15
Ireland, 82, 96
labour market related policies, 15, 16, 23, 29–30, 31, 32–3, 106
see also short-time work liberal market economies, 139
managed competition, 123–4, 170–71
mixed market economies, 139–40 monetary policy, 14, 15
Australia, 49
national debt, 2
National Health Service (NHS) see health care policy Netherlands, 3, 8
employability policy, 108–11
exports, 13, 14
GDP, 102
health care policy, 111–12
institutional change, 105–106, 108 labour market policies, 106
private financing, 107, 111, 112, 113 sickness and disability policy, 103–106 social rights, 109–108, 113 social security expenditure, 106, 107
spending cuts, 17
unemployment, 12, 13, 102
welfare state reforms of the 1980s and 1990s, 103–107 workfare, 103, 105, 107, 109, 110, 112, 113
NHS see health care policy Nordic countries, 2
see also Denmark; Sweden oil price shocks, 1, 42, 48–9, 82, 84, 85
one-off social security payments, 45, 52
partial unemployment, 16, 29, 109–10
see also short-time work
path dependence theory, 25–6, 35, 101, 102 pensioners, 1, 2, 50–51 see also retirement age; retirement incomes policy performance evaluation, 123 poverty rates: USA, 64–7
private financing, 107, 111, 112, 113 progressive change, 7 public opinion, 9, 10–12, 18 external crises and taxpayer inspection, 47 public sector deficit, 47
reactive policy strategies, 47
public spending, 47
see also spending cuts
reactive policy strategies, 24–5
convergence theory, 26
Germany, 27, 29–30, 33, 34, 35, 36
impact of the financial crisis, 27–9 methodological aspects of comparative studies, 26–7, 36
path dependence theory, 25–6, 35
Sweden, 27, 31–3, 34, 35, 36
United Kingdom, 27, 30–31, 33–5, 36
recession, 9
Australia, 49–51
USA, 64–9
reforms see welfare state reform remuneration systems, 123
retirement age, 1
Australia, 54
Germany, 30
Italy, 130
retirement incomes policy
Australia, 50–51
earnings-related and contributory systems, 120–22 Italy, 120–22
savings, 2
self-employment, 110
short-run stabilization policy, 45
short-time work, 137–8
Austria, 138, 141–3, 147, 152, 154–5, 156, 157
before the economic crisis, 141–3 conjunctural and structural crises, 139, 141
coordinated market economies, 139
Germany, 138, 141–3, 145–6, 152, 153–156, 157
Italy, 138, 141–5, 150–52, 155–7
liberal market economies, 139
mixed market economies, 139–40
sickness and disability policy: Netherlands, 103–106
skills and training, 109–10, 111
social rights, 101–102
Netherlands, 103–108, 113
social risks, 1, 101, 102, 110, 112, 113
employability, 108
spending cuts, 1, 18–19
Denmark, 17
Germany, 17
Ireland, 92
Italy, 129, 130
Netherlands, 17
United Kingdom, 17
Sweden, 2, 8
exports, 13, 14
reactive policy strategies, 27, 31–3, 34, 35, 36
response to financial crisis, 17
unemployment, 12, 13, 28
tax revenues, 47 taxpayer inspection, 47
Thatcherism, 88, 90, 163, 165–6 training and skills, 109–10, 111
unemployment, 7, 9
Australia, 42–4
country comparisons, 12–13, 27–8
employability, 108–11
labour market related policies, 15, 16, 23, 29–30, 31, 32–3, 106
Netherlands, 12, 13, 102
partial unemployment, 16, 29, 109–10
see also short-time work
unemployment insurance
Austria, 147, 148
Germany, 145–6
Italy, 130–1, 143–5
USA, 59, 68, 70–71
United Kingdom, 2, 4, 8
economic crises, 162–3, 164
exports, 13, 14
labour market related policies, 16, 23, 31
National Health Service, 162, 164–8, 173–5
public support for the welfare state, 11, 12
reactive policy strategies, 27, 30–31, 33–5, 36
response to financial crisis, 15–16, 17
spending cuts, 17
Thatcherism, 163, 165–6
unemployment, 12, 13, 28
USA, 3, 8
Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 60, 61 American Dream, 63, 64 anti-poverty schemes, 60
banking sector bail-outs, 69
Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP), 62 circumstantial constraints impeding social reform, 73–4 Index

deterioration of labour market conditions, 62–3 Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), 60, 61, 62, 63
exports, 13, 14
Food Stamps, 60, 61, 67
Great Depression, 69, 70
Great Recession (2007–09), 64–9 health care reform, 74
institutional constraints impeding social reform, 74–5 invisibility of social programmes, 74
Medicaid, 60, 62, 63
Medicare, 60
New American Graduation Initiative, 72
Obama administration, 69–73 polarization of politics, 73 pro-business interests, 75
public support for the welfare state, 11, 12 Recovery Act, 70, 71–2, 73 rising economic insecurity, 63–4 shift to the right, 73
social policy, 59
Social Security Act (1935), 60
Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), 67, 68 tax breaks, 74
Tea Party movement, 74, 75
Temporary Assistance with Needy Families (TANF), 61, 68
unemployment, 12, 13
unemployment insurance, 59, 68, 70–71
varieties of capitalism (VoC), 25, 138, 139, 140 wage reductions 1
war-time experience, 47 welfare state reform impact of the financial and economic crisis, 7–8, 101, 117 institutional change, 102, 105–106
  public opinion and, 9, 10–12, 18
  reactive policy strategies see reactive policy strategies
  short-run stabilization policy, 45 windows of opportunity, 24, 101, 102, 110 workfare, 103, 105, 107, 109, 110, 112, 113