Index

abuse; by adolescents, 329; alcohol and, 8; club drugs and, 238; mothers and drug, 162, 163; pharmacists and drug, 123, 128; prescriptions and, 20; recognition of, 14; recovery from, 344; therapeutic communities and drug, 336; violence and, 280

Adams, Samuel Hopkins: as reformer, 14 addiction, 127, 129, 159–72, 330–1; alcohol and, 96; circumventing treatment and, 354–5; controlled use phase of, 205–7, 233–5; definition of, 81; disease model of, 211; elements of cessation, 355–7; employment and, 99; frequency of, 10; heroin and, 70–1, 75, 83–4, 109; identity and, 353; infrequency of, 10; initiation, 91, 109; junkie phase of, 210–11; losing control over, 207–8, 235–7; medicalization of, 380–1; methadone maintenance and, 344–50; methamphetamine and, 235–7; morphine and, 10, 11; opium, 11; pharmaceuticals and, 190; quitting, 70–1, 99–100, 190–1, 200, 237–8; race and, 80–6; size of habit, 83, 117, 164, 167, 209, 253; steroids and, 115; stigmatization of, 351–2; tolerance and, 126–7, 244; treatment and, 336–43; veterans and, 10, 28–9 adolescents and young adults, 72–9, 131–9, 141–51, 152–60, 184–92, 199, 215–23, 240–8, 266–76; 237–334, 370–7; arrest and, 328; binge drinking and, 370–7; drug abuse by, 329; rates of drug consumption, 328–9

African Americans: cocaine use and, 12–13, 102–11, 193–202, 224–30; crack use and, 266–76; drug robbery and, 285–93; heroin use and, 80–6, 193–202, 205–12, 224–30, 266–76; jail and, 105, 380; marijuana and, 42; percentage of population as new inmates in, 73; war on drugs and, 380; women, 257–65

Alcoholics Anonymous, 344–50; circumventing treatment and, 354–5; disease model and, 347, 353–7; meetings of, 361–2; skepticism toward, 353–5

American Indians: alcohol use and, 94–100; war on drugs and, 380

Anslinger, Harry J., 42, 379, 393 arrest: adolescents and, 328; corruption and, 299; dealing and, 109, 110; domestic violence and, 108; drug abuse monitoring (ADAM), 286; drug courts and, 360, 385; drug testing and, 309; drug use and, 208, 286; effects on children, 168; family and, 109; fear of, 196; gang membership and, 267, 269, 270, 273–4; history of, 28; marijuana possession and, 76, 175, 390;

INDEX

protection from, 137; robbery and, 109; sexual assault and, 109; steroids and, 114, 117; therapeutic communities and, 337; threat of, 27; unconcern about, 136

Asians and Asian Americans: Asian Pacific Americans, 87–93; Chinese immigrants, 11, 41–2; discrimination against Chinese, 11, 12, 41–2; methamphetamine use and, 87–93 assimilative reform, 36, 50; drug courts as, 359–68

Becker, Howard S., 30, 43, 49, 50, 78
Biernacki, Patrick, 264, 352, 356
Brent, Reverend Charles: as reformer, 15
Bryan, William Jennings: as reformer, 36 careers: bottoming out, 125, 211; controlled use phase of, 205–7; in deviance, 122, 125, 189; drug addiction, 210; drug dealing, 138; in drug use, 28, 201, 203, 204, 211, 251, 280, 293; of eating disorders, 151; effects on legitimate, 125; gang banging, 76, 267; illness, 345; injection, 84; junkie phase to, 301; Mexican, 295–304, 305–7; violence and, 298, 305–7 children, 174–83; drug education of, 316–26; effects of arrest on, 168; older, 80–6, 193–202; visiting parents in jail, 108 civil rights, 103, 104, 368, 380

Clintons, Bill, xiv

cocaine: African Americans and, 12, 13, 193–202, 224–30, 277–84; Coca Cola, 11, 16; consumption rates and, 56; distribution of, 134–5; free base, 20; instrumental use of, 141–51; medical history and, 12, 13; medical use of, 13–14, snorting of, 148–50, 249–55 Cocaine Anonymous, 353; circumventing treatment and, 354–5; disease model and, 347, 353–7; skepticism toward, 353–5

D.A.R.E.: evaluation of, 317–18; future of, 324; history of, 316–26; politics and 321 day labor, 84–5
death, 267–8, 273–5, 295–9; guns and, 282; illicit drug markets and, 305–11; Mexican cartels and, 295–304; murder and prison, 288 decriminalization: future of, 389–90; legal regulation, 381; marijuana and, 381; medicalization, 380–1; NORMIL, 381; social policy and, 302, 381 discrimination: against African Americans, 12, 13, 42; against Chinese, 11, 12, 41–2 disease paradigm: addiction and the, 170, 211, 347; alcohol and the 211; AA/NA and, 347, 353–7; “biopsychological disease” and, 360; drug courts and the, 359–68; drug epidemics as, 57–60; ex-addicts and the, 44; heroin and the, 170, 211; illness model of drug use and the, 362–3; legal definition of addiction as, 361; medicalization and the, 380–1; pathological view of behavior and the, 361; vitamin deficiency and 7 domestic violence, 92, 107, 108, 109, 163–5; abuse and, 366; alcohol use and, 8; drug irritability and, 92; isolation and, 164; substance abuse courts of, 366, 367 drug cessation: alcohol and 99–100; circumventing treatment and, 354–5; ecstasy and 237–8; 70–1, 99–100, 190–1, 200; elements of, 355–7; heroin and 70–1; heroin and cocaine, 200; jail and, 75; methadone maintenance and, 344–50; pharmaceuticals 190–1; policies toward, 357–8; post-addict identity and, 353–4; treatment communities and, 336–43; without treatment, 351–8 drug courts, 359–68; arrests and, 360, 365; expansion to other crimes and, 364–7; guiltless justice and, 364; history of, 360–1; jails and, 360, 362, 365 drug dealing: and being robbed, 282–3; arrest for, 109, 110; cartels and, 295–304; cocaine and, 72–9, 134–5, 249–55; college and, 131–9; economy of, 266–76; ethics of, 197; fear of getting caught and, 136–8; gang-related, 76–7, 198; heroin and, 72–9; jail for, 109, 110; legitimate work and, 272–3; lifestyles of, 251–4; marijuana and, 249–55; men and, 73–9; 131–9, 253–4, 266–76; motivations for, 132–8, 254–5; paraphernalia and, 262–3; prestige and, 135, 198; profits from, 266–76; stratiﬁcation hierarchies, 198, 259–60, 265, 268–9, 272–3; street crews for, 198–9, 259–60, 269; systemic violence and, 280–3, 295–9, 305–11; women and, 164, 166, 253, 257–65 drug education, 316–26, 327–34; evaluation of, 317–18; future of, 324; harm reduction and, 374–6; history of, 316–26; politics and 321 drug epidemics, 57–60; deﬁnition of, 57–8 drug lifestyles: the fast life and, 198, 251–4 drug robbery, 282–3; avoiding killing during, 288; target selection and, 288–9 drug scares, 41, 59; alcohol, 41; crack, 43, 58–9; hallucinogens, 43; marijuana, 42; media and, 394; opiates and cocaine, 42; opium, 41–2; potency of drugs, 330 drug testing: chemical analysis, 221–2; potency of, 330 drug use: adolescent rates of, 328–9; arrest and, 208; benefits of, 115–16, 126, 144–8, 179, 180, 181, 186–9, 242–6; binges, 83, 105, 132; consequences of, 332; demand reduction, 387–388; fad and fashion and, 17, 21, 56; fear of getting caught and, 117–18; financial concern of, 314, 333; marijuana), 242; approval of Ultram, 20; approval of Vioxx, xiii fetal alcohol syndrome, 8 federal drug administration (FDA): drug use: adolescent rates of, 328–9; drug testing: chemical analysis, 221–2; Gateway theory of drug use, 114, 331 gender: Men: drug dealers as, 73–9; 131–9, 253–4, 266–76, 295–304; drug robbery and 285–93; gay men, 231–9; imprisonment and, 380; masculinity and, 152–60; therapeutic communities and, 336–43. Mixed: methadone maintenance and, 344–50; natural recovery and, 351–8. Women: Asian Pacific American methamphetamine users, 87–93; embodiment and, 141–51; female headed households, 102–11; femininity and alcohol use, 155–6, 158–9; motherhood and, 159–72 global drug prohibition, 391–9; crisis of, 395–7; future of, 398; history of, 390–3; opposition to, 396; spread of, 395; United Nations influence on, 395; war on drugs and, 386–7, 388 guns: cartels and, 285–301; battles from, 293; violence and, 267–8, 270, 273–4; entering, 75; exiting, 77; extortion by, 270–1; guns and 75, 76; jail and, 75, 76; Latino/a, 73–4; life and, 89, 90, 110; for dealing, 109; gangs and, 73; African Americans and, 105; highest percentage in the world in, 43; increasing cells for drug users in, 43; networks, 65–8, 81, 193–202, 224–30 harm reduction, xv, 380; alcohol and, 375–6; collegiate drinking and, 375–6; drug use, 222–3, 226–9; drug education and, 327–34; legal regulation, 381; policies of abstinence versus reality, 373–4; proactive health strategies and, 217–22, 226–9; public health and, 382–4; therapeutic communities and, 336–43; zero tolerance and, 332, 374–5 harrison act, 12–13, 14, 379 heroin, 64–71, 80–6, 159–72, 193–202, 205–12, 224–30, 277–84; hypodermic injection of, 64–71, 75, 83–4, 193–202, 224–30; medical history, 12; natural recovery from, 352; network formation for buying, 67; robbery of, 285–93; snorting of, 66, 75 HIV/AIDS, 20, 68–70, 84, 195, 200, 225, 240–1, 381; Center for Disease Control and, 84; fear of contracting from sharing needles, 281; methadone maintenance and, 344–50; needle exchange and, 388; prevention strategies for, 229–30 homelessness, 80–6, 92 homosexuality, 209, 211, 231–9 injecting (intravenous) drug users (IDUs): gang abandonment in, 75; gang affiliation and, 74; gangs and, 73; highest percentage in the world in, 43; increasing cells for drug users in, 43; networks, 65–8, 81, 193–202, 224–30 jail/prison: addicted mothers and, 168; African Americans and, 105; circulating through, 108; corruption in, 299; crack cocaine and, 392; danger from violent crime, 279; detoxification in, 109; domestic abuse and, 107, 108; drug cessation in, 75; drug courts and, 360, 362, 365; drug violations and, 392; employment after, 270; ethnic categorization of inmates in, 73; family and, 89, 90, 110; for dealing, 109; gangs and, 75, 76, 267, 268, 297; mandatory arrest laws and, 314, 333; marijuana and, 392; murder and, 288; nonviolent offenders and, 396; overcrowded, 360; overcrowding and, 380, 382; percentage of Americans in, 388;

INDEX

marijuana, 131–9, 174–83; arrest for, 76, 272; war on drugs and, 392

Leary, Timothy, 29

Leaves, 6; media: campaigns, 327; demonizing messages and, the, 394; fears of minorities fueled by, the, 379; magnification of drug scares by the, 43, 57; sensationalism of crack by the, 59; sensationalism of methamphetamine by the, 57; sensationalism of Oxycontin by the, 21 medical marijuana, 240–8; federal prohibition of, 392; legalization of, xv; medicalization, 380–1 men: drug dealers as, 73–9; 131–9, 253–4, 266–76, 295–304; drug robbery and 285–93; gay men, 231–9; imprisonment and, 380; masculinity and, 152–60; therapeutic communities and, 336–43 marijuana and, xv; drug prohibition and, 390–3; legal future of, 389–90; history of global legalization: decriminalization, 381; legal statutes: Anti-Opium Den Ordinance of 1875, 41; Comprehensive Drug Abuse and Control Act of 1970, 14, 43; Harrison Act, 14–15; Marijuana Tax Act, 14; Pure Food and Drug Act, 14; Webb-Kenyon Act, 14 legalization: decriminalization, 381; future of, 389–90; history of global drug prohibition and, 390–3; legal regulation, 381; marijuana and, xv; medicalization, 380–1; NORML, 381

Levine, Harry, 59

mandatory minimum sentencing, 58, 59, 333, 379, 382; incarceration and, 59, 314, 333, 380, 382, 385 marijuana, 131–9, 174–83; arrest for, 76, 175, 390; consumption rates of, 56; crisis of cannabis prohibition, 397; diminished stigma of, 175; imprisonment for, 392; medical, 240–8; medicalization, 380–1; NORML, 381; oral ingestion of, 240–8; potency of, 330; robbery of 285–93; smoking of, 75–8, 131–9, 174–83, 240–8, 249–55

Marijuana Tax Act, 14

Marx, Karl: drugs as false consciousness, 1; history of mind alteration, 1 media: campaigns, 327; demonizing messages and the, 394; fears of minorities fueled by the, 379; magnification of drug scares by the, 43, 57; sensationalism of crack by the, 59; sensationalism of methamphetamine

Obama, Barack: opposed to legalization, xv; pre-election debate, xiv opium and opiates: Afghanistan and, 388–9; hypodermic injection of, 11; importation of, 10; laudanum, 10; medical benefits of, 10, 11; methadone maintenance and, 344–50; patent medicines and, 10, 11; persecution of Chinese and, 11, 41–2 oral ingestion as a route of administration: alcohol and, 152–60; club drugs, and, 215–23, 231–9; marijuana and, 240–8; methadone maintenance and, 344–50; pharmaceuticals and, 120–30, 141–51, 184–92; steroids and, 116

panhandling, 85, 210, 211

Partnership for a Drug-Free America, xv patent medicines: cocaine, 11, 12, 13, 14; curbs on narcotics in, 14; heroin, 11, laudanum, 11; morphine, 14; narcotics, 14; opiates, 10, 11, 12; physicians conflict with, 14

PCP: rise of, 19; robbery of, 285–93; selling, 109, 110, 286; use of, 19, 56, 76, 114; violence and, 277, 278

Peele, Stanton, 353, 354

pharmaceuticals, 20, 120–30; abuse of, 20; diversion, 21–2, 145; increasing variety of, 21; instrumental use of, 141–51, 184–92; oral ingestion of, 120–30, 141–51, 184–92; Oxycontin discovery and abuse, 20–21; perceived safety of, 21, 184–92; theft of, 22 policy: 1960s and drug, 379; 1980s and drug, 379–80; abstinence versus reality, 373–4; benefits of global drug prohibition, 393–4; critiques of current, 386–7; debates over, 380; decriminalization, 381; demand reduction, 386–90; deterrence and, 380, 382–4; drug cartels and, 301–2; drug demonization messages and, 394–5; drug education and, 316–26; evaluation of drug education, 317–21; future of, 384, 398; global drug prohibition and, 391–9; gun availability and, 303; harm reduction and, xv, 380; history of related to drugs, 378–9; imprisonment and, 380; incarceration versus treatment, 383–4; legal

INDEX

of the, 386–90; decriminalization, 381; deterrence and the, 380, 382–4; drug demonization messages and the, 394–5; future of the, 384, 398; global drug prohibition and the, 391–9; global scale of the, 386–7, 388; history of drug prohibition and the, 390–3; imprisonment and, 392; incarceration rates and the, 380; legal regulation, 381; mandatory minimum sentencing and the, 58, 59, 333, 379, 382; media and the, 394; medicalization, 380–1; NORML, 381; opposition to the, 396; policy debates over the, 380; policy recommendations, 301–2; politics of the, 395; prohibition and the, 382; systemic violence and the, 280–3, 295–9; United Nations influence on the, 395 women: Asian Pacific American Methamphetamine users, 87–93; embodiment and, 141–51; female headed households, 102–11; femininity and alcohol use, 155–156, 158–9; motherhood and, 159–72

working class, 73–9, 94–100, 240–8

Wiley, Dr. Harvey Washington: as reformer, 16 zero tolerance: relaxation of policies for Pharmacists, 129; rejection of as policy, 332, 374–5, 387

Zinberg, Norman, xvi, 26, 27, 245, 247, 352