Index

Note: Italicized page numbers refer to boxes, figures and tables active listening, 86–93. See also compassionate communication

A
acknowledging in, 89
case studies, 87, 90–3
giving permission in, 89
human grief in pet loss and, 87–8
normalizing in, 89
vs. passive listening, 18–9
techniques, 86–7
traumatic loss and, 88
advocate-best friend relationship, 65 agency, 48
agency-based decision making, 44 agenda items, 143
ambiguous loss, 68–9
analogue-to-digital theory, 179–80 anesthesia, consent for, 53–5 anger, 69–70
  dealing with, 115–8
dissipating, 117–8
  empathy as strategy in deal with, 116 anger, feelings of, 172t animal law, 48
animal welfare, 109–10
announcement, in media release, 162 anticipatory grief, 73–4, 104
appraisals, 132–3
appreciative listening, 18 assertiveness skill, 173–5 attending, listening and, 16 attire of doctors, 39–40 average transaction per vet (ATV), 113

B BACP (British Association for Counseling and Psychotherapy), 95–6 battery, 47
Befrienders Worldwide, 184t beneficence, principle of, 58 body language, 11f
body movements, 10–1
body zones, 11
bond mapping, 93–4
bond-centred veterinary practice (BCVP) protocols, 80–5
  relationships and, 79
book of remembrance, 95–6
bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE), 156–7
British Association for Counseling and Psychotherapy (BACP), 95–6, 97
BSE (bovine spongiform encephalopathy), 156–7 burial, 106, 138b

C
Childline, 98
child-parent relationship, 65
Cinnamon Trust, 98

communication, 1–22
background and origins of, 1–2
circular model, 5–6
clerks, 41–4
circular communication model, 5–6 clients, 41–4
communication of mistakes, 119
complaints, 120–1
confidentiality of data, 41
gathering information from, 41–2
giving information to, 42–4 impressions of doctors’ appearance, 39–40
informed, 110–2
informed decision making and, 42–4
as source of stress, 169t clinical trials, consent for, 56–8 closed questions, 14 closed-circuit television images, 41 colleagues, communication with, 127–47
appraisals, 132–3
delegation, 134
exit interview, 133–4
induction schemes, 131–2
interpractice communication, 145–7
leader, 128–9
mentoring, 131–2
motivation, 136
practice meetings, 142–4
recruiting new members, 130–1
replacing members, 130–1
reporting structure, 144–5
rotas, 145
staff suggestion scheme, 139–42
types of people in, 130
commercial burial, 138b
communication, 1–22
background and origins of, 1–2
circular model, 5–6
cultural context, 21
definitions of, 3–4
importance in healthcare, 2–3 interpractice, 145–7
listening, 15–20
non-verbal, 7–13
skill acquisition, 4
skills, 3
verbal, 13–5
communication models, 4–7 cyclical process, 6–7 linear model, 4–5
communication of mistakes, 118–22
apology, 122
guidelines for coping with client complaints, 120–1
handling, 121
health care professionals, 119–20
medical errors, 118
patients and clients, 119
systems vs. human approach, 122
compassionate communication, 62–98
active listening, 86–93 bond-centred veterinary practice and, 80–5 continuing care clinics, 95–6 continuing professional development, 97
empathy, 86
human emotions and, 66–8 human-companion animal bond and, 63–5 pet bereavement support, 95–6 pet loss support groups, 96–7 quality-of-life indicators, 93–4 resources, 97–8 responsibility grief and, 74–8
skills, 86
vulnerability factors and, 78–80
web sites, 97–8
comprehensive listening, 17–8 confidentiality, 41–2 consent, 47–58
age limit for, 48
competence to give, 50–6
vs. contract, 48
for euthanasia, 55–6, 57f implied, 56
pro forma for consent form, 53–4, 57f process, 52–3
Index

consent (continued)
proxy, 48, 50
refusal of, 52
for research, 56–8
surrogate, 48, 50
written, 54–5
consent form, 53–4, 57f, 138b consultation, 27–38
building relationship, 34–7
closing, 37–8
context, establishing, 29
developing rapport in, 36–7
environment, 27–9
establishing rapport with clients and animal, 29–30
gathering information in, 31–2
background information, 31–2
client's perspective, 31–2
clinical perspective, 31
giving information in, 32–4
amount and type of information, 32–3 incorporating client's perspective, 33
shared decision making, 33–4
understanding and recall, 33
guide to, 28f
identifying reason for consultation, 30–1
initiating, 29–31
involving animals in, 37
involving clients in, 37
non-verbal behaviour, 35–6
physical examination, 37
preparation, 27–9
professionalism in, 40
structure of, 34
contact information, in media release, 162
continuing care clinics, 95–6 continuing professional development (CPD), 97 contracts, 41
vs. consent, 48
cost, communicating, 112–5 cremation, 106, 138b critical listening, 18
critical thinking skills, 149–50 Cruse Bereavement Care, 98 culture and communication, 21–2 D
Data Protection Act of 1984, 41 decision making, 42–7 agency-based, 44
informed, 42–4
models of, 44
in practice, 44–7
denial, 70
depression, 70
discriminative listening, 17
E
electronic media, 157
emotional blackmail, 52 emotional dimension of renewal, 172 emotional social support, 180 emotional support protocols, 80–5 emotions, 66–8
associated with companion animals, 67
components of, 66
empathy, 80, 86, 116
end-of-life communication. See also euthanasia client factors, 101
overview of, 100–1
steps in, 102–5
care and treatment priorities, 105 delivering information, 104 establishing plan, 105 establishing what client knows, 103 handling information, 103 preparing for discussions, 103 responding to emotions, 104 veterinary factors, 101
environmental cues, 12–3
errors, medical, 118–22
apology for, 122
common, 118–22
definition of, 118
effects on veterinary practitioner, 122
factors in, 118
guidelines for coping with client complaints, 120–1
handling, 121
incidence of, 118
estimate sheets, 114
euthanasia, 105–9. See also end-of-life communication animal welfare and, 109–10 consent for, 55–6, 57f
emotional support protocols, 80–5 handling situations after, 107–9 handling situations during, 106–7 owners’ guilt and, 70–1
pre-euthanasia appointment, 106
responsibility grief and, 75
standard operating procedure for, 138–9b accidental injection, 139b consent form, 138b
cremation or burial, 138b disposal, 138b
hospitalized cases, 139b payment, 139b
procedure, 138–9b
records, 139b
storage, 139b
exit interview, 133–4
expert patients, 112
expressive writing, 177–80
analogue-to-digital theory, 179–80
inhibition theory, 179
long-term benefits of, 177–8
eye contact, 10

F
facial expressions, 8–9 fear, 70
fear, feelings of, 172f feeling words, 172f
feelings, types of, 172f financial discussions, 112–5 focused questions, 15

g
gaze, 10
grief, 69–78
anger and, 69–70
anticipatory, 73–4, 104
cognitive reactions, 73t confusion and, 70
definition of, 69
denial and, 70
depression and, 70
emotional reactions, 73t fear and, 70
loss of companion animal and, 69–78 physical reactions, 73t psychological reactions, 73t regret and, 71
responsibility, 62, 74–8
responsibility and, 72
shock and, 72
social reactions, 73t
guardians, 48

H
handshake, 40
head movements, 10
headline, in media release, 162 helplines, 183–4
human emotions, 66–8
human-animal bond, 43f human-companion animal bond (HCAB), 63–5 emotional needs and, 79–80 facets of, 65–6
loss of companion animal, 68–9

I
illness trajectory mapping, 93–4
implied consent, 56
induction schemes, 131–2
informational social support, 180 informed clients, 110–2 informed consent, 47–58 animal law and, 48
for clinical trials, 56–8 communication of risk, 49–50 competence to give consent, 50–6
components of, 49
implied consent, 56
process, 47
informed decision making, 42–4 inhibition, 179
injuries, decision making and, 45 inner freedom, 169
instrumental social support, 180 intercultural communication, 21–2 interpersonal relationships, workplace, 169
interpersonal touch, 12 interpractice communication, 145–7. See also communication factors in, 146
   out-of-hours practice, 147
   referral pack, 146–7
interview
   professionalism in, 40
   skills, 164–6
intimate space, 11
introductions, formal, 41
isolation, coping with, 181
interview
   professionalism in, 40
   skills, 164–6
intimate space, 11
introductions, formal, 41
isolation, coping with, 181

J
justice, principle of, 58

L
leader, 122
leading questions, 15
linear communication model, 4–5 listening, 15–20. See also communication active, 18–9
   attending and, 16
   characteristics associated with message, 20 characteristics of listeners, 19–20 as communications skill, 17
   definitions of, 16
   functions of, 16–7
   guidelines to improve, 19–20 metacommunication and, 19 overview, 16
   passive, 18–9
   silence and, 20
   types of, 17–8
   appreciative, 18
   comprehensive, 17–8
   critical, 18
   discriminative, 17
   therapeutic, 18
listening, active, 86–93. See also communication acknowledging in, 89
   case studies, 87, 90–3
   giving permission in, 89
   human grief in pet loss and, 87–8
   normalizing in, 89
   techniques, 86–7
   traumatic loss and, 88
   loss, 68–9. See also grief ambiguous, 68–9
   primary, 68
   secondary, 68
   symbolic, 69
M
mad cow disease, media coverage of, 156–7 mandatory reporting, 110 media, 155–66
   career development and, 155
   definition of, 157
   interview skills, 164–6
   mad cow disease in, 156–7
   press coverage, 156
   press release, 162–4
   science reporting in, 155–6 veterinary shows, 155
media release, 162–4
medical errors, 118–22
   apology for, 122
   common, 118–22
   definition of, 118
   effects on veterinary practitioner, 122
   factors in, 118
   guidelines for coping with client complaints, 120–1
   handling, 121
   incidence of, 118
   meetings, practice, 142–4 action points, 143–4
   agenda, 143
   criticisms of, 144
   minutes, 143–4
   scheduling, 143
   types of, 142–3
   mental dimension of renewal, 172
   mentoring, 131–2
Index

metacommunication, 19
minutes (meetings), 143–4
Missing My Pet, 88
Missing Pets Bureau, 98 mistakes, communication of, 118–22
   apology, 122
   guidelines for coping with client complaints, 120–1
   handling, 121
health care professionals, 119–20
medical errors, 118
patients and clients, 119
systems vs. human approach, 122
motivation, 136

N
name badges, 40
neglect of animals, signs of, 109–10 non-accidental injury (NAI), 109–10
non-verbal behaviour, 35–6 non-verbal communication, 7–13. See also communication; verbal communication body movements and posture, 10–1
   components of, 8
   environmental cues, 12–3
   facial movements and expressions, 8–9
   functions of, 7
   gaze and eye contact, 10
   head movements, 10
   interpersonal touch, 12
   paralinguistic features, 12
   personal appearance, 12
   proximity and orientation, 11f in public speaking, 153 time, 13
   voice, 12
notes to editor, in media release, 162

O
online pet memorials, 97
open questions, 14
out-of-hours practice, 147
owner’s agent, 48
P
palliative care clinics, 95–6 paralinguistics, 12 parent-child relationship, 65 passive listening, 18–9 paternalism, 42
patients, 41–4, 110–2
   communication of mistakes, 119
   complaints, 120–1
   confidentiality of data, 41
   gathering information from, 41–2
   giving information to, 42–4
   impressions of doctors’ appearance, 39–40
   informed, 110–2
   informed decision making and, 42–4
   as source of stress, 169
personal appearance, 12
personal space, 11
pet bereavement support, 95–6
pet insurance, 115
pet loss support groups, 96–7. See also grief facilitator, 96–7
   practicalities, 96
   timing, 97
   traumatization in, 97
physical dimension of renewal, 172
physical examination, 37
posture, 10–1
practice meetings, 142–4
   action points, 143–4
   agenda, 143
   criticisms of, 144
   minutes, 143–4
   scheduling, 143
   types of meetings, 142–3
pre-euthanasia appointment, 106
press coverage, 156
press release, 162–4
price quote, 114
primary loss, 68
principle of beneficence, 58 principle of justice, 58 principle of non-maleficence, 58 print media, 157
probing questions, 15
professionalism, 39–41
appearance, 39–40
in consultation or interview, 40 formal introductions and, 41 name badges and, 40
proxy consent, 48, 50
psychological defence mechanism, 70 public space, 11 public speaking, 149–55. See also communication career opportunities and, 149 critical thinking skills and, 149–50 knowing audience in, 150–1 non-verbal communication with audience in, 153 preparing for, 150–1
presentation as consultation, 152–3 question-and-answer session, 154–5 rehearsing for, 151–2
topic in, 151
types of speakers, 149
visual aids, 153–4

Q
quality of life
decision making and, 46–7
illness trajectory mapping, 93–4 indicators, 93–4
question-and-answer session, 154–5
questioning skills, 13 questions, 13–5. See also verbal communication closed, 14
focused, 15
functions of, 13–4
leading, 15
open, 14
probing, 15
reflective, 15
types of, 13–4
quote, 114

R
radiographs, 41
referral pack, 146–7

reflective listening. See active listening reflective questions, 15 regret, 71
relationship-centered, 43, 102, 105, 121
reporting structure, 144–5
responsibility, 67, 72
responsibility grief, 62, 74–8 characteristics of, 75 communication demands on professionals, 77 dialectics of, 76f
euthanasia and, 75
measures for, 77–8 risk framing, 49
risks, communication of, 49–50 role conflict, 168
rotas, 145
Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS), 41
RSPCA Home for Life, 98

S
sadness, feelings of, 172f Samaritans, 184f
scheduling meetings, 143 science reporting, 155–6 secondary loss, 68
security, 67
self-defeating behaviours, 170–1 self-fulfilling prophecies, 170–1 self-management, 171–3
sentient property, 48
shock, 72
sibling-sibling relationship, 65 signposting, 34, 51
silence, 20
SMARTER objectives, 135
social connectedness, 182 social constructs, 181f social dimension of renewal, 172 social integration, 181f, 182 social relationships, 180–3 isolation and, 180–1
mortality and, 182
negative effects on health, 183 positive effects on health, 181–3 social space, 11
social support, 180, 181f spiritual dimension of renewal, 172
staff suggestion scheme, 139–42
benefits to members, 140–1 procedure for, 141–2 standard operating procedures (SOPs), 136–9 for euthanasia, 138–9b reasons for failure of, 137
written, 137
stress
sources of, 169t, 176
symptoms of, 170t
subheading, in media release, 162 suicide rates, 183
surgical procedure, consent for, 53–5 surrogate consent, 48, 50 symbolic loss, 69
T
teams, 127–47
appraisals, 132–3
delegation, 134
exit interview, 133–4
induction schemes, 131–2
interpractice communication, 145–7
leader, 128–9
mentoring, 131–2
motivation, 136
practice meetings, 142–4
recruiting new members, 130–1
replacing members, 130–1
reporting structure, 144–5
rotas, 145
staff suggestion scheme, 139–42
types of people in, 130
telephone support helplines, 183–4 terms of business, 41
therapeutic listening, 18 thought evaluation worksheet, 173f, 174f time, non-verbal communication and, 13 trauma, 177
treatment options, decision making and, 45–7 trust, 67, 79, 86
U undercharge for services, 114 unlawful surgery, 48
V
verbal communication, 13–5. See also communication; verbal communication public speaking, 149–55
questioning skills, 13
types of questions, 14–5 Vet Helpline, 184f
veterinarians and mass media, 160–4 goals, 160–1
interview skills, 164–6
media release, 162–4
press release, 162–4
stories, 161
television work, 158–60b veterinary consultation, 27–38
building relationship, 34–7
closing, 37–8
text, establishing, 29
developing rapport in, 36–7
environment, 27–9
establishing rapport with clients and animal, 29–30
gathering information in, 31–2
background information, 31–2
client’s perspective, 31–2
clinical perspective, 31
giving information in, 32–4
amount and type of information, 32–3
incorporating client’s perspective, 33
shared decision making, 33–4
understanding and recall, 33
guide to, 28f
identifying reason for consultation, 30–1
initiating, 29–31
involving animals in, 37
involving clients in, 37
non-verbal behaviour, 35–6
physical examination, 37
preparation, 27–9
professionalism in, 40
structure of, 34
veterinary practice, 127–47
  appraisals in, 132–3 delegation in, 134
  exit interview, 133–4
  induction schemes in, 131–2 interpractice communication, 145–7
  leader, 128–9
  mentoring in, 131–2
  motivation in, 136
  practice meetings, 142–4
  recruiting new members in, 130–1 replacing members in, 130–1 reporting structure, 144–5
  rotas, 145
  staff suggestion scheme, 139–42
  stress level and, 176–7
  types of people in, 130

video recording, consent from client, 41
visual aids, 153–4
voice, 12
vulnerability factors, 78–80

W
waiving fees, 114
web sites, 97–8
work alcoholism, 171
work constraints, 169f
work outcomes, 169f
workload, 169f
written consent, 54–5

Y
Young People’s Helpline, 98