CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors vii
Foreword xi
Garry L. Hagberg

Part I: Historical Foundations 1
1 Is Ethical Criticism a Problem? A Historical Perspective 3
   Paul Guyer

Part II: Conceptions of Ethical Content 33
2 Narrative and the Ethical Life 35
   Noël Carroll
3 A Nation of Madame Bovarys: On the Possibility and Desirability of Moral Improvement through Fiction 63
   Joshua Landy
4 Empathy, Expression, and What Artworks Have to Teach 95
   Mitchell Green

Part III: Literature and Moral Responsibility 123
5 “Solid Objects,” Solid Objections: On Virginia Woolf and Philosophy 125
   Paisley Livingston
6 Disgrace: Bernard Williams and J. M. Coetzee 144
   Catherine Wilson
Contents

7 Facing Death Together: Camus’s The Plague 163
    Robert C. Solomon

Part IV: Visual Art, Artifacts, and the Ethical Response 185

8 Staying in Touch 187
    Carolyn Korsmeyer

9 Susan Sontag, Diane Arbus, and the Ethical Dimensions of Photography 211
    David Davies

10 Ethical Judgments in Museums 229
    Ivan Gaskell

Part V: Music and Moral Relations 243

11 Così’s Canon Quartet 245
    Stephen Davies

12 Jazz Improvisation and Ethical Interaction: A Sketch of the Connections 259
    Garry L. Hagberg

Index 286