CEIR (Center for Exhibition Industry Research), 275
Celebrations, corporate events as, 170
Celebrities:
entertainment and festival event marketing with, 151–154 and entertainment industry, 141
Jay Lury’s use of, 42 promotion with, 82
at religious association events, 200
Center for Exhibition Industry Research (CEIR), 275
Center for Professional Leadership (ASAE), 275
Champions professional golfing tour, 102
Charitable organizations, 262–265
Charles, Prince, 56
Cheese run event, 64
Children’s Gasparilla Extravaganza, 182
China, 140
Chinese New Year Parade (Hong Kong), 100
Church of Scientology Celebrity Center, 200
CIC (Convention Industry Council), 275
Cirque du Soleil, 148, 149, 154
Cleopatra of Egypt, 31
Cleveland Indians, 2, 41, 143
Coachella, 147
Coca-Cola, xvi, 90, 259, 265–266
Coke Zero, 265–266
Coke Zero Studio, 265–266
Cold calls, 175
Cole, Cheryl, 265
Coliseum of Rome, xiii
Collaboration, 193
Commonwealth Games, 56–57, 139
Communication: of consumers and brands, 177–178
intercommunication, 3–4, 113, 159
with symbols, 29
technology for, 115–116
Community events, 174, 221
Community feedback, on festivals, 156
Community relationships, enhancing, 95
Compensation, for celebrity appearances, 152
Competitions, consumer, 94
Competitors:
advertising to counter, 80
for festivals, 143–144
and niche marketing, 257
types of, 51–53
Conference and Association World, 285
Conference and Expositions International, 285
Conference & Incentive Management, 285
Connectors, 126
Considine, Bob, 46
Consumers: behavior of, 20–21, 79, 124–127
communication with brands by, 177–178
in e-marketing, 112
of events, 21–22, 212–214, 220
as part of entertainment, 141 and producers, 212–214, 220
Consumer competitions, 94
Consumer culture, 32
Consumer orientation, 42–44
Consumer socialization, 34–35, 37
Consumption, xv–xvi, 121
Content, event, 71
Contests, 151
Continental Airlines, 98
Convene, 285
Convention Industry Council (CIC), 275
Conventions and Expositions, 286
Corporate and Incentive Travel, 286
Corporate culture, 164–167
Corporate events, 18–19
inclusiveness of planning, 171–174 internal, 167–169
media interest in, 174–176
Corporate event marketing, 163–183 and branding, 176–178
for cause-related events, 179–183 and corporate culture, 164–167 for corporate meetings, 169–171
inclusiveness of, 171–174
for internal events, 167–169 media interest in events, 174–176
Corporate Event Marketing Association, 184, 292
Corporate giving, 107
Corporate meetings, 169–171, 244–246
Corporate strategy, 165–166
Corporations, 164, 167, 186–192
Cost factors, for festivals, 145–147
CouachSurfing, 115
Couric, Katie, 153
Credibility (for events), 2–3
Crimson Hexagon, 279
Criticism, on social networks, 127
Cross-promotional opportunities, 104, 180
Cruise, Tom, 200 Culture:
corporate, 164–167
entertainments and festivals in, 138–139 of nonprofit associations vs. corporations, 186 Customers:
as focus of marketing, 40–42
older people as, 250–252 retaining, 84–85
Customer satisfaction, 13, 236–237
Event, 233
Direct competition, 52
Direct marketing, 128
Distributors, 173
DIY event marketing and planning, 243–244
Drucker, Peter F., 49
Duct Tape Marketing, 86, 290
E
Early adopters, 126
Eco-activism, 222
Ecology, 246–248
Edinburgh, Scotland, 17, 271–272
Edinburgh Festivals (organization), 162, 291
Edinburgh Festival of the Sea, 51
EDPA (Exhibit Designers and Producers Association), 275
E-event marketing, 111–135 analysis for, 122–124
customization, 121–122
importance of, 112–115
social network and website contact points, 128–129 with social networks, 124–127
sopapsulation of, 234–236 tactics, 129–135
and technological convergence, 115–116
with websites, 117–121
EIBTM, 256–257
Eiffel Tower, 217
Eisenstodt, Joan, 206
Electronic Marketing Group, 287
Electronic marketing services, 287–288
Elks (Benevolent and Fraternal Order of Elks), 195
E-mail marketing, 233
Emmi UK, 7
Emotional components (of events), 89
Engström, Jerry, 269
Entertainments, 18
at festivals, 147
festival vs., 139–140
in-home, 3
twenty-first century, 141
Entertainment and festival event marketing, 137–161 basics of, 157–158
with celebrities, 151–154
competition in, 143–144
cost factors, 145–147
in Edinburgh, Scotland, 271–272 for established vs. first-time events, 148–149 and festivals vs. entertainments, 139–140
location factors, 142–143
marketing entertainment at festivals, 147
media for advertising, 148
and origins of festivals, 138–139 performance appraisals for, 156–157 and social networking, 158–161 stunts, street promotion, and guerrilla marketing, 150–151
trademarks and logos in, 154–156 twenty-first century entertainment, 141
weather factors, 144–145
Index

Entertainment Industry Foundation, 153
Entertainment Marketing Letter, 286
Enthusiasm (for events), 2–3
ESCA (Exposition Service Contractors Association), 275
Established events, 148–149
Ethnic holidays, 70–71
Ethos (brand), 262–263
European Championship, 90
Evangelical religious events, 202–204 Events, 1–25. See also specific types advantages for brands of, 9–11 for aging population, 249–252 bringing marketing to people with, 11–12 creativity, excitement, and enthusiasm for, 2–3 economic value of, 17
   as everyday occurrences, 21–22 history as recording of, xii–xiv and intercommunication in marketing, 3–4 leveraging of, viii and marketing as reflection of society, 15–16
   in marketing mix, 6–8
   as marketing tools, 4–12
   need for, viii problems with, 59–63
   production and consumption of, 212–214 and public relations, 8–9 scope of marketing activities for, 22–24
   as transformational experiences, 13–15
   in twenty-first century, xv–xvi variety and diversity of, 17–21
   virtual, 241–243

Events, 286
Eventia, 26, 289
Eventium, 132
Event Magazine, 286
Event management, xii
Event Management, 26, 286, 289
Events market, saturation of, xi
Event Marketer, 136, 291
Event marketers, 55–57
Event marketing: and events as marketing tools, 4–12
   intercommunication, 3–4, 113
   as reflection of society, 15–16
   scope of activities, 22–24 trajectory of, 232
Event marketing associations and societies, 274–278 Event marketing case studies, 255–272
   birthday event of Malcolm Forbes, 257–259
   Coca-Cola, 265–266
   Edinburgh, Scotland, 271–272
   Fjällräven Classic, 269–270
   Gap, 263–265
   IMEX and EIBTM, 256–257
   The Jewish Museum, 270–271
   NFL Fan Fest, 268–269
   Olympic Games, 259–260
   PCMA, 267–268
   Sports Illustrated, 260–262
   Starbucks, 262–263
   Virgin Galactic, 266–267
   Event marketing periodicals, 285–287
Event marketing theory and practice, 49–85 event strategy formulation, 59–64
   five Ws of event marketing, 67–71
   and importance of strategy, 50–59 organizing information, 64–67
   six Ps of event marketing, 72–85
Event operatives, 84–85
Event planning, 215, 243–244
Event Scotland, 100
Eventsecrets, 26, 289
Event Solutions, 286
Event-specific networks, 128
Excitement (for events), 2–3
Executive management, 171
Exhibit Designers and Producers Association (EDPA), 275
ExhibitorOnline, 184, 292
Expectations, audience’s, 190 Experiences: firsthand vs. secondhand, 140
   importance of, 236–237
   primary vs. secondary, 141
   as products, 73–74
   transformational, 13–15, 73–74
   Experience economy, 13, 14, 66–67
   “The Experience Economy” (B.J. Pine II and J. H. Gilmore), 13
Expo 2010, 95
Exposition Service Contractors Association (ESCA), 275
Facebook, 234
   advertising on, 78, 134
   as broad marketing platform, 127 communication about festivals on, 158–161 criticism of, 239–240
   in Fjällräven Classic marketing, 270
   in history of marketing, 29
   influence of, 115
   on role of social media marketers, 114
   social events on, 223
   and spontaneous parties, 219
Facebook Adverts, 134
Facilities, 288
Family events, 214–218
Family marketing to, 42–43, 260–261
Family events, 214–218
Fan base, expanding, 44–46
Fan Fest, 268–269
FedEx, 93
Festivals, 18. See also Entertainment and festival
   event marketing
   competition for, 143–144
   cost factors of, 145–147
   entertainment at, 147
   locations of, 139–140
   media for advertising, 148
   in New York, New York, 52 origins of, 138–139
   price inflation at, 74
   weather factors of, 144–145
Festival de Cannes, 176
Festival Fringe, 271, 272
Field of Dreams (film), xvi

Film industry, 3
Finance divisions, 173–174
Firsthand experiences, 140
First-time events, 148–149
Fisher, Donald, 263
Fisher, Doris, 263
Five Ws of event marketing, 67–71
Fjällräven, 269
Fjällräven Classic, 269–270
Fjällräven Wilderness Weeks, 269
Flow management, 120
Focus groups, 171
Foot Locker, 151
Forbes, 257, 258
Forbes, Bettie Charles, 257
Forbes, Malcolm Stevenson, 257–259
Foursquare, 115
Franco, James, 129
Franz, Dennis, 153
Fraternals associations, 195–198
Freebies, 150
Freedom From Religion Foundation, 201
Freeman, Cathy, 33
Freemasons, 195–197
Friends of the Earth Day of Doing, 54
The Futurist, 254, 293

G
Gaëdal, Eddie, 2, 41
Gap, 263–265
Gates, Bill, 107, 111
Gathering of the Juggalos, ii
“Generations Online in 2009” (Pew Internet & American Life Project), 252 Geographic information, in online advertisements, 134–135
Gerry, Gordon, 87
Gilmore, J. H., 13, 14, 67
Glastonbury (music festival), 65, 142
Global brands, 98–100
Global Fund, 262–263
Global Green Alliance, 181
Global marketing, by religious organizations, 202–203
Global Venue TV, 273
Gloucester, England, 64
Glyndebourne Opera Festival, 73
Golf, sponsorship of, 102
Google, 121, 122, 230, 293
Google AdWords, 134
Google Alerts, 172
Google Analytics, 123, 172
Google Blogger, 114
Google Trends, 124
GPC (Green Power Conferences), 248
Graham, Billy, 202
Grand openings, 78, 174
Great North Run, 104
Great Run Series, 104
Great World Beer Festival, 52
Greece, 155
Green Business Expo Event, 11, 80
Green events, 246–248
Green Festival, 146
Green Power Conferences (GPC), 248
Green-washing, 246
Guerrilla marketing, 150–151
Gulbis, Natalie, 102

H
“Hail to the Redskins”, 45
Handheld devices, 115–116, 141, 220, 233
Hausmann, Richard, 95
Heineken, 10
Help the Homeless Walkathon, 154
High-impact marketing strategies, 40–42
History, events in, xiii–xiv
History of event marketing, 27–47 attention-seeking behavior, 38–40
brand building, 44–46
consumer orientation, 42–44
current trends, 47
and history of marketing, 28–37
market research and high-impact strategies, 40–42
H&M, 180
Holidays, 70–71
Homogeneous markets, 35–37
Hospitality opportunities for sponsors, 104
Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association International (HSMAI), 276
Hoyle, Leonard H., xi, xii
Humane Society, 196
Human interaction, viii
Human resource management, 172
Hurricane Katrina, 263

I
IACC (International Association of Conference Centers), 276
IAEE (International Association for Exhibitions and Events), 276
IKEA, 180
Image, 79–80, 85
IMEX (International Meetings Exhibition), 256–257
Imirage, E-business, 288
Impact International, 42
Impact measurements, sponsorship, 103–104
Impact Studio, 288
Incentive, 286
Incentives, sponsorship, 104–105
Incentive programs, corporate, 168–169, 245–246
Incentive Travel & Corporate Meeting, 286
Indirect competition, 53
Infiltration (of social networks), 129–130
InfoComm International, 276 Information: from advertising, 79–80
on event websites, 117, 234–235 organizing, 64–67
Information Strategies, 288
In-home entertainment, 3
In-kind sponsorship, 105–106
Innovation, diffusion of, 125–127
Innovators, 126
Interactive events, 268–269
Interactivity, of websites, 119
Intercommunication, 3–4, 113, 159
Internal corporate events:
in corporate marketing, 167–169 incentive programs, 168–169
inclusiveness of marketing, 171–174 management meetings, 170 product introductions, 170
sales meetings, 170–171
stockholders’ meetings, 171
training seminars, 169–170
Internal event marketing, 55–57
International Association for Exhibitions and Events (IAEE), 276
International Association of Conference Centers (IACC), 276
International events, sponsorship of, 98–100
International Festival and Events Association, 162, 291
International Grand Prix, 5
International Meetings Exhibition (IMEX), 256–257
International Olympic Committee (IOC), 90, 259, 260
International Special Events Society (ISES), 277
International UFO Congress (IUFOC), 222 Internet: and association events, 192–193
and concept of media, 121
in e-marketing, 112–113
older consumers’ use of, 251–252 purchasing behavior on, 131–132
replication of ideas on, 125–126
and scope of event marketing activities, 23–24
in social event marketing, 212
Internet marketing, 77–78
Internet News Bureau, 273
Invitations, wedding, 215–217
Involve, with websites, 119
In-your-face marketing, 151
IOC, see International Olympic Committee
iPhone, 233, 271
Ironwood Electronic Media, 288
ISES (International Special Events Society), 277
IUFOC (International UFO Congress), 222

J
Jack Morton Worldwide, viii, 23, 184, 292
Jantsch, John, 86, 290
The Jewish Museum, 270–271
Jitter Jam Social CRM, 279
Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children® Open, 197

K
Kerouac, Jack, 137
Keywords, 121, 122
Kofer, Philip, 48, 262, 289
Kruger, Barbara, 34

L
Las Vegas Speaks, 246
Levi, Joe, 86, 290
Lexus, 15
Life events, social event marketing for, 214–218
LIFT, 194
Limited negative, selection based on, 62
Links, on websites, 235
LinkedIn, 115, 234
Lithium, 279
Live events, see Events
LiveJournal, 115
Local holidays, 70–71
Location factors:
for association events, 191
of events, 71, 75–76
for festivals, 142–143
Logos, xiii, 92, 154–156
Lollapalooza, 10, 143–144
Los Angeles, California, 259
Loto-Québec, 107
Low-Internet users, 131–132
Luyer, Jay, 42–44
Marketing: brought to people by events, 11–12
consumer socialization in, 34–35 in early civilizations, 28–30
event management, xii
events as tools in, 4–12
formalization of, 28 history of, 28–37
intercommunications in, 3–4 Internet, 77–78
offline, 239–241
origins of modern practices, 30–33
as reflection of society, 15–16
today’s markets, 35–37
Marketing industry, 35
Marketing management, 172
Marketing mix, 6–8, 77–83, 239–241
Marketing orientation, xvi–xvii
Marketing Review, 286
Market research, 40–42
Market segments, 15, 121
Market Wire, 273
Marshall, George Preston, 44–46
Marx, Groucho, 185
Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc., 165
Mashable, 136, 254, 291, 293
Mass media, see Media
MasterCard, 102
Materialism, 37
Mavens, 126
Maxwell, Douglas, 197
MeC Meetings and Conventions, 286
Mechanics, of events, 84
Mechanical Contractors Association of America, 43–44
REACTIVS, 250
Religious associations, 20, 198–204
Religious Conference Management Association (RCMA), 278
Religious Conference Manager, 287
Religious festivals, 138, 143
Religious holidays, 70–71
Republican Party, 223 Research: for association events, 191
for corporate event marketing, 165–167 and performance appraisals of festivals, 157 on potential sponsors, 101, 102
Research on Demand, 279 Resources, 273–293
  electronic marketing services, 287–288
  event marketing associations/societies, 274–278
  event marketing periodicals, 285–287
  facility/venue resources, 288 media distribution services, 273 media tracking services, 279 strategic decision making about, 57–59 useful websites, 289–293
Return on Event (ROE), 164
Return on investment (ROI): for sponsors, 100–101, 103
  for virtual events, 242
RFID (radio frequency identification), 268
Richardson, Bill, 267
Richardson, John M., 231
Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus, 150, 154
Ringling Brothers Circus, 39, 40
Risk management, xii
Rock am Ring (festival), 10
Rockefeller, John D., 1
Rock in Rio (festival), 10
Rock ‘N Race, 143
Rock ‘N Race, 149
ROE (Return on Event), 164
ROI, see Return on investment
Romans, ancient, 30–31
Rooney, Wayne, 265
Rozelle, Pete, 44

S
Sales, measuring impact of sponsorships with, 93, 103
Sales and Marketing Management, 287
Sales management, 172–173
Sales meetings, 170–171
Schedules, for association vs. corporate events, 186–187
Schultz, Howard, 263
Schwarzenegger, Arnold, 267
SCMP (Society of Corporate Meeting Professionals), 278
Scope It Out 5K Walk/Run for Colon Cancer, 153
Search engine optimization (SEO), 121–123
Seasonality of events, 70
Secondary experience, 141
Secondhand experiences, 140
Self-expression, 35
Self-generated events, 212, 221, 243–244
Sentiment Metrics, 279
SEO (search engine optimization), 121–123
Service economy, 13
Service trials, 93
Seventeen, 247
Shaw, George Bernard, 27
Shriners (Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine), 195, 197
Shriners Hospitals for Children, 197
Shriver, Robert, 262
Sidebars, 235
Siemens, 95
Simon, Paul, 153
Siouxland Missouri River Clean-Up 2010, 221
Six Ps of event marketing, 72–85
  for online marketing, 121–122 people, 84–85
  place, 75–76
  price, 74–75
  process, 83
  product, 73–74
  promotion, 76–83
Skeptics in the Pub, 213, 214
Small businesses, sponsorships by, 105–106
Smartphones, 270–271
Smith Bucklin, 188
Smirnoff Vodka, 7
Simon, Paul, 153
Society of Corporate Meeting Professionals (SCMP), 278
SOCOG (Sydney Committee for the Olympic Games), 154
Solaris, Julius, 86, 290
Sons of Norway, 195
South by Southwest (SXSW) festival, 96, 119, 136, 219, 291
Southern California Harvest Crusade, 203
Special Events Magazine, 287
SpectraCom, 288
Spin, 174
Sponsors:
  attracting, 88–92
  identifying potential, 100–103
  incentives for, 104–105
  synergy of events and, 98–100
Sponsorscape, 110, 291
Sponsorship, 87–109
  attracting sponsors, 88–92 of cause-related events, 106–108 in communications context, 97–98 and corporate events, 164, 167, 181–183
  for festivals, 157–158
  of green events, 248
  identifying potential sponsors, 100–103 impact measurement for, 103–104 incentives for sponsors, 104–105 in-kind, 105–106
  as marketing activity, 23
  by media, 149
  of Olympic Games, 9, 259–260, 265 for personal events, 183
  practicalities of, 92–96
  of professional association events, 205 and synergy of sponsor with event, 98–100
Sponsorship.com, 110, 290
Spontaneous parties, 219–220
Sports Illustrated, 260–262
Stakeholders, 53–54
Starbucks, 262–263
Starter, 261
Status, see Social status
Stewart, Jon, 223
Stewart, Rod, 261
Stockholders’ meetings, 171
Stonehenge, xii
Strategic event marketing, xi–xvii, 2, 28 and brand image, xiii
  and events in twenty-first century, xvi–xvii and history as recording of events, xiii–xvii and marketing orientation, xvi–xviii problem solving with, xii Strategy:
  analysis of event issues in, 59–61
  approach strategies for sponsors, 102–103
  competition in, 51–53
  evaluating alternative solutions, 62–63
  formulating, 59–64
  generating alternative solutions, 61–62
  importance of, 50–59
  internal event marketing in, 55–57
  predicting outcomes of, 63–64 resource decision making in, 57–59 stakeholders in, 53–54
Street promotion, 150–151
Index

Strengths (SWOT analysis), 64–66
Student protest movement, 224–226
Students with a Testimony (SWAT) team, 203

Stunts: of P. T. Barnum, 38–40
at corporate events, 174 festival event marketing with, 150–151 of Bill Veeck, 41–42

Successful Meetings, 287
Summerfest, 68
Super Bowl, 83, 145, 146, 268, 269
Suppliers, 173
Surveys, 157
Sustainability, 181, 182, 247–248
SWOT (Students with a Testimony) team, 203
Swiss International Airlines, 93

SWOT analysis, 64–67
SXSW, see South by Southwest festival
Sydney 2000 Olympic Games, 33
Sydney Committee for the Olympic Games (SOCOG), 154

Symbolism, 29
Sysomos, 279
Symbolism, 29

T
Talent selection (for festivals), 157
Targeting, 107, 180
Target market, 68–69, 157, 238
Tartikoff, Brandon, 153
Tartikoff, Lily, 153
Taste of DC, 149
Taylor, Elizabeth, 258
Tea Party campaign, 223–225
Technical standards, for websites, 120 Technology: for communication, 115–116
and entertainment, 141 in event marketing, 21
at events, 270–271
and scope of event marketing activities, 23–24
tracking attendees with, 268
trends in event marketing, 233
Television, 148, 149, 203
Tennent’s, xvi, 10
Texas Rangers, 143
T.G.I. Friday’s, 154
Third International Congress, 250
Threats (SWOT analysis), 65, 66
Thum, Peter, 262
Tickets, preselling, 144–145
Ticketmaster, 132
Timberlake, Justin, 197
Time compression, 233–234
Time Warner, 260, 261
Timing: of events, 69–70
of festival marketing, 148–149 of social media interventions, 117
T in the Park (event), xvi, 10, 25
T-Mobile, 241
Tonioli, Teri, 268
TOP program, 90
Toronto International Film Festival, 112
Toyota, 260, 261

Trachman, Jay, 211
Trackur, 279
Trade associations, 190, 192–195
Trademarks, 154
Trade-outs, 105–106
Trade Show Exhibitors Association (TSEA), 278
Traditions, 45, 166
Training seminars, 169–170
Transformational experiences, 13–15, 73–74
Travolta, John, 200
Trends in event marketing, 231–233
bloggers and überbloggers, 237–238
DIY event planning and marketing, 243–244 events for aging population, 249–252 and the experience, 236–237
green events, 246–248
and history of event marketing, 47 and meeting costs/incentive travel, 244–246 offline marketing, 239–241
time compression, 233–234
and trajectory of event marketing, 232
virtual events, 241–243
web sophistication, 234–236
Trip Advisor, 30
TSEA (Trade Show Exhibitors Association), 278
TVeyes.com, 279
TweetDeck, 279
24.7 Real Media, 279
Twitter, 234
advertising on, 133
DIY event marketing with, 244
in Fjällräven Classic marketing, 270
James Franco’s promotion of Oscars, 129
influence of, 115
social events on, 223
at SXSW, 219
Twittermob & Spontaneous Microsponsorships, 219

U
Überbloggers, 237–238
United Kingdom:
ageing population of, 249
student protest movement in, 224–226
U.S. Travel Association, 278
United States Association of Importers of Textiles and Apparel (USA-ITA), 193

Value, of events, 17
Vampirefreaks.com, 161
Vancouver 2010 Olympic Games, 226
Variable pricing, 75
Veeck, Bill, 2, 40–42
Venues, 71, 75–76, 93, 157, 288
Versailles, Palace of, 217
Vintage Virginia Wine Festival, 145
VIPs, 151, 152
Viral advertising, 24
Viral marketing, 130
Virgin Galactic, 266–267
Virgin Group, 266–267
Virgin Space Ship (VSS), 267
Virtual associations, 186
Virtual events, 241–243
Visit London Business, 210, 293
Visit Scotland, 272
Vodafone, 236, 241
Volkswagen, 177
VSS (Virgin Space Ship), 267

W
Wakeham, Hugh, 164, 167, 173, 177, 179
Warsteiner, 10
Washington Post, 153
Washington Redskins, 44–46
Watson, Tom, 102
Weaknesses (SWOT analysis), 64–66
Weather factors, 144–145
Web analytics, 122–124
Websites, 84
accessibility of, 120
for association events, 194
ease of use, 234–236
for festivals and entertainments, 142 promoting involvement with, 119 requirements for, 117–121
search engine optimization for, 121–122 social networks as portals to, 128–129 sophistication of, 234–236 useful, 26, 48, 86, 289–293
wedding, 217
Webtrends, 279
Weddings, 215–218
Wedding planners, 20, 215, 217–218
The Who, 83
Wilde, Oscar, 261
Winter, Steve, 7, 8, 78, 139, 174
Wired, 136, 254, 291, 293
Women, Facebook use by, 159
Women’s Life Insurance Society, 196
Woodring, DeWayne, 199, 204
Woodstock, 224
Word-of-mouth marketing, 115, 124–125, 133, 236, 238
World Cup, 90, 139
World Duathlon Championship, 127
World Grand Prix racing, xv
WRC-TV (television station), 149
Wrigley Field, 41
WRQX-FM (radio station), 153

Y
Young at Heart, 251
Young at Heart Retirement Living Exhibition, 251
Young people, 34–35, 158–159
YouTube, 148, 150

Z
Zappa, Frank, 154
Zolkwew, David, 32, 33, 139, 140, 155