Contents

Preface by Massimo Mazzini ix

Introduction: The Crisis of 2008 and the Way Out 1

1 From UCITS Directive to UCITS III Provisions 9
  1.1 Product Directive 10
  1.2 Management Company Directive 10
    1.2.1 Simplified Prospectus 13
  1.3 Additional Regulatory Limits Imposed by UCITS III 17
    1.3.1 The Prohibition on Borrowing and Short Selling 17
    1.3.2 Prohibition on Investment in Commodities 18
  1.4 The Next Step: UCITS IV Directive and New Provisions by EU 19
  1.5 Simplification of the Notification Procedure 21
  1.6 Replacement of the Simplified Prospectus with the Key Investor Document 21
  1.7 Management Company Passport 22
  1.8 Master–Feeder Structures 23
  1.9 Mergers between UCITS 24
  1.10 New EU Directive on Alternative Investments 30

2 Business Models for the Production of Newcits and Managed Accounts 35
3 Analysis of Operational Model of UCITS III Products

3.1 Luxembourg SICAVS
   3.1.1 Harmonized and Non-Harmonized UCITS 40
   3.1.2 Self-Managed and Hetero-Managed SICAV 41

3.2 CSSF 07/308 Circular: Guidelines for Luxembourg UCITS
   3.2.1 Structure of the Risk Management Unit 44
   3.2.2 Activities of the Risk Management Unit 46
   3.2.3 Determination of the Global Exposure for Non-Sophisticated UCITS 46
   3.2.4 Determination of the Global Exposure for Sophisticated UCITS 48
   3.2.5 The Counterparty Risk 52
   3.2.6 Limits of Concentration risk 54

3.3 Swing Pricing 54
   3.3.1 The Swing Factor 56
   3.3.2 Pros and Cons of Swing Pricing 57
   3.3.3 Pros and Cons of Full and Partial Swing 58
   3.3.4 Operational Implications 59

3.4 Depositary Bank, Administrator and Lack of Prime Broker 59
   3.4.1 The Role of the Administrator 60
   3.4.2 The Lack of Prime Broker 63

4 Hedge Funds Investment Strategies and Limits Set by UCITS III

4.1 Long/Short Equity 66
   4.1.1 Equity Market Neutral 69

4.2 Relative Value 69
   4.2.1 Convertible Bond Arbitrage 70
   4.2.2 Fixed Income Arbitrage 72
   4.2.3 Mortgage-Backed Securities Arbitrage 73

4.3 Directional Trading 75
   4.3.1 Global Macro 75
   4.3.2 Managed Futures (CTA or Systematic Futures Trading) 77

4.4 Event-Driven (or Special Situation) 80
   4.4.1 Merger Arbitrage 81
   4.4.2 Distressed Securities 82

4.5 Other Strategies 84
4.5.1 Statistical Arbitrage 84
4.5.2 Index Arbitrage 86
4.5.3 Volatility Arbitrage 86
4.5.4 Multi-Strategy 87

4.6 Limits Imposed by UCITS III 88
4.6.1 Considerations 88
4.6.2 Background 88
4.6.3 Characteristics of the UCITS III Funds Appreciated by Investors 88
4.6.4 Main UCITS Rules 89
4.6.5 Additional Rules to Consider 91
4.6.6 Collateral Management Guidelines 91

4.7 “Synthetic” Short Selling and Contracts for Difference 92

4.8 Synthetic Newcits 93

5 The Early Stages of the Newcits Industry 97
5.1 Description of Sample 97
5.2 Implemented Strategies 101
5.3 Fee Structure 102
5.4 Performance Analysis 103
5.5 Tracking Error and Tracking Error Volatility 105
5.6 Multivariate Regression Analysis on Panel Data 108
5.7 Exposure to Risk Factors for each Strategy 109
5.8 Contribution by Factor to the Historical Returns 109
5.9 Liquidity Comparison 115
5.10 Performance Contribution Analysis at Industry Level 115

Conclusions 119

References 123

Acronyms 125

Index 127