abnormal tongue function 218
abnormal tooth position 239 absent teeth
  index of orthodontic treatment needed 101–2
  interceptive orthodontics 201–2 space planning 93
see also hypodontia
absolute anchorage 229, 233 acquired facial deformity 63–4 activating signals 12
activator appliances 163–4 adjunctive retention techniques 352–3 aesthetic component (AC) of IOTN 100–3, 108 aesthetics see facial aesthetics ageing effects
  deep overbite 235
OIIRR 120, 122
  smile analysis 57
AHI see apnoea–hypopnoea index aligners see clear aligners allergies 108–9, 120–1
alveolar arch 14
alveolar atrophy 239
alveolar bone 122–3, 258–9 anaesthesia 246, 291
anatomical repairs 128
ANB angle 83, 174–5, 325
anchorage 282–6
  anterior open bite 222
  bone anchorage 287–93
  Class I malocclusions 152–3, 283–4
  Class II malocclusions 164, 284–5
  Class III malocclusions 285–6
  impacted teeth 212
lingual appliances 334
orthognathic surgery 247
space analysis 93–5
Straight Wire appliances 297
Tip-Edge appliance 311, 316
anchorage arches 198
antenatal management of CL/P 257 anterior biteplane 228 anterior cranial base 86
anterior crowding 192–3

© 2011 Daljit S. Gill, Farhad B. Naini and Dental Update. Published 2011 by Blackwell Publishing Ltd. anterior open bite (AOB) 217–23
aetiology 217–20
bone anchorage 292
environmental factors 217–20
orthognathic surgery 247
self-ligating brackets 305
stability 222
treatment 220–2
anteroposterior (AP) skeletal pattern
cephalometric analysis 82, 83–4
Class II malocclusions 159, 164–5, 169
growth and development 24–5 maxillary position 59
orthognathic surgery 245, 247, 250
patient assessment 37–9, 40, 42
space analysis 90–1
AOB see anterior open bite
Apert syndrome 5
Aphrodite of Melos 50
apical root resorption 117–18, 126, 129 apnoea–hypopnoea index (AHI) 264 APo line 85
arch coordination 247
arch width 39–40, 90, 92 archwires 228–31
lingual appliances 331–2, 335–42
orthognathic surgery 247
self-ligating brackets 302–3, 305–6
Tip-Edge appliance 309–14
assessment see orthodontal examinations;
patient assessment
asthma 120–1 asymmetry see facial asymmetry attachment bonding 208–12 auxiliary appliances 229, 232–3, 319 auxiliary labial arches 208, 212 Basic Periodontal Examination (BPE) 43
basicranium 10–11, 13–14 BDD see body dysmorphic disorder beauty 46–7, 52, 62
see also facial aesthetics bilateral cusp-to-cusp crossbite 106–7 bilateral sagittal split osteotomy (BSSO) 246, 249–51
bimaxillary orthognathic surgery 261 bimaxillary protrusion 151
biological responses
bone physiology 273–6
immediate cellular responses 277–8
optimal forces for tooth movement 279–80 orthodontic tooth movement 273–81 bisphosphonates 109, 121–2 bite-planes 233 body dysmorphic disorder (BDD) 64–5, 108
Bolam test 142
Bollard mini-plates 289 bonded appliances 334, 336 bonded retainers 344–5, 354–65
bone anchorage 287–93
devices 287–90
insertion techniques 290–1 integration into orthodontic treatment 291–2 success rates and variables 290 bone bending 277
bone displacement 7–13 bone grafting 258–9
bone physiology 273–6
bone remodelling 6–9, 12
bone resorption/deposition 277 bone screws 288–91
BPE see Basic Periodontal Examination brackets 299, 300–7, 330–5
brain development 10–11
branchial arches 184–5
BSSO see bilateral sagittal split osteotomy buccal corridors 58–9
buccal crossbite 22, 24, 30–1 buccal segments
Class I malocclusions 153–4
Class II malocclusions 171
dentition 21–3
interceptive orthodontics 198
patient assessment 44
bullying 52, 62
Burstone intrusion arch 232
CAD/CAM see computer-assisted design/manufacture
calcification 19
calcitonin 121
camouflage treatment 162, 164–5, 178–9, 199, 326

canines
   Class I malocclusions 156, 157
   extraction 156
   hypodontia 239
   impacted teeth 205, 212–14
   interceptive orthodontics 192–4
   lingual appliances 334, 337, 342
   orthognathic surgery 247
   patient assessment 44
   treatment planning 113

cap splints 153–4, 156

caries 109, 255–6

causation 142

CBT see cognitive behavioural therapy cell-cell signalling molecules 278–9 cellular divisions 3

cementum 117–18, 119–20

cephalometric analysis 78–87
   analytical procedures 80–3 anteroposterior skeletal pattern 82, 83–4 applications 79–80
   Class II malocclusions 161
   cleft lip and palate 259
   evaluation of growth/treatment changes 79–80, 86 facial aesthetics 51
   growth and development 14
   impacted teeth 206–7
   incisor position 85
   instrumentation 78–9
   landmarks, planes and angles 80–2
   occlusion 32, 34
   soft tissues 85–6
   vertical skeletal dysplasia 82, 84–5

chemokines 279

cchin-cup appliances 177–8

chins, puckered 40–1

CL/P see cleft lip and palate

Class I malocclusions 29–32, 151–8
   anchorage 283–4
   clinical features 151–2
   correction of canine relationships 157
   extraction 153, 154–7
   incisor alignment 157–8

local factors 158

space closure 158

treatment principles 152–4

Class II division 1 malocclusions 32–3, 159–65
   aetiology 159–61
   anchorage 284–5
   anterior open bite 221
   assessment and diagnosis 161 functional appliances 325–9
   Tip-Edge appliance 309–16
   treatment 161–5

Class II division 2 malocclusions 33–4, 166–73
   aetiology 166–8
   anchorage 284–5
   appliances 168–71
   functional appliances 325–9
   lingual appliances 336–9
   retention and stability 169, 172 surgical-orthodontic approach 171–2
   treatment planning 168–72

Class III malocclusions 34, 174–81
   aetiology 174
   anchorage 285–6
   assessment 174–5
   lingual appliances 338–44
   stability of corrections 180
   treating adults 176, 180
   treatment 175–80

clear aligners 318–24
   indications 319–22
   OIIRR 126–7
   process 318–19

cleft lip and palate (CL/P) 254–62 associated problems 255–7
   clinical features 259–60
   growth and development 255–60
   incidence 254
   index of orthodontic treatment needed 105
   multidisciplinary management 254–62 presentation 254–5
   recent developments 260–1

cleft palate alone (CPO) 254

cclinical measurements 74–6 closed eruption technique 209–12 cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) 190 combined surgical–orthodontic approach see surgical–orthodontic approach composite bite-planes 233 computed tomography (CT) 13
clear aligners 318
facial asymmetry 186
impacted teeth 206
OIIRR 118–19, 125–6, 128–9
orthodontic records 67
computer-assisted design/manufacture (CAD/CAM) 330–2, 335 condylar resorption 185, 220 congenital absence 101–2 connectors 59–60
consent see informed consent conservative management 234, 265 contact point displacements 103 contacts 59–60
continuous arch mechanics 228–31 continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP) 265–8 cortical bone 122–3 corticosteroids 121
cosmetic procedures 61–2 counterforce nickel titanium archwires 231 CPAP see continuous positive airway pressure CPO see cleft palate alone craniofacial growth and development see growth and development
craniofacial levels 13
craniofacial malformations 63 craniofacial surgery 5
crossbite
Class II malocclusions 166
Class III malocclusions 178
clear aligners 319
cleft lip and palate 256, 259
dentition 22, 24
index of orthodontic treatment needed 102, 105
interceptive orthodontics 191–2
lingual appliances 338
occlusion 30–2
patient assessment 44–5
space analysis 90
treatment planning 106–7
Crouzon syndrome 5
crowding
Class I malocclusions 153–5
Class II malocclusions 163–4, 166–7, 169, 171
Class III malocclusions 178–9
clear aligners 319–20
index of orthodontic treatment needed 103
interceptive orthodontics 192–4
occlusion 31
self-ligating brackets 305
space analysis 89–90
Tip-Edge appliance 309–17
crowding of incisors 17–21, 23–5 crown angulation/inclination 19 crown formation 19
CT see computed tomography curve of Spee 23, 218, 230, 333 cyclic AMP 274, 277
cytokines 273–5, 278–9 Dahl appliances 231
decalciﬁcations 109 deciduous dentition 161–2, 241–2 decompensation 247, 260
deep overbite 224–37
aetiology 225–6
appliances and techniques for overbite reduction 228–34 indications for treatment 227 methods of overbite reduction 227–8
stability of corrections 235–6
Tip-Edge appliance 316
treatment planning 235
deep tunnels 309–14
delayed dental development 239 dental health component (DHC) of IOTN 99–103, 104–5 dental health treatment planning 109 dental invagination 123–4 dental movement 15, 117–18
clear aligners 318–21
differential 308, 311
self-ligating brackets 304
see also orthodontic tooth movement;
orthodontically induced inflammatory root resorption
dental open bite 217–18 dental panoramic tomography (DPT) 118 dental size and symmetry 57–8 dentine 117
dentition 17–26
  anterior open bite 220
chronology of dental development 17, 19
Class II malocclusions 161–3, 167–8
Class III malocclusions 175–9
cleft lip and palate 255, 259
deep overbite 226–7
development 17–26
growth and development 6, 13–16, 24–5
hypodontia 239, 241–3
interceptive orthodontics 189
maturational changes in adulthood 24
patient assessment 44
permanent 19, 23
primary 17–20
six keys to occlusion 17, 18
space analysis 88–98
stages of occlusal development 17–24
straight wire appliances 297
transitional 20–2
treatment planning 112
see also occlusion
dentofacial deformity 62–6
depository remodelling 6, 8–9, 12 development see growth and development DHC see dental health component diastema 21
dietary factors 121, 351 differential tooth movement 308, 311
digit sucking
  anterior open bite 217–18, 220
  interceptive orthodontics 189–91
occlusion 33, 161
OIIRR 122
patient assessment 42
treatment planning 112
digital models 318–19
digital photographic records 67–74 digital study models 76–7 displacement processes 6–13, 14–16
distal movement 93, 163, 221 dolichocephaly 11
Doryphorus 49
doxycycline 129–30
DPT see dental panoramic tomography drift 15–16
duty of care 142
dynamic occlusion 17–18, 44–5 Eastman standard values 82 ectodermal dysplasias 240 ectopic teeth 32, 101, 200 de-to-edge incisor occlusion 106–7 elastomeric ligatures 300–2 embrasures 59–60
enamel 255–6, 352–3
endocrine disorders 121 endodontic therapy 124, 323
environmental factors
  anterior open bite 217–20
  hypodontia 238
  occlusion 32–5
  OIIRR 120–2
enzymes 278–9
eosin 274, 279–80
Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS) 264 equilibrium theory 31 eruption 19
cephalometric analysis 80
growth and development 6, 14, 16
impacted teeth 205–6, 213
index of orthodontic treatment needed 105
lingual appliances 334
treatment planning 112
ESS see Epworth Sleepiness Scale ethical aspects 139–48
deficiencies and failures of treatment 140–1
diagnosis and management 141
ethical aspects (continued)
  facts and myths 139–40
  informed consent 115, 144, 145–6
  orthodontic records 147
  retirement 145
  specialists and generalists 141, 145, 146–7 standards and regulatory frameworks 141–4
  treating adults 144–5
  treating children 144
ethnicity
  cephalometric analysis 82–3
  dentition 25
  hypodontia 238
  impacted teeth 205
  OIIRR 120
Euclid 48
extraction
  anterior open bite 221–2
  Class I malocclusions 153, 154–7
  Class II malocclusions 162, 171
  clear aligners 319, 322
  interceptive orthodontics 192–3
  lingual appliances 332, 342
  OIIRR 128
  orthognathic surgery 247
  space analysis 93–4
  Tip-Edge appliance 312, 315
extraoral assessment 37–43
extraoral photography 72–3 extraoral traction see headgear extrusion 59, 230
facial aesthetics 46–54
  abnormal responses to deformity 64–5 acquired facial deformity 63–4
  beauty 46–7
  Class II malocclusions 168
  dentofacial deformity 62–6 historical background 46–51
  hypodontia 240–1
  index of orthodontic treatment needed 100–3
  lingual appliances 342
  orthodontic interventions 62 outsiders’ perceptions 52, 62 psychological factors 52, 61–6 self-image and negative self-perception 52, 62 severity of deformity 52
  smile analysis 55–60
  treatment planning 108
facial asymmetry 182–8
  aesthetics 46, 47–8
  classification 182, 183
  developmental causes 182–4, 185–6 functional causes 185
  hemimandibular elongation and hyperplasia 182–4, 187 management 185–7
  occlusion 31, 33
  pathological conditions 184–5
  patient assessment 39–40
facial development 10, 11–12, 14–15 see also growth and development
facial proportions 85
  aesthetics 46, 47–50
  anterior open bite 219
  Class II malocclusions 159, 166
  Class III malocclusions 179
  deep overbite 235–6
familial dental disturbances see genetic factors file sharing 67–8
fixed appliances 153–6
  anterior open bite 221–2
  Class II malocclusions 162, 169–71
  Class III malocclusions 176–8
  classification 294
  cleft lip and palate 260
  deep overbite 228–32
  interceptive orthodontics 190–1
  orthognathic surgery 247
  stability and retention 351–2, 353
  see also individual types FOP see functional occlusal plane Frankfort-mandibular planes angle (FMPA)
  anterior open bite 219
  cephalometric analysis 84
  Class II malocclusions 159, 167, 169–70
  Class III malocclusions 174
  patient analysis 39
functional appliances 325–9
cephalometric analysis 80
Class II malocclusions 162–4, 168–9
Class III malocclusions 176–7
deep overbite 228
designs 325–6
duration of treatment 328
facial asymmetry 187
impacted teeth 208
indications 325–6
orthodontic records 72
timing of treatment 326 treatment effects 327–8 treatment protocol 328–9 types 326–7 functional occlusal plane (FOP) 83–4 functional occlusion 20, 22–4 functional repairs 128 fusion 196–7
gemination 196–7
general dental health 109
generalist orthodontic treatment 141, 145, 146–7 遗传因素
growth and development 4
hypodontia 238
index of orthodontic treatment needed 101–2
occlusion 31–5
OIIRR 120
genioplasty 246
gingival fibres 348–9, 352–3 gingival margins 59
gingival recession 224–5 gingivitis 45
golden proportion 48–9
growth and development 3–16
analysis and testing 79–80, 86, 95
anterior open bite 219–20
child-to-adult changing proportions 14–15
cleft lip and palate 255–60
clinical diagnosis 6 clinical modification 3–5 clinical targets 13–14
composite nature 5–6
craniofacial levels 13
deep overbite 235–6
dentition 24–5
displacement processes 6–13, 14–16
drift 15–16
facial asymmetry 182–4, 185–6
functional appliances 325–6
growth movement categories 6–10 growth rotations 16
hypodontia 241–3
impacted teeth 204
interceptive orthodontics 189–90, 199–200
neurocranial development 10–11 oral complex 10, 13
personal tests 12
pharyngeal airway development 10, 11–12 remodelling processes 6–10, 12, 14–16
space analysis 95
stability and retention 349
tooth movement 15
treatment planning 109–10
gummy smiles 108
haematoxylin 274
Hawley retainers 350
headgear
activators 326–8
anchorage 284
anterior open bite 220–1, 222
deep overbite 229, 233
occlusion 153, 163, 177–8
hemifacial microsomia 184, 186 hemimandibular elongation/hyperplasia 182–4, 187 Herbst appliances 326, 328, 336–9 Herbst removable splints 265–6 high-pull head gear 220–1, 222 hormonal disorders 121
human craniofacial growth and development see growth and development hyalinisation 279–80
hypersensitivities 108–9
hypertonic lips 33, 40
hypodontia 238–44
   aetiology 238
   cleft lip and palate 255, 261
   management 240–3
   medical conditions 240
   occlusion 31–2
   oral anomalies 239
   prevalence 238
hypofunctional periodontium 123
hypomineralisation of enamel 43, 255–6 hypoplasia of enamel 43, 255–6

impacted teeth 204–16
   diagnosis 205–7
   growth and development 204
hypodontia 239
index of orthodontic treatment needed 101, 105
interceptive orthodontics 196, 200
lingual appliances 334
management 212–14
prevalence 205
surgical exposure and attachment bonding 208–12
   treatment planning 113, 207–8
implants 287–90
incisors
   alignment 157–8, 165
   cephalometric analysis 85
   classification 18
   clear aligners 319–20, 322–3
   cleft lip and palate 255–6
   crowding, spacing and inclination 17–21, 23–5, 33
   deep overbite 224–7, 230, 235–6
   extraction 154–6
   impacted teeth 205
   index of orthodontic treatment needed 101–2
interceptive orthodontics 192–202
   intrusion 227, 232
   lingual appliances 338, 344
   OIIRR 123, 125
   orthognathic surgery 247–8
   patient assessment 40–2, 44 protrusion 113–14
smile analysis 57–8
space analysis 89–92
treatment planning 106–7, 110–14
unerupted 193–6, 205
   see also occlusion
index of orthodontic treatment needed (IOTN) 99–105 clinical application 100–3 crossbite 102, 105
deep overbite 227
development 99–100
missing teeth 101–2
overbite 103
overjet 102
treatment planning 108
uncommon grades 105
infections 246
informed consent
   legal and ethical aspects 144, 145–6
   orthognathic surgery 247
   stability and retention 350
treatment planning 115
infraocclusion 22, 196–7, 239 inter-arch relationship 20–4
interceptive orthodontics 189–203
   anterior crowding 192–3
crossbite 191–2
ectopic teeth 200
fusion, gemination and morphology 196–7
growth and development 189–90, 199–200
infraocclusion of primary lower second molars 196–7 intraoral anchorage arches 198
leeway space 198
missing teeth 201–2
sagittal problems 198–200
serial extraction 193–4
soft tissues 189, 197–8
thumb sucking 189–91
unerupted central incisors 193–6 interdental enamel reduction 352–3 interincisal angle 170
interleukins 279–80
intermaxillary elastics 232–3, 285–6 intermaxillary traction 247 intra-arch alignment 17–21, 23–4 intraoral anchorage arches 198
intraoral photography 68–72, 73–4
intrusion 58–9, 227, 232
inverted labial bow appliances 177 IOTN see index of orthodontic treatment needed joint orthodontic-orthognathic clinics 245–6 labial arches 208, 212
labial frenum 197
labial segments 44
labiogingival trauma 113
labiomential fold 40–1, 110–11
LACC see long axis of the clinical crown LAFH see lower anterior face height lateral cephalometric radiographs see cephalometric analysis Le Fort 1 osteotomy 251
leeway space 198
legislative aspects 139–48
deficiencies and failures of treatment 140–1
diagnosis and management 141
facts and myths 139–40
informed consent 115, 144, 145–6
orthodontic records 147
retirement 145
specialists and generalists 141, 145, 146–7
standards and regulatory frameworks 141–4
treating adults 144–5
treating children 144
light-wires 126
lingual appliances 330–47
brackets 330–3
case presentations 336–44
Class II malocclusions 336–9
Class III malocclusions 338–44
deep overbite 231
development and materials 330–4 impacted canines 334
occlusal pads 333–4, 338
self-ligation 335–6
types and characteristics 330–4 lingual crossbite 30–1, 105, 166 lip assessments 40–2 lip incompetence 32, 40–1, 114
lip line 55–7, 226
lip movement 169
lip traps 32, 42, 197–8 long axis of the clinical crown (LACC) 296 lower anterior face height (LAFH) 39–41, 85, 219 lower posterior face height (LPFH) 85 macroglossia 42
macrophage colony-stimulating factor (M-CSF) 275 malocclusion see Class I/II/III malocclusions; occlusion mandible
anterior open bite 219
closure 45, 152
deep overbite 225–6
dentition 23–5
facial asymmetry 182–5
functional appliances 327–9
growth and development 6, 7–9, 11, 13, 15–16, 219
occlusion 32–4
patient assessment 37–9, 44–5
smile analysis 57–8
stepwise advancement 328 mandibular advancement splints (MAS) 266–8 mandibular prognathism 34 mandibular retrusion 336 mandibular setbacks 249–51 mandibular superimposition 86 mandibulotomy 234
MAS see mandibular advancement splints matrix metalloproteinases (MMP) 276, 278 matrix regulation 276
maturational changes in adulthood 24
maxilla
Class III malocclusions 174–5
cleft lip and palate 255–7, 260–1
dentition 23–5
functional appliances 327–9
growth and development 4, 7, 9–10, 12–16
occlusion 32–4
patient assessment 37–9, 44–5
smile analysis 56–7, 59
maxillary advancements 249–51 maxillary expansion 153–6, 177, 247 maxillary impaction osteotomy 292 maxillary superimposition 86 maxillary transverse deficiency 4 maxillo-mandibular planes angle (MMPA) 84–5, 152 maxillofacial bone plating kits 287–90, 292 maxillofacial surgery 268 MBT prescription 297
medical examinations 264 medical histories 108–9, 264
mesial molar movements 93–5 mesiodens 32
microdontia 239, 242–3
micro-implants 288
midline screws 154–5
midlines 58
mineralised cementum 117–18, 119–20 mineralised dentine 117 mini-implants 287–91
mini-plates 287–90
mini-screws 288
missing teeth see absent teeth mixed dentition 21–2
anterior open bite 220
Class II malocclusions 162–3
Class III malocclusions 176–7
hypodontia 241–2
MMP see matrix metalloproteinases MMPA see maxillo-mandibular planes angle model surgery 249
molars
anterior open bite 221–2
classification 18
extraction 156–7
hypodontia 238, 239
impacted teeth 205
interceptive orthodontics 196–7
intrusion 222
lingual appliances 337–8, 342
occlusion 31, 153, 156–7, 171
relationship 18, 20, 22
smile analysis 59
space analysis 90, 93–5
stability and retention 349–50
Tip-Edge appliance 311

morphogenesis 3–4
see also growth and development
morphological analysis 79
multidisciplinary management
cleft lip and palate 254–62
hypodontia 238–44
obstructive sleep apnoea 263–9
orthognathic surgery 245–53
multistrand bonded retainers 354 myofunctional therapy 220–1 nail biting 42, 122

Nance buttons 284
nasal airway 13
nasal surgery 268
nasal surgery 268
natural head position (NHP) 78–9, 85 nasolabial angle (NLA) 40, 86, 110–11 nasomaxillary complex 5, 7, 9–10, 11 National Health Service (NHS) 99–105 non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAID) 121 non-specialist orthodontic treatment 141, 145, 146–7 obstructive sleep apnoea (OSA) 263–9
aetiology 263
clinical symptoms 263–4 conservative treatment 265
continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP) 265–8
diagnosis 264–5
incidence 263
mandibular advancement splints 266–8 multidisciplinary management 263–9
surgical treatment 268
treatment 265–8
occlusal curves 90
occlusal mirrors 69, 71–2
occlusal pads 333–4, 338
occlusion
  aetiology of malocclusion 29–36
  anchorage 283–6
  anterior open bite 217–23
  asymmetry 31, 33
  cephalometric analysis 78
  clear aligners 319–20
  cleft lip and palate 260
  clinical significance 34–5
  facial asymmetry 182–8
  functional 20, 22–4
  functional appliances 325–9
  growth and development 4–5, 6, 11–12, 24–5
  hypodontia 238–44
  impacted teeth 204–16
  interceptive orthodontics 189–203
  lingual appliances 336–46
  OIIRR 123, 125
  orthognathic surgery 245–53
  patient assessment 44–5
  six keys to occlusion 17, 18
  space analysis 92–3
  stability and retention 349
  stages of occlusal development 17–24 static/dynamic 17–18, 44–5
  Tip-Edge appliance 309–16
  treatment planning 106–7, 110–15
  see also Class I/II/III malocclusions OIIRR see orthodontically induced inflammatory root resorption open bite
  index of treatment needed 101–3
  interceptive orthodontics 191
  occlusion 33, 174, 179
  patient assessment 45
  treatment planning 112
  see also anterior open bite open eruption technique 209–12
oral complex 10, 13
oral hygiene
  deep overbite 224
  patient assessment 43
  self-ligating brackets 302
  stability and retention 352–3
  treatment planning 109
orthodontic examinations 37 orthodontic extrusion 59, 230 orthodontic intrusion 58–9, 227, 232
orthodontic records 67–77
  clinical measurements 74–6 digital photography 67–74 essential equipment 69–72, 74
  extraoral photography 72–3
  intraoral photography 68–72, 73–4
  legal/ethical aspects 147
  study models 76–7
orthodontic tooth movement 117–18, 125
  biological responses 273–81
  bone physiology 273–6
  immediate cellular responses 277–8
  optimal forces 279–80 orthodontically induced inflammatory root resorption (OIIRR) 117–38
  ageing effects 122
  appliances and treatment techniques 126–7 biological factors 120–4 cementum mineralisation 117–18, 119–20 clinical consequences 129 contributing factors 120–8 cortical and alveolar bone 122–3 dental invagination 123–4 direction of applied force 127 distance of tooth movement 125
  duration of treatment 124–5
  environmental factors 120–2
  extraction/non-extraction 128 genetic factors 120
  habits 122
  hypofunctional periodontium 123
  incidence, distribution and severity 117–18, 124 intermittent/continuous forces 127–8 magnitude of applied force 125–8 malocclusion types 123, 125 mechanical factors 124–8 pathogenesis 119
  prevention and management 129–30 prior endodontic treatments 124 radiographic diagnosis 118–19
  relapse 128
  repairs 128–9
orthodontically induced inflammatory root resorption (OIIRR) (continued)

- root morphology 124
- root resorption mechanism 117–18, 120, 124
- trauma 122
- vulnerability of specific teeth 123

orthognathic surgery 245–53

- anterior open bite 222
- cephalometric analysis 82–3
- Class II malocclusions 162, 170
- Class III malocclusions 176, 179–80
- cleft lip and palate 260
- deep overbite 229, 234
- facial aesthetics 61, 63
- joint orthodontic-orthognathic clinics 245–6, 249–50
- legal/ethical aspects 145
- model surgery 249
- orthodontic records 72–3
- patient assessment 37, 249–50
- postsurgical orthodontics 251
- presurgical orthodontics 247–50
- recall of patients 251–2
- self-ligating brackets 304
- stability 251–2
- surgical procedures 249–51
- wafer construction 249

osseointegration 288–9, 291
- osteoblasts 273–6, 278–80
- osteoclasts 274–6, 279–80
- osteocytes 273–4, 279–80
- osteoporosis 109, 121–2, 275
- osteoprotegerin 275, 279
- osteotomy 234, 248–51

overbite
- cephalometric analysis 85
- Class II malocclusions 160–1, 165, 168–70
- Class III malocclusions 175, 180
- dentition 20–4, 30, 33
- index of orthodontic treatment needed 103
- orthognathic surgery 249
- patient assessment 45
- Straight Wire appliances 298
- Tip-Edge appliance 311–12, 314, 316
- treatment planning 108

overeruption 112

overjet 20–4
- anchorage 284
- Class II malocclusions 160–1, 163–4
- index of orthodontic treatment needed 102
- interceptive orthodontics 199–200
- OIIRR 123
- orthognathic surgery 248
- space analysis 91
- stability of corrections 165
- Straight Wire appliances 298
- Tip-Edge appliance 311–12, 315–16
- treatment planning 108

overnight polysomnography 264–5 palatal arches 198

palatal expansion 4, 14

palatal flaps 212

palatal mucosa 224–6

palatal root torque 91–2 palate 4, 6, 12–14

- see also cleft lip and palate

panoramic radiography
- clear aligners 322
- cleft lip and palate 258–9
- lingual appliances 341, 344, 346

panoramic tomography 184

PAR see Peer Assessment Rating

paraesthesia 246

parathyroid hormone (PTH) 273–5

partial-eruption 105

path of mandibular closure 45, 152

pathogenesis 119

pathological assessment 43

pathological conditions 184–5, 219–20

patient assessment 37–45

- cleft lip and palate 257–9
- dentition 44
- extraoral assessment 37–43
- habits 42
- intraoral examination 43–5
- lips 40–2
- occlusion 44–5
- oral hygiene 43
- orthognathic surgery 249–50
- pathological assessment 43
Index

skeletal pattern 37–40
temporomandibular joints 43 tongue 42
tooth position 44
patient concerns 106–8, 143
patient motivation 108, 240–1
PDL see periodontal ligament
Peer Assessment Rating (PAR) 76
percision 352–3 periodontal attachment 129, 161 periodontal fibres 118, 348–9 periodontal ligament (PDL) 119–23, 128
periodontium 123
permanent dentition 19, 23
  anterior open bite 220
  Class II malocclusions 162–3
  Class III malocclusions 176, 177–9
cleft lip and palate 259
deep overbite 227
hypodontia 241–3
personal tests 12
pharmacological records 109 pharmacological treatments 121–2, 129–30
pharyngeal airway development 10, 11–12
pharyngeal surgery 268
Phidias 48, 49
phospholipases 277–8
photographic records 67–74 physiological compensation 4 plate infections 246 Polycleitus 49
polysomnography 264–5
posed smiles 56
posterior crossbites 90 posteroanterior (PA) cephalographs 78
postsurgical orthodontics 251
power ties 342
pre-adjusted edgewise appliances see Straight Wire appliances premolars
  Class I malocclusions 153
  Class II malocclusions 162, 171
  Class III malocclusions 178–9 extractions 94, 162
hypodontia 239
index of orthodontic treatment needed 101
interceptive orthodontics 195, 202
lingual appliances 334, 338, 342
OIIRR 123
Tip-Edge appliance 311, 315
presurgical orthodontics 247–50 primary dentition 17–20, 175–6, 220
problem lists 110–12
proclination of labial segments 227–8, 236 proportionate templates 82–3 prosthetic replacements 259, 260–1
psychological factors
  abnormal responses to deformity 64–5
  acquired facial deformity 63–4
  dentofacial deformity 62–6
  facial aesthetics 52, 61–6
  interceptive orthodontics 189, 199
  legal/ethical aspects 145
  treatment planning 106–8
PTH see parathyroid hormone puckered chins 40–1 Pythagoras 48
quadhelix appliances 153, 155, 247
radiography
  Class II malocclusions 161
clear aligners 322
cleft lip and palate 258–9
facial asymmetry 182–3
impacted teeth 206–7
lingual appliances 341, 344, 346
OIIRR 118–19, 129
orthodontic records 67
see also cephalometric analysis ramus 13, 14
RANK/RANKL see receptor activator of nuclear factor [NF]- κB rapid maxillary expansion (RME) 153–6, 177, 247 rapid prototyping 331, 335
recall of patients 251–2
receptor activator of nuclear factor [NF]-κB (RANK/RANKL) 275–6, 278–9 reciprocal anchorage 283 reconstructive surgery 63 record-keeping see orthodontic records regulatory frameworks 143–4
relapse
  Class II malocclusions 172
  growth and development 4–5
  OIIRR 128
  stability and retention 348–53
remodelling processes 6–10, 12, 14–16
removable appliances 228, 325, 350, 353 research applications 80 residual space 95, 98
resorptive remodelling 6, 8–9, 12 restorative dentistry
  clear aligners 319, 323
  facial aesthetics 61, 62–3
  implants 287–91
  smile analysis 58
retainers 328–9, 350–2, 353
retention see stability and retention
retirement 145
retractors 68–71
retrusive maxilla 174–5 reverse overjet
  index of orthodontic treatment needed 102
  interceptive orthodontics 200
  orthognathic surgery 248
Tip-Edge appliance 316
  treatment planning 107
rhinoplasty 261
Ricketts’ E-line 40, 81–2, 86
Ricketts’ utility arch 229, 232 RME see rapid maxillary expansion root formation 19
root morphology 124
root resorption 117–18, 120, 124
  see also orthodontically induced inflammatory root resorption (OIIRR) root torque 170
Roth prescription 297
round tripping 230
Royal London Hospital space planning 88–98
sagittal problems 198–200
saliva ejectors 74
SAS see skeletal anchorage systems scanning electron microscopy (SEM) 118, 126 screw plates 153–4 secondary alveolar bone grafting 258–9 secondary crowding 31
segmental surgery 229, 234, 247–8 segmented arch mechanics 231–2 self-adjustable splints 265–6 self-image 52, 62
self-ligation
  advantages over conventional 300–4
  anchorage 285
  brackets 299, 300–7
  lingual appliances 335–6
  OIIRR 126
SEM see scanning electron microscopy
serial extraction 193–4
shape-memory materials 331–2 sinuses 12
six keys to occlusion 17, 18
skeletal anchorage systems (SAS) 289 skeletal open bite 112, 217–19
skeletal pattern 37–40
  Class I malocclusions 152
  Class II malocclusions 159, 161, 164–5, 166
  Class III malocclusions 174–5, 178–80
  deep overbite 225–6
  facial asymmetry 187
  orthognathic surgery 245
smile analysis 55–60
  buccal corridors 58–9
  embrasures, connectors and contacts 59–60
  gingival margins 59
  interceptive orthodontics 189
  lip line 55–7
  midlines 58
  smile arc 57–8
  tooth size and symmetry 57–8
  treatment planning 108
smile arc 57–8
social disability 52
soft tissues
  cephalometric analysis 85–6
  deep overbite 226
  interceptive orthodontics 189, 197–8
  occlusion 152, 159–60, 166–7, 174
  patient assessment 40
remodelling 6
stability and retention 349
space analysis 88–98
arch width changes 90, 92 benefits of space planning 88, 89 crowding and spacing 89–90 growth effects 95
incisor position and inclination 90–2 integration of space requirement components 92 levelling of occlusal curve 90 molar movements 93–5
residual space 95, 98
space creation and utilisation 92–5, 97–8 space requirements 89, 92, 96–7 spacings
clear aligners 319, 321
closure 158
hypodontia 240–1
incisors 17–21, 23–4
lingual appliances 342–3
occlusion 31
straight wire appliances 298
Tip-Edge appliance 312
see also space analysis specialist orthodontic treatment 141, 145, 146–7 splints 334
spontaneous smiles 56
stability and retention 348–54
adjunctive techniques 352–3 gingival and periodontal factors 348–9, 352–3
growth and development 349
informed consent 350
long-term maintenance 353 methods of reducing relapse 350–3 occlusal factors 348–9
relapse 348–53
research issues 348
retainers 350–2, 353
risk factors 349–50
soft tissues 349
static occlusion 17–18, 44–5 stepwise advancement of the mandible 328 stereotyping 52

Straight Wire appliances 294–9
anchorage 285
auxiliary features 296 characteristics 294–6 convenience features 296–7
deep overbite 228–31
dentition, levelling and alignment 297 development 294–5
finishing 298–9 modifications 299
OIIRR 126
overbite and overjet 298 slot sitting features 296 spacing 298
treatment stages 297–9
study models 76–7
submerged deciduous teeth 105 supernumerary teeth 32, 105, 255 surgical exposure 208–12 surgical-orthodontic approach
hypodontia 243
impacted teeth 212
joint orthodontic-orthognathic clinics 245–6, 249–50
occlusion 171–2, 176, 179–80
symmetry see facial asymmetry TADs see temporary anchorage devices tartrate resistant acid phosphatase (TRAP) cells 119, 129–30 taurodontism 239
tearing 52, 62
temporary anchorage devices (TADs) 212, 222, 287 temporomandibular joints (TMJ) 43, 191 thermoplastic retainers 345 thin hypertonic lips 33, 40 third law of motion 282–3 three-dimensional computed tomography 186 thumb sucking see digit sucking thyroid hormone 130
tie-wings 335
timing of treatment 114
TIMP see tissue inhibitors of metalloproteinases
Tip-Edge appliance 299, 308–17
  anchorage 285
  deep overbite 231
  derivation and design 308–9 differential tooth movement 308, 311
  impacted teeth 212–13
  OIIRR 126
  patient case study 309–16 versatility 315–16
  tissue differentiation 3–4 tissue inhibitors of metalloproteinases (TIMP) 276, 279 TMJ see temporomandibular joints TNF see tumour necrosis factor tongue assessments 42
tongue position 30
tongue thrusting 218
tooth see dental; orthodontic torque control 331
transitional dentition 20–2 transpalatal arches (TPA) 221, 283–4, 288 transposition of teeth 239 transverse maxillary deficiency 44 transverse maxillary growth 255–7 transverse skeletal pattern 24, 39–40, 245, 247 TRAP see tartrate resistant acid phosphatase
trauma
  Class II malocclusions 168
  deep overbite 224
  impacted teeth 205
  interceptive orthodontics 199
  OIIRR 122
treating children 144
treatment analysis 80, 86
treatment planning 106–16
  algorithm 113
  Class II malocclusions 168–72
  deep overbite 235
  facial asymmetry 186
  general dental health 109
  growth estimations 109–10
  impacted teeth 207–8
  informed consent 115
  medical histories 108–9
  OIIRR 128
  patient concerns 106–8
  patient motivation 108
  problem lists 110–12
  severity of malocclusion 114–15
  timing of treatment 114
  treatment aims 112
  treatment options 112–15 tumour necrosis factor (TNF) 275, 279 turbo-props 233
  twin block appliances 326–8
  anterior open bite 221
  occlusion 163–4, 169, 177
  unerupted teeth
    cephalometric analysis 80
    impacted teeth 205
    interceptive orthodontics 193–6
    lingual appliances 334
    upper anterior face height (UAFH) 85 upper removable appliance (URA) 176–7 vacuum-formed retainers 350–1 vacuum-formed splints 266 vertical anchorage 283
    vertical dental height 57 vertical maxillary excess (VME) 219 vertical maxillary height 56–7 vertical skeletal dysplasia 82, 84–5
    vertical skeletal pattern
      deep overbite 235–6
      dentition 25
      occlusion 29–30, 159, 169
      orthognathic surgery 245
      patient assessment 39
    visual analogue scales 100 vitamin D 121
    VME see vertical maxillary excess
    wafer construction 249
    window technique 209 wire ligatures 300–2
    Wits appraisal 83–4
X-ray see radiography z-springs 155, 176–7
zero meridian 85
zygomatic arch 12