INDEX

5 Cs of crisis communication 636–40
5W-H mnemonic 8
8 Cs of written communication 125
360° feedback, strengths and weaknesses 21 abstract language 639 abstracts 180
academic writing compared to workplace writing 266–7 see also essay writing accents 294
acculturation 529–31 acquired bias 181
active listening 356–7
active voice 145
adhocracy organisational culture 598, 599 adornment, messages sent by 298–300 aggressive communication style 325–6 aggressive listening 349 agreement buffers in letters 141 alignment strategy 572 alignment of text 55–6
all-channel networks 587
analytical reports
  appendices or attachments 183, 228 conclusions 182, 202
  cover 178
  discussion 180–2, 193–202 editing checklist 184–5 glossary 183–4
  index 184
  introduction 180, 191–2 letter of transmittal 179, 186 list of abbreviations 183–4 list of illustrations 180, 189 memo or email of transmittal 179, 186 recommendations 182–3, 203 references 183, 203
  sample 185–203
  structure 177–8
  summary 160, 190
  table of contents 179–80, 188 title 179, 187 writing style 178
annual reports, strengths and weaknesses 23 antagonists, contact and communication 511 apologies 513
appeal letters 154, 155 appendices 183, 228
Apple iPad 242–3
Apple iTunes U 242
appreciation buffers in letters 140–1 Argentina, culture 540, 541 argumentative strategies 429, 433–5 arguments development methods 181, 254–5 in essays 254–5 ethical argument tools 429–32 influence in 448–50
and lateral thinking 436 and logic 425–36
structure 424–5
Toulmin’s model 428–9
see also persuasion Aronoff and Wilson’s styles of negotiation 481–3 articulateness 409
articulation 294, 409
ask for specifics verbal skill 334 assertiveness behaviour patterns 327–9 as communication style 325 definition 326
  as dimension of culture 540 as life position 324–5 limitations of 336–7 power and protection 326–7 practice and rehearsal 336 self-assessment 329–31
  verbal skills 331–6
assessment, politics of 258 asynchronous communication 19, 573 attachments to emails 228
  to reports 183
attention line, in letters 130 Attention–Interest–Desire–Action (AIDA) sequence 151–3 audience attention span 388 audiences, as message targets 389–94 audio-conferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22 audiovisual aids, in oral communication 412–16 Australia, culture 538, 540, 546, 548
Australian Questioning Intonation (AQI) 294, 411
authorial voice 265–6 backchanneling 291
backgrounder 629–30
bad news letters conveying bad news 143–5, 146
  effective example 150
  indirect approach 138–9
  ineffective examples 148–9 lessening impact 140–3 possible situations and responses 146–7 preserving goodwill 139–40 silver linings 145
bad news in media releases 628 bad news sandwich approach 140–3 balanced approach 181 bar graphs 63–5, 73
BATNAs (Best Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement) 460, 461 behavioural encoding 14
Berlo, D 10
Berlo’s SMCR model 10
bias 257
‘biblio-dumping’ 107–8
bids 207
bitcoins 219
bloatware 235
blogs, strengths and weaknesses 25 body movement 288–90
boosterism 182
boosting linguistic strategies 263–4 bottom line 463
boundary spanners 588, 589–90 Brazil, culture 546 briefings by supervisors, strengths and weaknesses 22 broadband 219 broken record verbal skill 333 Buddhism 557
buffering 513–14
building a case 504
business letters
  bad news letters 134, 138–50
  explicit and implicit messages 139
  good news letters 134–7
  nonroutine messages 134 openings 135
  routine messages 134
  as sales documents 139
business plans 204
callouts 62
causation 62
celebrity industry 619
central processing 442 centralised organisations 582–3 chain of command 575 chain networks 587
channels of communication communicating effectively 26–8 definition 5, 19
  nature of 19–20
  in organisations 573–5
  RSVP model 26–7
  strengths and weaknesses of different types 20–6 cartjunk 61
charts 23, 62
chat sites 95
China
  business and negotiation style 557–9 culture 540, 541, 548, 556–7
  intercultural communication 556–9 nonverbal behaviour 559 similarities with West 558–9 chronemics 303–4
chronicity 545
CIRCLE model of feedback 361–2 circle networks 586
citation styles 105
clan organisational culture 598 clash of civilisations 547–50 clear language 638
cliques 588
closed search strategies 114 closed-circuit telecasts, strengths and weaknesses 22 clothing, messages sent by 298–300, 407 clusters of nonverbal communication 286 cognitive dissonance 447 collection letters 153–5 collectivist cultures 534, 536 colour in documents 57
columns 57 combination graphs 67–8 communication definition 4 distinguished from communications 4–5 as source of conflict 29–30 when less is best 29–30 within communications 6 communication breakdown 9 communication channels see channels of communication communication fields, concentric model 507, 526, 572 communication flows, in organisations 576–8 communication models
Berlo’s SMCR model 10
expanded model 12–28
Foulger’s ecological model 12
Lasswell’s model 8
Lievrouw and Finn’s communication systems model 10–11
Shannon–Weaver SMR model 9 communication modes, formality–informality continuum 225 communication networks, types 586 communication processes, time spent on different activities 346 communication styles 325–6 communication success 9 communications communication within 5–6 distinguished from communication 4–5 communications technology, innovations 6–7 complex sentence technique 143
complimentary closes 130 compliments, giving and receiving 327–8 comprehension aids 388–9 compromises 516
concerned language 639–40 concessions or tradeables 463–5 concise language 636–7
conclusions
analytical reports 182, 202
cue words for 425
concrete language 639 confidentiality tactic 394 confirmation bias 257 conflict approaches to 498 causes 497–8, 515
functional versus dysfunctional 518 and intercultural communication 552–3 internal conflict 506–8 negative outcomes 496 outcomes 457–8
positive payoffs 496
see also organisational conflict conflict analysis chart 500 conflict diagnostic model 499–500 conflict management approaches to 510–18
challenges of 497
de-escalation thresholds 512–13 scale of solution 514 threat of sanctions 514 conflict resolution as goal 497
GRIT strategy 512
conflict spirals challenging 505–6
sequence 503–5 strategies for getting off 506 zones 502–3 conflict-handling styles 500–2 conformity 446
Confucianism 557
conjugations word game 441 consonants, formation of 409 constituencies 622
constants 61
context of communication process, key issues 28 continuous text format 47 continuous variables 61 convenience sampling 118 conversation initiating and maintaining 328–9 retrievals 350
cool language 638–9
cooperative principle 337–8 copy details, letters 131–4 correlation 62 courtesy titles 129
creative doubt 257
credibility, evaluation of individuals 438–9 crises, and organisational learning 640 crisis communication environmental scanning and crisis control 634 issue definition 633–4
language five Cs 636–40 with media 635–6
role of 632–3
transparency 634–5
critical incidents 503 critical thinking scoring guide 250–1 criticism, responding to 332–3, 334 crowdfunding 211–12
cultural context continuum 544
cultural differences
in conflict situations 511 nonverbal communication 290–1, 292, 293, 294, 296 in sex and gender roles 536–7 cultural intelligence (CQ) model 531–3 cultural sensitivity 479
culture
clash of civilisations model 547–50 classificatory models 534–50 context model 543–6 defining 526–7, 534
five-dimensional model 534–9 GLOBE model 539–42
relationship with economics 533–4 see also intercultural communication culture of silence 601–2 cumulative method 254
darknet 96–7, 218, 219–20 data, transfer of 4–5 data collation 115–16
databases 91–3
dataholics 8
dating systems for letters 127, 129 de-layering 579
decentralised organisations 582–3 deceptive organisations, and impression management 374–5 decision avoidance 182
decoding of messages 14 decoupling 513–14
deductive logic 426
deepnet 96
Denmark, culture 540, 541 deviation graphs 66–7, 73 Dewey decimal classification system 87–8 diagonal communication 577, 578 diagram and text format 48 diagrams 70–2, 73 dichotomous questions 114
direct approach
good news letters 134–5
letter writing 126
report structure 177–8
directories 94–5
discrete variables 61
dissim and redirect verbal skill 332 dispositio 254–5
distinction of degree 427 distinction of kind 427 distributive bargaining 465 distributive negotiation 476 Germany, culture 540, 541, 545–6 gesture 296
GLOBE model of culture 539–42 goal incompatibility 509 gobbledegook 639–40
good news letters
comprising the message 135
direct approach 134–5
effective example 137
ineffective example 136
openings 135
good news in media releases 628
Google, online library 242
Google Scholar 93
gossip 594
grabs 636–7
grabspeak 637
grant applications 204
the grapevine
approaches to 595–6
operation of 592–5
origin of term 593
strengths and weaknesses 23 using to research audience 392 graphic communication properties of different tools 72–3 strengths and weaknesses 61
types 61–8
use and abuse 73–5
graphs 62, 63–8
Greece, culture 538, 540, 541, 542
GRIT conflict resolution method 512 group dynamics 511
Hall's context model of culture 543–6 hand gestures 405–6
handshaking 298
haptics 298
Harvard system 100–3
HATS 53
head movements 290–1, 405 headers 57, 132
hearing, and listening 346 hedging linguistic strategies 263–4 help, asking for 328 hierarchies 575
hierarchy of needs 443–4 hierarchy organisational culture 598 high-power-distance cultures 535 high rising tone (HRT) 411 high uncertainty-avoidance cultures 535–6
high-contact cultures 298 high-context cultures 303–4, 543–6, 560–2 high-transparency organisations 635 hobby horses 182
Hofstede's model of culture 534–9
Hong Kong, culture 541
honorifics 129
horizontal communication 576, 578 horizontal conflict 508 hot-button words 143, 144, 504 House's model of cultures 539–42 human behaviour, biological basis of 289–90 Hummingbird 241
Hungary 540
Huntington's clash of civilisations model 547–50
hyperlinks
in emails 228
in online writing 221, 222, 223 identification tactic 393 image sites 95
imperative/indicative mood 145 impersonal/indirect style 265 imprecise language, as cause of conflict 515 impression management and deceptive organisations 374–5 in job interviews 372–4
nature of 371–2
and reality television 375–6 tactics 372
imprint pages 90
inclusion 550
indexes, to analytical reports 184 India, culture 538, 541
indirect approach
bad news letters 138–9
letter writing 126
report structure 177–8
indiscreet insiderism 182 individualism 536, 560
individualist cultures 534, 536 Indonesia, culture 546
inductive logic 426
inflection of voice 294, 411 influence principles 448–9
tactics 449–50
informal meetings, strengths and weaknesses 21 informal organisations 576, 592–6 informal writing style 178 information architecture 44, 45 information design
definition 44
drafting and testing 51–2 means, ends, assumptions and audiences 50–1 mixing and matching of communication tools 47–8
model 50
mosaic approach 221–3 planning 49–50
and readability 46 structure and analysis 49, 51 trends 45
usability 46, 52
visual material 49
information overload 232–3 information/persuasion mix continuum 168
instant messaging, strengths and weaknesses 24 intangible assets 602–3 integrative bargaining 465, 466 integrative negotiation 476 intelligence, Middleton's model 532–3 intercultural clashes 548–50 intercultural communication with Chinese 556–9
and conflict 552–3
cultural intelligence (CQ) model 531–3 differences and similarities 527–8 and GLOBE model 541–2 models 529–33
with North Americans 559–62 paradoxes of 528–9
preparation for 553–5 ‘rules’ for different cultures 553–5 strategies 555–6
intercultural competence, Deardorff's pyramid model 530–1 intercultural sensitivity 529–30 internal conflicts, types 507–8 internet darknet or invisible web 96–7 forms of communication 218 growth of 218
managing research catch 97 map 96
searching 94–5
security and privacy 220 as source of information 93 writing on 220–1 internet addiction 233, 234 interpersonal communication skills 316, 337–8, 510 interpersonal distance 300–2, 544 interruptions of speakers 294 interviewing 111–12
intracultural conflicts 548–50, 582 intranets
nature of 218
strengths and weaknesses 24
intrapersonal communication skills 316 relationship to interpersonal communication 323 self-talk 321–5 intrapersonal conflict 506–8 introductions in reports 180, 191–2 rhetorical moves 255
invisible web 96–7
Iran, culture 541
Ireland, culture 541
Islam, clash with West 550
issue definition 633–4
issue linkage 504
Italy, culture 540, 541, 547
itemised list format 47 advantages and disadvantages 124–5 attention line 130
complimentary closes 130
copy details 131–4
corporate identity and marketing tool 133 dating systems 127, 129 document initials 131 elements of 126–32
enclosure details 131
headers/footers 132
recipient’s name and address 129 reference details 131 salutation 130
security headings 131
sender’s address 127
sender’s contact details 131 signature block 130
subject line 130
titles, honorifics and roles 129 see also business letters;
persuasive letters
libraries classification systems 87–8 using catalogues 89–91
Library of Congress classification system 87, 88 lie detection, and nonverbal communication 305–6 Lievrouw and Finn’s communication systems model 10–11
line graphs 65–6, 73
LinkedIn, strengths and weaknesses 26 list of illustrations, reports 180, 189 listening
active listening 356–7
barriers to effective listening 354–5 and being interested 355
definition 346
effective listening 356–7 and hearing 346
importance 347–9
and silence 353–4 listening behaviour and nonverbal communication 350 power and gender 350
self-assessment 351–3
listening fallacies 354 listening skills developing 353–5 importance in workplace 349 lack of 347
for negotiators 476 lists 57 literature search/survey 86 lobbying 169, 172, 205–6 logic and argument 425–36 fallacies and non-fallacies 429–32 inductive and deductive 426 tools 427
logos 439
long-term orientation cultures 534, 537 low power–distance cultures 535 low uncertainty-avoidance cultures 535–6 low-contact cultures 298 low-context cultures 303–4, 543–6, 560 low-transparency organisations 635 McLuhan, Marshall 27
macro-culture 527, 596
MADE formula, email structure 226
Malaysia, culture 541 management by listening 348 manipulative communication style 325–6 maps 70, 73
margins 54–5 market organisational culture 598, 599 masculine cultures 534, 536–7 Maslow’s hierarchy of needs 443–4
Maxims of Quantity, Quality, Relation and Manner 337 MBWA, strengths and weaknesses 23 meaning, transfer of 4 mechanical encoding 14
mechanistic organisational design 583–4 media and crisis communication 635–6 and transformation of messages 27 media kits 631–2 media releases 626–9
mediated communication 19 mediation 516–18
mediators 517
memo of transmittal 179, 186 memos, strengths and weaknesses 20 message recipients 443–7 message senders, credibility of 437–9 message termination and failure 28–9 messages central versus peripheral processing 442–3
decoding 14
editing 17–18
encoding 14
nature of 13–14
potency of 439–41
pre-editing 14–17
sending of 442–3 meta-communication 6
meta-tags 241
metacrawlers 94, 95
micro-culture 527, 596 mingling, with audience 392 minutes 169
mirror questions 113
mirroring of nonverbal behaviour 297 mispronunciation 409–11 mixed search strategies 114–15
MLATNAs (Most Likely Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement) 461 modems 219
moderators, for oral presentations 392
monetisation 241, 242
monochronic cultures 543, 560 mossack approach to information design 221–3 motivation, models of 443–6 motivational patterns 507 multiculturalism 551–2
MUM effect 138
Mutually Assured Destruction (MAD) document 511

naive user reviews 52
nasality 294
necessary conditions 427 negative emotions, expressing 329 negative-sum outcome 457 negotiation agreements 486–7 avoidance of 461
BATNAs 460, 461
bottom line 463
in China 557–9
concessions or tradeables 463–5 definition and use 456 fallback positions 462 goals 462
on home ground 470, 471 lasting resolutions 458–9 MLATNAs 461
neutral venue 470, 473
on other’s territory 470, 472–3 packaging deals 474–5 Pie or cake metaphor 458 place of 469–73
Plan Bs 460
planning 485–6
positions versus interests 465–7 principals 474
researching other party 462 situations when appropriate 510 stakeholders 474 strategies and tactics 483–5 stressfulness 474
timeliness factors 473 uncovering interests 467–9 WATNAs 460

negotiation models

oral communication adaptation for audience 389–94 articulateness and articulation 409–12 audiovisual aids 412–16 content planning 395–7 feedback 402, 416
forms 384–5
notes 407–8
planning and structuring 394–6 power map approach to agreement 390–1
presentation structure model 396 rehearsal 397–9
speech evaluation checklist 417 three-part talk structure 395 time planning 394–5
as two-way process 402–3 types of discourse 385–6 oral reports compared to written reports 387–9 handouts 389, 414
order letters 156–8
organic organisational design 583–4 organisational communication analysing breakdowns 370–1 channels 573–5, 578 creation 518
in culture of silence 601–2 flows of communication 576–8 importance of 579
in informal organisations 592–6 job satisfaction, health and accidents 579
and knowledge management 602–7 management approaches 510–18
nature of 573
network roles 586–9 networking 585–92
networks and channels 578 and organisational culture 596–602
role of 510
in silo cultures 599–601
strategies 575
see also the grapevine organisational conflict contributing factors 509 patterns 508–9 organisational culture
culture of silence 601–2 examples of bad cultures 599–602 expressions and underlying assumptions 597
importance 597–8
key characteristics 596–7 and organisational communication 596–602
silo cultures 599–601
types 598–9
Organisational Culture Assessment Instrument (OCAI) 598 organisational demography, three-stage
model 551
organisational design centralised versus decentralised 582–3 flat versus tall organisations 579–82 formal and informal organisations 575–6
  organic versus mechanistic organisations 583–4
organisational learning, from crises 640 organisational ‘silence’ 601–2
organisations
  definition 572
  formal organisations 575, 593 informal 576, 592–6
  as networks 585–6 rumours and gossip 594
  transparency 635
orientation of body 297, 407 orphans 56

pacing of oral reports 388 panic language 638–9 paradigms 424–5
paragraphs 57, 132–3
paraphrasing 108
paralinguistics 293–4
paradigm 540
paradoxes 409, 409–11
pied graphs 63, 73
paraphrasing 108
paralinguistics 293–4
personal competence 318
personal/direct style 265 personal space/territoriality 300–2, 544 personal/direct style 265
persuasion approaches 151
  and conformity 446 credibility of message sender 437–9 door-in-the-face technique 442 and ethics 446–7
  features–benefits mix 439–40 foot-in-the-door technique 442 language styles 441 obedience, rationalising and true believers 446–7
  potency of message 439–41 principles of 437–8 proofs 440–1
  responses to 448
  rhetorical mix 439
  susceptibility to 446–7 persuasion process 437 persuasion–propaganda sequences 443
persuasive letters
  appearance and enclosures 153 attracting reader interest 152 collection letters 153–5
  order letters 156–8
  request letters 155–6 structuring 151–3
  phatic communication 231 菲律宾, culture 538, 541
  photographs 70
  physical environment as mode of communication 302
  pictograms 68, 73
  pitch of voice 293–4, 411–12 placid environment 580 plagiarism 106, 107–8, 259 plain English movement 45 plant tactic 394
  plenary briefings, strengths and weaknesses 22
  podcasts, strengths and weaknesses 24 point of view 253
  Poland 540
  polychronic cultures 543 portrait orientation 56 Portugual, cultural dimensions 538 position papers function 630, 631
    strengths and weaknesses 24
    structure 630
  positive-sum outcome 457 posters, strengths and weaknesses 23 posture 297, 406–7
  power distance 534, 535 power map approach to audience 390–1 power/value asymmetry 509 PowerPoint presentations 415–16 praise, to break deadlocks 513 pre-editing of messages 14–17 pre-editing strategies 15–17 preconceived bias 181 preferences in communication style 27 premises 425
  Priestley’s paradox 6–8 primary data 84, 85, 111, 175 primary sources 111–18
  print sources 86
  procurement 204
  profiles 631
  pronunciation 409, 409–11
  proofreading, of letters 133–4
  proofs
    and examples 253
    and persuasion 440–1
    and sources 258–9
  proposals
    dos and don’ts 207–8
    format 168
    nature of 204
    provocation 505
  proxemics 300
  ‘pseudo-events’ 619
  psychobabble 316
  public communication documents 626–32 public information model 619 public relations campaigns budget, results and evaluation 626 communication strategy 635–6 goals and objectives 624 research 625
  situational analysis 623–4
  structure 623
public relations communication context 618–21
  see also crisis communication public relations models 619 public relations practitioners communicating with publics 622–3 roles 621
public speaking analysing and working with problem audiences 391–4 managing performance stress 399–402 nonverbal communication 403–7 publicity model 619
publics, types within organisations 622–3 ‘pulling the rug’ tactic 393 punctuation, in letters 133 pyramid hierarchy of organisations 575 quality of communication, and quantity of channels of information 7 question types, for primary research 113–15
questioning effective questioning 358–9 to prompt awareness 332 questionnaires 112–15 questions conceding ignorance 392 following oral presentations 392–4 quotations 106–8
random samples 118
rank order questions 114 rationalisation, and ethics 31–2 reactivity 182
readability, and information design 46 receivers (messages) 13
recipient’s name and address 129
recognition tactic 393 recommendations, analytical reports 182–3, 203
reference details, in letters 131 references, analytical reports 183, 203 referencing systems 99–105 referent power 438
reflective listening 356 reinforcement 26
reminder letters 154, 155 report writing, compared to essay writing 169–71
report writing process 174–7
reports
  audience 172–3
  compared to GATSUPs 205
  data collection 175 delivery 176
Index

Table of Contents, reports 179–80, 188
Tables 68–9, 73
Tactile thinking 98–9
Tall organisations 580–2
Taoism 557
Technological determinism 27
Technologically mediated communication 5
Telecommuters 585–6
Teleconferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22
Telephone interviewing 111–12
Tells (Nonverbal behaviour) 286, 305
Tenders
  bribery and corruption 207
  dos and don’ts 207–8
  four-phase model for preparation 208–9 hierarchical model 210–11
  planning process 210
  purpose of 204
Territoriality 300–2, 544
Tertiary data 84, 85, 86–97, 175
Texting, strengths and weaknesses 24
Thailand, culture 538, 541
Thesis statements 83, 261
Threats, in conflict spiral 504–5
Time and simultaneity 29
Time use as form of communication 303–4
Timidity 182
Tit for tat 512
Top–down communication 576
Topic loyalty or capture 181
Topic sentences 261–2
TOR (The Onion Router) software 219
Touching
  cultural differences 545
  types 298
Toulmin’s model of argumentation 428–9
Traditional writing, linear and narrative nature 221, 222
Transparency, in crisis
  communication 634–5
‘True believers’ 447
Turbulent environment 580
Twitter, strengths and weaknesses 25–6
Two-way asymmetric communication 620
Two-way symmetric communication 620
Type A pattern 349
Type size 53–4
Type treatment 54
Typefaces 53
Ultimatum letters 154, 155
Uncertainty avoidance 534, 535–6, 540
Unclear language 638
Uniform Resource Locators (URLs) 229

Synchronous communication 19, 573
Synopsis 180
Systematic encoding 14

Table of Contents, reports 179–80, 188
Tables 68–9, 73
Tactile thinking 98–9
Tall organisations 580–2
Taoism 557
Technological determinism 27
Technologically mediated communication 5
Telecommuters 585–6
Teleconferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22
Telephone interviewing 111–12
tells (nonverbal behaviour) 286, 305
tenders
  bribery and corruption 207
  dos and don’ts 207–8
  four-phase model for preparation 208–9
  hierarchical model 210–11
  planning process 210
  purpose of 204
Territoriality 300–2, 544
Tertiary data 84, 85, 86–97, 175
Texting, strengths and weaknesses 24
Thailand, culture 538, 541
thesis statements 83, 261
threats, in conflict spiral 504–5
time and simultaneity 29
time use as form of communication 303–4
timidity 182
tit for tat 512
top–down communication 576
topic loyalty or capture 181
topic sentences 261–2
TOR (The Onion Router) software 219
touching
  cultural differences 545
types 298
Toulmin’s model of argumentation 428–9 traditional writing, linear and narrative nature 221, 222
transparency, in crisis
  communication 634–5
‘true believers’ 447
turbulent environment 580
Twitter, strengths and weaknesses 25–6
two-way asymmetric communication 620
two-way symmetric communication 620
Type A pattern 349
type size 53–4
type treatment 54
typefaces 53
ultimatum letters 154, 155
uncertainty avoidance 534, 535–6, 540
unclear language 638
Uniform Resource Locators (URLs) 229

Synchronous communication 19, 573
Synopsis 180
Systematic encoding 14

Table of Contents, reports 179–80, 188
Tables 68–9, 73
tactile thinking 98–9
tall organisations 580–2
taoism 557
technological determinism 27
technologically mediated communication 5
telecommuters 585–6
teleconferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22
telephone interviewing 111–12
tells (nonverbal behaviour) 286, 305
tenders
  bribery and corruption 207
dos and don’ts 207–8
four-phase model for preparation 208–9
hierarchical model 210–11
planning process 210
purpose of 204
territoriality 300–2, 544
tertiary data 84, 85, 86–97, 175
texting, strengths and weaknesses 24
Thailand, culture 538, 541
thesis statements 83, 261
threat as verbal skill 334
threats, in conflict spiral 504–5
time and simultaneity 29
time use as form of communication 303–4
timidity 182
tit for tat 512
top–down communication 576
topic loyalty or capture 181
topic sentences 261–2
TOR (The Onion Router) software 219
touching
cultural differences 545
types 298
Toulmin’s model of argumentation 428–9 traditional writing, linear and narrative nature 221, 222
transparency, in crisis
  communication 634–5
‘true believers’ 447
turbulent environment 580
Twitter, strengths and weaknesses 25–6
two-way asymmetric communication 620
two-way symmetric communication 620
Type A pattern 349
type size 53–4
type treatment 54
typefaces 53
ultimatum letters 154, 155
uncertainty avoidance 534, 535–6, 540
unclear language 638
Uniform Resource Locators (URLs) 229
uniforms 299
United States
business and negotiation style 560–2
culture 538, 540, 541, 548, 559–62
intracultural conflict 548–9
nonverbal communication 562
unofficial public communication 578 uptalk 294, 411
upward communication 576–7, 578 US spelling 57
usability 46, 52

Vancouver system 104–5
variables 61
variation, in message content 27 vendettas 182
Venezuela, cultural dimensions 538, 540 verbal headlining 397 vertical communication 576 vertical conflict 508 video recordings, strengths and weaknesses 23 video-conferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22 ‘violence workers’ 447 virtual organisations 585, 586 virtual teams 586
visuals nature and uses 61–8

properties of different graphic tools 72–3
use and abuse 73–5
voice hearing one’s own 293 inflection 294, 411
pitch 293–4, 411–12
pronunciation 409–11
volume 293, 545
voicemails, strengths and weaknesses 21

waffle 262
Warner’s styles of negotiation 480–1 WATNAs (Worst Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement) 460 web pages reading of text 238–9 and web writings 237–8
web writing audience 238–9
bad web writing 239 challenges 237
readability 240
and technical processes 237–8 webspam 241
web-conferencing, strengths and weaknesses 22 websites assessing 93
as communication form 220

keywords 241
meta-tags 241
monetisation 241, 242
strengths and weaknesses 24
writer’s/editor’s tasks in development 238
webspam 241
West, clash with Islam 550 wheel networks 587
white space 56
whiteboards 413
whitewashes 182
widows 57
Wikipedia, using as a reference 108–10 wikis, strengths and weaknesses 24–5 win–win situation 457–9 Winner’s curse 468
wireless transmission 219 workable compromise verbal skill 334 workflow interdependence 509 workplace writing, compared to academic writing 266–7 world wide web 218
written communication, eight Cs 125

X-Y system 62

‘you’ attitude 125, 239

zero-sum outcome 457