Contents

Introduction: Contemplating a House of Cards 1

Part I  Socrates, Plato, and Frank 3
1  Of Sheep, Shepherds, and a Wolf in Sheep’s Clothing: The Cynical View of Politics in House of Cards and Plato’s Republic
   James Ketchen and Michael Yeo 5
2  Being versus Seeming: Socrates and the Lessons of Francis Underwood’s Asides
   John Scott Gray 16

Part II  Imagining Possibilities: American Ideals in House of Cards 29
3  Frank Underwood Gives the Ideal Society a Reality Check
   Brian Kogelmann 31
4  “What Will We Leave Behind?” Claire Underwood’s American Dream
   Sarah J. Palm and Kenneth W. Stikkers 42

Part III  Characterizing Frank: Übermensch or the Prince 53
5  Underwood as Übermensch: A Postmodern Play of Power
   Leslie A. Aarons 55
CONTENTS

6 Why Underwood Is Frankly Not an Overman
Matt Meyer
68

7 American Machiavelli
Greg Littmann
81

8 Machiavelli Would Not Be Impressed
Don Fallis
92

9 Is Frank the Man for the Job? House of Cards and the Problem of Dirty Hands
Tomer J. Perry
102

---

Part IV Classical Liberalism and Democracy

10 Frank the Foole, Upon a House of Cards
Shane D. Courtland
115

11 Hobbes and Frank on Why Democracy Is Overrated
Steven Michels
128

12 “Democracy Is So Overrated”: The Shortcomings of Popular Rule
Brendan Shea
141

13 “Money Gives Power … Well, a Run for Its Money”: Marx’s Observations on Why Capital and Not Frank Is Really in Charge of the White House
Chris Byron and Nathan Wood
152

14 Freedom and Democracy in a House of Fear
Roberto Sirvent and Ian Diorio
163

---

Part V Intrapersonal Relationships, Sexuality, and Race in House of Cards

15 Under the Covers with the Underwoods: The Sexual Politics of the Underwood Marriage
Jason Southworth and Ruth Tallman
175

16 The Spice of White Life: Freddy and Racist Representations
Stephanie Rivera Berruz
187
CONTENTS

17 Broken Friendships and the Pathology of Corporate Personhood in House of Cards
   Myron Moses Jackson 197

Part VI  Existential Realities: Self-Love and Freedom 207

18 Praying to One’s Self, for One’s Self: Frank’s Ethics and Politics of Autoeroticism
   Kody W. Cooper 209

19 Existential Freedom, Self-Interest, and Frank Underwood’s Underhandedness
   J. Edward Hackett 219

Part VII  Let Me Be Frank with You: Agency, Aesthetics, and Intention 227

20 Rooting for the Villain: Frank Underwood and the Lack of Imaginative Resistance
   László Kajtár 229

21 Frank Underwood’s Intentions
   Angelica Kaufmann 237

22 Francis Underwood’s Magical Political Mystery Tour Is Dying to Take You Away; Dying to Take You Away, Take You Today
   Austin Dressen and Charles Taliaferro 245

Part VII  Virtue and Character in House of Cards 255

23 Frank Underwood and the Virtue of Friendship
   Katherine K. Johnson 257

24 Have You No Decency? Who Is Worse, Claire or Frank?
   Randall Auxier 265

President Frank Underwood’s White House Staff (Contributors) 282
Index 289