Index

Note: Page numbers in italics denote figures and tables. The abbreviation FI is used for family intervention.

adolescent clinic, Amsterdam 118–19
clinical case 121–34
amplified reflections 133–4 assessment process 32–4, 74–5
complex cases 97–100
FMI intervention 121–4
grief work 175–7
high EE 148–9
inpatient units 267–70
multi-family group 245–7 for organisations 316–17 siblings of people with psychosis 193–5 attributional styles challenging unhelpful beliefs 69, 246–7, 252, 253 and expressed emotion 144
‘Beating the Boundaries’ COOL seminars 340–1, 342
Behavioural Family Therapy (BFT) benefits of 10–11
client’s perspective 16 experience of 6–10
general pattern of 27
meetings 11–12
mother’s personal feelings about 14–16 outcomes, longer term 13–14 therapist perspectives 16–17 beliefs about mental illness cultural differences 218–25, 365–6 potential clinical implications 365 and response to psychosis 364 bipolar disorder, case examples 296, 347–8 Calgary Early Psychosis Programme 26, 47–50
case study 51–62
Camberwell Family Interview (CFI) 142–3 cannabis use 5, 6, 52, 54, 97, 106, 268–9
family motivational intervention (FMI) 117–35
information sharing 273–4 see also substance use carers’ information pack, launch of 347

A Casebook of Family Interventions for Psychosis
Edited by Fiona Lobban and Christine Barrowclough
© 2009 John Wiley & Sons, Ltd

369
Index

Carers One-to-One Link (COOL)  approach 339–42
Beating the Boundaries seminars 340–1, 342 case histories 344–52, 353
funding 344
causality, beliefs and models of 124–5, 144–5, 214, 241, 242, 247 CBT see cognitive behavioural therapy change
driving & restraining forces 316–17 motivational approach to 127–34 resistance to 104–5, 117, 133–5 cocaine use 96, 97, 107, 108
Coding System for Integrity of Treatment (COSIT) 124
Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT) 69 challenging beliefs 365
grief work 170–1, 177–80
psychoeducation 251
psychosis and substance use 94–5 relapse prevention in FEP 83–6 in situ training in 291
Somerset FI service 292–4
communication congruent and abstract 109
dysfunctional 176–7 improving 149, 153–5
issues with culturally diverse groups 217–18 skills training 37–8, 39, 127–8, 131–4, 199–200, 274–5 Community Mental Health Team (CMHT) importance of feedback from 110 compassionate approaches 95, 103–14 confidentiality conflicts in inpatient units 261, 279 resulting in exclusion of parents 266, 345–6 sibling work 189

see also information sharing Cool Recovery Ltd see Carers One-to-One Link (COOL) approach coping strategies
challenging unhelpful 69
early warning signs (EWS) action plan 77–8, 81–2 and high expressed emotion 145, 239
high-risk families 55–7
for paranoia, unhelpful 153 religious/spiritual 214, 220–1, 223, 224–5 trauma-type reactions 246
see also psychoeducation

Crisis management 51–7

criticism, ‘high EE’ families 142, 145, 364 culturally diverse groups, FI with 211–24 depression, recovery from 348–50 disenfranchised loss, 168, 179 dual diagnosis disorders 119–20

early psychosis 23–4
case study 28–40
Family Motivational Intervention (FMI) 117–35
issues for families 24–5 literature on family work 25–6 multiple family groups 235–56
staff issues 26, 28
therapy process 27
see also first-episode psychosis; IMPACT

Early Psychosis Prevention and Intervention Centre (EPPIC) 67–88
Index

early warning signs (EWS)
  action plan 77–8, 79–80, 81–2 identifying 53, 71, 108, 198 emotional climate with carers, measurement of 123, 142 emotional impact of psychosis 75, 154, 222–4, 263 emotional over involvement (EOI) 142–3, 144, 145
engagement process 30–2, 70, 74, 97 ethnically & culturally diverse groups 217–18
family groups 240–3
family motivation intervention 121–2
  ‘high EE’ 150–1
inpatient units 266–7
mental health services in the NHS 315–16
siblings of people with psychosis 195–7
ethnic diversity
  case example 215–24
family intervention in psychosis
  (FIP) 213–14
  and high EE 212–13
  and negative impact of caregiving 213
Experience of Caring Inventory (ECI)
  123
Expressed Emotion (EE) 141–2
  attribution studies 144 components of, CFI assessing 142–3
  effects of 145
  ethnic & cultural differences in 212–13
FI work with high EE family 149–60
  high EE, prevalence of 24, 143–4 family assessments see assessment process
family meetings, stage of BFT 11–12, 196–7, 214–17
Family Motivational Intervention
  (FMI) 117–21
  case study 121–4
  feedback 134–5
  general issues 135
  interaction skills training 125–7 motivation interviewing 127–31
  psychoeducation 124–5
Family Psychosis Education Group 56, 58, 61
Family Questionnaire (FQ) 123 family warmth, protection against relapse 143, 212, 366
FI (Research, Skills, Theory) in Psychosis course (FIRST) 289–92
first-episode psychosis 47–8 management of self-harm 47–50
  case example 51–62
  relapse prevention 67–9
  case example 72–87
  specific issues and challenges 70–1
  structure of intervention 71–2
  see also early psychosis FMI see family motivational
  intervention
force-field model 316–17 formulation process 34–5
  complex cases 97, 102, 111
  example of 295–6
  families on inpatient units 270–1
  grief work 175–7
  interventions with siblings 195
  NHS organisations 317–18
  relapse prevention 75–7
  funding 318, 340, 343–4
Index

goal achievement 83–6
goal setting 53, 59–60, 74, 76–7, 83–4

leaders, role and attributes of 312
Level of Expressed Emotion (LEE) scale 123
listening skills 120, 127, 131–4, 150, 170, 361
local services, psychoeducation 251–2

‘the Mat’, interaction skills training 125–7
medication
adherence to, encouraging 200
bipolar disorder story 347–8

mental illness
bipolar disorder 347–8
coming to terms with, grief work 167–72
case example 172–81

mental illness
coming to terms with, grief work 167–72
case example 172–81
cultural differences in beliefs 219–22
grief work 167–82

family adjustment to 350–2 ‘lay models’ of 364

self-report measures of 123–4

stigma attached to 150, 158
Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) 348–50

Mental Illness Key Area Handbook (DoH) 289

Meriden West Midlands Family Programme 260–1, 302
case example 264–78

model used in organisational case study 318
role of trainer/supervisor 334–5
training resources 282–3, 332

Motivational Interviewing (MI) 94–5, 119–20
assessment of carer skills in 124
issues to consider 135
training sessions 127–31
multiple family group interventions 235–56, 263

innovative treatments, criteria for rapid dissemination 311

inpatient units 259
case example 264–78

limited access to training 260–1, 317
low/unstable staffing 261, 264
research on family work 262–4
staff roles 259–60, 279

in situ whole-team training approach 290–1

benefits and drawbacks 299–300
evaluation of 291–2

Somerset service 292–4
supervision 294–8

interaction skills training, FMI 120, 125–7

interventions 358–60

common elements of 360–2

future directions in 363–6

models underlying 360

information pack for carers 346–7

information sharing

cannabis use 273–4

experiences of psychosis 271–2

see also confidentiality

innovative treatments, criteria for rapid dissemination 311

leaders, role and attributes of 312
Level of Expressed Emotion (LEE) scale 123
listening skills 120, 127, 131–4, 150, 170, 361
local services, psychoeducation 251–2

‘the Mat’, interaction skills training 125–7
medication
adherence to, encouraging 200
bipolar disorder story 347–8

mental illness
bipolar disorder 347–8
coming to terms with, grief work 167–72
case example 172–81

cultural differences in beliefs 219–22
grief work 167–82

family adjustment to 350–2 ‘lay models’ of 364

self-report measures of 123–4

stigma attached to 150, 158
Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) 348–50
Mental Illness Key Area Handbook (DoH) 289

Meriden West Midlands Family Programme 260–1, 302
case example 264–78

model used in organisational case study 318
role of trainer/supervisor 334–5
training resources 282–3, 332
Motivational Interviewing (MI) 94–5, 119–20
assessment of carer skills in 124
issues to consider 135
training sessions 127–31
multiple family group interventions 235–56, 263

high-risk families 55–7

hospital admissions 54–5, 147–8, 241, 262–3, 278, 345, 347–8

hostility, ‘high EE’ 142–5

IMPACT 95–6, 236–7, 256

intervention 247–54
therapeutic processes 255–6
use of role-play demonstration 254–5

information pack for carers 346–7

information sharing

cannabis use 273–4

experiences of psychosis 271–2

see also confidentiality

innovative treatments, criteria for rapid dissemination 311

inpatient units 259
case example 264–78

limited access to training 260–1, 317
low/unstable staffing 261, 264
research on family work 262–4
staff roles 259–60, 279

in situ whole-team training approach 290–1

benefits and drawbacks 299–300
evaluation of 291–2

Somerset service 292–4
supervision 294–8

interaction skills training, FMI 120, 125–7

interventions 358–60

common elements of 360–2

future directions in 363–6

models underlying 360

leaders, role and attributes of 312
Level of Expressed Emotion (LEE) scale 123
listening skills 120, 127, 131–4, 150, 170, 361
local services, psychoeducation 251–2

‘the Mat’, interaction skills training 125–7
medication
adherence to, encouraging 200
bipolar disorder story 347–8

mental illness
bipolar disorder 347–8
coming to terms with, grief work 167–72
case example 172–81

cultural differences in beliefs 219–22
grief work 167–82

family adjustment to 350–2 ‘lay models’ of 364

self-report measures of 123–4

stigma attached to 150, 158
Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) 348–50
Mental Illness Key Area Handbook (DoH) 289

Meriden West Midlands Family Programme 260–1, 302
case example 264–78

model used in organisational case study 318
role of trainer/supervisor 334–5
training resources 282–3, 332
Motivational Interviewing (MI) 94–5, 119–20
assessment of carer skills in 124
issues to consider 135
training sessions 127–31
multiple family group interventions 235–56, 263

high-risk families 55–7

hospital admissions 54–5, 147–8, 241, 262–3, 278, 345, 347–8

hostility, ‘high EE’ 142–5

IMPACT 95–6, 236–7, 256

intervention 247–54
therapeutic processes 255–6
use of role-play demonstration 254–5

information pack for carers 346–7

information sharing

cannabis use 273–4

experiences of psychosis 271–2

see also confidentiality

innovative treatments, criteria for rapid dissemination 311

inpatient units 259
case example 264–78

limited access to training 260–1, 317
low/unstable staffing 261, 264
research on family work 262–4
staff roles 259–60, 279

in situ whole-team training approach 290–1

benefits and drawbacks 299–300
evaluation of 291–2

Somerset service 292–4
supervision 294–8

interaction skills training, FMI 120, 125–7

interventions 358–60

common elements of 360–2

future directions in 363–6

models underlying 360
Index

National Health Service (NHS), barriers to staff offering FIs 309–29
National Institute of Clinical Excellence (NICE), guidelines for schizophrenia 213, 309, 314–15
National Service Framework (NSF) for Mental Health, UK 347
Obsessive Compulsive Drug Use Scale (OCDUS) 123 organisational change driving and restraining forces 316–17 measures of 326–7
  models of 311–12
  NHS case example 314–28
paranoia 108, 121, 147, 150–5, 215–16, 220, 265 parenting styles
  improving through discussion 58, 60 protective 75–7
  role-play demonstration 254–5 positive emotional environment, protection against relapse 83, 143, 212, 366 problem solving 12–13, 36–7, 83–6, 157–8, 275–6
psychoeducation 25–6
  beliefs about cause and recovery 218–22 cannabis use and psychosis 119, 124–5 cognitive reappraisal of difficulties 151–7 contentious areas 251–3 interventions for siblings 197, 198
  multiple family groups 237, 250–1 psychosocial interventions (PSI) 251, 287–8 randomised controlled trials, EPISODE II study 68–9 recording systems for family work, need for 322 recovery
  consolidating 59–61
cultural differences in beliefs about different meanings of 155 facilitation 57–9
moving between stages of 60–1 prolonged 61–2
reflective listening 131–4
reflective practice 294–8
relapse prevention 67–9
  case example 72–87
  CBT approach 69
  EPISODE II study 68–9
  EPPIC principles 67–8
  in a ‘High EE’ family 155–7 issues with ethnic minority groups 222–4 showing warmth 143, 212, 255, 366
specific issues and challenges 70–1 relationship problems, improving 112–14 religion
  beliefs about mental illness 219–21 coping strategy 214, 222, 224–5 resistance to change 104–5, 117, 133 strategies to overcome 133–4 difficulties in applying 134–5 resources for siblings 186, 206, 208–9 ‘responsibility attributions’ of hostile relatives 144 Rethink, mental health charity 188, 261, 279 risk assessment, residential settings 261 role-play
  audio taped 124
  communication training 131–2, 133–4 role-play (Continued)
demonstrations of parenting styles 254–5 interaction skills training 125–6, 127
in situ whole-team training approach 291
Royal Ottawa Mental Health Centre (ROMHC), grief work 167–82 self-harm, managing 47–50
clinical case 51–62
self-motivational statements 133 self-regulation model of illness 364 siblings of people with psychosis balancing needs and problems of 204 BFT support for 189–90
case example 191–205
clinical service constraints 191 impact of psychosis on 187–8 potential genetic risks 189 resources for 186, 206, 208–9 therapists’ training and service issues 190–1 simple reflections 133, 134
SOC (stages of change) model 94, 128–30 social rehabilitation, BFT facilitating 12–13 Somerset Family Support Service 292–3
evaluation of 293–4
issues in setting up a service 298–302
supervision 294–8
specialist service development 287–303 spiritual coping 214, 220–1, 223, 224–5 staffing levels, inpatient wards 261, 264 stages of change (SOC) model 94, 128–30 steering groups 301, 321–5 stress management
multiple family group sessions 253–4 role of family 83
stress-vulnerability model 35, 77, 146, 199, 365 substance use 93
acknowledging negative effects of 109–10
adolescent clinic, Amsterdam 118–19 case examples 96–102, 121–34 eyear F1 strategies 103–14 ineffectiveness of direct challenges to 105, 252
psychoeducation 252–3
timeline followback, substance use calendar 122–3 see also cannabis use suicidal ideation 29, 30, 54–5, 61, 73, 348 addressing issues of 35–6 risk factors and triggers of 48 supervision, therapist importance of 313
Somerset FI service 294–8
systemic approaches, Somerset Family Support Service 291–3 Taking Care of the Caregiver Group 56, 58 therapists characteristics of 313
encouraging uptake of intervention 243–5 ending of therapy 39–40, 276–8 engagement skills 31–2
in FMI, benefits of 121
grief work 170–1
perspectives of BFT 16–17
reflective practice 294–8 working with siblings 197–203
see also training thought record analysis, CBT technique 85, 113, 179
timeline followback, substance use calendar 122–3
Index 375

Toronto First-Episode Psychosis Programme 47–62 training
Calgary early psychosis programme 50 family therapists in the NHS 311–26 family work in early psychosis 28 issues for staff on inpatient wards 260–1, 264 resources 282–3
for sibling work 190
in situ whole-team approach 287–303

UNAFAM sibling study 188, 206 ‘universality’ of family problems 255–6 vulnerability-stress model 35, 77, 146, 199, 291, 365 warmth, protection against relapse 83, 143, 212, 366
Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) 349–50
wheel of change 127–31, 128