INDEX

absorptive capacity 464, 466 accountability 356–7, 359, 377 activities of a business 127, 132 Administrative approach, planning 91, 92, 291 adopter’s dilemma, risk-opportunity balance 166–7 agility, innovation 167–8 alertness to opportunities 180 alignment (of business and digital strategies) 35–8 achieving 125–62
alignment themes 459–60 coevolutionary perspective 465–6 enablers and inhibitors 94 inappropriateness of term 463 knowledge sharing achieving 460, 462
ambidexterity 186
analytics 7, 14, 15–16, 24, 27 capability, building 198–201
Ansoff matrix 67–8
application development agile/incremental 26, 300 approaches, aligning to portfolio segments 298–303 and idea generation 173 management challenges/issues 413–14 application management groups 382
applications 4
classifying using portfolio matrix 277–80 internet-centric 4–6 application portfolio 27–9 assessment of deliverables 141–2 avoiding disintegration of 357 determining future 270 framework 258–9
governance failure 354–6 inputs and toolkit 256–8 management issues 379
application portfolio management 273–309 aligning development approaches to portfolio segments 298–303 analysis of other matrix-based models 275–7 classification of applications 277–80 comparison to product portfolio 291–8 demand and supply issues, reconciling 280–2 enterprise systems 304–5 generic strategies 282–91
in multi-unit organizations 306–8 applications services 401 ‘apps’ 6
architecture model 131
assets
complementary 458
created via IS/IT investment 319 of IS/IT unit, review of current 143
IS/IT use process 459
strategic 77–81, 265
tangible 136, 137, 138
availability of products and services different levels of 215 informing helping to improve 214–16 vs ownership 213–4
awareness of technology 169, 180, 181, 416 back-sourcing 438–40
balanced scorecard (BSC) 146–7 combining with CSF analysis 150–3 barriers to effective IS/IT strategy development 92–4 Benefits Management approach 312, 320–2 big data analytics 188
decision making 24, 189–91
impact v, vii, 7, 15, 188
and knowledge discovery 15–16, 192–6 predicting customer needs/wants 230 board governance of IS/IT 366–7, 384–5 Boston Consulting Group product portfolio matrix 62–6 breakthrough change 96, 97 budgets/budgeting 50–1, 287, 291, 293, 428 business as usual 96, 97, 396, 397, 450 business applications, justifying investment in 322–6 business area plans 129 business case
benefits management rationale 320, 321, 322 business applications investment 322–3 effectiveness 317
financial benefits focus 315–16
hidden costs 315
infrastructure investment 328–32 lack of formal appraisal 314 preparing 118
satisfaction with 312–13, 314 business change 17–18, 24, 35, 41 and benefits management 320–1 and organizational risks 334 projects creating and services sustaining 396–7 risk factors 334
business-driven innovation, success factor 26 business executives see senior management business innovation process 168–74 factors impacting 175–7
business knowledge, fusing with IS/IT knowledge 41–2 Business led approach to planning 91, 92, 290 business models 73–6
analysis of 266, 267
INDEX

business objectives 128–9, 261–2
balanced scorecard (BSC) 146–7 combining BSC with CFS analysis 150–3 and CSFs 147–50, 267–8
business partners, linking to 21–2 business perception of IS/IT, assessing 144–5 business process diamond 158 business process outsourcing (BPO) 434–6 business process redesign 158–61 business process re-engineering (BPR) vi, 7, 114, 153, 253, 365, 448 business strategy 32–3
coevolution with IS/IT strategies 37–8, 464–6 conventional view 447
core components of 128–9 development of 452
identifying how IS/IT could impact 260–5 interpreting 127–30, 261–2 and IT infrastructure 327–8 lack of clarity 94
resource based view 41
shaped/changed by IS/IT 252–6 strategic alignment 35–6, 37 business transformation enterprise systems (ES) 304–6
IT-enabled 253–5
business units (BUs)
governance issues 370, 373, 382, 384–5, 386 see also strategic business units (SBUs) business value 33, 35
benefits management 320–1
IT creating 458–9
optimization of 456
portfolio models 276
business-to-consumer (B2C) markets 14 customer life-cycle analysis 228–32 mobile and online technologies changing 218 buyer/supplier relationships, e-trading impact 225–6 capability/capabilities analytic 198–201

assessment of current 264–5 competitive advantage through 78–80 digital (IS/IT) 363–6, 455–7 dynamic 39–43, 51–2, 81
strategic assets 77–8
suppliers 431
see also competences capability, product 214 cars, informating 212–13 ‘cash cows’, Boston Matrix 64, 65 see also key operational applications central planning, strategic applications 283, 284–5, 288, 290, 325 centralized v decentralized decision making structures 370–1 change
external environment 98–9 internal business factors 99 technology factors 99–100 change requirements, identifying 162 charge-back strategies 385–7 CIOs (chief information officers) role ambiguity of 463
changing nature of 466–8 influence of 176–7
classification of IS/IT investments 317–20 classification of strategic systems 17–25 clean sheet approach, process redesign 158–9 closed innovation 172
cloud computing 4–6, 462
cognitive alignment 459–60 commercial relationship types 427 commitment from top management 92–4 commodities, IS/IT activities viewed as 429–30 communication of strategy 121–2 comparison websites 222–3, 231, 233 competences 359–66
for an analytics capability 200–1 eight areas of ‘incompetence’ 363
IS/IT, definitions of 361–2 for market leadership 78–80 positioning of 360, 455, 456
see also capabilities competitions/contests, idea generation 172, 173 competitive advantage 7, 19–21, 40–1, 448, 450
ambidexterity 186
eyear adopter’s dilemma 166–7
how to gain 60–76
resource-based view 77–8
through business capability 78–80 competitive dynamics of IS/IT 39–40, 465
competitive forces
5-forces model 57–8
factors affecting impact of 59 identifying opportunities and threats 216–20 ‘competitive process’, value creation by IT 459 complementary assets, investment in 458 compliance issues, outsourcing 432, 434 composite matrix models 275–7 consumer decision making, information flow 228–33 ‘consumer IT’ vs ‘enterprise IT’ 461–2 continuous innovation 293 contracts
outsourcing 433–4
sourcing strategies 425 contrived value chains 246 control, management 288–9 control systems, cultural web 390 ‘conversion process’, value creation by IT 459 ‘coordination’ operating model 135, 136 corporate intervention in IT management 418–19 corporate strategy 105–6, 107 corporate synergy, multiple SBUs 271 cost control, high potential applications 293 cost leadership/low cost strategies 61, 62, 72 case studies in business and digital strategies 36–8, 464–6 case studies in co-evolutionary theory 463–4 critical business processes and activities, identifying 268–9
critical requirements, application portfolio 281, 303 critical success factor (CSF) analysis 147–50, 262 consolidating with balanced scorecard 150–3 cultural web analysis 389–91 culture gap between IS/IT and rest of business 388 cultural web exploring 389–91 current application portfolio, evaluating 141–2 current business objectives, meeting 146–53 balanced scorecard (BSC) 146–7 consolidating BSC and CSF analysis 150–3 critical success factor (CSF) analysis 147–50 current business situation, understanding 113–21 current capabilities, assessment of 264–5 current organizational environment, assessing 101–2 customer intimacy 78, 79, 80, 199 customer life-cycle management 228–33 Customer Matrix 68–73
  exploring competitive strategic options 234–5
  Customer Relationship Management (CRM) 22, 184–5, 191
  Customer Resource Life‐cycle Analysis (CRLA) 228–32 customers
    linking to 21–2
    online behaviour tracking 224, 230 personalized services for 13, 14, 22 preferences 13, 184–5, 191, 223–4 sharing benefits with 25
    understanding 25–6
  customization of services 410–13 data exploration 184–5, 186–8 data flow diagrams (DFDs) 133
data governance 34
  ‘data lab’, developing and operating 197–8 data management 200–1
  Data Processing (DP) era 15, 16
data quality 34
data-questions matrix 193–6
decision making 368
  by consumers, modelling of 228–33 creating organizing framework for 374–5 devolution and dispersion of 369–70 DIKAR model 186–8
  by employees, factors influencing 372–3
  and knowledge discovery 189–91
  mapping against desired behaviours 371–2 steering groups 378–80
  structural arrangements for 370 decision support systems 15–16, 24–5 deliverables 110–11
  application portfolio assessment 141–2 ‘hard’ and ‘soft’ 120–1 demand for IS/IT 31–2
  see also business IS strategy demand and supply decisions 369, 371 devolution of 357–8
  governance bodies for 376 demand and supply information at corporate and SBU levels 107 industry value chain 220–2 demand patterns, changes in 223–5 design thinking 70
  ‘desirability’ factors, priority setting 340 differentiation strategies 61, 62, 69, 72 differentiators 429–30 diffusion, Sullivan matrix 30–1, 276 digital business transformation 252–5 digital capability
  building 455–7
  three core dimensions 41–2
  ‘digital’, concept of vii, 6 ‘digital disruption’ 7, 263, 453, 469 characteristics of 11–13
  of industries 9–11
  of organizations 7–9
digital divide, blurring of 13–14 ‘digital’ (IS/IT) strategy alignment 35–7
    alignment with business strategy 459–60 capability era 39–43
    classification of uses 17–25
    co-evolution 36–8, 464–6 co-evolutionary view 464–6 defining 29–35
    evolution of, three-era model 15–16 impact of, ‘digital disruption’ 7–15 issues created by lack of 38 maturity models 89–92
    portfolio management view 27–9 relationship with business strategy 452–3 success factors 25–7
  see also IS/IT strategy formulation digital literacy issues 93, 176, 177, 180, 182, 367, 368, 460 digital options 332
  DIKAR (Data, Information, Knowledge, Action, Results)
    model 146, 186–8
disinvestment, ‘dogs’ 295
disruptive innovation 175 distributed knowledge 456–7 distribution channels 68, 219, 221 diversification, ‘Ansoff Matrix’ 67, 68 ‘diversification’ operating model 135, 136 ‘dogs’, Boston Matrix 64, 65
  see also support applications DP (Data Processing) era 15, 16 drugs (medical), value chain 227–8 dynamic capabilities 42–3, 51–2, 81, 448
e-business value matrix 276–7 e-government 6, 10–11, 330
e-retailing see online businesses e-trading, impact on inter-company relationships 225–6 early adopters, risk attached to 166–7 economics of outsourcing 428–9 effectiveness, success criterion 103–4 efficiency, success criterion 103 emotional quality, service assessment 405 employee attributes for a role 365 employee decision making, influences on 372–3 employee social integration 387–8 enrichment, success criterion 103 enterprise governance influences on employee decisions 372–3 misalignment with IS/IT 373–4 ‘enterprise IT’ vs ‘consumer IT’ 461–2 enterprise resource planning (ERP) 4, 22–3, 304–5, 419, 462 enterprise systems (ES), implementation of 304–6 entities 131, 132, 133
  entrepreneurial CIOs, value of 180, 181 entrepreneurial style of management 297 entry assets 77, 78, 81 evaluation filters, new technology 169–70
INDEX

478  evolution of IS/IT strategy in practice 449–51
  theory 447–9
executive sponsor, functions of 112 executive steering groups 378–81 responsibilities 382
expectations 156
  of service users 398, 399, 404, 405, 406, 407 ‘experience goods’ (information goods) 8–9 explicit knowledge 191–2 exploitation of data 185, 186, 464 exploration of data 184–5, 186, 464 to generate knowledge and understanding 186–8 external business environment 97, 108, 126, 257 external context, IS capability era 39–40 external focus, strategic IS 24, 25 external (industry) value chain 220–3, 263–4 external IS/IT environment 95, 109, 139–41, 257 failed projects 332–3, 346–7, 367 feasibility factors, priority setting 340 federal model for organizing IS/IT 370, 371 filters (‘stage gates’) to access ideas 169–70 financial appraisal of IS/IT investments 315–17 financial risk factors, investment 333–4 fitness function, co-evolutionary theory 464 five competitive forces 58–9, 216–18 flexibility approach to processes 97–8
  IT infrastructure 42 need for local 134
framework for IS/IT strategy formulation 108–18 business IS strategy, determining 116–17 information and systems architecture 117 initiating the process 111–13
  inputs and outputs 108–10
  IT strategy formulation 117–18
  migration plans, preparing 118 practical approach, defining and implementing 110–11 understanding current situation 113–15 free market strategy 283, 286, 288, 290 vs monopoly strategy 285–6 functional divisions see business units (BUs) functional instruments, governance 383–7 gainsharing 25, 437

game changers, innovation 174, 175, 183 generic business strategies 62 generic strategies, application portfolio management 282–91
  centrally planned 284–5 free market and monopoly 285–7 and IS strategy formulation 290–1 leading edge 285
  and management control 288–9 rationale and requirements 282–3 scarce resource 287–8
  using to develop strategy 289–90 governance 366–91
  and alignment 37
  decisions needing 371–4 effects of failure of 354–5 instruments of 375–91

logic of 369–71
‘hard’ and ‘soft’ deliverables 120–1 help-desk services
  and user perception of quality 400, 405, 412 value, utility and benefits 402, 404
high potential applications 28, 274, 279, 292–3 development approaches 298, 299, 303
  driving forces and key questions 281, 282 entrepreneurial management style 297, 298
  generic strategies 286, 287, 288
  investment justification 324, 326
  investment risk 335, 336
  management control 289
  prioritizing 343
  risk/reward 341
horizontal governance mechanisms 377–83 ‘hype’ 93, 176, 416, 469

ideas
  contests 172, 173
  gaining credibility/legitimacy for 177–80 innovation funnel 168–71
  search for 180–4
implementation of enterprise systems 304–6 of strategy 82–3
incremental change 96, 97 incremental development 26 industry analysis
  competitive forces 58–9, 216–20
  PESTEL 60
industry evolution 67–8 three generic effects 218 industry influences on innovation 175 industry transformation v industry value chain/value system 220–3, 263–4 ‘informating’ products and services v, 23, 210–16 information
  and decision making 189–91
  discovering strategic opportunities from 191–8 exploitation of 185, 186 exploration of 184–8
  innovation resource 168, 197–8
  integration 135–6
  making sense of 201
  quality 34
  security 386
information asymmetries 185
information flow/exchange, industry value chain 223–8 information goods 8–9 information management (IM) 33, 34 information revolution vii information search, customers 229, 230–1, 232 information sharing see knowledge sharing information systems (IS) 2–3 see also IS...; IS/IT... information technology (IT) 2–3
  see also IS/IT...; IT... infrastructure investments cost reductions 328–9
creation of new capabilities 330 growth in business volume 329 and infrastructure services 401 justifying 326–32
new applications 329
new working practices 329–30
prioritizing 341, 342–3
Real Options Analysis 331
infusion, Sullivan matrix 30–1, 276 initiation of strategy cycle 100–1 innovation 51–2, 71–2, 165–201 analytic capability, building 198–201 ‘big data’ challenge 188–91
business-driven 26
changing model of 9
discovering strategic opportunities 191–8 funnel 168–71
ideas search 180–4
information exploration and exploitation 184–8 management buy-in for 177–80 opportunity-risk balance 166–7 and outsourcing 436–7 process of 168–74
factors impacting 175–7 ‘push’ and ‘pull’ of 173–7 strategy 269–70
using existing as well as new technology 167–8 innovator’s dilemma 175 inputs, strategy formulation and planning 108–9 instruments of governance 375–91 functional 383–7
horizontal 377–83
social 387–9
structural 377
insurance services, informing 212, 213
integration
high potential applications 293
of internal processes 22–3 reach and range dimensions 416–17 strategic alignment model 36 intellectual alignment 460 inter-company relationships, impact of e-trading 225–6 internal business environment 97, 109, 127, 257 internal context, IS capability era 40–3 internal IS/IT environment 95, 109, 141, 257 internal processes, improved integration of 22–3 internal value chain analysis 239–44, 266, 267 Internet
cloud computing 4–6
customized advertising 230 impact on competitive landscape 217, 218 promotional information flow 223–4 use of in customer journey 230–1 virtual communities 232
see also online businesses intended and realized strategy 82 Internet of Things (IoT) 11, 263, 451, 469 Intranets, mismanagement of 206 investment management maturity model 346–9 investments in IS/IT 311–50 current and future 265–6 financial appraisal 315–17 justification for 314–15, 317–20 business applications 322–6 infrastructure technologies 326–32 link to business performance 458–9
maturity models 344–9
portfolio management 336–8 priority setting 313, 338–44
risk assessment and management 332–6
IS capability era 39–43
‘IS demand’, defined 31–2
IS/IT capability 361, 363–4, 365
see also digital capability IS/IT environment, examining existing application portfolio evaluation 141–2 business perception of IS/IT 144–6
external environment 139–41
internal environment 141
IS/IT unit 143
methods and training provision 143–4
IS/IT impact assessment
business strategy 252, 260–1 industry products and services 263
IS/IT management strategy 119–20
IS/IT planning 88–9, 90–1
IS/IT services 399–414
application development and support 413–14 categories of 400–2, 405 dimensions of 407–10
gaps in service delivery 406–7 operational and value-enabling 410–13 quality assessment 405
value of 402–4, 408
IS/IT strategy formulation barriers and problems 92–4 evolutionary and flexible approaches 97–8 framework for 108–18
generic objectives, setting 102–3 relating to generic strategies 290–1 tools for 256–8
vs IS/IT planning 88–9
IS models 130–6
IS planning 91–2
approaches 91–2
IS strategy
business 109, 251–2
contents list for 116–17
current situation, understanding 113–15 defined 31–3
framework for using tools effectively 258–9 lack of, business viii scoping 104–7
tools for formulation of 256–8
ISSP (Information Systems Strategic Planning) 29–30
IT infrastructure/services 395–6 charge-back systems 385–7 justifying investment in 326–32 management strategies 414–19 risk management 420–3
sourcing of 423–7
see also IS/IT services; outsourcing
IT innovation teams 177
IT risks, understanding and managing 420–3
IT steering committee 375
IT strategy
  defined 31–3
  formulation 117–18
IT strategy group 381, 382–3
'IT supply', defined 32

key entities 132, 133
key operational applications 29, 274, 279, 294–5 and control 289, 308
  controller management style 297, 298
  development approaches 301–2, 303
  driving forces and key questions 281, 282
  investment justification 324–5
  investment risk 335
  management control 289
  monopoly strategy for 287, 288, 290
  prioritization 342
  risk/reward 341

knowledge creation/discovery 191–2
  and decision making 189–91
  by exploring information 186–8 knowledge, distributed 456–7 knowledge sharing 191, 192, 330 achieving alignment 460, 463 across business units 106–7 information sharing 219
'known-knowns' 193, 194
'known-unknowns' 193, 195
'knowns', defined and undefined 183 leading edge strategy 283, 285, 288, 289 learning 192

legacy systems, problems of 100, 367, 421 life cycle approaches
  applications 291
  benefit management 321
  customer buying behaviour 228–33, 263–4 industry and product 62–4 logistics 19–20, 240–1
'long tail', online retailers 13
low cost/price strategies 61, 62, 69, 72 loyalty cards 27, 218
loyalty programs 199–200

macro-level competences 360–3 management attention for ideas, attracting 169, 177–80 management commitment 92–4, 121, 137, 453 management information systems (MIS) era 15–17 management style, aligning to product portfolio 296–8
management 'traps', IT innovation 182–4
'manufactured serendipity' 40, 181 market share 64–5
  'Ansoff Matrix' 67–8
  Boston Matrix 64–6
marketing issues, B2C markets 229–30, 241 mass customization 26–7
maturity models
  investment management 346–9
IS/IT planning 89–92

portfolio management 344–6
strategic management 50–3 meetings and attendance issues 379–80, 385
migration plans, preparing 118
MIS (Management Information Systems) era 15–17 mission statements 128
mobile content and services 236–7 monetization of information 27 monopoly strategy 283, 286–7, 288 vs free market 285–6
motor insurance, informing 212, 213 multi-business unit organizations 105–6
  application portfolio management 306–8
  reach and range dimensions 416–17
  strategy consolidation 270–1 technology management 418–19 technology strategies 417–18 natural disasters, risks presented by 421 natural value chains 246 network approach 236–8 network value analysis (NVA) 238–9 new value propositions, informing 210–16 niche/focus strategies 62 online businesses 9–10

  case examples 18–21
  impact of 217
  'informing' 23
  market space 12–13
  see also Internet
online information search 230–1
  'open data' initiatives 10–11, 172 open innovation 172
open standards, development of 14 operating models 134, 135–6 operational applications see key operational applications operational excellence 78–9, 80, 199 operational services 401, 402, 403, 410–13 opportunist mindset 180 opportunities from information, discovering 191–8 opportunities and threats, identifying 216–20 optimization of business value, alternative focus of IS/IT 456
Organization led planning approach 91, 92, 290 organizational environment 136–9
  assessment of current 101–2 organizational influences on innovation 176–7 organizational infrastructure 35, 37, 40–1 organizational IS capability 41–2 organizational modelling technique 136–9 organizational performance improvement 458–9 organizational relationships, analysis of 266 organizational risks 334 organizational structure 365, 377 cultural web 390
organizations, digital disruption of 7–9 organizing framework for strategy see governance outputs
  hard and soft 120–1
strategy formulation and planning 109–10
outsourcing 326–7, 396, 423–4
  and back-sourcing 438–40 business process (BPO) 434–6 classifying sourcing options 424–7 contractual issues 433–4 and ‘cultural fit’ 391
  and innovation 436–7
  provider options 425–6
  rationale for 426, 427–30 and the retained organization 358 risks associated with 426, 427, 431–3 service process 413
  of support applications 295

the paradigm, cultural web 389 partnerships, for effective working relationships 387–8 Perceived Price (PP) 68, 69
Perceived Use Value (PUV) 68–72 perception of IS/IT, assessing 144–5 performance assessment 160–1 personalized services 13, 14, 22
PESTEL analysis 58–60
physical products
  digitization of 13–14
  ‘informating’ 23, 210–16
  Internet of Things 10, 11
planning
  central 284–5
  confusion with strategy 53–4 Earl’s five approaches to 91–2 evolution of strategies 50–2 link to generic strategies 290–1 Sullivan’s ‘eclectic’ method 30–1, 276 vs strategy formulation 88–9 planning horizons 98, 104, 337–8 ‘platform’ companies v, 9, 20–1 platforms 243
policies
  enabling 385
  restraining 385, 386
portfolio of current applications, assessment of deliverables 141–2 portfolio of investments, management of 336–8
portfolio management
  maturity model 344–6 view on IS/IT investments 27–9
  see also application portfolio management portfolio models
  other planning/policy matrices 66–8 for products, ‘Boston Matrix’ 62–6 review of early 275–7
  see also application portfolio positioning
  IS/IT competences 360, 455, 456
  IS/IT resources 356–9
power structures, cultural web 390 PPM (project portfolio management) 336–8 price, customer matrix 68–73 pricing options, outsourcing 426–9 primary activities 240, 241, 243, 246 priority setting, IS/IT investment 313, 338–40 across the whole portfolio 343–4 across different application portfolios 340–3 project portfolio management 336–8 ‘problem children’, Boston Matrix 64–5 problem recognition, customer journey 229, 230, 232 process for developing IS/IT strategies 87–122 business context 94–7
  definitions 88–9
  effectiveness of 97–104
  evolution of 89–94
  framework for strategy formulation 108–18 other deliverables from strategy process 119–22 setting the scope 104–7 process analysis 153–7
  business process maps 155, 157 identifying processes 155, 156 process perspective, adopting 153–5 process attributes, assessment prior to outsourcing 435–6 process flow models 133 process maps 155, 157 process orientation, adopting 153–5 process redesign 158–61 product life cycle 62–4 product portfolio model, Boston Consulting Group 62–6 applied to application portfolio 291–8 product/service leadership 79, 80, 199 product/service position 66, 67, 69 project failures 332–3, 346–7, 367
  Project Management Office (PMO) 333, 345–6, 347, 348
  Project Portfolio Management (PPM) 336–8 promotional information, online 26, 223 provisioning service strategies 413–14 purchasing decisions, B2C market 228–33 purchasing focus and style, sourcing options 424–5 ‘push’ and ‘pull’ of IT innovation 173–7 balancing 182–4
  push to pull economy, moving from 14 quality of information 34 quality of service 407–10
  assessment of 145, 405
questions-data matrix 193–6
Real Options Analysis 331
  realized vs intended strategy 82–3 redesigning processes 158–61 approaches to 158–60
  process importance/performance 160–1 reinvestment 66, 291–2
  relationship managers 377 reliability of products, informating to improve 213–16 ‘replication’ operating model 135, 136 research & development (R&D) 287, 292–3, 299 resource based view (RBV) 41, 77–8 resources 77–80
  effective utilization of 294–5
  innovation 168, 197–8
resources (Continued)
positioning of 356–9
prioritizing 313, 337–46
review of current 143
scarce 287–8
sourcing of 423–7
responsibilities, governance 374, 375, 382–3, 384–5 retained IS/IT organization 358–9 ‘revolutionary’ uses of IT, three types of 17–18 re-intermediation 218, 231
RFID (Radio Frequency IDentification) 185, 299
risk assessment and management investment in IT 332–6
IT supply strategy 420–3 risk faced by early adopters 166–7 risks associated with outsourcing 431–3 rituals and routines, cultural web 390–1 rivalry, competitive 57, 59 roles/role theory 365
Sarbanes-Oxley Act 366, 432
SBUs see strategic business units (SBUs) scarce resource strategy 283, 287, 288, 289, 291 scope of IT management, expanding 455–6 of strategy development 54–5 of the strategy, setting 104–7 search engines, consumer purchasing behaviour 230–1 ‘second economy’ 21–2
security issues
IT systems and data 420, 421 personal data 421, 462
policies and procedures 386, 423 segmentation of the market, customer intimacy 79 senior management
buy-in/commitment from 92–4, 265, 368 and centrally planned strategy 284–5 critical success factors 148, 262 digital illiteracy 460
outsourcing decisions 407, 408 social integration 387–8
steering groups 378–81
serendipity, manufactured 40, 181 Service Boutique, delivery process 411, 412 service delivery 399–400
design of 409
and emotional quality 405
four processes 410–13
gaps in 406–7
IT cost/service trade-off 408 and user utility 404
service encounter 405
Service Factory, delivery process 411 service leadership 79, 80 Service Mall, delivery process 411, 412 service management groups 381, 383 service process matrix 411–13 service quality, measuring 145 Service Shop, delivery process 411–12 service utility, user perception of 398, 402–4, 408, 409 servitization of products 76, 210, 263 ‘shadow IT’ 90, 369, 398, 462 shared knowledge see knowledge sharing shared service concept 396 sharing economy see sharing economy sharing of benefits, success factor 25
SIS (Strategic Information Systems) era 15–17
SISP (strategic IS planning) approaches 448 SLAs (service level agreements) 397–8, 436 smart technologies (ST) 211–12, 214 applicability assessment 216 potential impact of 263 social alignment 459–60
social capital 457
social integration, governance 387–9 social media
and customer preferences 13, 21–2 discount campaigns 167
promotion of products 219 ‘soft’ and ‘hard’ deliverables 120–1 sourcing of resources and services 423–7 see also outsourcing stakeholders 156
standardization 134, 135 ‘stars’, Boston Matrix 64, 65 see also strategic applications start-ups 53, 168, 210, 326 steering committees/groups 112, 378–83 stories and myths, cultural web 389, 390 strategic alignment see alignment (business and digital strategies) ‘Strategic Alignment Maturity Assessment’ instrument 36, 37 strategic alignment model (SAM) 35–6 strategic applications 28, 274, 279, 293–4 centrally planned strategy for 284–5, 288 developer management style 297, 298
development approaches 298, 299–301, 303
driving forces and key questions 281, 282
investment justification 325
investment risk 335, 336
management control 289
prioritization 342, 343
risk/reward 341
strategic assets 77–81
strategic business units (SBUs) 105–7, 260, 261 corporate control of technology 418–19
defined 54–5
multiple 270–1
strategic decision making support 24–5
Strategic Information Systems (SIS) era 15–17
strategic management 49–50
cOMPETITIVE FORCES 57–8
dynamic capabilities 81
evolving nature of 50–4 framework for formulation of strategy 55–6 gaining an advantage 60–76 implementing strategy 82–3 industry analysis using PESTEL 58–60 requirement 354–6
scope of strategy development 54–5
strategic assets 77–80
strategic option generator 233–4
INDEX 483

strategic planning vs. strategic thinking 53–4 strategic system classification 17–18 strategy development, scope of 54–5 strategy formulation framework 55–6 assets/resources 77–80
   change management 81–3
   five competitive forces and PESTEL analysis 57–60 gaining advantage 60–76
strategy implementation 82–3, 449
’strategy-as-practice’ research 449 structural governance instruments 377 success criteria, establishing 103–4
success factors 25–7
   critical success factor (CSF) analysis 147–50
successful projects 348–9
suppliers
   linking to 21–2
   sharing benefits with 25
supply of IT 104
   macro-level competence 360
   outsourcing of 358
see also IT infrastructure/services support activities 240, 241–2, 243 support applications 29, 274, 279, 295–6 caretaker management style 297, 298
   development approaches 302–3
   driving forces and key questions 281, 282
   generic strategies 286, 287, 288
   investment justification 323–4
   investment risk 335, 336
   management control 289
   prioritization 342
   risk/reward 341
sustaining innovation 175
SWOT analysis, application portfolio 278, 279–80 symbols, cultural web 389, 390
systematic approaches to planning 92, 290
   to redesign 158–9, 160
systems architecture, defining 117
Systems Strategy Control Board (SSCB), terms of reference 384–5

tacit knowledge 191–2
teams, composition and skills of 111–13 technical quality 405 technical risk factors 333, 334
technology
   awareness 169, 180–1, 416 change, back-sourcing 440 corporate control of 418–19 cutting-edge vs ‘old’ 167–8 multi-unit organizations 417–18 trends 99–100, 139–41, 263
see also IT...
technology management groups 383
terms of reference (TOR) 100, 326, 384–5 thinking strategically 53–4 threats
   competitive forces analysis 216–20 due to industry changes 98–100 to IT systems and data 420 SWOT analysis 150, 278, 279–80, 325 training 111, 143–4, 400, 412, 413, 423 transaction costs 7–8, 185 transformations, IT-enabled 253–5 trends in IS/IT strategy (1970-present) 449–51 trust, of online companies 13 ‘unification’ operating model 135, 136 ‘unknown-unknowns’ 193, 194, 196 unknowns, defined and undefined 183–4 ‘unknown-knowns’ 193–4
unsuccessful projects 346–7
use process
   business value creation by IT 459
   IS capability 42
user involvement and service delivery 410–13 user service satisfaction
   assessment of 145
   difficulties in dealing with 406–7 utility of a service, user perception of 398, 402–4, 408, 409 ‘value for money’, PP and PUV 68–73 value of service to provider 398, 402–4, 408, 409–10 value-adding vs. cost reduction 25 value chain
   alternative models 242–4
   information flow 223, 224
   manufacturing firm 241
   natural vs contrived 246 pharmaceutical company 227–8 traditional model 240–2 value chain analysis 220, 263–4
   external 220–3
   and information systems 223–8
   internal 239–44
   strategic option generator 233–4 uses of 244–6
value creation 464
value disciplines/dimensions 208–9 value-enabling services 401, 402, 403, 410–13 value networks
   analysis 263–4
   external 236–8
   internal 242–3, 244
value proposition 73, 75, 76 assessment of change by IS/IT 264 exploring new 210–16
value shops 242, 243
vertical integration, ‘stars’ 294 virtual teams 39, 111–13
vision of a business 128
‘VRIN’ (Valuable, Rare, Inimitable, Non-substitutable) criteria, resources 77 ‘wildcats’, Boston Matrix 64–5 see also high potential applications working relationships 387–8 Y2K/millennium bug issue 450, 451, 468 young drivers, monitoring of 213