Contents

About the editors xiii
Contributors xv
Preface xxi
Acknowledgement xxiii
Introduction Theo Stickley and Thurstine Basset 1

PART I: FOUNDATIONS FOR MENTAL HEALTH PRACTICE – THE TEN ESSENTIAL SHARED CAPABILITIES 7

1 The ten essential shared capabilities: their background, development and implementation 9
Roslyn Hope

2 The ten essential shared capabilities in practice 23
Ian McGonagle, Ian Baguley, Sara Owen and Sarah Lewis

3 Working in partnership 39
Anne Beales and Gary Platz

4 Respecting diversity through acknowledging, valuing and using diversity and challenging inequalities (AVUDCI) 53
Premila Trivedi
5 Practising ethically: values-based practice and ethics – working together to support person-centred and multidisciplinary mental health care

Bill Fulford and Kim Woodbridge

6 Challenging inequality

David Pilgrim

7 Promoting recovery

Daniel B. Fisher

8 Identifying people’s needs and strengths

Lesley Warner

9 Providing service user centred care

Laura Lea

10 Making a difference

Norman Young, Madeline O’Carroll and Lorraine Rayner

11 Positive risk taking: a framework for practice

Anne Felton and Gemma Stacey

12 Personal development and learning

Sharon Lee Cuthbert and Thurstine Basset

PART II: ISSUES FOR MENTAL HEALTH PRACTICE

13 Social perspectives on mental distress

Jerry Tew
14 Socially inclusive practice
   Peter Bates and Joanne Seddon

15 Equality and rights: Overcoming social exclusion and discrimination
   Liz Sayce

16 Service user involvement
   Peter Campbell

17 Connecting the parts to the whole: Achieving effective teamwork in complex systems
   Steve Onyett

18 Problems associated with the use of the concept ‘mental illness’
   Anne Cooke

19 Drugs, alcohol and mental health
   Tabitha Lewis and Alison Cameron

20 Gender inequality and the mental health of women and men
   Jennie Williams and Joe Miller

21 The trauma model of psychosis
   Paul Hammersley, Peter Bullimore, Magdalen Fiddler and John Read
PART III: APPROACHES FOR MENTAL HEALTH PRACTICE

22 Carers’ experiences of mental health services and views about assessments: Lessons from the Partnership in Carer Assessments Project (PICAP) 419

Julie Repper, Gordon Grant, Mike Nolan and Pam Enderby

23 Therapeutic relationships 439

Theo Stickley and Dawn Freshwater

24 Psychological approaches to mental health 463

Rufus May, Anne Cooke and Anthony Cotton

25 Employment: What you should know and what you should do 479

Bob Grove

26 Treating creatively: The challenge of treating the creative mind 495

Peter Amsel

27 Social inclusion and psychosocial interventions: Clash, compromise or coherence? 511

Peter Bates and Julie Cullen

28 Spirituality and mental health 531

Peter Gilbert

29 Holistic approaches in mental health 555

Jan Wallcraft
30 The capable practitioner of the future

Theo Stickley and Thurstone Basset

Index