INDEX

Abercrombie & Fitch:
   as Gap competitor, 98
   private brands from, 237
   target market for, 188
Advertising:
   in home electronics retailing, 81 profit margins and, 58
   retail reliance on, 52
   by Target, 93
Aeropostale, 188
Affluence: versus low-income market, 183
   retail attention to, 191
Amazon.com:
   Big-Est positioning of, 68, 70, 73–76, 175, 202
   as category killer, 63
   Easy-Est positioning of, 233
Amazon.com: Get Big Fast (Spector), 73 American Eagle, 98, 188
American Girl Place, 186, 187–188
Ames, 174
Apparel retailer. See also specific retailers Hot-Est positioning by, 87, 97
   inventory management by, 88 Asset utilization, 166
Assortment, as Est position, 13
Automated teller machines (ATMs), 108, 212
Auto sales, 116, 117, 211
Auto Zone:
   earnings power of, 166
   Quick-Est positioning of, 129
Babies “R” Us, 77
Baby boomers:
   aging of, 183
   children of, 186
   fashion merchandising to, 89 spending patterns of, 183–184
   as target market, 28, 31, 184–186
Baja Fresh, 190, 191. See also Wendy’s Banana Republic:
   sales at, 171
   as spin-off, 194
   store locations of, 196–197
   target market for, 97
Bankruptcy rate, 5, 165, 176
Barnes & Noble:
   Big-Est positioning of, 69, 70
   product selection at, 74, 175
Bath & Body Works, 193
Index

Chipotle Grill, 190–191 Choice:
  excessive, 209–210, 221
  increased, 36
Circuit City:
  competitiveness of, 6, 154
  versus Incredible Universe, 79, 80 Club Libby Lu, 235
Cluster busters, 213
Coach leather goods, 156–157, 237
Coca-Cola, 87
Cocooning, 184
Commodity stores, 107
Communications:
  global, 6
  by retailers, 212–214
Company culture:
  Cheap-Est positioning and, 48
  at Target, 180
  at Walgreens, 129
  at Wal-Mart, 150 Competition:
  for category killers, 67–68
  comparisons with, 148–152
  Est performance level and, 145
  Est theory to measure, 14 increase of, 5, 163–167, 174, 179 innovative ideas and, 180, 183
  operating costs of, 48
  among top three category retailers, 173
Computer City, 79
Concept stores:
  development of, 197
  failed, as examples, 183 versus flagship stores, 157 Consolidation:
  by dollar stores, 192
  increasing, 176
  of market share, 236
  by retailers, 167–168
Consumer research, 123–124
Container Store:
  Easy-Est positioning of, 108–111
  as employer, 112
  product clarity of, 207–208
Convenience discount retailers:
  definition of, 192
  price wars among, 202
Costco:
  Cheap-Est positioning of, 48, 50–57
  Est performance level of, 143–144
  performance of, 56, 192
Crate & Barrel:
  brand extension by, 194, 195
  Easy-Est positioning of, 106, 108
  lifestyle merchandising by, 107
  private brands from, 237
  target market of, 185
Customer proposition:
  Est focus on, 10
  at Kohl’s, 218, 222
  uniqueness of, 6
Customer relationship management (CRM), 238 Customers:
  brand response of, 193
  building relationships with, 132 in control, 36–39, 201–203, 206–218 core, 17
  do-it-yourself (DIY), 72, 73
  Est performance level and, 145
  expectations of, 10, 16, 89, 166, 167 getting ahead of, 96
  for multichannel retailing, 194, 232 perceptions about retailers, 68–69, 147–148, 153
  research on, 26, 148, 217
  retailer focus on, 10, 201, 204–206, 216, 239–240
  role of, 23
  segmentation of, 193, 195, 207, 208 shopping behavior of, 175–176 targeting, 28–33, 91, 98, 107, 145, 187 trends generated by, 180–183, 188
  as value-driven, 35–36
  for warehouse clubs, 51, 52, 54
Customer service. See also Easy-Est positioning; Quick-Est positioning by Amazon.com, 76
  definition of, 103–104
Customer service (Continued): in one-to-one retailing, 75 retailer understanding of, 25–28
store layout and, 23–25, 77 Customization:
in fast food, 136
mass, 75
of teddy bears, 186
CVS, 213
Dayton Hudson Corp., 91, 92
Decision making:
by customers, 212
strategic, 14
Dekor, 185
Demographic trends:
in ethnicity, 189, 235
innovation and, 183
retailers’ response to, 30 Department stores:
checkout at, 215
choice at, 210
consolidation of, 168, 236
layouts of, 24–25, 108
life cycle of, 169
size of, 63
spending at, 35
Digital content downloads, 137 Discount stores:
ascendancy of, 67, 192, 205
as Big-Est retailer competitors, 65–66
consolidation of, 168
drive-through pharmacies at, 131
life cycle of, 169
performance of, 19
price wars among, 202
product selection at, 53, 92, 93–94
regional, 6
spending at, 35–36
Distribution:
efficiency of, 58
by Hot-Est retailers, 88
by online retailers, 68
Dollar General:
Cheap-Est positioning of, 48
earnings power of, 166
Est performance level of, 146
growth of, 192
value proposition of, 47
Wal-Mart influence on, 230
Dollar stores, 192–193
Dollar Tree:
earnings power of, 166
growth of, 192
Doolittle, Sid, 51
Dot-com era, 135
Drexler, Mickey, 99
Drive-through service, 127, 130–131, 137, 211
Drugstores:
category killers for, 134
drive-through service at, 127, 130–131, 211
layout of, 211
regional expansion of, 168
Earnings power, 166
Eastern Mountain Sports, 207–208 Easy-Est positioning. See also specific retailers
definition of, 11, 104
function of, 105, 233
lifestyle merchandising in, 106–107
eBay:
Big-Est positioning of, 202
Cheap-Est positioning of, 49
as revolutionary concept, 232–233 E-commerce:
as Big-Est retail competitor, 68
category merchandising in, 172 customer empowerment through, 212
Est theory applied to, 13
life cycle of, 169
in multichannel retailing, 231–234
as Quick-Est retail competitor, 132 retail innovation and, 49, 180

248
Index

Electronics stores:
  competition among, 154
  national expansion of, 168
  product selection at, 80–81
  profit margin in, 156
  regional, 6
Energy position conservation, 53
Est position. See also specific positions achieving, 17
  competition for, 152–153, 174–175
  losing, 174–175
  performance levels of, 142–146 product clarity through, 208–209
  purpose of, 10, 16
Est theory:
  application of, 141–142, 147–152
  brand role in, 87, 88
  changes in, 123
  for Fortune 500 companies, 14
  introduction of, 12
  for online retailers, 13 origin of, 7, 8
  results of, 17–19
Ethnicity:
  increasing U.S. diversity of, 183, 189, 235
  Kmart appeal to, 153
  as retail factor, 33, 34, 190–191
Expo Design Center (Home Depot), 184, 185
Express, 193
Families:
  changing profile of, 29, 31–32
  dual-income, 124
  middle-income, 219–220
Family Dollar:
  Cheap-Est positioning of, 48
  growth of, 192
F&M, 134
Fashion. See also Hot-Est positioning designer, 95, 115
  as Est position, 13
  for Generation Y, 188–189 Hot-Est positioning in, 89 market segmentation in, 235 in nonapparel industries, 86
  as sales driver, 85, 88, 91
  saturation in, 98
Faulty Towers (TV program), 204
Federated department stores, 236
Financial markets, retail life cycle and, 169–170
Five-and-dime stores, 169 Flagship stores:
  versus concept stores, 157
  expansion and, 187
  size of, 63
Food Lion, 144
Food service:
  ethnic influence on, 190, 235
  innovations in, 137
Fortune 500 companies, Est theory applied to, 14
Fred’s, 48
Fry’s, 215
The Gap:
  brand extension by, 194
  Hot-Est positioning of, 89, 97–100
    as Old Navy parent, 97, 171
    private brands from, 237
Gas stations, 127
General Electric, 173
General Motors, 116, 118, 119
Generational targeting, 187 Generation Y: maturing of, 183
  as target market, 186–189
Generic products, 123
Genesco, 188
Geographical markets:
  competition in, 148–149, 174
  expansions of, 166
    multiple, 234–235
Gianulli, Mossimo, 95, 236
Gibson, William, 227
Globalization, 169
Golfsmith, 207
Good to Great (Collins), 8
Graves, Michael, 94–95, 96, 236
Great Indoors (Sears), 184–185
Gross margin return on investment (GMROI), 65
Gymboree, 235

H&M, 6, 89
Harrod’s, 86
Home Base, 173, 185
Home delivery, 135, 137
Home Depot:
  Big-Est positioning of, 65, 70–73
  as category killer, 63
  competitiveness of, 6, 173, 175
customers of, 54
Est performance level of, 144
Expo Design Center, 184, 185
life cycle of, 169
performance of, 19, 70, 192
product clarity of, 207
self-checkout at, 212
in smaller units, 137, 196
Home improvement:
  as baby boomer expenditure, 184
category killers in, 63 market dominance in, 71, 144, 173 professional market in, 54 size of market in, 65
Hot-Est positioning. See also specific retailers customer expectations of, 89
definition of, 11, 85
function of, 86–88
independent bookstores as, 175
Hot Topic:
  Hot-Est positioning of, 89, 90
  product clarity of, 207–208
target market for, 188–189
Hot Zone, 180–183
House-2-Home (Home Base), 185
Hypermarkets, 210

Ikea, 6, 81
Income levels, growth in, 29–30
Incredible Universe, 79–82
Innovation:
  through brand extension, 193–195
  hot ideas behind, 180–183
  role of, 179–180, 197–198
Internet:
  all-hours shopping on, 124
  as Big-Est retail competitor, 66, 68, 202
  as communication tool, 213–214 customer control and, 38, 212, 232 globalization due to, 169 for prescription drug refills, 131, 132 retail effect of, 6 Inventory management:
  by Amazon.com, 74
  for Big-Est retailers, 65, 66 in fashion merchandising, 88, 89, 93
  by Gap, 99
  by Hot Topic, 189
  by Incredible Universe, 80
  in multichannel retailing, 234
  by online retailers, 68
Jamesway, 174
Janie and Jack, 235
J.C. Penney:
  checkout at, 215
  establishing Est position for, 148–149
  as mass merchant, 38
Jenkins, George, 111, 112
Johnson & Murphy, 188
Jomdt, L. Daniel, 134
Journeys store chain, 188
Kashuk, Sonia, 95
Kiddie City, 77
Kids “R” Us, 77, 78
Kinko’s, 129
Kmart:
  bankruptcy of, 5, 6, 59, 60
  as Big-Est competition, 78
Cheap-Est positioning of, 57–60
competitors of, 153, 173
as discount leader, 50, 192
former dominance of, 167
life cycle of, 169
Knockoff merchandise, 93
Kohl’s:
  choice offered by, 210
customer in control at, 218–224
earnings power of, 166
Easy-Est positioning of, 59, 108
performance of, 19, 219
Kozmo.com, 135–136
Kresge family, 92
Krispy Kreme, 85–86
Kroc, Ray, 136
Kroger, 166

Land of Nod catalog, 194, 195
Lands’ End, 196, 233
Lange, Liz, 95
Leonard, Stew, 150
Lifestyle merchandising, 69, 106–107
The Limited, 193–194
Limited Too, 193, 194
Location. See also Geographical markets convenient, 8–9, 126
customer-oriented, 38, 124, 196–197 of Quick-Est retailers, 132 stand-alone versus mall, 130, 221 urban, 137, 234
Lowe’s:
  Big-Est positioning of, 65, 70–73
  competitiveness of, 6, 173
  earnings power of, 166
Low-income market:
  versus affluent market, 183
  retail potential in, 191–193 Loyalty-card programs, 211 Malls:
  declining popularity of, 35
  specialty stores in, 166 versus stand-alone stores, 130, 221 strip, 129
teen appeal of, 186, 188 Margin:
  in Hot-Est businesses, 87 versus inventory turnover, 65 maximizing, 51
  as measure of profitability, 166
  versus quality, 56
Marketing:
  by Abercrombie & Fitch, 188
  by Target, 93, 96
Market niches:
  identifying, 14, 235
  for innovative concepts, 183
Market oligopoly, 196
Market share:
  consolidation in, 236
  dominance in, 167, 168
Mass customization, 75
Mattel, 187
McDonald’s:
  Chipotle Grill owned by, 190
  communications by, 213
  drive-through service at, 127
  Quick-Est positioning of, 125, 136–137, 208
McLaughlin, Betsy, 188, 189
McMillan, Norm, 12, 92, 227
McMillan|Doolittle:
  practical approach of, 228
  retail analysis by, 7
  retail concept launches by, 82 retail consolidation tracked by, 167
Menards, 173
Merchandise category:
  comparison with competition in,
    148–149
  management of, 238
  stores arranged by, 238 Merchandise returns:
  for catalog customers, 167 handling area for, 215, 223 at home improvement stores, 185
Index

Merchandising:
- lifestyle versus category, 69, 106–107
- retailer-oriented, 38
- by Target, 96
Microkillers, versus category killers, 67–68
Mish Mash, 193
Mizrahi, Isaac, 95, 236
Mobil:
- Quick-Est positioning of, 129
- SpeedPass, 127–128
Mom-and-pop stores:
- advantages of, 144
- life cycle of, 169
Montgomery Ward:
- competitiveness of, 9–10
- failure of, 152, 173
- former dominance of, 167
- lack of innovation at, 197
Multichannel retailing, 231–234
- as brand extension, 193–195
Neighborhood Market (Wal-Mart), 127, 196, 197, 229
Neiman Marcus, 47
Noodle Kidoodle, 77
Nordstrom:
- customer service at, 107, 115
- Easy-Est positioning of, 106, 114–116
Office Depot, 69
OfficeMax:
- as category killer, 67
- ranking of, 173
Oldham, Todd, 95
Old Navy:
- growth of, 97
- life cycle of, 170–171
- as spin-off, 194
On an Average Day (Heymann), 214
One-to-one retail, 75
Operating costs:
- low prices and, 47–48
- for warehouse clubs, 53
Operating hours, 133
Order handling, 126
Otasco (Oklahoma Tire and Supply Company), 174 Pacific Sunwear, 166
Parker, Sarah Jessica, 94
Pavilions supermarkets:
- Est theory applied to, 15–16
- Hot-Est positioning by, 86
PB Teen, 233
Peddlers, as retail format, 169
Pei Wei, 190
Pep Boys, 67
Personalization, 187. See also Customization Pets.com, 171–172
PetsMart:
- Big-Est positioning of, 69, 70
- as category killer, 63
Pet supply stores, 66, 171–172
Phar-Mor, 134, 210
Photo processing, as customer service, 133–134
Pick up Stix, 190
Pier One, 207–208
Population (U.S.), aging of, 30–31
Pottery Barn:
- brand extension by, 194, 233
- Easy-Est positioning of, 106, 108
- lifestyle merchandising by, 107
- multichannel retailing by, 194, 233
- private brands from, 237
- target market of, 185
Price. See also Cheap-Est positioning
- competition on, 202
- as customer driver, 36, 146
- determining, 238
- as Est position, 13
- high-low, 58–59
- instant updates of, 239
- profit margin and, 55
Price, Sol, 50, 52
Price Club, 50, 51, 52
Private-label brands:
- at Costco, 54, 56
- in department stores, 24, 236
Index

at Dollar General, 146 versus generics, 123
at Kohl’s, 220
margins on, 237
Productivity:
ingcreasing, 204, 206
measuring, 65, 205, 239
versus profitability, 165 Product selection: arrangement of, 69, 115
at Big-Est retailers, 64, 65, 79–80
at bookstores, 74, 174–175 customer experience and, 27, 203, 206 at department stores, 210, 220 from designers, 94–95, 236
at discount stores, 53, 92
at home electronics stores, 154–155 for lifestyle merchandising, 107
at supercenters, 67
at supermarkets, 53, 166
tracking for, 238
Profitability:
advertising and, 58
brand effect on, 236
of dollar stores, 192
drive-through service and, 130
increasing, 55
innovation and, 182
in modern retail era, 38 versus productivity, 165 store location density and, 133 Profit sharing, 57
Publix supermarkets, 108, 111–115
Quality:
in Est theory, 87–88
versus margin, 56
Quick-Est positioning.  See also specific retailers
definition of, 11
drive-through service as, 127–128
function of, 126
location of, 129–130
purpose of, 12, 125
self-checkout as, 128–129
Radio frequency identification (RFID), 128–129, 238 RadioShack: difficulties of, 79
private brands from, 237
Ralph Lauren, 237
Real estate development, saturation in, 164–165
Red Box vending machines, 137 REI, 208
Retail concepts:
bricks-and-clicks, 132, 232
development of, 168–169
innovative, 183, 197–198
narrow, 187
successful, 81–82
Retailers:
Black Hole for, 5, 17, 81, 240
as brand marketers, 237
communications by, 212–214
competitive comparisons of, 147–152 consolidation by, 167–168
customer focus of, 10, 201, 204–206, 216, 239–240 customer research by, 26, 148, 217 employees of, 112–113, 205, 218 entertainment-focused, 13, 202
innovation by, 179–183
intelligent loss of sales by, 52, 54
life cycle of, 168–173, 187
location of (see Location) mission of, 96
multichannel, 194, 231–234
multiformats for, 234–235 operating hours for, 133
performance of, 18–19, 143–146
productivity of, 165, 204–206 role of change for, 153
technology use by, 238–239
as trend conductors, 88
value proposition of, 207–209

253
Retailers (Continued): Wal-Mart influence on, 228–230
  winning as, 147
Retail inflection point, 6, 79, 152
Retail space, amount of, 164–165, 167
Rocket (London food service), 137
Ross Stores, 166
Safeway, 166
Saks, 235
Salespeople:
  for automobiles, 116, 117, 211
  customer service and, 27–28, 108, 110 for home electronics retailers, 154 insufficient, 204
at Nordstrom, 106, 115
  performance measures for, 205 qualities wanted in, 203 Sam’s Club:
  versus Costco, 54, 56
  as Wal-Mart concept, 197
Sara Lee, 156
Saturn, 106, 116–119
Scott, H. Lee, 150
Sears:
  checkout at, 215–216, 217
  competitors of, 148
  establishing Est position for, 149
  former dominance of, 167
  Great Indoors, 184–185
  lack of clarity at, 208–209
  lack of innovation at, 197
  as mass merchant, 38
  multichannel retailing by, 233–234
Segal, Gordon, 195
Self-service:
  in checkout, 37, 128, 214
  as customer benefit, 108, 222
  at gas pumps, 127–128
  technology for, 212, 239
  trend toward, 211
Service. See Customer service; Solution-oriented service; Speed-oriented service Service Merchandise, 152 Sharper Image:
  private brands from, 237
Shoplifting (shrink):
  reducing, 53
  store layout and, 77
Shopping:
  from catalogs, 174
  choice in, 36, 209–210
  customer behavior in, 175–176 ease of, 104, 126
  efficiency in, 201, 203, 206–218 methods of, 37
  one-stop, 67, 68
  popularity of, 34–35
  time factor in, 124
Signage:
  in department stores, 24, 222
  impact on customer, 153
  role of, 27, 126, 212–213
Sinegal, Jim, 50, 53, 55
Solution-oriented service. See also Easy-Est positioning
  as Est position, 13
  versus speed-oriented service, 104, 125 Specialty stores:
  advantages of, 67
  customer expectations and, 166
Speed-oriented service. See also Quick-Est positioning
  as Est position, 13
  versus solution-oriented service, 104, 125
Sporting goods stores, 168
Sports Authority, 59, 67
Staples, 63
Starbucks:
  drive-through service at, 127
  Hot-Est positioning of, 90
Starck, Phillippe, 95, 96
Stockkeeping units (SKUs), 53, 166
Stop & Shop, 128
Storch, Gerald, 90, 91
Index

Store layouts: to control shopping, 211
in department stores, 24–25, 108
for Hot-Est retailers, 89, 93 inconvenient, 77, 204
racetrack, 221
shopper-friendly, 27, 115
in supermarkets, 25
Strip malls, 129
Supercenters:
ascendancy of, 67
in book retailing, 175
drawbacks of, 196
as growth engine, 197
in home improvement, 184
life cycle of, 229
product selection at, 166
by Target, 96
Supermarkets:
competition for, 37, 175
drive-through pharmacies at, 127, 131
layouts of, 25
loyalty-card programs at, 211
product selection at, 53, 166
SuperTarget stores, 95–96
Supply chain:
changing roles in, 235–238
in Hot-Est retail, 89
tracking in, 128
Tandy Corp. (RadioShack Corp.), 79, 80, 81 Target:
as Big-Est competition, 65–66, 67, 78
brands offered by, 236, 237
communications by, 213
as discount leader, 192
earnings power of, 166
Est theory applied to, 15
Hot-Est positioning of, 90–96, 153, 230
innovation by, 180–181
as Kmart competitor, 58, 60
life cycle of, 169
market share of, 174
performance of, 19, 91
Technology:
as customer service enhancement, 108 Kmart use of, 58
retail applications for, 238–239
for supply chain tracking, 128
Walgreens use of, 131
Terrorist attacks (9/11/01), retail effect of, 189
Tesco, 239
Tiffany, 87–88
Time saving, as customer driver, 67, 69, 124–126, 137, 203
Torrid, 189, 194
Toys “R.” Us:
Big-Est positioning of, 64–65, 68, 69
as category killer, 63, 67, 76
competitiveness of, 6, 77–79, 175
Est performance level of, 144
lack of innovation at, 197
life cycle of, 169
product clarity of, 207
Trader Joe’s, 48
Trend spotting: future importance of, 227–228
by Gap, 98–99
by Hot Topic, 189
responding to, 175, 180–183
by Target, 92
Tuesday Morning, 166
Value: versus cheapness, 46
as customer driver, 35–36
at dollar stores, 193
as Est position, 47
Value proposition:
communicating, 55, 207
creating, 46
through Est position, 208
Variety stores, 6, 169
Venture, 174
Venture capital:
for e-commerce, 180
retail life cycle and, 169–170
Index

Victoria’s Secret, 193
Voice-mail systems, 206, 218
Vons supermarkets, 15, 16, 86

Walgreens:
  drive-through service at, 211
  earnings power of, 166
  performance of, 19, 130
  Quick-Est positioning of, 125, 129–134

Wal-Mart:
  ascendency of, 30, 90
  as Big-Est competition, 65–66, 67, 78
  branded products at, 237
  Cheap-Est positioning of, 10–11, 49, 153, 208, 230 concept innovation by, 127, 196, 197
  versus Costco, 53–54
  culture at, 150
  as discount leader, 50, 192
  earnings power of, 166
  Est performance level of, 143, 144
  grocery sales by, 96, 175 influence of, 228–230
  versus Kmart, 57–60
  labor practices of, 230
  life cycle of, 169
  market share of, 6, 174
  operating costs of, 48
  performance of, 19, 181, 192, 205, 229
  signage used by, 212–213
  in smaller units, 137, 196
  suppliers to, 236
  technology use by, 239
  Walton, Sam, 11, 48, 57, 92, 150

Warehouse clubs. See also specific clubs Cheap-Est positioning by, 50–53
  price wars among, 202

Whole Foods, 106–107
 Warner Brothers retail stores, 13 Web site:
   in brand extension, 194
   functionality of, 74–75
   in multichannel retailing, 233
   role of, 180

Zany Brainy:
  as microkiller, 67
  versus Toys “R” Us, 77

Youth culture, 185, 188

Zara, 6, 89

Zone-focus approach to customer efficiency, 217