Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

A
ABET (formerly the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology), 12
Academic freedom, 44
Academic Leadership and Governance of Higher Education: A Guide for Trustees, Leaders, and Aspiring Leaders of Two- and Four-Year Institutions (Hendrickson, Lane, Harris, & Dorman), 96
Academic program reviews. See Program reviews
Accountability: college responsibility for quality and, 52, 57–58; definition of, 58; New Leadership Alliance for Student Learning and Accountability (NLASLA) support of, 243; rising movement and demand for, 9; University and College Accountability Network (U-CAN), 184; Voluntary Framework for Accountability (VFA), 184; Voluntary System of Accountability (VSA), 172, 184
Accreditation: additional information and resources on, 227; examining and assessing the process of, 21–23; functioning as a tool and lever for improvement, 212; Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) provisions on, 12; legitimate concerns over, 18–21, 246; national, 12–13, 246; as process of collegial peer review, 15–16; program reviews that integrate multiple, 232; as shared responsibility of “triad” of entities, 11–12; specialized, 12, 231–232; standards, criteria, and requirements of, 211; starting with honest appraisal of your college at present, 213–215; state agencies role in, 11. See also Quality assurance; Regional accreditation; U.S. Department of Education (USED)
Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), 247
Accreditation reform movement, 10
Accreditation reports: additional information and resources on, 227; comparison of research reports and, 219; examples of assertions and suitable evidence in, 220–221; including shortcomings in context with integrity, 223–224; organize supporting documentation for your, 216–220; provide good quality documented evidence for your, 220–223. See also Program reviews; Reviewers
Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC), 12–13, 17
Accreditors: additional information and resources on, 227; criticisms of accreditation and, 18–21; description and types of, 12–13; Higher Education Act (HEA) Title IV gatekeeper status of, 16, 17, 18, 221; national, 12–13; providing an honest appraisal of where your college is now to, 213–215; on serving the “public good,” 19; specialized or disciplinary, 12, 231–232; standards, criteria, and requirements of, 211; understanding emphasis on the five culture of quality by, 215–216; understanding what they are looking for and why, 212–213; U.S. Department of Education (ED) recognition of, 16, 21–22. See also Regional accreditors; Reviewers

ACE National Task Force on Institutional Accreditation report (ACE), 244

Action steps, 113

Additional information resources. See Information resources

Adelman, C., 9, 120, 172

Aldeman, C., 7, 83

Adjunct faculty support, 84–85

Adkins, C., 129

Administrators: marginalization of, 43; meeting the needs of internal stakeholders as, 56; ongoing venues for discussions on quality by, 83; providing constructive feedback to, 85; six-point agenda for advancing quality by, 241–245. See also Human capital; Presidential leadership

AFT Higher Education, 84

Airasian, P. W., 122

Aldeman, C., 7, 56

Alexander, J. S., 83

Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland (Carroll), 45

Allen, I. E., 140

Alter, J., 162

Alumni: board members who are also, 91–92; meeting the needs of employers of your, 55. See also Students

Ambrose, S. A., 129, 131

American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), 96, 184

American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), 172, 184

American Association of University Professors (AAUP): resources on faculty role in shared governance from the, 88; “Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure” (1940) of the, 44

American Chemical Society (ACS), 236

American Council of Teachers of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) proficiency guidelines, 154

American Council on Education (ACE): ACE National Task Force on Institutional Accreditation report by, 244; on college closures by regional accreditors, 22; on creating common accreditation requirements and language, 243; on criticisms of U.S. accreditation and accreditors, 18, 19; on increasing costs of higher education, 7; National Task Force on Institutional Accreditation on peer review, 15; on regional accreditors operated as think tanks, 244; on weaker preparation for success in college by students, 8

American Sociological Association (ASA), 236

America’s Top Colleges (Forbes magazine), 184

Andersen, C., 134

Anderson, L. W., 122

Anderson, V. J., 127, 142, 152, 156, 158, 196

Angelo, T. A., 156

“The Art, Science, and Craft of Administrative Support” (Dunn, McCarthy, Baker, & Halonen), 88

Arts and sciences education, 137–139

Assessing and Improving Student Writing in College: A Guide for Institutions, General Education, Departments, and Classrooms (Walvoord), 159

Assessing Student Learning: A Common Sense Guide (Suskie): on accreditation integrity, 58; on advancing a culture of evidence, 208; on assessing student learning, 158; on evidence used to inform improvements, 196; on good practices in testing and measurement in, 165; on learning outcomes, 127; on setting targets for success, 176; on sharing evidence, 188; on sources of resistance to student learning assessment, 48

Assessment. See Institutional assessment; Student learning assessment

Assessment Clear and Simple: A Practical Guide for Institutions, Departments, and General Education (Walvoord), 208

Assessment Essentials: Planning, Implementing, and Improving Assessing in Higher Education (Banta & Palomba), 158–159

Assessment information management systems, 203

Assessment Update, 208

Associated Press (2013), 14

Association for Assessment of Learning in Higher Education (AALHE), 159

Association for Authentic, Experiential, and Evidence-Based Learning (AAEEBL), 159

Association for Institutional Research (AIR), 159

Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U): concerns over higher education by, 4; Essential Outcomes initiative of the, 120; general education and liberal arts resources by the, 143, 152; “Give Students a Compass” initiative of the, 139; on isolation of higher education evidence from the, 38; liberal education advocated by the, 138; on strategies to help students learn, 129–130; VALUE rubrics developed by, 124, 153, 154, 172, 176
Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, 96
Association of Governing Boards (AGB), 88, 96
Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), 57, 58
Association of Public Land Grant Universities (APLU), 172, 184
Association of Theological Schools (ATS), 12
Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), 247
Attribution: definition of, 133; strategies to help student, 132–134
Auden, W. H., 100
B
Backwards curriculum design, 136
Bain, K., 129, 136
Baker, G. R., 155, 156, 172, 180, 185, 186, 194, 208
Baker, S. G., 35, 88
Baker, V. L., 22
Balanced scorecards, 181
Baldwin, R. G., 22
Banta, T. W., 158, 159, 198, 199, 237
Barr, R. B., 132
Baum, S., 56
Berger, N., 7, 57
Bergmann, J., 140
Betterment: accreditation functioning as a tool and lever for, 212; description of, 30. See also Change; Culture of betterment; Improvement
Black, K. E., 158, 237
Blaiich, C., 39, 41, 200, 208
Blake, L. P., 7
Block, G. D., 57
Bloom, B. S., 122
Bloom’s taxonomy, 122
Board leadership: additional information and resources on, 96; capacity and commitment of, 90–91; collaborative approach of, 93–94; description of, 89; empowered, 91; engagement by the, 94; getting the right people for, 94–95; independent, 91–92; oversight entity of, 92–93; providing ongoing education and development to, 95; responsibilities of the, 89; six-point agenda for advancing quality by, 241–245. See also Institutional governance
Bok, D., 94, 96
Borden, V. M. H., 198
Bowen, H. R., 56
Boyer, E. L., 67, 68
Bresciani, M. J., 202, 237
Bridges, M. W., 129, 131
Brightline, 183
Brown, M., 8
Brown, R., 7, 56
Bryn Mawr College, 14
Buckles, K., 57
Budgets: ensuring your college’s financial health through, 59, 60–63; how underlying values impact decision for, 103–104; quality six-point agenda by providing sufficient, 240, 243; supporting your strategic plan, 114. See also Financial issues
Bullet lists, 180
Bullying, 44
Business-Higher Education Forum, 181
“Business plans,” 194
Busteed, B., 55, 121, 138
C
Caldwell, S., 8
California State University East Bay, 100
Callout boxes, 180
Capella University, 188
Capital investment. See Financial issues
Capstone experiences: curriculum that includes synthesizing, 137; definition of, 131; program learning outcomes opportunities through, 202
Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, 171
Carnegie Mellon University (CMU), 115, 198
Carnevale, A. P., 6, 120
Carroll, L., 45
CAS Professional Standards for Higher Education (CAS), 237
Case, M. H., 7
Catalyst for Learning: ePortfolio Resources and Research website, 159
Center for Community College Student Engagement, 85
Central Penn College, 100, 104, 125
Certificate program curriculum map, 135e
“The Challenge to Deep Change: A Brief Cultural History of Higher Education” (Shugart), 48
Chamber of Commerce, 55
Change: barriers to college adoption of, 39–41; “business plans” required for proposed initiative or, 194; creating incentive to, 40–41; flexibility and adaptability to, 122. See also Betterment; Improvement
Chaplot, P., 193
Checklists, 165
Chen, H. L., 155
Chief executive officers (CEOs), 90. See also Presidential leadership
Chief operating officers (COOs), 90
The Chronicle of Higher Education, 10
Churchack, M., 23, 212
Classrooms: flipped, 109, 140; learning-centered, 132
Closing the loop, 191–192
Cohen, M., 159, 181, 208
Collaboration: additional resources on meaningful learning outcomes, 127; quality through culture of, 81–82; as soft skill valued by employers, 122; strategic planning as process of, 110; student learning outcomes facilitated through, 124
“Collaborative Strategic Leadership” (2013), 100
College appraisal: level 1: culture of quality, 214; level 2: culture of quality, 214; level 3: culture of quality, 215; start accreditation process with your honest, 213–215
College Board’s College Search, 184
College Compass (U.S. News & World Report), 184
College cultures: introduction to betterment, 29–33; introduction to community, 26–27, 32, 33, 42; introduction to disrespect, 43–44, 78–80; introduction to evidence, 28–29, 31–33, 39; introduction to excellence, 25–26, 32; introduction to focus and aspiration, 27, 31–32; introduction to relevance, 26, 31–32; introduction to respect, 78–80; introduction to reticence, 38–39; introduction to silos, 41–42, 241, 243–244. See also specific culture
College Guide (Washington Monthly), 184
College Navigator (U.S. Department of Education), 184
College Portrait of Undergraduate Education, 184
College Rankings (Kiplinger’s), 184
College responsibilities: as central to deployment of resources, 64–65; demonstrate that you are ensuring quality and meeting, 52, 57–58; evidence using ethically, fairly, and in keeping with, 195–196; keep your promise, 52, 56; know your key stakeholders and meet their needs, 52, 54–56; listed, 52; put your students first, 52, 53–54; serve the public good, 52, 56–57, 186. See also Stewardship
College Results Online (Education Trust), 184
College Search (College Board), 184
College transfers, 141–142
College (Un)Bound: The Future of Higher Education and What It Means for Students (Selingo), 10
“College wage premium” (1970s to 2012), 7
Colleges: accreditation report prepared by, 216–227; Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education and, 171; cost, access, quality, productivity, and relevance problems of, 5; description of, 4; distinctive traits that set apart your, 102–103; duty to be transparent, 58; Education Trust’s stories on changes implemented by, 193; facilitating transferred course credits between different, 141–142; financial health of your, 59, 60–63, 201–202; five fundamental responsibilities of, 52–58; gauging responsiveness to student diversity, 149; institutional effectiveness of, 52; “Is it good for the kids?” principle guiding priorities of, 162; lack of money supporting assessment at, 37; overview of the five cultures required for excellence at, 25–33; pockets of mediocrity found in all, 47–48; public information resources on U.S. higher education and, 183–184; recent criticisms of, 4–5; silos within, 41–42, 241, 243–244; student-centered, 133; telling the story of your, 183–186; traditional vs. swirl pathway through, 9. See also Students; U.S. higher education
Collegial peer review, 15–16
Collegiate Learning Assessment (CLA), 154, 172
Collier, A., 71
Commission on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), 16, 21, 23
Communication: creating culture of respect through honest, 80–81; honest and

Community College of Baltimore County, 125

Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE), 55

Community (local), 56. See also Culture of community

Competency-based programs: cautions regarding implementation of, 72, 73; description of, 71, 72

Complacency barrier, 240, 243

Complete College America, 9

Computer skills, 123

Connect to Learning project, 159

Connor, R., 129

Continuous improvement, 191–192

Continuous quality improvement, 191–192

Coogan, C. S., 208

Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP) Freshman Survey, 55

Cordero de Noriega, D., 105

Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), 57, 231

Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS), 237

Council of Regional Accrediting Commissions (C-RAC), 142, 243

Council on Foreign Relations, 5, 6

Council on Occupational Education, 13

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), 12

Course syllabi: periodically reviewing, 137; template for a curriculum map for, 136

Courses: adjunct faculty teaching, 84–85; capstone experiences included in a, 131, 137, 202; curriculum map for a hypothetical certificate requiring four, 135; ensuring appropriate consistency across sections of a, 137; facilitating transfer of credits from another college, 141–142; streamlining offerings of co-curricular activities and, 65–66; template for a curriculum map for a syllabus for, 136. See also Curricula; Online courses/programs

Creativity, 122

Creditworthiness score, 61–62

Creswell, J. W., 156, 158

Critical thinking: as a fuzzy term, 126; strengths and weaknesses perspective when assessing, 170; valued by employers, 122; various definitions of, 126

Cross, J., 7, 56

Cross, K. P., 156

Cruikshank, K. A., 122

Culture of betterment: accreditor’s focus on the, 216; additional information and resources on, 208; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32, 33; documenting evidence to support, 202–206; fostering a culture of community to sustain a, 197–198; helping its students to persist and succeed through, 133; interrelationship with other cultures, 31–32; periodically regroup and reflect to sustain, 206; program review framework criteria of, 231; providing evidence of shortcomings to fill demands of, 187–188; questions on new initiatives proposals and academic program reviews on, 235; questions raised about successes to promote, 192; road trip analogy of, 29–31; rubrics to appraise college’s, 206–207; strategies to strengthen your college’s financial health within, 201–202; value efforts to change, improve, and innovate, 198–200. See also Betterment; Improvement

Culture of community: breaking down silos by fostering, 42, 241, 243–244; building respect to create, 78–80; collaboration to build, 81–82; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32, 33; documentation component of, 87–88; fostering a, 197–198; growth and development through, 82–85; helping its students to persist and succeed through, 133; honest communication to build, 80–81; importance of creating a, 26–27; interrelationship with other cultures, 31–32; program review framework criteria of, 231; questions on new initiatives proposals and academic program reviews on, 234; shared collegial governance component of, 85–87. See also Community (local)

Culture of disrespect: characteristics and root causes of, 43–44; difficulty of turning around a, 78; strategies for transforming a, 78–80

Culture of evidence: accreditor’s focus on the, 215–216; additional information and resources on, 208; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32–33; fostering culture of betterment through, 197–208; for gauging success, 147–159; helping its students to persist and succeed through, 133; interrelationship with other cultures, 31–32; need to use data collected by colleges, 39; program review framework criteria of, 231; questions on new initiatives proposals and academic program reviews on, 234–235; road trip analogy of, 28–29; uses of good evidence, 161–165. See also Evidence

Culture of excellence: commitment to pervasive and enduring, 25–26; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32; quality defined as, 32–33, 51–52. See also Excellence; Teaching excellence

Culture of focus and aspiration: defining college purpose to build, 99–105; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32; helping its students to persist and succeed through, 133; helping students learn and succeed component of, 129–143; identifying what makes students become successful component of, 119–127; interrelationship with other cultures, 31–32; program review framework criteria of, 231; questions on new initiatives proposals and academic program reviews on, 234–235; road trip analogy of, 27; setting goals and making plans component of, 107–117

Culture of quality: accreditor's focus on the, 216; level 1: a pervasive and enduring, 214; level 2: informal and without systematic documentation, 214; level 3: not yet a pervasive culture of quality, 215. See also Five cultures of quality; Quality

Culture of relevance: accreditor's focus on the, 216; defining program and teaching excellence through, 32; helping its students to persist and succeed through, 133; interrelationship with other cultures, 31–32; program review framework criteria of, 230; providing evidence of quality to fill demands of, 187–188; questions on new initiatives proposals and academic program reviews on, 233–234; road trip analogy of, 26

Culture of reticence, 38–39

Culture of silos, 41–42, 241, 243–244

Curricula: additional information and resources on, 142–143; backwards design for, 136; designed to support student learning and success, 134–137; general education, 137–139, 143; including integrative, synthesizing capstone experiences in, 131, 137, 202; role of liberal arts and sciences, 137–139. See also Courses

Curriculum maps: definition of, 135; for a hypothetical four-course certificate, 135e; template for a course syllabus, 136e

D

Damiano, A., 23

Dashboard indicators: additional information and resources on, 159; definition of, 147; examples for hypothetical college goals, 151; for hypothetical college strategic goal, 182e–183; sharing evidence through, 181. See also Measurement

Data: assessment information management systems for, 203; brightline used to highlight shared, 183; dashboards used to display, 147, 151; 159, 181, 182e–183; definition of, 180; infographics used to convey, 181; make clear and meaningful points using your, 179–183

"Data dumps," 225

Debt-to-income ratio. See Financial assistance programs

Decisions: documentation of, 87; fair, ethical, and responsible use of evidence for, 195–196; shared evidence used to make, 177–179; underlying values serving as rationales for, 103–104

Degree Qualifications Profile (DQP) rubrics, 120, 124, 176

Delprino, R., 77

Deming, W. E., 191

Designing and Assessing Courses and Curricula: A Practical Guide (Dickeson), 237

Designing Effective Assessment: Principles and Profiles of Good Practices (Banta, Jones, & Black), 158

Diamond, R. M., 142

Dickey, J., 45

DiIorio, S., 227

DiPietro, M., 129, 131

Direct evidence of student learning, 157

Disciplinary (or specialized) accreditors, 12, 231–232

Display material. See Visuals

Disrespect: difficulty of turning around a culture of, 78; roots causes of, 43–44; strategies for transforming a culture of, 78–80

Distinctive traits, 102–103

Distrust, 43

Diversity: gauging responsiveness to student, 149; as historic strength of U.S. higher education, 102–103; intercultural knowledge and skills related to, 123

Documentation: of evidence that supports culture of betterment, 202–206; keeping student work on file as part of, 206; organizing your report to accreditor and supporting, 216–220; of policies, evidence, and decisions, 87; on responsibilities and integration into organization, 87; sharing organizational, 88; supporting your report by providing good quality evidence, 220–223; templates used for, 203, 204e–205e

Dodson, D., 23
Dorman, R. H., 96
Drake University, 170
Drexel University, 188
Duncan, A., 5
Dunn, D. S., 35, 88
Dutchess Community College, 111

E

Eagan, K., 7
“Early warning systems,” 114
Eaton, J. S., 20, 245
Economic development: gauging college contributions to, 149–150; higher education role in, 5–6; human capital as important driver of, 5; initiatives to address issues of, 9–10
Eder, D., 185
Education models: cautions regarding alternative, 73; competency-based programs, 71, 72; online courses and programs, 71, 72; problem-based learning, 71
Education Trust, 184, 193
Effective Grading: A Tool for Learning and Assessment in College (Walvoord & Anderson), 127, 142, 158, 196
Effective Reporting (Sanders & Filkins), 188
Effectiveness. See Institutional effectiveness
Eggleston, T., 71
Employer advisory councils, 55
Employers: employer perceptions of online and face-to-face degrees by Drexel University, 188; “hard” skills wanted by, 120–121; meeting the needs of future, 55, 124; “soft” skills wanted by, 121–122
Empowered college leadership, 91
Enterprise Rent-a-Car, 8
Equity ratio, 61
Essential activities: description of, 101; identify your college’s, 101–102; mission creep expansion of, 102
Essential Outcomes, 120
“Establishing Academic Program Priorities” (Shirley & Volkwein), 237
Ethical judgment, 123, 158
Evans, J., 7
Evergreen College, 139
Evidence: additional information and resources on gathering, 165, 196; aim for reasonably accurate and truthful, 163–165; culture of betterment sustained through, 197–208; direct and indirect, 157; documentation of, 87–88, 202–206; to ensure and advance quality and effectiveness, 192–193; examples of accreditation report assertions and suitable, 220–221; external and internal, 194; fair, ethical, and responsible use of, 195–196; “genuine inquiry” driver of good, 162; identifying and implementing improvements using, 167–176; “ineffables” form of, 157–158; make it accessible and easy to find, 186; numbers have meaning only when they are compared against other numbers, 169; preparing for time lag when examining, 194–195; prudent deployment of resources using, 193–195; refining goals and targets using, 195; stakeholder interest in specific types of student success, 148–149, 161–162; strategic planning used external and internal, 109; supporting your report to accreditors with documented, 220–223; SWOT analysis using, 110; tied to key goals, 162–163; transparency and sharing, 177–188; uses of good, 161–165; using the most current, 165; validity and reliability issues of, 163–164. See also Culture of evidence; Gauging success; Instruments; Measurement
Ewell, P., 37, 39, 96, 120, 172
Excellence. See Culture of excellence
Excelsior College, 198
External evidence, 194
External reviewers, 236–237

F

Faculty: advancing quality and effectiveness by, 192; assessment movement (1980s) involvement of, 46–47; challenge to become change agent, 39–40; common misunderstandings about academic freedom by, 44; creating culture of respect by tapping expertise of, 79; linchpin role of full-time, 63; marginalization of, 43; meeting the needs of internal stakeholders as, 56; monitoring how time is spent by, 67; offering stipends, fellowships, or merit pay for extraordinary work, 199–200; ongoing venues for discussions on quality by, 83; peer review by and of, 15–16; resistance to assessment by mediocre, 47; shared responsibility for student learning by students and, 132; supporting adjunct, 84–85; teaching-learning center (TLC) providing support for, 83; watching for both turnover and stagnation of, 68. See also Human capital

Faculty promotion and tenure (P&T): benefits of assessment focus on, 47; documenting decisions on, 87; incorporating college priorities into criteria for, 198–199

Fain, P., 142

“Fair Assessment Practices: Giving Students Equitable Opportunities to Demonstrate Learning” (Suskie), 58

Fairness: building culture of respect through, 78; documenting “the rules of the game” and applying with, 87; evidence using ethically, responsibly, and with, 195–196

Federal financial responsibility composite scores, 62

Federal Occupational Outlook Handbook, 55

Feedback (professional development), 85

Fighting complacency barrier, 240, 243

Filkins, J., 188

Financial assistance programs: college’s financial health required to support, 61; Higher Education Act (HEA) Title IV establishment of, 16, 61, 232; monitoring debt-to-income ratio of student loans from, 69–70, 149

Financial health: ensuring your college’s, 59, 60–63; strategies to strengthen your college’s, 201–202

Financial issues: creditworthiness score, 61–62; federal financial responsibility composite scores, 62; monitoring debt-to-income ratio of student loans, 69–70, 149; monitoring the impact of financial investment, 59, 68–69; stewardship related to, 59, 63–66. See also Budgets

Financial ratio analysis: creditworthiness score, 61–63; description of, 61

Fincher, J., 120

Finger Lakes Community College, 159

Fink, L. D., 120, 122, 136

Finley, A., 124

Fisher, P., 7, 57

Fitch, 62

Five cultures of quality: for defining program excellence, 32; as framework for program review, 230–231; interrelations of the, 31–32; overview of the, 25–33; when there is lack of financial support of, 37. See also Culture of quality; Quality; specific culture

Flipped classrooms, 109, 140

Focus and aspiration. See Culture of focus and aspiration

Forbes magazine list of America’s Top Colleges, 184

“A Four-Step Plan to ‘Right-Size’ the Curriculum” (Moore and Whittaker), 73

Freshman Survey, 55

From Gathering to Using Assessment Results: Lessons from the Wabash National Study (Blaich & Wise), 208

Frye, N. E., 80

Fulcher, K. H., 206

“Fuzzy” terminology: as barrier to quality, 45; critical thinking as, 126; student learning outcomes and strategic goals, 112–113, 126–127

G

Gallaudet University, 134

Gallup, Inc., 120

Gardner, J. N., 83, 132

Gaston, P., 23, 120, 172

Gauging success: achievement of college purpose and goals component of, 150, 151; contributions to the public good component of, 150; economic development contributions component of, 149–150; information used for, 148–149; measurements used for, 147; responsiveness to the changing college student component of, 149; student learning component of, 150–157. See also Evidence

General education: accreditation report on assessment of, 217–220; additional information and AAC&U resources on, 143, 152; definition of, 138; educational role of, 137–139; ensuring that requirement benefits outweigh barriers to graduation, 142; NEASC requirement for, 142; recommendations to fulfill potential of, 139

Georgetown University, 14

“Give Students a Compass” initiative (AAC&U), 139
tests and examinations, 165; on U.S. colleges, 183–184. See also Resources
Innovation: employer value of soft skill of, 122; value efforts to change, improve, and promote, 198–200
Inside Higher Ed, 10
Institution, 4
Institutional assessment: definition of, 148; gauging student success component of, 148–149; portfolios, 155; reflective writing, 155–156. See also Student learning assessment
Institutional Dashboards: Navigational Tool for Colleges and Universities (Terkla, Sharkness, Cohen, Roscoe, & Wiseman), 159, 208
Institutional effectiveness: definition of, 52, 148; evidence used to advance quality and, 192–193
Institutional governance: benefits of a collaborative and shared, 93–94; board leadership of, 89–96; as community of culture component, 85–87; definition of, 86; documentation of, 87–88; keep the structure lean and focused, 71; resources for additional information on, 88. See also Board leadership; Presidential leadership
“Institutional Vision, Values, and Mission: Foundational Filters for Inquiry” (Cordero de Noriega), 105
Instruments: additional information and resources on, 158–159; grades, 156–157; local tests and examinations, 156; rubrics, 120, 124, 142, 152–155, 167, 168–169, 172, 176, 206–207; subject-specific tests and examinations, 154; surveys and self-ratings, 55, 154, 156, 169, 170, 171, 173; tests to assess intellectual skills and competencies, 154; validity and reliability issues of, 163–165. See also Evidence; Measurement; Student learning assessment
Integrity: of college meeting its responsibilities, 52–58; as component of quality, 52; ensuring program review value and, 235–237. See also Honest communication
Intercultural knowledge and skills, 123
Internal evidence, 194
International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE), 347
Inter/National Coalition for Electronic Portfolio Research, 159
International Journal of ePortfolio, 159
“Is it good for the kids?” principle, 162
Ittelson, J. C., 155
J
Jankowski, N., 37, 83, 94, 153, 155, 156, 172, 180, 185, 186, 188, 194, 198, 208
Jaschik, S., 38
Jobs, S., 138
John N. Gardner Institute for Excellence in Undergraduate Education, 132, 133, 143
Johnstone, R., 193
Johnstone, S. M., 73
Jones, E. A., 158, 237
Juniata College, 198
Justifiable success targets, 173–175
K
Kamlet, M. S., 115
Keeping promises, 52, 56
Kelly, A. P., 9
Kelly, P., 138
Kelsch, A., 162
Keup, J. R., 132
Key performance indicators, 147
Kinzie, J., 37, 83, 94, 129, 153, 155, 156, 172, 180, 185, 186, 194, 198, 208
Kiplinger’s College Rankings, 184
Komives, S. R., 120
Korn, W. S., 7
Krathwohl, D. R., 122
Krupnick, M., 22
Kuh, G. D., 37, 44, 83, 94, 102, 129, 132, 139, 153, 155, 156, 172, 180, 185, 186, 193, 198, 220
L
LaGuardia Community College, 159, 199
Lane, J. E., 96
Leadership. See Administrators; Board leadership; Presidential leadership
LEAP (Liberal Education and America’s Promise), 120, 124
Learning. See Student learning
Learning-centered classrooms, 132
Learning competencies, 123
Learning goals, 123
Learning objectives, 123
Learning outcomes. See Student learning outcomes
Lebanon Valley College, 23, 82, 125
LeBlanc, P., 5
Lederman, D., 7, 65, 243
Lehigh University, 14
Liberal arts education, 137–139
Liberal Education and America’s Promise (LEAP), 120, 124
Light, T. P., 155
Lilly Conferences on College & University Teaching, 142, 243
Local community, 56
Local tests and examinations, 156
Long Island University (LIU), 84
Longanecker, D., 243
Looney, A., 7
Lovett, M. C., 129, 131
Lozano, J. B., 7, 36
Lumina Foundation, 10, 120

M
Magna Publications’ Teaching Professor imprint, 142
Major Field Tests (MFTs), 154
Making Connections National Resource Center (LaGuardia Community College), 159
Making Student Learning Evidence Transparent: The State of the Art (Jankowski & Provezis), 188
Making the Grade: How Boards Can Ensure Academic Quality (Ewell), 96
Makker, S., 22
Malamud, O., 57
Marcus, J., 37
Marginalization, 43
Martí, C. N., 129
Massive open online courses (MOOCs), 72
Maxwell, D., 139
McCarthy, M. A., 35, 88
McClenney, K., 129
McCormick, A. C., 129, 156
McKendree University, 71, 124
McPherson, M., 56
Meaningful goals, 109
Measurement: additional information and resources on, 165; adopting common, 172; choose an appropriate perspective for comparison, 169–173; definition and various terminology used to describe, 147; different perspectives of, 170–173; numbers have meaning only when they are compared against other, 169; for tracking progress toward goals, 164–165; understanding that there is no perfect way to approach quality, 200–201; validity and reliability issues of, 163–165. See also Dashboard indicators; Evidence; Instruments
Measurement perspectives: historical, 170; peer, 171–173; remember that no perspective is perfect, 173; strengths and weaknesses, 170–171; value-added, 171
Mediocrity problem, 47–48
Metrics, 147
Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE): accreditation standards, criteria, and requirements of, 211; description of, 13, 14; on identifying essential goals, 108
Midwestern Higher Education Compact, 127
Miller, M., 37, 39
Mintz, S., 57
“Minute paper,” 156
Mission: description of, 101; McKendree University’s learning outcomes tied to its, 124
Mission creep, 102
Mission statements: Carnegie Mellon University’s, 115; definition of, 101; purpose communicated through, 100, 105; taking actions that support your, 45
Monetary support. See Budgets
Monitoring: are you bringing in the right people?, 67; how is time spent by faculty and staff, 67; impact of college investments, 68–69; watch for both high turnover and stagnation, 68; what proportion of revenues go toward meeting student needs, 66–67; what proportion of revenues go toward priorities, 66
MOOCs (massive open online courses), 72
Moody’s, 62
Moore, C. A., 73
Morace, R., 193
Morrill, M. S., 57
Morrill, R., 40, 71, 80, 86, 110
Mortenson, T. G., 57
Muchin, S., 180

N
Narrow-mindedness, 43
NASDAQ, 92
National accreditation: as alternative to regional accreditation, 246; description of, 12–13
National accreditors, 12–13
National Advisory Committee on Institutional Quality and Integrity (NACIQI), 11, 18, 20, 21, 243
National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), 73
National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities (NAICU), 184
National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), 8
National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX), 154
National Institute of Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA), 4, 152, 155, 172, 185, 186, 208
National Institute of Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA) Transparency Framework, 188
National Resource Center for the First-Year Experience and Students in Transition, 143
National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), 55, 154, 169, 170, 171, 173, 193
National Task Force on Institutional Accreditation, 15
Net income ratio, 62
New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC): Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of, 13; general education requirements of, 142; on interrelationship of accreditation requirements, 31
New initiatives proposals, 233–235
New Leadership Alliance for Student Learning and Accountability (NLASLA), 243
New York Stock Exchange, 92
New York University, 14
Newell, M., 23
NILOA Transparency Framework, 188
Nodine, T., 196
Norman, M. K., 129, 131
North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, 13
Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU), 13
Numerals. See Measurement
Oakton Community College, 100
Obama, B., 162
Objectives: definition of, 113; learning, 123. See also Strategic goals
O’Brien, P., 40
Observable action verbs, 113
O’Donnell, K., 102, 129, 132, 139, 193
Ohio State University, 71
Online courses/programs: cautions regarding implementing, 71, 73; Council of Regional Accrediting Commissions (C-RAC) guidelines for reviewing, 142; MOOCs (massive open online courses), 72; rubric of eight standards for, 142; student learning through, 140. See also Courses
Operational plans, 113–114
Orem, C. D., 206
Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 6
Outcomes-Based Academic and Co-Curricular Program Review: A Compilation of Institutional Good Practices (Bresciani), 237
Pace University, 111
Palomba, C. A., 158, 159
Pascarella, E. T., 129, 1323
Patel, V., 240
Pearce, E., 103
Peer perspective, 171–173
Peer review, 15–16, 245
Penn, J. D., 206
Performance indicators, 147
Performance measures, 147
Persistence: definition of, 133; go-to resources on, 143; strategies to help student, 132–134; student-centered colleges’ active focus on, 133
Petrides, L., 196
Pierce, S. R., 88
Pike, G., 163
Planning. See Strategic planning
Pockets of mediocrity, 47–48
Policies, documenting, 87
Portfolios, 155
“Preparing for Accreditation: Sowing the Seeds of Long-Term Change” (Diorio), 227
Presidential leadership: additional information and resources on, 96; capacity and commitment of, 90–91; collaborative approach of, 93–94; description of, 89; empowered, 91; independent, 91–92; oversight entity of, 92–93; providing ongoing education and development to, 95; responsibilities of the, 89; six-point agenda for advancing quality by, 241–245. See also Administrators; Chief executive officers (CEOs); Institutional governance
President’s Innovation Fund (Lebanon Valley College), 82
Priddy, L., 223
Primary reserve ratio, 61
“Principles for Developing Competency-Based Education Programs” (Johnstone and Soares), 73
Prioritizing Academic Programs and Services: Reallocating Resources to Achieve Strategic Balance (Dickeson), 237
Problem-based learning: caution regarding implementation of, 73; description of, 71; real-world problem solving skill and, 122
Professional development programs: for adjunct faculty, 84–85; constructive feedback to support, 85; focusing on college's priorities, 83–84; providing education on student learning assessment, 84; teaching-learning center (TLC) for, 83
Proficiency Profile (PP), 154, 172
"Program Review as a Model of Vision-Based Continuous Assessment: Principles and Profiles of Good Practice" (Banta, Jones, & Black), 237
Program reviews: additional information and resources on, 237; ensure integrity and value of, 235–237; five cultures of quality framework used for, 230–231; questions to consider for new initiative proposals and academic, 233–235; specialized accreditation as a form of, 231–232; three fundamental criteria framework for, 230.
See also Accreditation reports
Promise keeping, 52, 56
Promotion. See Faculty promotion and tenure (P&T)
Provezis, S., 188, 194, 199, 208
Pryor, J. H., 7
Public good: accreditor service to the, 19; attitudes, values, and dispositions that contribute to the, 121; college responsibility to serve the, 52, 56–57, 186; gauging contributions to the, 150; liberal arts education serving the, 138; strategic goal focus on the, 108
Published instruments: rubrics, 124, 142, 152–155; subject-specific tests and examinations, 154; surveys of student experiences, 55, 154, 156; tests to assess intellectual skills and competencies, 154
Purpose: additional information on delineating your, 105; articulating your, 105; creating a distinctive sense of, 102–103; gauging achievement of goals and, 150; identifying essential activities to drive your, 101–102; mission statements that identify college, 45, 100, 101, 105; questions to ask to clearly delineate your, 99–100; students as your target clientele, 104; underlying values for decisions that drive, 103–104
“The Pursuit of Credibility” (Newell), 23
Q
Quality: continually defined by reputation and not effectiveness, 35–37; cost-effective measures of, 201–202; defined as component of the five cultures of quality, 26–31; evidence used to advance effectiveness and, 192–193; integrity component of, 52–58; interrelations among the five cultures for, 31–32; lack of money supporting five cultures of, 37; making a commitment to culture of excellence and, 25–26; as more important than quantity, 108; understanding there is no perfect measure of, 200–201; U.S. News & World Report college ranking list on, 35–36. See also Culture of quality; Five cultures of quality
Quality assurance: accreditation as relatively low-cost system of, 23; accreditation as source of information on, 21; college responsibility for, 52, 57–58; description of, 11; evidence used to advance quality and, 192–193. See also Accreditation
Quality barriers: culture relying on antecedents and anecdotes as, 45–46; emphasizing assessment over learning as, 46–47; failure to financially support improvement as, 45; fuzzy focus and aspirations as, 45; misunderstandings about academic freedom as, 44; pockets of mediocrity as, 47–48; silos as, 41–42, 241, 243–244
Quality Matters Program, 142
Quality of life, 121
Quality programs: five cultures of quality framework for reviewing, 230–231; three fundamental criteria framework for reviewing, 230; writing program review of, 231–237
Quality six-point agenda: break down silos, 41–42, 241, 243–244; encourage and support great teaching and learning, 240, 242–243; fight complacency, 240, 243; on how higher education leaders and others can help, 241245; know your stakeholders and be relevant and responsive to, 239–240, 241–242; put your money where your mouth is, 240, 243; tell meaningful stories of your successes, 241
Quantitative skills, 123
R
Real-world problem solving skills, 122
Reflect and regroup, 206
Reflective writing, 155–156
Regional accreditation: building reputation of national accreditation alternative to, 246; creating a competitive environment for, 246–247; description of, 12. See also Accreditation

Regional accreditors: college closures by, 22; commitment to traditional higher education values by, 14–15; description of, 12; internal discipline by, 15; labeled as “private clubs,” 14, 15; list of the seven, 13; operating as think tanks, 244; organizational model followed by, 14. See also Accreditors

Regnier, P., 7

Relevance. See Culture of relevance

Reliability: accurate and truthful evidence, 163–164; definition of, 164

Reporting. See Sharing evidence

Research reports, 219

Resource deployment monitoring: are you bringing in the right people?, 67; how is time spent by faculty and staff, 67; of the impact of your investments, 68–69; watch for both high turnover and stagnation, 68; what proportion of revenues go toward meeting student needs, 66–67; what proportion of revenues go toward priorities, 66

Resource deployment strategies: consider streamlining course and co-curricular offerings, 65–66; don’t let efficiency adversely affect effectiveness, 70; evidence used to guide prudent, 193–195; fold evidence of efficiency into reviews and decisions, 70; keep the governance structure lean and focused, 71; monitor efficiency as well as effectiveness, 70; monitor the impact of your investments, 68–69; monitor where the money is going, 66–68; proceed carefully with alternative education models, 65; scale back time spent on tangential activities, 65; stewardship practiced through efficient, 59

Resources: efficient deployment of college, 59, 69–73; on higher education developments, 10; key college responsibilities as central to deployment of, 64–65; recognize that people and their time are great, 60. See also Information resources; Stewardship

Responsibilities. See College responsibilities

Retention: definition of, 133; strategies to help student, 132–134

Return on investment: “college wage premium” (1970s to 2012), 7; of higher education, 5, 6–8

Reviewers: connect the dots for your, 226; cull irrelevant information for, 225; external, 236–237; keep your report an easy read, 226; make the case for compliance up front for your, 226; peer, 15–16, 245; provide a brief introduction to orient the, 225; respecting the time of your accreditation report, 224–226. See also Accreditation reports; Accreditors

Rhoades, G., 44
Rhodes, T. L., 124
Rivera, J. J., 175

Road trip analogy: on college cultures and quality, 26, 27–31; defining student success using the, 169

Robertson, J., 84
Rooney, J. J., 112

Root cause analysis: of culture of disrespect, 78; on life-long application of learning outcomes, 126

Roscoe, H. S., 159, 181, 208
Rotherham, A., 7, 56

Rubrics: American Council of Teachers of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) proficiency guidelines, 154; to appraise college’s culture of betterment, 206–207; Degree Qualifications Profile (DQP), 120, 124, 176; description and applications of, 152–154; of Quality Matters Programs for online courses, 142; results on a hypothetical written communication skills assessment, 167, 168e–169; VALUE, 124, 153, 154, 172, 176

S

Saenz, V. B., 7
Salluzzo, R., 73
Sams, A., 140
Sanders, L., 188
Santos, J. L., 7
Scaffolding, 131
Schneider, C. G., 120, 172
Scholarly research tradition: goals of, 39; process of change as foreign to the, 39–41
Scholarship of application: description of, 68; focus on solving real-world problems as, 102
Scholarship of discovery, 67
Scholarship of teaching, 68
Scholarship Reconsidered (Boyer), 68
Schramm, J. B., 7, 56
Sciences education, 137–139
Seaman, J., 140
Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 92
“Seizing the Initiative for Quality Education” (Bok), 96
Self-centeredness, 43
Self-ratings. See Surveys and self-ratings
Selingo, J., 10
“Seven Maxims for Institutional Researchers” (Hackman), 188
Sharing evidence: additional information and resources on, 188; designing structures and formats for, 177–179; dilemma of balancing quality and shortcomings when, 187–188; headings, subheadings, and hyperlinks used for, 183; honest and balanced approach to, 186–188; make clear and meaningful points when, 179–183; make the evidence easy to find when, 186; tell your story in your own voice when, 183–186; tools for drawing attention to key points when, 183. See also Stakeholders; Student learning assessment; Visuals
Sharkness, J., 159, 181, 208
Sharp, M. D., 120
Shenoy, G. F., 155, 156, 172, 180, 185, 186
Shirley, R. C., 230, 237
Shugart, S., 48
Shulman, L., 185
Sidebars, 180
Silos, 41–42, 241, 243–244
Six-point agenda. See Quality six-point agenda
Slippery Rock University, 125, 186
Smith, M., 44
Smith, N., 6, 7, 120
Soares, L., 73
Society for College and University Planning (SCUP), 105, 117, 159
“Soft” skills, 121–122
Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC), 13, 17
Specialized (or disciplinary) accreditors, 12, 231–232
Spellings Commission report (2006), 18, 183. See also Commission on the Future of Higher Education
St. Olaf College, 186
Staff: monitoring how time is spent by, 67; watching for both turnover and stagnation of, 68
Stagnation problem, 68
Stakeholders: accreditation perceived as not putting enough emphasis on needs of, 19–20; be relevant and responsive to your, 239–240, 241–242; college responsibility to know and meet needs of, 52, 54–56; concerns over student loans vs. ability to pay, 69–70; definition of, 51; honest and balanced communication with, 186–188; strategic goal focus on the needs of, 108; student success evidence wanted by, 148–149, 161–162. See also Sharing evidence
Standard & Poor’s, 62
“Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure” (AAUP), 44
Steen, L. A., 237
Stengel, R., 191
Stevenson University, 111
Stewardship: to deploy resources efficiently, 59, 69–73; to ensure your college’s health and well-being, 59, 60–63; to monitor the impact of your investments, 59, 68–69; to monitor where your money is going, 59, 66–68; overview of the responsibilities of, 59; to put your money where your mouth is, 59, 63–66. See also College responsibilities; Resources
Storytelling: by Education Trust on changes implemented for successes, 193; of your successes, 241
Strategic aims, definition of, 107
Strategic directions, definition of, 107
Strategic Financial Analysis for Higher Education (Salluzzo and Tahey), 73
Strategic goals: articulating the destination in your, 111–113; be prepared to attune and adjust your, 116–117; dashboard for hypothetical college, 182e–183; definition of, 107; establishing key or, 107; evidence tied to key, 162–163; evidence used to refine, 195; “fuzzy,” 45, 112–113, 126; gauging achievement of purpose of, 150; integrating your strategic plans and, 115–116; “LEAP goals” on student learning outcomes, 120, 124; meaningful, 109; measures used to tracking progress toward, 164–165; observable action verbs used to describe, 113; SUNY college of Environmental Science & Forestry’s Vision 2020 on, 108; 3-to-6 rule for, 115. See also Objectives; Student success targets
Strategic planning: collaborative deliberations as the heart of, 110; external and internal evidence used in, 109; identifying destinations in your, 108–110; Society for College and University Planning resource for, 105, 117
Strategic plans: be prepared to attune and adjust your, 116–117; budget support of your, 114; description of, 113; how to write and support a, 113–115; integrating your strategic goals and, 115–116; operational, 113–114; prioritizing activities of your, 115; when assessment is not included in, 45

Strengths and weaknesses perspective, 170–171

Strohl, J., 6, 7, 120

Student-centered college, 133

Student learning: advancements in the assessment of, 10; capstones used to facilitate, 131, 137, 202; deploying resources using evidence on, 194; designing curricula that supports, 134–137; direct and indirect evidence of, 157; emphasizing assessment over, 46–47; establishing goals and objectives for, 123; gauging student success and, 150–157; identifying strategies to help, 129–130; non-traditional venues and modalities for, 139–140; problem-based, 71, 73; quality six-point agenda on encouraging and supporting, 240, 242–243; research and ventures on improving, 9; scaffolding used to facilitate, 131; sharing faculty and student responsibility for, 132; strategic goal focus on the, 108–109; student-centered colleges' active focus on, 133; student engagement in their own, 131; what is required for, 120–123. See also Learning

Student learning assessment: additional information and resources on, 158–159; additional resources and information on, 127; benefits of faculty promotion and tenure (P&T) focus of, 47; C-RAC guidelines for reviewing online courses, 142; Capella University evidence on, 188; emphasized over learning, 46–47; gauging success and evidence terminology instead of, 152; “ineffables” used to measure, 157–158; learning lessons from mistakes made in, 80; offering rewards and incentives for, 199–200; pervasive language of, 152; subject-specific tests, 154; results on a hypothetical written communication skills, 167, 168–169; template for documenting nascent, 206. See also Accreditation reports; Instruments; Sharing evidence

Student learning outcomes: additional information and resources on, 127; articulating your college, 125–127; Bloom's taxonomy framework for viewing, 122; definition of, 123; “early warning systems” on, 114; HEA focus on evidence of, 17–18; identifying your college, 123–124; integrating throughout your college, 127; “LEAP goals” on, 120, 124; U.S. News & World Report college ranking dependence on, 35–36. See also Student success

Student needs: identifying and meeting, 55; monitoring what proportion of revenues goes toward meeting, 66–67

Student success: additional information and resources on, 127; characteristics that define, 119–120; designing curricula that supports, 134–137; Education Trust's stories on changes implemented to improve, 193; gauging, 147–159; go-to resources on, 143; monitoring, 69; recognize and celebrate, 192; road trip analogy of, 169; stakeholder interest in specific types of evidence on, 148–149; strategies that drive persistence and completion for, 132–134; student-centered colleges' active focus on, 133. See also Student learning outcomes

Student success targets: additional information and resources on, 176; choose an appropriate perspective for comparison, 169–173; establish clear goals and, 176; evidence used to refine, 195; set a range of minimal and aspirational, 175; set both milestone and destination, 176; set justifiably rigorous, 173–175. See also Strategic goals

Student work documentation, 206

Students: changing demographics of, 6, 8–9; college responsibility to put first your, 52, 53–54; as college target clientele, 104; creating culture of respect by involving, 79; debt-to-income ratio of student loans taken by, 69–70, 149; facilitating college transfers of, 141–142; gauging responsiveness to the changing, 149; helping them to become successful, 129–143; identifying successful, 119–127; increasing number taking online courses, 140; initiatives to address changing demographics of, 9–10; shared responsibility for student learning by faculty and, 132; strategies that drive persistence and completion by, 132–134; swirl college pathway of many, 9. See also Alumni; Colleges

Subject-specific tests, 154

Successful students. See Student success
SUNY college of Environmental Science & Forestry, 111
SUNY college of Environmental Science & Forestry's Vision 2020, 108
Surveys and self-ratings: Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE), 55; Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP) Freshman Survey, 55; description of, 154, 156; National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), 55, 154, 169, 170, 171, 173, 193; Your First College Year (YFCY) survey, 154
Suskie, L., 48, 54, 58, 82, 84, 90, 123, 126, 127, 131, 153, 155, 156, 158, 165, 169, 171, 176, 180, 186, 188, 195, 196, 201, 203, 208, 214, 223, 240, 241
Swain, M. S., 206
Swing, R. L., 208
Swirl college pathway, 9
SWOT analysis, 110
Syllabi: periodically reviewing, 137; template for a curriculum map for, 136
T
Tables, 180
Tactical plans, 113
Tagg, J., 132
Tahey, P., 73
Targets. See Student success targets
Taylor, B., 103
Teaching excellence: the five cultures for defining, 32–33; McKendree University's Student Learning, Assessment, and Teaching Effectiveness Committee for, 71; quality six-point agenda on encouraging and supporting, 240, 242–243; scholarship of teaching and, 68. See also Culture of excellence
Teaching-learning center (TLC), 83
Teaching Professor (Magna Publications), 142
Technological tools, 203
Templates: considering documentation, 203; for documenting nascent student learning assessment processes, 203, 204–205
Tenure. See Faculty promotion and tenure (P&T)
Terenzini, P. T., 129, 132
Terkla, D. G., 159, 181, 208
Tests and examinations: additional information and resources on, 165; assessing intellectual skills and competencies, 154; locally developed, 156; subject-specific, 154
Thayne, L., 82
3-to-6 rule, 115
Time lag: strategies for handling evidence examination, 194–195; when examining new evidence, 194
Time resource: monitoring how faculty and staff spend time, 67; recognize the value of your, 60
Tinto, V., 132
Title IV financial assistance programs, 16, 61, 221, 232
Title IV gatekeepers, 16, 18, 221
Total quality management, 192
Transparency: college duty related to, 58; definition of, 58; sharing evidence component of, 177–188
Transparency Framework (NILOA), 188
Transparent Pathways, Clear Outcomes: Using Disciplinary Tuning to Improve Teaching, Learning, and Student Success (MHEC), 127
“Trends in Higher Education” newsletter (SCUP), 117
Trust, 78–79. See also Honest communication
Tufte, E. R., 188
Turnover problem, 68
"20 questions that deans should ask their mathematics departments (or, that a sharp department will ask itself)” [Steen], 237
U
University and College Accountability Network (U-CAN), 184
University of Alaska Anchorage graduation rates, 188
University of Pennsylvania, 14
University of Phoenix, 104
University of Tennessee–Knoxville, 193
University of Wisconsin–Oshkosh, 102
U.S. Census Bureau, 6
U.S. Department of Education (ED): accreditation role of, 12; accreditors recognized by the, 16, 21–22; College Navigator of the, 184; creditworthiness score as calculated by ratios of the, 61–62; HEA regulations developed by, 17; Spellings Commission report (2006) issued by the, 18, 183; Title IV gatekeepers recognized by the, 16, 18, 221. See also Accreditation
U.S. higher education: Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, 171; the changing college student issue of, 5, 8–9; cost, access, quality, productivity, and relevance problems of, 5; culture of isolation and reticence issue of, 5; culture of isolation prevalent in, 37–38; culture of reticence prevalent in, 38–39; diversity as one of the historic strengths of the, 102–103; economic development role of, 5–6; Great Recession (2008–2009) impact on, 63; initiatives to address economic and demographic changes in, 9–10; Obama’s “Is it good for the kids?” principle guiding priorities of, 162; perceived shortcomings and failures of, 3; public information resources on, 183–184; quality assurance of, 11; return on investment of, 5, 6–8; U.S. population by age with post-secondary education, 6. See also Colleges

U.S. News & World Report College Compass, 184

U.S. News & World Report college ranking list, 35–36

Using Assessment Results: Promising Practices of Institutions That Do It Well (Baker, Jankowski, Provezis, & Kinzie), 208

Using Quality Benchmarks for Assessing and Developing Undergraduate Programs (Dunn, McCarthy, Baker, & Halonen), 88

V

Validity: of accurate and truthful evidence, 163–164; definition of, 163
Value-added perspective, 171
VALUE (Valid Assessment of Learning in Undergraduate Education) rubrics, 124, 153, 154, 172, 176
Values: contributing to the public good and quality of life, 121; description and function of, 103; effort to change, improve, innovate, 198–200; serving as rationales for college decisions, 103–104

Valuing Assessment: Cost-Benefit Considerations (Swing & Coogan), 208
Vanden Heuvel, L. N., 112
Vision, 107
Vision statements, 108
Visual Explanations: Images and Quantities, Evidence and Narrative (Tufte), 188
Visuals: balanced scorecards, 181; callout boxes, 180; dashboards, 147, 151, 159, 181, 182c–183; graphs, 180; infographics, 180, 181; sidebars, 180; tables, 180. See also Sharing evidence
Volkwein, J. F., 230, 237
Voluntary Framework for Accountability (VFA), 184
Voluntary System of Accountability (VSA), 172, 184

W
Walvoord, B. E., 127, 142, 152, 156, 158, 159, 196, 208
Washington Monthly College Guide, 184
Western Association of Schools and Colleges Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), 13
Western Association of Schools and Colleges Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities (WASC Senior), 13, 19
Whittaker, B., 73
Wilmington University, 100
Wise, K. S., 39, 41, 200, 208, 240
Wiseman, M., 159, 181, 208
Wiseman, P., 120, 122
Wolff, R., 22–23, 242, 243
Wozniak, A. K., 57
Wright, B., 163

Y
Yeado, J., 193
Your First College Year (YFCY) survey, 154