Index

A Guide to Good Practice in User and Care Involvement in Training 370 acceptance and commitment therapy 6, 142, 148 Acquired Brain Injury 152–62 clinical presentation and natural course 154–5 neuropsychological impairments 155
pathophysiology 153–4 rehabilitation 155–62
acute pain, definition of 138–9
Adjuvant Psychological Therapy 130
Adolescent Depression Anti-depression and Psychotherapy Trial (ADAPT) 119 advice clinics 223
age of transition 288–9
American Psychological Association (APA) 39
Competency Benchmarks Document 24–7 Task Force on the Assessment of Competence in Professional Psychology 19
website 52
anorexia nervosa 73, 297 anxiety, affecting research activity 49 anxiety disorders 140–1, 160 see also childhood fears applied psychology added value of 345 competence in context of 19 differentiation within 341 assertive outreach model 191 assessment of client adequate time for 8 clinical examples 8–9 assessment of competence 29 attachment, supervisory relationship and 328–9 attachment theory 6, 298, 359 audit, different to research 54–5 behavioural model 4–5, 98(fig.), 143, 175, 298 behavioural treatment of sexual problems 310–12 bereavement and death 266 ‘Best Research for Best Health’ 47
biases, cognitive 36, 120
bibliotherapy and self-help 209–14
definition of 209–10
effectiveness 210
effectiveness across age span 211 effectiveness for clinical problems 212 effectiveness of computer-based 210–11 limitations of 213–14
need for therapists 212–13 versus standard therapy 211–12 biopsychosocial approach 4 and chronic pain 138, 142 and early intervention in psychosis 188, 190, 200 black and minority ethnic (BME) people definition of term 227–8 schizophrenia in 230–1 ‘triple jeopardy’ 259
see also cultural competence with BME communities borderline personality behaviour 81
Boulder Conference 34–5, 39
Boulder model confusing and misleading 37–8 outdated 42
brief exposure-based treatment 99–101
British Psychological Society (BPS) accreditation of training courses 338, 339 Code of Ethics and Conduct 10, 20 core competences 23–4(fig.), 25–6 experiential model for training 18
British Psychological Society (BPS) (cont’d)
Guidelines for Minimum Standards of Ethical Approval in Psychological Research 55 report on future of psychological science 39 training accreditation procedures 13
Working Psychologically in Teams report 357

cancer see oncology career and salary structure 338, 343 career frameworks 345
carer consultants 203–4 catastrophising 141, 142
Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS) 64, 289 child clinical psychology service in primary care 69–70 child focused cognitive behaviour therapy 117–23 age of participation 119–20 clinical psychology growth of 3 historical perspective/overview 33–5, 337–40
childhood fears 95–103
challenging issues 101–2
clinical psychology conceptual models 4–8 computer-based bibliotherapy effectiveness of 210–11
need for therapists 213
conceptual models 4–8
childhood-onset chronic conditions 291–2 children in care assessment and engagement 88–9 case study 86, 90–1
evidence base for interventions 89–90 models of working 87–8
children’s psychological needs, overview of 63
Choice Matters 366
chronic health conditions 107–10
chronic pain 111–12, 138–48, 369
anxiety 140–1
challenging issues 146–7
competencies 143–4
definition of 139
depression 140
engagement and assessment 144–5
evidence base 145
frustration 139–40
impact of 139
models 141–2
social impact 141
treatment approaches 143–4 classical conditioning model 4, 142 clinical psychologists competencies required to promote social inclusion 371–2 in early intervention teams 189–92 key qualities of 9–11
in primary care 64–5, 219–20 research activity by 48–56 working outside early intervention teams 195–7 clinical psychology growth of 3
historical perspective/overview 33–5, 337–40 cognitive analytic therapy 7, 238, 250, 300 cognitive behaviour therapy (CBT) 5, 96, 97–9
acquired brain injury 160
bibliotherapy and self-help 209, 213
chronic pain 111–12, 145
eating disorders 298–9, 300 mindfulness-based 6
older people 261, 263–4
postnatal PTSD 281–2
psychosis 194
sexual health 310
cognitive models 5–6
cognitive symptom management 369 collaboration, as view of leadership 351 see also teamwork and collaboration Commissioning Framework for Health and Wellbeing 64 communication between training providers 14 with client 10
important in teamwork 356, 358 research findings 54
scientists and practitioners 39–40 community action 370–1 community psychology 367–8 Competence Architecture Model 21, 22(fig.)
competences 18–31
assessment of 29
chronic pain 143–4
definition 19
developmental in nature 21 global versus limited-domain 29–30 impact of supervision on 327 leadership recognised as 354
models of 21–3
problems with 30
professional 19–20
to promote involvement and social inclusion 371–2 computer-based bibliotherapy

effectiveness of 210–11
need for therapists 213
confidentiality 82, 205, 223, 312–3 recording of supervision and 322 confirmation bias 36
conformity, group dynamics and 11, 357 Connexions 289
consultancy 358–61
characteristics of consultants 359
definition 358
internal and external 359 Lake model 359–60
stages in process 360–1
consumerism 12
conversation engaging clients in 170
externalising 169
Coping Cat programme 102, 119 coping effectiveness training 6 Coping Koala 119
coping strategies acquired brain injury 160
childhood fears 100–1
chronic pain 142, 143, 145
oncology 129–31
self-harm 75, 77, 79–80 cost-effectiveness mental well-being 344 psychology training and 342–3 critical reflection, partnership work and 372 see also reflective practice 'cry of pain' model of self harm 75 cube model of competency 22, 23(fig.), 26 cultural competence with BME communities 226–33 assessment sessions 232–3 context 229
definitions of terms 227–9 in clinical practice 232–3 promoting better access to services 231–2 psychological distress 230–1 social exclusion 229–30 cultural factors, complexity of clinical work and 12 culture, definition of term 228
Darzi report 341
Department of Health, review of psychology services 338
depression 140, 160
developmental conditions 291–2 developmental group psychotherapy 81 developmental models clinical 6 of supervision 323–4 developmental trauma literature 90 dialectical behaviour therapy (DBT) 81, 238–40, 245 'dialectical framework' of dementia 265 diathesis-stress model 140, 200 disability, social model of 367 disability stress-coping model 108 Discrimination Model of supervision 324 disease, psychological aspects of 47–8 dissemination of effective practices 14 see also communication distraction techniques 111, 112 drop-in clinics 67–8 dyadic developmental psychotherapy 89 eye movement desensitisation and reprocessing (EMDR) 96 Eysenck, H. 35, 338
facilitation, partnership work and 371 family interventions and psychosis 199–205 carer and service user involvement 203–4 challenges 204–5
competencies 202
engagement and assessment 203
evidence base 201–2
models 200–1
family life, difficult 80–1 fear, five factors of children's 99 Fear Survey Schedule for Children and Adolescents 99 feedback supervision and 331 user involvement in training 370 Feeling Good 209, 211
followers, in context of leadership 355
in formulation
childhood fears 97–9
chronic pain 143
consultancy work 358, 359–60 eyearly intervention in psychosis 189–92, 193, 194 learning outcomes for training 24, 26 macro-forces overlooked in older people 251–3, 260, 264 planning interventions 79 primary care work 220, 221
PTSD 278–81
in funding
IAPT programme 344
research in UK 48
trainees 13, 340
in USA 33–4, 39, 40
gate control theory 141–2 general healthcare practice 338–9 in Germany 33
Gestalt therapy 7, 80
Gillick competence 82
genograms 170, 241(fig.), 242 gerotranscendence 256
good practice, in public involvement 372–3 group dynamics 11, 356–8
group interventions 194, 301 head injuries see Acquired Brain Injury Health Professions Council 24, 319, 341 hindsight bias 36–7
holistic joined up services, importance of 91–2 hyperarousal, reducing symptoms of 81 illusory correlation 36
Improving Access to Psychological Therapies (IAPT) 5, 15, 43, 224, 341, 344 individualism 367
institutional racism, definition of term 228 institutional religious intolerance, definition of term 228 Integrated Developmental Model of Supervision 21–2, 323–4 integrative treatments 238 intensive interaction 175–83
definition of 177–8
evidence base 178–9
historical context 175–6 reasons for referral 176 service delivery 179–82
who for 178
interpersonal model 4, 75, 298
interpersonal therapy (IPT) 7, 261 Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA) 52
intrapsychic model 75
joint health visitor clinics 68 junior therapists, delivery of treatment by 43 Knowledge and Skills Framework 342, 345 in Latin America, liberation social psychology 371 leadership 350–5
authentic leadership model 353 compared to management 352 context of 355
definition 350–1
organisational 353
three dimensions 351–2
transformational leader model 353 learning disabilities see systemic working with people with learning disabilities life review therapy 256, 265–6
Local Clinical Scientist (LCS) 43 local district psychology services 338 ‘looked after’ children, definition of 86–7 Lorig, Kate 369
manpower see workforce
MAS review 338
Maudsley Institute of Psychiatry 34, 35 mental hospitals 337 mentally healthy child, definition of 63 metacognitive therapy 6
meta-knowledge 20–1
Milan approach 7
modernism 7
MPAG report 339, 342
narrative therapy 7, 168–70, 266
externalising 169
thinly/thickly described 168–9
National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE) 5, 47, 341
National Occupational Standards 341
National Research Ethics Advisors 56
National Research Ethics Service (NRES) 55
website 56
National Service Framework for Children, Young People and Maternity Services 63–4
National Service Framework for Mental Health 369
National Service Framework for Older People 258(fig.)
National Vocational Standards 341 negative automatic thoughts, strategies for working with 132 negative experiences, research processes 49–50 networking, partnership work and 371–2 neuropsychological rehabilitation 152–62
effectiveness of 161–2
goal-oriented approach 156 principles of 156
return to education/employment 161 strategies for behavioural management 159 strategies for communication skills 159 strategies for emotional disorders 159–60 strategies for executive difficulties 158–9 strategies for managing areas of difficulty 157 strategies for managing memory 158 use of groups 156

New Ways of Working 43, 70, 341, 343 profile of leadership qualities 352

NHS
Agenda for Change 342, 345 beginnings of clinical psychology in 337 bureaucratised and risk averse 373 changes in organisation 339
consumerist approach 366, 369 creation of 34
encouragement of research excellence 47 Expert Patient Programme 366, 368–9 funding of trainees 13
Leadership Quality Framework 354 partner in training 12, 13 public enquiries into functioning of 364 quality assurance assessment 13 recruitment of trainees 13 research ethics procedures 55–6

NICE four-level model for psychological assessment and intervention 134 normalisation/social role valorisation 176

'oobject relations' school 6 obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD) 5, 102, 117, 120, 278
older people 255–66
access to psychology services 259

engagement 261–2
evidence base 260–1
formal assessment 262–3
meaning of 255–6
models and competencies 259–60 models of mental health services 257–8 psychological models 256 psychological therapies 263 see also systemic work with older people

oncology 128–35
demands on staff 134–5
factors affecting responses to life-changing events 130 future directions 135
managing distress 131–3 psychological interventions 133 understanding patient’s experience 129–31 operant conditioning model 4

paediatric services 106–14
chronic health conditions 107–10 communication 107
models of service delivery 113–14
pain 110–12
adherence 112
assessment of 110–11
interventions for chronic 111–12 interventions for procedural 111

see also chronic pain

pain management groups 369
Pain Questionnaire 110
parent advisers 65
parental narratives 90
partnership work 368–73
competences needed 371–2
examples 368–71
PATHOS 78–9
patient choice 48, 344, 364, 366
PedsQL 110
persistent pain see chronic pain personalised booklets 100–1 personality disorders 236–46

assessment 241–2
competencies 238
consultation, supervision and training 244–5 formulation 243
issues of definition 236–8 service development 245 themes and tensions 240–1 treatment interventions 243–4 working with people eligible for diagnosis 238

phobias see childhood fears policy guidance 63–4 positive psychology 367–8
post-modernism 7
postnatal post-traumatic stress disorder 274–84
assessment 278–9
childbirth 276–7
differentiating from other mental health problems 279
formulation 279–80
implications for psychological management 282–4 intervention 281–2
pregnancy loss 277–8

preschool children, primary care initiatives 67–8 primary care 218–24
background 218–19
challenging issues 222
clinical psychologists in 219–20
competencies 221–2
definition of 218
ethics 223
level of psychological distress in 219 lifespan perspective 220 models used 223
service and contextual issues 222–3 primary care mental health workers 345 prisoners 370

Process Model of Supervision 325 professional identity 340–2 profound and complex learning difficulties 175–83 problem solving groups  67 ‘protective behaviours’ (PBs) model  80, 81 psychiatrists, psychologists working with  337 psychoanalysis  6
psychoanalytic developmental theory  256 psychodynamic interpersonal therapy (PIP)  7 psychodynamic models  6, 244, 310, 359 psychological distress, definition of  131 psychological interventions  337, 338
acquired brain injury  156, 160
children in care  87
chronic pain  138
older people  260, 265(fig.)
oncology  130, 133
paediatric services  111, 112
psychosis  189, 191, 193–4
sexual health  312
Psychology Press, research website  52
psychosis
family interventions and  199–205
nature of  189–91
see also early intervention in psychosis qualifications  337, 338, 339 quality improvement/evaluation projects  55 R&D application form  55 race, definition of term  228 racism, definition of term  228 rational emotive therapy  5 recovery model  201
referral reasons  69
reflecting team  167, 171, 252 reflection  180
reflective practice  11, 21, 41–2
life review therapy  265–6 supervision and  331
in teams  358
Reid, Thomas  36
relationships, supervisory  322
research
anxiety affecting  49
benefits of  50
bridge between practice and  40–1 communicating findings  54 data collection/analysis  53–4 defining  54–5
design and methodologies  51–2, 53 developing questions  53 ethical approval  55–6
evaluating others’ work  48, 50–1 Eysenck’s opinion  35
formulating problem/objective  53
lack of formal  48–9
NHS encouragement  47
redefining  50
scientific-practitioner model  9–10, 12, 34 state of mind  46–7
Research Design Explained  52
research projects
six steps  52–3
NHS Good Practice Guidelines  55 restricted skills  239
risk factors associated with mental health problems  63 associated with self-harm and suicide  75, 76(fig.) role play, supervisory  322, 328 Rutter Screening Questionnaire  69 salaries  338, 342, 343 sample sizes, research data  53–4 schizophrenia, rates of in BME groups  230–1 second generation models  300–1, 303 self-cutting  73
alternatives to  80(fig.)
self harm  73–83
assessment of needs  77, 78(fig.)
challenging issues  81
competencies for clinicians working with  77
evidence base for interventions  79–81, 82
models of  74–6
NICE definition of  73
reasons for  74
risk assessment  73–4, 77, 78(fig.)
self-help guides  5 see also bibliotherapy and self-help self-help support workers  345 Self Regulation Model  129 service evaluation, different to research  54–5 service provision improving access to  344–5 local district services  338 no accepted patterns or standards  14 patients as consumers  48 role of applied psychology  345–6 workforce model within NHS  341
sexual health  307–13
assessment  310
areas of psychological need  308–9 ethical issues  312–13
interventions  310–12
problems  309–10
role of clinical psychologists  307–8 teaching on clinical psychology courses  312 Shapiro, Monte  337
shifted outpatients  65
skills see competences
Social-Cognitive Transition (SCT) model  130 social constructionist model  166 using reflecting teams  167–8 social context  12
social inclusion  364–73
social role models of supervision  324 solution-focused therapy  7 somatisation 112–13
special skills, personality disorder work 238–9 stage theory 107
Standards for Better Health 366 structural family therapy 7 substance misuse 73
suicidal thoughts 73
suicide, links with self-harm 74
Suicide Intent Scale 78–9 supervision 11, 319–31
best practice 330–1
client outcome and 326–7
definition 320
effectiveness of 325–8
feedback 331
for research projects 49 functions of 320–1
intensive interaction practitioners 180 minimum standard required 319
models of 322–5
modes of 322
self-efficacy 328
supervisee self-report 327–8 supervisory relationship 328–30 tasks of 321–2
Supervisory Working Alliance Inventory 328
Surviving Cancer Competently Intervention Program 110 systemic models 7
systemic work with older people 248–53 current state of 249
formulation and intervention techniques 252
nature of 250–1
practice of 252–3
usefulness of 251
working against ageism 253
see also older people systemic working with people with learning disabilities 164–72
meaning of 165–7
reflecting teams 167–8
service models 170–1
using narrative ideas 168–70 Systems Approach to Supervision model 321, 324–5 teaching, research and audit skills 51 teamwork and collaboration 11, 15, 20, 23–4, 35, 355–8 characteristics of healthy teams 357–8 consultancy work with teams 358–60
group dynamics 356–8
psychologists within hierarchical system 356
in research 50
staff morale and 356–7
Working Psychologically in Teams report 357
telephone consultation 67 theory and research, importance of 9–10 therapeutic relationships 10 Theraplay 89–90
third-wave cognitive therapies 6, 142, 148
Tier 2 service 64, 65, 66, 69
Together We Stand 64
touch 181–2
training 12–14
beginnings of in UK 337 competence-based 25–30
consistent across UK 14
four-quadrant matrix model 42 historical perspective 33–5 user involvement in 369–70 value of generic 12
transactional analysis 7, 80
Transactional Model 129
transference 6
transition 288–94
challenge of setting up services 289–90 childhood-onset chronic conditions 291–2 competencies required 293–4 mental health and 292
outcomes 292–3
period, definition of 288–9
planning 290–1
Transition Champions Programme 290
Treatment for Adolescents with Depression Study (TADS) 119 treatment non-compliance 82 Trethowan Report 338, 342, 343 universities
early training courses in UK 337 expansion of courses 338
University of Waterloo list of psychological societies 52 USA
accreditation of professional education 18–19
Boulder Conference 34–5, 39
Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM) 39, 42 first psychological clinic 33
National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) 52 user involvement 364–73
Vail Conference 38
value-based practice 366–7 veterans 33–4, 39
video recording 180–1
vision and values, in leadership 354
Web Center for Social Research Methods 52 websites
National Research Ethics Committee (NRES) 55
research processes 52
Witmer, Lightner 33
workforce
demand and supply 342
lack of 338
planning 339, 340
statistics 338, 350
Young Minds 64