Accountability, 51
Accounting practices, 51
Accreditation, 167–8
Accrual accounting, 53–4
Acknowledging achievements, 133
Activity-based model, 52
Appraisal process, 133
Appropriation funds, 52
Assertive communicators, 106
Assessment, 39
Attitudes, 85, 88
Audit process, 36
Authoritarian managers, 14, 16
Avoidable costs, 55

Behavoural healthcare industry, 35
Boundaries, 12
Budget, 51 analysis, 53 lifecycle, 57 manager, 52–3, 64 parameters, 58 submission, 57
Burden of care, 149
Burnout, 143–4
Business plan, 59

Capital grants, 52
Case management, 28
Case type, 144
Caseload, 27, 29–30, 144
Caseload management tools, 29–30
Cash accounting, 53–4
Clean data, 39
Client problems, 144
Clinical function, 168
Clinical information management, 33
Clinical judgement, 179
Clinical managers, 9
Clinical review activities, 166
Clinical review process, 116–17, 122–3
Clinical supervision, 115–16, 118–19, 120–21
Clinical supervision co-ordinator, 123
Clinical trials, 174
Collaborative Recovery Training Program, 100, 102
Comics, 88–90
Community Health Information
Management Enterprise, 40–41
Community mental health care, 95
Computer-assisted mental health interventions, 46
Computerised questionnaires, 46
Computer-supported treatment, 46
Confidentiality, 38, 121–2, 131
Conflict, 9
Consumer empowerment, 11
Consumer satisfaction, 133
Consumer team members, 9–11
Consumers, 160–61
Contact level, 145
Continuing professional development, 10
Controllability, 62
Core values, 107–8
Cornerstones, 107
Corporate function, 168
Corruption, 63
Critical incidents, 67

Data collection systems, 34
Data information manager, 37–8, 45–6
Deinstitutionalisation, 95
Democratic managers, 14
Depersonalisation, 143
Depreciation, 56–7
Depression, 95–6
Descriptive data, 166
Detain patients, 10
Development plan, 129, 134–5, 139
Diagnostic Related Groupings, 34
Dissemination, 175
Dual diagnosis, 72
Dual relationships, 120–21
Duly Authorised Officer, 10
Qualitative measures, 156
Quality, 167 assurance, 155 improvement, 155, 167–8, 170 measurement, 156
Quantitative measures, 156

Recording, 76
Records, 164
Recovery, 17–18, 80, 82, 94, 96, 99, 178
Recovery competencies, 156
Recovery or wellness plans, 83
Recovery Oriented Mental Health Program, 99–100
Reframing mental symptoms, 86
Reportable incident brief, 42
Resources, 51, 146, 149
Responsibility, 149–50
Restorative benefits, 117–18, 123–4
Revenue, 54
Rewards, 131
Risk management, 62
Role-based stress, 146
Root cause analysis, 42, 73
Rostering, 150
Routine outcome measurement, 165, 177–8

Self-appraisal, 132, 137
Self-efficacy, 26
Self-harm, 68–79, 120
Semi-fixed costs, 55
Semi-variable costs, 55
Service evaluation, 58
Service users, 8–9, 84, 86
Severity assessment code, 42
Shared activities, 9
Shared reflection, 109
Shared vision, 107
Siblings, 83
Skills, 7–8, 137, 151, 182
Social agencies, 84–5
Special grants, 52
Staff member, 132
Staffing ratios, 27
Stakeholders, 160
Standardised measures, 42
Standards, 51
  of care, 155, 163
Statistical analysis, 166
Stigma, 86–91
Stress, 142–3

Stress reduction, 151
Stressors, 145, 147
Structure, 161–2, 167
Suicide, 68–73
Supervision, 10
Supervisor, 147
Support function, 168
Surveys, 165

Team building, 18–19
Team communication, 19–20
Team knowledge, 7
Team leader, 12, 18
Team meetings, 19–20
Teamwork, 12–13
Testing phase, 36
Therapeutic alliance, 82
Therapeutic computer games, 47
Training, 36, 77
  programmes, 151
Transaction leadership, 15
Transformational leadership, 15
Transformational Leadership Model, 15
Transformative organisational change, 105–6
Transparency, 51
Tripartite model, 123

Unfunded activity, 62
Unique specialist domains, 9
Unplanned expenditure, 62
User case managers, 11
User involvement, 40

Vacancy rate, 28
Variability in healthcare practice, 35
Variable costs, 54
Violence, 74–5
Violent incidents, 76
Virtual reality, 47

Waste, 63
Work and Income New Zealand, 84–5
Work environment, 145
Work location, 146
Work quality, 149
Work–life balance, 150
Workload, 23–5, 149
Workload management, 23
Workplace culture, 97
Work-related stress, 25–6