INDEX

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to tables accuracy 46, 112, 130–1 of information 249

of two professions 251 violence with high 250
actuarial risk assessment 6, 99, 102, 112, 174
acute triggers 224
adaptive behaviour 28, 33, 147 environmentally 131, 133 and learning 28
positive 290
prosocial 254, 325, 326 reinforcement of maladaptive 166 addiction to crime hypothesis 7 adult sex offenders 161 ADVISOR monitoring process 195 ADVISOR project
behavioural risk assessment process 194 behaviour monitoring 191
design of 190–4
evaluation of cost-benefits analysis 197 offence-related behaviour 196 outcome measures, choice of 196 qualitative analysis 196
quantitative analysis 197 in reducing risk 196
implementation, learning monitoring forms 195 prison coordinator 194
training processes 194–5 wing history sheets, use of 195 information, types of behaviour monitoring form 193
wing information sheet 192
MAPPA meetings 194
project design costs 197 project initiation costs 198 recurrent benefits 198
recurrent project costs 198 returns 198
aggression under neutral conditions (AUNC) 60 aggression under provocation conditions (AUPC) 60 aggressive behaviour 60 across the lifespan 115
in anger-provoking situations 35 behavioural approaches to 38–41 case formulation of 36
consistent 327
convictions for 106
criminal 123, 234
cross-situational consistency in 118 encountered in forensic setting 38 environment in elicitation of 113–14 experimental analyses 41
facilitators 113
formulation of 38
functional analysis 42
low-severity 111–12
occurring within hospitals 108–10
institutions 107–8
overt 116
passive 222
patterns and determinants of 113 persistent during hospitalization 106 putative causes of 39
repertoire of 107
risk factors for 326
sexually 35
structured 253
violent index offences and 253 aggressive incident 40, 62, 127, 280, 324 alcohol addiction problem 278 drinking 279
misuse 58
social use of 194
American Psychiatric Association 305
analogue behaviour 12
anamnestic risk assessment 6
anger management 40, 61, 148, 222, 292, 300 group 206
antisocial attitudes 81, 115, 159, 172, 174, 208, 225
antisocial behaviours 57–8, 114, 115, 122, 151, 153, 162, 171, 172, 175, 235, 265
  see also criminal behaviour anxiety disorders 28, 30, 44, 45, 154 anxiety symptoms 31, 98, 294 anxiolytic drugs 28
attempted suicide 32, 140, 141 attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) 153–5, 163 axial coding 219
axis 1 disorders 57–8
Barnum effect 81
behaviour
  across temporal and situational contexts 13 positive aspect of 186
  topological similarity 9 of young offenders 152
behavioural approaches 28–9, 203
to aggressive behaviour 38–41 behavioural assessment cornerstone of 326
  functional analysis assessment techniques 186 in residential settings 126
  risk assessment 186
behavioural change
  assessing and modelling 216 and client–therapist relationship 30 cognitive therapy and 232 to measure offence-related 217
  in prison 115–16
  with reinforcement 232
  within time frame of institutional treatment 139 behavioural consistency 10, 12, 106, 107, 138–9 behavioural monitoring 126, 129, 130, 132, 194, 197 behavioural risk assessment 188–9, 199 attitudes, psychometric measures 188 community risk management 189–90 cross-situational consistency 188
HMP Wakefield 189
life sentence prisoners 189 paucity of research on 186 prison coordinator for ADViSOR 194
prosocial behaviours 189 value of 199
behavioural sequences 10, 14, 37, 74–5, 90, 138, 204, 216, 252, 303, 319 incorporating overt behaviours 303 involved in previous criminal acts 231 of offences committed during 152 thematic analysis 76–7
behaviour analysis
  and conceptual foundations of 30 of self-control focuses on 28 sequential analysis 75 sources of data 75–6
behaviour monitoring
  form 193–6
offender supervisor 194 purpose of 191
biases 15, 60, 81, 107, 128, 131, 186, 204, 290
  see also cognitive bias borderline personality disorders (BPD) 54
BPS Code of Ethics 128
British Psychological Society 199
Brøset violence checklist 251 bullying 9, 83, 99, 158, 166, 205, 224, 235 caffeinated drinks 279
caffeine 28, 46, 265, 278, 279 case formulation 25
  behavioural approaches 28–9
  and characteristics 26–7 cognitive approaches to 29–30 current offending behaviour 34–6 definitions 27
  differences in function 31–2 eclectic approaches 31
  general challenges to 43–4 biological variables 46 economic aspects 46
  formulations with client 45 reliability 44
  validity 44–5
  history-based approaches to 34 offence paralleling behaviour 37–8 psychodynamic approaches 30–1 special challenges 46–7 cause-effect–cause-effect patterns 74 characteristic adaptations 138 childhood circumstances 234 childhood experiences 77, 220, 224, 227, 240, 304 child sex offenders 8, 11, 220, 241 Chromis programme 206 clinical appraisals 108–9, 112 clinical interpretations 186 clinical judgement 186 exercise of 112
  offensive behaviour predicted by 5 of risk using OPB 325
  structured 256
  susceptible to 15
  unstructured 251
  clinically relevant behaviour (CRB) 209–11 clinical psychology 206 clinical team, suggestion 282 cognitive analytic therapy 203, 209 cognitive behaviour therapy 209
  analysis 82
  approaches 29–30
  custodial interventions 153
  formulations 30
  interventions 29, 153, 189
  orientation 318
  perspectives 27
  to psychodynamic 261
cognitive bias
beational risk prediction 186 potential 186
subjectivity 186

cognitive processes 31, 208, 224
see also criminal behaviour
cognitive therapy 203, 209 aims to change 30
distorted thoughts amenable to change through 232 community-based CBT approaches 206 community behaviour monitoring 194 co-morbid mood 154

concurrent mental health problems 38 aggression, experimental analyses of 41–2 behavioural approaches to aggressive behaviour 38–41

consent 128–30
conservative region of MDS plot 140 controlling anger and learning to manage (CALM) 148 conviction evasion skills (CES) 4, 5 convictions
for aggressive behaviour 106
cautions and 197

Correctional Services Accreditation Panel (CSAP) 207 cortisol levels 154
County Durham Probation Service 190 criminal acts
behavioural sequences 303
fuelled by sadism 306
previous 37, 90, 138, 204, 216, 231, 252, 303 unreported 174

criminal attitude 177, 179, 226
criminal behaviour 208, 234, 263
antisocial 207
and complex demand for prisoners 321
cross-situational consistency in 106
institutional environment in maintaining 205 occurring within institution 138 offender’s repertoire of 323 persistent risk of 323
propensity for 236
reinforcement of 174

criminal justice system (CJS) 4 criminogenic needs 172
criminogenic risk factors 177, 226
importance of 215
and Michael Daffern’s research 317 culture of enquiry 207, 227, 232
custodial behaviour 80 damage arson 143
dangerous and severe personality disorder (DSPD) 54–6, 217, 261 delinquent adolescents 156 despair arson 143
detection evasion skills (DES) 4, 5, 75, 76, 155, 233
acquisition of 205
developmental factors impacting on 165 developmental immaturity 154 dialectical behaviour therapy (DBT) 29 disruptive institutional behaviour 189 education 27, 35, 155, 176, 187, 199, 240, 264, 271 egocentricity 155–6, 158 emotional control 179, 188, 319 emotional development 161–2 empathy 155–6

enactment 15
of OPB 84, 219
split into 219
enhanced thinking skills (ETS) programme 148 EQUIP intervention, remedial programmes 156 ethical issues in monitoring OPBs 128 fire-setting behaviours 143 Angela’s case file 146
formulation of 146–8
and self-harm 143–5
flip-flop technique 219 forensic case formulation 25 forensic-institutional-accredited programmes 206 forensic mental health 248 nursing assessment 247
settings 245
forensic practitioners 3, 7, 13, 19, 38, 48, 85, 89, 157 forensic psychiatric nursing 245, 246 forensic psychiatry and psychodynamic psychotherapy 307
risk assessment 248
forensic psychology 303 forensic services 25
formulations
behavioural 29
cognitive 27
of common forensic problems 32 of development of offending behaviour 32 multiple murder formulated 32–3 sexual offending 33–4 violent offender 33
forensic case 38, 47
occupational 264, 271
OPB 15, 38, 72
overdescriptive 96
unaided clinical 113
functional analytical psychotherapy (FAP) 16, 72, 203 functional nature of aggression, implications 42–3 gangs, impact on adolescent identity 158 general aggression model (GAM) 107 generic professional guidelines 199
Governor’s nark 205
INDEX

here-and-now behaviours 173
Her Majesty’s Inspectorate of Probation (HMIP) 187 high-level aggression (HLA) 8, 9 high profile risk behaviours 188
HM Inspectorate of Prisons and Probation (1999) 189
HMP Acklington 190
HMP Grendon population 227 honesty 130–1, 323
hostile violence 58–9
impression management bias 125
concept of 103, 264
individual changes caused 299–300
clinically meaningful 294
detection evasion skills (DES) 290
extent of 293
in forensic settings context 288–9 idiographic approaches, use of 287 intervention, anger ratings 291 offence paralleling behaviour (OPB) 287 special considerations 289–90 understanding offending, basic sources for 289 predictions of 293
problem-solving 294
psychometric measurement data 295 psychotherapeutic process 299 randomized control trial (RCT) 288 relevant 294, 295
reliable change index (RCI) 294 statistical significance 294 transtient/stable 296–8 individual/functional approach 61 applications of the ACF 62–3 assessment framework 62 and DSPD 63
factors for patient’s aggression 62
importance of 63
limitations of 64
individual lifestyle
current lifestyle patterns, analysis of 268–9 history, explanation of 267–8 past and present relationship 269 inpatient violence 190, 245, 250–1 assessments of 190
relationship of OPB to 252–3 risk assessment of 247
Jaccard’s coefficient 108, 109
Jaccard’s score 109
judgement biases 186
lifestyle paralleling behaviours (LPB) 261, 265–6 concepts of 264–5
definition of 265
future directions 271–2
links between OPB assessments 267–9
criticisms 267
treatment model 269–71
predominant treatment approaches 265–6 standardized assessments 267 individual lifestyle history, explanation of 267–8 individual’s current lifestyle patterns, analysis of 268–9 past and present lifestyles 269 theoretical concepts 262–4 lifestyle performance model 262, 263 lifestyle planning programme 271 lifestyle, use of 262
linkage, kinds of 9 living-learning environment 227 low-level aggression (LLA) 8, 9 maladaptive behaviours 166
maladaptive coping strategies 222
maladaptive response to relationships 16
MAPPA purposes 199
Max Glatt Therapeutic Community 216
mental disorder 283
and axis I disorders 57 defined in DSM-IV 153
diagnosis of 309
functionally similar to behavioural sequences 138 and substance misuse problems 283 mental health assessment 247
forensic 247
problems, concurrent 38–42, 280 professionals 25, 47, 54, 105, 108, 318, 326 service 54, 187
settings 287
mentalization-based treatment (MBT) 306 mentally disordered offenders (MDOs) 245, 247–50, 256 criminogenic needs for 247 mental process 232
Mischel, Walter 107
model of human occupation (MOHO) 262–4, 269 moral development 155–6 multi-agency public protection arrangements (MAPPA) 185 Criminal Justice Act (2003) 187
Criminal Justice and Court Services Act (2000) 187 offender management 188 risk information 189
sex offenders 187, 188
supervising 188
violent offenders 187
multidisciplinary team (MDT) 264 multiple sequential functional analysis (MSFA) 90–103, 115, 323, 326 case examples
  Brian 99–103
  Paul 92–9
National Health Service (NHS) 261, 303
National Offender Manager Service (NOMS) 199 natural human development 166 neurobiological development 152–3 neurocognitive development 152–3 NHS forensic psychiatric settings 303 non-sexual offences 234 no-smoking policy 281
nurse–patient relationship 246, 255 nursing staff
  female member of 254
  with nursing home residents 126 and patients 40
occupational risk factors 263, 264 occupational science (OS) 262, 263 offence
  age 186
  analysis 6–7
  criminal 247
  as current behaviour 11 cycle 7
  from file information 75
  idiosyncratic ways 89
  index 63, 106, 153, 246, 264–5, 279
  notion of 18
  and OPB analysis 99
  paralleling see offence paralleling behaviour (OPB) of patient 255
rape and physical intimidation 191 related behaviour see offence-related behaviour (ORB) related beliefs 240
related monitoring 196
related sexual fantasy 242
violent 57, 187
offence analogue behaviours (OABs) 171, 172, 319 and criminogenic needs 172 OPB and 173–5
to treatment changes, link 175–6 offence paralleling behaviour model (OPBM) 189, 219–20, 245
offence paralleling behaviour (OPB) 2, 6, 16, 18, 37–8, 47–8, 71, 76, 90–1, 93, 122, 126, 215, 226, 231, 251–2, 261, 276, 292, 297, 319 accounts, dimensions 8
  analysis of events 8
  sequence of events 8
  single event 8
action system model 139–40 adapted forensic therapeutic community, role of 212 additional complicating factors 113 adaptation to prison 115–17 immeasurability of environmental 113–15 new learning and evolution in violent offenders 115 to assess and treat violent offenders, using 110 assessment of risk 112–13 treatment using 110–12
assessment based on VRS dynamic factors 177–80 and behavioural consistency 138 behaviour amenable 237–8 and case formulation 38
current research 218
data 132
definition of 219, 220
democratic therapeutic community 216 and detection evasion skills (DES) 233
developmental factors impacting on 165
domains 208
dysfunctional behaviour 217 empirical research 216–17
enactment
  fantasy/pornography 221
  grooming 221
  isolation 222
  maladaptive coping strategies 222
  modified manifestation 220 problematic behaviours 220, 221 verbal abuse 222
engaging challenges 223
  develop insight 224
  familiarity 223
  link domains 223–4
  monitoring 223
  motivation 223
  replacing old behaviour 224–5 therapeutic factors 222 face validity of 321
forensic settings
  difficulties 204
  inmate subculture, influence of 205 prisons 204
  within-session behaviour, therapeutic focus 205–7 forensic TCs, use of
  antisocial attitudes 208
  criminal behaviour 208
  CSAP 209
  culture of enquiry 207
  domains 208
  history of 207
formulations 14–15, 72
  linking theoretical model 74
  validity 73
future research 227–8
hypotheses 7
  validity 14
offence paralleling behaviour (OPB) (cont.)
identification 107–10
methods 324–7
implications for 226–7
to inpatient violence, relationship of 252–3 institutional environment 204 language 321–2
limitations 227–8
measurement 138–9, 176–7
SOC model 177
method for research
analytic strategy 219
consent 218
participants 218
procedure 219
misuse of model and attempts 18–19 offence-related beliefs and challenge 240 planning as antecedents for enactment 84 practice algorithm for identifying 73 psychiatric nursing, implications 253–6 sequential models of 75 sexual preoccupation 238 substance abuse and dependence 322 systemic factors 84–5
TC model 232
TC residents 218
TC settings, development of CRB, identification of 210
cybernetics 212
in evoking CRBs 210–11
reinforce PABs 211–12
therapeutic approaches 209 testing validity 80–2
Barnum effect 81
practice rules for practitioner 82 and theory of sex offender risk 123–5 therapeutic climate 323–4 type of 277
utility of 320–1
vs. OAB 173–5
vs. offence analogue behaviours 319
vs. offence behaviours 189 offence paralleling contingencies 76 offence paralleling situations 11–12 offence re-enactment 216 offence-related behaviour (ORB) 16, 189, 191, 216, 234
assessment, based on VRS dynamic factors 177–80 offence-related sexual fantasy 242 offender behaviour
observation of 190
in prison 197
offender managers 188
behaviour monitoring form 194
in community 195
offenders
adolescent 156
assessments of young 159 characteristics of 197 dangerous 187
from a psychodynamic view 305 high-risk 187
identifying 4
interviews with 227
long-term 116
with personality disorder 265–6 placement and transfer 181 public protection arrangements for 190 rehabilitation 215, 262
sexual 26
violent 110
offender(s)
criminal 212–13
internalization 206
telephone list 195
offender supervisors 190, 191 feedback importance 195
offending behaviour
problem of analysis 89–90
programmes 188
offending behaviours (OBs) model 254, 255, 289 nurses, forensic mental health settings 256 offending risk assessment 132, 245, 247, 256 principles of 248–9
tools 245
offensive behaviour 5
Goldstein’s model 9
operationalized psychodynamic diagnosis (OPD) 311 patient(s)
behaviour 247, 254, 255
mental illness 246
nursing team 211
offending behaviour 247
offending potential 256 psyche 310
risk potential 250
violence 252
personality development 162 adolescent conduct problems as 162–3 lack of continuity between 163 links between borderline traits in 163–4 personality disorder 54, 207, 209, 270
axis 1 disorders 57–8
in forensic setting 56 offence/topographic approach 58 putatively weak power of 55 structural/diagnostic approaches 54–6 problem of heterogeneity 56–7 violence links 55
person’s offending behaviour comprehensive functional analysis of 210
functional analysis 206
perspective-taking 148, 155–6, 235 physical assault 222
police 187
INDEX 335

pornography 223, 225
positive adaptive behaviours (PAB) 290
positive alternative behaviours (PAB) 16, 224
post-offence behaviours 166
post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) 61, 278, 309
primitive defence mechanism 308
prison-based therapeutic communities 18
prison behaviour 185, 186, 189
checklists 191
prison environment 220
prison housing 231, 239
prison offender supervisor 198
prison psychologists
life sentence prisoners and 189
semistructured interviews with 133
prison service 187, 188
prison staff 190
recurrent costs 197
prison wing 233–4
pro-abuse attitudes 4
probation-based accredited programmes 206
probation service 187
professional codes of ethics 128
prosocial adaptive behaviour 254
prosocial alternative behaviour (PAB) 80, 233, 255
prosocial behaviours (PABs) 154, 189, 212–13, 232
developmental factors impacting on 165
psychiatric nurses 245, 246, 254
in forensic mental health facility 246
psychiatric nursing 247
in forensic context 245–6
forensic mental health facility 246
literature 246
offence behaviour 246–8 risk assessment, factors 249–50
psychodynamic
psychotherapy 307
techniques 210
theory 209, 305, 306
therapy groupwork 237
psychodynamic model 209, 304, 310
approach 311
defence mechanisms 307
definition 303–5
denial 307–8
and offending 305–7
projection 308–9
rationalization 308
splitting 308
staff responses 309–11
undoing 308
psychological
processes 264
risk assessment 190
similarity 10
therapies 261, 264
psychopathology 217, 263
psychosexual development 160–1
psychosocial development 156–7
attitudes towards and perceptions of authority figures 160 identity formation theories 157
peer group values and reputation 157
young people’s prosocial attitudes 159
puberty 160, 161
recidivism 4
assessments of community violent 190
criminal 320
increased 205
predictors of 172
reducing 174, 175
reuse of substances and 277
risk of 161
rehabilitation
of offenders 215
programmes 25
rehabilitative therapies 154
reoffending 185
dynamic factors 186
reepisodes 16
revenge-seeking thoughts 232
risk assessments 4
actuarial risk assessment 6
anamnestic risk assessment 6–7
methods 186, 248
acute factors 190
development of 187
dynamic process 249
risk management
in community 189
MAPP supervision 188
and offending treatment programmes 245
planning 112
rehabilitation and 122
and treatment plans 264
sadistic forms of violence 60
safety seeking behaviours 212
schema therapy 16, 17
schizophrenia
chronic 58
prodrome 57–8
seemingly irrelevant decisions (SIDs) 276
self-harm 140–2
sequence of events 8
sex offender treatment programmes (SOTPs) 154, 235–6
sexual banter 225
sexually abusive behaviour 161
sexual offence 222
sexual offenders 58, 121, 187, 190, 198
assessment schemes for use with 122
group treatment programme for 26 manifestations of risk factors 126
methodologies for systematically assessing OPBs in 125–8

INDEX 335

pornography 223, 225
positive adaptive behaviours (PAB) 290
positive alternative behaviours (PAB) 16, 224
post-offence behaviours 166
post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) 61, 278, 309
primitive defence mechanism 308
prison-based therapeutic communities 18
prison behaviour 185, 186, 189
checklists 191
prison environment 220
prison housing 231, 239
prison offender supervisor 198
prison psychologists
life sentence prisoners and 189
semistructured interviews with 133
prison service 187, 188
prison staff 190
recurrent costs 197
prison wing 233–4
pro-abuse attitudes 4
probation-based accredited programmes 206
probation service 187
professional codes of ethics 128
prosocial adaptive behaviour 254
prosocial alternative behaviour (PAB) 80, 233, 255
prosocial behaviours (PABs) 154, 189, 212–13, 232
developmental factors impacting on 165
psychiatric nurses 245, 246, 254
in forensic mental health facility 246
psychiatric nursing 247
in forensic context 245–6
forensic mental health facility 246
literature 246
offence behaviour 246–8
risk assessment, factors 249–50
psychodynamic
psychotherapy 307
techniques 210
theory 209, 305, 306
therapy groupwork 237
psychodynamic model 209, 304, 310
approach 311
defence mechanisms 307
definition 303–5
denial 307–8
and offending 305–7
projection 308–9
rationalization 308
splitting 308
staff responses 309–11
undoing 308
psychological
processes 264
risk assessment 190
similarity 10
therapies 261, 264
psychopathology 217, 263
psychosexual development 160–1
psychosocial development 156–7
attitudes towards and perceptions of authority figures 160
identity formation theories 157
peer group values and reputation 157
young people’s prosocial attitudes 159
puberty 160, 161
recidivism 4
assessments of community violent 190
criminal 320
increased 205
predictors of 172
reducing 174, 175
reuse of substances and 277
risk of 161
rehabilitation
of offenders 215
programmes 25
rehabilitative therapies 154
reoffending 185
dynamic factors 186
reepisodes 16
revenge-seeking thoughts 232
risk assessments 4
actuarial risk assessment 6
anamnestic risk assessment 6–7
methods 186, 248
acute factors 190
development of 187
dynamic process 249
risk management
in community 189
MAPP supervision 188
and offending treatment programmes 245
planning 112
rehabilitation and 122
and treatment plans 264
sadistic forms of violence 60
safety seeking behaviours 212
schema therapy 16, 17
schizophrenia
chronic 58
prodrome 57–8
seemingly irrelevant decisions (SIDs) 276
self-harm 140–2
sequence of events 8
sex offender treatment programmes (SOTPs) 154, 235–6
sexual banter 225
sexually abusive behaviour 161
sexual offence 222
sexual offenders 58, 121, 187, 190, 198
assessment schemes for use with 122
group treatment programme for 26
manifestations of risk factors 126
methodologies for systematically assessing OPBs in 125–8
sexual offenders (cont.)
  OPB framework with 125
  and sex education 44
  supervising 188
  TC 218
  training staff to use OPB framework 132–4 treatment approach used with 147 validity in identifying 102 sexual offending and homicide 166 sexual recidivism 161
  sexual violence
  meeting criteria for DSM-IV 54
  within OPB framework 324 single case hypothesis testing 15 single events for analysing development of offence 8 sleep pattern, poor 279 smoking cigarettes 279
  social care services, local authority 187 social cognitive variables 107 sociocognitive development 155–6
  SOC ratings 177
  SSA of self-harm actions 142 staff–patient interactions 250 staff training 194
  statistical linkage analysis 9–10 structured aggressive behaviour analysis schedule (SABAS) 108, 253 substance abuse 4, 56 substance-free environment 276 substance misuse 309
    interventions 276
    literature 277
    problems 283
    programme 284
  substance misuse paralleling behaviours (SMPBs) case studies 279–82
    concept of 275, 277
    criminal offending 276
    cue exposure 277
    detection evasion skills (DES) 290 mental health services 275 mentally disordered 275 offence paralleling behaviours (OPB) 276 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) symptoms 278 relevance to treatment 283–4 strategies 278–9
    substance-related cravings 282 substance-related parallel behaviours 284 substance use alcohol/drugs 322
    among mentally disordered 275 cues 277, 278
    fantasies 279
    patterns of 283
    problems 279
    role of 276
  testosterone, levels in males 160 themes identification, qualitative strategies 82–4 therapeutic community (TC) 139, 203, 215, 231 environments, adjusting 240–2 ethos of 236–7
  OPB
    assessing risk 238–9
    concept of 232
    young offenders 235, 239
  therapeutic interventions for violence 58 therapy interfering behaviours 75 UK schema therapy 18 unique custodial reaction (UCR) 80
  verbal abuse 222
  verbal IQ 4
  victim support agencies 187 video games 265
  violence, developmental trajectories leading to 60–1 violence-related schema 107 violence risk assessment 113 relevance of factors derived from research on 251 third generation of 248 violence risk scale (VRS) 176, 177 violent behaviour 53, 187, 241 schedule of 109
  violent offender and Sex Offender Register (ViSOR) 188
  violent offenders 187
    treatment of 58
  VRS dynamic factors 177
  Wakefield risk assessment model (WRAM) 128, 189 whisky 281
  wing history sheet comments 194
  wing information sheet 191, 192
  wing staff training 191 young offenders institutions (YOIs) 234–5 youth offending teams 187