Index

accountability 2, 210–212
adverbial verbs 14, 51, 100–101
agency and teaching 35–38 agent–principal problem 2
Alexander, R. 145–148
Allgemeinbildung 27
allgemeine Menschenbildung 27, 28
altruism 2
Anglo-Saxon education policies 2 anti-intellectualism 42
applied subject knowledge 12–13, 81–83
apprenticeships 17–18, 174 assessment 8, 147–148, 155 Ausbildung 27, 28
authority 5
autonomy 152–153, 190
B.Ed qualification 177
Barrow, Robin 15–16
Bernstein, Basil 56
Beruf 53, 55, 57, 152
berufliche Handlungsfähigkeit 53 best practice 123
between-school effects 2
Bildung 27
biological Darwinism 65 career in teaching 152–165
civic role, extended 163–164
configuring the curriculum 154–155
coordination of work with cohorts 155
curriculum evaluation and design 161–163
diagnosis and assessment 155
inspection 158–159
leadership and governance 156–158
management and governance 164–165
mentoring 156
pastoral work 156
pedagogy 154
post-qualification progression 160–161
Carr, David 16, 32, 34, 107–108
Cartesians 42–43
categorical conception of education 4, 5, 7–10 Chomsky, Noam 61, 124–125
civic accountability 211, 212–213
civic role of teachers 148–149 extended 163–164
civic virtues of professions 33 classroom management and discipline 203–206
commonsense 14, 63, 103, 134 community of practice 61
conceptual relationships 79
continuing professional development 186 Continuing Teacher Education (CTE) 17–18
co-operation 203, 205–206

Index

craft expertise and subject knowledge 111–114 craft occupation of teaching 97–98, 114
  overview 98–102
  phronesis and ethical considerations 108–111
  practical knowledge 104–108
  subject knowledge informs craft expertise 111–114 theory and epistemic ascent (EA) 102–104 craftworker 60–64, 75 culture of a school 204 curriculum
  configuring 154–155
  evaluation and design 161–163 development 91
Dewey, John 9, 10, 36, 195
dialectical teacher 99
didactic teacher 99
discipline in classrooms 203–206
diversified quality production 70
division of labour 22–23
dyslexia 82
economic sectors 22
  branches 24
education 4–7
  categorical conception 4, 5, 7–10 inequalities in provision 6 relationship with teaching 27–28 education of teachers see teacher education Education Reform Act (1988) 115 education sector 25
educational research 140–142
egotism 2
elements of teacher knowledge 77, 96
  applied subject knowledge 81–83
  knowledge of learning and teaching 89–95
  pedagogic content knowledge (PCK) 83–89
  subject expertise 77–81
  theory of oneself 95–96
empirical research 182–185
enactive knowledge 88
  enthusiasm 204
Epistemic Ascent (EA) 81, 82
  craft 102–104
  curriculum design 162
  knowledge by acquaintance (KA) 87
  pedagogic content knowledge (PCK) 84
epistemic Taylorism 69 equality of opportunity 190 Erziehung 27
ethical considerations 108–111 ethical mission of teaching 32–34 ethos of a school 204
executive technician (ET) 12, 14, 64–66, 82, 132
  applicable models 119–120
  compatibility with craftworkers 126–129, 133–135
  distinction with technician 115–117
  fragmentation of labour 121–126
  problem of theory 128–129
  teacher proof teaching 117–119
  teaching force 129–132
expertise 39
  know-how 39–44
  know-how, higher order 50–54 know-how, occupational 44–50 theory—reflection—practice 54–57 extended professionals 59–60
failure rates 123
fields of knowledge 80
Fordist production methods 69
formalisation 78
formative assessment 82, 137, 147–148
fragmentation of labour 22–23, 121–122
examples from India 122–126
fundamental concepts 78
fundamental principles 79
Germany, teacher education trajectories 179–181 good practice 145–148
good sense 14, 63
good teachers 18–19, 187 categorical and non-categorical features 187–189 conception of teaching 189–191 empirical evidence 197–199 pedagogy and long-term pupil interests 191–192 professionalism, aims and values 199–201 Rousseauian pedagogy and moral psychology 192–194 serious about teaching 195–197 governance 156–158, 164–165, 208–209 governance structure 211
Gramsci, A. 14, 63–64, 103
Grundbildung 27
Hattie, John 82, 93, 106, 122, 199 higher order know-how 50–51
  occupational capacity 53–54
  project management 51–52
Hirst, Paul 78
homo faber 61
hot action 109
India
  fragmentation of labour 122–126
  teacher education trajectories 179–181 inequalities in education provision 6
Initial Teacher Education (ITE) 18
inspection 158–159
instruction 8
intake characteristics of schools 1 intellectualism 40, 46
intelligence concepts 44–46, 91, 141
internship 174
issues, neglected see neglected issues judgement 66, 67
Keynes, John Maynard 64, 124
know-how (KH) 4, 13–14, 39–44, 77, 80
  applied subject knowledge 81
  higher order 50–54
  occupational 44–50
  teaching 100–102
knowing how (KH) 40–44
knowing that (KT) 40–44 knowledge
  practical knowledge 15
tacit knowledge 14
technical knowledge 15
knowledge by acquaintance (KA) 77, 80, 87
knowledge of learning and teaching 89–95
  know-that (KT; propositional knowledge) 77
  applied subject knowledge 81
Kuhn, Thomas 78
leadership 156–158, 208–209 styles 209–210
learning 8
  conceptual relationship with teaching 9–10 knowledge of 89–95
learning aspect of subject knowledge 138 learning outcomes 71 learning styles 91, 125, 184
lessons 151–152
liberal market economies 213 maçon 70
management 164–165, 208–209, 211 Marx, Karl 23, 61, 69–70 massifying apprenticeships 17–18 material constraints 190 material inference 86
mentoring 156
meta-metasurveys 93
metasurveys 93–95
metempsychosis 99
Mitbestimmung 53–54
monitoring of pupils 137 moral psychology 192–194
MTL qualification 179
National Curriculum (England) 31, 59, 85, 89, 115, 116, 123
neglected issues 19, 203
  accountability 210–212
  civic accountability 212–213
  classroom management and discipline 203–206
  leadership, governance and management 208–209
  leadership styles 209–210
  retention and attrition 206–208 normative activities 5 normative judgements 24
Oakeshott, Michael 104–105, 109, 116–117, 127
obedience 203–205
occupation of teaching 22–27, 151
  lessons 151–152
time and attrition 165–167
occupation qualification 170
occupational capacity 53–54
occupational know-how 44 intelligence concepts 44–46

technique, skill and transversal abilities 46–50 occupational licensure 170

occupations

craftworkers 60–64
definition 24
executive technician 64–66
relationships between roles and relevance to teaching 74–76
researcher 73–74
technician 66–71
technologist 71–73

OFSTED 198

O’Hear, Anthony 15

outstanding issues 19, 203
accountability 210–212
civic accountability 212–213
classroom management and discipline 203–206
leadership, governance and management 208–209
leadership styles 209–210
retention and attrition 206–208

paradigmatic methods 78
pastoral work 156
pedagogic content knowledge (PCK) 13, 83–89, 103–104, 111–112, 113–114
teacher education 181
Pedagogic Taylorism 118–119
pedagogy 154
PGCE qualification 177, 179
philosophy 3–4
phronesis 62, 105, 108–111
teaching 100–102
Piaget, Jean 90, 104, 184
Plato 3
policymaking 2
political considerations 2 polymorphousness of teaching 10, 152 Popper, Karl 107
post-bachelor teacher education 185–186
post-qualification progression 160–161
practical knowledge 15, 63
practical knowledge in teaching 104–108 practices of teaching 22 prejudice 63

professional technician (PT) 12, 15, 119, 126, 133, 149
civic role 148–149
educational research 140–142
engaging with research 142–143
general idea 135–138
problems with craft and ET 133–135
scope and limits of expertise 143–148
shoals of good practice 145–148 theory–reflection–practice model 138–140

professionalism 53, 110
extended professionals 59–60
restricted professionals 59–60

professions
civic virtues 33
ethical mission 32
technical virtues 32
traits of 30

progression 160–161

project management 51–52, 152

psyche of young people 5

psycholinguistic methods 184

Public Choice Theory 2

Quality and Education (1996) 1, 6

reading difficulties 82 reflective cycle 95–96, 109–110, 138
researcher 12, 73–74
restricted professionals 59–60
retention of teachers 206–208
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 3, 5, 36, 99, 192–194

Ryle, Gilbert
adverbial verbs 14, 51, 100–101
intelligence concepts 44–45
knowing-that (KT) and knowing how (KH) 39–44 schemes of work 51

scholars 184
Schön, Donald 16

school effects 1
between-school effects 2
within-school effects 2
schooling 21
institutional setting 28–32

schools 28–29
culture and ethos 204
sector of the economy 22
branches 24
self-exploration 60
self-knowledge 95–96
skills 99
definition 47–50
  teaching 100–102
Smith, Adam 23, 32, 65–66, 69, 72
social Darwinism 65
social inequalities 1
social status of teachers 207 Socrates 36, 98–99
standards 85
subject expertise 77–78
  conceptual relationships 79
  fundamental concepts 78
  fundamental principles 79
  viewpoints 80–81
subject knowledge
  applied 12–13
  craft expertise 111–114
  subsumptive model 117–118 subsumptive reasoning 117–118 sufficient rules 119 support for teachers 207–208 syllabuses 51
systematic knowledge 78
tacit knowledge 14, 42, 54, 61–62
Taylor, Frederick 23–24
Taylorised conception of teaching 14, 16
Taylorism 23
  diversified quality production 70
  epistemic 69
  Pedagogic Taylorism 118–119
teacher as executive technician (ET) 132
  applicable models 119–120
  compatibility with craftworkers 126–129, 133–135
  distinction with technician 115–117
  fragmentation of labour 121–126
  problem of theory 128–129
  teaching force 129–132
teacher as professional technician (PT) 133, 149
civic role 148–149
educational research 140–142
engaging with research 142–143
general idea 135–138
problems with craft and ET 133–135
scope and limits of expertise 143–148
shoals of good practice 145–148
teaching 21
  agency 35–38
  as an occupation 22–27
  categorical concept 7–8
  civic role 35
  conceptual relationship with learning 9–10 craft occupation 13–14
  ethical mission 32–34
  know-how (KH) 100–102
  knowledge of 89–95
  occupations participating in 11–12
  phronesis 100–102
  political role 35
  professional nature of 11
  professionalism 30–32

Index 231
teaching (Continued)
recipients of 34–35
relationship with education 27–28
schools 29
skills 100–102
Taylorised conception 14, 16 teaching as a career 152–165
civic role, extended 163–164
configuring the curriculum 154–155
co-ordination of work with cohorts 155
curriculum evaluation and design 161–163
diagnosis and assessment 155
inspection 158–159
leadership and governance 156–158
management and governance 164–165
mentoring 156
pastoral work 156
pedagogy 154
post-qualification progression 160–161
teaching as a craft occupation 97–98, 114
overview 98–102
phronesis and ethical considerations 108–111
practical knowledge 104–108
subject knowledge informs craft expertise 111–114
teaching as a service occupation 214–215 teaching as an occupation 151
lessons 151–152
time and attrition 165–167
teaching in a market society 213–215
technical knowledge 15, 127
technical occupation 13 technical virtues of professions 32
technician 54, 66–71, 75
distinction with executive technician 115–117 technique 66
definition 46–47
teaching 100
technologist 12, 71–73, 76
teaching 68
craft 102–104
teaching
teaching as a craft occupation 97–98, 114
theory of oneself 95–96, 108–111
theory–practice model 119–120 tradition (of work practices) 62–63 training 8, 67
transversal abilities 14, 50, 51, 53 typology of occupations 59–60
craftworkers 60–64
executive technician 64–66
relationships between roles and relevance to teaching 74–76
researcher 73–74
technician 66–71
technologist 71–73

Unterricht 27
value-added data 1
values implementation 146
teacher education 173
verbal deficit 90, 91, 141, 184
Vocational Education and Training (VET) 47

West Dunbartonshire Literacy Initiative 123
within-school effects 2
Wittgenstein, Ludwig 89, 90