Index

a
active infrared sensors 448, 456 Adaboost regressor 285
advanced metering infrastructure (AMI) 529, 559 alert services 17
Alliance for Internet of Things Innovation (AIOTI) 230–231 American Institute of Certified Public Accounts (AICPA) 533 anonymous data submission anonymity measurement 564–565
charging requests submission 561–563
ESU’s charging requests 564
schedules distribution 563–564 application protocol control information (APCI) 31 application protocol data unit (APDU) 31 application service data unit (ASDU) 29 Architecture Reference Model (ARM) 230
ARM Mbed 271
Around View Monitor (AVM) 452–453
Association IDentifier (AID) 77 artificial intelligence (AI) techniques 162 atmosphere health monitoring 249, 252 attack domains, cybersecurity attack mechanisms 581–582 communications 580
hardware 580
physical security 581
social engineering 580
software 580
supply chain 581
automated meter reading (AMR) 219 autonomous parking systems 445 autonomous vehicles (AVs) 560

b Battery storage (BS) 300–301
big data 162
burst data flow 46–47

C
cameras 452
Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) 533 Cat-NB1 devices 85–86
cellular and 3GPP technologies
access procedure 87, 90
access reservation protocol limitations 87
cellular LTE systems 86–87
connection establishment 90–91
IoT applications 83–86
cellular networks 148
channel bonding
cognitive radio networks 255–257 cognitive radio sensor networks 257–258
CRSN-based smart cities
IoT-based cognitive solutions 259 M2M communications 258 multiple concurrent deployments 259 smart environment control 259 smart home applications 259 issues and challenges, implementation in smart cities channel bonding (contd.)
- data storage and aggregation 260
- energy conservation 260
- geographic awareness and adaptation 260
- interference and spectrum issues 260–261
- privacy of citizens 260
- traditional networks 253–254 cloud computing 579–580
Cognitive and cloud Optimized Network Evolution (CONE) 151 communication architecture and infrastructure
- advanced metering infrastructure (AMI) 219
AMI organization
- internet-based architectures 224–225
- IP-based architecture limitations 225
- limitations 223–224
- micro-generation systems 221
- routing protocols 221
automated meter reading (AMR) 219
DSO-based communications 220
Internet of Things (IoT) 219–220
next-generation smart grid architecture
- energy management 227–228
- multi-level aggregation 228–229
- open network 228
- research efforts 229–231
- security concerns 229
- technical issues for next-generation 227 routing information
- AODV 237–238
- metrics and constraints 234
- performance evaluation 240–241
- proactive protocol 232
- reactive routing protocol 236–237
- routing protocols 231–232
- RPL 233–236
communication model 200–201
communication protocols
- DNP3 31–32
- IEC 60870 29–31
- IEC 61850 32–35
- Modbus transmission protocol 27–29
- SCADA protocols 35–36
- compressed air storage technology (CAS) 301
- continuous-time Markov model 462
- cooling, heating, and power (CCHP) systems 381
- Cooperative Ultra Narrow Band (C-UNB) 79
- critical load average interrupt duration index (CLAIIDI) 391
- critical load expected energy deficiency (CLEED) 391
- critical load maximum energy deficiency (CLMED) 391–392
- critical load maximum interrupt duration index (CLMIDI) 391
- critical load supply cost (CLSC) 397
- critical load supply marginal cost (CLSMC) 397
- cryptographic computation 545–546
- cumulocity 271
- cybersecurity
  - economic growth 577
  - information and communication technology (ICT) 577
  - managerial and organizational challenges 578
  - physical infrastructure 577
  - technological challenges 578
  - usability 578
  - Web 2.0 technology 577
- cyclic data flow
  - IEC 61850 communication 42
  - time interval of transmission 42
  - wide-area control and monitoring 43 data processing
and cloud support
- analysis and learning 474
- availability computation 472–473
- reputation system 473–474
- reservation model 474
- scoring system 474
- information processing and storage 343 noise reduction, data smoothing, and calibration 341–342 packet formation process local information data 343 sensor identifier 342 sensor monitoring data 343 time 343
data storage and aggregation 260 decision tree regressor 285 demand-side management (DSM) 309–310
deployed sensors 248 destination oriented DAG (DODAG) 232 DeviceHive 273
differential and algebraic equations (DAEs) 597
Digi 273
Digital Service Cloud 274 disaster response networks (DRNs) 152 discontinuous reception (DRX) process 83 dispersed multi-microgrids system (MMGS) 374–375 distributed/edge computing 161 distributed energy resource (DER) 69, 109, 176
distributed generation (DG) dispatch challenges 304–305
  functions and distribution 303–304
  sources and generators 303 Distributed Network Protocol (DNP3) 31–32 distribution system operator (DSO) 69 DNP3 protocol 35
dynamic validation techniques 195–197 electricity customers 529 electric vehicle (EVs) 72, 217 advance communication 499 avoiding spinning reserves 490 charging/discharging process access channel model 433–438 electric vehicle supply equipment (EVSE) 429 inductive chargers 429–430 power line communication 430–431 simulations results 438–440 smart grid applications 431–432
  VANET and LTE 432–433
  CO₂ minimization 491
  communication protocols 486 control application 499–500 economic and business model 488–489 electrical effect, of charging technologies bidirectionality implementation 420–421 harmonics control in 418–419 power factor control 419–420 electrical integration 414 electromagnetic emissions and interferences 414 energy management 488, 499 existing power capacity 486 green applications support 489 G2V capability 491, 558 load management 491 motivation of 490
  power factor and total harmonics distortion 414 recharging approaches contributions and limitations 492 distribution of 493 standardization, for communication technologies 499–500 scheduling and planning strategies 421–423 scheduling approaches 486–487 frequency regulation 497 maximizing aggregator profit 496 reduction of power losses 493–494 renewable energy sources 497–498 resource allocation 498 total cost of energy 495–496 voltage regulation 497 security and privacy 490
  smart transportation 488 traffic congestion avoidance 489 vehicle-to-anything 499 V2G (vehicle-to-grid) scenarios 413, 491 wireless charging methods operation modes 416–418 technological support 415–416 electric vehicle (EVs) (contd.)
  wireless communication needs/communication 489 wireless power charger 499 electric vehicle infrastructure (EVI) ancillary services 511 communication technologies 511
  EVSE network 511, 513–514
  ISO/RTO market systems 511 response model 514
  SAE 1772 connector 511 system model 512
  end-to-end security 94–99 application level security 96
    network access security 95–96 transport level security 96
  energy conservation 260
  energy efficiency 158
  energy management system (EMS) 225, 355 energy management unit (EMU) 357 energy service interfaces (ESIs) 109 energy service providers (ESPs) 529 energy storage (ES)
    BS systems 300–301
    challenges 301–302
    compressed air storage technology (CAS) 301
  flywheel technology (FW) 301 pumped hydropower (PHP) 301
  supercapacitors (SC) 301 energy systems 17 enhanced mobile broadband (eMBB) 93
  ethernet cables 21 expected transmission count (ETX) 231

f fault detection, isolation, and restoration (FDCIR) 38–39
  Fiber-bragg Sensors (FBG) 454 communication model 200–201
  dynamic validation techniques 195–197
  Markov model 199
  service-rate model 199–200
  field area networks (FAN) 175 5G and cellular networks massive MTC 70
mission-critical MTC 70 real-time monitoring 69 secure mission-critical MTC 71 smart grid and features bidirectional information flows 72
  cellular and 3GPP technologies 82–94 electric vehicles (EVs) 72
  end-to-end security 94–99 information and communication technology (ICT) network 73 peak load conditions 71
  Smart Grid Research and Development Program 73 traffic models and requirements 74–76
  two-way communications 71 unlicensed spectrum and non-3GPP technologies 76–82

FiWare 274
flexibility operator (FO) 224
flywheel technology (FW) 301 frequency division duplexing (FDD) mode 83

g Gaussian unitary ensemble (GUE) 598
  Generally Accepted Privacy Principles (GAPPs) 533
  Generic Object Oriented Substation Event (GOOSE) 33
  Generic Substation Event (GSE) 33 Global Data Processing and Forecasting System (GDPFS) 159 global observing system (GOS) 159 global positioning system (GPS) 328, 591
  global sensor networks (GSN) 274
  Global Telecommunication System (GTS) 159 5G networks and D2D communication
    big data 162
    cellular networks 148
    disaster response networks (DRNs) 152
    distributed/edge computing 161
    Information-Centric Networks (ICN) 153 Internet of Vehicles (IoV) 148
IoT 148
machine-type devices (MTDs) 151 medium access control (MAC) protocol 152 METIS 151
multi-hop communication 151
multiple radio access technologies (Multi-RAT) 160 peer-to-peer (P2P) link 148
pretty good privacy (PGP) 152
ProSe functions 148
public safety applications 152 SDN/NFV-based architecture 151 security and privacy 163
smart cities scenarios disaster response and emergency services 159
energy efficiency 157
public health 154–155
public safety and security 159–160
smart grid 157–158
transportation and environment 155–156
water management 158–159 social ties and social trust 152 User-Centric Networks 153 user equipments (UEs) 148
virtualization 160–161
gradient boosting regressor 285 green HetNet (GHetNet) framework classify phase 201
decide phase 201
multi-interface transmitters 201 offload phase 201, 202
Q-theory 202
spectral expansion approach 203 steady-state probabilities of Markov chain 203–205 trigger phase 201

power converter 340–341 sensor 339
heterogeneous networks’ (HetNets) infrastructures analytical techniques 193 dynamic validation techniques 195–197 experimental studies 193–194 simulation techniques 193 static validation techniques 194–195 system models
communication model 200–201
Markov model 199
service-rate model 199–200 user equipment (UE) 192
home automation 252
homomorphic encryption technique 545 hysteresis objective function (MRHOF) 234

i
ICCP 21
IEC 60870-104 21
IEC 60870-5-101 communication 30
IEC 60870 communication stack 30 IEC 61850 data flow 60
IEC 61850 standards message communication stack 34 physical and logical device models 33 structure of 33 transfer time classes 34–35 indoor air quality (IAQ) 327
inductive loop detectors 449, 456 Industrial Internet Consortium (IIC) 230 information and communication technology (ICT) 73 cellular network 150
communication infrastructure 147 environmental monitoring and water management 147 FutureICT 150
LTE-A 147
tactile Internet and remote surgery 150 information centric network (ICN) 150 infrared sensors 447, 456 in outdoor-monitoring applications 329–330

h half-duplex frequency division duplexing (HD-FDD) mode 83 hardware infrastructure microcontroller and radiomodule 339–340 intelligent electronic devices (IED) 510 intelligent parking management application infrastructure artificial system 463 continuous-time Markov model 462 parking occupancy data 462 spot vacancy prediction model 461 Civic-Smart 444
communication infrastructure data volume and transmission power 458 gateway nodes 458
internetworking sensor nodes 459 peer-to-peer (P2P) networking arrangement 459
RFID-based parking sensors 459, 460 servers and user interfaces 457 VANET systems 459 congestion 443
infringement detection 445 parking locations 443 parking solutions
application infrastructure 447
communication infrastructure 446
sensing infrastructure 446 storage infrastructure 446 user interfacing 447
variables and factors 445 participatory sensing paradigm data processing and cloud support 472–474 enforcement and compliance 472 external integration 472
features and benefits 477–478 implementation and performance evaluation 474–477
IoT devices 467
leaderboard 470–471
parking spot 468–469
rewards store 471
server 468
smart reporting system 470 user components 467
user interface 469–470
real-time parking availability information 444
sensing infrastructure
active infrared sensors 448, 456
AVM 452–453
cameras 452
FBG sensors 454
inductive loop detectors 449, 456
infrared sensors 447, 456
intrusive sensors 457
magnetometers 450, 451, 456 magneto-resistive sensors 450, 456 microwave/millimeter wave radar detectors 450, 456
near-field communication (NFC) tags 455 novel parking slot detection and tracking system 453
optical sensors 449, 456
participatory sensing 457 passive infrared sensors 448, 456 piezoelectric sensors 449–450, 456 pneumatic road sensors 450, 456
QR codes 455
RFID 453–454
stationary sensors 447, 456
ultrasonic sensors 448, 449, 456
ultra-wideband (UWB) technology 454 weight-in-motion (WIM) sensors 452, 456 sensing technologies 444 Siemens Mobility 444
storage infrastructure 460–461
user interfacing
displaying spot availability 464 reservation-based system 464 system-assisted approach 465 system-assisted parking approach 463 traditional blind search 463 VANET-based communication and processing 465, 466 intelligent transportation system (ITS) 156 International Commission on Non-Ionizing Radiation Protection guidelines 414
International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) 533 International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 533 Internet of Things (IoT) 219–220, 247, 579 cloud computing environments 270 definition 9–10 energy-harvesting methods 10–12 platform for smart cities
ARM Mbed 271
comparative studies of platform 272–273
cumulocity 271
DeviceHive 273
Digi 273
Digital Service Cloud 274
FiWare 274
Global Sensor Networks (GSN) 274
IoTgo 274–275
Kaa 275
Nimbits 275
RealTime.io 275
SensorCloud 275–276
SiteWhere 276
TempoIQ 276
Thinger.io 276
Thingsquare 276
ThingWorx 277
VITAL 277
Xively 277
prediction modules, VITAL IoT Platform 278–281 traffic sensors in Istanbul data preprocessing 284 experimental prediction results 285–288 feature vectors 284–285 prediction techniques 282–284 VITAL prediction module 278–281
Internet of Things-Architecture (IoT-A) 230 Internet of Vehicles (IoV) 148
intrusive sensors 457
IoTgo 274–275
ISO/IEC 29100:2011 Privacy Framework 533

k
Kaa 275
Kernel ridge regressor 285
K-nearest neighbors regressor 285

l
Laguerre unitary ensemble (LUE) 598
Lightweight On-demand Ad Hoc Distance-vector Routing Protocol Next Generation (LOADng) 238 long-term evolution-device-to-device (D2D) communications GOOSE mapping 50
IEC 61850 Protocols 48–49
MMS mapping 49–50
numerical evaluation 55–60 problem formulation data rate 54 delay and queue stability 53 objective function 52
RB assignment 53 set of constraints 52–53 transmit power 54
QoS Class Identifier (QCI) standardized characteristics 47–48 quality of service (QoS) 47
resource allocation 50–51
scheduler design 54–55
time domain 48
LoRa key management server 81–82 loss of noncritical load probability (LNLP) 392 6LoWPAN Ad Hoc On-Demand Distance Vector Routing (LOAD) 238 low power and lossy networks (LLNs) 231 LTE Cat-0 terminal category 84–85

m Machine learning (ML) 162 machine-to-machine communications communication media and protocols hybrid passive optical networks (HPONs) 124–125 interoperability 121–122 interoperability and compatibility 123 medium access control (MAC) 124 machine-to-machine communications (contd.)

NANs 124
passive optical network (PON) 125 power line connections (PLC) 125–126 privacy and security 122 protocol stack 122–123
Quality of Service (QoS) 121
scalability 122
WAN 124
energy production, distribution, and consumption 132–134 energy services and management 134–135 home energy management systems (HEMSs) 129 in-building energy consumption infrastructures (I-BECIs) 129 in-building energy generation infrastructures (I-BEGIs) 129 neighborhood domain 129 power distribution infrastructure 130, 131 reference architecture 120–121 user domain (UD) 128 wireless sensor and actuator networks (WSANs) 128 wireless technologies 127 machine-type devices (MTDs) 151
MAC protocol 247
magnetometers 450, 451, 456 magneto-resistant sensors 450, 456
Markov model 199
massive machine-type communication (MTC) 70 media access control (MAC) 77, 152 microgrid annual generated power (MAGP) 399 microgrid annual output power (MAOP) 399 microgrid average interruption duration index (MAIDI) 393 microgrid average interruption frequency index (MAIFI) 393 microgrid average service availability index (MASAI) 393 microgrid carbon emission per unit energy (MCEUE) 399 microgrid central controller (MGCC) 357 microgrid customers experiencing multiple interruptions (MCEMI) 393 micro-grid energy dependency index (MEDI) 388 micro-grid energy input ratio (MEIR) 388 microgrid energy local consumption ratio (MELCR) 389 microgrid energy local consumption time ratio (MELCTR) 389 microgrid energy output ratio (MEOR) 388–389 microgrid energy purchase probability (MEPP) 388 microgrid energy sold probability (MESP) 388–389 microgrid energy storage and distributed generation capacity rate (MESDGC) microgrid environment benefit (MEB) 398 microgrid intermittent energy adoptability (MIEA) 398 microgrid islanded energy deficiency interruption (MIEDI) 393 microgrid islanded energy deficiency probability (MIEDP) 394 microgrid output power/generated power ratio (MOPR) 399 microgrids (MGs) 186, 371 cooperative energy management system model case study input parameters 362 cost results 363 energy exchange 361–362 energy exchange plan 364, 367
energy management unit (EMU) 357 energy prices, Spanish energy retailer 363 energy storage system 360–361 high-energy consumption 365 internal energy price 358 inverter 361
microgrid central controller (MGCC) 357 optimal microgrid sizing 358 PV panels 357, 359–360
total time intervals 359 cost minimization and peak demand reduction 356 energy storage losses 357 Lyapunov-based optimization algorithm 355 microwave/millimeter wave radar detectors 450, 456 mission-critical machine-type communication (MTC) 70 mixed integer linear programming (MILP) model 510, 518 MMGS annual exchange energy (MAEE) 399
MMGS capacity credibility (MSCC) 387
MMGS critical load demand (MSCLD) 387
MMGS critical load ratio (MSCLR) 387
MMGS environment benefit (MSEB) 397
MMGS exchange energy and total load energy ratio (MEER) 399
MMGS exchange energy and total output ratio (METOR) 400
MMGS noncritical load demand (MSNLD) 387
MMGS reliability benefit (MSRB) 397
MMGS total average load (MSTAL) 387
MMGS total energy generation (MSTEG) 387 MMGS total generation capacity (MSTGC) 386 mobile social network (MSN) 560
Modbus protocol 35
Modbus transmission protocol broadcast/no-response-type messages 28 client/server communication 27 controllers and human machine interfaces 29 frame synchronization 28 multi-hop communication 151
multi-microgrids system (MMGS) capacity planning method algorithms 384
  models 381–384
optimal capacity planning distributed energy utilization 377–380 economy and environmental protection 381 multi-energy comprehensive utilization 380 reliability 380–381
optimal planning dispersed MMGS 374–375 minimal cut-set-based iterative approach 372 nested MMGS 373
parallel MMGS 373 reliability and resilience 372 series MMGS 373
performance assessment annual performance assessment 402–403 case studies 403–406 cooperative power dispatching algorithm 385 economics index 395–398 energy dispatch strategy 400 energy exchange characteristics 385 energy interaction index 388 energy saving and emission reduction index 398–399 energy utilization efficiency index 398 entirety reliability index 394–395 hierarchical coordination strategy 385 islanded MMGS 401–402 load reliability index 390–392 microgrid reliability index 392–394 power flows and energy local storages 386 renewable energy utilization index 399–400 source-charge capacity index 386–387 total energy interaction index 389–390 structure planning algorithm 376–377 model description 375–376
Index

multiple radio access technologies (Multi-RAT) 160 multi-resonant 415, 416

n
narrow-band Internet of Things (NB-IoT) 85–86 National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) 107, 136–138 near-field communication (NFC) tags 455 nested multi-microgrids system (MMGS) 373
network access security 95–96
network function virtualization (NFV) 184–185
network virtualization (NV) 183–184 next-generation smart grid architecture energy management 227–228 multi-level aggregation 228–229
open network 228
research efforts 229–231
security concerns 229
technical issues for next-generation 227
Nimbits 275
noncritical load average interrupt duration index (NLAIDI) 392 noncritical load expected energy deficiency (NLEED) 392 noncritical load supply cost (NLSC) 397 noncritical load supply marginal cost (NLSCMC) 397 novel parking slot detection and tracking system 453

O Oauth2 protocol 98
oneM2M 230
opportunistic spectrum access (OSA) 7 optical fiber networks 175
optical sensors 449, 456
optic fiber 21

P
parallel multi-microgrids system (MMGS) 373 “Park Me” 464 participatory sensing paradigm 457 components
IoT devices 467
parking spot 468–469
server 468
user 467
data processing and cloud support analysis and learning 474 availability computation 472–473
reputation system 473–474 reservation system 474
scoring system 474
features and benefits 477–478 implementation and performance evaluation experiment setup 475
features and benefits 477–478 prototype application 474–475 simulation results 475–477 parking management application enforcement and compliance 472 external integration 472
leaderboard 470–471
rewards store 471
smart reporting system 470
user interface 469–470
passive infrared sensors 448, 456
peer-to-peer (P2P) link 148
perturbation technique 546–547 phaser measurement units (PMU) networks, cyberattacks in experimental results 521–525 phaser data concentrator (PDC) 515 propagation in 515, 516
response model 518–521
threat level estimation 515–518 photovoltaic (PV) effect 11 physical downlink control channel (PDCCH) 90 physical downlink shared channel (PDSCH) 90 physical uplink shared channel (PUSCH) 90
piezoelectric sensors 449–450, 456
pneumatic road sensors 450, 456
power distribution grid IEC 61850 traffic model 42–45
models 40–41
power distribution system communication protocols 27–36 requirements for 39–40 voltage/var control (VVC) 37–38 power factor corrector (PFC) 419 power grid configuration 60 distributed energy resources (DER) 176
efficiencies and productivity 175
field area networks (FAN) 175 information exchange and functionalities 174
optical fiber networks 175
phasor measurement units (PMUs) 176 renewable distributed energy resources (DER) 175 residential or commercial users 174 technology challenges 175–176
time-critical data 175
traditional power grid 174
power line communication (PLC) 222 power system communications 21 pretty good privacy (PGP) 152 privacy customer electricity data 531–532 energy usage information 532 fine-grained electricity consumption 530
Generally Accepted Privacy Principles (GAPPs) 533
ISO/IEC 29100:2011 Privacy Framework 533
malicious entities 531
PET 542–547
privacy-by-design (PbD) approach 532, 534 privacy engineering framework and guidelines 538–540 privacy impact assessment (PIA) 541–542 privacy protection 532
protection goals
dissociability 536–537
intervenability 536
manageability 537
predictability 537 transparency 536
unlinkability 536
UTI triad and DPM triad 537 system privacy risk model 540–541
V2G networks 531
privacy-by-design (PbD) approach 532, 534 privacy enhancing technologies (PET) AMI networks 543
anonymization 544
cryptographic computation 545–546
perturbation 546–547 trusted computation 545 verifiable computation 547 privacy impact assessment (PIA) 541–542 privacy-preserving charging coordination scheme advanced metering infrastructure (AMI) 559 autonomous vehicles (AVs) 560
grid-to-vehicle (G2V) 558 LTE networks 560
mobile social network (MSN) 560 network and threat models 560–561
performance evaluation experimental study 568–572 privacy/security analysis 567–568 proposed scheme 561–567 VANETs 560
vehicle-to-grid (V2G) 558–559
vehicle-to-vehicle (V2V) 559 proposed scheme anonymous data submission anonymity measurement 564–565
charging requests submission 561–563
ESU’s charging requests 564
schedules distribution 563–564
charging coordination 565–567
ProSe functions 148
proximity services (ProSe) 149 pseudonymization protocol 544
public health
in Europe, Asia, and America 154 health information 154 remote surgery 155
Index

public health \( \text{(contd.)} \)
- 24/7 social care at home 155
- wearables and video calling to doctors 155
- pumped hydropower (PHP) 301

\( q \)
- QR codes 455
- Q-theory 202
- quality of service (QoS) 151, 193

\( r \)
- random access response (RAR) 91
- Random forest regressor 285
- random matrix theory (RMT) 591
  - asymptotic spectrum laws 598–600
  - convergence rate 601–603
  - differential and algebraic equations (DAEs) 597
- free probability 603–608
- Gaussian unitary ensemble (GUE) 598
- Laguerre unitary ensemble (LUE) 598
- large random matrix polynomials 598
- Tracy Widom distribution 596
- transforms 600–601
- real-time data aggregation 335
- RealTime.io 275
- reliability 158
- remote management 336
- renewable energy dispatch rate (REDR) 399
- renewable energy penetration (REP) 380, 398
- renewable energy resources
  - demand response 308–309
  - demand-side management (DSM) 309–310
  - distributed generation (DG)
    - dispatch challenges 304–305
    - functions and distribution 303–304
    - sources and generators 303
- energy storage (ES)
  - BS systems 300–301
  - challenges 301–302
  - compressed air storage technology (CAS) 301
  - flywheel technology (FW) 301
  - pumped hydropower (PHP) 301
  - supercapacitors (SC) 301
- environmental pollution 294
- monitoring 310–311
- resource modelling and scheduling
  - information management 306
  - novel energy scheduling 306–307
  - power flow control algorithms 305–306
- resource forecasting (RF) 307–308
- semi-autonomous distributed control 307
- security challenges in high penetration 314–315
- smart grid concept
  - bidirectional flow of communication information 295
  - energy-efficient and smart appliances 299
  - environmental pollution control 299
  - resource characteristics and distributed generation 298–299
  - system components 296–298
  - unidirectional power flow 295
  - system-related challenges 311–312
  - transmission techniques 311
  - V2G challenges 312–314
- resource forecasting (RF) 307–308
- Restricted Access Windows (RAW) 78
- roadway powered electric vehicles (RPEV) 417
- robustness 337
- routing protocol for LLNs (RPL)
  - path computation
    - minimum rank hysteresis objective function 235
    - objective function zero 234–235
    - routing table maintenance 233–234
    - topology management 232–233

\( s \)
- SCADA protocols 35–36
- scalability 218, 335–336
- secure mission-critical machine-type communication (MTC) 71
- sensing layer 104–105
- SensorCloud 275–276
sensor node market 328
series multi-microgrids system (MMGS) 373 service-rate model 199–200
“SF Park” 464
Shamir’s secret-sharing algorithm 546 simulation techniques 193
single-resonant 415
SiteWhere 276
situation awareness anomaly detection 620 eigenvalues 615
future grids 612
high-dimensional spectrum test 619 IEEE 118-node system 616 methodology 613, 614 moving slide window (MSW) 619 multiple input multiple output (MIMO) model 615 power demand of nodes 616 power grid security 613 random matrix model (RMM) 615 series of events 616 statistical indicator 615 transition stages 617 $V – P$ curve 619, 621 smart appliances 224
smart buildings 157
smart buildings, environmental monitoring application scenario and design goal 332–333 dynamic changes 337 experimental setup 343, 345–347 global positioning system (GPS) 328 inch scale sensors 328 indoor air quality (IAQ) 327 mesh routing 337 monitoring area 330–332 power management 336–337
real-time data aggregation 335
remote management 336
results analysis 347–350
robustness 337
scalability 335–336
sensor node market 328
sensor type 333, 335 size and cost 337
usability, autonomy, and reliability 336 wireless communication and sensor technologies 328 wireless network coexistence 337 wireless sensor networks (WSNs) 328 carbon dioxide monitoring 329
control room 339
data processing 341–343
hardware infrastructure 339–341 indoor monitoring system 343
relay nodes 338–339
volatile organic compounds (VOCs) 330 wireless monitoring nodes 338 smart cab services 249
smart cities architecture 4 attack domains attack mechanisms 581–582
communications 580
hardware 580
physical security 581
social engineering 580
software 580
supply chain 581
citizen participation 103 cognitive radio 5
cognitive radio sensor networks 5–6 competitiveness 103
cybersecurity
big data analytics 585–586
economic growth 577
information and communication technology (ICT) 577
managerial and organizational challenges 578 NIST cybersecurity framework 583–585
physical infrastructure 577
technological challenges 578
usability 578
Web 2.0 technology 577
data layer 105
EH-CR
application areas 17–18 network architecture 16–18 node architecture 15–16 smart cities (contd.)

- operation overview 14–15
- electric vehicle scheduling and charging (see electric vehicle (EVs))
- enablers
  - cloud computing 579–580
  - Internet of things (IoT) 579
  - smartphones 579
- energy harvesting and energy-harvesting sensor networks
  - bandwidth 8
  - computational capability 8
  - coverage area 8
  - intermittency 9
  - IoT 9–14
  - quality of service (QoS) 6, 8
  - reliability and delay 8
  - scalability 8
  - self-sustaining communications 7–8
  - service differentiation 9
  - spectrum-aware communications 7
- EV infrastructure (see electric vehicle infrastructure (EVI))
- 5G networks and D2D communication
  - disaster response and emergency services 159
  - energy efficiency 157
  - public health 154–155
  - public safety and security 159–160
  - smart grid 157–158
  - transportation and environment 155–156
  - water management 158–159
- 5G wireless networks 3
- information and communication technologies 3
  - in intelligent parking management (see intelligent parking management)
- interconnecting layer 105
- natural resources 104
- quality of life 104
- sensing layer 104–105
- services layer 105
- and smart grid
  - architecture model 114–115
  - distributed energy resource (DER) 109
  - distribution domain 112
  - energy consumers in 117–119
  - energy distribution and supply 106
  - energy service providers 119–120
  - energy sources in 115–117
  - machine-to-machine interactions 120–132
  - SGIRM 113–115
  - traditional energy grid 106
  - transmission domain 111
  - utility meters and energy service interfaces (ESIs) 109
  - social and human capital 103
  - standardization approach 112–113
  - transport and ICT 103
  - wireless sensor networks (WSNs) 4
  - WSN in (see wireless sensor networks (WSN))
- Smart Energy Aware Systems (SEAS) 230
- smart environment control 259
- smart grid (SG) 21
  - bidirectional information flows 72
  - cellular and 3GPP technologies
    - access procedure 87, 90
    - access reservation protocol limitations 87
    - cellular LTE systems 86–87
    - connection establishment 90–91
    - IoT applications 83–86
    - limitation 82–83
  - communication features 24
  - communication networks 26–27
  - communication technologies
    - coaxial cable 25
    - digital subscriber line (DSL) 25
    - EV–smart grid applications 431–432
    - IEEE 802.15.4 standard 25
    - IEEE 802.16 standard 25
    - LoRa and SigFox 25
    - power line communication 430–431
    - power line communication (PLC) 24
    - satellite communication 25
  - conventional power system 23
  - data-driven methods, for state evaluation
    - chain-reaction fault 611
    - IEEE 118-bus system, learning parameters 612 LR test and CLR test 609 trace-based distance measure 610 early event detection, free probability grid data 625 hypothesis testing and anomaly detection 624–625 model designs 624 problem modeling 621–624 simulation results 625–626
electric vehicles (EVs) 72
e-mobility for energy consumption, grid load impact 211–213
FBS performance, impact of velocity 209–210
Femtocell base station parameters 206 performance metrics and parameters 207–208
results and discussion 208 simulation setups and baselines 208 typical LTE-values 206 use-case scenario 206
end-to-end security
application level security 96
network access security 95–96
transport level security 96
energy production 22 generation/transmission infrastructures 22 in GHetNet (see green HetNet (GHetNet) framework)
hypothesis tests 609 IED 24
information and communication technology (ICT) network 73 large-scale interconnected grids control center 592
data monitoring and preprocessing 594 data storage and processing 594 standard black-box model 592 neighborhood area networks (NAN) 173 network latency and reliability 24 peak load conditions 71
power grid distributed energy resources (DER) 176 efficiencies and productivity 175
field area networks (FAN) 175 information exchange and functionalities 174
optical fiber networks 175
phasor measurement units (PMUs) 176 renewable distributed energy resources (DER) 175
residential or commercial users 174 technology challenges 175–176
time-critical data 175
traditional power grid 174 volume data 175 privacy customer electricity data 531–532 energy usage information 532 fine-grained electricity consumption 530
Generally Accepted Privacy Principles
(GAPPs) 533
ISO/IEC 29100:2011 Privacy Framework 533
malicious entities 531
privacy-by-design (PbD) approach 532, 534
privacy engineering framework and guidelines 538–540 privacy enhancing technologies 542–547
privacy impact assessment (PIA) 541–542
privacy protection 532
protection goals 535–537
system privacy risk model 540–541
V2G networks 531
remote check/test 23
renewable energy resources bidirectional flow of communication information 295
energy-efficient and smart appliances 299 environmental pollution control 299 resource characteristics and distributed generation 298–299 smart grid (SG) (contd.)
  system components 296–298
  unidirectional power flow 295 security requirements authentication 556 authorization 556 availability 555–556
  charging coordination 556–558 integrity 556
  non-repudiability 556 self-healing 23
self-monitoring 23
situation awareness 612–621
small-scale isolated grids 592
Smart Grid Research and Development Program 73
software defined networking (SDN)
  adaptation of 179
  bandwidth-on-demand feature 179
  benefits 178
  flexibility in network routing 182–183 frameworks 178
  hardware 181
  interoperability and programmatic interfaces 181 load balancing and quality of service 181–182
  management simplicity 180–181
  network awareness 181
  networking infrastructure 180
  NFV 185–187
  open networking forum (ONF) 177 resiliency and protection 180
  security 182
  vendor-agnostic approach 179
  virtualization 177
time-critical communication 24
traffic models and requirements derived smart meter traffic model 75 synchro-phasor measurements 74 time synchronization 74 WAMS synchro-phasor measurements 75
two-way communications 71
unlicensed spectrum and non-3GPP technologies
IEEE 802.11ah 76–79
LoRa® chirp spread spectrum approach 80–82 Sigfox’s ultra-narrow band (UNB) approach 79 wireless access and point-to-point services 173 wireless sensor networks (WSN) 252
Smart Grid Interoperability Panel (SGIP) 107 Smart Grid Interoperability Reference Model (SGIRM) 113–115
Smart Grid Research and Development Program 73 smart health care 258 smart homes 157
smartphones 579
software defined networking (SDN)
  adaptation of 179
  bandwidth-on-demand feature 179
  benefits 178
  flexibility in network routing 182–183
  frameworks 178
  hardware 181
  interoperability and programmatic interfaces 181 load balancing and quality of service 181–182
  management simplicity 180–181
  network awareness 181
  networking infrastructure 180
NFV challenges and issues 187 MicroGrids 186
  middleware-based solutions 186 OpenFlow protocol and ns-3 network simulator 186 virtual networks 186
  Virtual Power Plants (VPP) 186
open networking forum (ONF) 177 resiliency and protection 180
security 182
vendor-agnostic approach 179
virtualization 177
software-defined networking (SDN) 151 spectrum decision 5 spectrum handoff 5
Index

spectrum sensing 5
static validation techniques 194–195
stationary sensors 447, 456 stochastic data flow 45–46
supercapacitors (SC) 301
supervisory control and data acquisition (SCADA) measurements 591 Support vector regressor 285 system privacy risk model 540–541 system reliability offset index (SROI) 380

T
TempoIQ 276
thermoelectric generation (TEG) 11
Thinger.io 276
Thingsquare 276
ThingWorx 277
3rd Generation Partnership Project (3GPP) 148, 149
time-critical data 175
Tracy Widom distribution 596
traffic monitoring 248
transport level security 96 transport service data unit (TSDU) 31–32 transport systems 17 trusted computation approaches 545
two-way communications 71

U ultra-reliable low-latency communications (URLLC) 99
ultrasonic sensors 448, 449, 456
ultra-wideband (UWB) technology 454 underground transportation 249
User-Centric Networks 153
user equipments (UEs) 148, 192

V vehicle-to-everything (V2X) communication 156 vehicle-to-grid (V2G) 529, 558–559
vehicle-to-vehicle (V2V) 559 vehicular ad hoc networks (VANETs) 510
virtualization 160–161
network function virtualization (NFV) 184–185
network virtualization (NV) 183–184
Virtual Power Plants (VPP) 186
virtual private networks (VPN) 95

W
water management 269
agriculture and landscaping, irrigation in 158–159 water demand 159
water distribution network 159 water resources and weather forecasting 158 weather forecasting 252
weight-in-motion (WIM) sensors 452, 456 Wide Area Measurement System (WAMS) nodes 73 wide-area monitoring systems 21 wireless sensor networks (WSN) 328 applications 248, 251–252 atmosphere health monitoring 249, 252
carbon dioxide monitoring 329
channel bonding 254–255
control room 339
data processing 341–343
deployed sensors 248
hardware infrastructure 339–341
home automation 252
indoor monitoring system 343
Internet of Things (IoT) 247
MAC protocol 247
relay nodes 338–339
smart cab services 249
smart grids 252 structural health monitoring 252–253 traffic monitoring 248
underground transportation 249
volatile organic compounds (VOCs) 330
weather forecasting 252
wireless monitoring nodes 338

X
Xively 277

Z
Z-source network 420