Index

Accelerometer, 139
Afterschool programs, 1–2, 45. See also
Healthy Eating Active Communities (HEAC) program;
HEPA standards implementation, measurement and monitoring of Alliance for a Healthier Generation, 2
Altarum Institute, 26

Beep Test, 111
Beets, M. W., 57, 78
Bioelectrical impedance analysis (BIA),
110
Body composition monitor, 110–111
Bohnert, A. M., 133, 150
Booster trainings, 61
Boston Redevelopment Authority’s
MyNeighborhood Census Viewer,
84
Boys & Girls Clubs of America, 40
Burdette, K. A., 133, 150

The California Endowment (TCE), 46.
See also Healthy Eating Active Communities (HEAC) program
California’s SB12 standards, 47, 51–52
California’s SB965 standards, 47, 49–51
CANFIT, 46, 48
CEO Declaration of Intent, 28
Child and Adult Care Food Program,
2; nutrition standards, 47
Community-based summer camps, 135
Community context, 80, 81, 84, 87–88,
90
Competency, 58
Competency-based 5Ms training model, 60
Competency-based training, 58, 60.
See also Summer day camps (SDCs)
Cooperative Extension, 13
Cooper Institute, 111

Delucia, C., 103, 130
Dillman’s tailored design method, 16
Direct observation, as assessment method, 37
Downey, L. H., 13, 24
Dugas, L. R., 133, 150
DuPre, E. P., 80, 81, 84
Durlak, J. A., 80, 81, 84

Emmons, K. M., 79, 101
Evidence-based curricula (EBC),
106
Evidence-based fitness promotion in afterschool setting, study on,
107–126; body composition, 110–111, 116; body mass index
(BMI), 110, 116; discussion, 120–126; exploratory analyses,
114–116; measures, 110–116; observation schedule, 112;
observer training and assessment, 112; participants, 108–110;
physical activity, 111–112, 118–120; physical fitness, 111, 116–118; reliability assessment, 112; results, 116–120; site
selection process, 107–108; SPARK implementation fidelity,
113, 120; statistical analyses, 113–114; study design, 107

Family-style meal, 37
FoodBEAMS, 48
4-H Healthy Living programs, 14–15;
content analysis, 17; data collection, 15–17; discussion, 20–22; environmental scan of, 15;
in healthy eating domain, 14; interviews, 17; limitations, 22;
outcomes, 17–19; in physical activity domain, 14; results, 17–20;
scan survey, 16
4-H programs, 13–14; health and, 14
(see also 4-H Healthy Living programs); youth participation in, 13–14

Girls in Game summer camp program, study on, 135–136; analyses, 140–141; body mass index, 139; changes in outcomes, 141–142; discussion, 143–145; implications, 146–147; influence of summer camp on activity levels, 144–145; limitations of, 145–146; measures, 139–140; media use, 140; moderation of changes in outcomes, 142–143; participants, 137–139; physical activity, 139–140; results, 141–143; study design and procedure, 136–137

Gonzalez, V., 103, 131
Gortmaker, S. I., 79, 101
Greenhalgh, T., 96

Hall, G., 4, 5
Hanson, K. L., 103, 131
Healthy Afterschool Activity and Nutrition Documentation (HAAND) Instrument, 27
Healthy Eating Active Communities (HEAC) program, 46; afterschool food environment measures, 48; approach used, 46–47; beverage adherence to California SB965, 49–51; food adherence to California SB12, 51–52; food and beverage data analysis, 48–49; goal and strategy of afterschool sector, 47; healthier afterschool environments in, creation of, 46–54; lessons learned for improving community nutrition, 52–53; methods for assessment of, 47–48; study limitations, 53–54
Healthy eating and physical activity (HEPA), 1, 25
Healthy fitness zone (HFZ), 111
Healthy Out-of-School Time Coalition (HOST), 4
HEPA standards implementation, measurement and monitoring of, 27–28; accuracy of data collection methods, 36–38; data collection, 28–31; discussion, 38–39; findings, 32–33; HEPA survey, 29; limitations, 39–40; methods used, 28–32; and next steps, 40–41; pledge survey, 28–29; site visit instruments, 30–31; site visit results, 34–35; site visits, 29–30; survey results, 33–36
Hinkle, Arnell J., 45, 55
Hohman, K. H., 25, 41

Innovation characteristics, 80
Instructional competence, 113
Interobserver agreement (IOA) criterion, 112

Kitchen, on-site, 97

Lang, J., 13, 24
Leatherman, J., 13, 24
Lee, R. M., 79, 101
Lemenestrel, S., 13, 24
Lesson context, 111
Let’s Move! campaign, 25
LET US Play principles, 60–61, 71, 73

Mantino, K. D., 25, 41
Master observation daily log tool, 30
Moderate-to-vigorous physical activity (MVPA), 63, 65–69, 66, 72, 104, 112, 119, 122–123, 135, 140–144
Moore, J., 57, 78
MVPA. See Moderate-to-vigorous physical activity (MVPA)

National AfterSchool Association (NAA), 2, 4, 80
National Afterschool Snack Program, 97
National 4-H Council, 14, 16
National 4-H Healthy Living Taskforce, 21
National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey, 139
National Recreation and Park Association, 40
National School Lunch Program, 2
Nigg, C. R., 105, 124

Obesity, 1, 79, 133. See also Physical activity (PA); 4-H Healthy Living programs and, 20; prevention in afterschool environments, 25, 45; summer weight gain and, 133–135; water consumption and, 79–80
Okechukwu, C., 79, 101
Organization capacity, 80, 81, 84, 87, 89
OSNAP intervention on children’s water consumption, study on effect of, 79–82; analysis, 85–86; community context, 80, 81, 84, 87–88, 90, 91–92; discussion, 95–98; implementation measures, 83–84; implementation predictors, effect of, 90–95; innovation characteristics, 80; intervention, 82–83; main intervention effects on water consumption, 90; organization capacity, 80, 81, 84, 87, 89, 93–95; provider characteristics, 80, 81, 84, 87, 88, 92–93; research design, 82; results, 87–95; sociodemographic measures, 84; water intake measures, 83
OST. See Out-of-school time (OST)
OST programs, 1–2; implementation fidelity in, 105; for PA promotion, 104
Out-of-School Nutrition and Physical Activity (OSNAP) initiative, 79
Out-of-School Nutrition and Physical Activity Observational Practice Assessment Tool (OSNAP-OPAT), 27
Out-of-school time (OST), 1
Overweight, 1

Partnership for a Healthier America (PHA), 25
Peterson, D. J., 13, 24
Physical activity (PA), 57. See also Evidence-based fitness promotion in afterschool setting, study on; Summer day camps (SDCs); benefits of, 103; OST programs and, 104; school-based, 104; in summer, 134; in Trust-funded OST programs, 106
Physical environment mapping tool, 31
Progressive Aerobic Cardiovascular Endurance Run (PACER), 111
Provider characteristics, 80, 81, 84, 87, 88
Qualtrics online survey software, 16
RE-AIM framework, 21–22
Reitman, D., 103, 130
Rogers, E. M., 96
Samuels Center, 47, 48
SAS PROC MIXED, 85
Schedule template, 62
SDCs. See Summer day camps (SDCs)
Silton, R. L., 133, 150
Site self-assessments, 27
Snack log, 30
SPARK Lesson Quality Checklist, 105
Sports, Play, and Active Recreation for Kids Active Recreation (SPARK AR), 105
Staff checklist, 31
Summer day camps (SDCs), 57, 134–135, 147. See also Girls in Game summer camp program, study on; children’s PA levels, changes in, 66–69; children’s physical activity (PA) in, 57; competency-based training and, 60–61; data analysis, 65; discussion, 71–74; girls-only PA opportunities in, 61, 62; interventions in, 60–62; limitations of study on, 73–74; observation schedule and protocol, 63–64; observer training and reliability, 64–65; on-site booster trainings at, 61; results, 66–70; setting and participants in, 59–60; staff behaviors, changes in, 69–70; study on competency-based training and children’s PA levels in, 59–74; tools, use of, 62–65; and weekly feedback, 62; and workshop on schedule modification, 61–62; YMCA of the USA PA Standards for, 57–58
Summer, weight gain in, 133–135, 143
Systematic Observation of Physical and Leisure Activity in Youth (SOPLAY), 63
System for Observing Fitness Instruction Time (SOFIT), 111
System for Observing Staff Promotion of Activity (SOSPAN), 62–63

Thaw, J. M., 103, 130
The Children’s Trust (Trust), 106
Turner-McGrievy, G., 57, 78

University of South Carolina, 58
Urban minority girls, and summertime programming, 135. See also Girls in Game summer camp program, study on

Video analysis, 64
Villa, M., 103, 130

Walkthroughs, during booster session, 61
Ward, A. K., 133, 150
Water consumption, changes in. See OSNAP intervention on children’s water consumption, study on effect of Weaver, R. G., 57, 78
Webster, C. A., 57, 78
Wiecha, J. L., 4, 5

YMCA of the USA (Y-USA), 2, 25, 26; commitment to PHA, 25–26; and HEPA standards implementation, 25; measurement of implementation of HEPA standards, challenges in, 26–28; standards for HEPA, 26
Yoshida, S., 45, 55
ZeeMaps, 29