Index

Page numbers referring to figures are in italic; page numbers referring to tables are in bold.

African-American cultures (US) attitudes toward gender inequalities 235–6 attitudes toward social inequalities 234–5 agentic behaviors (men) 129 aggression, sex difference studies 28, 158 agriculture-based societies 98–9 Allmendinger, Jutta and Hackman, Richard 72 allocative discrimination 201
“alpha bias” 29
“The American Dream” 231–2 androcentrism 42
androgen exposure (prenatal) studies 34–5 assertiveness, sex difference studies 28 attachment and “being different” 71–2, 151 and gender identity processes 45–7 authority (workplace) 207, 208–9, 209–11 behavioral dispositions, traits, and abilities beliefs in difference 234–5 sex difference studies 27–31
“being different”, and attachment 71–2, 151
Belgium, attitudes towards women 126
Index

Bellas, Marcia L. 177
Bem, Sandra Lipsitz 38–43, 151
Bernard, Jessie 5, 27, 104, 180–1 “beta bias” 29
bias in sex difference studies 29 biological characteristics of sex 9–10, 33–6 biosocial perspectives on gender 14–16, 26–57 biological or genetic explanations of sex difference 33–6 socialization and environmental explanations of sex difference 36–49 biotechnology industries gender and status interactions 65–8
see also STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines birth rates 121–2
“blockers” see hormone “blockers”
Blumstein, Philip and Schwartz, Pepper 183–5 “boys club” work structures 67 brain organization and gender see neuroscientific basis of gender “breadwinner” roles 105 bureaucracy, and gendered hierarchies 207–8

Cancian, Francesca 103–5 career advancement gender and status interactions in technology industries 65–8 opportunities and “The American Dream” 231–2

STEM aptitudes and gender difference 28, 50–4, 52 career choices, and gendered jobs 199–201 Ceci, S.J. and Williams, W.M. 53 change and gender difference 236–41
Charles, Maria and Bradley, Karen 130
Chase, Cheryl 11
cheating behavior studies (Whitley, Nelson, and Jones) 28–9 child development, psychoanalytical perspectives 44–8
child-rearing
changing trends 121–2
and gender 99–100
childbearing, trends 121–2 childcare
time spent by gender 161–2, 163–4, 163, 164–5, 165
see also household division of labor childhood friendships 154–8 cross-gender peers 156–8 same-gender peers 154–6 childlessness 121
children
awareness of social categories 42–3 crossing gender divides 138–44 gender assignment 137, 144 gender identification processes 44–7 gender self-labeling 40–1 gendered socialization processes 144–8
Index

parent’s gender preferences 136–7 role assignments and household chores 148 treated according to gender expectations 144–8 use of toys and games 147 with ambiguous genitalia 144 Chodorow, Nancy 44–7
classroom cheating behavior studies (Whitley, Nelson, and Jones) 28–9 clerical work, and males 85–6 cognitive development theories of socialization 38, 40–3 and gender schema theory (Bem) 41–3 cohabitation
changing trends 120–1
future prospects and implications 129
and household division of labor 168
college enrollment rates by gender 109 Coltrane, Scott 169–70
communal behaviors (women) 129 compulsory motherhood 173–4
Confounding Gender (Hawksworth) 2
consistency of sex differences 29–30 corporatist-conservative welfare regimes (Esping-Andersen) 124
cross-dressing, children 43, 139–40 cross-gender play 156–8 girls cf. boys 157
parental expectations 151
cross-national research 7–8 on employment growth rates 107–8, 107 on gender beliefs 113
on gender expectations 48–9 on growing diversity of living arrangements 114–22, 116–19 on impact of social and state policies 125 on labor force participation and gender 105–9, 106 on mathematical aptitude 50–4, 52 on patterns of gendered behavior 157–8 on patterns of sex segregation 195–6, 197 on variation in household division of labor 170–4 cultural beliefs
on motherhood 173–4
role of institutions 90
see also ideologies

cultural stereotypes
sex difference studies 27–8, 54–5
and status characteristics 64–9
see also stereotyping oneself; stereotyping others

Deaux, Kay and Major, Brenda 61 deference and status (workplace) 206–7 definitions of gender 8–16
Demographic Differences in Organizations (Tsui and Gutek) 73–80
DeVault, Marjorie 169
Index

discrimination
  allocative 201
  statistical 201–2
  valuative 219
  see also gender discrimination (workplace); race discrimination dispositions, traits, and abilities see behavioral dispositions, traits, and abilities diversity and demographic difference nature of stereotyping problems 73–4, 76–9 relations of minorities in groups 71–86 taking ownership and coping strategies 74–6, 79–80 division of labor see household division of labor; sexual division of labor divorce
  current trends 120
  future prospects and implications 129
  “doctrine of separate spheres” 103–5, 212
  “doing difference” (West and Fenstermaker) 62–3 “doing gender” 61, 62–3

eagley, A.H. 55, 129
  “early labelers” (Fagot et al.) 154 earnings differentials between partners, and household division of labor 170 education attainment levels
  college enrollment rates by gender 109, 109 impact on gender equality beliefs 112 sex-typing by field of study 130 ego boundaries formation 44–5 emotional labor 205–7 “emotional proletariat” (MacDonald and Sirianni) 206 engineering
  as career choice 53–4
  gender-typing 67
  see also STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines evironmental explanations for sex differences studies 36–49 epigenetic studies on sex differences 34–5 equality beliefs see gender equality esping-andersen, G. 123–5, 126, 131 ethnicity
  birth rates 122
  race segregation (workplace) 192–4, 193 ethnomethodological interactionist approaches (“doing gender”) 61, 62–3 evolutionary perspectives on divisions of labor 98–100 on sex differences 35–6 “expectation states” theory see status characteristics theory factory work see industrialization processes fagot, Beverly and Hagan, Richard 150, 153–4 family
definitions 115
effects on employment/career prospects 175–82 as a gendered institution (overview) 99–100 growing diversity of living arrangements 114–22, 116–19 household division of labor 100–5, 129–30, 159–74 impact of gender equality beliefs 112–14, 113 impact of social/state policies 122–6 influence of income/education divides 128 inter-relationships with work 100–3 lesbian and gay 174–5
living with grandparents 128–9 role of men 105
trends and prospects of social change 128–9 see also parents family diversity 114–22, 116–19 future trends 128–9
father–child interactions amount of time spent 149–50
responses to cross-gender play 151–2 type of activities 147, 150–1 fathers, preferences for children’s sex 137 female infanticide 99
feminism see women’s movement feminization of occupations 194–5
Ferriman, K. et al. 200–1 “fictive kin” 115
financial sector, female exclusion from social networks 83 frameworks for gender analysis 16–18 individualist approaches 16, 17, 26–57 institutional approaches 17, 97–132 interactionist approaches 17, 60–93
France, attitudes toward women 126
Freese, J. and Shostak, S. 33
Freud, Sigmund 44
friendships
in childhood 154–6
cross-gender boundaries 156–8 Future of Marriage, The (Bernard) 180–1 gay and lesbian couples 114–15, 121, 182–5
household division of labor 183–4
same-sex marriages 121
gay and lesbian families 174–5 gender
definitions 8–16
frameworks for understanding (overview) 16–18 as multilevel system of social practices 8–9, 92, 225–7, 228–9, 237–9 as organizing principle of social world 8 gender conformity, ethnomethodological perspectives 63
Index

gender construction 137–54 through choice of belongings/ environment 144–5 through family play and activities 145, 147–52 through peer learning and play 152–4 gender discrimination (workplace) 176–9, 202–3 see also pay disparities and gender; sex segregation (workplace) gender equality, and increased female participation in labor force 111–12 “gender essential ideology” (Charles and Bradley) 130 gender essentialism 232–3
  on motherhood 173–4
  and religious beliefs 124
gender expectations
  cross-national research 48–9
  and social role theory 129–30 see also gender construction gender identity 44–8
  in childhood 152–5
gender ideologies
  of deference 233–6
  of fundamental gender difference 41–2, 173–4, 232–3
  and household division of labor 168–9
  of paternalism 233–6
gender inequality causes of 19–20
  challenges and coping strategies 236–41 as consequence of gender differentiation 9, 232–6 from a sex difference/
    individualist perspective 54–5
  and gender distinctions (overview) 227–9
  key maintaining/reproducing processes 229–36 pay differentials according to marriage status 176–9, 215–16 and pay disparities 126, 213–20 race and cultural attitudes 235–6 gender pay gap 126, 213–20
  background and overview 214–17
  cross-national differences 217
  explanations for gap 217–20
  impact of age on gender disparities 216 impact of “women-friendly” welfare regimes 220 percentage of women earning more than husbands 216 women’s earnings as a percentage of men’s 215 gender polarization beliefs 41–2 gender schema theory (Bem) 41–3, 151
gender stereotypes
  in childhood 146–7, 152–4
  and parental behaviors 154
  see also stereotyping oneself; stereotyping others
gender studies
  background history 5–6
  current conceptual developments 6–8 multilevel perspectives and analysis frameworks 16–18 rationale for undertaking 18–20 societal-level influences and cross-national research 6–8 gender traits and abilities see behavioral dispositions, traits, and abilities gender-typed behaviors 39–40
Index

household division of labor (cont’d)
  social and welfare policy directions 172–4
  “time constraints”
explanations 166–7
housework and gender see household division of labor
Hoyenga, K.B. and Hoyenga, K.T.
  12, 34
hunter–gatherer societies 98
Hyde, J.S. 55

identification theory of socialization 43–8
ideologies 232
  of deference 233–6
  of gender essentialism 41–2, 173–4, 232–3
  of opportunity and “The American Dream” 231–2
  of paternalism 233–6
incidence of intersexuals 10 index of dissimilarity 192 individualist approaches to gender analysis 16, 17, 26–57
  basic assumptions 26
  consistency and magnitude of sex differences 28–30
  environmental and social perspectives 36–49
  genetic and biological
    perspectives 31–6
  social policy implications 50–4
  understandings of gender inequality 54–5
  individualistic cultures 130 industrial entrepreneurship, gender differences 67–8 industrialization processes background history of family– work systems 100–3
    and the “doctrine of separate spheres” 103–5
  infanticide, females 99
  information technology (IT) industries, gender and status interactions 65–8
  institutional approaches to gender analysis 17, 97–132
  institutionalization processes 229–31
  institutions
    defined 86–7
    gendered perspectives 19, 87–91 and ideologies 236
    as self-perpetuating entities 90 as source of cultural beliefs 90 interactionist approaches to gender analysis 17, 60–93
    basic assumptions 60–1
    basic forms (overview) 61–2 “doing gender” perspectives 62–3
    homophilic perspectives 69–86 perspectives on household division of labor 169–70 status characteristic theory 63–9 internal labor market practices 203 international perspectives see
      cross-national research
  Intersex Society of North America
    (ISNA) 11–12
  intersexuals 144
    definitions 11
    incidence and prevalence 10 surgical practices 11–12, 144 Jackman, Mary R. 230–1, 233–5 job evaluations 218–19
job gender-typing 203–13 attitudes toward 233–4
and emotional labor 205–7 hierarchies and networks 207–9 in senior positions 209–11 job mobility 203
see also career advancement;
career choices
job recruitment practices 201–3

Kanter, Rosabeth Moss 81–2, 175–6
Kessler, S.J. and McKenna, W. 13–14
Kimmel, Michael 225, 239, 241
Kohlberg, Lawrence 40–1

labor and employment see work language use studies 28 leadership issues 209–11 legal profession, gendered roles 211–12 legislation

on gender equality 111
on same sex relationships 185 see also social and state policies legitimation processes 231–6 liberal welfare regimes

(Esping-Andersen) 123–4
life sciences, gender-typing 66–7 Lytton, H. and Romney, D.M. 147

Maccoby, Eleanor 147–8, 153
Maccoby, Eleanor and Jacklin, Carol 27 male gender identity processes 44–8 management jobs and gender 208–9, 209–11
employee’s gendered preferences 210 marriage
changing trends 120–1
effects on employment/career prospects 175–82 evidence of employer discrimination trends 176–9 as institutionalization process 229–30 lesbian and gay relationships 182–5 male and female expectations 180–1 psychological health and well-being 180–1 trends and social change 181–2 marriage wage premium 177
Martin, Carol Lyn et al. 152–3 masculinity
current conceptual developments 6
parental expectations 150–1 sociological studies 6 mathematical aptitude studies 28, 50–4, 52 mathematical career and employment choices see STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines measures of sex segregation 192 media, role in perpetuating gendered beliefs 89–90

Men are from Mars and Women are from Venus (Gray) 234
Index

meta-analysis studies, on sex differences 28–9 middle classes, history of family–work arrangements 102, 103, 104–5 minorities in groups 71–86 mother–child interactions
  amount of time spent 149–50
  responses to cross-gender play 151–2
  type of activities 150–1
mother–infant attachment
  and gender identity processes 45–7
  and male separation 151
motherhood
  compulsory 173–4
  impact on occupational choice 200–1 as status characteristic 179–80 and wage penalties 178–9 mothers
  employment trends 109–11, 110 percentage in employment with young children 110–11, 110 neuroscientific basis of gender 50–1 newcomers to groups 81–4 nonmarital births 121–2 nursing 204

  male “tokens” 84–5
nurturing behaviors, sex difference studies 158

occupational aspirations and gendered jobs 199–201
  and motherhood 200–1
occupations
  distributions by gender 196–8, 197 feminization of 194–5
  popular occupations for women 198 pro-motherhood 201
  see also work
  “office wives” 211
orchestras, sex composition and member attitudes 72 organizations
  defined 86
  hierarchies and bureaucracies 207–9 minority groups and gender 71–86 networks and gender-based exclusions 83–4 see also gendered organizations and institutions; institutions; work parental leave 125–6
  global availability 127 parents
  amount of time spent with children 149–50 discipline regimes 147–8 and labor force participation 109–11, 110 preferences for children’s sex 136–7 preferences for child’s educational attainment 48–9 treating children according to gender 144–8 paternalism 233–6
Index

pay disparities and gender 126, 213–20
background and overview 214–17
cross-national differences 217
explanations for gap 217–20
impact of age on gender disparities 216
impact of “women-friendly” welfare regimes 220
percentage of women earning more than husbands 216
women’s earnings as a percentage of men’s 215 personality traits, sex difference studies 28 play
  gender-differentiation by parents 149–52 gender-differentiation through peer learning 152–6 policy directions see social and state policies poverty influences 6–7 prenatal sex hormone exposure studies 34–5 psychoanalytical perspectives on socialization 43–8 punishment and discipline regimes (children) 147–8 race discrimination 202
race segregation (workplace) 192–4, 193 reinforcement mechanisms, and gender roles 39–40 relationships, as institutionalization process 230 “relative resources” theory (household division of labor) 167–8 religious beliefs, and women’s roles 124
The Reproduction of Mothering (Chodorow) 44–7
Reskin, Barbara and Padavic, Irene 103
Ridgeway, Cecilia 65
Ridgeway, Cecilia and Smith-Lovin, Lynn 8 “role encapsulation” 82
Roth, L.M. 83–5
Rubin, J.Z. et al. 146–7
Ryan, Joan 89
same-sex marriages 121
Scandinavia
  family-based social policies 125–6 and social-democratic welfare regimes 124–5 scientific career and employment choices see STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines secretary–boss relationships 211
segregation dimensions of 196
  measures 192
  see also sex segregation (workplace) self-esteem, and “othering” 74 self-identity
  primary concepts 73–4
  and self-stereotyping 76–9 self-reported health complaints, sex difference studies 30–1, 32
Index

self-stereotyping 76–9
sex
cf. gender 12–16
concept definitions 9–10
as limiting factor in gender 14–15 as social construction 12–14 sex category 9–10
concept importance 61–2
defined 10
and ethnomethodological “doing gender” views 60, 62–3 and homophilic relationships 71–86
and status characteristics theory 61–2, 63–9 within groups 71–86
sex difference studies
approaches and conceptual frameworks 26–7
basic assumptions 26
behavioral dispositions, traits, and abilities 27–31 consistency and size of differences 28–31 environmental and social origins 36–48 epigenetic contributions 34–5 evolutionary psychological perspectives 35–6 genetic and biological origins 33–6 impact on gender inequality 54–5 as sex “inequality” studies 54–5
social policy implications 50–4 sex hormones, prenatal exposure studies 34–5 “sex role spillover” (Nieva and Gutek) 212–13 sex segregation (workplace)
definitions 190–1
employer hiring practices 201–3 explanations for 198–203 forms and amounts 191–2 gender typing of jobs and expectations 203–13 internal labor market practices 203 measurement of 192
trends in occupational sex and race segregation 192–5, 193, 197 sexual dimorphism 10
as rooted in biology 14–16 as socially constructed 12–14 sexual division of labor 98–100 history of the family–work systems 100–5
and social role theory 129–30
social and state policies 122–6, 128–9
see also household division of labor
sexual harassment 212–13 “shock theory of marriage” (Bernard) 181 similarity–attraction hypothesis 70, 71–2
see also homophilic social relations single-parent households changing trends 116–19, 122
percentage distribution by country 116–19 single-sex groups cf. mixed sex groups 71–2 “skewed groups” and gender (Kanter) 81–4 social categorization 61–2 social change, and gender inequality 236–41 social class history of family–work arrangements 101–5 race and cultural attitudes toward 234–5 social constructions of sex categorization, “doing gender” approaches 62–3 social engineering see social and state policies social inequalities 230 “doing difference” (West and Fenstermaker) 62–3 see also gender inequality; welfare regimes social institutions see institutions social interaction
and “doing gender” 62–3 and homophily 69–86
and status characteristics theory 63–9 social learning theory of socialization 38–40 social role theory (Eagly) 129
social and state policies cross-national comparative research 125–6 impact on gender pay gaps 220 impact on household division of labors 172–4 impact on work and family systems 122–6 and “structural lag” 128–9 social ties 69
see also homophilic social relations social-democratic welfare regimes (Esping-Andersen) 124–5 socialization and gender 37–49 cognitive development theory 38, 40–3 concept processes and definitions 37–8 identification theory 38, 43–8 social learning theory 38–40 within families and childhood scenarios 144–59 sociological perspectives on gender (overview) 3–5 current conceptual developments 6–8
history 5–6
“spillover” (Nieva and Gutek) 212–13 sport, as gendered institution 88–90 state policies see social and state policies statistical discrimination 201–2 status characteristics theory 61–2, 63–9 STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines gender differences 28, 50–4, 52
gender and status interactions 65–8 higher education choices and gender 130 impact of motherhood 200–1 stepparents, gender-differentiated play 149
Index

“stereotype threat” (Steele) 79
stereotyping oneself 76–9 stereotyping others impact on self-esteem and social identity 73–4 impact on work aspirations 210–11 statistical probability of being correct 74–6 see also cultural stereotypes;
gender stereotypes
“structural lag” (social policies) 128–9 Su, R. et al. 53–4
surgical intervention, on intersexuals 11–12, 144 symphony orchestras, sex composition and member attitudes 72 technical disciplines and industries see STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) disciplines theory of “expectation states” see status characteristics theory Thomas theorem 137

Thorne, B. 63
“time constraints” theory (household division of labor) 166–7 tokens/tokenism (Kanter) 81–6 female 81–3
male 83, 84–6
relations with dominants 81–2
Tomaskovic–Devey, Donald et al. 193–4, 193
Torsheim, T. et al. 30–1, 32

Toys and games
  early parental choices 147 learned gender associations 152–3 traits and abilities see behavioral dispositions, traits, and abilities Tsui, Anne and Gutek, Barbara 73–80

Udry, J. Richard 34–5 unconscious psychological processes of socialization see psychoanalytical perspectives on socialization United States employment growth rates 107–9, 108 growing diversity of living arrangements 114–22, 116–19 labor force participation rates by gender 106–7, 107 as a liberal welfare regime 124
  opportunities and “The American Dream” 231–2
  pay disparities and gender 214–16, 215, 216 pay disparities and marriage status 177–8 race and sex segregation (workplace) 192–4, 193 unmarried mothers 121–2 valuative discrimination 219
Velvet Glove, The (Jackman) 233–5 vertical segregation 196 “visibility, contrast, and assimilation” perceptions (tokens) 81–4 wage gap see gender pay gap
Waite, L.J. and Gallagher, M. 182
Wall Street women traders 83–4 Weber, Max 207–8
welfare regimes 123–6, 131, 220 cross-national comparisons 125–6 and household behaviors 172 impact on gender pay gap 220
and religious beliefs 124
West, C. and Fenstermaker, S. 62–3
Whittington, Kjersten and Smith-Doerr, Laurel 65–8
Williams, C. 83–5
Williams, Joan 176
women’s movement 5–6, 111 impact on women’s lives 112 origins 111
and sex difference studies 27
work concept of “emotional labor” 205–7 deference and status issues 206–7 determining a job’s worth 218–19 devaluation of “female” jobs 219, 221 female tokenism 81–3
feminization of occupations 194–5 gender and divisions of labor 98–100, 190–203 gender and labor force participation 105–9, 106–7, 110, 126–8 gender segregation practices 190–203 gender-typing of jobs 203–13
hierarchies and networks 207–9 impact of gender stereotyping on leadership aspirations 210–11 impact of marriage and family responsibilities 109–11, 110, 175–82 impact on marriage trends 120 informal relations 211–13 labor force participation and parenthood 109–11, 110 labor market mobility 203
male tokenism 83, 84–6
management and authority roles 207–11 married women’s cf. married men’s career prospects 176–9 occupational distributions by gender 196–8, 198 outlook for women’s labor force participation 126–9 pay disparities and gender 126, 213–20 rise of gender egalitarian beliefs 111–12 roles of social/state policies 122–6
secretary–boss relationships 211
sexual harassment 212–13
trends for female employment 109–11, 110