AARP Foundation, 60
Aéropostale, 58
After Action Reviews, 280
Aging and differences, 9–10
Alliance for Climate Education, 138
ALS Ice Bucket Challenge, 12, 23, 261
Altruism, 5
AmeriCorps, 297, 298, 299, 303–304, 306
Apple iBeacon, 258
Appreciation, culture of, 90, 94, 101, 130
Artreach, 206–207
Atkins, Becca, 206–207
Attracting supporters, 112–116
Audience, defining, 276
AWESOME Cause case example, 242–243

Baby boomers. See Boomers Benchmarks, defining, 276–277
Berry, Matt, 241
Bertelsen, Anne, 192
Beshear, Steve, 298
Best, Charles, 255
Big data, 13
BoardMatch Marin, 133
Boards of directors:
    engagement of members of, 124–129
    overview, 24, 123–124
    recruitment of members of, 128–129, 130–134
    retention of members of, 129–130
BoardSource, 134, 203
Boomers:
    anticipated volunteer revolution and, 71–74, 80, 349–350
    Great Recession and, 74–75
    organizational success story for, 76–79
    overview, 69–71
    as skilled volunteers, 199, 200
    terms of engagement for, 73, 75
    unlocking success for, 79–80
Bpeace, 171
Brain science, insights from, 6–8
Brand, letting people run with, 114–115
Breakthroughs, finding, 120–121
Brearley, Joeli, 189
Bridgespan, 345
BrightOne, 165
Brooks, Jeff, 262
Browser market monopoly, 110–111
Brudney, Jeff, 37–38
Burke, Sheri Wilensky, 341
Businesses, purpose-driven, 260–262
California State Library, 322–323
Calls to action, 113, 114
Capacity building, collaborative, 146
Capacity of organization and skilled volunteers, 201
Caring Bridge, 164
Carizon Family and Community Services, 144
Cause marketing:
  as competition for nonprofits, 260–262
  content creation and, 262–263 future of, 256–259
  Halopreneurs and, 259–260
  millennials and, 256–257
  mobile and, 258
  overview, 252–256, 264
  social business and, 257
  social media and, 259
Celebrity ambassadors, 263
Cenovus, 164
Center for Volunteer and Nonprofit Leadership, 133
Certificates and certifications, 342–343, 345
Change. See also Social change facilitators of, 29–30
  planning for, 323–327
  resistance to, 28–29
  theory of, 115, 275–276
Cherie Blair Foundation, 171
Chertavian, Gerald, 229
Children’s Miracle Network, 66–67
Citizen action and social change, 20–21, 22–23, 30
Civic Ventures, 72
CNCS (Corporation for National and Community Service), 297, 298, 305
College internship programs, 62–64
Commitment, 247
Communication: of impact, 262–263
  listening, 92, 94, 106
  of project leaders, 330
  of results, 329, 331
  with volunteers, 91–92, 94, 100, 144
Community:
  definition of, 139–140
  mapping, 141–142
  needs of, focus on, 51–52
  Compassion, 6–7
  Competence of board members, 126–128
  Cone Millennial Cause Study, 256
  Conflict management, 93–94
  Consumers, socially conscious, 4–5, 7
  Content creation: fans and, 11–12
    by nonprofits, 262–263
    by volunteers, 145
  Core function, volunteering as, 50–51
  Corporate culture, 248–249
  Corporate social responsibility (CSR): defined, 211 motivation for, 214
    trends and challenges, 215–216
  Corporate volunteering programs, 200. See also Workplace volunteer programs Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS), 297, 298, 305
  Corporations and millennials, 58–59
  Costs of programs, measurement of, 277
  Cota, Marianne, 79
  Council for Certification in Volunteer Administration, 343–344
  Cravens, Jayne, 155, 170
  Creativity, unleashing, 65
  CrisisCamp, 186
  Crowd, definition of, 139–140, 141
  Crowdcrafting, 165
  Crowdsourcing, 170
  CSR. See Corporate social responsibility
  CultureCode, 189
Dance Marathon, 66–68
Data analysis phase of project, 248, 280
Databases, custom, 279
Data-informed decision-making:
  building capacity and gaining skills in, 273
  buy-in on outcomes, defining and getting, 273–274 culture of, creating, 272
  failure and, 280–281
  formula for, 276–278
  impact, understanding, 270–271
  overview, 269–270, 281
purpose of, 270
results, expressing in relation to goals, 274 strategic thinking and, 274–275 theory of change and, 275–276
tools for, 278–280
Data visualization tools, 279–280
DC Central Kitchen, 350–351
Deadlines and pro bono volunteering, 230 Decision making. See Data-informed decision-making Deliverable finalization phase of project, 248
Demographic and generational changes, 8–11
Digital “memes,” 12
Direct-service virtual volunteering:
action types, 172–173
balancing program and safety, 179–180
evaluation of place of, 173
notification system for, 176–177
online mentoring programs, 171–172, 179–180
overview, 170–171, 180
safety and screening for, 177–178
success of, 174–176
Discovery meetings, 105
Dobens, Chris, 259–260
Donations to charity, 299
Donor programs. See Integrated volunteer and donor programs
DonorsChoose.org, 114
DoSomething.org, 57–58, 59–64, 272
Dunkin Donuts Foundation, 260
Dunlop, David, 102
Ellis, Susan J., 170
Employee engagement, 15
Employee volunteer programs. See Workplace volunteer programs
Empowerment of supporters, 114–115
Enemy, defining, 113
Energize, Inc., 345
Evaluation of success, 149
Evolution of volunteering, 48–49
Executive mindset on volunteer engagement, 35–36
Executive-search process for board members, 132
Expansion of engagement circle, 42
Experience of volunteering, 88–90
Facebook, 144
Fact-gathering phase of project, 248
Failure bow, 280–281
Fairness issues, 65
Fcancer, 165
Feedback loops, 313–314
FEMA Corps, 304
Financial contribution. See Integrated volunteer and donor programs
Financial Opportunity Corps, 300–301
Fine, Alison, 111–112
Firefox (Mozilla), 111, 113, 115, 116–117
First Stage space, 220–221
Flexibility, 247–248
Franklin, Benjamin, 23–24
Free, volunteers as, 37–38
Freedman, Marc, 72
Frerice.com, 154
Geilhufe, David, 279
Gellately, Dale, 144
GirlForward, 304
Girls Inc., 143
Goals:
defining, 276
expressing results in relation to, 274
Goodpocalypse, The, 256–260, 261
GoodProspects, 172
Google Adwords ads, 146, 147
Governance committees, 132
Governance volunteering, 125–126. See also Boards of directors
Grant, Adam, 202
Great American Hackathon, 186
GreatNonprofits, 205–206
Habitat for Humanity, 201, 298–299
Hackathons for good:
attending, 192
challenge of, 188
engagement and, 187
evaluation of place of, 190–191
impact of, 188–190
Hackathons for good: (Continued)
opportunity of, 187–190
origins of, 184–186
overview, 182–184, 193
roles for volunteers, 191–192
Hagar, Mark A., 37–38
Halopreneurs, 259–260, 261–262
Healthy living educators, 77
Hearts-and-hands volunteering, 240
Helper’s high, 240
Help From Home, 156, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 165
Hire Up, 4
Hiring volunteers, 39–40. See also Recruitment of volunteers
Hock, Dee, 42–43
“Holistic” in cause management, defining, 98
Horvath, Mark, 263
HR function and talent management, 15–16
Hughes, Sean, 52
Hurst, Aaron, 224
Hyperpersonalization, 11

IBeacon (Apple), 258
IBM Corporate Service Corps, 241
Ice Bucket Challenge, 12, 23, 261
Idealist.org, 143
IMAlive, 172
Impact:
   celebrating, 143
   communicating, 262–263
   demonstrating, 112
   of hackathons for good, 188–190
   measuring, 215, 270–271
   from microvolunteering, 160–161
Incentivizing training, 326–327
Infinite Family, 172
Influencers, use of, 64–65
Initial recommendations phase of project, 248
Ink to the People, 259, 260
Innovation:
   breakthroughs and, 120–121
   national service and, 304–305
   pressure for, 27–28
Institute of Volunteering Research, 158, 159, 161, 163
Integrated ecosystems, 12
Integrated volunteer and donor programs:
   buckets, silos, and, 104–105
   listening and, 106
   mission, work, and, 99–100
   moves-management methodologies for, 102–105
   overview, 97–99
   peer interactions and, 107
   staff and, 107–108
   stewardship of relationship, 100–102
   tools for, 108
Internet. See also Virtual volunteering engagement model for era of, 110–112
   for recruitment of board members, 132
   as volunteer intensive, 23
Internship programs, 62–64
Interview committees, 78
Investment:
   in pro bono, 242–243
   return on, 316–317
   in self, 347
   in volunteers, 37–38, 52–54, 85
JDRF, 86, 89
Jewish Family Service of Colorado, 70–71, 79–80
Jewish Volunteer Network, 165
Job design and description, 89, 293–294, 328
Kaner, Sam, 275
Kanter, Beth, 111–112
Kellogg’s Breakfasts for Better Days program, 257
Kennedy, Edward M., 305
Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), 277
Kiva.org, 114
Kundra, Vivek, 185–186
Larkin Street Youth Center, 3–4
Leadership. See also Boards of directors;
   Leadership of large operations;
   Leadership of volunteer engagement of service enterprises, 315–316
   skilled volunteers and, 201–202
   types of, 350
Leadership of large operations:
implementation strategies, 327–329
overview, 322–323, 331–332
planning for change, 323–327 role of project leader, 330–331 Leadership of volunteer engagement. See also Volunteer management characteristics of, 285–287
as facilitators of change, 29–30
overview, 283–284
program evaluation, 284–285
Legal pro bono, 225–226
LinkedIn, 198, 202, 203–204, 207–208
Listening, 92, 94, 106
Lublin, Nancy, 272
Lunchbox Express program, 70–71
Macduff, Nancy, 347
Managing pro bono projects, 235–236
Mariner Management, 164
Market, shaping, 115
McLaurin, Virginia, 303
Measurement of volunteer program:
at California State Library, 329
documentation, 280
formula for, 276–278
impact, understanding, 270–271
overview, 281
purpose of, 270
return on investment and, 305–306
sharing results of, 329
success, 42, 149
tools for, 278–280
Mentoring:
online, 171–172, 179–180
for professional development, 340
social media and, 145–146
Message, letting people run with, 114–115
Metrics, defining, 277
Microsoft browser market monopoly, 110–111
Microvolunteering:
action types, 156, 160
barriers to volunteering and, 161, 162
characteristics of, 155
developing actions for, 162–163 engagement levels, 158–160
history of, 155–156
impact of, 160–161
integration of, 166
marketing needs and recruiting for, 164–166
overview, 153–154, 166–167
rise of, 158–161
skilled, 156–157, 160
tapping into, 161–164
unskilled, 157, 160
Millennial Generation. See also Youth, engagement of cause marketing and, 256–257, 259
overview, 57, 58
potential of, 350
as skilled volunteers, 199–200
Mindsets:
executive, on volunteer engagement, 35–36
legacy, 5–6
open, 247
for utilization of skilled volunteers, 201–202 Mission:
integrated volunteer and donor programs
and, 99–100
passion of board members for, 126–128
pro bono volunteers and, 249
Mobile apps, 279
MomsRising, 281
Moves-management methodologies, 102–105
Mozilla Firefox, 111, 113, 115, 116–117
Mozilla Foundation:
attractiong supporters for, 112–116
engagement model of, 116–118, 119, 121–122
origins of, 111
overview, 112
roles and identities at, 119–120 theory of change of, 115, 117
tools, training, and, 121
Webmaker program, 118
Multi-channel strategies, 146
Multiplier effect, creating, 53–54
Museum Victoria, 163
Myths of volunteer engagement:
  debunking, 36–42
  overview, 32–36

National Council for Voluntary Organisations, 158, 162
National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 97, 101–102, 103, 107
National service:
  compassion and, 297–298
  Habitat for Humanity, 298–299
  innovation and, 304–305
  leadership development and, 303–304
  nonprofits and, 300–301, 306–307
  overview, 296–297
  in twenty-first century, 305–306
Needs assessment, 230
Nelson, Dana, 280
Nepris, 203
Network, definition of, 139–141
Networking, 339–340
Ni, Perla, 205–206
Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 169–170
Nonprofit Hub, 345
Nonprofits. See also Boards of directors competition for, 260–262
  content creation by, 262–263 growth in, 5
  national service and, 300–301, 306–307
  partnerships with corporations, 211
  vetting as partners, 216
NTEN (Nonprofit Technology Network), 145–146, 183, 273

Obama, Barack, 47, 300, 301, 306–307
Offline world, social Web as driven by, 137–138
Onboarding, 89–90, 145
One Fund, The, 260
One Warm Coat, 197–198, 201
Openness and transparency, 119, 247
Open source movement, 185
Orientation. See also Onboarding
  of board members, 130
  of volunteers, 78
Outreach methods for younger volunteers, 59–65

Panera Bread, 260
Pannozzo, Gerald, 341
Participation in corporate volunteer programs, 216
Partnerships. See also Cause marketing;
  Workplace volunteer programs
  for hackathons, 192–193
  national service and, 300–301
  for pro bono volunteering, 227, 236–237, 246–248
  to recruit board members, 133–134
  for service enterprises, 318–319

Passion:
  of board members, 126–128
  of volunteers, 301–303
Pathways to Education Canada, 146, 147
Patient biographers, 77
Peer career coaches, 340–341
Peers, power of, 7–8, 61, 107
Performance measurement. See Measurement of volunteer program
Perlstein, Greg, 66, 67, 68
PIH Health, 76–79
Pilot projects, 325
Planet Indonesia, 164
Platinum Rule, 95
Point-of-sale marketing strategies, 255
Points of Light, 309
Policies for volunteers, 150–151, 291–292
Posting volunteer opportunities, 203–204
Postpals, 164
Predictive data analysis, 13
Privacy issues and direct-service virtual volunteering, 177–178
Prize challenges, 192
Pro bono, defined, 225
Pro bono volunteering. See also Skilled volunteers
  benefits of, 241
  as cash-equivalent donation, 226
  as exchange, 240
  expertise available, 228
formula for, 231
investing in, 242–243
legal, 225–226
managing, 235–236
need for, 226–228
overview, 219, 224–225, 240–242
partnerships and, 246–248
preparation for, 246 principles of, 230–231
purposeful engagement and, 249
road map for, 243–245
scaling, 236–237
scoping, 232–233, 243–245
securing resources, 233–235
in spectrum of corporate community engagement, 227
starting, 237
uses for, 228–229
Professional development:
being strategic about, 338–342
benefits of, 337–338
certificates and certifications, 342–343, 345
documentation, 342
finding, 344–345
as investment in self, 347
overview, 90, 227, 231, 334–336
plan for, 341–342
resources for, 343–344
stories of, 346
thinking broadly about, 336–337
Professionalism, move toward, 25–26, 89
PYXERA Global, 240, 241, 242

Quantified Self, 13

Raise 5, 165
Random Hacks of Kindness, 186
Reading Partners, 297
ReadUP, 47
Rebuilding Together, 201
Recognition of volunteers, 90, 94, 101, 130, 288
Recruitment of volunteers:
board members, 128–129, 130–134
connecting to passion, 301–303
for large operations, 328–329
for microvolunteering, 164–166
overview, 287–288
for pro bono volunteering, 233–235
retention compared to, 90–91
skilled, 202–205
social media for, 143
Reich, Brian, 192
Reimagining Service coalition, 45, 48–54, 309, 312
Relationships: with microvolunteers, 163–164
moves management and, 102–105
with pro bono consultants, 230–231
stewardship and, 100–102
Resistance to change, 28–29
Resources:
cause marketing, 254
data-informed decision-making, 273
Get Involved Initiative, 331–332
pro bono volunteering and, 230, 233–235, 237, 249
professional development, 343–345
sharing, 331
United Way, 50–51
volunteer engagement associations, 340
VolunteerMatch Learning Center, 294
Retention of volunteers:
board members, 129–130
data on, 86–87
determining optimal rate of, 87–88 experience of volunteering and, 88–90
overview, 85–86, 92–95
recruitment compared to, 90–91
social media for, 144, 145–149
technology and, 91–92
Retired and Senior Volunteer Program, 302–303
Retirement, volunteers in. See Boomers
Reynolds, Nick, 259–260
Risk management, 292–293
Rogers, Hal, 298
Rosenthal, Robert, 252
Rowe-Finkbeiner, Kristin, 281
Safety issues:
  direct-service virtual volunteering, 177–180
  social media, 149–150
Scaling pro bono projects, 236–237
SCARF Model, 7, 8
Scoping pro bono projects, 232–233, 243–245
Screening volunteers, 289–290
Screen time, increase in, 13–14
Selfish Giving blog, 264
Senior Corps, 297, 301–302, 303, 306
Serve America Act, 305
Serve.gov, 301
Service Enterprise Initiative (SEI), 309, 310, 312–317, 319
Service enterprises:
  calls to action, 319–320
  characteristics of, 310–312, 313
  feedback loops and, 313–314
  leadership and, 315–316
  model for, 310
  organizational culture and, 314–315
  overview, 48, 54, 308–310
  partnerships and, 318–319
  problems with volunteers and, 317–318
  return on volunteer investment and, 316–317
Shim, Jason, 146
Sidelines, 172
Silos and siloed thinking, 104–105
Silver, Nora, 308, 309
Skilled volunteers:
  evaluation of place of, 200–202
  finding, 202–205
  identifying, 199–200
  LinkedIn and, 198
  overview, 207–208
  success stories, 205–207
Skills-based volunteering, 216, 219. See also Pro bono volunteering; Skilled volunteers
Skills For Change, 165
Smartphones, 11
Smith, Matt, 281
Snapchat, 60
SOAR 55, 302
Social, mobile, analytics, and cloud (SMAC) technologies, 12 Social change:
  citizen action and, 20–21, 22–23, 30 organizations as conduits for, 111–112 stages of creation of, 22–25
Social media:
  cause marketing and, 259
  overview, 137–138, 152
  platforms, 146–148
  for recruitment, 143
  for retention, 144, 145–149 role of, 138–141
  safety issues for, 149–150
  for volunteer management, 143–144
Software for workplace giving, 215–216
Sparked Consulting, 158
Specificity in campaigns, 61–62
Spreadsheets for data collection, 278–279
Staff. See also Professional development assigned volunteer engagement staff, 328 overcoming resistance from, 324–326 relationship between boards and, 127 training for, 326–327, 330
Status quo, challenging:
  evolution of volunteer ecosystem, 48–49
  focus on community needs, 51–52 investment in volunteers, 52–54
  overview, 44–45, 54–55
  principles for, 48–54
  United Way and, 46–48
  volunteering as core function, 50–51
Stewardship of volunteers, 100–102
Success, measurement of, 42, 149
Supporters:
  attracting, 112–116
  innovation and, 120–121
  roles and identities of, 119–120
  tools and training for, 121
Support for volunteers, 95
Surveys, online, 279
TAGG, 258
Talent management, 15–16
Taproot Foundation, 224, 225, 232
Teach For America, 114
Technology. See also Hackathons; Microvolunteering; Social media; Virtual volunteering advances in, 11–14
cause marketing and, 258
recruitment of board members and, 131–133 retention of volunteers and, 91–92
Teens for Jeans campaign, 58
Text messages:
for data collection, 279
email compared to, 60
Theory of change, 115, 275–276
Third-party recruitment of board members, 131–133
Tools:
for data collection, 278–280
for integrated volunteer and donor programs, 108
for measuring service enterprises, 312–313
Toyota, 59
Training. See also Professional development for staff and management, 326–327, 330
for volunteers, 90, 175–176
Transparency and openness, 119, 247
Trends:
as contradictory, 4–5
demographic and generational changes, 8–11
as disruptive, 17
insights from brain science, 6–8 technological advances, 11–14
workplace shifts, 14–17
Trevor Project, 172
T-shirts, using in campaigns, 62
Union issues, 324
United Nations Volunteers, 143, 158
United Way:
calls to action, 46, 50
Day of Action, 47, 51
leveraging of human capital by, 46–47
overview, 44–45
Readers, Tutors, Mentors initiative, 52
Reimagining Service principles and, 48–54
10-year goals of, 45–46
United We Serve, 47
UNITE Service Corps, 298
Unskilled volunteering, 157, 160, 219
UPS Foundation, 88
Urban Institute, 88–89
Urban Safety Corps, 300
USDA Summer Food Service Program, 70
Value of volunteer engagement, 37–38, 43
Veterans Build, 299–300
Vetting partners, 216
Virtual volunteering, 23, 169–171. See also Direct-service virtual volunteering
Virtual workforce, 16
Volunteer, definition of, 21–22, 253
Volunteer engagement associations, 340
Volunteer grants, 252
Volunteer Impact Fund project, 35
Volunteer Impact Partnership, 54
Volunteer involvement. See also Integrated volunteer and donor programs; Pro bono volunteering; Skilled volunteers; Virtual volunteering; Workplace volunteer programs as connecting people, 17 decrease in, 5
as methodology, 21
Volunteerism, as abundant and untapped resource, 198–199
Volunteer management. See also Leadership of volunteer engagement; Measurement of volunteer program; Recruitment of volunteers; Retention of volunteers changing focus of, 294–295 facilitation of change and, 29–30 organizational development approach compared to, 314–315 planning for when things go wrong, 292–293 policies and handbooks, 291–292 principles to guide change in, 293–294
pro bono projects, 235–236
as profession, 25–26
recognition, 90, 94, 101, 130, 288
saying no, 290–291
screening and matching, 288–290
Volunteer management (Continued)
  social media for, 143–144
  3 Rs of, 285–286
VolunteerMatch:
  California State Library and, 328–329
  Learning Center, 294
  LinkedIn and, 203
  overview, 345
  recruitment through, 287–288
  reports of, 72, 73
  social media and, 143

Wants and needs of volunteers, 39–41
Watkins, Melissa, 52
Weak ties, 201–202
Whyte, Nancy, 76
Wikimedia Foundation, 114
Wofford, Harris, 299
Wood, Sherri Lewis, 197–198, 201
Workflow of volunteers, 293–294
Work of volunteers, 41–42

Workplace, generational differences in, 9
Workplace shifts, 14–17
Workplace volunteer programs:
  benefits of, 214–215
  “both/and” approach to, 219–220
  categories of, 219
  definitions related to, 214
  First Stage space, 220–221
  as high calling, 221
  increase in, 213
  knowing own story, 216–218
  overview, 210–213
  trends and challenges, 215–216

Year Up, 224, 229
York, Pete, 312
Youth, engagement of:
  outreach methods and, 59–65
  overview, 57–58, 65–67
  as smart strategy, 58–59
Youth empowerment, 3–4