Index

ABLF. See Asset-based loan facility
Absolute debt, risks to economies and high levels of, 122
Accountants, 191
Adams, Abigail, 133
Advanced medical directives, 192
Advisor Highlight Answers, 14
Aging, in United States, changing face of, 38. See also Life expectancy AHAs. See Advisor Highlight Answers
Airplanes:
   buying, 210–211
   fractional ownership of, 211–212
Albini, Steve, 17
Allen, Robert G., 43
Alternative minimum tax, municipal bonds and, 275
Amortization, 13, 204, 205–207
Amortizing bonds, 222
AMT. See Alternative minimum tax
Antiques, buying, 210
Appraisals, second homes and, 215
Appreciation, second homes and, 216–217, 218
Arithmetic average, 109
Art, buying, 210
Asset allocation, 89
   author opinions on, 126–130
   conclusions that stand test of time for, 129–130 framework for, one opinion on, 129 goal-based approach to, 120, 155 investment considerations and, 119–120 risk and, 274
   striving toward, careful analysis of, 143
   withdrawal rates and, 252
   world-neutral view of, 120, 121, 126, 153 Asset-based loan facility:
   broad definition of, 270
   getting beyond, and focusing on retirement, 12–14 Asset-based loan facility (Continued) guaranteed liquidity solutions not offered by, 274 increased risk of financial distress and, 273 mortgage interest and, 245 narrow definition of, 270
one hundred percent financing of second home and, 219, 244 structured as demand facilities, 273 ultra-high-net-worth investors and, 233 understanding risks associated with, 272–273 Asset-based portfolio loan, 63
Asset class return, 1994–2013, 268 Assets: amount of, held by people with different types of debt, 135 debt overlay and, 136 forced liquidation of, 117
holistic retirement planning philosophy and, 37, 152
life insurance and, 187 proper titling for, 191 value independent of financing around, 205
Assets–based loans, 209
Assisted living options, 193
Attorneys, 191
Atwood, Margaret, 9
Available credit, 13
Average cost of capital, weighted, 215
Average rate of return, examples of, 44
Bach, David, 20, 29
Balance sheets:
debt ratios, withdrawal rates in retirement, and, 257–258 holistic approach to, 156
Jane Scenario A—No Debt, 230
Jane Scenario B—Strategic Debt Philosophy, 231
for Websters’ scenario, 66
Bankruptcy, 8
Bear markets, 123–124
Begin with end in mind, 181
Behavioral finance, 172
Beneficiaries:
LGBT community and, 199, 200
life insurance, 187
Required Minimum Distribution and, 238
Bengen, William, 252, 253, 254, 256
Berra, Yogi, 175
“Big Rocks of Life” (Covey), 181
Blended portfolios, correlation, risk/return tradeoff, and, 267–268 Boats:
buying, 210–211
fractional ownership of, 211–212
Bonds:
amortizing, 222
annualized withdrawal rate as a percent of initial portfolio value, 259
borrowing portfolio, withdrawal rates, and, 256, 257
call risk and, 275
developed international, 126, 129
emerging-market, 126, 128, 129
interest rate risk and, 274–275
math and history framework applied to, 122–123
non-borrowing portfolio, withdrawal rates, and, 256, 257
rate of return and, 45
reinvestment risk and, 275
returns with/without debt, 1946–2013, annualized withdrawal rate as of initial portfolio value, 258
Trinity Study, withdrawal rates, and, 52–53, 253, 254, 255
U.S., 126, 129
Index

Boom-bust cycles, 122
“Bottom-up” approach, for retirement calculations, 47
Bridge loans, line of credit and, 22–23, 208–209
“Broken-heart syndrome,” 195
Brokerage firms, asset-based loan facilities and, 273
“Bucket list,” 194, 196
Buffett, Warren, 57
Building value, second homes, depreciation, and, 214
Bull markets, average length of, in U.S., 123
Burial, 192

Call provision risk:
  bonds and, 275
  investing with leverage and, 271
“Cap and roll” interest, ABLFs and, 13
Capital Allocation Line, 55
Capital gains, 76
  long-term, lower tax rates for, 242
  Websters’ example and professional/detail notes on, 248
Capital loss risk, investing with leverage and, 271
Capturing the spread, defined, 55
Car insurance, 192
Car loans, 105
Cash flow, 62, 177. See also Income hybrid borrow-and-sell model and, 74–75 incoming, focus on, 182
  resource management and, 45–46
  understanding your need for, 63
Cash outlays, flexibility and, 36
Cash-out mortgage refinancing: glide path to optimal debt ratio and, 149 issues to consider with, 188
Change, accelerating, meta-management and, 177–180
Charitable donations/gifts, 76
  funding through borrowing, 168–171
  for Websters’ scenario, 67, 70, 72
Charitable gift annuity, 157, 169
Charitable involvement, 194
Charles Schwab Guide to Finances after Fifty, The (Schwab-Pomerantz), 19
Chief financial officer, thinking like, 203–204
Children, giving to, 167
Chinese Pompeii, 125
Circular 230, 271
Clapiers, Luc de, 45
Closing costs, second homes and, 215
Coca-Cola, 148
Collateral, asset-based loan facilities and, 272
College savings plans, funding for grandchildren, 167
Commodities, 126, 129
Community engagement, 194
Community service, 196
Companies, acting like, 203–204
Condominium association fees, 214–215
Confirmation bias, 7
Consumer Price Index, 253
Consumer Price Index for an Urban Consumer, 256
Cooley, Philip, 253
Corporate bonds, 123, 128, 206, 221
Corrections, history lessons on, 122
Correlation: of asset classes, 126
  gold and, 128
  risk/return tradeoff and, 267–268
Cost basis, defined, 246–247
Counterclockwise: Mindful Health and the Power of Possibility (Langer), 193 Coverage ratio, paying close attention to, 13
Covey, Steven, 177, 180, 181, 196, 197
CPAs, 191
Credit, securities-based lines of, 12–14
Credit approval, credit lines subject to, 273 Credit card debt:
helping your kids with, 208
high-cost, 29
high-interest rate, paying down, 11–12, 14
managing, 208
Credit risk, municipal bonds and, 275
Credit risk of issuer, bonds subject to, 275
Currency risk, international bonds and, 275
Current debt ratio, calculating, 144
Customization, 59

Dada Vaswani, 196
Death, retirement and, 194
Debt. See also Enriching debt; Oppressive debt; Working debt amount of assets held by those with different types of, 135 better, making wise use of, 10 companies benefiting from, 5–6 conservative and scientific approach to, 31
do you already have debt?, 140, 141 do you have access to working or enriching debt?, 140, 143–144 do you need debt?, 140–141
do you want debt?, 140, 141 dying with, 147–148
evolution of, over time, 136
existing, evaluating, 31 giving strategies and use of, 166 handling, self-assessment of, 30, 138, 149, 154
holistic retirement planning philosophy and, 31, 37, 152 to loan sharks, 29
not becoming overextended with, 30
optimal range of, 19
over 10 percent, eliminating, 142 rate of return to target relative to cost of, 59 at rate under required rate of return you need in retirement, paying off, 142–143 reducing risk in retirement with, 105–107
refinancing, 31
Trinity Study comparison:
“traditional way” versus alternative allocation with gold and, 127
Trinity Study update with/without, 106 types of, 28–29, 134, 153 value of, in retirement, 159–160
want-need-have matrix and,
139–144
what popular retirement books get right and wrong about, 18–19 “whole chicken” approach to, 35
Debt aversion, tax-efficient situations and, 76–77
Debt Free for Life (Bach), 20 Debt-Inclusive Philosophy:
financial advisors and, 11
Five Tenets of, 5, 154
Debtors, better, seven rules for, 30–31, 138, 141, 149, 154 Debt ratios:
optimal ranges for, 144
relative to standard deviation of portfolio, 108
striving toward, careful analysis of, 143
withdrawal rates in retirement and, 257–258
“Debt Snowball” process, 29 Debt-to-asset ratios, 134 balance sheet—Jane Scenario B—Strategic Debt Philosophy, 230, 231 optimal, 144
right “glide path” to retirement and, 138, 139
volatility of asset portfolio and, 146
Decision making and implementation, 179–180
Decorating costs, second homes and, 216
Deductions, credits, and payments, for Websters, 72
Default risk, high-yield bonds and, 275
Defaults, over-indebted nations and, 128
Deferred payment charitable gift annuity, 169, 170
Demand facilities, asset-based loan facilities structured as, 273
Depreciation, 105 amortization and, 206, 207 second homes and, 214–215
Devaluation, over-indebted nations and, 128
Direct cost, second homes and, 215
Disbursements, asset-based loan facilities and, 272
Discrimination, LGBT community and, 197, 198
Distribution rates, 52, 121, 152, 182 giving and, 164–166 net worth and, 53, 157 over time, in retirement, 49–51, 59 Trinity Study update with/without debt and, 106
Diversification, 121 alternative assets and, 129 global, 126 risk and, 274
Diversified investing in retirement, six-step approach to, 120–121, 155
Dividends, 275
Donor-advised funds, 168
Dream vacation, paying for, 210
Driving, 193
Drucker, Peter, 113
Economic downturns, hedging and, 121
Economic history, passionate study of, 120, 121, 130, 155
Economic predictions, 124–125
Edelman, Ric, 32, 33
Effectiveness, 180–181
Efficacy, 193
Efficiency, 181
Efficient Frontier, in Modern Portfolio Theory, 109
Einstein, Albert, 64
Emergent properties, 63
Emerging market bonds, 126, 129
Emerging market stocks, 126, 129
Emotional health, 177
Enabling debt:
amount of assets held by those with, 135 assets, debt overlay, and, 136 in continuum of debt, 134 opportunity to change course and, 137
Endogenous risks, 114, 121
Enriching, defined, 37
Enriching debt, 5, 6, 13, 28, 29, 133, 151, 153, 155 capturing the spread and, 55 evolution of, over time, 136 examples and impact of, 134 need–want–have matrix and, 139 opportunity to change course and, 137 total assets, net worth, and, 136 wealth amplification and, 135
Equipment trust certificates, 221
Equities, risk and, 275
Equity market capitalization, for equity weightings, 126
ERISA, 246, 274
Estate and Gift Applicable Exclusion, 247
Estate planning, 177, 191
Estimated taxes due, for Websters’ scenario, 73
Europe, over-indebtedness in, problem solving and, 128
Executors, 191
Exogenous risks, 114, 121
Expected returns, valuations and, 120, 155 Expenses:
  after-tax incoming money needed for, 47
  convergence of, in later life, 51 reducing, 142
Expensive purchases, principles for, 204–207

Facebook, 88
Family structure, LGBT community and, 199–200
Feasibility analysis, 37
Federal income taxes, 47
Fidelity, 168
Financial advisors, finding and working with, 11
Financial crises, in your base case scenario, 121
Financial crisis of 2008, companies versus individuals’ response to, 115
Financial distress, 7–8, 206, 273
Financial freedom, 159–160
Financial independence, 189
Financial planning:
  guessing and, 77
  holistic, 34
Finn, Jaramee, 78
Firestone, Harvey S., 161
“First things first,” 181
Five Indebted Strengths, 8–9, 154
Five Tenets of Debt-Inclusive Philosophy, 5, 154 Fixed-rate debt, floating rate debt versus, interest rate risk and, 117–118
Flat returns, avoiding, 107
Flexibility, 59, 60, 142, 233
  cash outlays and, 36
  enriching debt and, 29
  increased, Five Indebted Strengths and, 8, 9, 149, 154
  increasing, value of liquidity and, 115, 116, 159 taxable and tax-deferred account combinations and, 239
  working debt and, 141
Floating rate debt, fixed-rate debt
  versus, interest rate risk and, 117–118
Forbes magazine, 32, 58
401(k)s, 47, 239
  making correct assumptions about, 143
  minimum distribution requirements and, 76
  4 percent rule, withdrawal rates and, 252–253
Fractional ownership, paying for, 211–212
Franklin, Benjamin, 88
Frazzini, Andrea, 57
Fuller, Buckminster, 179
Fun, 194
Funeral planning, 191–192
Furnishing costs, second homes and, 216
Gallop, Cindy, 151
Gates, Melinda, 7
GDP weightings, for bond weightings, 126
Geometric average, 109
Giving philosophy, general, 163, 164–167 giving and distribution rates, 164–166

giving strategies using debt, 166

giving to your children, 167

Giving while you’re working, benefits of, 163, 167–168

Glide path, 134, 149

defining and explaining, 145

giving strategies using debt and, 166

maintaining 15–35% debt ratio and, 209–210

optimal debt ratio, over time, 144–147, 153

partial retirement/partial income and, 182

when to start, on way to optimal debt ratio, 149–150

Global diversification, 126

Global portfolio, compelling evidence for, 129

Goal-based asset-allocation strategy, 120–121, 155

Goals, risk tolerance and, 90

Gold, 126, 129

Trinity Study comparison:
“traditional way” versus alternative allocation with debt and, 127

U.S. investors dramatically underweight in, 127, 128

Good Debt, Bad Debt—Knowing the Difference Can Save Your Financial Life (Hanson), 21

“Good versus bad” debt camp, 18, 19–20

Grandchildren, funding college savings plans for, 167

Great Depression, 261

Great Recession, investment sales during, 89

Growth:
creating in your life, 197

over-indebted nations and, 128

Guessing, financial planning and, 77

Hamilton, Alexander, 21

Hanson, Jon, 21

Happiness, as inner quality, 196

Happiness curve, 164, 165

Health, 177

Healthcare:
LGBT community and, 198, 200
planning for, 192

Hedge funds, 129

Hedging, economic downturns and, 121

Hei, Rabbi Ben, 88

HELOCs, 276

Herbert, George, 41

Hercules the “Liger,” 62

Herrick, Robert, 88

High-quality debt:
characteristics of, 30
ramping up, 136

High-volatility portfolio with no debt, lower-volatility portfolio with debt preferable to, 97, 105, 108, 130, 152, 153, 251

High-yield bonds, risk and, 128, 275

Historical returns, withdrawal rates and, 261–262

History, lessons from, 121–124

Hobbies, 195

financing, 210

low-cost, nonamortizable methods for financing, 81–82

Holistic:
common usage of word, 33–34 meaning of, 177

Holistic approach:
in debt-inclusive philosophy, 5
to financial planning, 34
for strategic debt strategy in action, 156–159

Holistic retirement planning:
longer retirements and, 37, 152

Steven Covey’s habits of effective people and, 181
Home equity line of credit, 143
Home equity loan, 76
Home loans (mortgages), 276
Homeowners association fees, 214, 215, 217
Homeowner’s insurance, 192 Home(s):
downsizing/moving/building, 212–213
fractional ownership of, 211–212
helping children with purchase of, 220–221 long-term debt against, 211
Hopkins, Jamie, 3
House deductions, for Websters’ scenario, 71
Housing opportunity, securities-based line of credit and, 107
How to Get Out of Debt, Stay Out of Debt, and Live Prosperously (Mundis), 20
Hubbard, Carl, 253
Hybrid borrow-and-sell model, sufficient cash flow in retirement and, 74–75
Hybrid vigor, 74 defined, 62
giving strategies using debt and, 166
Ideal day/week, 195
Identity theft insurance, 192
Impact of financial distress, 7–8 Income. See also Cash flow giving to create, 163, 168–171
incoming money versus, 63–64 IRS definition of, 64
in retirement, power of, 142
Income statement:
Jane Scenario A—No Debt, 230
Jane Scenario B—Strategic Debt Philosophy, 231
Incoming money (during retirement)
partial retirement/partial income, 182–183
resource management and, 45–46
Increased Leverage, capturing the spread and, 55
Indebted Strengths: enriching debt and, 6 four key qualities with, 8, 154
strategic debt and, 5
Industry Tap (Schilling), 179
Inflation, 91
budgeting for retirement and, 46
distribution rates and, 49
over-indebted nations and, 128
projecting, 122
residential real estate and, 216
Trinity Study and, 253
Inflation risk, 122
Inheritance, 188–189, 229
LGBT community and, 199
step-up in basis and, 246, 247
Inner dynamics, 181
meaning, purpose, and pleasure in retirement, 194–196
in retirement “ROI,” 176
roadmap for measuring ROI of retirement and, 178
Inner inventory, questions for, 195–196
Inspections, second homes and, 215
Insurance payments, evaluating, 143
Insurance products, cautionary note on, 277
“Intelligent debt,” 20
Interest expenses, 245
Interest-only financing, 206
Interest-only loans, borrower obligations with, 276
Interest-only mortgages, 80, 157
Interest-rate environments, varying, debt philosophy and, 251–252 Interest rate risk:
bonds and, 274–275
fixed versus floating debt rate and, 117–118
investing with leverage and, 271
Interest rates:
  municipal bonds and fluctuations in, 275
  projecting, 121
Internal Revenue Service, 168, 271
  Required Minimum Distributions penalties and, 237
  Uniform Lifetime Table, 238–239
International bonds, 126, 129, 275
International mortgages, 244
International stocks, 126, 129 Investment decisions:
  asset allocation and, 119–120
  quality of, 119
Investment management fees, 245
Investments:
  cautionary note on, 277
  diversified, six-step approach to, 120–121 IRAs, 68, 239
  deducting investment fees for, 246
  making right assumptions about, 143
  minimum distribution requirements and, 76
  retirement income and Roth IRAs versus, 82–83
  Websters’ fees, professional/detail notes on, 248
Irresolutely “against debt” camp, 18, 20–21
James, William, 176
Japan, over-indebtedness in, problem solving and, 128
Jewelry, buying, 210
Jobs, part-time, 182
Joint Life and Survivor Expectancy Table, 238
Jung, Carl, 3
Junk bonds. See High-yield bonds
Kabiller, David, 57
Kahneman, Daniel, 164
Kidder, T. R., 125
“Knowledge Doubling Curve” (Fuller), 179
Korzybski, Alfred, 176
Land values, second homes, depreciation, and, 214
Langer, Ellen, 193
Legacy, 163–173
  benefits of giving while you’re working, 163, 167–168
  general giving philosophy, 163, 164–167
  giving to create income, 163, 168–171
Legal advisors, consulting with, 273, 274
Legal fees, second homes and, 215
Legal planning, 177, 191–192
  LGBT community and, 199
  Outer Pragmatics Planning Table, 190
Leverage, 60, 142
  enriching debt and, 29
  increased, Five Indebted Strengths and, 8, 9, 55, 149, 154 Leverage ratio:
  risk/return tradeoff and, 108
  Warren Buffett’s strategy and, 57
LGBT community, retirement and ROI considerations for, 197–200 Liability insurance, 192
LIBOR, loans, interest-only, borrower obligations with, 220, 276 Life expectancy:
  calculations of, 38
  goals-based asset-allocation strategy and, 120–121
  holistic retirement planning philosophy and, 37, 152
  increasing, 6, 31–33
Life expectancy (Continued)
LGBT community and, 198, 201
longer retirements and, 177
Social Security approaches and, 49 test running retirement and, 184
in United States, 38
Life insurance, 187
LGBT community and, 199
surrenders, tax liability, and, 276–277 Life planning:
categories within, 193–194
Outer Pragmatics Planning Table, 190
Life purpose, 196
Liger examples:
Alice: $1,250,000 net
worth/$50,000 incoming cash
flow/zero taxes, 240–241
Fred and Joanne: $4,500,000 net
worth/$180,000 incoming cash
flow/zero taxes, 241–243
Randy: $2,300,00 net
worth/$90,000 incoming cash
flow/zero taxes, 243–245
Websters’ scenario analysis, 66–76, 248
“Ligers,” hybrid vigor and, 62 Line of credit. See also Securities-based line of credit bridge loans and, 208–209
credit card debt and, 208
debt refinancing on, 142
giving strategies and, 166
holistic approach to use of, 156, 157, 158
mortgage debt and eligibility for, 231
Liquidation of assets, forced, 117
Liquidity, 59, 60, 142, 155, 270
enriching debt and, 29
flexibility and, 159 increased, Five Indebted Strengths
and, 8, 9, 149, 154
second homes and, 216–217
taxable and tax-deferred account combinations and, 239
valuing, 114–116
working debt and, 141
Liquidity risk, investing with leverage
and, 271
Liquidity trap, 116
Loan Disclosure Statement, asset-based loan facilities and, 273 Loans:
amortization of, 204, 205–207
with fixed interest rates, as form of insurance, 117
Local taxes, real estate and, 216
Local tax exemption, municipal bonds
and, 275
Longer retirements, holistic retirement planning philosophy and, 37, 152 Longevity, 31–33. See also Life expectancy
Long-term care, LGBT community
and, 198
Long-term care insurance, 185–187
“Losing the will to live,” 195
Lower-volatility portfolio with debt,
as better than high-volatility
portfolio with no debt, 97, 105, 108, 130, 152, 153, 251
Luxury cars, buying, 209–210
Major purchases, weighing alternatives
before making, 141, 149 Mansion taxes, second homes
and, 215
Marginalization, LGBT community
and, 197, 198
Margin and securities based lending products, 13
Margin calls, 146, 273
Margin interest, 245
Marriage penalty, LGBT community
and, 199
Matches in retirement plans, taking advantage of, 143
Math, lessons from, 121–124
McCaffery, Edward, 65 Meal preparation, 193
Meaning and purpose, in retirement, 177, 194–196
Media, economic predictions and, 124–125
Median household net worth, American, 23
Medical expenses, Websters’ example and professional/detail notes on, 248
Medical planning, Outer Pragmatics Planning Table, 190, 192
Medicare, 47, 185
Memorial planning, 191–192
Mental activities, examples of, 196
Meta-management, accelerating change and, 177–180
Miller, Henry, 194
Minimum distribution requirements.
See Required Minimum Distributions
Modern Portfolio Theory, 55, 89
Efficient Frontier in, 109
risk/return tradeoff and, 108
Monte Carlo simulations, 262
Monthly payments, required, ABLFs and lack of, 13
Moral hazard, giving to your children and, 167
Morris, William, 161
Mortgage-backed securities, income stream and, 222
Mortgage debt:
eligibility for line of credit and, 231
optimal debt ratio and, 148
Mortgage-free strategy, re-thinking, 138, 141, 155, 211
Mortgage interest:
ABLF interest and, 245
deduction of, 79, 80
Websters’ example, 67, 248
Mortgages, 76, 276
future debt ratio and, 142
interest-only, 80, 157
international, 244
prime rate and, 256
refinancing, 115, 143
reverse, 187–188
as working debt, 29
Mortgage taxes, second homes and, 215
Mundis, Jerrold, 20
Municipal bonds, 123, 128
Nasdaq, 260
National Institute of Aging, 32
Need(s): for debt, 140–141
net worth and, 51
optimal debt ratio glide path and, 146
risk tolerance and, 90, 152, 182
Need-want-have matrix, 139–144, 149
access chart, 139
debt ratio and, 147
Negative returns, 45
Net worth, 59
determining, risk more important than return in, 105, 152 distribution rate and, 53, 157
enriching debt and, 136
future, average rate of return and, 93
major downward move in early retirement and, 124
needs and, 51
risk reduction through debt in retirement and, 105–107
strategic debt and, 23–24
unchanging, based on financing, 230, 233
Websters’ example, 66, 68
Nightingale, Earl, 87
No-down-payment real estate purchase option, 219–220
Non-purpose loans, asset-based loan facilities and, 273
Not on track for retirement, considerations for, 142–143, 153, 182
One hundred percent financing, of second home, 219–220
Open-mindedness, 10–11
Operating costs, second homes and, 215
Opportunity costs, second homes and, 215
Oppressive debt, 23, 28–29, 133, 146, 151, 153, 155
amount of assets held by those with, 135
assets, debt overlay, and, 136
in continuum of debt, 134
evolution of, over time, 136
examples and impact of, 134
not being on track and, 142
opportunity to change course and, 137
ridding yourself of, 31
OPPT. See Outer Pragmatics Planning Table Optimal debt ratio, 7, 155, 209, 210
debt strategies for charitable giving and, 168
first glide path into retirement and, 144–147 gradually moving toward, 147, 153
how early to start glide path to, 149–150 mortgage debt and, 148
Organ donation, 192
Orman, Suze, 19, 20, 21, 29
Outer pragmatics, 181
real world concerns, issues, and details, 189–191
in retirement “ROI,” 176
roadmap for measuring ROI of retirement and, 178
Outer Pragmatics Planning Table, 190
Outside help, navigating through retirement with, 180
Parents, helping, 208–209
Parker, Adam, 124
Partial retirement/partial income, 182–183
Part-time jobs, 182
Payday loans, 29
Payroll taxes, 47
Pedersen, Lasse Heje, 57
Personal guarantees, 184–185
Personal risk tolerance, 88–91
Perspective, increased, Five Indebted Strengths and, 8, 9, 154
Pets and pet trusts/pet protection, LGBT community and, 199–200
Philanthropic considerations, LGBT community and, 200, 201
Physical activities, examples of, 196
Pleasure, in retirement, 194–196
Pledge accounts, 219–220
PMI. See Private mortgage insurance
Portfolio:
author opinions on asset allocation for, 126–130
global, compelling evidence for, 129 stress testing, for range of outcomes, 120, 121, 155
in Websters’ scenario, 67
Portfolio allocation, needs and, 90
Portfolio line of credit, interest payments on money borrowed from, 74–75
Portfolio theory, risk/return tradeoff and, 266
Portfolio value, Trinity Study and, 52–53
Power of Debt™, 105
Prenuptial agreements, LGBT community and, 199, 201
Prepayment risk, municipal bonds and, 275
Primary residence, 192–193, 213
Prime rate, mortgages and, 256
Principal protection, focus on, 143
Private equity, 129
Private mortgage insurance, 221
Proactive approach, 181
Products with guarantees, 143
Professional advisory fees:
   asset-based loan facilities and, 274
   in Websters’ scenario, 67, 248
Pro forma debt-to-asset ratio, 211
Projected yearly budget, creating for retirement, 46
Property taxes:
   second homes and, 215, 217
   in Websters’ scenario, 67
Prospect Theory, 164, 172
Purchase of desired items, principles for, 204–207
Purpose, in retirement, 194–196
Purpose loans, asset-based loan facilities and, 273
Ramsey, Dave, 4, 20, 21, 29
Rate of return, 45, 116, 152
   creating, traditional vs. potentially lower-risk way, 232
   enriching debt and, 29
   future net worth and, 93
   increasing, 54–56, 229–232
   risk equally important as, 94 risk in terms of standard deviation and, 93
   strategic use of debt and, 56–57 targeting relative to cost of debt, 59
   test running retirement and, 184
   Trinity Study and, 54
Real estate, 126, 129, 184–185
   commissions, 216
   no-down-payment purchase option, 219–220
   residential, inflation and, 216
Recreation, 194
Reeve, Christopher, 18
Refinancing:
   debt, 31, 142
   mortgage, 115, 143, 188
Reinvestment risk, bonds and, 275
Relative debt, risks to economies and high levels of, 122
Religious community, retirement and, 194
Remodeling costs, second homes and, 217
Renard, Jules, 27
Rental contracts, 217
Renting, second homes, 217–219
Repairs, rental contracts and, 217
Replacement number, goals-based asset-allocation strategy and, 120–121
Replacement ratio, 45–46
Required Minimum Distributions, 76 defined, 237 from IRAs, 242
   starting age for, 238
   understanding, 237–238
Residency issues, Outer Pragmatics Planning Table and, 190
Residency planning, 192–193
Residential real estate, inflation and, 216
Resource allocation, life insurance and, 187 Resource management, 181 for the long haul, 181–182
   in retirement “ROI,” 176
   roadmap for measuring ROI of retirement and, 178
   strategic debt and, 10
Restaurant business, holistic recipe for success, 35–36
Retirement:
creating projected yearly budget for, 46
death and, 194
delaying, 142
getting beyond ABLF and focusing on, 12–14
LGBT community and, 197–200
not being on track for, things to consider, 142–143 test running, 183–184
value of debt in, 159–160
Retirement home, securities-based line of credit and, 107
Retirement planning, correct numbers needed for, 46–48, 59 Retirement “ROI”:
resources, inner dynamics, and outer pragmatics in, 176
roadmap for measurement of, 178
Retirement savings assets, creditor protection status of, 143 Return: Efficient Frontier, and optimal combination of risk and, 109 right trade-off between risk and, 108 Return on investment, capturing the spread and, 55
Reverse mortgages, 187–188
Reward, risk and, 88
Risk/return tradeoff, 88, 265–268 actual, 267 expected, 266
Risk(s): asset allocation and, 274
bonds and, 274–275
Chinese Pompeii and, 125
debt and reduction of, in retirement, 105–107 debt ratio ramp-ups and, 150
diversification and, 274
Efficient Frontier, and optimal combination of return and, 109
endogenous, 114, 121
as equally important as rate of return, 94
equities and, 275
exogenous, 114, 121
high-yield bonds and, 275
liquidity, flexibility, and, 159
minimizing in investing, six strategies for, 120, 155 multiple, investing with leverage and, 271
in municipal, corporate, and high-yield bonds, 128
municipal bonds and, 275 potential, identification of, 130
reward and, 88
right trade-off between return and, 108
standard deviation and, 182
understanding, 91–94
Risk tolerance, 270 defined, 89
needs and, 90, 152, 182
personal, 88–91
RMDs. See Required Minimum Distributions
Rollover risk, investing with leverage and, 271
Romney family, effective tax rate for, 65
Roth IRAs:
making right assumptions about, 143
no distribution requirements for, 238
retirement income and traditional IRAs versus, 82–83
Rubin, Gretchen, 63
“Rule of thirds,” 47
Russell Sage Foundation, 23
SAGE, 197, 201
Samuelsson, Marcus, 33
Savings, 47, 142
Scenario analysis:
for paying almost no taxes in retirement: more examples, 78–80, 239–245
for ultra-high-net-worth investors, 233–235
in Websters’ example, 64–76
for withdrawal rates in retirement, 255–260
Schilling, David, 179
Schwab, 168
Schwab–Pomerantz, Carrie, 19
Second homes, 193
depreciation of, 214–215
direct or opportunity costs and, 215 fractional ownership programs and, 212
liquidity and, 216–217
no-down-payment purchase option for, 219–220
purchasing: pluses and minuses, 213–217 renting versus buying, 217–219
taxes and operating costs for, 215 up-front transaction costs for, 215–216
utility aspect tied to, 233
Securities-based line of credit, 12–14.
   See also Line of credit
credit card debt and, 208
dream retirement home and, 107 flexibility of terms and, 211 fractional ownership paid for with, 211–212
giving strategies and, 166
optimal debt ratio and, 210
Securities-Based Loans, 274
Self-mastery, 193
Sequence of returns, 106, 152
   in accumulation, 98
   with distributions, 101
importance of, with/without debt, 96
lower volatility portfolio with no debt, 103
lower volatility with no debt in reverse, 104
one million dollars—no distributions, 99
reverse order, 100
understanding importance of, 93–94
withdrawal rates in retirement and, 260
withdrawal reverse order, 102
Seven Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 181
Sharpening the Saw (Covey’s seventh habit), 196–197
Shiller price earnings multiple, 123–124
Short-term gains, missing out on, 130
Sinking funds, 222
Small business loans, as working debt, 29
Small business ventures, 184–185
Social/emotional activities, examples of, 196
Social Security, 47, 185
   benefits, 165
   conservative and aggressive ways to approach, 49
   LGBT community and, 199, 200
   spousal benefits, 49
   strategies and tools for, 48–49, 182
   Websters’ example and professional/detail notes on, 248
Social Security Administration, Life Expectancy Calculator, 38
Social support, 194
“Sometimes it’s OK to have debt” camp, 18, 21–22
S&P 500, 123, 252, 253, 256, 260, 261
Spiritual activities, examples of, 196
Spousal benefits, Social Security and, 49
Standard deviation:
   of portfolio, debt ratio relative to, 108
   risk measured in terms of, 91, 92, 93, 182
Standard of living, maintaining, 193
Standby Letters of Credit, 272
Statement of disclosure and understanding, 270–272
State taxes, 47, 216
State tax exemption, municipal bonds and, 275
Staying effective and informed over time, 180–181
Step-up in basis: defined, 247
strategic debt strategy and, 246, 247
Stock market (U.S.), historic trends in, 123 Stocks:
anualized withdrawal rate as a percent of initial portfolio value, 259
Bengen’s 4 percent rule and, 252–253
borrowing portfolio, withdrawal rates, and, 256, 257
developed international, 126, 129
emerging-market, 126, 128, 129
math and history framework applied to, 122, 123–124
non-borrowing portfolio, withdrawal rates, and, 256, 257
rate of return and, 45
returns with/without debt, 1946–2013, annualized withdrawal rate as of initial portfolio value, 258
Trinity Study, withdrawal rates, and, 52, 253, 254, 255
U.S., 126, 129
Stop Guessing With Your Money theme, 185
Strategic Debt Philosophy, 36, 97
adopting and getting handle on, 138–139 factors to examine in context of, 57–58 four key qualities or Indebted Strengths of, 154 increasing life spans and, 32 ultra-high-net-worth investors who don’t know about, 233–234
Strategic debt strategy, 3, 5, 8
in action, 156–159
average person and, 78–80
avoiding misapplication of, 155
goals tied to, 153
net worth and, 23–24
rate of return and, 56–57
step-up in basis and, 246, 247
wise use of, 182
Stress testing, portfolio, for broad range of outcomes, 120, 121, 155 Student loan debt:
helping kids with, 212
retiring, 58
Super rich, strategies of, 65
Surrenders, life insurance, tax liability, and, 276–277
Survivability, 59, 60, 142
enriching debt and, 29
increased, Five Indebted Strengths and, 8, 9, 149, 154
value of liquidity and, 115, 116
Survival issues, impact of financial distress and, 8 “Sustainable Withdrawal Rates from Your Retirement Portfolio” (Cooley, Hubbard, and Walz), 253.
See also Trinity Study
Synergy, defined, 62
Taft, William Howard, 30
Target date funds, 145
Taxable income, in Websters’ scenario, 68
Taxable investment accounts:
hybrid borrow-and-sell model and, 76
lines of credit set up against, 13
Tax advisors, consulting with, 246, 272, 273, 274, 277
Tax deductible expenses, in Websters’ scenario, 67
Tax deductions, giving while you’re working and, 167–168
Tax–deferred accounts:
Required Minimum Distributions and, 237–238
taxable accounts in combination with, 239 Tax–efficient situations, debt aversion and, 76–77 Taxes: estate planning and, 191
life insurance surrenders and, 276–277
portfolio line of credit and, 74 proper debt strategy and near-elimination of, 68–75, 152, 158, 239, 240, 242, 244 rental contracts and, 217
in retirement, 47
Roth IRA versus traditional IRA and, 82–83
second homes and, 215
Tax laws, complexity of, 84, 246, 274
Tax loopholes, 73
Tax penalties, 274
Taylor, Candace, 219
T bills, annualized withdrawal rate as a percent of initial portfolio value, 259
Time horizon, 270
Title insurance, second homes and, 215
Titling of assets, 191
“Top–down” approach, retirement calculations and, 47
Total assets, enriching debt and, 136
Total Money Makeover (Ramsey), 20
Total taxable income before deductions, in Websters’ scenario, 71
Tracing rules, 245
Transaction costs, up–front, second homes and, 215–216
Transportation, 193
Travel, 194
Treasury Bills, 253
Trinity Study:
comparison: “traditional way” versus an alternative allocation with gold and debt, 127
giving and, 166
inflation addressed by, 253
main objective of, 253 stock and bond portfolio and, summary of, 52–53 unfortunate timing of, 260–262 updated version of summary table, 106
withdrawal rates in retirement and, 253–255
Trusts, 191
TurboTax TaxCaster tool (Intuit), 76, 246
donations for the Websters, 72
final estimated taxes due for the Websters, 73 house deductions for the Websters, 71 income tax estimate for the Websters, 70
other deductions for the Websters, 72
other Liger examples and, 240–245 personal information for the Websters, 69 tax deductions for the Websters, 69–70
total taxable income before deductions for the Websters, 71 Ultra–high–net–worth investors:
lower yield with levered portfolio and return for, 234
Strategic Debt Philosophy and, 232 two scenarios compared for, 235 without a debt strategy, 233–234
Umbrella policy insurance, 192
Uncertainty, 114
Uniform Lifetime Table (IRS), 238–239
United States:
  over-indebtedness in, problem solving and, 128
  percentage of world economy comprised by, 121
United States Department of the Treasury, 271
U.S. bonds, 126, 129
U.S. stocks, 126, 129
U.S. Tax Code, 64
U.S.-centric portfolios, projected returns in, 126

Vacation homes, 193
Vacations, paying for, 210
Valuations, expected returns and, 120, 155
Value of Debt®, 105
Value of portfolio, ABLFs and risk with, 13
Vanguard, 168
Variance, 91
Volatility, 89
  of asset portfolio, debt-to-asset ratio and, 146
  high-yield bonds and, 275
  income from portfolio and, 55–56 international bonds and, 275
  standard deviation and, 91
Volatility risk, investing with leverage and, 271
Volunteering, 196

WACC. See Weighted average cost of capital
Wall Street Journal, 48
Walz, Daniel, 253
Wanting debt, questioning yourself about, 140, 141
Want-need-have matrix, 139

Wants, optimal debt ratio glide path and, 146
Watts, Allen, 175
Wealth amplification, enriching debt and, 135
WealthManagement.Com, 4
Wealth managers, finding and working with, 11
Wealth-transfer planning, 191
Wealth transition, 191
Websters’ scenario and strategic debt strategy, 64–76
balance sheet, 66 donations, 72
final estimated taxes due, 73
generation of sufficient cash flow in retirement, 74–76 house deductions, 71 income tax estimate, 70
other deductions, 72
other income, 70
personal information, 69
portfolio, 67–68
professional/detail notes on, 248
taxable income, 68
tax-deductible expenses, 67, 69–70
total taxable income before deductions, 71
Weighted average cost of capital, 215
Weimer Republic, Germany, 119
“Well-diversified” portfolios, correlation and, 126
Wellness, 177
“Whole chicken” approach, to successful retirement, 33–35
Wills, 191
Winner’s Circle, The: Asset Allocation from America’s Best Financial Advisors, 89 Withdrawal rates in retirement, 251–264 annualized return rate as a percent of initial portfolio value, 259 borrowing portfolio, survivability, and, 259–260 borrowing portfolios have higher success rate in every portfolio allocation, 259 borrowing portfolio withdrawal equation, 256, 257 debt ratios and, 257–258 4 percent rule and, 252–253
historical returns and, 260–262
methodology for study on, 255–257
non-borrowing portfolio withdrawal equation, 256, 257
portfolio success rate with inflation-adjusted monthly withdrawals: 1926 to 1997, 254
portfolio success rate with inflation-adjusted monthly withdrawals: 1946 to 1997, 255
returns with/without debt, 1946–2013, 258
Trinity Study: unfortunate timing and, 260–262
Trinity Study results, 53, 253–260
Trinity Study summary: 50 percent stock/50 percent bond portfolio, 52–53
Wooden, John, 161
Working, giving during years of, benefits of, 167–168
Working debt, 28, 29, 133, 151, 153, 155
amount of assets held by those with, 135
assets, debt overlay, and, 136
in continuum of debt, 134
evolution of, over time, 136
diverse examples and impact of, 134 need-want-have matrix and, 139
opportunity to change course and, 137
retirement and difficulty in acquiring, 141
World economy, United States as percentage of, 121
World-neutral view, of asset allocation, 120, 121, 126, 153, 155
Yield to maturity, bonds’ future returns and, 123
Zelinski, Ernie J., 45
Zuckerberg, Mark, 65, 88