Index

Note: For brevity, subentries referring to “psychotherapy” imply psychodynamic psychotherapy unless otherwise mentioned.

AADPRT Milestones Assessment Tool (A-MAP) 379 abandonment 53, 164, 196, 267 abortion 167
abreaction 9
abscess analogy 9 abuse 11, 57, 105, 256, 320 acting in (defense) 223 acting out (defense) 33, 223, 280, 321 active listening 129–131, 135–137 adapting (to stress) (domain of function) 5, 11, 28, 64, 320
assessment of 30–31, 36 defenses see defenses (defense mechanisms) 31
definition of 30
difficulties with 31, 58, 321
improved, goal for ending therapy 353 sample initial formulation, in 52 techniques for improving 319–326 recognizing problem 321–322 supporting strategies 322–324
uncovering strategies 322, 324–325
see also coping mechanisms; defenses; stress adaptive defenses/behaviors, reinforcing 274, 315, 323 addiction 146–147
see also substance abuse advising (supplying intervention) 182, 275, 315, 323 affect(s) 160, 205–217 behavior, and 208
changing during a session 208 choice for focusing on 206, 210 conscious 205
decreased, lasting change phase 347 defended, focus on 210
denial of 280
disorders associated with 205 dominant 205, 207, 209, 214, 226, 269, 271–272, 296, 298, 355
ending phase and 352, 357–358, 363
excessive or superficial 209 expressing, open-ended questions and following (choosing principle) 162, 241–241
see also reflecting impaired regulation of 211 importance of 205–207
isolation of (defense) 34, 44, 274, 321 labeling 207
lessening/containing 212–213
listening for 202, 208–209, 344
in dream story 284
in unconscious conflicts 270, 272, 274 managing 206
missing, confrontation on 214 negative 60–61, 205, 215 repression of 33–34, 35 suggested activity and 216 techniques for working with 207–216
intervening 210–216
basic interventions 210–211
supporting interventions 211–213 uncovering interventions 214–216
clarification 215

© 2017 John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. Published 2017 by John Wiley & Sons, Ltd.
INDEX

affect(s) (continued)
   confrontation 215
   interpretation 215
   listening see affect(s), listening for reflecting 209–210
   transference related to 237–238
   unconscious 205, 210
   understanding 206, 212, 213
see also emotion(s); feelings affective dominance, principle of 205, 207 aggression 138, 140 towards therapists 122, 140–141 aging, concerns about 77–78, 79 attribution 118
   “a-ha” moment 10, 161
alcohol 50, 78, 105, 136
   binge drinking 78, 105, 195
   altruism (defense) 36, 274 ambient listening 153, 154–155, 156–157, 158, 190, 202, 284 ambivalence, about sessions 138 anger 12, 36, 52, 64, 275, 297–298, 324, 334, 337, 345
countertransference 254–265 management 337
   persistent 60–61
   projecting 275
   towards therapist 83, 133, 216, 237, 250 anniversary reaction 34, 141, 143, 144, 181 anorexia nervosa 57
antidepressants 143, 148
antisocial personality traits 132 anxiety 5, 10, 18, 38, 50, 136, 147, 149
   assessment phase, in 16, 18, 22, 49
   countertransference and 259, 260, 262 decreased in, lasting change phase 347 defenses against 31
   dreams and 271
   following the affect and 162 free association causing 220 increasing awareness of (insight) 344 indication for psychotherapy 57, 58 interpersonal difficulties causing 60
   listening for 270, 346
   managing 10, 211
   primary gain, decreases 266, 268–269 separations and 62 tolerance/regulation 39, 196
   unconscious conflicts and 267, 268, 270, 276 anxiety disorders 21, 58, 330
indication for psychotherapy 62, 64
apologizing 246, 316
assessment (of)
   current state of functioning 163–164 domains of function see domains of function ethical judgment 22
   learning in psychodynamic psychotherapy 370, 381, Microprocess Moment, template for 382 phase of treatment (readiness principle) 163 psychological mindedness 23–24
   reflective capacity 22–23, 25, 26 resources and social matrix 24
   self-perception 301, 302
   therapeutic relationship 23, 165 assessment phase 16, 18, 22, 49, 220 beginning an assessment 20 chief complaint and symptoms 18, 21 conducting an assessment 20–26
   definition of 16
   elements of 20–25
   framework for 20–21
   goals of 15 initial formulation and see formulation, initial motivation for treatment and 24 problem prioritization in 24 safe place in see safe place suggested activity 25–26 treatment decisions and 6, 118 trial interpretations during 23 avoiding interventions see supporting interventions, assisting type avoiding interventions 212 avoiding topics 164, 281 average 4, 5, 10
   conflicts out of (being stuck) 59–60 of feelings 262
   increase in (insight) 344, 346 increasing, and practicing 346–347 judgment and 38
   lack, of countertransference 257–258 limited (phase of working through) 345–346 of patient’s current functioning 163–164 of transference 239, 241 of unconscious thoughts see making the unconscious conscious basic interventions see intervening/intervention because schematic of interpretation 192–193, 278, 279 beginning a session see sessions beginning phase of treatment 69–149, 173, 202, 385–387 frame and boundaries see boundaries; frame (of psychotherapy) goals 69
informed consent 71–76
technical neutrality see technical neutrality therapeutic alliance see therapeutic alliance see also countertransference; sessions; transference behavior 5, 10, 22, 38, 49, 61, 90, 208 acting in 223
acting out 33, 223, 280, 321, 325 anxious, listening for 270, 347 looking for meaning in 138–141, 209 talking to patients about, transference and 245–246 binge drinking 78, 105, 195
binge eating 5–6, 333 “biological problem” 145 bipolar disorder 75, 127, 330
books on psychotherapy 109 borderline personality disorder 42, 57, 333 boredom 125, 135, 223, 255, 259 264 “borrowing” function from therapists 11 boundaries 90–91, 362 crossing 80, 90–92, 107
benign 90
definition of 80, 90
setting, assessment phase 20
suggested activity about 91–92 violation of 91–92, see also frame (of psychotherapy) brain function, changes in 12 breaking things into manageable parts (supporting intervention, supplying type) 183 breaks, in free association 221 budget 86
bypassing, supportively see supportively bypassing calls for associations 174, 228, 273 calm, remaining (supportive intervention, supplying type) 180, 184, 206, 211, 215, 248 cancer 105, 164, 178, 261 capacities, reminding patients of 179 cell-phones 87 chairs, positioning 19 changes/changing difficulties making 94, 345 realization of 349 resistance to 224, 350
“check-ups” 358
chief complaint, assessing 17, 18, 20–21 childhood
defenses in 31, 320
dyadic and triadic relationships in 238 splitting in (defenses) 31 talking about, “PEPPER” 385, 386 transference related to past relationships 237–238 unconscious forces in 4 wishes persisting from 270 child-like talking 158 child-like wants/fears 269 choosing principles see reflecting choosing psychodynamic psychotherapy 57–58 clarification (uncovering intervention) 190, 191–192, 198
definition of 191
used for working with
affect management 205
defense analysis 279
dreams 292–294
impaired judgment, impulse control 335–336 impaired reality testing 333
improving cognitive functions 327
improving relationships with others 311
resistance 229–230, 231, 232 self-perception distortions 308
transference 249, 251–252
unconscious conflicts 276
unconscious fantasies 277
working through 349
clarity, points of, listening in dream story 285 closed-ended questions 21, 172–173 closure 357
clothing, looking for meaning 139 cocaine 57, 136, 195 cognition (domain of function) 11, 28, 37–40
assessment of 37–40
questions for assessing 40
in sample initial formulation 52, 55 see also specific aspects (as per page 37) cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) 47 cognitive functions 327–340 blocked 327, 329, 332–333 capacity for 327–328 conflict vs deficit 327–328 decision making 39
development of, impaired 330 general 37–38, 40
goal of psychotherapy 327, 329 impaired/problems with global vs selective 329 longstanding vs recent 329–330 psychiatric symptom association 330 recognizing 329–330
unconscious factors causing 327–328 improving 327–340
impulse control 38
judgment 38
managing emotions 39
organizing 39
problem solving 39
psychological mindedness 38
reflective capacity see reflective capacity sensory stimulus regulation 39 techniques to improve 330–339 supporting strategies 328, 330, uncovering strategies 330
types 37
collaborating (supporting intervention, assisting type) 185–188
used for working with
improving adapting to stress 323, 324
improving relationships with others 311 improving self-perception 301
working through 349
collaborative goal-setting 73–76 collaborative treatment 148 combined therapy 147–148
suggested activity about 149 vs split treatment 147–149 common factors 8–9, 69, 70, 376
collaborative goal-setting 9, 73 explaining rationale for treatment 9, 73 positive expectations about treatment 8, 97–98 role preparation 9, 83, 84 talking about feelings 207, 386 therapeutic alliance 8, 94, 95
competitiveness 35
complementary countertransference 256–257, 259 complexes 267–269
definition of 266, 267
see also unconscious fantasies concordant countertransference 256, 257, 261, 263
condensation, dreams 287 confidentiality assurance of 19 concerns, trust problems 99 emails and 87
frame setting and 89 conflict(s) 263
vs deficit 327 interpersonal 136–137
indication for psychotherapy (example) 65
initial formulation (example) 52, 53
listening for 202
unconscious, indication for
psychotherapy 59–60
see also unconscious conflicts confrontation (uncovering intervention) 190, 191, 198
definition of 191
used for working with 213, 337
affect management 213, 337
countertransference 262, 265
defense analysis 279
dreams 292–294
impaired judgment, impulse control 336–337
improving adapting to stress 319–325, 324
improving cognitive functions 327, 332, 338, 339
improving relationships with others 317, 318, 325 limited awareness of problem 345
reflective capacity 331–332
resistance of 229, 230, 231, 232, 264, 292, 293, 355
self-perception, distortions 310
transference 215, 248, 250, 251–252, 262
unconscious conflicts 276, 278–279
unconscious fantasies 277
working through 349
INDEX

conscience see ethical judgment conscious control 10 conscious mind, secondary process 10 conscious thoughts/feelings affected by the unconscious 4, 9 leading to unconscious thoughts 219 see also making the unconscious conscious consequences, jointly thinking through (assisting intervention) 187, 196, 316, 324, 335 consolidation of gains 360 contact information (for therapist) 86–87 contacting therapist, initial 97 continuous learning see learning conversion 321

coping mechanisms 31, 319–320 conscious/unconscious aspects of 319–320 maladaptive 320–321, 330
recognizing 321–322
supportive interventions and 322, 323–324 unconscious see defenses see also adapting (to stress) (domain of function); defenses core fantasy 277–278
costs of treatment 73, 76, 86
see also fee(s)
countertransference 126–128, 162, 254–265, 296–298
acknowledging 255 affection defended against 210
anger 255, 256, 259, 260
anxiety 259, 260, 262
attend to (choosing principle) 162, 260, 263
see also reflecting
complementary 256–257, 259, 265 concordant 256, 257, 259, 262, 264
definition of 254–255
disclosure of 260–261, 262 enactment 254, 257–258, 265
see also enactment ending therapy, about 354, 356, 362 importance of 254, 255–256, 260 informing therapy choice 263 lack of awareness of 257–258 lasting change phase, in 347 loss/mourning issues 354 parallel process 254, 257, 263 positive aspects of 255–256, 258
resistance to 260
sudden reaction 259
suggested activities about 127–128, 264–265
supervision and see supervision techniques for working with 258–263
intervening 260–263
supporting techniques 260–261, 263 uncovering techniques 261, 262–263
confrontation 262
listening 202, 241, 258–259, 346
reflecting 259–260, 347
telling patients about feelings 260–261
transference and 241
types of 255, 256–257
understanding 255
countertransference and 255, 322

crises
changing frame for 89–90 frequency of sessions during 115–116 curriculum see teaching psychodynamic psychotherapy dangerous patients 104–105, 321

day residue 283, 284
death, anniversary of 34, 143, 144, 145, 181
decision making 10, 22, 39, 185
about ending therapy 353–357
difficulties with 28, 118
questions to assess 40
strategies to improve 338–339
defense analysis 276, 279–280
defenses (defense mechanisms) 27, 31–37, 273, 274
childhood 31, 320
definition of 27, 31, 319, 323 “high-cost” 32, 276
identification, unconscious conflicts and 274–275 increase in, implication for intervening 170 interpreting 307–308
learning from patients and 372 less adaptive 31–33, 37, 323
maladaptive 31, 32, 33, 320–321
recognizing/symptoms 321–322 suggesting alternatives 228, 274, 276, 315
supporting interventions 322, 323–324
uncovering interventions 322, 324–325 manifested in therapy as (resistance) 221–222 more adaptive 33–36, 37, 274, 323 defenses (defense mechanisms) (continued) most adaptive 36, 37, 274 patients' feelings about therapists and 121–122 psychiatric disorders and 333 relationships impeded by 320 repression-based 31, 33–36, 58 rigid 321
self-destructive 321
self-perception and 307–308, 321 splitting-based see splitting-based defenses
suggested activity about 43–44
table of 37
techniques for working with 280
intervening
supporting interventions 180, 274–275, 280, 281, 315, 322, 323–324 supporting vs uncovering techniques 280
uncovering interventions 276, 280, 281, 322, 325–326
interpretation 276, 279–280
listening 271
reflecting 272–273
unconscious 31, 276
unconscious conflicts and 266, 268, 270, 272, 274
see also coping mechanisms defensiveness 232, 273
definitions
psychodynamic psychotherapy xx, 3–4, 7, 385, 386 psychodynamics 3–4
psychotherapy 3
déjà vu 38
dementia 166
denial (defense) 32, 35, 280, 325, 333 denial of illness 105 dependency, feelings of 268–269, 280 depersonalization 38 depression 19, 29, 31, 38, 136, 142, 144, 148, 294, 302
acute 58
collaborative goal-setting in 73–76, 78 increasing awareness of 346 indication for psychotherapy 57
recurrent 143, 145
derealization 38
describing (in psychodynamic formulation) 47, 48–50, 64 person 49, 50, 52, 55, 58, 63, 164 problem 49–50, 52, 55, 58 despair 215
details/nuances, understanding 129–130 devaluation, pathological (defense) 32, 122, 274, 321 developmental history 21, 28, 59 genetic interpretation and 193 indications for psychotherapy and 58–59 indicator of unconscious factors 60, 279 reconstruction of 194 relationship with others and 312–313 review of (for psychodynamic formulation) 50–51 developmental model 58–59 developmental phases 51
diagnoses 20–21
DSM 21, 57, 58
digital communication, between patient and therapist 87 directions (basic intervention) 171–172, 190 discouraging (supporting intervention, supplying type) 180, 323 displaced transference 238–239, 240, 242–243, 248, 250, 251 displacement (defense) 34, 274, 284 in dreams 287, 288, 289 dissociation (defense) 32, 320 divine explanation of dreams 285 DNA, methylation 12
domains of function 10–11, 22, 27–46, 50
acute difficulties in 61–62
assessment of 20, 22, 27–46
guide to therapeutic strategy 63
importance of 41–42
“building”, through therapy 185–189 describing 48–49, 50, 52, 55, 58, 63, 164 description of/list 11, 27, 28 development/origin of 27–28 ever-changing patterns of 42–43 indications for psychotherapy and 58
mosaic function of 42 persistent difficulties in 61, 62 sample initial formulation of 52, 55 strengths and difficulties in 42
suggested activities about 43–45
weak 42, 61–62
dreams and 291
supporting interventions for 10–11, 177, 178–185 see also adapting; cognition; relationships; self; work and play dominant affect see affect(s)
dominant affect see affect(s)
dream(s) 10, 162, 171, 202, 283–294, 366
  anxiety 271
associations to 284–286 common themes of 288–289 countertransference and supervision 371–372
day residue 283
definition of 283
divinely produced 285 dominant theme 285, 286 dream story 284
dream work 283
ending phase 355, 359
Freud, Sigmund and 283 importance/role 283, 289 Interpretation of Dreams 283 latent dream 283
manifest dream 284
meaning of 283, 285, 289, 290 mood and affect in 285 primary process in 287–288 condensation 287
  displacement 287
  symbolization 288
self-perception in 288–289
suggested activity about 294
talking about, “PEPPER” 385
techniques for working with 284–294
  intervening 289–294
    basic interventions 289–290
    psychoeducation 289–290
    supporting interventions 283, 290–291
  uncovering interventions 283, 291–294, 309
    clarification 292–294
    confrontation 230, 292–294
    interpretation 283, 284, 285, 289–290, 292–294
listening 271, 284–287, 357
  reflecting 287–289
dream associations 283, 284, 290, 292
  listening to 285–286, 289
dream interpretation 283 dream story 283, 284, 289, 291
  listening to 284–285
  reflecting 287, 288
dream work 283, 284
DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders)
diagnoses 21, 57, 58
  phenomenological approach 143–144 duration of sessions 84–85, 90, 115 duration of treatment 72, 76, 116, 386 of ending phase 353–354, 357 dyadic transference 238, 251–252 dysthymia 50, 57
eating disorders 256 eating/drinking in session 139 editing thoughts 219, 220 educational resource 12, 385–387 educators, guide for 375–382 go 27, 104
ego functions 27–28
  see also domains of function go-ideal 29
e-mails 87
emergency procedures 87, 88 contacting therapists, for 86–87 extending assessment session 118 emotion(s)
  absence of 207–208
  disconnectedness from 215 empathizing with 209 expression, decrease in 209
  managing 39, 41
    difficulties in 62
    questions to assess 40
    therapeutic strategies for 330 naming 179, 184, 212
  overwhelming 62, 212
  response of therapists to patients’ 125–126, 127–128, 135–136 see also affect(s); feelings “emotional coldness” 107 emotional conflict 31 emotional deprivation 12 emotional development, reactivating 11–12, 305, 318 emotional state, negative, persistent 60–61 empathic failure, identification of 307 empathic listening 129–137, 144, 174–175 active listening, learning 129–131, 135–136 assessment phase, in 18, 20, 22 challenges/barriers to 131–135 choice of treatment approach and 145
  definition of 129
  for improving relationships with others 311 reflecting statements and 130,
suggested activity about 135–137
empathic remarks (basic intervention) 173–174, 273 empathy/empathizing 6, 181 ability to empathize 30, 256 enactment 254, 257–258, 262, 265
benign 257
understanding 257–258
encouragement, to continue therapy 353 encouraging (supporting intervention, supplying type) 177, 184, 211, 213 improving self-esteem 370
working through 343
ending phase, of therapy 352–363 affects in 353, 354, bilateral/unilateral endings 357 coming to terms with 358–359 context 354
decision making about 353–357 difficulties and emotions about 352 dreams about 354, 359
duration of 357
goals of 353, 360
mourning during 357, 358–359, 362 planning for 357
regression during 346, 357–358, 362 replacement relationships during 359 resistance during 353–354, 355 review of treatment during 360 staying vs leaving treatment 356–357
suggested activities about 376
supervision 362
tapering visits during 361 techniques for 355–357, 357–362 choreographing last sessions 361–362
intervening 355, 359–362
supporting 361
listening 355, 357–359, 362
reflecting 355, 359, 362
treatment phase/duration and 353–354 end of session (closing) 111, 114, 117–118
listening for transference 239
saying goodbye 113
environment of safety, creating 18–20 envy 5, 6, 31, 103, 215, 279, 293 epigenetics, changes 12 eroticized transference 237 erotic transference 147, 237, 381 ethical judgment (conscience) 22, 38, 39, 337
assessment of 22, 40
“evenly hovering attention” 222 evidence-based treatment 57 excessive emotionality (defense) 35, 321 excitement 347, 354 executive functions 37, 327 expectations positive, demonstrating 8, 97–98 relationships with others, of 30, 58, 312–313 experience(s) linking with feelings 206
naming 179, 196, 212
putting into words 179, 212 explicitly joining (supporting intervention, supplying type) 181, 213, 275, 323, 334, 338 exploratory psychotherapy 6 expressive psychotherapy 6 externalization (defense) 35, 345–346 external stress 30–31, 319 facial expressions 96, 155 “false front” 304
fantasies 29, 30, 32, 202 reality testing and 38
talking about, “PEPPER” 385
unconscious see unconscious fantasies FAQs (frequently asked questions) 12, 386–387 fears child-like 269
increasing awareness of 346
reason for resistance 225 unconscious fantasies and 267, 268, 269, 272 fees
costs of treatment 73, 76, 86
frame setting 80–81 missed sessions, for 309 non-payment 106, 140
payment 86, 91, 328 sliding scales 86
feedback 75
feelings
absence of 207–208
defenses impeding ability to experience 321
enacting, acting out (defense) 33, 223, 280, 321 experiences, difficulties linking to 206 experiencing, difficulties in 206 expressing, helping to 207
INDEX
goals (continued)
  changing during treatment 76, 101 collaborative setting of 8, 73–76 domains of function improved by 64
  ending phase and 353
  general and specific 75 setting, formulating as key to 53 short/long-term 63–64, 74, 78, 79, 116
  suggested activity about 77–79
  see also specific goals (as per page 299) goal setting, joint (supporting intervention, assisting type) 186, 213
  grandiose self-perception 303, 333 gratification 224, 274 “average expectable” of therapist 107 capacity to delay 39
  medication as 146
  grief 53, 61, 168
  “ground rules” see frame (of psychotherapy) growth, reactivating development and 11–12, 305, 318
  guiding (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182
guilt 5, 39, 212, 214, 263, overly harsh conscience 38 reason for resistance 224–225 reducing, soothing 180, 181, 212, 307 habitual ways of thinking/behaving 7, 224, 343 harm to others, reasons for non-neutral stance 103

hidden stories, listening for 269 histones 12
history developmental/personal 21, 51 difficulty in remembering 51 past, of symptoms 21 present illness, of 21
  holding attitude 176
  holding environment 18, 108, 212 holding function, of psychotherapy 248 hopelessness 217 humiliation 237 humor 36, 164
  hypochondria 174
  hypotheses 47, 193
  see also formulation, initial id 27, 104
  idealization, of therapist 237 idealization, pathological (defense) 32, 37 ideals, for ourselves 29 identification (defense) 32, 35, 44 identity, sense of 29, 32 impulse control 10, 38–39, 41
  poor 39, 335–337
  indication for psychotherapy 62
  protecting (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182
  questions to assess 40
  therapeutic strategies to improve 335–337
  incongruous behavior/talk 140 confrontation of 278–280, 308, 317, 322–323
  see also confrontation
  listening for 155–156, 208, 270–271 inconsistent attitudes/feelings 38 independence, feelings, increased 353 indications for long-term treatment 116
  phenomenological approach 142–144,
  psychodynamic psychotherapy 21, 57–65
  suggested activity about 65
  supporting technique see supporting uncovering technique see uncovering interventions/techniques information for patients 173, 196
information from patient 172 informed consent for psychotherapy 12, 71–73, 76–77
  comprehensive 72
  example 72–73, 76–77
  minimum 71
  psychoeducation for, the “PEPPER” 385–386
  suggested activity about 76–77
  initial formulation see formulation, initial inpatients, beginning phase of session 116 inquiry, joint (supporting intervention, supplying type) 186, 306, 324, 338 insight 343, 344, 346, 348 insight-oriented psychotherapy 344 insomnia 5, 6, 54, 143, 149, 227, 264, 268 inspiring (supporting intervention, supplying type) 178
  instructing (supporting intervention, assisting type) 185
  intellectualization (defense) 34, 321 intelligence 37
interest, demonstrating 19, 95, 123, 172, 181, 333 internal stress 30 interpersonal conflict 52, 53, 58, 60 see also relationships with others interpersonal difficulties 311–312 interpretation(s) (uncovering intervention) 21, 171, 174, 190, 192–193, 198 “because schematic” 192–193, 198, 278, 279
definition of 190, 192
dreams, of see dreams genetic 193, 216, 231, 308, 317 trial 23
uncovering intervention 190, 192–193, 198
used for working with adapting to stress, improving 325–326
affect 215, 217
cognitive function, improving 330
defense analysis 279
dreams see dream(s)
judgment and impulse control 335–337
reality testing 334
reflective capacity improvement 331–335 relationships with others, improving 316–318
resistance 230–231, 232
self-esteem management 305
self-perception, distortions 310
transference 242, 243, 245, 249–252, 317–318, 355
unconscious conflicts 276–280
unconscious fantasies 276–277
working through 350
interpretative psychotherapy 6 interpreting up (supporting intervention, supplying type) 179, 212, 247, 291, 337, 338 intervening/intervention 151–152, 169–198
basic interventions 169, 171–175, 190, 227
calls for associations 174, 228
directions and psychoeducation 171–172, empathic remarks 173–174
information for patients 174, 196
questions 172, 190, 196
reflective statements 174 silence 175
table of 175
determining success of 170 ending phase of therapy, in 368
non-verbal 170
repeating, working through 348
suggested activities about 195–198
supporting interventions see supporting types 169 uncovering interventions see uncovering interventions/techniques
working through 343–351
intra-psychic conflicts 266, 267
see also unconscious conflicts
introductions, beginning of session 155 isolation of affect (defense) 34, 44, 265, 274, 321 jealousy 35
joint goal setting (supporting intervention, assisting type) 186, 213 joint inquiry (supporting intervention, assisting type) 186, 306, 324, 338 jointly exploring alternative ways of thinking/acting (supporting intervention, assisting type) 186, 189, 316 jointly organizing/structuring (supporting intervention, assisting type) 188 jointly problem solving (supporting intervention, assisting type) 187, 196 jointly thinking through consequences (supporting intervention, assisting type) 187, 316, 335 jointly working on projects (supporting intervention, assisting type) 188 joint problem solving (supporting intervention, assisting type) 335, joint reality testing (supporting intervention, assisting type) 187, 189, 198, 306
dreams and 291, 292
self-esteem management 305
transference, in 247
Joseph’s interpretation of Pharaoh’s dream 285 judgment 38–39, 335
impaired 335–337
questions to assess 40
therapeutic strategies to improve 335–337
Kandel, Eric xix
language 37
lasting change see under working through lateness for session 82–83, 133, 139, 141, 196, 256 resistance manifesting as 221–222, 226, 231, 271 transference and 236, 243, 246
latent dream 283
learning continuing, for therapists 370–373 from patients 372
from supervisors 370–372, 377 from yourself 373 curriculum materials see teaching
psychodynamic psychotherapy “flipped classroom” model 376 objectives
advanced learners 381
beginner learners 378
intermediate learners 379–380
for patients see psychoeducation proactive 371
see also teaching psychodynamic
psychotherapy
leave-taking 362, 363
life choices, confusion over 48–49 limbic system 28
limit-setting (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182 linking (initial formulation construction) 51–52, 53, 56, 164
listening 129, 151–152, 202
active 129–131, 135–136 ambient/filtered/focused 153, 154–155, 156–157, 157–158, 202, 284 content to listen for 157, 202, 205, 239–240 demonstrating 95
different ways of 157 empathic see empathic listening ending phase, in 355, 357–359, 362 how we listen 153–154 learning to listen 153–158 reflecting after 160, 166, 167 supporting activity about 157–158 types/modes of 154–155
what we listen for 155–157, 222
listening for affect see affect(s), listening for anxiety 270, 346, 347
associations 345
connections 156–157, 286–287
countertransference 202, 241, 258–259, 346, 347
defenses 271
dominant affect 205, 206, 207–209, 271
dreams 271, 284–287, 289, 355
externalization 345–346 free association 222–223 hidden stories 269 important elements 201, 202, 205 incongruous behavior/talk 278
limited awareness 345–346 limited capacity to associate 345 meaning 139–140, 209
negation and double negatives 156
nodal points 156–157, 286–287 “off-the-cuff” remarks 239–240 passive voice 156 patterns and repetitive elements 155–156, 346 quality of speech (pace, volume, pitch, timbre) 155 resistance 222, 223, 271, 345
silence 155, 271
slips of tongue (parapraxes) 156, 191, 271
transference 202, 239–241, 251
unconscious conflict 266, 269–271
unconscious fantasies 266, 269–270 words, pace volume, pitch and timbre 155
working through 344–347 location, for sessions 85, 109 loneliness 312, 320 loss 224, 354, 358–359, 363 “Macroprocess summary” 365–369, major depressive disorder (MDD) 57, making the unconscious conscious 8–9, 12, 13, 220, 283, 386 reasons for therapeutic effect 9–10 see also uncovering interventions/techniques maladaptive thoughts/behavior 4, 9, 60, 274
see also coping mechanisms
manifest dream 283–284
masochistic relationship 106
meaning
of behavior 138–139, 140, 209
listening for 139–140, 208
suggested activity about 141–142 talking about with patients 140–141 mechanisms of psychodynamic
psychotherapy 8–13
INDEX  413

medical illness  61–62 medication  24, 143–149, 387
addiction  147
checks, ending phase  358 combined/split treatment  148–149, 70 depression  74, 100–101, 149
indications for  144
information about (basic intervention)  173 meanings of  146–147
prescribing by therapist  146–147, 148–149 side effects  145, 148 memories  9
consolidation of, dreams and  284 exploring, transference as gateway  234–235 loss of, dissociation (defense) and  32 mental development, reactivating  11–12, 305, 318 mental energy, defenses using  320 mental health  41
mentalization  30, 188, 236
countertransference and  261, 263, 265
difficulties with  261
encouraging (supporting intervention, assisting type)  188, 196–197, 243, 247–248, 265
improving relationships with others  315–316
transference and  243, 244, 246, 247–248, 252
methylation of histones  12 Microprocess Moment  296–298, 380 assessment, template  384 middle phase  163, 341, 360, 363 mind, Freud’s model  27–28 mind control, medication viewed as  146 mind in motion, psychodynamics  3–4 mind reading  277, 278 misconceptions of psychodynamic psychotherapy  242 missed appointments  89, 138, 139, 141, 296–298, 309, 367
transference and  245
modeling (supporting intervention, assisting type)  185, 315–316 mood, listening for in dream story  285 mood disorders  21, 62, 64, 330 bipolar disorder  75, 127, 330
mood swings  211
mosaics (people as)  27, 42 motivating (supporting intervention, supplying type)  178 motivation for treatment  24 motivation for understanding, lack  62 mourning issues, ending phase  357, 358–359, 362, 363 naming, emotions/experiences (supporting intervention, supplying type)  179, 196, 212 narratives  12
constructing  194
dreams as  286
personal  21, 194
negation and double negatives  156 negative affect see affect(s) negative emotional states, persistent  60–61 negative feelings about therapy  99 negative transference  236, 237, 246, 252, 258 neglect  11, 12
neural science  xix–xx neurobiology  34, 28
neuroimaging  12
neuroplasticity  12
neutrality see technical neutrality
nodal points  156
listening for  156–157, 286–287
non-judgmental stance  18–19, 123, 136, 142 non-payment, fees  86, 106
non-verbal communication  155 non-verbal intervention  170 nurturing (supporting intervention, supplying type)  181, 212, 291 object constancy  31 object permanence  31
obsessive-compulsive disorder  221 Oedipus complex  267 one-way relationship  106 open-ended goals  74–76 open-ended questions  18, 20–21, 172–173
used for working with
dreams  290–291
transference  245
unconscious fantasies/conflicts  276, 280 opening a session see sessions opening up  192
openness  19
opinions, offering  182 optimism  178, 212, 213, 294, 306, 334 organizing (cognitive function) 39 capacity for, vs deficit 327–328, 339
questions to assess 40
strategies to improve 337
organizing (supporting intervention, supplying type) 183 organizing, jointly (supporting intervention, assisting type) 185, 188 organizing sources 159, 160, 164–165, 166, 289 outcome, predictors 94
see also common factors outcome studies xi

panic disorder 24, 57, 60 panic/panic attacks 64, 122, 146, 149, 195, 205, 217, 272, 330, 386 parallel process 254, 257, 262
paranoia 65, 99
parapraxes (slips of the tongue) 156
listening for 156, 266, 271
parent/child relationships 23–24, 25–26, 59, 60–61, 270 feelings about as related to, transference 235 parental loss, early 12, 167–168 passive voice, listening for 156 pathological idealization/devaluation (defense) 32 patience 347
patients
anger with 85, 86 asking personal questions 84, 361 clothing choice 139
current functioning, assessment of 163–164 disappointment with therapist 357 dissatisfied 104
experience resonating with therapist’s 130–131 explaining psychotherapy to 12, 385–387 feelings about therapists 120–124, 127–128, 234 before meeting 121 challenges for beginning therapists 123–124 encouraging to talk about 121 fear about whether therapist can help 240 good feelings about 82–83 medication, meanings 145–147 stress and 121–122, 325–326 strong 121–122, 127, 133 unconscious meanings and 140–141 verbal/non-verbal expression 122–123 see also transference

first name for therapists 125, 139 imagining therapist’s feelings 261 learning from (for therapists) 372 leaving personal items in office 139 listening to see empathic listening; listening loss, in ending phase 357
non-verbal communication 122–123, 133, 155 physical comfort of 19, 85 protecting 182
relationship with therapist see therapeutic relationship talking 18, 83, 171, 219, 221, 366, 386, 387 talking/opening, at beginning of session 113 therapist relationship see therapeutic relationship therapists’ feelings about see therapists transference see transference patterns and repetitive elements xix, 346
listening for 155–156, 347
new and old, working through 347 payment of fees 86 “peak”, of session 113
perception of reality, testing see reality testing perception of self see self-perception person, describing (assessment) 49, 50, 52, 55, 58, 63 personal information, about therapists 85, 261 personal items, looking for meaning 139 personality disorders 42, 57, 333 personal narratives 21, 194 personal therapy, for therapists 104, 107, 373 perspective, supplying (supporting intervention, supplying type) 177, 183–184, 186, 189, 212 phases of psychodynamic psychotherapy 15, 16, 163 phenomenological model/approach 142–143, 144, 149 see also medication physical comfort, of patients 19, 85 physical contact 83, 91, 105, 170, 361 place, for sessions 85 planning 39
   ending phase 357
   questions to assess planning ability 40 strategies to improve 337
play, capacity for 41, 42 see also work and play (domain of function) positive transference 236–237, 245 practicing 343, 344, 346 praising (supporting intervention, supplying type) 179, 184, 275, 307, 315, 349 pregnancy 210, 264 primary gain 266, 268–269 primary process 10, 190, 284, 287–288 principle of affective dominance 205, 207 prioritizing problems 24 privacy 112, 117
problems, describing 49–50, 52, 55, 58
problem solving 39
   jointly (supporting intervention, assisting type) 187, 196 questions to assess capacity 40 strategies to improve 338–339
   techniques 177, 185
professionalism 19, 85, 86 projected feelings 32 projection (defense) 32, 44, 320, 333 projective identification (defense) 32, 44, 320 projects, jointly working on (supporting intervention, assisting type) 188, 196, 338 “proliferation in the dark” 9–10 prophesy, dreams and 285 protecting (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182 psychiatric conditions 57, 60, 62, 330 psychiatrists, medication prescribing 145 psychic determinism 219 psychoanalytic psychotherapy 6, 373 psychodynamic formulation see formulation, initial psychodynamics, definition of 3–4 psychoeducation 121, 171–172, 198
   materials 73, 385–387
   used for working with
      affect 210–211
dreams 289–290
   improving adapting to stress 324
resistance 227–228
self-esteem problems 306
transference 241, 244–245, 251
unconscious conflicts 275
psychological mindedness 23–24, 38
   assessment of 40, 63
   persistent functional difficulties due to 62 see also reflective capacity psychomotor retardation 50 psychopharmacologist 147, 148 psychotherapists see therapists psychotherapy, definition of 3 psychotic disorders 62, 333 psychotropic medication 142, 147 publication, writing up cases for 88
questions
   asking “how” or “why” 172
   basic interventions 171–172, 190, 210 closed-ended 21, 172–173 empathic listening and 129–130
   open-ended 18, 20–21, 142, 144, 172–173 see also open-ended questions personal, asked of therapists 84, 361
used for working with
   affect 210–211
defenses 279
dreams 289–290
resistance 227–228
transference 245
unconscious conflicts 273, 277, 278 randomized controlled trials (RCTs) 57 rationale for treatment 73 rationalization (defense) 34, 44, 268, 280, 281 reaction formation (defense) 35, 44, 268, 325 reactivating development 11–12, 305, 318 readiness principles see reflecting reality acknowledging, countertransference 262 sense of 38
   transference vs 235
   reality testing 10, 38, 183, 333
   impaired 183, 333
   joint see joint reality testing (supporting intervention, assisting type)
   questions to assess 40
   self-esteem management 305
   therapeutic strategies to improve 333–335 working with unconscious conflicts 274–275, 276 reassuring (supporting intervention, supplying type) 180, 181, 212, 291, 317, 337–339 recluses 30 reconstruction 194
redirecting (supporting intervention, supplying type) 179–180 referrals 173
reflecting 151–152, 157, 159–168
choosing principles, three 159, 160, 161–162, 166
used for working with
countertransference 260
dreams 287–289, 291
ending 359
resistance 225–226
transference 241–242
unconscious conflicts 272–273, 276
working through 347–348
definition of 159, 160
ending phase, during 355, 359, 362 graphic about 165
organizing sources, three 159, 160, 164–165, 166 overview of 160
readiness principles, three 159, 160, 163–164, 166, 190
used for working with cognitive function 336
dreams 287
ending phase of treatment 359
resistance 225–227
transference 241
unconscious conflicts 272–273, 276
working through 347–348
suggested activity about 160, 166–168 surface to depth 161–162, 166–167 therapeutic strategy and 165–166, 167–168 reflecting about
affect 209–210
countertransference 259–260
dreams 287–289
resistance 223–227
transference 241–244
unconscious conflicts 271–273, 276
working through 347–348
reflecting statements 130, 174
reflective capacity 22–23, 25, 26, 37, 38, 331–333
assessment of 22–23, 25, 26, 40
improved, goal for ending therapy 353
therapeutic strategies to improve 331–333
reflective statements see reflecting statements reframing (supportive intervention, supplying type) 183, 212, 324 regression (defense) 33, 346 during ending phase 346, 357, 363 reinforcing (supportive intervention, supplying type) 180, 212, 315, 323 rejection, feelings of 123–124 “relationship laboratory” 7 relationships with others (domain of function) 5, 11, 28, 30, 311–318
assessment of 30
countertransference and 259
defenses impeding 320–321 dreams as representations of 288 dyadic and triadic 238 ever relationships affecting 312
goal of psychotherapy 311–318, 353 indicators of unconscious factors 60 interpersonal conflict and 52, 53, 58, 60 listening for transference 240 parent/child 23–24, 25–26, 59, 60–61, 270 past, transference related to 234, 236, 237–238 persistent functional difficulties with 62 problems with 30, 50, 311–314 lack of empathy 30, 313–314 maladaptive coping mechanisms 322 social cues and 314
social functioning problems 313–314, 315
temperamental shyness 314 unconscious expectations of /fantasies about 312–313 replacement, after ending therapy 358, 359
in sample initial formulation 52, 55 sustaining, ability to 30
talking about, “PEPPER” 385
techniques for improving 314–318
supporting strategies 315–316
therapeutic relationship 314, 317–318
uncovering strategies 314
interpretations 316–318
types of 30, 311
understanding expectations of 30 relaxation exercises 185 reminiscences 9
repetition, intervening in working through 348 repetitive elements, listening for 155–156 repressed feelings 33, 35 eliciting 260
unconscious conflicts and 268–269
repression-based defense mechanisms 31, 35, 44, 58–59 Research Domain Criteria (RDoC’s) xi resistance 202, 219–232, 296 change, to 224, 350 confrontation of see confrontation (uncovering intervention)
definition of 219, 221–222
dominant 296–298
dreams and 289–290, 292
ending phase, in 353–354, 355
forms of 223
free association and 221, 222, 223 identification as 226–227 importance of and understanding 222 protective nature of 219, 221–222, 231 readiness to consider (by patients) 225–226, 241 reasons for 224–225, 239 shifting topics and 229
suggested activity about 231–232
table of reasons for 225
techniques for working with 222–231
intervening 227–231
basic interventions 227–228
supporting interventions 228
uncovering interventions 229–231, 232
clarification 229–230, 231, 232
interpretation 230–231, 232, 355
listening 222, 223, 271, 346, 354
reflecting 223–227, 355
transference, to 239
using to understand patient 223 resources 24, 64
responsibility accepting, for behavior 316 therapist’s, aspect of role 82 review (in initial formulation) 50–51, 164 sample initial formulation 53, 56 roles 82–84
communicating about 83–84
definition of 82
expectations of 83
function and responsibilities 82 patients’ questions about 84 preparation 9, 83, 84 therapeutic vs social 84, 85
therapists’ 82, 83, 126 sadness 33, 219, 367, 368 safe place 17–26, 80, 99, 247, 260, 334 creating 18–20, 73
setting for 85
saying goodbye 114, 352, 361–362 schedule of sessions 84–85, 114 changing 89–90
contact information and 87 schizophrenia 116, 136, 291, 333 secondary gain 266, 269 secondary process 10, 190, 276 self (domain of function) 11, 28–29, 301–310
assessment of 28–29
in sample initial formulation 52, 55 sense of see sense of self
see also self-perception self-appraisal 29, 302–303
problems with 301
see also self-perception
self-awareness 183, 332, 346, 373 self-disclosure (by therapists) 90 self-esteem blows to 29, 301, 302, 303, 305, 336 fluctuations in 29
low 29, 42, 72–73, 123, 301–303, 305 maintaining/buoying 29, 36, 76, 122, 177, 301 maladaptive ways of 303–304 self-esteem regulation 10, 29, 301–310
problems with 302–303, 303–304, 305–307
screening, questions 304 as psychotherapy goal 301, 303
questions for assessing 29
reactivating development of 11 techniques for improving 304–310
supporting strategies 305–307
uncovering strategies 307–310 self-harm/self-mutilation 88 as prompt for non-neutral stance by therapist 105 self-perception 4, 5, 28, 29, 301–310
assessing 29, 304
defenses and 307–308, 320
definition of 301
development of 302
self-perception (continued) distorted/poor 58, 302, 303–308
dreams and 289, 309
grandiose 303, 333
ideals for ourselves and 29 identity and 29
improving as psychotherapy goal 301, 303 overly harsh 302, 305, 309 realistic assessment of 301, 302 self-appraisal and 29
techniques for improving 304–310
supporting strategies 305–307
uncovering strategies 307–310
unconscious 305
unrealistic 305
self-punishing thoughts 38 self-reflection 22–23, 25, 26, 55
by patients 133–134
by therapists 124–126, 131, 373 self-soothing 87, 211 self-understanding, improving 331–333 in the ending phase 360 seminars see teaching psychodynamic
psychotherapy
sense of identity 29, 32 sense of reality 38 sense of right and wrong 38–39 sense of self 302, 305 distorted 304
improved, goal of ending therapy 353
see also self-perception sensory regulation, difficulty with 323 sensory stimulus regulation 37, 39 sessions 296–298
beginning a session (opening) 111, 112–113 introductions/greeting 112, 116–117
listening for transference 240
therapist’s opening 112–113, 117 behavior in, affect indicated by 208 canceled, feelings about 123–124, 141 changing frame and extra sessions 90 conducting 111–118
control of flow in 113
duration of 84–85, 90
eating/drinking in 139 ending early 261
end of session (closing) 114
first see assessment phase; first session frequency of 115–116, 385, 387 gradual opening of 112
last, choreographing 361–362 lateness see lateness for session length and duration of 84–85, 90, 115 listening modes in 154–155 middle (deepening) 111, 113–114 missed see missed appointments patient/therapist feelings about see patients;
therapists
“peak” of 113
schedule see schedule of sessions setting/place/location of 85, 108 strong early reactions to 121–122, 128 structure of 83
suggested activities about 116–118
talking in 89, 113
tapering, ending treatment 361 times of, frame-setting 84–85 transition to/from 112, 114 setting limits (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182
settings, the (for sessions) 85, 108 sexual behavior, high-risk 62, 105, 255, 321 sexual feelings, transference 237 sexuality, inhibited 35 sexualization (defense) 35 shame 237
increasing awareness of 346
reason for resistance 225, 346
unconscious fantasies and 270, 276
shyness, temperamental 314
silence
basic intervention 175
breaks in free association 221, 222, 223
listening for 155, 271
therapist’s 96, 107, 108, 112
slips of the tongue (parapraxes), listening for 156, 191, 271 slowing down (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182, 334
social anxiety disorder 57 social cues, ability to read 314
social functioning problems 313–314, 315 somatization (defense) 34, 44, 281, 321 somatoform pain disorder 57 soothing (supporting intervention, supplying type) 180–181, 212, 291, 307 speech 37
Spellbound (movie) 343
splitting (defense) 32
splitting-based defenses 31–33, 36, 122, 165
definition of 255, 322
presence vs predominance of 35–36
INDEX

split treatment 148–149 strengths and difficulties 22, 27, 42, 44–45 in initial formulation 49 stress
  acute functional difficulties due to 61–62 adapting to 30–31, 320
  coping mechanisms for see coping mechanisms defenses against see defenses
definition of 319
difficulties adapting to 31, 58, 319 internal and external 30–31, 41, 319, 337 interventions during, changes 164 structuring (supporting intervention, supplying type) 182–183 “stuck” (“I’m stuck”) 59–60, 65, 216 sublimation (defense) 36, 274 subspecialty techniques, teaching 381 substance abuse 21, 50, 57, 78, 146, 256, 330 prompt for non-neutral stance by therapist 105 suggestions 186, 196, 228, 306, 315, 337 suicidal thoughts, patients’ 24, 136, 247, 264 super-ego 27, 38, 104, 336–337 see also ethical judgment (conscience); self-appraisal supervision 131, 165
  case discussion 370
  collaborative model 371 confidentiality and 88
countertransference and 254, 257, 259, 263, 371–372 enactments and 257–258
  ending phase and 362
  learning during 370–372 parallel process and 254, 257, 262 traineeship and 88–89
supervisors 88
  didactic instructors working with 377 learning from 370–372 models used by 371
  sharing work with 370–371 training, specific learner levels 377 supplying perspective (supporting intervention, supplying type) 183 supporting 6, 10–11, 169, 176–189 definition and aims of 10, 176, 177
  ending phase and 361
  frequency of sessions when supporting 115–116 need for flexibility in use 42 non-psychologically minded patients, with 23–24 success, determining 170
types 176–178
  assisting see supporting interventions, assisting type supplying see supporting interventions, supplying type uncovering techniques used with 5–6, 202, 213 uses/indications for 5–6, 61–62, 176, 177, 202, 203 adapting to stress 322, 323–324
  affect 205, 211–213, 216, 337
  anxiety/stress 25, 211
  cognitive function 329, 330, 331, 338–339
  countertransference 260–263
defenses 27, 274–275, 280, 281
domains of function 42, 61, 62, 63, 65
dreams 283, 291–292
judgment and impulse control 335–337 lessening/containing affect 212
managing emotions 337
reality testing 333
reflective capacity 331–333
relationships with others 314, 315–316
resistance 219, 228
self-esteem regulation 305–307
self-perception 305–307
transference 234, 242, 243, 245–248
unconscious conflict 266, 274–276
working through 349
supporting function, of psychotherapy 10–11, 21, 176–177
  see also domains of function supporting interventions, assisting type 176, 177–178, 185–189, 195–196 collaborating see collaborating (supporting intervention, assisting type)
definition of 176, 177
instructing 185
modeling 185, 315–316 supplying and assisting comparison 189
table of 189
used for working with
  affect management 213
  impaired reality testing 333–334
  improving adapting to stress 323–324
supporting interventions (continued)
improving relationships with others 315–316
self-esteem management 305–306
working through 349
supporting interventions, supplying type 176, 177–178, 178–185, 314, 315–316 assisting intervention, comparison with 189 clusters summary 184–185 see also individual interventions (see page 184–185)
definition of 177, 178
used for working with
affect 212
dreams 291–292
impaired reality testing 332–333
improving adapting to stress 323–324
improving relationships with others 315
self-esteem management 305–306
unconscious conflicts 274–276
working through 349
supportively bypassing 180, 196, 208, 212, 336
dreams 291
ending phase and 361
supportive stance of therapists 108 suppression (defense) 36 surface to depth (choosing principle) 161–162, 166–167
used for working with
affect 161, 209–210
dreams and 285, 287
transference 241–243
unconscious conflicts 272–273
see also reflecting
symbolization, dreams 288 symptoms 18, 20, 21
improved, goal of ending therapy 353

taking sides 104–106, 134
talking about transference 235
breaks in 221, 222, 223 difficulty with 18, 366 freely without editing see free association patients views on 171, 387 stopping, in uncovering intervention 191, 192 therapists, in sessions 83, 89, 106–107, 387 talking therapy 3, 7, 83, 385 teaching psychodynamic

psychotherapy 375–382
course and lab 377
curriculum materials 377–382 advanced learners 378, 381–382 beginning learners 378–379 intermediate learners 378, 379–380
evaluation of students
advanced learners 378, 381, 382
beginner learners 378–379
intermediate learners 378, 379–380 “flipped classroom” model 376 operationalizing and evaluating methods 377 seminars
advanced learners 381
beginner learners 378–379
intermediate learners 379
technique and formulation 375, 376 Y model 375–376, 377
see also learning; trainees technical neutrality 103–110, 360, 379
definition of 103, 104
deviating from 103–106, 134 difficulties for therapists 103–104
ending phase and 360
facial expressions and 107–108
suggested activity about 108–109 optional activities about 108–109 theories of therapeutic action 8–11, 13 reactivating development 11–12, 305, 318 supporting function 10–11, 21, 176–177 see also common factors; making the unconscious conscious therapeutic alliance 8–9, 18, 94–102
assessment of (readiness principle) 163 assessment phase, importance in 20
definition of 94–95, 163
INDEX

developing, beginning treatment 74, 94, 95–98, 100 fostering 20, 94, 100, 323 good, indicators of 100, 101 outcome, and 94–95
positive transference and 237 ruptures, transference and 246, 248, 252
suggested activity about 100–101
techniques for fostering demonstrating empathy 95–96, 134, 135 demonstrating interest 95, 98–99 demonstrating positive expectations 97–98 demonstrating understanding 96–97, 100, 101, 133–135 greetings at beginning of session 112 trust and 8, 95, 163, 237 see also patients; therapeutic relationship; therapists therapeutic competence 124 therapeutic neutrality see technical neutrality therapeutic relationship 8, 41–42, 81, 120, 387 abstinence and 106
assessment of 23, 163
holding environment 18
importance of 6–7
improving relationships with others by 314, 315 one-way 19, 106
reactivating development and 11–12, 318 reflective capacity and 23
transference related to 41–42, 236, 317–318
see also therapeutic alliance therapeutic strategy 296–298
development of 165–166, 167–168 domain of function assessment guiding 63 reflecting and 159, 160
therapists
aggression towards 123, 140–141 clinical experience of (three organizing sources) 165 collaboration with psychopharmacologist 147–149 contact information 86–87 criticism by patient 99, 123, 161, 246, 303 dream associations and 283–284, 285 errors 225, 262–263
failure 145, 146
fear 127
feelings about patients 124–126, 127, 128, 162, 254–255 see also countertransference gratification of needs 106, 107 idealization by patient 237 identifying with another person in patient’s life 133–135 identifying with patient 259 insecurity, countertransference and 257 learning see learning learning about self, countertransference and 256 medication prescribing 147–149 meanings 146–147
opinions, not expressing 135–137 patient relationship see therapeutic relationship patients’ disappointment with 359 personal information about 85, 108, 109, 128 personal questions asked of 84, 108, 109, 129, 361 personal therapy 104, 107, 373 reliability 9
roles 82–83, 126
self-disclosure 90
self-reflection 124, 125–126, 134 sexual feelings towards 123, 237, 296–298, 368 supportive stance of 108 talking about transference, “you were there” 235 talking in sessions by 82–83, 89, 107–108, 387 technically neutral see technical neutrality thinking about feelings for patient 258 “woodenness” 19, 103, 107–108 time, in frame setting 84–85 tolerance of, emotions 39, 196 trainees patients’ feelings about working with 123 supervision 88–89, 370–372 therapeutic abstinence and 106, 107 videotaping treatment 88
see also teaching psychodynamic psychotherapy “train of thought”, losing 219, 222 affect and 236–237
“as if” quality of 237–239, 243, 250–252
transference (continued) awareness of, resistance to 239 categories of 236–239

definition of 234, 254
displaced 238–239, 240, 242–243, 250 dream associations and 284, 286 dream theme 288
dyadic (pre-Oedipal) 238, 251–252
ending phase of therapy, in 357, 362 erotic 128, 237, 296–298, 368 eroticized 237
focusing/not focusing on 241, 242, 245, 246 importance of 234–235
intense/intensity 244, 246 interpretation, self-perception problems 308–310 layered 239
learning about 245
management of 246–248
maternal/paternal/sibling 237–238, 239, 251, 264, 296–298
negative 236, 237, 239, 246, 251, 264 past relationships and 234, 236, 237–238 patient’s readiness to work with 241 positive 236–237, 245, 251 reality vs 235
related to current therapeutic relationship 236, 237 repairing/reducing/containing 246–248 resistance and 223, 239
suggested activities about 127–128
talking about, “PEPPER” 385
techniques for working with 239–244, 368
intervening 244–250
basic interventions 244–245
psychoeducation 241, 244–245, 251
supporting interventions 234, 242, 243, 245–248
uncovering interventions 234, 242, 243, 248–250
clarification 216, 249, 252
confrontation 216, 248, 250, 251, 262
listening 202, 239–241, 251
reflecting 241–244
surface to depth principle 241–242, 243 triadic (Oedipal) 238, 239, 296–298
understanding 236–239, 250–251, 356

transference–countertransference paradigm 257 transference-focused psychotherapy (TFP) 57 “transference storm” 244 treatment
aims of 160, 170 basic techniques/principles of 6, 9 combined vs split 147–149, 173 communicating thoughts about, at end 362 duration of 72, 77, 116, 386 engaging patients in 25 explaining 71, 73, 385–387 formulating throughout 53–54 formulation for see formulation, initial goals of see goals (psychodynamic psychotherapy) indicators for 57–62, 116 long-term 116, 354, 386 motivation for 24
open-ended 71, 74, 86
phase of, assessment (readiness principle) 163 phases of 15, 16, 163
positive expectations of, demonstrating 8, 97–98 psychotherapy and medication 24, 50, 148–149, 387 right therapy, determining 17 teaching patients about 76 time-limited 357
treatment plan 47
triadic transference 238, 296–298 trial interpretations 23 trust 8, 95, 163, 237 difficulties with (patients’) 62, 98–99 therapeutic alliance and 94–95, 98
see also therapeutic alliance turning against the self (defense) 35 uncertainty 144–145 unconscious, the 4, 10, 156, 266 defenses see defenses dreams as route to 283, 290 nature of 161
psychological mindedness and 23–24 see also unconscious thoughts/feelings
unconscious conflicts 266–282 anxiety and defenses 266, 268, 269, 270, 271, 276, 278, 280 deconstructing 271–272 indication for psychodynamic psychotherapy 57–61
suggested activities about 281–282
techniques for working with 269–280
intervening 273–280
basic interventions 273
supporting interventions 266, 274–276
uncovering interventions 266, 276–280
interpreting 276–280
listening 266, 269–271
reflecting 271–273, 276
unconscious fantasies 238, 242, 266, 267, 275, 281–282, 296–298
complexes 266, 267–269
definition of 267
dominant 269, 271
dreams and 288
ending phase and 357, 358–359
examples of 267, 273 relationships with others and 313, 316 self-esteem problem and 306, 308 techniques for working with
intervening
supporting interventions 176, 184, 202, 211, 274, 307
uncovering interventions 276, 278, 288, 291, 294
interpreting 275–278, 279–280, 292, 316–318
listening 266, 269–271
reflecting 271–273
unconscious meanings 139, 140–141 reflecting on 160
talking about? 140–141, 156 see also meaning unconscious thoughts/feelings 4–5, 9–10, 386 accessing, methods for 10 deeply buried thoughts/affects 161, 272
dreams and 283, 284, 287, 290, 354, 361, 380, 386 effect on conscious behavior 5, 6, 9 expectations of others 30, 58, 312–313, 316, 318 following/locating affect 162 impaired judgment and impulse control 335–336 indications for psychotherapy 57–58 indicators of problems 59–61 layering, surface to deep 272 making conscious see making the unconscious conscious reflecting on 160
of therapist for patients 255, 257 uncovering interventions/techniques 5–6, 41–42, 169–170, 190–199 clarification see clarification (uncovering intervention) confrontation see confrontation (uncovering intervention) constructing new narratives 194
definition of 5, 190
domain of function requirements for 27, 30 interpretation see interpretation(s)
need for flexibility in use 42
success of, determining 170 supporting techniques used with 6, 202, 213
table of 194
therapist’s opening 112–113
uses/examples of 5–6, 42, 61, 63, 65, 177, 202, 296–298
adapting to stress 322, 325–326 affect, managing 205, 206, 213–216, 337
cognitive function 327, 329, 330
countertransference 261, 263, 294, 296, 297, 298
defense analysis 276, 279–280
dreams 283, 292, 309, 354, 361, 380, 386
judgment and impulse control 335
persistent negative affects 215–216
reflective capacity 23–24, 331–333
relationships with others 314, 316–318
resistance 219, 223, 229–231, 232
self-esteem management 307–310
transference 234, 242, 243, 248–250
unconscious conflicts 266, 276, 278–279
unconscious fantasies 276, 277–278
working through 349–350
understanding
active listening and 129–130, 135–137
countertransference 241, 254–257
demonstrating 95, 123, 181
in assessment phase 18, 22, 220 in impaired reality testing 291, 333
improving relationships with others 315, 316
technique for affect 207, 214 understanding (continued) therapeutic alliance formation 94–96, 100, 101, 163
enactment 254, 257, 262
feelings/affect 206, 212, 213 reflecting statements and 130
transference 236–239, 250–251
yourself (therapists) 11–12, 373 see also empathy/empathizing “understanding comments” (examples) 97 undoing (defense) 34
universalizing (supporting intervention, supplying type) 184, 338 unresolved wishes 270 validating (supporting intervention, supplying type) 184–185, 196
affect 212
cognitive function improvement 330–331, 327, 338
countertransference 258–260, 261–262, 263, 265
negative transference 236, 237, 246, 258
unconscious conflicts 267, 270, 271, 274 video recordings 88, 194, 298, 370–371 violations of boundaries 80, 90–91, 237, 257 of frame 88, 105–106 of therapeutic abstinence 106 violence 24
waiting, being kept 133 waiting room suggestions 112, 117 warmth 19
wishes, unconscious fantasies 267, 268, 269, 288, 313 “woodenness”, therapists 107–108 words 10–11, 19
listening for 155
putting experiences into 179, 212 repeated 154, 157
see also listening
work and play (domain of function) 11, 28, 36, 41, 50 improved, goal for ending therapy 353
questions for assessing 41
in sample initial formulation 52 working alliance see therapeutic alliance
working through 276, 293, 341, 343–344
definition of 341, 343–344
pace of 343, 344
phases of 343, 344, 350–351 increasing awareness and practice 346–347 lasting change 354
limited awareness 345–346
suggested activity about 350–351
techniques for 344–350
intervening 349, 355
supporting interventions 349
uncovering interventions 349–350
listening 344–347
reflecting 347–348
World Trade Center 263
Y model 375–376, 377
Zeus 4