Subject Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>action (corporate)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>activity coordination, 192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>alleviate effects of offensive act, 217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>behave ethically and responsible, 66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>board activities, 343–344</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>brand management, 109–110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>corporate social responsibility, 486</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>integrate ethics at workplace and in communications, 489</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>managing behavior of organization, 209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>prevent recurrence of problem, 217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>reducing offensiveness of behavior, 217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>reliability principle, 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>reputational actions, 321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>stable CSR history, 366</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>strategic action, 535</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>what companies do to ensure their reputations, 404</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>activism</td>
<td>anti-corporate activism, 430</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>labor activism, 428–429</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>stakeholder activism, 329</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>advertising and hidden organizations, 549, 555</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>advertising data, 586</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>advertising effects, 586, 587</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>advertising recall, 127</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>advertising spending and expense, 153, 587</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>advocacy advertising, 461, 462</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>brand advertising, 299</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>corporate advertising, 43, 44, 329, 461</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>disclosing relationships with advertisers, 147</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>false advertising, 146–147</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>how advertising works, 42–44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>image advertising, 105, 107, 111, 395</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>issue advertising, 394–395</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>agency theory, 337–339, 340, 342</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>agenda-building theory, 123, 158–159, 170, 369, 577</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>agenda-setting theory, 14, 126, 128, 317, 338–339, 369, 426, 536, 537</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>corporate agenda-setting, 123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>contingent conditions, 159–160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>interpersonal communication, 160</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Subject Index

agenda-setting theory (cont’d) issue obtrusiveness/unobtrusiveness, 160 need for orientation, 160 first-level agenda setting, 156 second-level agenda setting, 156–158, 327 attribute agenda-setting, 154 alignment
  aligning identity and image, 56 aligning behavior with organizations’ state values, 188
  alignment, 35, 188
  alignment between leaders’ tasks and organizational goals, 313 alignment of CSR to core corporate activities, 366 bridging purpose and understanding, 407 corporate social performance informing the values and norms of the company, 324 demonstrate commitment to produce and communicate about quality products and services, 348 high CSR standards coupled to effective issue communication, 394 internal marketing, 112
involves different functions like strategy, marketing, design, HR and communication, 59 narrow gap between ideal and actual images, 323 responding in accordance with (civil) societal expectations, 65 strategically aligned behaviors, 188, 189 strategically coordinated response, 89–90, 110 alternative and marginalized voices, 474, 489, 492, 494 anonymity, 547, 553, 555
anonymity theory, 545–559 anonymous support/hate groups, 548
apologia theory, 213, 236–237, 263, 410, 412
appearance, 106, 108, 111, 115, 124, 127, 253, 475 approval (see esteem, public) ascribe, 122, 302, 440, 453, 570 at-risk populations, 99, 101 attention media attention, 2, 154, 369, 412, 425, 504, 508 attitude theory, 296 attributes or qualities (organizational) associated with job applicants’ personal needs and self-concepts, 323 attribute awareness, 366
  attributes as targets, 421 different attribute criteria between executives and job seekers, 323 identity attributes packed in messages, 107 reputational criteria, 440 reputational vagueness, 453 rhetorical attributes, 436, 521 social comparison on attributes, 225 substance of reputation concept, 520 uniqueness, 453
attributions, 22, 23, 26, 43, 265, 270 attribute (to attribute), 23, 255, 263, 272, 297 attribution processes, 297, 302 causal attribution, 263 cognitive attribution, 44 crisis responsibility, 267, 272 discounting principle, 274 external attribution, 256, 263, 397 fundamental attribution error principle, 274 internal attribution, 263, 397 motive attributions, 43 reputational attributions, 396 valence of attributions, 296 vitality of attributions, 157, 170, 176, 178 attribution theory, 24, 263, 265, 267, 273, 274, 287, 298–299, 397 audience dispositions, 408 audience characteristics, 173 audience segmentation, 422 audience-centered responses to reputation, 124, 407, 408 incorporating audience into definition of reputation, 521 mature, creative and savvy, 454 reputational interests, 459 authenticity
  associations between identity, perceived authenticity and reputation, 442
reference point for evaluating authenticity, 440 future research, 595 authority and authorization, 74, 184, 191, 241, 255, 399, 400, 408, 461, 535 awareness
attribute awareness, 366
awareness of audience’s individual and group memories, 408, 548, 551, 554, 555, 567 aware publics, 209
brand awareness, 109, 295, 365, 447, 451 issue awareness, 244, 411 employee awareness, 322, 476, 477 message awareness, 136
top-of-mind awareness, 137, 156, 285, 293, 294, 295, 296, 302, 303 value of public awareness in social networks, 285

B
backstreet businesses, 548 balance theory, 298–299 behavioral theory of the firm, 316 boards, 89, 123, 131, 334–346, 384, 389, 392, 404, 429, 493, 500 branding, 422, 433, 446–456 brand advertising, 299
brand community, 452 brand co-creation theory, 455–456 branding theory, 423

C campaigns, 45–47, 49, 88, 95, 98, 113, 125, 145, 172, 175, 204, 349, 364, 421, 423–431, 437, 459, 462 capital markets, 473 capital theory (theory of capital), 66–67 centric company centric, 110, 113, 166, 177, 498, 595 market-centric, 110 public-centric, 177, 595 population-centric, 595 network-centric, 595 certifications, 225, 363, 425, 530–541 change (reputation), 405 accumulation, 537
adaptability, 169–171
adjusting behavior to expectations, 66 evolution, 537
learning, 237
recovery, 394, 521 reputational audit, 521
shifting, 521
turning points, 25
channels, 5, 43, 95–96, 98 access to channels, 145–146, 591 anonymous communication, 354, 499, 548 as communication and distribution, 354 as nonverbal signal, 8, 26, 241, 354, 356, 591 as social capital, 282 available channels, 310, 591 channel demands, 122 channel selection, 422 channel use, 409
channel variety, 137, 178 channels and communicative risk, 591, 594 employees as channel, 539–540 multiple channels, 178, 223
stakeholder perceptions of channel availability, 591 weight of channels, 178 chaos theory, 167, 178 citizen, 106, 110, 146, 192, 253–255, 321, 438, 440 character scale, 256 citizenship behavior (organizational), 319, 570 civic discourse theory, 258 civil society, 65, 426, 487, 491 claims, 7, 109, 111, 142, 192, 264, 266, 339, 412, 424, 461, 468, 475, 536, 541, 545, 551, 555 advertising claims, 299 classical conditioning theory, 43, 136–137 co-construction of meaning, 35, 36, 86, 107, 117, 177–178, 254, 401, 446, 451–455, 448, 496 coe-creation (see co-construction of meaning) codes of conduct, 488 cognitive dissonance theory, 350–351, 355 cohere building a coherent communication system, 314–315 coherent explanations, 410–411 coherent sense of self for credibility and legitimacy, 35 cooperation, 112
critique of coherence, 454 effective communication management, 87
internal marketing, 112
role of interactions in creating coherence, 167–168 collective memory, 555–536, 413 commercial speech vs. political speech, 148, 460, 489 First Amendment protection, 463 protected speech, 395 tax deductible speech, 395 commentators, 298
commitment (affective organizational), 319 common starting points, 253 communicated reputation, 4–7, 106, 116, 406, 408, 412, 437, 536, 539 accurate, balanced depictions, 472 being a good communicator, 321 claims of good character, 106 <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>communicated reputation (cont’d)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communicating frequently, 498</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication climate, 312</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication footprints, 107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate image advertising, 111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>exhibition of values, 105–106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>internal communication, 326</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>managing identity-based communications, 321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>message source credibility, 45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nontraditional expressions of visual identity, 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>projected images, 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public persona, 263, 408</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>quality of corporate communication, 56–57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>reputation not necessarily informed by communication, 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>spokespersons (see spokespersons)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>structured communication function, 81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>third-party endorsements (see third-party endorsements)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>transparency (see transparency)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>visual identity, 130–140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication budgets</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>advertising spending and expense, 153, 587</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate communication expenditures, 56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>where most of communication budget is spent, 54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication consequences of reputation, 594</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication disciplines and reputation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>advertising, 40–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate communication, 30–29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate communication law, 141–150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>integrated marketing communications, 94–103, 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>intercultural communication, 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>interpersonal communication, 20–29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>journalism, 121–129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>management communication, 72–80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>marketing communications, 104–120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mass communication, 121–129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>media law, 141–150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonverbal communication, 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational communication, 30–29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>political communication, 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public opinion, 13–19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public relations, 2, 62–71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>rhetorical theory, 58, 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>visual communication, 141–150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication role in reputation management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>apologia, 236, 410</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cause related marketing, 113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication goals, 577</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>competent interpersonal communication, 26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate advocacy, 486</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate communication as function responsible for reputation, 536</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate image advertising, 111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fostered through multiple channels of interaction, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>image advertising based on reality, 116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IMC as reputational support process, 96–99, 111, 455</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>integrated branding, 489</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>issues communication, 472</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>issues management, 486</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>leveraging assets and corporate activities through advertising, 40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lobbying, 486</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public relations, 485</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>relationship marketing, 111–112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication models and reputation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>information transfer, 5, 32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>transactional-process perspective, 5, 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication performance as a reputation attribute, 594</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication and strategy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>advertising strategies, 45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>attributes out of the control of corporate communication, 536</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>brand strategy, 438, 453</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communicating distinctive attributes as strategy, 539</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication strategies, 35, 109, 187, 263, 315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate advocacy strategy, 461</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate identity management strategies, 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>corporate social responsibility (CSR) as strategy, 364–367</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>engagement, 452</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>facework, 216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>integrated marketing communications strategy, 94–102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>marketing strategy, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>media strategy, media planning strategy, 156, 158, 576</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>message design strategies, 404–417</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>online media strategy, 499, 506</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>positioning strategy, 67, 111, 440</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>presentation of strategy, 380</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>problem solving skills, 192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>product strategy, 411</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>promotional strategies, 67, 68, 519</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public relations as a strategic management function, 197–212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>strategic communication, 31, 33, 36, 37, 57, 116, 325, 326, 409, 414, 435, 436, 441, 442, 536, 576</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>strategic levels of communication, 81–91, 86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>strategic management of visual identity, 130–140</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
strategic marketing, 97, 115, 147, 478 strategic messaging, 206–207 strategic presentation of messages, 404–406 strategic public relations, 111, 198, 441 strategic use of social media, 499, 508 strategies for cultivating relationships, 198, 204 strategy and communication policies, 438 strategy makes little difference, 177 third party strategy, 256 communicative virtues, 595 communicatively constituted organization theory (CCO), 183–196, 368–370, 485 community relations blame 216, 393
community dialog, 402 organizational behavior, 202, 205 performance history, 265 barriers to competitor entering market, 106 competing messages, 424
cutting through competing messages, 408, 413 gain customers in presence of competing companies, 31–32 complaints (see feedback) complexity theory, 166–182 conceived (or perceived) reputation, 2, 4–8, 11, 116, 223, 205, 207, 209, 236, 322, 323, 327, 343, 396, 398, 488, 546, 572, 577 hearsay, 207 highly subjective beliefs, 396 how companies are perceived, 404 interpretation through public’s perceptual screens, 396 present knowledge of organization, 408 role of evaluation, 396 confidence, public (see esteem, public) conflict
conflicting goals, 219 conflicts over scarce resources, 219 debates over public policy, 391–392 lawsuits, 476
offensiveness, 216 public policy lapses, 390 public trust violations, 390 violation of expectations, 393 congruence actions speak louder than words, 202 associations between identity, perceived authenticity and reputation, 442 between job applicants’ self-concepts and reputation, 324 between organizational culture and reputation, 321, 450–451 communicational moment of truth, 191 company words and deeds, 58, 107, 159, 189, 190 consistency between organizational core values and organizational behavior, 321 differential effects in CSR strengths and weaknesses, 369 functional fit between core competence and sponsored cause, 45, 477 in relation to image and identity, 250 insiders and outsiders, 37 involving employees through volunteering vs. cash giving, 365 legitimacy gap, 393
local messages and global messages, 58 message unity between internal and external audiences, 35 messages grounded in policies, 159 reputation is as reputation does, 398 walking the talk, 249 consequences of reputation (organizational) a quality promise, 352 business becomes more difficult, 348 circle of good, 287 creates new room for action and alternate realities, 370 engage in dialogs, 570 friendly environment, 489 protects company during economic downturn, 32 reduces organization’s transaction costs, 348 social capital, 279
stability, 15
whuffie, 287
consumers (see customers) consultants, 8, 229, 453, 523, 524, 532, 537, 538, 115, 135, 137, 319, 321, 322, 324, 329, 343, 349, 440, 446, 451, 483, 498 constituents, 4, 17, 21–27, 41, 106 construed reputation perceptions of company actions rather than company actions themselves, 377 contingency theory of agenda-setting, 159–160 situational theory of crisis, 273–274 accommodation, 275
strategic leadership, 313
control, 172, 178, 184, 226, 230, 282, 283, 301, 311, 319, 370, 396, 397, 401, 418, 422, 426, 427, 486, 498, 514, 525, 548, 551, 553 attributes not controlled by corporate communication, 536 board control, 335–340, 344 consequences of attempting control, 170, 174–175 control by stakeholders, 58, 397, 408, 426 control mutuality, 201, 319, 570 control of reputation, 37, 64, 77, 171, 172, 175, 177, 178, 396 controllable media, 4, 5, 8, 95, 100, 502 controlling influence of corporations, 149 controlling information, 422 facework control, 27, 250 fear control, 412 government control, 123, 390, 391, 552 internal and external control, 274 limited control, 173, 177, 272 lose control, 174, 452 networks and control, 177 news media control, 126, 128 not within control, 72, 132, 166, 173, 174, 381, 439, 451, 454, 503, 536 personal or self-control, 267, 268, 321, 390, 391, 537 poorly controlled, 179 regain control, 241
relinquish control, 178 uncontrollable media, 4, 5, 98 uncontrolled media, 5, 8
within control, 37, 64, 73, 133, 135, 450, 451, 454, 459 coop-orientation theory, 24 cooperation, 570
corporate brand, 106
corporate culture, 312, 321–322 corporate communication, 536 corporate self-disclosure, 24, 56 corporate self-expressions, 349 corporate political (media) spending, 422, 459–470 corporate reputation comparisons
a “collage” of past corporate behavior, 108 a concern for non-corporate organizations, 32 a function of institutional processes, 229 a meaning creation and sense making construct, 64 a substitute for search, inspection, or immediate experience, 108 an attributed character, 105 an organization-wide phenomenon, 59 appraisals, 22 assessments of the financial, social and environmental impact attributed to organization over time, 450 asset, 32, 41
balancing act, 455
beliefs, 22
black box, 450 collection of attributes, 22 competitive advantage, 85, 104, 314, 324, 325, 329, 365, 383, 388, 453, 455, 471, 472, 524, 569, 571, 579 crisis management tool, 484 differentiation, 106, 329, 352 dignity, 144 discourse, 519
distraction, 553 encapsulation of history of other peoples’ shared experiences, 349 equivocal phenomenon, 456 feedback, 5–8
function of trust, 405 generated by communication, 34 growing concern of leaders and managers, 31 implication of operating environment, 393 influenced by perceptions rather than real knowledge, 56 institutional message, 223 insurance against global risks, 488 issue specific, 22 legitimacy message, 225
liability, 262, 284
management fashion, 513–529 message, 5–8
noise, 5–8
not a fixed script or variable, 370 persistent and consistent assessment, 108 point of leverage, 422 property, 144
public opinion, 13
reconstructed through historical-social interactions, 348 reference point for evaluating authenticity, 440
resource, 484
self-fulfilling prophesy, 371 signal to stakeholders about non observable aspects, 384 social capital, 281, 484
social good, 421
societal narratives coproduced by a multiplicity of actors in a variety of complex interactions, 570 stake social managed by stakeholders, 484 strategic weapon, 579 subjected to improvisation and negotiation, 34 symbolic capital, 66–67 total prestige, 348
traits and signals, 329
value of public awareness in social networks, 285 definition of, 4, 32, 41, 63, 194, 105, 144, 207, 209, 271, 298, 328, 348, 446, 520, 562, 563 models of reputation brand co-creation model, 449 conceptual measurement model, 562 Fombrun and van Riel model of reputation management, 449 how organizational communication constitutes reputation, 186 IMC evaluation model, 587 media involvement, 537 model of factors in corporate reputation advertising effects, 43 model of social capital creation, 286 model of strategic management of public relations, 203 process view of reputation, 571 proprietary models, 531 rhetorical message design model, 406, 411 two-stage model of measuring the economic value of organizational public relations, 585 Corporate Reputation Review, 2, 205, 229, 393, 513, 518–520, 523, 524, 535 corporate social responsibility, 362 corporate social performance, 323–234 corporate social responsibility communication, 366 negative CSR news, 369
rise of CSR and corporate values messages, 454 social and environmental responsibility, 225 social responsibility investing, 429–430 crisis and accidents accidents, 219
benefit of doubt during crisis, 489 crisis response, 264, 393
crisis responsibility, 265, 393
first messages communicated in a crisis, 267
human error, 219

crisis and strategy
crisis response strategies, 262–278 image repair strategies, 213–221, 244, 480 remediation strategies, 26 repair strategies, 26 critical publics, 555
critical theory, 64, 121, 128, 184, 373, 455, 456 critics, 96, 149, 251, 389–391, 393, 394, 397, 527, 593 criticism (see also feedback) reduce contentious or hostile interactions, 17 reduce impact of unfavorably public, 106 a larger base of customers, 351 buy a wider range of products and services, 16 compared ability to deliver quality products and services, 236 customers disinclined to accept negative information, 348 gain customers in presence of competing companies, 31–32
increases favorable purchase intentions, 16 predispose customers to buy products, 106
price elasticity, 106 profits and sales sink, 348 referrals, 106 retention, 106
satisfaction, 352
superior performance outcomes, 15 surrogate indicator for the quality of services and trustworthiness of service providers, 352 switching costs, 106 trumps the substantive products as determinant of future consumer evaluation, 352 build more loyal customer base, 16, 32 charge higher or premium prices, 16, 31, 40, 351, 384 corporate identity (see identity of organizations) covenanted reputation (see expectations), 4, 5, 236 promises, 108
quality promise, 352 culture-centered approach, 484–496 D
decoupled from action, 111, 124, 229, 466, 493 defamation, 141–149 desired reputation, 4, 5, 187, 323, 335–345, 454 desirable character traits, 236 worthy of the brand equity the firm wishes to deserve, 390 wanting to be known for, 406 dialog, 367, 452
disclosure, 20, 114, 147, 148, 225, 256, 336, 366, 367, 281, 449, 468, 469, 551 self-disclosure, 24 source disclosure of corporate political spending, 468 stakeholder reliance on disclosures, 449 disposition, 301, 327, 407, 408, 411, 514 predispose customers to buy products, 106
diversion(s), 219 drivers of reputation, 364 dominant coalition communication managers, 17, 85, 89, 106, 342 directors, 336
human resource management practices, 326 image/reputation of CEO, 306, 307 management’s behavior, 321 management’s skills and expertise, 384 organizational leaders, 36
strategic leadership, 306–317, 339–340, 426 strategic management, 363, 476, 484 strategists, 74 strategy advisor, 87, 201 E educational institutions, 32, 130, 134 elaboration likelihood theory of persuasion, 125, 127, 350, 353 emerging markets, 484–496 as brand ambassadors, 448 attract a larger pool of applicants, 17 attract most talented employees, 16, 384 competence and knowledge of employees, 325 composition of the workforce, 323 employees as channel, 539–540
increase higher level of executives, 16 internalize core values, 570 job satisfaction, 319 mutual acculturation and identification toward and within organization, 349 treating employees well, 498 empowerment, 43, 84, 185, 189, 190, 192, 198, 201, 245, 310, 314, 318, 340, 354, 399, 423, 427, 428, 499, 500, 595 emotional appeal (see esteem, public) endorsement(s) (see also third-party endorsements), 26, 40, 45, 47–48, 157, 189, 324, 519, 536, 540, 592 enhances consumer perceptions, 41 for CSR communication, 366–367 for reputation management, 539 activities that can be leveraged to stakeholders, 50 collaborative communication, 66 creating a solid bond between the organization and its stakeholders, 56 cultivate collaboration networks, 189 exit, voice, and loyalty, 25 focus on organization-public relationships, 206 focus on relationships, 209 forgiveness, 217
incorporate the public’s interests in management’s decisions, 201 listening to multiple stakeholders’ views, 73, 189, 303, 323 maintaining social relations, 285 participative organizational culture and workplace environment, 314 personalize stakeholder experiences, 489 reputation management as an indicator of open, supportive, two-way symmetrical communication systems, 315 stakeholder expectation standards, 394 subject Index

611

substantiate and amplify stakeholders’ opinions, 56 supportive, two-way communication system, 314 environment external environment, 224 fit between firms’ activities and (environmental) concerns of stakeholders, 365 institutional record, 522 organization’s contribution to society’s collective ability to manage risk, 389 equities markets, 429 esteem (public) esteem, 63, 105, 108, 111, 126, 127, 155, 156, 161, 236, 257, 351, 369, 370, 473, 563 admiration, 15, 155, 258, 322, 453, 489, 570 approval, 66, 84, 108, 147, 160, 204, 225, 255, 246, 399, 478 confidence, 54, 73, 80, 105, 109, 114, 115, 200, 237, 241, 252, 301–302, 314, 378, 464, 501, 525, 533, 540, 561, 562, 564, 570, 571, 572 emotional appeal and good feelings toward organizations, 41, 42, 43, 117, 155, 157, 205, 254, 412, 442, 258, 489, 568, 570 notability, 108
regard, 400
estimation, 32, 63, 64, 250, 498 ethical issues surrounding reputation and management efforts appearance of participation and dialog, 493
Subject Index

feedback (cont’d)
beneficial or harmful to reputation, 170 capitalizing on feedback, 237–238
communicative risk, 594
complaints, 200, 216, 217, 480, 499, 504, 549 consequences of attempting to control outcome, 170 constructive feedback, 443 criticism, 17, 122, 145, 216, 217, 218, 238, 250, 367, 390, 392 development amplifying feedback, 7 deviation counteracting, 7 environmental scanning, 17, 223 feedback and coevolution, 171 feedback from reputation, 322 feedback loops, 179, 349 gauging, 25, 230, 303, 320, 379, 412, 475, 488, 503, 515, 531, 562, 566, 576 gauging knowledge stakeholders have formed, 303 gauging reactions to messages, 503 issues monitoring, 394 know the expectations others hold relevant to organizational behavior, 400 listen to dissention and objection voiced by employees, 243, 321 listen to multiple stakeholders’ views, 323 negative feedback, 108, 548 outcome assessment, 489 periodically validate and verify reputation, 348 positive feedback, 167, 170 proactive feedback seeking, 354, 437, 441 public scrutiny, 141, 142, 145, 146, 149, 441, 452, 454, 462, 488, 498, 500, 525 reputation as feedback, 7–8, 238, 498, 548, 593 responding to feedback for organizational learning, growth, and development, 6 structural integrity of feedback loops, 349 visible feedback, 238
feminist feedback, 32 fields, 224, 364, 413, 414, 537, 538 field theory, 415 financial markets, 148, 166, 538 financial performance, 226 economic record, 521
First Amendment rights of corporations, 141–143, 459–465 framing theory, 37, 128, 170, 350, 369, 423–424, 426, 460, 577 fraternal orders, 548 front organizations, 548 G gangs, 548
government agencies, 32, 525 government intelligence agencies, 548 globalization, 329 groups, small, 77
guru theory, 514
H hackers/hacktivists, 548 halo effect, 269 health providers, 32
hidden organizations theory, 545–557 honesty, 64, 110, 113, 114, 141, 149, 298, 302, 436, 568, 570, 595 hybrid organizations, 32 I
ideal reputation, 4–8, 323 brand image, 295, 351, 477 CEO’s image, 306 impression management theory, 20, 26–27, 452 lack of identifying information, 547
mutual acculturation and identification toward and within organization, 349
image repair theory, 213–221 identity of organizations (or, organizational identity) identity concealment, 546

lack of identifying information, 547
multiple identities, 9, 59, 193, 254, 438 reputation in the absence of identity-related communication, 547 infer, 20, 47, 123, 147, 294, 296, 297, 298, 301, 303 informal economy organizations, 548, 550–551 informal leaders, 36
information
controlling information, 422
disseminating information, 422 information availability, 329 information transfer, 32 information processing, 24, 127, 350, 359 information subsidy(ies), 158–159 industry industry associations, 537 industry reputation, 13 reputations commons, 488 strategic groups, 193
strategic isomorphism, 226 innovation, 592
institutional entrepreneurs, 224, 228
institutional logics, 227 institutional theory, 222–234, 367, 514, 531, 540 interpersonal communication, 5, 8, 20–29, 72, 160, 200, 204, 281, 282, 286, 384, 348, 397 involvement, 185, 208, 312, 313, 390, 396, 398, 451, 524 ad involvement, 44 board involvement, 335, 337, 338 celebrity involvement, 425 community involvement, 567 company involvement in Wikipedia, 505 consumer involvement, 44 corporate financial and political involvement, 460, 486 high involvement, 44, 178, 197, 310, 396 involvement with event, 43 involvement with product, 43 less involved constituents, markets, audiences, publics and stakeholders, 44, 206, 207, 209, 210 low involvement, 23, 44, 45, 136, 197, 205, 396 media’s involvement, 537 product involvement, 43, 44 stakeholder involvement 59, 367, 452
issue ownership theory, 157–158 K knowledge prior to exposure, 44 L leaders
informal leaders, 36
organizational leaders, 36
leadership
CEO’s bases of influence and distribution of power, 313 continuing investment of management time and resources, 115 interaction between CEO and top management teams (TMT), 313 leadership’s power distribution and sharing, 312 public relations involvement in decision making, 205–206 strict authoritarianism, 484 learning, 1, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 16, 22, 58, 72, 89, 125, 126, 127, 132, 154, 155, 160, 162, 171, 235–248, 283, 303, 310, 312, 320, 343, 366, 382, 391, 394, 401, 478, 479, 499, 502, 503, 590–594
Subject Index

league tables (or reputation rankings)
Asian Business’ Asia’s Most Admired Companies, 377, 566 Best Companies for Gay Men and Lesbians, 567 Best Companies for Minorities, 566 Best Companies for Women, 566–567 constructing guidelines for reputation rankings, 540 Ethical Investment Research Service, 567 Far Eastern Economic Review’s Asia’s Leading Companies, 377 Financial Times’ Europe’s Most Respected Companies, 566 Financial Times’ World’s Most Respected Companies, 377
Fortune Magazine’s Most Admired Companies, 2, 23, 56, 229, 322, 326, 377, 513, 522, 523, 564, 566, 567, 582
Franklin Research and Development Corporation, 567 Industry Week’s Best Managed Companies, 377
Interbrand’s Best Global Brands, 448
Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility, 567 Investor Responsibility Center, 567
Kinder, Lydenberg Domini & Company, Inc., 324, 538, 567 Management Today’s Britain’s Most Admired, 377, 524, 566 Manager Magazine’s Ranking of German Manufacturing and Service Firms, 377 Undertaken by NGOs, 538

Working Mother Magazine, The Best 100 Companies to Work for in America, 566 legitimacy actional legitimacy, 240–241 crisis of legitimacy, 460 culturally sensitive boundary spanners, 491–492 deinition, 189, 225, 236, 324, 532 deinstitutionalization, 224–225 discursive legitimization strategies, 66 downward spiral of legitimacy, 371 illegitimate goals, 200 institutional positioning, 185–188 iron cage, 226

isomorphism, 226 legitimacy and expectations, 189, 236 legitimacy efect, 126 legitimacy gaps, 391, 393–394
legitimacy message, 225
legitimacy paradox, 223 legitimation and newsworthiness, 126, 158 legitimation strategies, 399 legitimation through an advantageous proile, 35 managing legitimacy, 241, 535
moral legitimacy, 368 role of knowledge in judging legitimacy, 397 role of rankings and accreditation, 533–534 utility and responsibility, 400 libel, 141–142, 146 license to operate, 452 monitoring as listening, 503 to dissent and objection voiced by employees, 243, 321 to help develop strategy, 499 to multiple stakeholders’ views, 323 low involvement theory, 136, 205

M
mail, 78, 97, 98
management fashion theory, 513–529 markets, 34, 40, 49, 67, 68, 104, 107, 112, 113, 115, 123, 147, 227, 229, 236, 284, 329, 352, 381, 393, 397, 490 mass media, 14, 42, 96, 124, 125, 126, 155, 158, 159, 161, 205, 209, 251, 529, 365, 383, 539 meaning and sense making, 63–64, 322 context drives meaning, 79 different meanings, 370
fixed meanings, 370
meaning making, 486 meaning of the message resides, 123 measurement issues in communication-reputation research academic account of reputation measurement history, 522 aggregation, 328, 566 antecedents (outputs), 571 a-theoretical, 561 averaging, 328
best practices, 561
bottom line effects of public relations activities, 578 combined images, 498 complications by creating a hierarchy between image, identity, and reputation, 563 cost-benefit analysis, 587 cost-effectiveness analysis, 587 direct reputation, 350 distributed vs. undistributed, 328 double log models, 580 effects of impression management, 27 generalized reputation, 350 global variable or individual dimensions, 3 independent, mediator, moderator, 365, 384–385 indicators of reputation (outtakes), 571 legitimation of measures, 223 linear models, 580 log reciprocal models, 580 measurement of corporate culture, 320 measuring dimensions, 522 measuring expectations, 522 mutual influence, 384
need for more reliable measures, 385 order, direction, and magnitude of effects, 386 outcomes (or supportive behaviors), 562 outputs, 562
outtakes (or mediating variables), 562 overall reputation, 453 popular account of reputation measurement history, 522 relationship, 27
reputation (outcomes), 571 reputation as a mediator, 578 reputation defined in terms of measurement, 521 reputation ROI, 577 residual reputation, 578 return on expectations, 564 return on investment, 561 standardized 456 strength of reputation, 567 testing messages, 503
media (see also mass media, news media, stakeholder media and social media) affiliate organizations with prominent/deviant field members, 537 media audience(s) media and audience characteristics, 159–160 media organization perspectives, 126 media psychology perspectives, 126 media sociology perspectives, 126 controlled media, 5, 98 corporate political (media) spending, 422, 459–470 in reputation building, 537 influences on media content, 122–123 ideology, 123
individual journalists, 122 influences outside of media organization, 123 journalistic routines, 122–123 news organization, 124 interference of media reality, 368 media allegations, 321 media law, 141–150
media mania, 329
media placement vehicle, 45
media’s involvement, 537
mediatization, 368, 371 proliferate moral and professional norms, values and expectations, 535 reflects and influences public’s constitution, 368 reputation measures, 377 third–party validation, 14 uncontrolled media, 5, 8 media content baseline studies, 124
content analysis, 124
diversity of media sources and types, 160 focal media favorability, 124 latent-patterned content, 124 latent-projective content, 124 manifest content, 124 media attention to organizations, 124 peripheral media favorability, 124 media dependency theory, 126, 160, 161 media effects affect effects, 125
attitudinal effects, 125 behavioral effects, 126 belief effects, 125 cognitive effects, 125 electoral effect, 126 informing effect, 126
legitimation and control effect, 126 opinions and activities effect, 126 physiological effects, 125 political effects, 126 relative influence of mass media, 161 scapegoating effect, 126 social continuity effect, 126 watchdog effect, 126 media effects theory, 125–126 media salience media associations, 124, 155–156 media favorability (or tone, tenor, or valence), 124, 155–156 media visibility (or, media attention), 124, 155–156 medium and message, 406, 498 memory (see collective memory)
message(s), 4–6, 33, 202 adapting messages, 178, 490 and medium, 498
at the “me” level, 188
at the “we” level, 188
awareness, 136
categorizing messages as feedback or noise, 6–8 central messages, 44 characteristics, 123–124
crash, 134
coded or encrypted messages, 553, 555
competing messages, 424
consistent messages, 131, 134, 408, 508 content, 43
contradictory messages, 216 conveying messages, 502 corporate political spending as messages, 460 cutting through competing messages, 408, 413 differentiation among channels, 178 distribution control, 427 drowning out of messages, 227, 423 endurance and failure, 229 failure rates, 123
first messages communicated in a crisis, 267
gauging reactions to messages, 503 message(s) (cont’d)
giving weight to messages, 469 grounded in policies, 159 guaranteed to have higher degrees of commercial success, 123
identification with organizational messages, 188, 504 identity attributes packed in
messages, 107
image repair messages, 219 imposing messages, 177 institutional messages, 178, 192–193, 223, 229, 460 integrated message, 55, 131 intended and unintended consequences, 408
interception, 549 interpreted differently than intended, 454
interpreting messages, 472 key messages, 98, 159, 442, 502 latent messages, 426
legal requirements for
messages, 413
media messages, 155
memorable messages, 133–134
messages tapping into cultural trends, 173 messaging, 422
mixed messages, 8 platforms, 58, 427, 435, 461, 480, 488, 501, 540
plurality of voices in corporate messages, 455
polysemic messages, 123 potential for image repair, 217 repetition, 136 reputation as a legitimacy message, 225
reputation as messages, 231 reputation management as more than managing
messages, 209
reputations not just built on messages, 106
resistance, 230
rise of CSR and corporate values messages, 454 should reflect information needs of publics and advocacy needs of organization, 202 skepticism of organizational
messages, 240, 366
source credibility, 45
source effects in messages, 44 spreading messages, 504 sweeping messages, 178
testing messages, 504
traditional messages, 134 transmission and dissemination, 45, 107, 202, 230, 461
unintended messages, 99 unity between internal and external audiences, 35
univocal messages, 193 vague and equivocal corporate messages, 455
vehicle cost per thousand, 576 message design (see also apologia theory), 440
as linchpin, 408 audience considerations, 407, 413, 423
audience receptivity, 408 catalyst for organizations, 414 content development (visual and verbal), 407 context of previous messages, 413
convection, 407
corporate persona, 408 discourse conventions, 407 tells research, 407, 412
external audiences
dispositions, 408
genres, 407
image repair strategy enactment, 219
intended and unintended consequences, 408
key message platform, 98, 407, 411
message effectiveness, 45, 218 product recall messages, 409–410
proof points, 407
public relations messages, 123, 410, 507, 578
taxonomy for message design, 414 transparency, 407
mindful learning, 244 monitoring reputation, 8, 73, 86, 87, 89, 100, 114,
122, 137, 161, 228, 240, 241, 303, 329, 336–339, 342, 377, 390, 393,
394–425, 467, 497, 503, 521, 533
as listening, 503, 538, 565, 567 motivation(s), 23, 25, 32, 44, 54, 75, 109, 112, 144,
190, 192, 207, 208, 235, 237, 238, 241, 269,
309–312, 314, 323, 325,
338, 339, 340, 353, 362, 365, 396, 423, 436, 461, 465, 466, 514
multiple identities (see identity of organizations) mutual influence, 171, 175, 179, 384
focus on two-way symmetrical relationships, 326 not simply produced by organizations, but provided by publics, 370 organizations and publics coproduce public policies and agendas, 370 reputation as community dialog, 402
top management and external stakeholders, 322 mutual understanding, 367 N narrative(s) mythopoesis (legitimation through narratives), 535 Working against or seeking to avoid competing or conflicting narratives, 401 narrative theory, 187, 369–370, 399–401, 405
network theory actor network theory, 180 semantic network theory, 176 social network theory, 489–490
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>strength of weak ties, 283, 289</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>structural holes, 283, 288, 290</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>networks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>informal communication, 14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organization-public relationships, 202, 205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>partners and distributor networks, 484</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>networking</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mutual dwelling places, 256</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>new media, 353–354, 356, 536 (see also online communication and social media)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>noise, 5–7, 413, 423</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>clarifying and reducing the organization’s contribution to noise, 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cutting through competing messages, 408, 413</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>drowning out of messages, 227, 423</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>message clutter, 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>noise in form of changes, imperfections, or inconsistencies, 175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>noise management, 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>physical noise, 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>psychological noise, 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>secondhand noise, 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>semantic noise, 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial assets, 578</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial benefits, 314</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial impacts, 374</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial indicators, 571</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial measures, 539</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial reporting, 227</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial risks, 342</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial stakeholders, 385</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonfinancial variables, 561</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nongovernmental organizations, 17, 430, 492, 546, 538</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonprofit organizations, 17, 32, 138, 199, 391, 430, 506, 525, 545, 546</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonverbal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>channels availability as nonverbal signal, 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>feedback as nonverbal cue 591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>notability (see esteem, public)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>O</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>online message boards, 505, 506</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>trolls, 499</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>online news, 303, 501</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>online reputation systems, 113, 287, 353</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>should influence how organizations communicate in the future, 408</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stakeholder intelligence, 82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>opponents, 398</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational identity (see identity of organizations)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational renewal, 244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational rhetorical theory, 35, 260</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organization-public relationships, 197, 200, 201, 204–206, 318, 437, 591, 595</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organized crime groups, 548, 549–550</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paradigms, 173, 280, 591–592</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>constitutive, 492</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>constructivist, 364</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>critical/cultural, 64, 121, 595</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>functional, 64, 98, 193, 363, 364–367, 365, 368, 370, 371, 592</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>interpretive, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>normative, 367</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>overestimates a positive relationship, 571</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>postmodern, 66, 77, 184, 592, 595</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>reputation paradigms, 173, 179, 515</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>strategic management, 197, 201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>symbolic-interpretive, 197, 202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>active participation, involvement, and information sharing with employees, 312</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>partnerships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lending and borrowing reputations, 229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>reputation enhances cooperation with public sector organizations, 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>with high status actors, 225</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>peer groups, 15, 73, 84, 153, 185, 189, 224, 236, 311, 356, 364, 368, 379, 428, 533, 556</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as more important than general public, 554</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>perceived reputation (see construed reputation)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
products and services earlier launch of new product offerings, 352 new product reception, 352 potential for new high-return product purchase potential, 352 pricing fairly, 498 quality products and services, 349, 498 public service groups, 32 publicity, 54, 106, 107, 112, 148, 198, 200, 201, 236, 309, 395, 500, 553, 587 ambient publicity, 500
naming and shaming, 421
negative CSR news, 369
negative publicity, 236 rumor mill, 161, 270, 506 publicity management avoid unwanted attention, 553 circumventing information processing defaults, 23 conceal identity information from others, 554 developing interpersonal relationships with journalists, 344 discreet locations, 553 ignoring trolls, 499
image problems, 115
limit reputation to certain audiences, 549 limited signage, 553 manage boundaries of visibility, 553 manage visibility and identity-related communications among audiences, 552 name changes, 226 paying attention to stakeholder publicity, 107 putting authentic features out to the scrutiny of stakeholders, 441 raise awareness, 56
transparency (see transparency) active publics, 161, 204, 207, 209, 210 activist publics, 507

aware publics, 209
deferring to companies on public issues, 394–395 evergent publics, 475 forgotten publics, 483 higher esteem among the general public, 351 involved publics, 211
key or critical publics, 391, 394, 396, 476, 555 latent publics, 203, 209 less involved publics, 207, 209, 211 passive or nonpublics, 203, 207, 209 political, economic, and social influence, 460 subaltern publics, 486

R
reality and reputation, 399
reasoned action theory, 397
recall, 109, 127, 205, 206, 209, 215, 219, 265, 295, 296, 353 regard, public (see esteem, public)
regulators, 84, 99, 102, 213, 219, 335, 337, 338, 395
regulation, legislation, and adjudication, 390
religious groups (see also churches) new religious movements/cults, 548 Reputation Institute, 229, 440, 519, 522, 524, 534, 564

persuasive intent, 113, 127 unpersuasive, 214, 218, 406, 537, 538, 545
platforms
message platforms, 58, 427, 435, 461, 480, 488, 501, 540 reputational platforms, 49, 187, 303, 354, 364, 404, 406, 407, 411, 414 police, 144, 311, 426, 555
political fund-raising organizations, 548
political speech (see commercial vs. political speech) postcolonial theory, 485–487
postmodern theory, 66, 184
power structure analysis, 422 presence (including market, media, and physical presence), 58, 155, 178, 284, 311, 324, 499, 502, 506, 507, 549, 551, 554, 555, 569
priming theory, 350–351, 369, 398 attribute priming theory, 158
product commoditization, 329
product image, 324, 354
profiles (company), 35, 107, 115
high profile, 156, 423, 546 legitimization through an advantageous profile, 35
low profiles, 156, 409, 423, 546, 550
prominence (organizational), 57, 123, 125, 126, 135, 153, 155, 156, 159, 161, 225, 295, 296, 348, 522 promotions, 58, 94, 96, 98
previous reputation, 226 privacy, 147–148
reputational platforms, 49, 187, 303, 354, 364, 404, 406, 407, 411, 414
police, 144, 311, 426, 555
political fund-raising organizations, 548
political speech (see commercial vs. political speech) postcolonial theory, 485–487
postmodern theory, 66, 184
power structure analysis, 422
presence (including market, media, and physical presence), 58, 155, 178, 284, 311, 324, 499, 502, 506, 507, 549, 551, 554, 555, 569
priming theory, 350–351, 369, 398
attribute priming theory, 158
product commoditization, 329
product image, 324, 354
profiles (company), 35, 107, 115
high profile, 156, 423, 546
legitimization through an advantageous profile, 35
low profiles, 156, 409, 423, 546, 550
prominence (organizational), 57, 123, 125, 126, 135, 153, 155, 156, 159, 161, 225, 295, 296, 348, 522
promotions, 58, 94, 96, 98
previous reputation, 226
privacy, 147–148

reality and reputation, 399
reasoned action theory, 397
recall, 109, 127, 205, 206, 209, 215, 219, 265, 295, 296, 353
regard, public (see esteem, public)
regulators, 84, 99, 102, 213, 219, 335, 337, 338, 395
regulation, legislation, and adjudication, 390
religious groups (see also churches)
new religious movements/sects, 548 Reputation Institute, 229, 440, 519, 522, 524, 534, 564 reputation strategy, 56, 66–67 avoiding reputation as strategy, 554
legitimation strategies, 65, 236, 423, 532 reputation management strategies, 26, 42, 189, 343–344 reputation as a strategic weapon, 579 strategy as an attribute, 297 strategic impression management, 26 strategy as a reputation signal, 472 strategy and organizational identity, 438–439 reputation management, 205
as problematic, 250
attempting to control reputation, 64 basis for reputation, 554 creating, erecting, and sustaining reputation, 472 definition of reputation management, 488 difference in reputation management for alternative organizations, 550 payoff, 108 reputation management advocates, 65 reputation risk management, 366 risk management strategies, 380–381 reputational assessment, 533, 546 reputational assets, 270, 274, 383, 473 reputational audit, 521
reputational bank account, 272 reputational capital, 85, 105, 284, 315, 521 reputational change, 561–562 reputational clout, 485 reputational consequences, 67, 161, 286, 365, 448 reputational contestation alternative reputations, 422 ambiguity, 457, 525 backlash, 475 breach of privacy, 499
dualities, 457
enhancing reputation by conflict and discord, 422 flux, 456
half-truths, 499
harassment, 499
hoaxes, 499
lies, 499
manipulated photos, 499 paradox, 457, 525 reputational problems, 499 reputational threat, 236, 475 reputational warfare, 422 undermining reputation, 422 reputational crisis, 59, 176, 450, 582 reputational damage, 262, 265, 269, 272, 275, 366, 394, 537 reputational efforts, 66 reputational rankings, (see also league tables), 23, 188, 223, 238, 377, 545, 567
reputational relationships, 97, 198, 205–207, 209, 210 customer service issue, 499
excessive transparency, 456 financial crisis, 499 high risk industries, 99–101 poorly handled natural disasters, 499 product recall, 499 risk, uncertainty, instability, 422 shareholders, investors, financial analysts review risks carefully, 380 targeting unprotected visible and invisible populations, 99–101 research methods in communication and reputation research attitude scales, 565 case studies, 175, 575
closed ended measures, 565
content analysis, 123–124 discourse analysis, 494 ethnography, 494
evaluation methods, 561–573 experiments, 268–270 framing analysis, 191, 410, 424, 462, 489 grounded theory, 494
interpretive research, 128 Kelly repertory grid, 565 multivariate modeling, 385 narrative analysis, 399, 492 network analysis, 168, 176 personal observation, 343 open-end methods, 328
Q methodology, 565 qualitative research, 325 quantitative, 219 semantic network analysis, 168 semiotics, 170 social network analysis, 176, 422 surveys, 198
web analytics, 503
resistance, 23, 170, 176, 218, 230, 241, 394, 422, 450, 453, 486, 494, 548, 549
reputation message resistance, 230
resourced based theory of the firm, 85, 314, 383 respect (see esteem, public) rhetoric, 524
archetypal ethos strategies, 256
as an asset, 249
discursive strategies, 399 ethos strategies, 254–258 framing strategies, 424 legitimizing corporate reputation, 524–525 model and anti-model arguments, 410 politeness strategies, 410 rhetorical strategies, 249, 259, 261, 524, 535 social engagement strategies, 58 strategic influence, 83 strategic responses, 391–392 rhetorical theory, 249–261 fact, value, and policy, 390 argument field, 411
rhetorical enactment, 400 rhetorical model of reputation management, 411 rhetorical exigency, 414
Subject Index

risk (see reputational risk)
communicative risk, 594

S
scales
   Authenticity index, 437 Blame Scale, 267
   Causal Dimension Scale, 277
   Consumer Ethnocentrism (CETSCALE), 361
   Edelman Trust Barometer, 141, 498 External Control Scale, 267 Organization Reputation Perception (ORP) Scale, 268
   Organizational Culture Profile (OCP), 320, 322 Organization-Public Relationship Assessment (OPRA), 332 Perceived Corporate Credibility, 428, 564, 568 Perceptions of Service Quality (SERVQUAL), 360 Personal Control Scale, 267
   RepTrak™, 21, 41, 42, 325, 328, 348, 440, 522, 525, 527, 565, 568, 569 Reputation Quotient™ (RQ), 154, 188, 205, 349, 377, 440, 490, 522, 564, 569 secret signal theory, 384 secrecy as basis for reputation, 547, 554 silence, 554
   simulacra and simulations, 398, 399, 402
   situational theory of crisis, 262–278
   societies, 548–549, 552–553 a narrative for those with incomplete information, 370 social capital theory, 279–290 social cognition theory, 22–23 social exchange theory, 24 social identity theory, 323 social media (see also online communication), 4, 9, 14, 49, 58, 83, 85, 88, 100, 114, 146, 147, 161, 168, 178, 210, 230, 279, 284, 285, 287, 293, 303, 368, 371, 477, 497–512, 538, 539, 540, 562 ability to connect stakeholders, 49 allow individuals to become a collective, 499 ambient publicity, 499
   anonymity, 499
   bloggers, 504
   cyber strategies and digital activists, 368, 427 empowers stakeholders, 499 instant transmission, 499 megaphoning, 204 permanence, 499
   search engines, 210, 501 social media (YouTube, Facebook, Twitter), 303, 368 social media policies, 498 social media profiles and online presence, 58, 502, 506, 507, 554, 555 speed, 499 trolls, 499 use by extremist groups, 561 social movement groups, 423, 425–427, 540 social network effects, 303 social penetration theory, 24 social theory, 369, 495 source, 21, 43, 79, 132, 352
   characteristics, 160
   identity/identification of, 131–132, 135 institutional entrepreneurs, 224, 228
   messenger always accompanies the messenger, 79 neutral source, 36
   passive voice, 410
   reputation not sender oriented alone, 402 source nodes, 294–295 source effects in ad messages, 44 texts do not speak for themselves, 124
   source credibility, 23, 42–43, 44–45, 366 attacking credibility of source, 218 message source credibility, 45 spiral of silence theory, 14, 15, 179 spokesperson(s), 27, 43–45, 47–49, 160, 169, 253, 321, 437, 480, 501, 508 sponsorship, 4, 42, 134, 321 corporate sponsorships, 40, 45, 46, 49, 90, 101, 107, 134, 147, 426, 505 amount and quality of stakeholders’ contributions to the firm, 294 concerned with different performance characteristics, 41 different stakeholders, 41, 323
fit between firms’ activities and (environmental) concerns of stakeholders, 365 highest tier of stake pyramid, 492 partners in reputation development process, 190 perceptions of company actions rather than company actions themselves, 377 relationship with organization, 6
stakeholder perceptions of channel availability, 591 strategies and stakeholders, 253 unbundling stakeholder opinions, 161 stakeholder theory, 339–340, 442 stewardship theory, 340 stigmatization, 36, 54, 206, 548, 551, 553 stigmatized businesses, 548 benefits in the equity markets, 351 defines market expectations, 40 equity performance, 16
favorable stock market valuation, 17 helps companies raise capital, 384 market credibility, 108 mitigate financial damage, 15 storytelling, 187, 192–193, 284, 370, 410, 500, 586, 536 collective strategy, 192 strategic asset, 104, 448
strategic benefits, 575 strategic competitive advantage, 104, 453 strategic concepts, 73
strategic control of the organization, 450 strategic decision making, 59, 84, 131, 192, 198, 202, 308–310, 313–314, 337, 339 strategic focus and direction, 59, 78, 97, 309, 813, 336 strategic HR practices, 323 strategic instruments in decision making, 59 strategic issues management, 388–403 strategic long term view, 88 strategic objectives, 188, 335, 574 strategic partnerships and alliances, 113, 176, 325, 485 strategic planning, 239, 390–391, 400, 405, 413, 414 strategic protocols, 388
strategic resource, 65–66, 383–384, 532 strategic thinking, 109, 413 strategic use of resources, 396 strategic use of tactics, 411 strategic vision, 447–448 strategy maps, 58
structural theory of transnational NGOs, 426 supporters, 15, 84, 398, 469, 503 symbolic interactionism, 185, 193 symbolic management ceremonial activities, 225 corporate aesthetics management, 131 creating images that do not already exist, 41 defend or explain the organization’s actions, 56 defining positions and function, 67 discourse technologists, 65 emphasize culture, identity and identification, 450 enhancement, 94
facework, 26, 490
false flags, 551
fixing meanings and overturning others, 66 focus on attributes of interest to the stakeholder, 325 framing (see frames and framing theory) generate understanding and appreciation of the organization, 56 highlight certain aspects of organization over others, 565 institutional entrepreneurship, 228
managing legitimacy, 535
managing meaning, 65
managing positioning in relation to other organizations, 65 managing stakeholder interpretations of corporate behavior, 65 managing what an organization means, 65 message design (see message design) normalizing and legitimizing ideas, 67 symbolic management (cont’d) outlandish cultural customs, 484 reinforcing positive associations and evaluations, 23

T
talk, 59, 72, 74, 76, 77, 78, 112, 205, 207, 215, 254, 310, 502 tax officials, 555 terror organizations, 548, 551–552 theory of planned behavior, 357, 397, 402 third parties, 4, 6–8, 26, 110, 365, 367, 425, 549 third party endorsement (or third party validation), 14, 26, 216, 255, 256, 501, 540 trade and professional associations, 198, 199 training build competence and motivation of employees, 323 employee training programs, 325 sponsor training sessions on applied ethics, 489 teach employees how to communicate key values to external publics, 322 transactional-process model of communication and reputation, 5, 35 concurrent negotiation of reality, 367 consensus finding, 367 deconstructing meanings in unintended ways, 454 different meanings, 370
divergent assumptions, 370 dynamic, reciprocal process, 368
fixed meanings, 370
keeps unity, causality, and controllability alive, 370 not a fixed script, 370 reducing complexity, variety, and ambiguity, 370 reputation construction, 33 reputation message resistance, 230
semantic traps, 370 simultaneous receipt and transmission of institutional messages, 228 stakeholder involvement, 367 targeted and crafted carefully, 412 unintended messages, 99
and self-disclosure, 24 as behavior on display, 114 business imperative, 538 elements of transparency, 502
excessive transparency, 455–456 indicator of reputation, 570 sharing periodic and accurate information, 441 stakeholders appreciation, 56 transparency and secrecy, 547 transparency of social media policies, 508 transparency of social media, 477, 500–502

U
uncertainty reduction theory, 24, 127, 397
upper echelon theory, 308–309

V
valorization, 592
velcro effect, 265
viral, 427, 499, 507
avoiding visibility to even have reputation, 549

W word of “mouse” (consumer-generated media), 114 workplace civility, 595 workplace democracy, 595