The letter “f” following a page number denotes a figure, “n” denotes a note, and “t” denotes a table.

AA1000 Assurance Standard, 36, 38, 52n19
AA1000 Principles Standard 2003, 38, 52n19, 245–246
Abberley, Paul, 88n60
AccountAbility
definition of materiality and, 123–126, 131
materiality matrix and, 147–148, 165n3
Accounting standards and integrated reporting, 115n23, 207–209
Adam, Mohamed, 16, 28n92
Albert Luthuli Centre for Responsible Leadership, 19n1
American Association of Public Accountants, 282
American Institute of Accountants, report on accounting standards, 294n10
American National Standards Institute, sustainability accounting standards, 73
Anan, Kofi, 8
Apple, Forbes ranking as most valuable brand, 120
Apply or explain, 10, 18n1, 67, 68, 81n5
Arbex, Nelmara, 72

Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), 76
Assurance engagement, 207–208, 218n54, 218n55, 219n57, 219n60, 250n31
Novo Nordisk website Assurance, 249n21
opinion, 42, 216n51
SAP website Auditors Report and Independent Assurance Report, 245–246
Audits and auditors audit opinion, 219n57, 219n60
committee role and responsibilities, 132, 165n53
internal audits, 22n33
nonfinancial information, challenges for auditors, 217n52 role in assessing, 42, 207–209 role in integrated reporting advocacy, 287–289 uniform source of information, 264
Aviva Investors, 65, 67, 88n60
Earth Summit 2012: corporate sustainability reporting, 68
European Briefing: corporate sustainability reporting, 68
Ball, Ian, 76
Banerjee, Jyoti, 274n2, 274n3
BASF, 40
BC Hydro, 40
Berle, Adolf, 130
Black Sun Survey of Companies, 100, 103, 111n5
Bloomberg, Michael, 74
Bombay Stock Exchange, sustainability reporting, 19n5
Boston College Center for Corporate Citizenship survey, 112n6
Botha, Theo, 12
Brazil Stock Exchange integrated reporting requirement, 296n14
sustainability reporting, 19n5
Busch, Lawrence, 283

Cadbury Report, 5, 22n27
CA-Governance, 12, 26n63
CDP, previously Carbon Disclosure Project, 289
collaboration with IIROC, GRI, SASB, 10, 141n31, 289–290
materiality, definition of, 123–126, 134
voluntary disclosure of climate change information, 74–75, 138n23
Ceres, 71, 76, 86n47, 91n87, 138n22
Ceres report faults SEC on climate change financial risks, 138n23 review of Ford’s materiality matrix, 174
Chênevert, Louis, 39
China. See Shenzhen Stock Exchange CSR Guidelines for Listed Companies
Churet, Cecile, 83n19
CK Capital, 87n54, 87n55

Climate change information
CDP, previously Carbon Disclosure Project, 74–75
Climate Disclosure Standards Board (CDSB), 75
SEC requirements, 122–123
Combined reporting, 13, 33, 34, 42, 46, 61, 199, 204, 278n17, 284
Companies. See Corporations
Connectivity. See International <IR> Framework; Materiality matrix study: special factors Corporate Knight list of Global 100 Most Sustainable Corporations, 52n22
Corporate social responsibility, 59 analysis of reporting by companies, 63
benefits and hurdles, 88n60, 99
definition of social accounting, 20n6
moral responsibility of corporate boards, 143n45
NGO influence on, 115n22
organizational changes of integrated reporting, 43 responsibility for, 44, 130
responsibility for ownership and action, 130–132, 141n38 Triple bottom line (TBL), 6, 7, 35–37, 41, 52n23, 241
two-tiered board governance, 143n46
Corporate Sustainability Reporting Coalition (CSRC), 67–68, 86n44
Corporate tools per King and Roberts, 20n10, 20n12. See also Integrated reporting and thinking good corporate governance, 3 integrated thinking, 3, 8
stakeholder relationships, 3 Corporations
benefits and hurdles of integrated reporting, 99–102, 104 duties and privileges of, 130
ESG performance, 171n49
legal status of, 142n40, 142n41
materiality firm specific, 121, 151–152
materiality firm specific (Westphalian Sovereignty), 137n14 ownership apart from transformation of management, 143n43
pyramiding and stock ownership, 142n42
shareholder stock ownership, 144n49
transformational role of reporting, 145n52, 238 Corporations, boards audit committee role and responsibilities, 207–208 moral responsibility of, 143n45
remuneration for board directors, 14
Statement of Significant Audiences and Materiality, 133, 158–159
Crotty, Ann, 15

Daimler, 151, 170n46
materiality matrix, 175–177, 178n14
David, George, 39
de Klerk, Frederik Willem, 3 Deloitte documents, balance of transparency and detail, 16
forward-looking information and, 15
integrated reporting corporate governance, 130
corporate social responsibility, 112n8
remuneration policy disclosure, 14
survey integrated report preparation, 112n6
survey of integrated reporting financial impact, 99, 100t survey of use of nonfinancial information, 103, 112n11, 133
Ernst & Young South Africa (E&Y),
integrated reporting surveys, 10
Esty, Barbara, 247n5
European Commission
directive on environmental and social issues, 64–66, 68, 138n18 proposal for social and environmental issues in annual financial reports, 19n4
European Securities and Market Authority (ESMA) directive, 279n24 European Union, 85n37, 85n38
eXtensible Business Reporting Language (XBRL). See XBRL

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), entity-specific definition of materiality, 135n5
Financial reporting, history of, 282–283
Ford, 151, 170n46
materiality matrix, 173–175
Framework LLC “The Materiality Bridge.” 179
France, Grenelle II, sustainability reporting law, 19n4
Fronesys study of company matrices, 150–151, 165n3, 166n14–166n18, 179

Gartner report, 266, 269
GKN, 40
Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 70–73 collaboration with CDP, 141n31
G2 Guidelines, 35, 38, 53n29
G3 Guidelines, 8, 33
G3 reporting, 62f
G4 Guidelines, 72, 126, 165n7, 215n44, 291
integrated reporting and sustainability reporting, 72
materiality, definition of, 123–126
materiality, role of in, 71, 134
Sustainability Disclosure Database, 61, 81n8, 82n9, 82n14, 191
Greenwashing, avoidance of, 39, 133, 161

Hailes, Julia, 113n14

Harvard Business School, 64
Holmes, William, 121, 127

India. See Bombay Stock Exchange, sustainability reporting Information technology. See also Website reporting audit and validation uniformity, 264
big data, use of, 266–271, 277n16–278n19
business information, gathering and organizing, 262–263 contextual reporting, 270f–271
tegrated reporting practices scenario, 271–274
relational database, 264, 275n5, 276n11–277n15

Institute of Directors in Southern Africa (IoDSA), 5, 22n25

Integrated reporting, accelerators, 97–98. See also Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) accounting firms and associations, 69, 76, 109–111
CDP, previously Carbon Disclosure Project, 69, 74–75
Climate Disclosure Standards Board (CDSB), 69, 75
competition or collaboration of, 106–107, 115n24
Corporate Sustainability Reporting Coalition (CSRC), 67–68
European Commission directive, 64–65
Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 69
Global Initiative for Sustainability Ratings (GISR), 75–76, 94n128
International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), 69
International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 69–70 investment fund endorsements, 78
mandatory regulations and, 64, 84n28, 285–287
South Africa and, 64
SSE Partner Exchange, 67–68
stock exchange listing requirements, 66–67 Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB), 69 terminology and language’s effect, 89n65 Integrated reporting and thinking, 6, 7–10. See also Apply or explain; Corporate tools per King and Roberts; Materiality; South Africa accounting firms’ surveys, 11
adoption, 61–63
awareness, 79–80
benefits and hurdles, 42–44, 82n13, 99–100
CEO letter and integrated thinking, 206–207, 215n41
definition of, 41, 42–43, 45–46
disclosure of competitive information, 11 documents, balance of transparency and detail, 15–17
experimentation and codification balance, 283
history and evolution of, 3–10, 31–34, 37–41
mandates by regulating bodies, 107–109 ratings of companies, 76
regulatory vs. voluntary adoption, 285–287
reporting by companies, 62
South African experience, 10
transformative function, 46, 49, 72, 145n52, 238
Integrated Reporting Committee of South Africa (IRC of SA), 8, 10–11
Discussion Paper, 9–10, 25n46, 45–50, 55n62, 56n65, 61, 81n7, 192 elements of integrated reporting, 45
Framework for Integrated Reporting, 45
Integrated Sustainability Reporting Task Team, King II. See King Report on Corporate Governance
Integrated thinking. See Integrated reporting and thinking International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), 77 sustainability framework, 10
International Integrated Reporting Committee, formation, 70
International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 50. See also International <IR> Framework collaboration and harmonization, 10, 289–290
Corporate Reporting Dialogue, 71 European Commission and, 65
information disclosure, 117n30
integrated thinking contribution, 8, 48–49
materiality, definition of, 123–127
Pilot Programme Business Network, 70, 78, 100, 103, 111n5, 283, 293n8 International Integrated Reporting Council (Continued)
recommendation on voluntary report and website certification, 285 relationship to GRI, SASB and CDP, 289 role of materiality in integrated reporting, 70
Technical Task Force, 2, 56n63
International <IR> Framework, 10, 46–50
analysis of integrated reports using Framework, 191–193, 221–222 connectivity, importance to integrated thinking and reporting, 196, 197, 199, 204, 269 connectivity of information used by RobecoSAM, 63 content elements, 46, 222
content elements in practice, 195 development of, 56n63
Guiding Principles, 46, 49, 195–196, 201–204, 222–223
Guiding Principles in SAP website, 244
materiality, definition of, 127, 133, 223
Natura report and, 36
Novozymes report and, 35
principal accelerator, 69
regulator’s basis for integrated reporting, 108, 117n32 role in possible future development, 290 role of corporate governance, 129–130
six capitals, use of, 192–194, 222
special factors in practice, 200–201
International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO), 107, 116n26
Ioannou, Ioannis, 64
Japan Stewardship Code, 296n15
Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and JSE companies, 1, 6, 7, 10, 16, 19n1, 67
Katovich, John, 73, 92n99
Key Performance Indicators (KPI). See also Materiality audits of, 17–18
EU Accounting Directive inclusion, 68
materiality and, 9
materiality, disclosure and, 12–15, 49–50
Khoza, Reuel, 6
King, Mervin, 2–3, 5–6, 70
King Report on Corporate Governance. See also Corporate tools per King and Roberts
King I, 5–6
King II, 6–7, 23n33
King III, 1, 7–8, 14, 16, 19n1, 23n37, 24n43
KKR, ESG report, 114n20
KPMG benchmarking of most relevant KPI’s, 13
forward-looking information and, 15
integrated reporting encouragement, 69
integrated reporting surveys, 11–12
Ligtering, Ernst, 66, 70
London Business School, 64
Loss, Louis, 119, 121
Lydenberg, Steve, 73, 92n100
Mandela, Nelson, 3
Massie, Bob, 91n87
Materiality
analogy to legal definition of fraud, 121, 137n11 basis for integrated reporting, 70
country differences, 136n8
definition of, 119–121, 123–127, 134n4
distinctions between company and societal benefits, 128–129 effort for inclusion from CSRC for companies, 68, 86n44 European Commission directive and, 66 identifying importance to company, 149
legal construction of commercial materiality, 134n2, 134n3 positive or negative perception by corporate board, 144n48
SAP website treatment, 244
Statement of Significant Audiences and Materiality, 132–133
Materiality matrix
company comparison (Ford and Daimler), 151, 170n46
company use of matrix, 156, 168n37, 169n39
expanded information on websites, 156
Fronesys study of company matrices, 150–151, 166n14–166n18
history and evolution of, 147–149
insight into significance of issues, 155, 176 material issues, 153, 166n9
matrix axis definition and labels, 154–155, 168n31, 174, 175–176 process of preparation, 150
stakeholder engagement at Kepco, 154f stakeholder identification and engagement, 152–153, 176
use by stakeholder and company, 149–150 Materiality matrix studies, 181t–188t. See also International <IR> Framework analysis of integrated reports, methodology, 191–192 content elements, results and analysis, 194–196
Framework LLC “The Materiality Bridge,” 179
Fronesys study of company matrices, 179
methodology of, 221
RobecoSAM “Corporate Sustainability Assessment,” 179
six capitals, use of, 192–194, 222
Materiality matrix study: capital financial, 210n6
human, 210n9
intellectual, 210n8
manufactured, 210n7, 211n13
natural, 211n11
social and relationship, 210n10
Materiality matrix study: content element business model, 197, 212n18, 213n26
designs, 211n23–213n23
governance, 196–197, 211n15, 213n24
organization and perspective, 196, 211n14, 213n3 outlook, 199–200, 212n20, 214n3
performance, 198–199, 212n19
risks and opportunities, 198, 211n16, 213n29 strategy and resource allocation, 198, 212n17, 213n31
Materiality matrix study: special factors analysis of, 200–201, 222
CEO letter and integrated thinking, 206–207, 215n41
connectivity of information, 204–205, 213n33, 214n39, 216n47
materiality, 202
material risks, 214n37
stakeholder engagement, 202–204, 214n38
website content, 205–206, 215n40, 216n50
Mayer, Colin, 130
McElroy, Mark, 166n9
Means, Gardiner, 130
Monterio, Brad, 274n2

National Business Initiative, 16, 28n92
Natura, 33, 35–36, 40, 52n20
Nkonki, annual awards program, 11
Nonfinancial information. See also Corporate social responsibility auditors’ role in assessing, 42, 207–209, 217n52
   early mentions, 40
   environmental, social and governance (ESG), 19n3, 33, 35, 71
   financial relationship, 250n27
   financial relationship, SAP website treatment, 245 life cycle assessment (LCA), 36
   materiality of, 135n7
   supply chain management, 36
Novartis, 40
Novo Nordisk, 33, 40, 52n22, 55n41
   patient, statement of importance of, 249n19
   Triple bottom line and, 37
   website features, 241–243
   website reporting, 249n21
Novozymes, 33, 34, 51n10–51n12, 55n41
Payne, Nigel, 17
Philips, 33, 38–40
   website features, 243
PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) analysis of nonfinancial reporting, 13, 26n66
forward-looking information and, 15
   integrated reporting encouragement, 69
   integrated reporting surveys, 10
   remuneration policy disclosure, 14
Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), 8, 24n38
Ramananthan, Ramesh, 293n10
Recommendations
   Big Four auditing firms should advocate for integrated reporting, 289 key organizations should work together, 290 possible scenario of integrated reporting future, 290 strategy to speed adoption of integrated reporting, 287 voluntary report and website certification by IIRC, 285
Rio+20 (Conference on Sustainable Development), 67–68, 88n63, 295n12
Riisgaard, Steen, 34–35
Risk analysis, 165n6
RobecoSAM, 63, 83n19
RobecoSAM “Corporate Sustainability Assessment,” 179
Index

Roberts, George, 114n20
Roberts, Leigh, 2–3
Rogers, Jean, 73

SAP, website features, 243–246
Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, 145n53, 282, 293n6
SAS Group, 40
Schapiro, Mary, 74
Schulschenk, Jess, 19n1
Searle, John, 120, 121
Securities Act of 1933, 282, 294n10
Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, 282
Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 115n24 accounting and auditing policy responsibility, 293n6 auditors reports, acceptance of, 216n51 climate change disclosure requirements, 122–123 definition of materiality, 74, 93n108 integrated reporting litigation, study of, 112n8
materiality guidance rules, 139n24
role in mandating integrated reporting, 107–108, 115n25
Serafeim, George, 64
Shareholders and stakeholders, 5–6, 22n30
benefits to, 37, 49
fiduciary duty of board to, 131–132
<IR> Framework definition of, 57n75
materiality, determination of, 122, 148

moral responsibility of corporate boards, 143n45
Novo Nordisk website and stakeholder engagement, 242
SAP website and stakeholder engagement, 244
stakeholder classification, 170n45
stakeholder engagement, 126, 127, 132, 133, 148, 149, 177
Statement of Significant Audiences and Materiality, 132–133, 158–159
Shenzhen Stock Exchange CSR Guidelines for Listed Companies, 297n16
“silos reporting,” 13
Social accounting. See Corporate social responsibility
Solstice Sustainability Works, 41–42, 43
South Africa, 18, 20n13, 26n61. See also Integrated Reporting Committee of South Africa (IRC of SA); King Report on Corporate Governance
Albert Luthuli Centre for Responsible Leadership, 11
apartheid, end of, 3–4, 21n15
apply or explain use, 1, 3, 7
Chartered Secretaries Southern Africa, 11
Close Corporation Act of 1984, 21n18
Companies Act No. 71 of 2008, 7, 23n37, 24n43, 26n61
Companies Act of 1973, 4–5, 21n18
foreign direct investment, 4f
National Framework for Sustainable Development, 7
South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA), 16
Stock exchanges
Bombay Stock Exchange, 19n5
Brazil stock exchange, 19n5, 296n14
Johannesburg Stock Exchange, 1, 6, 7, 10, 16
Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and JSE companies, 19n1
Shenzhen Stock Exchange, 297n16
U.S. Stock Exchange, 73
Sustainability. See also Corporate social responsibility Sustainability
corporate governance integration, 7–8, 34
definition of, 6, 80n1
Global Initiative for Sustainability Ratings (GISR), 75–76, 94n128
mandatory regulations and, 84n28
materiality and, 9
ratings of companies, 76, 87n55
reporting by companies, 62, 69, 83n17 standards in U.S., 73–74
SustainAbility, 113n14
survey of importance of ESG data, 103
Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB), 73–74, 76, 92n101, 93n108
ESG issues identification, 133–134
materiality, definition of, 123–126, 140n28
pharmaceutical issues, 163t–164t
Sustainable Investments Institute, 62
Sustainable Stock Index, 7
Sustainable Value Matrix (SVM), 45, 159f
benefits and hurdles, 170n48
comparisons across companies, 157
hypothetical SVM for a pharmaceutical company, 161–162f “material and significant” defined and displayed, 159–161 opportunity for improved ESG performance, 171n49
stakeholder classification, 170n45
Tellus Institute, 40, 71, 91n88
Terry, Graham, 16
The Netherlands. See Philips
The Prince’s Accounting for Sustainability Project (A4S), 70, 90n74
Tilly, Charles, 81n4
Topping, Nigel, 75
Triple bottom line. See Corporate social responsibility
UBS, 168n37
Ubuntu, 6
United Kingdom, Cadbury Report, 5, 22n27
United Nations. See also Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI): Rio+20 (Conference on Sustainable Development)
Committee on Governance and Oversight, 8, 24n44
Global Compact, 53n30, 71
Sustainable Development Goals, 295n12, 295n13
Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative, 19n5, 66–67
United States. See also United Technologies Corporation (UTC) integrated reporting adoption in, 61
United Technologies Corporation (UTC), 33, 38–40
U.S. Stock Exchange, sustainability standards from SASB, 73
Vancity, 41
Watson, Liv, 274n2
Waygood, Steve, 65–67
Website reporting
Ford interactive features, 173
hyperlinks on company website, 46
Internet and electronic role, 17
Novo Nordisk, 241–243
Novozymes CD-ROM and internet, 34–35
Philips, 38, 243
SAP, 243–246
Website reporting study analysis of company websites, 227, 248n13
analysis of features used, 238, 239t, 240t category analysis by company criteria, 232t–233t, 237t category analysis by country, 230–231t, 236t category analysis by region, 229t–230, 235t
category analysis by SASB sector, 227–228t, 234t
Fortune 500, 226, 246n1, 246n4
identity of companies, 226
methodology, 226–227, 247n5–248n12, 253–260
Website reporting study categories connectivity, 227
financial transparency, 227
interactivity, 227
sustainability transparency, 227
utility, 227
White, Allen, 40, 41, 76, 91n88
White, Mary Jo, 107–108
Wood, Christy, 73
World Federation of Exchanges, 1, 83n15
sustainability reporting, 19n5
uniform standards for sustainability initiative, 86n47 World Market Basket (hypothetical company) assurance reporting, 273
business information, availability and use, 273–274
contextual reporting, 272
outsourced IT service and consulting, 273
Statement of Significant Audiences and Materiality, 272
Sustainable Value Matrix (SVM), 272, 274
XBRL, 17, 28n96, 238, 275n6
Yawitch, Jo-Anne, 16