Index

Abuse, 23
Achievements, personal, 130
Aggressive communication, 139–140, 146
Amenorrhoea (infrequent/absent periods), 72
American Psychiatric Association (APA), 7–8
Ankles, cold/swollen, 72
Anorexia Nervosa and Related Eating Disorders (ANRED), 161
Appearance, in anorexia, 73
Assertiveness, 30–31, 137–150
advantages of, 143–144
assertive behaviour, 147
assertive talk, 147
assertive thoughts, 147–148
assessing your level of, 140, 149–150 defining, 138–139
developing your, 146–148
difficulties with, 145–146
human rights and, 30–31, 141–148
misinterpreting as aggression, 146 useful tips, 148
Attention-seeking, being accused of, 154–155
Bad days, 99–100, 124–125
Benefits of anorexia nervosa, 16, 85–86, 96–98
‘Binge/purging types’, 18–19
Bingeing, 18–19, 40, 71, 153
see also purging; vomiting
Bladder problems, 72
Bloatedness, feelings of, 132–133
Body image, 24, 26
difficulties with, 2
distortion of, 40, 69, 75, 77, 79
media messages regarding, 49
other people’s, 76–77
Body language, 147
Body weight see weight
Bones, 73
Boundaries, 16
Boys, prevalence of anorexia amongst, 2–3, 40, 151
Brain
exercises for, 128
shrinkage, 73
Breathing triangle technique, 127
Bruch, Hilde, 10
Bulimia nervosa, 2, 153
Bullying qualities of anorexia, 87–88, 91
Case stories/snippets, 93–95, 157–159
Causes of anorexia, 22–24, 41–43, 47–57 avoidance of the challenges of puberty argument, 23 biochemical factors, 23–24 cultural factors, 12, 24, 48–49 environmental factors, 23, 48–49 family factors, 23, 49–50 genetic factors, 23, 48
gradual onset, 47
multifactorial nature, 24
personal factors, 50–51, 152
CBT see cognitive-behavioural therapy Change, 27–30, 93–105
coping strategies, 93
good/bad days, 99–100
importance of, 28–29, 102
motivation to, 17, 28 overwhelming nature of, 51 reasons for, 29, 103
stages of readiness for/cycle of, 99–100, 101
tasks to help with, 28–30, 96–98, 101–105
trans-theoretical model of, 1, 9–10
Children, ability to have, 72
Clinical psychologists, 3
Cognitive analytic therapy, 8
Cognitive-behavioural therapy (CBT), 1 areas of focus, 10
collaborative nature of, 10
definition, 8, 10–11
efficacy, 8
psycho-education as central part of, 12 tasks based on, 29
techniques for recovery, 31
Cold, feeling the, 72
Comorbidity, 153
Concentration difficulties, 71, 73
Confidence, 28–29, 104
Confidentiality, 5, 16
Constipation, 72
Control
beating anorexia’s over you, 120–121, 126, 144 gaining a sense of through anorexia, 11, 16, 42, 51, 79, 109, 155 gaining a sense of through therapy, 16, 120 loss of a sense of, 11, 18, 133
when anorexia takes away your sense of, 94, 95, 155
Coping strategies, anorexia as, 42, 93, 94–95, 105, 151
Cortisol, 24
Counsellors, 3
Critical thoughts, 116, 118
Cruel nature of anorexia, 122
Cultural context, 12, 24, 48–49

Defining anorexia nervosa, 21–22, 39–46
Denial of anorexia nervosa, 22, 152
Diarrhoea, 72
Diary keeping, 108, 124, 125
Diet pills, 71
Dieticians, 132
Dieting
effects of, 25, 59–67
as one of the main triggers of anorexia, 59 yo-yo, 60
Digestive system, 72
Distraction techniques, 127–128
Distress, dealing with, 18
Dizziness, 72
Eating Disorders Association (EDA), 3, 161
Effects of anorexia, 25–26, 69–78 changes in the way you think and see things, 69 changes in what you do, 70–71 emotional changes, 70
on other people, 73–74
physical, 71–73, 93
psychological, 70, 71
Emotional awareness, 18
Emotional causes of anorexia, 41
Emotional changes of anorexia, 70
Empathy, 17–18
Environmental causes of anorexia, 70
Environmental causes of anorexia, 23, 48–49
Expectations, high, 42
Externalisation, 2, 17, 27
Eye contact, 147
Failure, sense of, 42
Families
anorexia’s control of, 22
closeness to, 82
effects of anorexia on, 73–74, 134
food intake monitoring by, 15 lack of understanding in, 79 role in the development of anorexia, 23, 49–50 using teamwork to beat anorexia, 131–132
trusting, 112
when eating disorders run in, 23, 48
Family therapy, 8, 134
Nation’s Voice on Mental Illness (NAMI), 162
Negative thoughts, 116, 118
Non-resistance, 18
Norepinephrine levels, 23–24
Nurses, 3, 132
Occupational therapists, 3, 132
Onset of anorexia
age of, 2
gradual nature, 47
Osteoporosis, 73
Ovaries, shrinkage, 72, 73
Panicky feelings, 127
Parcel technique, 127
Passive communication, 139–140, 146
Perceptual disturbances, 69
Perfectionism, 50
Periods, infrequent/absent (amenorrhoea), 72
Personality, 22, 50–51
Physical effects of anorexia, 71–73, 93
of dieting, 59–60
of starvation, 13, 25, 60, 71–73, 79, 132
Physical exercise, excessive, 40, 71
Politeness, excessive, 146
Potassium levels, 73
Prevalence of anorexia, 2–3, 24, 39, 40, 151
Pro-anorexia websites, 162
Problems, anorexia as a coping strategy for, 42, 93, 94–95, 105, 151
Psychiatrists, 3, 132
Psycho-education
definition, 8–9, 11–13
key issues addressed by, 12–13 Psychological effects
of anorexia, 23, 39–40, 70, 71
of dieting, 60–62
of starvation, 12, 25, 60–62
Psychological interventions, 1, 7–13, 94–95, 133–135 consistency, 16
difficulties of working with anorexics, 32
drop-out rates, 11, 17
efficacy, 8
ending, 31–32
factors facilitating recovery, 11 goals, 7–8
group therapy, 3–4, 134–135
individual therapy, 134 patients’ needs, 11–12
patients’ views on, 11
pre-treatment evaluation, 8 skills and techniques, 15, 17–19
therapeutic challenges, 15–19
threshold for, 15
treatment goals, 7–8
see also specific therapies
Psychologists, 3, 132
Psychotherapy, 1
Puberty
avoidance of the challenges of, 23 overwhelming nature of the changes of, 51
Punishing nature of anorexia, 122
Purging, 18–19, 40
see also binging; vomiting Reality testing, 114–115
Recognising anorexia, 107
Recovery see change; getting better
Reframing, 19
Relapses, 18–19, 151
Resistance, rolling with, 18
Responsibility, taking, 144
‘Restricting types’, 21, 40, 153
Rewards of anorexia nervosa, 16, 85–86, 96–98
Rights, 30–31, 141–148
Royal College of Psychiatrists, 3
Rules for living, 109–111
‘Safe’ foods, 153
School nurses, 132
Secondary gains of anorexia nervosa, 16, 85–86, 96–98
Self-confidence, 144
Self-esteem, 42, 51
Your journey, 56
Your own questions, 156
Your story, 24, 53
Teachers, 73, 132
Teamwork, 30, 131–136
identifying your team, 136 putting on weight, 131–133 understanding anorexia, 133–135
Therapeutic challenges, 15–19
physical issues, 15
psychological issues, 16–17
Therapeutic skills and techniques, 15, 17–19
Therapists
personal relationship with food/weight, 16–17
trusting your, 112
Thoughts
assertive, 147–148
critical/negative, 116, 118
cruel/punishing, 122
distracting yourself from anorexic, 127–128
Timelines, 57
Tiredness, 71–72
Tooth decay, 73
Trans-theoretical model of change, 1, 9–10
Transitional objects, 32, 128
Traps/tricks of anorexia, 27, 85–92, 155
anorexia as the worst bully, 87–88, 91
anorexia as your best friend, 85–86, 90
lies of anorexia, 114–115
Traumatic events, 23, 50
Trust, 112
Twin studies, 48
Uterus, shrinkage, 72, 73
Vasopressin, 24
Visual disturbances, 69
Visualising anorexia, 22, 46
Vomiting, 71, 73, 153
see also purging
Water retention, 153
Weakness, 71–72
Weight
achieving a healthy level, 93, 131–133 fear of gaining, 39, 70, 79, 154 loss of a sense of control when you gain, 133
natural fluctuations in, 153–154
set-point theory of, 12, 25, 59–60, 61, 131–133
White blood cells, 73
Women, prevalence of anorexia amongst, 24, 40
Wound healing, 73
Young Minds, 162